A Quick Word

This series of studies aims to present a compilation of the Bible’s teachings in a clear and readable order. There are 40 booklets in the series, based on the 40 chapters of the book The Bible Unpacked - Comprehensive Edition. Each booklet has two sections, which can be used for two or more studies.

See Topics in This Series towards the end of this booklet for a full listing of all the topics. Note that studying booklets alternatively from the two major sections (What to Know and What to Do) would add variety.

The material contains Bible verses. Before the verses are headings, which reflect what the verses say – in particular the parts of the verses in italics. The verses are sometimes followed by a comment.

The verses often have a brief introduction. Usually these state who is speaking and often who they are speaking to. Apart from God and Jesus Christ, the main speakers are:

- Moses – who lead the Israelites and taught them God’s laws;
- David – Israel’s greatest king who wrote many of the psalms, most of which are essentially prayers;
- Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel and other prophets – who spoke to the people of Israel on God’s behalf; and
- Paul, Peter, John and other leaders of the early church – who spoke to various groups and wrote letters to believers.

Much care has been taken in order to correctly interpret the verses. Nevertheless, if you encounter a verse that is used to teach something that is contrary to or goes beyond your understanding, assess its use by doing such things as: reading the passage it is from; and considering how its teaching fits in with Scripture as a whole (e.g. interpret OT teaching in the light of NT teaching).

Suggestions for Study Groups

Preliminary matters:

• Beforehand the leader should: check the context of any verses they are not familiar with; and review the questions. If need be, they should compose questions more applicable to the group.

• Each person should have a Bible, for things such as checking a verse’s context. It would also be helpful to have Bible commentaries on hand.

• Pray before beginning the study. Ask God for help in understanding the meaning of the verses and to affect your lives through them. Also pray together at the end.

Doing the study:

• Ideally, read the material and answer the questions prior to the meeting. Then share answers and discuss any issues arising from the material in the meeting.

• Alternatively, read the material and answer the questions in the meeting – reading either aloud as a group or individually (prior to sharing answers). If reading as a group, try having one person read the headings, another read the verses and another read the comments. Additionally, a fourth person could read the Bible references.

General or concluding questions:

If time permits, conclude with one or more of the following questions:

• What is something that you either: did not know before; gained greater insight into; or needed reminding of?

• What verse would be helpful to memorize and bear in mind during the next week?

• In taking the verses seriously, is there anything you should change in:
  (a) how you relate to God and/or to other people; or
  (b) any other area of your life (e.g. attitudes, values or behavior)?
If so, are there any specific steps you could take to do this?
The Bible contains discerning insights and directions regarding relationships with those who are closest to us. As such these teachings are among the ones which are the most often applicable to our lives.
a) Prologue: Getting Married

Issues in deciding whether to stay single or to marry: General; . . .

1Cor 7:1–2 [Paul, to the Corinthian believers:] Now, to deal with the matters you wrote about. A man does well not to marry. 2 But because there is so much immorality, every man should have his own wife, and every woman should have her own husband. GNT

In v. 1, Paul may have in mind staying single so as to be devoted to God’s kingdom (cf. vv. 7; 32–35) and/or for one’s own sake (cf. vv. 26–28, 40). Alternatively, he may simply be quoting a statement the Corinthians had written. In v. 2 Paul apparently is referring to extensive sexual immorality that was prevalent in Corinth at the time. He raises the immorality as a reason to have one’s own spouse, to satisfy one’s sexual desires (cf. vv. 3–5) and so to help avoid the immorality.

. . . Forsaking marriage for Jesus Christ

1Cor 7:32–35 [Paul, to believers:] I would like you to be free from worry. An unmarried man concerns himself with the Lord’s work, because he is trying to please the Lord. 33 But a married man concerns himself with worldly matters, because he wants to please his wife; 34 and so he is pulled in two directions. An unmarried woman or a virgin concerns herself with the Lord’s work, because she wants to be dedicated both in body and spirit; but a married woman concerns herself with worldly matters, because she wants to please her husband. 35 I am saying this because I want to help you. I am not trying to put restrictions on you. Instead, I want you to do what is right and proper, and to give yourselves completely to the Lord’s service without any reservation. GNT

Paul effectively is urging those who are single to remain as such, so as to be completely devoted to the Lord.

Do not marry outside of God’s people – particularly as it can result in being led astray

2Cor 6:14–15 [Paul, to believers:] Do not become partners with those who do not believe, for what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship does light have with darkness? And what agreement does Christ have with Beliar? Or what does a believer share in common with an unbeliever? NET

Deut 7:3–4  [Moses, warning the Israelites about intermarriage with pagan nations:] You must not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons, for they will turn your sons away from me to worship other gods. Then the anger of the LORD will erupt against you and he will quickly destroy you. NET

Such warnings to Israel are at least to some extent applicable to believers marrying outside of God’s people, i.e. marrying a non-believer. For in doing so one runs the risk of compromising one’s devotion to God.

A person should have only one spouse

Titus 1:6  An elder must be blameless, the husband of one wife, with faithful children who cannot be charged with dissipation or rebellion. NET

Remarriage and adultery

Matt 19:9  [Jesus:] And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. ESV

Matt 5:32  [Jesus:] But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. ESV

The assertion that a man who divorces his wife actually “makes her commit adultery”, may have in view the need and inevitability of remarriage for a woman in ancient times in order to have a means of provision.
What factors should a single Christian consider in deciding if they should not marry for the sake of the Lord?

Is it wrong to date or “go steady” with a non-Christian?

Is it permissible to remarry after divorce?

Pray for persecuted Christians
b) Spouses (I): General

A husband and wife should be as one, which involves sexual union

Gen 2:22–24  The LORD God used the rib from the man [Adam] to make a woman [Eve], and then he brought the woman to the man.

23 And the man said, “Now, this is someone whose bones came from my bones, whose body came from my body. I will call her ‘woman,’ because she was taken out of man.” 24 So a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, and the two will become one body.

Just as originally the man and the woman were of the one body (vv. 22–23), so a husband and wife will be united as “one body” (v. 24). The term “one body” appears to encompass a oneness in spirit, and is signified and expressed through sexual bonding. The use of the term also implies a lifelong, monogamous relationship.

Husbands should love their wives

Eph 5:25, 33  Husband, love your wives just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for her ... 33 Nevertheless, each one of you must also love his own wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

The directive for husbands to love their wives “just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for her” (v. 25) is both daunting and inspirational. It calls for a love that is ever persistent and is all surpassing, even to the point of sacrificing one’s life.

Wives should submit to their husbands

Eph 5:22–24  Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. 24 Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands.

Such submission should be voluntary and willing. The corresponding authority of the husband is not about control and should only be practiced in a Christ-like manner and in love, which should characterize all he does in relating to his wife.
Do not commit adultery – which brings God’s judgment

Ex 20:14 You shall not commit adultery.
NET

Heb 13:4 Let marriage be kept honorable in every way, and the marriage bed undefiled. For God will judge those who commit sexual sins, especially those who commit adultery.
ISV

Avoid divorce – it is contrary to God’s purposes

Matt 19:3–8 Then some Pharisees came to him [Jesus] in order to test him. They asked, “Is it lawful to divorce a wife for any cause?” 4 He answered, “Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator made them male and female, 5 and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and will be united with his wife, and the two will become one flesh’? 6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.” 7 They said to him, “Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her?” 8 Jesus said to them, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of your hard hearts, but from the beginning it was not this way.
NET

The implication of the two OT quotations (vv. 4–5), as made clear in v. 6, is that God has purposed that husband and wife be one – which divorce is contrary to. Moses permitted divorce because of people’s “hard-hearted wickedness” (NLT), with their innate unwillingness or incapacity to embrace his teaching (cf. GNT, NCV). But the permitting of divorce was not part of God’s original purpose (v. 8; cf. CEV, NLT), and as such falls well short of what is ideal.

What are some specific things husbands should do in applying the teaching regarding loving their wives?

c) Spouses (II): Romantic Love

Note that most of the verses in this section are from the book “Song of Songs” (or “Song of Solomon”). Bear in mind that it is largely composed of speech by a man and a woman, possibly from both their courtship and marriage.

The marvel of love

PROV 30:18–19 [AGUR:] There are three things that are too hard for me, really four I don’t understand: the way an eagle flies in the sky, the way a snake slides over a rock, the way a ship sails on the sea, and the way a man and a woman fall in love.

SONG 8:6b–7
For love is as strong as death, passion is as unrelenting as Sheol. Its flames burst forth, it is a blazing flame. Surging waters cannot quench love; floodwaters cannot overflow it. If someone were to offer all his possessions to buy love, the offer would be utterly despised.

The Hebrew translated here as “a blazing flame” (v. 6b) has been interpreted by some to allude to God as being the source of love (cf. AMP, ESV, ISV, NASB). Verse 7b indicates that love cannot be bought. It points to love’s incalculable worth and shows that it is beyond the realm of riches.

Spouses and their love belong exclusively to each other

SONG 2:16
My lover is mine and I am his; he grazes among the lilies.

PROV 5:15–19
Drink water from your own cistern, and fresh water from your own well. Should your springs flow outside, or streams of water in the street? They should be for you alone and not for strangers with you. Let your fountain be blessed and enjoy the wife of your youth. Like a loving deer and a beautiful doe, let her breasts satisfy you all the time. Be constantly intoxicated by her love.

There are different interpretations of the imagery in verses 16–17, but it is clear that their basic thrust is that one should enjoy sexual relationships exclusively with one’s spouse. This also appears to be the main thought behind the rest of the passage.
Further insights on love

SONG 2:7 [The woman:] I adjure you, O maidens of Jerusalem, by the gazelles and by the young does of the open fields: Do not awaken or arouse love until it pleases! NET

One should not try to stimulate or forcibly ignite love; such love is at best superficial and not true love. Love is spontaneous and instinctive; it comes when “it pleases” – when “it is ready” (CEV, NCV, NRSV).

SONG 5:16b [The woman:] Yes, daughters of Jerusalem, this is my lover and my friend. NCV™

This reflects the fact that friendship is an important aspect of romantic love.

Examples and declarations of love

GEN 29:20 So Jacob worked for Laban seven years so he could marry Rachel. But they seemed like just a few days to him because he loved Rachel very much. NCV™

SONG 2:5 [The woman:] Sustain me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples, for I am faint with love. NET

SONG 4:9 [The man:] You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride! You have stolen my heart with one glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace. NET

Desire for and enjoyment of sexual intimacy with one’s lover

SONG 4:6 [The man:] Until the dawn arrives and the shadows flee, I will go up to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense. NET

SONG 5:1a [The man:] I have entered my garden, O my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh with my balsam spice. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk! NET

As illustrated in the above verses, Song of Songs contains beautiful but also sensual poetry, but is never crude. The sensual parts are often comprised of imagery, notably imagery involving sensuous aspects of nature. This is exemplified in the above verses by the use of metaphors for the woman/wife with her pleasures.
What is so hard to understand about “the way a man and a woman fall in love” (Prov 30:18–19)?

What is meant by “Do not awaken or arouse love until it pleases” (Song of Songs 2:7)?

What other aspects of marriage promote enjoyable sexual intimacy?
d) Parents’ Duties to Children (I): Love and Care

Parents should love their children . . .

Titus 2:4 [Paul, speaking of women in the church:] In this way they [older women] will train the younger women to love their husbands, to love their children, ... NET

Prov 13:24 The one who spares his rod hates his child, but the one who loves his child is diligent in disciplining him. NET

This implies that one ought to love one’s child.

. . . and parents should have compassion on their children

Ps 103:13 As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on his faithful followers. NET

Isa 49:15a Can a woman forget her baby who nurses at her breast? Can she withhold compassion from the child she has borne? NET

Parents should care for their children

1Thes 2:7 [Paul, to the Thessalonian believers:] But we were gentle when we were with you, like a mother taking care of her children. GNT

Deut 1:31b [Moses, speaking to the Israelites of God’s care:] You saw how he brought you safely all the way to this place, just as a father would carry his son. GNT

As such, parents should provide for their children . . .

Prov 31:15, 21 She [a wife of noble character] also gets up while it is still night, and provides food for her household and a portion to her female servants. ... 21She is not afraid of the snow for her household, for all of her household are clothed with scarlet. NET

The reference to being “clothed with scarlet” (v. 21) appears to refer to quality, warm clothing (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

. . . and parents should pray for their children

1Chr 29:19 [David, to God:] Make my son Solomon willing to obey your commands, rules, and regulations, and to complete building the palace for which I have made preparations. NET

Mark 5:22–23 Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came up, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet. 23 He asked him urgently, “My little daughter is near death. Come and lay your hands on her so that she may be healed and live.”

The father’s request of Jesus on behalf of his daughter is effectively an example of a parent’s prayer for their child.

e) Parents’ Duties to Children (II): Godly Training

Parents should raise their children to live as God wants . . .

EPH 6:4 Fathers, do not make your children angry, but raise them with the training and teaching of the Lord. NCV™

DEUT 32:46 [Moses, to the Israelites:] Keep in mind all the words I am solemnly proclaiming to you today; you must command your children to observe carefully all the words of this law. NET

. . . In doing so, parents should discipline their children

PROV 19:18 Discipline your children while they are young enough to learn. If you don’t, you are helping them to destroy themselves. GNT

HEB 12:9A Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. ESV

Parents should teach their children about God and his deeds, inspiring them to obey God . . .

PS 78:4b–7 We will tell the next generation about the LORD’s praiseworthy acts, about his strength and the amazing things he has done. 5He established a rule in Jacob; he set up a law in Israel. He commanded our ancestors to make his deeds known to their descendants, 6so that the next generation, children yet to be born, might know about them. They will grow up and tell their descendants about them. 7Then they will place their confidence in God. They will not forget the works of God, and they will obey his commands.* NET

This speaks of parents telling their children of God’s deeds and power. Verse 7 then concludes that in light of God’s wonderful deeds for them, the children would trust God and obey his commands.

. . . Similarly, parents should promote faith in their children

See also:

- Ps 78:7

2Tim 3:14–15 [Paul, to Timothy:] You, however, must continue in the things you have learned and are confident about. You know who taught you 15*and how from infancy you have known the holy writings,* which are able to give you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. NET

Particularly in the light of the reference to Timothy having known the Scriptures “from infancy” (v. 15), “who taught you” (v. 14) would be inclusive of – and probably primarily speaking of – Timothy’s grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice (cf. 2Tim 1:5). By likewise teaching children the Scriptures, parents work towards giving them “wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus” (v. 15).

f) Children’s Duties to Parents

Children are to honor and respect their parents

EPH 6:2–3  “Honor your father and mother,” which is the first commandment accompanied by a promise, namely, \(^3\)“that it may go well with you and that you will live a long time on the earth.”  NET

LEV 19:3  [GOD:]  Each of you must respect his mother and his father, and you must keep my Sabbaths. I am the LORD your God.  NET

Children are to obey their parents . . .

COL 3:20  Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.  ESV

. . . and children should heed their parents’ teaching — which brings great benefits

PROV 6:20–23  [A WISE FATHER, TO HIS SON:]  My son, keep your father’s commands, and don’t forget your mother’s teaching.  \(^21\)Keep their words in mind forever as though you had them tied around your neck.  \(^22\)They will guide you when you walk. They will guard you when you sleep. They will speak to you when you are awake.  \(^23\)These commands are like a lamp; this teaching is like a light. And the correction that comes from them will help you have life.  NCV™

“They will guard you when you sleep” (v. 22) speaks of the security or protection that living by such teaching provides.

Children are to help their parents . . .

1TIM 5:4  But if a widow has children or grandchildren, they should first learn to fulfill their duty toward their own household and so repay their parents what is owed them. For this is what pleases God.  NET

. . . Indeed, one should assist any relative in need

1TIM 5:8  [PAUL, TO TIMOTHY:]  If anyone does not take care of his own relatives, especially his immediate family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.  ISV
What are some ways in which children can honor their parents?

Are there any commands or teachings of your parents that you find/found hard to accept? If they were valid ones, how could you better impart them to your children?

What other things could you do for your parents and/or grandparents?

In addition to relationships with family members, the Bible looks at other relationships which have a marked effect on our lives. In doing so, it gives wise and challenging teaching regarding relationships between citizens and governing authorities, and between employees and employers.
a) Citizens’ Duties to Authorities

Citizens should submit to and obey the governing authorities, . . .

Titus 3:1 [Paul, instructing Titus what to teach believers:] Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work. NET

As with the command “be subject to”, the command to “be obedient” is also given in regard to “rulers and authorities”.

. . . for the authorities have been established by God and they will punish wrongdoers

Rom 13:1–3 Every person should obey the government in power. No government would exist if it hadn’t been established by God. The governments which exist have been put in place by God. 2 Therefore, whoever resists the government opposes what God has established. Those who resist will bring punishment on themselves. 3 People who do what is right don’t have to be afraid of the government. But people who do what is wrong should be afraid of it. GW

However, citizens should defy any command that conflicts with God’s will

Dan 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar spoke up and said: ‘Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego! He sent his angel to deliver his servants who trusted in him. They disobeyed the king’s command and were willing to risk their lives in order not to serve or worship any god except their own God. ISV

Acts 5:27–29 When they brought back the apostles, they made them stand in front of the council. The chief priest questioned them. 28 He said, “We gave you strict orders not to mention Jesus’ name when you teach. Yet, you’ve filled Jerusalem with your teachings. You want to take revenge on us for putting that man to death.” 29 Peter and the other apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than people. GW

Citizens should honor authorities

1Pet 2:17 Show respect for all people: Love the brothers and sisters of God’s family, respect God, honor the king. NCV™
Citizens should pray for authorities

1Tim 2:1–2  [Paul:] First of all, then, I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanks be offered on behalf of all people, even for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. NET

b) Authorities’ Duties to Citizens (I): General

Governing authorities should act and rule according to God’s law and ways

Deut 17:18–20 [Moses, giving instructions for a king:] When he sits on his royal throne he must make a copy of this law on a scroll given to him by the Levitical priests. 19 It must be with him constantly and he must read it as long as he lives, so that he may learn to revere the LORD his God and observe all the words of this law and these statutes and carry them out. 20 Then he will not exalt himself above his fellow citizens or turn from the commandments to the right or left, and he and his descendants will enjoy many years ruling over his kingdom in Israel.  NET

2Ki 18:3 And he [King Hezekiah] did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.  ESV

Authorities should rule as servants of God and of their people

Rom 13:3–4 [Paul:] Would you like to be unafraid of those in authority? Then do what is good, and they will praise you, because they are God’s servants working for your own good. But if you do evil, then be afraid of them, because their power to punish is real. They are God’s servants and carry out God’s punishment on those who do evil.  GNT

1Kl 12:7 And they said to him [King Rehoboam], “If you will be a servant to this people today and serve them, and speak good words to them when you answer them, then they will be your servants forever.”  ESV

Authorities should rule wisely . . .

2Chr 11:23 And he [a king] dealt wisely and distributed some of his sons through all the districts of Judah and Benjamin, in all the fortified cities, and he gave them abundant provisions and procured wives for them.  ESV

Jer 3:15 [God, to Israel:] I will give you leaders who will be faithful to me. They will lead you with knowledge and insight.  NET

c) Authorities’ Duties to Citizens (II): Justice

Authorities should rule justly

2Sam 8:15  David reigned over all Israel; he guaranteed justice for all his people. NET

2Chr 9:8b  [The queen of Sheba to King Solomon:] Because of your God’s love for Israel and his lasting commitment to them, he made you king over them so you could make just and right decisions. NET

Authorities should defend the needy

Prov 31:8–9  [Instructions to a king:] “Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves; defend the rights of all those who have nothing. 9Speak up and judge fairly, and defend the rights of the poor and needy.” NCV™

So, authorities should not rule unjustly . . .

Ezek 45:9  This is what the sovereign LORD says: Enough, you princes of Israel! Put away violence and destruction, and do what is just and right. Put an end to your evictions of my people, declares the sovereign LORD. NET

. . . Unjust rule brings God’s judgment

Isa 10:1–3  [God:] Those who enact unjust policies are as good as dead, those who are always instituting unfair regulations, 2 to keep the poor from getting fair treatment, and to deprive the oppressed among my people of justice, so they can steal what widows own, and loot what belongs to orphans. 3 What will you do on judgment day, when destruction arrives from a distant place? To whom will you run for help? Where will you leave your wealth? NET

d) Servants and Masters

A number of verses in this section refer to slaves rather than servants. Generally the teaching regarding one of them is also very much applicable to the other.

Servants should obey and respect their masters

Col 3:22 Slaves, obey your earthly masters in every respect, not only when they are watching – like those who are strictly people–pleasers – but with a sincere heart, fearing the Lord.
NET

1Pet 2:18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust.
ESV

Servants should be trustworthy and faithful

Titus 2:10 They [slaves] should not steal from them but should show their masters they can be fully trusted so that in everything they do they will make the teaching of God our Savior attractive.
NCV™

Matt 25:20–21  And he [a servant] who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, ‘Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.’
ESV

His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.’

Good service is rewarded

See also:

Prov 17:2 A servant who acts wisely will rule over an heir who behaves shamefully, and will share the inheritance along with the relatives.
NET

Col 3:23–24  Do your work willingly, as though you were serving the Lord himself, and not just your earthly master.
CEV
Masters must treat servants justly . . .

Col 4:1 Masters, treat your slaves with justice and fairness, because you know that you also have a master in heaven. NET

Lev 25:43 Do not treat them harshly, but obey your God. GNT

. . . As such, masters should pay servants their wages

Lev 19:13b You must not withhold the wages of the hired laborer overnight until morning. NET

Mal 3:5 The LORD All-Powerful says, “Then I will come to you and judge you. I will be quick to testify against those who take part in evil magic, adultery, and lying under oath, those who cheat workers of their pay and who cheat widows and orphans, those who are unfair to foreigners, and those who do not respect me.” NCV™

Note: Slavery is to be avoided and slave trading is evil

1Cor 7:23 [Paul, to believers:] You were bought with a price. Do not become slaves of men. NET

1Tim 1:9b–10 It [the law] is for people who are against God and are sinful, who are not holy ... to ... who sell slaves, who tell lies, who speak falsely, and who do anything against the true teaching of God. NCV™
