Heb 11:32-34 And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. ☞

In their relative weakness, God strengthened these people to enact his will, routing enemy forces (cf. Judg 7:7, 22 ↓; 1Ki 20:27-29 ↓).

Judg 7:2, 7, 22 The LORD said to Gideon, "The people with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel boast over me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' ☞ ... ⁷And the LORD said to Gideon, "With the 300 men who lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hand, and let all the others go every man to his home." ☞ ... ²²When they blew the 300 trumpets, the LORD set every man's [Midianite's] sword against his comrade and against all the army. And the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah,^b as far as the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath. ☞

^b Some Hebrew manuscripts Zeredah

God used an army of a mere three hundred men to defeat the mighty Midianite army of many thousands (vv. 7, 22). God did this rather than use the much larger original Israelite army, so as to show that it was not the Israelites themselves but God who had saved them (v. 1).

1Ki 20:27-29 And the people of Israel were mustered and were provisioned and went against them. The people of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Syrians filled the country. ²⁸And a man of God came near and said to the king of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is a god of the hills but he is not a god of the valleys," therefore I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'" ²⁹And they encamped opposite one another seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle was joined. And the people of Israel struck down of the Syrians 100,000 foot soldiers in one day.

Ps 8:2 Out of the mouth of babies and infants, you have established strength because of your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger.

This may be speaking of praise from even the young amongst God's people telling of or evidencing his strength, silencing his enemies. Alternatively it may mean that through the adoration of children God "founded a bulwark" (NRSV) against his enemies, silencing them. Although the precise train of thought may not be clear, this nevertheless clearly is illustrating that God uses the weak to do powerful things.

‡ God has chosen those who appear as foolish and lowly in manifesting his salvation:

1Cor 1:26-29 For consider your calling, brothers: not many of you were wise according to worldly standards,^c not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. ²⁷*But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong;* ²⁸*God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are,* ²⁹*so that no human being^d might boast in the presence of God.*

^c Greek according to the flesh

^d Greek no flesh

God has chosen those who appear as foolish, weak and lowly to receive his salvation (v. 26), demonstrating through them that his salvation does not depend on human wisdom, strength or importance. In so doing God negates the significance of those who are wise, strong and important in the eyes of the world (vv. 27-29).

God's power for his people is great

- b) God's Power (I): Ultimate Power, p. 32

In speaking of God's power for believers, not all the references in this subsection are referring exclusively to doing God's work (i.e. Eph 1:18-20; 3:20; Phil 3:10a; 4:13). However, they are applicable to it.

Luke 10:19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

As commented earlier, the "serpents and scorpions" are probably allusions to evil forces, such as evil spirits.

John 14:12 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father.

For comment, see the comment on John 14:12-14 – under If we have faith nothing will be impossible, p. 1098.

Acts 4:33 And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

2Cor 4:7 But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us.

2Cor 10:4-5 For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. ⁵*We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, ...*

Paul used such weapons as prayer, faith and the proclamation of the gospel – weapons which have God's divine power. This divine power available to believers enables them to demolish whatever resists or opposes the knowledge of God (v. 5a), including: "strongholds" (v. 4) – such as opposing arguments; and "every proud obstacle" (GNT, NRSV, cf. CEV, NCV) – such as ungodly attitudes. In doing so they bring people's thoughts into conformity with Christ's will (v. 5b).

Eph 1:18-23 ... having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,¹⁹and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might ²⁰*that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places,* ²¹*far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come.* ²²*And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church,* ²³*which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.*

Verse 2 indicates that Jesus Christ has authority over all things "for the benefit of the church" (NLT, cf. CEV). This implies that his supreme power and authority (vv. 20b-21) – like God's immeasurably great power for us who believe (v. 19a) – is a very significant force aiding members of the church, his body (v. 23), as they seek to carry out God's will.

Eph 3:20 Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, ...

One can infer from this that God's immeasurable power is with believers in their service of him.

Phil 3:10 ... that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ...

The power of Christ's resurrection is available to God's people. This most likely refers to God's power that raised Christ from the dead (cf. CEV, NCV, NLT; Eph 1:19-21 ↑), although some think that it refers to the power of the resurrected Christ.

Phil 4:13 I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Col 1:28-29 Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. ²⁹*For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me.*

2Sam 23:9-12 And next to him among the three mighty men was Eleazar the son of Dodo, son of Ahohi. He was with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel withdrew. ¹⁰*He rose and struck down the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clung to the sword. And the LORD brought about a great victory that day*, and the men returned after him only to strip the slain. ¹¹And next to him was Shammah, the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines gathered together at Lehi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the men fled from the Philistines. ¹²*But he took his stand in the midst of the plot and defended it and struck down the Philistines, and the LORD worked a great victory.*

One could draw a parallel between the great physical power that these men displayed from God and the great spiritual power that believers have from God to use.

✦ God's people experience the powers of the coming age:

Heb 6:5 ... and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, ...

In light of the Greek from which it is translated, "powers" may largely have miracles in view; certainly the power is supernatural. (Note that this is actually referring to people who have fallen away from God – who like other believers have "tasted" such things.)

Note: The empowerment to perform miracles

Opinions differ as to what extent miracles are performed by believers today. One school of thought is that they did not continue after the apostolic period, being "signs of a true apostle" (2Cor 12:12 ↓). Supporters of this view point out that miracles do not occur consistently throughout the Bible, being prominent only at certain times and with only a few men recorded as having performed multiple miracles – notably Moses, Elijah and Elisha, and Jesus. Opponents of this view point out that Paul lists healing and working of miracles as spiritual gifts (cf. 1Cor 12:9-10, 28-30) and claim that miracles are performed by some Christians today, citing examples.

Deut 34:10-12 And there has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, ¹¹*none like him for all the signs and the wonders that the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land*, ¹²*and for all the mighty power and all the great deeds of terror that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.*

Similarly Psalms 105:27 says of Moses and Aaron: "They performed his signs among them and miracles in the land of Ham."

2Ki 5:10, 14 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean."  ... ¹⁴*So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.*

There were a number of other miraculous signs that God performed through Elisha and his predecessor Elijah, not least of which were the restoration to life of two boys (cf. 1Ki 17:21-22; 2Ki 4:32-35; God has power over death, to raise the dead, p. 256; and God can perform miracles of nature . . . , p. 279). Likewise there are a number of other verses in addition to the following ones that tell of miracles performed by the apostles.

Matt 10:1, 8 And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction.  ... ⁸*Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers,^e cast out demons.* You received without paying; give without pay.

Acts 5:12a, 15-16 Now many signs and wonders were regularly done among the people by the hands of the apostles.

☞ ... ¹⁵so that they [people] even carried out the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. ¹⁶The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed. ☞

Acts 6:8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. ☞

Acts 9:40 But Peter put them all outside, and knelt down and prayed; and turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. ☞

Acts 19:11-12 And God was doing extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were carried away to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them. ☞

Acts 20:9-10, 12 And a young man named Eutychus, sitting at the window, sank into a deep sleep as Paul talked still longer. And being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. ¹⁰But Paul went down and bent over him, and taking him in his arms, said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him." ☞ ... ¹²And they took the youth away alive, and were not a little comforted. ☞

1Cor 12:28-29 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ☞

2Cor 12:12 The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with utmost patience, with signs and wonders and mighty works. ☞

✦ John the Baptist did not perform any miraculous signs:

John 10:41 And many came to him. And they said, "John did no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true." ☞

Not all great people of faith – not even all great prophets – perform miracles.

d) God Guides His People

- d) Being Guided by God, p. 1404

The Bible speaks of God guiding his people in fulfilling his plans and purposes for them. More specifically, it tells of God guiding them in: living righteous lives; doing his work; and making choices in other matters. Many of the following verses do not clearly indicate which of these cases is in view; such general verses are often applicable to all these cases. (See also the introductory comments on God commands and directs his people in doing his work, p. 978, and d) Being Guided by God, p. 1404.)

God guides his people . . .

See also:

Ps 31:3 For you are my rock and my fortress; and for your name's sake you lead me and guide me; ... ☞

Ps 73:24 You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will receive me to glory. ☞

Ex 15:13 You have led in your steadfast love the people whom you have redeemed; you have guided them by your strength to your holy abode. ☞

Note that the term "your holy abode" could refer to the promised land (cf. GNT). But more likely the place where God's "abode" would be – ultimately the temple on Mount Zion (cf. v. 17) – is in view in particular.

Isa 49:10 ... they shall not hunger or thirst, neither scorching wind nor sun shall strike them, for he who has pity on them will lead them, and by springs of water will guide them.

Deut 1:32-33 Yet in spite of this word you did not believe the LORD your God, ³³who went before you in the way to seek you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night and in the cloud by day, to show you by what way you should go.

God's guidance of Israel in the desert by a fire at night and a cloud during the day, is referred to in a number of verses in the following subsections (cf. Neh 9:12 ↴).

Ps 25:12 Who is the man who fears the LORD? Him will he instruct in the way that he should choose.

Ps 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you.

Ps 37:23 The steps of a man are established by the LORD, when he delights in his way; ...

This is quite possibly a reference to God's guidance in making one's way secure. Note, however, that it could instead less specifically be referring to God's care (which itself involves guidance).

Ps 107:30 Then they were glad that the waters^f were quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.

^f Hebrew they

Prov 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

The phrase "make straight your paths" seems to be speaking either of: directing our ways so that we will walk on a straight path (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT, NKJV); or straightening the path before us to allow or enable us to take the right way (cf. CEV). Possibly aspects of both interpretations are involved.

... God leads his people

Gen 24:48 Then I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way^g to take the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son.

^g Or faithfully

Neh 9:12 By a pillar of cloud you led them in the day, and by a pillar of fire in the night to light for them the way in which they should go.

Ps 23:2-3 He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters.^h ³He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousnessⁱ for his name's sake.

^h Hebrew beside waters of rest

ⁱ Or in right paths

The term "still waters" (v. 2b) alludes to places of rest (cf. AMP, NRSV text note).

Ps 77:20 You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Ps 107:7 He led them by a straight way till they reached a city to dwell in.

Isa 40:11 He will tend his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms; he will carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are with young.

Isa 48:17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go."

The messianic servant is the one who is spoken of here as leading and guiding the people, satisfying their needs.

Hos 11:4 I led them with cords of kindness,^j with the bands of love, and I became to them as one who eases the yoke on their jaws, and I bent down to them and fed them.

^j Or humaneness; Hebrew man

John 10:3-5 To him the gatekeeper opens. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. ⁵A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.

Jesus was applying this analogy to himself – the good shepherd of his people, the "sheep". For further comment see e\) Epilogue: Follow Jesus Christ, p. 1187.

2Chr 13:12a Behold, God is with us at our head, and his priests with their battle trumpets to sound the call to battle against you.

This points to God being the people's leader – "our leader" (GNT, NIV, NLT).

✚ The Lord directs believers to God's love and Christ's steadfastness:

2Thes 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

This appears to be speaking of Jesus Christ directing believers into: an "ever deeper understanding" (NLT; cf. GNT) of God's love, so as to love with his love (cf. CEV); and either the same perseverance as Christ showed (cf. CEV) or the perseverance that comes from him (cf. GNT, NLT).

God guides his people always

Isa 58:11 And the LORD will guide you continually and satisfy your desire in scorched places and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.

Ps 48:14 ... that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will guide us forever.^k

^k Septuagint; another reading is (compare Jerome, Syriac) He will guide us beyond death

Ex 13:21-22 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night. ²²The pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night did not depart from before the people.

This and Nehemiah 9:19 below show that God continually guided the Israelites in their desert journey. For they say that: God guided them day and night; and the source/s of guidance "did not depart from before the people" (v. 20).

Neh 9:19 ... you in your great mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud to lead them in the way did not depart from them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night to light for them the way by which they should go.

✦ God guides his people no matter where they are:

Ps 139:9-10 If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, ¹⁰*even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me.*

In conjunction with guiding his people at all times, God guides them in all places.

Deut 8:15 ... [God] who led you through the great and terrifying wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water, who brought you water out of the flinty rock, ...

Ps 78:52-54 Then he led out his people like sheep and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. ⁵³*He led them in safety, so that they were not afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.* ⁵⁴*And he brought them to his holy land, to the mountain which his right hand had won.*

Ps 142:3 When my spirit faints within me, you know my way! In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me.

The phrase "know my way" appears to most likely be referring to God knowing and guiding David in the way he should go (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT), although it could instead be speaking of God knowing what David was going through (cf. NIV).

Isa 42:16 And I will lead the blind in a way that they do not know, in paths that they have not known I will guide them. I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I do, and I do not forsake them.

✦ God promised to guide his wayward people after punishing them:

Isa 30:20-21 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself anymore, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. ²¹*And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.*

God commands and directs his people in doing his work

- The Holy Spirit directs God's people in doing God's work, p. 848

God's command and direction of Moses and other OT people in doing his work, appears to have been more readily discernible than is usually the case for believers today. Nevertheless such examples of God's guidance in the OT serve to demonstrate that God does guide his people in doing his work. The NT indicates that God generally guides believers in the present age through the Holy Spirit.

Ex 7:2, 6 You shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall tell Pharaoh to let the people of Israel go out of his land.  ... ⁶*Moses and Aaron did so; they did just as the LORD commanded them.*

Ex 18:21-23 Moreover, look for able men from all the people, men who fear God, who are trustworthy and hate a bribe, and place such men over the people as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens. ²²And let them judge the people at all times. Every great matter they shall bring to you, but any small matter they shall decide themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you. ²³*If you do this, God will direct you, you will be able to endure, and all this people also will go to their place in peace.*

Ex 31:6, 11b And behold, I have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. And I have given to all able men ability, that they may make all that I have commanded you:  ... ¹¹ ... According to all that I have commanded you, they shall do.

Ex 36:1 “Bezalel and Oholiab and every craftsman in whom the LORD has put skill and intelligence to know how to do any work in the construction of the sanctuary shall work in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded.”

Deut 4:14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and rules, that you might do them in the land that you are going over to possess.

1Sam 16:3 And invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do. And you shall anoint for me him whom I declare to you.

1Chr 14:16 And David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.

1Chr 28:19 “All this he made clear to me in writing from the hand of the LORD, all the work to be done according to the plan.”

David wrote down and passed on to Solomon the plans for the temple that God had given him.

Jer 26:8 And when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying, “You shall die!”

Acts 7:44 Our fathers had the tent of witness in the wilderness, just as he who spoke to Moses directed him to make it, according to the pattern that he had seen.

Acts 10:33 So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now therefore we are all here in the presence of God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord.

Acts 10:42 And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead.

Acts 13:47 For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, “I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.”

1Thes 3:11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, ...

† An angel of the Lord directed Philip in doing God’s work:

Acts 8:26-28 Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Rise and go toward the south¹ to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” This is a desert place. ²⁷And he rose and went. And there was an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and was returning, seated in his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

Philip subsequently explained to the Ethiopian what he was reading and told him the gospel, leading to his conversion (vv. 29-39).

Examples of divine guidance through dreams and visions

Gen 46:2-3 And God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, “Jacob, Jacob.” And he said, “Here am I.” ³Then he said, “I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you into a great nation.”

Matt 2:12-13, 19-20 And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they [wise men] departed to their own country by another way. ¹³Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.”  ... ¹⁹But when Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰saying, “Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child’s life are dead.”

Acts 9:10-11 Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. *The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." II. God's Plans for Israel

See also:

- f) Jesus Christ's Universal Rule, p. 717

Large portions of the writings of the OT prophets speak of a wonderful, future renewal of Israel by God. There are differences of opinion as to what degree these are literal and physical, as opposed to figurative or spiritual.

If they are largely meant to be understood literally, then they speak of the actual Israel and Jerusalem (or Zion), most likely immediately preceding and during the thousand years or Millennium spoken of in Revelation 20:1-7 (cf. Prelude: The thousand years, p. 718). As such the time of a renewed Israel would largely correspond with that of a physical universal rule of Jesus Christ and would precede the final judgment.

If instead the prophecies are basically figurative and spiritual, then they are more likely to be referring to all believers – the “new” Israel (cf. Gentiles have been included in the true “Israel” . . ., p. 624; . . . God's people are now of the heavenly Jerusalem, p. 624). As such they would be portraying God's people and kingdom following Jesus Christ's mission and/or quite possibly anticipating heaven or the new Jerusalem (cf. Note: The new Jerusalem is linked with the renewed Jerusalem prophesied in the OT . . ., p. 731; . . . This association is seen in the descriptions of the two cities, p. 732).

In reading the following sections, bear in mind that some prophecies are understood to be progressively fulfilled throughout history, culminating in a final fulfillment at the end of the age. For example a number of the passages refer initially to the Jew's return after the Babylonian exile, but also appear to have a future era in view. Many probably also have an application to the experience of God's people in all periods. As such – and with the hope that they provide for the future – they are a great source of encouragement to all believers.

Note that while the subheadings speak of Israel, many of the verses refer to Jerusalem in particular.

a) Return to the Land

Some commentators see a fulfillment of some of the prophecies in this and the following subsection in the establishment of the modern state of Israel in 1948.

With the Israelites scattered throughout distant lands, as a nation Israel was like the dry bones, completely devoid of life and without any apparent future hope (v. 11). But just as the bones in this vision came back to life (v. 10), God would give Israel life, bringing the people back to the land of Israel (v. 12) – and putting his Spirit in them (v. 14). As well as referring to Israel's restoration after the Babylonian exile, this also appears to have in view Israel's restoration in the last days, particularly with the eschatological promises in the remainder of Ezekiel 37.

Ezek 39:28 Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God, because I sent them into exile among the nations and then assembled them into their own land. I will leave none of them remaining among the nations anymore. ...

Their king passes on before them, the LORD at their head. ...

The one "who opens the breach" – "who breaks open the way" (NIV®) – enabling the people to return, may well be the Messiah (cf. AMP).

Zec 10:8-12 "I will whistle for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as many as they were before. ⁹Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in Verses 11-12 appear to speak of God enabling them to return, by removing obstacles and opposition (v. 11) and strengthening them (v. 12).

Isa 11:11-12, 15-16 In that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that remains of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush,^e from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea. ¹²He will raise a signal for the nations and will assemble the banished of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.  ... ¹⁵And the LORD will utterly destroy^f the tongue of the Sea of Egypt, and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching breath,^g and strike it into seven channels, and he will lead people across in sandals. ¹⁶And there will be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that remains of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

The phrase "a second time" (v. 11) most likely has the Exodus from Egypt in view as the first time. The raising of "a signal for the nations" (v. 12) suggests a giving of a signal to inform the nations of what he is doing, possibly to ensure that they do not hinder the exiles' return and perhaps even to indicate that they are to assist (cf. Isa 49:22 ↓). In v.15, "the tongue of the Sea of Egypt" is the gulf of the Red Sea.

Isa 14:1-2a For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel, and will set them in their own land, and sojourners will join them and will attach themselves to the house of Jacob. ²And the peoples will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them in the LORD's land as male and female slaves.

Verse 2a appears to speak of the nations escorting the Israelites back to the land of Israel (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT).

Isa 49:8-12, 18, 21-22 Thus says the LORD: "In a time of favor I have answered you; in a day of salvation I have helped you; I will keep you and give you as a covenant to the people, to

ⁱ Dead Sea Scroll; Masoretic Text Sinim

The reference to the messianic servant (v. 8) makes this passage more likely to be primarily looking forward to a still future return to Israel.

Isa 66:20 And they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses and in chariots and in litters and on mules and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

This appears to be speaking of people of other nations bringing the exiled Israelites home.

Judah and Israel will be reunited in the land – and share in God's blessings

The following passages are applicable to the unity of all God's people – which may be partially in view in at least some.

Isa 11:12-14 He will raise a signal for the nations and will assemble the banished of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. ¹³The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart, and those who harass Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not harass Ephraim. ¹⁴But they shall swoop down on the shoulder of the Philistines in the west, and together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put out their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them.

Verse 14 depicts reunited Judah and Israel acting in unity, and illustrates their rising prominence.

Jer 3:18 In those days the house of Judah shall join the house of Israel, and together they shall come from the land of the north to the land that I gave your fathers for a heritage.

Jer 23:5-6 Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶*In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely.* And this is the name by which he will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness."

The implication is that this King – the Messiah – will be king over both Judah and Israel (v. 6a), pointing to them being united as a single kingdom.

Ezek 37:16-22 Son of man, take a stickⁱ and write on it, 'For Judah, and the people of Israel associated with him'; then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph (the stick of Ephraim) and all the house of Israel associated with him.' ¹⁷*And join them one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.* ¹⁸*And when your people say to you, 'Will you not tell us what you mean by these?'* ¹⁹*say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am about to take the stick of Joseph (that is in the hand of Ephraim) and the tribes of Israel associated with him. And I will join with it the stick of Judah,^k and make them one stick, that they may be one in my hand.* ²⁰*When the sticks on which you write are in your hand before their eyes,* ²¹*then say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will take the people of Israel from the nations among which they have gone, and will gather them from all around, and bring them to their own land.* ²²*And I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. And one king shall be king over them all, and they shall be no longer two nations, and no longer divided into two kingdoms.*

ⁱ Or one piece of wood; also verses 17, 19, 20

^k Hebrew And I will place them on it, the stick of Judah

Hos 1:11 And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint for themselves one head. And they shall go up from the land, for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Isa 65:9 I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah possessors of my mountains; my chosen shall possess it, and my servants shall dwell there.

Here "Jacob" is used to denote the northern kingdom of Israel. Note that this and the following references do not specifically speak of Judah and Israel being reunited. However, they do point to it by speaking of the two of them sharing together in God's blessings.

Jer 31:27-28 Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast. ²⁸*And it shall come to pass that as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring harm, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, declares the LORD.*

Jer 33:7-8 I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and rebuild them as they were at first. ⁸*I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me.*

Zec 8:13 And as you have been a byword of cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong.

Note that in the following chapter of Zechariah, Judah and Ephraim are portrayed as being used together by God against enemies – "For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made Ephraim its arrow. I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword." (9:13)

Zec 10:6 I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back because I have compassion on them, and they shall be as though I had not rejected them, for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

✦ The new covenant with both Israel and Judah:

Jer 31:31-34 "Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, ³²*not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, declares the LORD.* ³³*But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people.* ³⁴*And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."*

Initially both "the house of Israel and the house of Judah" (v. 31) are referred to and then shortly afterwards only "the house of Israel" (v. 33) is used, quite possibly pointing to the unity or oneness that will be. Note that the NT teaches that this new covenant (cf. Heb 8:8-12) has come into being through Jesus Christ's mission, with his death. It would appear that it will have a more complete fulfillment in the renewed Israel of the end times.

Jer 30:3 For behold, days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah, says the LORD, and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall take possession of it.

Ezek 11:17 Therefore say, "Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel."

Obad 1:17, 19-21 But in Mount Zion there shall be those who escape, and it shall be holy, and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions. ... ¹⁹Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephelah shall possess the land of the Philistines; they shall possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. ²⁰The exiles of this host of the people of Israel shall possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the cities of the Negeb. ²¹Saviors shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau, and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

The people of Israel – including those who were exiles (v. 20) – will reclaim all of the land, to its full extent.

Isa 60:21 Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.¹

¹ Or that I might display my beauty

Ezek 36:8, 12 But you, O mountains of Israel, shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to my people Israel, for they will soon come home. ... ¹²I will let people walk on you, even my people Israel. And they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no longer bereave them of children.

Ezek 37:25 They shall dwell in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children's children shall dwell there forever, and David my servant shall be their prince forever.

Joel 3:20 But Judah shall be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem to all generations.

This speaks of the people of Israel – or God's people – as the ones who will inhabit Judah and Jerusalem forever.

Amos 9:15 I will plant them on their land, and they shall never again be uprooted out of the land that I have given them," says the LORD your God.

Jer 32:41 I will rejoice in doing them good, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul.

This has an air of finality (cf. GNT; v. 40), indicative of the assertion that the people of Israel will possess the land forever.

Israel will be physically restored

See also:

- Amos 9:14 ↓

In speaking of Israel being physically restored, the prophecies in this subsection speak of such things as Israel being repopulated (also reflected in the preceding subsections) and its cities being rebuilt.

Isa 61:4 They shall build up the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations. 📖

Jer 24:6 I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down; I will plant them, and not uproot them. 📖

The reference to planting them (cf. Jer 31:27-28 ↓; Ezek 36:36 ↓; Amos 9:15 ↑; Jer 32:41 ↑) appears to allude to the people's regrowth in the land.

Jer 30:17-18, 20 For I will restore health to you, and your wounds I will heal, declares the LORD, because they have called you an outcast: 'It is Zion, for whom no one cares!' ¹⁸Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob and have compassion on his dwellings; the city shall be rebuilt on its mound, and the palace shall stand where it used to be. 📖 ... ²⁰*Their children shall be as they were of old, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all who oppress them.* 📖

Jer 31:27-28, 38 Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast. ²⁸And it shall come to pass that as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring harm, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, declares the LORD. 📖 ... ³⁸*Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when the city shall be rebuilt for the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.* 📖

Jer 33:6-7 Behold, I will bring to it health and healing, and I will heal them and reveal to them abundance of prosperity and security. ⁷*I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and rebuild them as they were at first.* 📖

Ezek 36:10, 35-36 And I will multiply people on you, the whole house of Israel, all of it. The cities shall be inhabited and the waste places rebuilt. 📖 ... ³⁵And they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden, and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.' ³⁶Then the nations that are left all around you shall know that I am the LORD; I have rebuilt the ruined places and replanted that which was desolate. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it. 📖

Joel 3:1 ^m "For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, ... 📖

^mCh 4:1 in Hebrew

Here God promises to "restore the prosperity" (GNT, NLT; cf. CEV) of Judah and Jerusalem.

Amos 9:11 In that day I will raise up the booth of David that is fallen and repair its breaches, and raise up its ruins and rebuild it as in the days of old, ... 📖

The "booth of David" refers either to the kingdom of Israel as a whole – as during David's rule – or to David's royal line.

Mic 4:7 ... and the lame I will make the remnant, and those who were cast off, a strong nation; and the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion from this time forth and forevermore. 📖

Zeph 3:20 At that time I will bring you in, at the time when I gather you together; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says the LORD. 📖

Zec 8:4-5 Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand because of great age. ⁵*And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.* 📖

Isa 30:26 Moreover, the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day when the LORD binds up the brokenness of his people, and heals the wounds inflicted by his blow. 📖

This and 35:5-6a below speak, perhaps figuratively, of the physical restoration of the people themselves (cf. Jer 33:6 ↑).

Isa 35:5-6 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute sing for joy. For waters break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; ... 📖

These references to healing may have a spiritual connotation as well as a physical one.

The land will be blessed and fruitful

Isa 30:23-25 And he will give rain for the seed with which you sow the ground, and bread, the produce of the ground, which will be rich and plenteous. In that day your livestock will graze in large pastures, ²⁴and the oxen and the donkeys that work the ground will eat seasoned fodder, which has been winnowed with shovel and fork. ²⁵And on every lofty mountain and every high hill there will be brooks running with water, in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. 📖

Note that "the day of the great slaughter" (v. 25) presumably speaks of that of proud enemies of Israel, with the Assyrians probably initially in view.

Isa 32:14-15, 20 For the palace is forsaken, the populous city deserted; the hill and the watchtower will become dens forever, a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks; ¹⁵until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is deemed a forest. 📖 ... ²⁰Happy are you who sow beside all waters, who let the feet of the ox and the donkey range free. 📖

Verse 20 speaks of "plenty of water for the crops and safe pasture everywhere for the donkeys and cattle" (GNT).

Isa 35:6-7 ... then shall the lame man leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute sing for joy. For waters break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; ⁷the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; in the haunt of jackals, where they lie down, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. 📖

A spiritual application is often made of verses such as these and others in this subsection.

Isa 41:18-20 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. ¹⁹I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive. I will set in the desert the cypress, the plane and the pine together, ²⁰that they may see and know, may consider and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this, the Holy One of Israel has created it. 📖

This is often understood to initially at least refer to God's provision for the Israelites returning from exile in Babylon (cf. 43:19-20). Some commentators, however, think it refers to conditions in the renewed Israel in the Millennium.

Isa 55:13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall make a name for the LORD, an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. 📖

Jer 31:5, 12, 14 Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant and shall enjoy the fruit. 📖 ... ¹²They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and the herd; their life shall be like a watered garden, and they shall languish no more. 📖 ... ¹⁴I will feast the soul of the priests with abundance, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, declares the LORD. 📖

The clause "their life shall be like a watered garden" (v. 12) refers figuratively to the people themselves, in a manner reflective of the lush conditions of their land.

Ezek 34:14, 26-27, 29 I will feed them with good pasture, and on the mountain heights of Israel shall be their grazing land. There they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on rich pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. 📖 ... ²⁶And I will make them and the places all around my hill a blessing, and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷And the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land. 📖 ... ²⁹And I will provide for them renowned plantations so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the reproach of the nations. 📖

In v. 26, "they shall be showers of blessing" suggests that the aforementioned showers of rain will produce much blessing.

Ezek 36:8-9, 34-35 But you, O mountains of Israel, shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to my people Israel, for they will soon come home. ⁹For behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. Hos 2:21-22 And in that day I will answer, declares the LORD, I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the earth, and the earth shall answer the grain, the wine, and the oil, and they shall answer Jezreel,ⁿ ...

ⁿ Jezreel means God will sow

God will provide the heavens with clouds/moisture, to provide rain on the earth, to provide growth for the plants, to provide food for the people. The final clause depicts Israel's prosperity as that which "God will sow" (text note), with "the grain, the wine and the oil" responding to her, coming in answer to her people's prayers (cf. AMP).

Joel 3:18 And in that day the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the streambeds of Judah shall flow with water; and a fountain shall come forth from the house of the LORD and water the Valley of Shittim.

Amos 9:13-14 "Behold, the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when the plowman shall overtake the reaper and the treader of grapes him who sows the seed; the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and all the hills shall flow with it. ¹⁴I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit."

The images in v. 13a indicate an amazing abundance of produce, so much so that there will not be enough time for various tasks to be completed before the next round of them needs to commence.

Zec 8:12 For there shall be a sowing of peace. The vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its produce, and the heavens shall give their dew. And I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

Israel's population will be markedly increased, taking up more area

Isa 9:3 You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil.

Isa 26:15 But you have increased the nation, O LORD, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have enlarged all the borders of the land.

Isa 49:19-20 Surely your waste and your desolate places and your devastated land— surely now you will be too narrow for your inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away. ²⁰*The children of your bereavement will yet say in* your ears: 'The place is too narrow for me; make room for me to dwell in.'

Here God speaks to Zion, or Jerusalem.

Isa 54:1-3 "Sing, O barren one, who did not bear; break forth into singing and cry aloud, you who have not been in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than the children of her who is married," says the LORD. ²*"Enlarge the place of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitations be stretched out; do not hold back; lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes. ³For you will spread abroad to the right and to the left, and your offspring will possess the nations and will people the desolate cities.*"

Jerusalem is depicted as a once barren or "desolate" woman (v. 1), now with more children than ever before.

Isa 60:22 The least one shall become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation; I am the LORD; in its time I will hasten it.

Jer 23:3 Then I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply.

Jer 30:19 Out of them shall come songs of thanksgiving, and the voices of those who celebrate. I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will make them honored, and they shall not be small.

Ezek 36:9-11a For behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. ¹⁰*And I will multiply people on you, the whole house of Israel, all of it.* The cities shall be inhabited and the waste places rebuilt. ¹¹*And I will multiply on you man and beast, and they shall multiply and be fruitful.*

Ezek 36:37-38 "Thus says the Lord God: This also I will let the house of Israel ask me to do for them: to increase their people like a flock. ³⁸Like the flock for sacrifices,^o like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

The people referred to in v. 12 are either returning exiles – "your people" (NCVTM, NIRV; cf. GNT) – or people from other nations.

Ps 14:7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.  

As per the theme of this section, the psalmist may have a latter-day consummate salvation and restoration of Israel in view.

Isa 29:19 The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the poor among mankind shall exult in the Holy One of Israel.  

Isa 35:10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.  

Isa 51:3 For the LORD comforts Zion; he comforts all her waste places and makes her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.  

Isa 55:12 For you shall go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.  

The mountains, hills and trees are figuratively portrayed as rejoicing, alluding to the joy of the people of Israel (cf. Isa 35:1-2).

Isa 60:4-5, 15 Lift up your eyes all around, and see; they all gather together, they come to you [Zion]; your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried on the hip. ⁵*Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and exult,^r because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.*   ... ¹⁵*Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through, I will make you majestic forever, a joy from age to age.*  

^r Hebrew your heart shall tremble and grow wide

Verse 15b may be speaking of Israel being the everlasting joy of all nations, although her own joy may primarily be in view.

Isa 61:7 Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot; therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; they shall have everlasting joy.  

Isa 65:14, 18 ... behold, my servants shall sing for gladness of heart, but you [the unfaithful] shall cry out for pain of heart and shall wail for breaking of spirit.   ... ¹⁸*But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem to be a joy, and her people to be a gladness.*  

Isa 66:10-11, 14 "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her; ¹¹*that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious abundance.*"^s   ... ¹⁴*You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bones shall flourish like the grass; and the hand of the LORD shall be known to his servants, and he shall show his indignation against his enemies.*  

Jer 30:18-19 Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will restore the fortunes of the tents of Jacob and have compassion on his dwellings; the city shall be rebuilt on its mound, and the palace shall stand where it used to be. ¹⁹*Out of them shall come songs of thanksgiving, and the voices of those who celebrate.* I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will make them honored, and they shall not be small.  

Jer 31:4, 11-12 Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin Israel! Again you shall adorn yourself with tambourines and shall go forth in the dance of the merry-makers.  ... ¹¹For the LORD has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him. ¹²*They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and the herd; their life shall be like a watered garden, and they shall languish no more.*

Jer 33:10-11 Thus says the LORD: In this place of which you say, 'It is a waste without man or beast,' in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man or inhabitant or beast, there shall be heard again ¹¹*the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: "Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!"* For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

Isa 35:1-2 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus; ²it shall blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

This is either speaking of the desert and wilderness in Israel itself or other such areas that the returning Israelites pass through.

Isa 51:11 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Note that this repeats 35:10 (in the previous subsection) verbatim.

Isa 60:20 Your sun shall no more go down, nor your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.

The LORD being their "everlasting light" points to God being present with them in a deeper and more tangible way than previously, assuring their well-being and the absence of sorrow.

Jer 31:13 Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old shall be merry. I will turn their mourning into joy; I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

Isa 30:19 For a people shall dwell in Zion, in Jerusalem; you shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. As soon as he hears it, he answers you.

Isa 65:19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in my people; no more shall be heard in it the sound of weeping and the cry of distress.

Isa 25:8 He will swallow up death forever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.

Isa 61:1-3 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor;^t he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;^u ²to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; ³*to grant to those who mourn in Zion— to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit;* that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.^v

Here the work of the Messiah is primarily in view. Jesus applied vv. 1-2a to himself in Luke 4:19-20. A good proportion of commentators interpret Jesus concluding his quotation immediately prior to "the day of vengeance of our God" to indicate that he will fulfill the remainder of the prophecy on his second coming.

References to a future "day" – as in "that day" (v. 1; Isa 25:9 ↓; Zec 9:16 ↓) – are often understood to have an application to the end time.

Isa 25:9 It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

Isa 41:11-13 Behold, all who are incensed against you shall be put to shame and confounded; those who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish. ¹²You shall seek those who contend with you, but you shall not find them; those who war against you shall be as nothing at all. ¹³For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, "Fear not, I am the one who helps you."

Isa 45:17 But Israel is saved by the LORD with everlasting salvation; you shall not be put to shame or confounded to all eternity.

Isa 51:6, 8 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and they who dwell in it will die in like manner;^y but my salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will never be dismayed. ... ⁸For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations.

^y Or will die like gnats

Note that, as is the case here, God's righteousness is often associated with his salvation (cf. Isa 59:16 ↓). For in bringing salvation God is doing what is right; his salvation is a product of his righteousness.

Isa 52:2-3, 7-10 Shake yourself from the dust and arise; be seated, O Jerusalem; loose the bonds from your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. ³For thus says the LORD: "You were sold for nothing, and you shall be redeemed without money." ... ⁷How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns." ⁸The voice of your watchmen—they lift up their voice; together they sing for joy; for eye to eye they see the return of the LORD to Zion. ⁹Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Salvation from exile in Babylon is initially in view here, as may well be the case in other passages in this subsection.

Isa 59:15b-16, 20 The LORD saw it, and it displeased him^z that there was no justice. ¹⁶He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no one to intercede; then his own arm brought him salvation, and his righteousness upheld him. ... ²⁰"And a Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression," declares the LORD.

^z Hebrew and it was evil in his eyes

Verse 20 is in effect a promise to save all of those in Jacob who repent.

Isa 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall exult in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Isa 62:1, 11-12 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch. ... ¹¹*Behold, the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to the daughter of Zion, "Behold, your salvation comes; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him."* ¹²*And they shall be called The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD; and you shall be called Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.*

Isa 34:5, 8 For my sword has drunk its fill in the heavens; behold, it descends for judgment upon Edom, upon the people I have devoted to destruction. ... ⁸*For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.*

Here "Edom" (v. 5; cf. Isa 63:1-6) may well be symbolic of all the enemies of God's people.

Isa 35:4 Say to those who have an anxious heart, "Be strong; fear not! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God. He will come and save you."

Isa 59:17-19 He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped himself in zeal as a cloak. ¹⁸*According to their deeds, so will he repay, wrath to his adversaries, repayment to his enemies; to the coastlands he will render repayment.* ¹⁹*So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun;*

Note that "coastlands" (v. 18) denotes God's enemies of other lands (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT) – quite possibly ones along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea are in view in particular.

Isa 61:1-2 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor;^b he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;^c ²to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; ...

Every man's sword will be against his brother. ²²With pestilence and bloodshed I will enter into judgment with him, and I will rain* upon him and his hordes and the many peoples who are with him torrential rains and hailstones, fire and sulfur.

^f Hebrew against him

Commentators are often hesitant to identify this Gog with the Gog of Revelation 20:8 and this event with the final battle (cf. Rev 20:7-10 ), but many do see the passage as referring to an event of the end times.

Joel 3:21 I will avenge their blood, blood I have not avenged,^g for the LORD dwells in Zion.

^g Or I will acquit their bloodguilt that I have not acquitted

Zeph 3:19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

Zec 2:8-9 For thus said the LORD of hosts, after his glory sent me^h to the nations who plundered you, for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye: ⁹*Behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they shall become plunder for those who served them. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.*

^h Or he sent me after glory

The agent of God's vengeance is most likely either the Messiah or (figuratively) the prophet with his message.

Rev 20:7-10 And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison ⁸and will come out to deceive the nations that are at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea. ⁹And they marched up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heavenⁱ and consumed them, ¹⁰*and the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.*

ⁱ Some manuscripts from God, out of heaven, or out of heaven from God

Two of the most prominent interpretations of "the camp of the saints and the beloved city" (v. 9) are: a spiritually renewed Jerusalem; and God's people in general.

Isa 29:1-8 Ah, Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts run their round. ²*Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be moaning and lamentation, and she shall be to me like an Ariel.*³*And I will encamp against you all around, and will besiege you with towers and I will raise siegeworks against you.* ⁴*And you will be brought low; from the earth you shall speak, and from the dust your speech will be bowed down; your voice shall come from the ground like the voice of a ghost, and from the dust your speech shall whisper.* ⁵*But the multitude of your foreign foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the ruthless like passing chaff. And in an instant, suddenly,* ⁶*you will be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder and with earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire.* ⁷*And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, all that fight against her and her stronghold and distress her, shall be like a dream, a vision of the night.* ⁸*As when a hungry man dreams he is eating and awakes with his hunger not satisfied, or as when a thirsty man dreams he is drinking and awakes faint, with his thirst not quenched, so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion.*

^j Ariel could mean lion of God, or hero (2 Samuel 23:20), or altar hearth (Ezekiel 43:15-16)

"Ariel" refers to Jerusalem. Verse 2 speaks of it suffering intently. The siege of Jerusalem and the sudden destruction of Assyria's army in 701 B.C. may be primarily in view, but a number of commentators see an eschatological application in the passage.

Zec 12:2-9 Behold, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup of staggering to all the surrounding peoples. The siege of Jerusalem will also be against Judah. ³*On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples. All who lift it will surely hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth will gather against it.* ⁴*On that day, declares the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. But for the sake of the house of Judah I will keep my eyes open, when I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.* ⁵*Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the LORD of hosts, their God.'* ⁶*On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot in the midst of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves. And they shall devour to the right and to the left all the surrounding peoples, while Jerusalem shall again be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem.* ⁷*And the LORD will give salvation to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and* the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not surpass that of Judah. ⁸On that day the LORD will protect the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD, going before them. ⁹And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Chapters 12-14 of Zechariah (cf. Zec 14:1-14 ↓) form an oracle which revolves largely around a final siege of Jerusalem and the Messiah's return to deliver it.

Zec 14:1-14 Behold, a day is coming for the LORD, when the spoil taken from you will be divided in your midst. ²For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses plundered and the women raped. Half of the city shall go out into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. ³Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle. ⁴On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives that lies before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley, so that one half of the Mount shall move northward, and the other half southward. ⁵And you shall flee to the valley of my mountains, for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal. And you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him. ⁶On that day there shall be no light, cold, or frost.^k ⁷And there shall be a unique^l day, which is known to the LORD, neither day nor night, but at evening time there shall be light. ⁸On that day living waters shall flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea^m and half of them to the western sea.ⁿ It shall continue in summer as in winter. ⁹And the LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day the LORD will be one and his name one. ¹⁰The whole land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem shall remain aloft on its site from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹And it shall be inhabited, for there shall never again be a decree of utter destruction.^o Jerusalem shall dwell in security. ¹²And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. ¹³And on that day a great panic from the LORD shall fall on them, so that each will seize the hand of another, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other. ¹⁴Even Judah will fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding nations shall be collected, gold, silver, and garments in great abundance.

^o The Hebrew term rendered decree of utter destruction refers to things devoted (or set apart) to the Lord (or by the Lord) for destruction

In vv. 4-5 the LORD is portrayed as providing a way of escape for the besieged people in Jerusalem. The living waters in v. 8 replenish the land. Verse 10 speaks of the land around Jerusalem being leveled to become a plain, in contrast to Jerusalem, which is raised up – asserting Jerusalem's prominence. Verse 14 appears to speak of other people of Judah defending Jerusalem (cf. GNT).

Jer 30:7-8 Alas! That day is so great there is none like it; it is a time of distress for Jacob; yet he shall be saved out of it. ⁸And it shall come to pass in that day, declares the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and I will burst your bonds, and foreigners shall no more make a servant of him.^p

^p Or serve him

This is not speaking of a siege of Jerusalem, nor Jerusalem in particular; it concerns both Israel and Judah (cf. v. 4). However it further illustrates the intense suffering of Israel and God's subsequent deliverance in the end times, with an eschatological setting appearing to be ultimately in view.

‡ Jesus' prophecy of siege, suffering and destruction of Jerusalem:

Luke 21:20-24 But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. ²¹Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it, ²²for these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written. ²³Alas for women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress upon the earth and wrath against this people. ²⁴They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive among all nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

While this appears to prophecy of the siege and destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70 by the Romans, many understand it to also refer to the events of the end times. Bear in mind that the parallel passages in the other synoptic gospels associate the desecration of the temple with this event (cf. Matt 24:15-16). The parallel passages also dwell more on the "great distress" mentioned in v. 23 (cf. Matt 24:21-22). Note that here in v. 24, "the times of the Gentiles" may be referring to the period of Gentile domination of Jerusalem or to the time of their prominence in God's plan of salvation (cf. Rom 1:11-27).

And you shall rejoice in the LORD; in the Holy One of Israel you shall glory.

The "mountains" and the "hills" (v. 15b) represent enemy nations.

Obad 1:18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor for the house of Esau, for the LORD has spoken.

The earlier reference to "the day of the LORD" (cf. v. 15) suggests that the subsequent verses, including this one, have an eschatological meaning or application.

Mic 4:13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze; you shall beat in pieces many peoples; and shall devote^a their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Mic 5:5-9 And he shall be their peace. When the Assyrian comes into our land and treads in our palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes of men; ⁶they shall shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at its entrances; and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian when he comes into our land and treads within our border. ⁷Then the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass, which delay not for a man nor wait for the children of man. ⁸And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, when it goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is none to deliver. ⁹Your hand shall be lifted up over your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off.

The "Assyrian" (vv. 5-6) may symbolize Israel's enemies in general. The "seven shepherds and eight princes of men" (vv. 5-6) indicate an ample number of leaders. The phrase "he shall deliver us" (v. 6b) probably refers to the Messiah (cf. vv. 4-5a). Verses 7-9 appear to depict the remnant's dominance amongst the nations, bringing blessings to the nations (v. 7) and crushing its enemies (vv. 8-9).

Zec 9:13-15 For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made Ephraim its arrow. I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword. ¹⁴Then the LORD will appear over them, and his arrow will go forth like lightning; the Lord GOD will sound the trumpet and will march forth in the whirlwinds of the south. ¹⁵The LORD of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour, and tread down the sling stones, and they shall drink and roar as if drunk with wine, and be full like a bowl, drenched like the corners of the altar.

As suggested by v. 13, this appears to have the Jewish Maccabees' defeat of the Seleucids in view. But a number of commentators consider it to also have a final fulfillment in the end times.

Mal 4:3 And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.

Isa 12:3 With joy you^r will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Isa 25:9 It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

Isa 30:28-29 ... his breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck; to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to place on the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads astray. ²⁹You shall have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept, and gladness of heart, as when one sets out to the sound of the flute to go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

God's punishment of the nations (v. 28b) involves Israel's enemies – and so is a key part of Israel's salvation, bringing her joy (v. 29).

Isa 52:8-9 The voice of your watchmen—they lift up their voice; together they sing for joy; for eye to eye they see the return of the LORD to Zion. ⁹Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem.

Isa 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall exult in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Jer 31:11-12 For the LORD has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him. ¹²They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and the herd; their life shall be like a watered garden, and they shall languish no more.

Zeph 3:14-15 Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem! ¹⁵The LORD has taken away the judgments against you; he has cleared away your enemies. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall never again fear evil.

Zec 10:6-7 I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back because I have compassion on them, and they shall be as though I had not rejected them, for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them. ⁷Then Ephraim shall become like a mighty warrior, and their hearts shall be glad as with wine. Their children shall see it and be glad; their hearts shall rejoice in the LORD.

✦ The prospect of God's renewed presence in Jerusalem should make her glad:

Zec 2:10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, for behold, I come and I will dwell in your midst, declares the LORD.

God will protect and care for Israel

Isa 4:5-6 Then the LORD will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud by day, and smoke and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory there will be a canopy. ⁶There will be a booth for shade by day from the heat, and for a refuge and a shelter from the storm and rain.

The "cloud", "smoke" and "flaming fire" (v. 5) signify God's presence and protection – the latter further signified by the "canopy" (v. 5).

Isa 26:1 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: "We have a strong city; he sets up salvation as walls and bulwarks."

God's protection is implicit here (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV).

Isa 27:2-3 In that day, "A pleasant vineyard,^s sing of it! ³I, the LORD, am its keeper; every moment I water it. Lest anyone punish it, I keep it night and day; ...

The "vineyard" (v. 2) is "the redeemed nation of Israel" (AMP).

Zec 2:5 And I will be to her a wall of fire all around, declares the LORD, and I will be the glory in her midst.

Zec 9:8 Then I will encamp at my house as a guard, so that none shall march to and fro; no oppressor shall again march over them, for now I see with my own eyes.

The last clause suggests that not only did God see the affliction of his people, he would now acknowledge it and act accordingly.

Zeph 2:7b For the LORD their God will be mindful of them and restore their fortunes.

Isa 30:19 For a people shall dwell in Zion, in Jerusalem; you shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. As soon as he hears it, he answers you.

Isa 65:24 Before they call I will answer; while they are yet speaking I will hear.

Isa 28:5-6 In that day the LORD of hosts will be a crown of glory,^t and a diadem of beauty, to the remnant of his people, ⁶and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

Verse 6a speaks of God leading judges to make decisions justly (cf. GNT, NCV, NirV, NLT).

Isa 33:21-22 But there the LORD in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor majestic ship can pass. ²²For the LORD is our judge; the LORD is our lawgiver; the LORD is our king; he will save us.

The "broad rivers and streams" (v. 21) are quite possibly being spoken of here primarily as forms of protection for Jerusalem, upon which no threatening ships will sail.

Isa 54:15-17 If anyone stirs up strife, it is not from me; whoever stirs up strife with you shall fall because of you. ¹⁶Behold, I have created the smith who blows the fire of coals and produces a weapon for its purpose. I have also created the ravager to destroy; ¹⁷no weapon that is fashioned against you shall succeed, and you shall confute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD and their vindication^u from me, declares the LORD.

Verse 16 points to how all the enemies of God's people are under his control.

The Davidic Messiah will reign over Israel

See also:

- The OT promises that such a one would arise as a great ruler of Israel, p. 484
- The ruler would be a descendant of King David, in accordance with God's promise to David, p. 487

The references in this and the following subsection to "David" as a king or ruler are speaking of the promised Christ or Messiah from the line of David. The context of the other verses speaking of a future king, point to them as also being messianic.

Jer 30:9, 21 But they shall serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them. ... ²¹Their prince shall be one of themselves; their ruler shall come out from their midst; I will make him draw near, and he shall approach me, for who would dare of himself to approach me? declares the LORD.

The Davidic Messiah-king was possibly not initially in view in v. 21, but some commentators see him as the ultimate fulfillment of this prophecy, as is clearly the case in v. 9.

Ezek 34:23-24 And I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. ²⁴And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them. I am the LORD; I have spoken.

Ezek 37:24 My servant David shall be king over them, and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall walk in my rules and be careful to obey my statutes.

Hos 3:5 Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and they shall come in fear to the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

Isa 33:17 Your eyes will behold the king in his beauty; they will see a land that stretches afar.

The first clause appears to speak of the people seeing the Messiah "in all his splendor" (NLT; cf. GNT). The verse suggests that he will rule over all the land.

The Messiah will rule forever over Israel, in righteousness and peace

Luke 1:32-33 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, ³³and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.

Ps 72:1-7 Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the royal son! ²May he judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice! ³Let the mountains bear prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness! ⁴May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the children of the needy, and crush the oppressor! ⁵May they fear you^v while the sun endures, and as long as the moon, throughout all generations! ⁶May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth! ⁷In his days may the righteous flourish, and peace abound, till the moon be no more!

^v Septuagint He shall endure

Psalm 72 is understood to be messianic, to be fulfilled ultimately in the Messiah's rule. Note that vv. 3, 6, 7 speak of the abundant prosperity that will also accompany the messianic king's reign. The final clause of v. 7 alludes to his reign being everlasting.

Isa 9:5-7 For every boot of the tramping warrior in battle tumult and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel for the fire. ⁶For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon^w his shoulder, and his name shall be called^x Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

^w Or is upon

^x Or is called

Isa 32:1 Behold, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.

The "king" (v. 1) is understood to be the Messiah. Here other just rulers, subservient to the Messiah, are associated with his righteous reign.

Jer 23:5-6 Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The LORD is our righteousness.'

Ezek 37:25 They shall dwell in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children's children shall dwell there forever, and David my servant shall be their prince forever.

Mic 5:2-6 ^y But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days. ³Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has given birth; then the rest of his brothers shall return to the people of Israel. ⁴*And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth.* ⁵*And he shall be their peace.* When the Assyrian comes into our land and treads in our palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes of men; ⁶they shall shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at its entrances; and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian when he comes into our land and treads within our border.

^y Ch 5:1 in Hebrew

Aspects of this prophecy were fulfilled in Christ's first advent, but much of it is usually understood to be ultimately fulfilled in his second coming and reign. With his second coming in view, "she who is in labor" (v. 3) would likely refer to Zion. As noted earlier, the reference to the Assyrians (vv. 5-6) appears to symbolize Israel's enemies in general.

Isa 4:4 ... when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a spirit of judgment and by a spirit of burning.^g

^g Or purging

The second part of the verse is indicative of Israel's cleansing involving judgment (presumably prior to the everlasting salvation and peace spoken of in the previous sections). Similarly Zechariah 13:8-9a and Malachi 3:2-4 below suggest that Israel's purification will involve discipline and suffering.

Ezek 36:25, 29, 33 I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. ...²⁹*And I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses.* And I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lay no famine upon you. ...³³Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be rebuilt.

Mic 5:10-14 And in that day, declares the LORD, I will cut off your horses from among you and will destroy your chariots; ¹¹and I will cut off the cities of your land and throw down all your strongholds; ¹²and I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you shall have no more tellers of fortunes; ¹³and I will cut off your carved images and your pillars from among you, and you shall bow down no more to the work of your hands; ¹⁴and I will root out your Asherah images from among you and destroy your cities. ☞

In cleansing Israel God will destroy that in which it relied upon for its power and protection (vv. 10-11), and all that was evil within it (vv. 12-14). Zephaniah 3:11 below indicates that the latter includes removal of the proud.

Zeph 3:11 On that day you shall not be put to shame because of the deeds by which you have rebelled against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain. ☞

Zec 3:3-5, 8-9 Now Joshua was standing before the angel, clothed with filthy garments. ⁴And the angel said to those who were standing before him, "Remove the filthy garments from him." And to him he said, "Behold, I have taken your iniquity away from you, and I will clothe you with pure vestments." ⁵And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD was standing by. ☞ ... ⁸Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who sit before you, for they are men who are a sign: behold, I will bring my servant the Branch. ⁹For behold, on the stone that I have set before Joshua, on a single stone with seven eyes,ⁱ I will engrave its inscription, declares the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of this land in a single day. ☞

ⁱ Or facets

The high priest Joshua is representative of either or both the priests and the nation of Israel. The "stone" (v. 9) may refer to the Messiah, but this is debatable. Its "seven eyes" most likely symbolizes omniscience, of either the Messiah or God. The promise to "remove the sin of this land in a single day" (v. 9) may well refer to the day of Jesus Christ's return, but Good Friday could instead be primarily in view.

Zec 13:1-2, 8-9a "On that day there shall be a fountain opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and uncleanness. ²"And on that day, declares the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they shall be remembered no more. And also I will remove from the land the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness. ☞ ... ⁸In the whole land, declares the LORD, two thirds shall be cut off and perish, and one third shall be left alive. ⁹And I will put this third into the fire, and refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested. ☞

Particularly in v. 1, Christ's death may be partially in view as such cleansing is only possible through his death and reference is made to it in v. 7 and in the previous chapter (12:10). The prophets (v. 2b) were false prophets.

Mal 3:2-3 But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap. ³He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings in righteousness to the LORD.^j ☞

^j Or and they will belong to the LORD, bringers of an offering in righteousness

This is generally understood as referring to the Messiah's coming and God's judgment through him.

Rom 11:25-27 Lest you be wise in your own sight, I want you to understand this mystery, brothers:^k a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶And in this way all Israel will be saved, as it is written, "The Deliverer will come from Zion, he will banish ungodliness from Jacob"; ²⁷"and this will be my covenant with them when I take away their sins." ☞

^k Or brothers and sisters

The most common interpretations of the term "all Israel" are: the bulk of the Jews of the end times; all believing Jews of every generation; and all believers (cf. NSB). In using the phrase "all Israel will be saved" Paul possibly has in mind Isaiah 45:25 – "In the LORD all the offspring of Israel shall be justified and shall glory."

... and God will forgive the people's sins

Jer 31:34 And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. ☞

Jer 33:8 I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me.

Isa 33:24 And no inhabitant will say, "I am sick"; the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

Jer 50:20 In those days and in that time, declares the LORD, iniquity shall be sought in Israel, and there shall be none, and sin in Judah, and none shall be found, for I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.

Mic 7:18 Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity and passing over transgression for the remnant of his inheritance? He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in steadfast love.

Isa 62:12 And they shall be called The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD; and you shall be called Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.

Jer 31:40 The whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the fields as far as the brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be sacred to the LORD. It shall not be uprooted or overthrown anymore forever.

Ezek 37:28 Then the nations will know that I am the LORD who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary is in their midst forevermore.

Israel will be shown to be holy when God's presence is among them forever (cf. Joel 3:17 ↓).

Joel 3:17 So you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who dwells in Zion, my holy mountain. And Jerusalem shall be holy, and strangers shall never again pass through it.

Obad 1:17 But in Mount Zion there shall be those who escape, and it shall be holy, and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions.

Zec 8:3 Thus says the LORD: I have returned to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.

Zec 14:20-21 And on that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "Holy to the LORD." And the pots in the house of the LORD shall be as the bowls before the altar. ²¹And every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be holy to the LORD of hosts, so that all who sacrifice may come and take of them and boil the meat of the sacrifice in them. And there shall no longer be a trader^l in the house of the LORD of hosts on that day.

^l Or Canaanite

Verses 20-21a depict holiness characterizing all aspects of life in Jerusalem, even all things in the city.

Isa 35:8 And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Way of Holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it. It shall belong to those who walk on the way; even if they are fools, they shall not go astray.^m

^m Or if they are fools, they shall not wander in it

The "highway" is that which leads to Zion. This suggests that only those who are holy, spiritually clean, will be able to enter and reside in Jerusalem.

Israel will be righteous

Isa 1:26 And I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city.

The first statement refers to Jerusalem having "good judges and wise counselors" (NLT; cf. Isa 32:1 ↓), a factor in it being righteous.

Isa 26:2 Open the gates, that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.

The "righteous nation" probably refers primarily to the righteous remnant of Israel.

Isa 32:1, 16-17 Behold, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice. ... ¹⁶*Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness abide in the fruitful field.* ¹⁷*And the effect of righteousness will be peace, and the result of righteousness, quietness and trustⁿ forever.*

ⁿ Or security

Isa 33:5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with justice and righteousness, ...

Isa 45:25 In the LORD all the offspring of Israel shall be justified and shall glory. 𐄂

Isa 54:14 In righteousness you shall be established; you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you. 𐄂

The "righteousness" is that of Jerusalem – "rightness, in conformity with God's will and order" (AMP).

Isa 60:17b, 21 I will make your overseers peace and your taskmasters righteousness. 𐄂 ... ²¹*Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.*^o 𐄂

^o Or that I might display my beauty

"I will make ... your taskmasters righteousness" (v. 17b) quite possibly means that the people will live their lives in accordance with righteousness (v. 21b), although it could instead refer to righteous authorities governing them.

Isa 61:3 ... to grant to those who mourn in Zion— to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.^p ... 𐄂

^p Or that he may display his beauty

Isa 61:10-11 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall exult in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. ¹¹*For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to sprout up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations.* 𐄂

Some commentators understand "righteousness and praise" (v. 11) to be referring to Israel's righteousness (v. 10) and its praise of God – very pertinent to the theme of this subsection. The other possibility is that it is referring to the righteousness and praise of all nations (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

Isa 62:1-2 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch. ²*The nations shall see your righteousness, and all the kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.* 𐄂

Zeph 3:13 ... those who are left in Israel; they shall do no injustice and speak no lies, nor shall there be found in their mouth a deceitful tongue. For they shall graze and lie down, and none shall make them afraid. 𐄂

The people of Israel will be given God's Spirit

Isa 59:21 "And as for me, this is my covenant with them," says the LORD: "My Spirit that is upon you, and my words that I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, or out of the mouth of your offspring, or out of the mouth of your children's offspring," says the LORD, "from this time forth and forevermore." 𐄂

Ezek 36:26-27 And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷*And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules.*^q 𐄂

^q Or my just decrees

Being given a new heart (cf. Jer 24:7 ↴), in association with a new spirit (v. 26) – along with God's spirit – further points to Israel's spiritual renewal.

Ezek 37:14 And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it, declares the LORD. 𐄂

In being given God's Spirit, the decimated nation of Israel would be given life.

Ezek 39:29 And I will not hide my face anymore from them, when I pour out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, declares the Lord God. 𐄂

Joel 2:28-29 ^r "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. ²⁹*Even on the male and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit.* 𐄂

^r Ch 3:1 in Hebrew

Even with the reference to "all flesh" (v. 28) – and the NT's broader application of these verses – the renewed Israel would appear to be the primary focus of the promise as originally given here. A similar comment could be made of the above references, which likewise have a clear application under the present new covenant.

The people of Israel will be given spiritual understanding

See also:

▪ Isa 59:21 ↑

The references in this subsection to eyes being opened and ears hearing, may allude to God previously having judicially blinded and deafened his rebellious people spiritually (cf. Isa 6:9-10; Matt 13:13-15; Luke 8:10; John 12:40; Acts 28:26-27; Rom 1:8). As such they signify the everlasting reversal of this judgment. Note that these references are understood by some commentators as having a physical connotation as well as a spiritual one.

Isa 29:18, 24 In that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see. ... ²⁴*And those who go astray in spirit will come to understanding, and those who murmur will accept instruction.*

In v. 18, "a book" could refer to God's word, but the meaning may be more general.

Isa 32:3-5 Then the eyes of those who see will not be closed, and the ears of those who hear will give attention. ⁴The heart of the hasty will understand and know, and the tongue of the stammerers will hasten to speak distinctly. ⁵The fool will no more be called noble, nor the scoundrel said to be honorable.

The stammering tongue being able to "speak distinctly" (v. 4) may well also be reflective of spiritual healing and understanding. Verse 5 indicates that, with the renewed spiritual understanding, any fools or wicked people will be recognized for what they are.

Isa 35:5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; ...

Isa 54:13 All your children shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the peace of your children.

Being "taught by the Lord" implies receiving spiritual understanding.

Jer 24:7 I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

Jer 31:33-34 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ³⁴And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

Verse 33 suggests a far more complete understanding and compliance with God's law. As reflective of spiritual understanding, the people will know God (v. 34a; Jer 24:7a ↑).

Ezek 39:7 And my holy name I will make known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not let my holy name be profaned anymore. And the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

Israel will turn to God

Isa 10:21 A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

Jer 24:7 I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

Hos 3:5 Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and they shall come in fear to the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

Jer 31:6 For there shall be a day when watchmen will call in the hill country of Ephraim: 'Arise, and let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.'

Jer 50:4 In those days and in that time, declares the LORD, the people of Israel and the people of Judah shall come together, weeping as they come, and they shall seek the LORD their God.

‡ Israel's mourning for "the one they have pierced":

Zec 12:10 And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, so that, when they look on me, on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn.

This is commonly understood to depict Israel's eventual turning to Jesus Christ in deep remorse over their crucifixion of him.

Israel will worship God – and trust in him

Isa 27:13 And in that day a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were lost in the land of Assyria and those who were driven out to the land of Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Zeph 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Cush my worshipers, the daughter of my dispersed ones, shall bring my offering.

Isa 12:1-6 You^s will say in that day: "I will give thanks to you, O LORD, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me. ²"Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD^t is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation."
³With joy you^u will draw water from the wells of salvation.
⁴And you will say in that day: "Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted. ⁵"Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously; let this be made known^v in all the earth. ⁶Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your^w midst is the Holy One of Israel."

^s The Hebrew for you is singular in verse 1

^t Hebrew for Yah, the LORD

^u The Hebrew for you is plural in verses 3, 4

^v Or this is made known

^w The Hebrew for your in verse 6 is singular, referring to the inhabitant of Zion

Isa 25:8-9 He will swallow up death forever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. ⁹It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

As is the case with the adjacent passages, this is indicative of praise and worship of God as well as trust in him.

Isa 26:1, 4-5 *In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: "We have a strong city; he sets up salvation as walls and bulwarks.  ... ⁴Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. ⁵For he has humbled the inhabitants of the height, the lofty city. He lays it low, lays it low to the ground, casts it to the dust. *

The song of praise to God that "will be sung in the land of Judah" (v. 1) extends to at least v. 6 and possibly as far as v. 19.

Isa 10:20 In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean on him who struck them, but will lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

The phrase "him who struck them" had the king of Assyria in view. Unlike other aspects of the verse, it may not have an eschatological application.

Zeph 3:12 But I will leave in your midst a people humble and lowly. They shall seek refuge in the name of the LORD, ...

Seeking refuge in God is equivalent to trusting in him.

‡ They will acknowledge God's holiness and be in awe of God:

Isa 29:23 For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

Israel will be devoted to God

The following verses show various aspects of the people of Israel's devotion to God, including: service (Ezek 20:40a; Isa 6:19, 21); obedience (Ezek 37:24; Jer 31:33); and everlasting faithfulness (Jer 32:39-40; Ezek 43:7b). All of these are reflected in the first verse listed (Jer 50:5).

Jer 50:5 They shall ask the way to Zion, with faces turned toward it, saying, 'Come, let us join ourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.'

This reflects Israel's devotion to God in showing the people's unwavering commitment to live in accordance with his will.

Ezek 20:40a "For on my holy mountain, the mountain height of Israel, declares the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land."

Isa 66:19, 21 ... and I will set a sign among them. And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory. And they shall declare my glory among the nations.  ... ²¹*And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the LORD.*

In v. 19 "survivors" may refer to a remnant of faithful Israelites who had survived God's judgment; alternatively it may be people from the Gentile nations that are in view (cf. v. 18). Similarly it is debatable as to whether "some of them" (v. 21) refers to such Israelites or to Gentiles. If Israelites are in view, then this is illustrative of their service (cf. Ezek 20:40a ) and hence devotion to God in the end times. Note that similar to v. 21, 61:6a also speaks of God's people in the end times being his priests – "... but you shall be called the priests of the LORD; they shall speak of you as the ministers of our God ..."

Ezek 37:24 My servant David shall be king over them, and they shall all have one shepherd. They shall walk in my rules and be careful to obey my statutes.

Jer 31:33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

As noted earlier, this suggests a far more complete understanding and compliance with God's law.

Jer 32:39-40 I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them. ⁴⁰*I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them.*

And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

Ezek 43:7b And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoring and by the dead bodies^x of their kings at their high places,^y ...

^x Or the monuments; also verse 9

^y Or at their deaths

God will be as a husband to Israel, renewing his relationship with her

▪ Hos 2:1

Isa 54:5-8 For your Maker is your husband, the LORD of hosts is his name; and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer, the God of the whole earth he is called. ⁶For the LORD has called you like a wife deserted and grieved in spirit, like a wife of youth when she is cast off, says your God. ⁷For a brief moment I deserted you, but with great compassion I will gather you. ⁸In overflowing anger for a moment I hid my face from you, but with everlasting love I will have compassion on you," says the LORD, your Redeemer.

"For a brief moment I deserted you" (v. 7) probably refers initially at least to the Babylonian exile. For what was a relatively brief time, God cast off his unfaithful people – in accordance with the warnings stated in his covenant with them.

Isa 62:4-5, 12 You shall no more be termed Forsaken,^z and your land shall no more be termed Desolate,^a but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,^b and your land Married;^c for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. ⁵For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your sons marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.  ... ¹²And they shall be called The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD; and you shall be called Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.

^z Hebrew Azubah

^a Hebrew Shemamah

^b Hebrew Hephzibah

^c Hebrew Beulah

The Hebrew terms translated as "Forsaken" and "Desolate" (v. 4) allude to a deserted and "Childless" (CEV) wife, as reflected by the contrasting names in the subsequent statement and in v. 12, where "Sought Out" refers to God seeking after Jerusalem. Note that God's rejoicing over his people (v. 5b) and delighting in them (v. 4b) – as a bridegroom – is similarly spoken of in 65:19a – “I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in my people ...”

Hos 2:14-16, 19-20, 23 “Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her. ¹⁵And there I will give her her vineyards and make the Valley of Achor^d a door of hope. And there she shall answer as in the days of her youth, as at the time when she came out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁶“And in that day, declares the LORD, you will call me ‘My Husband,’ and no longer will you call me ‘My Baal.’” ... ¹⁹And I will betroth you to me forever. I will betroth you to me in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love and in mercy. ²⁰I will betroth you to me in faithfulness. And you shall know the LORD. ... ²³and I will sow her for myself in the land. And I will have mercy on No Mercy,^e and I will say to Not My People,^f ‘You are my people’; and he shall say, ‘You are my God.’”

^d Achor means trouble; compare Joshua 7:26

^f Hebrew Lo-ammi

God is speaking of Israel in vv. 14-15, 23 and directly to her in vv. 16, 19-20. In saying that Israel will no longer call him “My Baal” (v. 16), God may be referring either to: the people turning from worship of false gods (cf. v. 17); and/or that ‘his people will have a deep personal relationship with him (like a devoted wife and husband) rather than merely a legal tie (like a wife and her “master”)’ (CEV text note), for in Hebrew the term “Baal” is the same as one used for “husband” which is “master” (CEV, NIV, NKJV, NLT).

Ezek 20:41 As a pleasing aroma I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered. And I will manifest my holiness among you in the sight of the nations.

Although not using marriage terminology, this and the following verses (Zec 2:12; Ezek 39:29) also point to God renewing his relationship with his people.

Zec 2:12 And the LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem.

Ezek 39:29 And I will not hide my face anymore from them, when I pour out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, declares the Lord GOD.

Though not as specific as the previous passages, this also is indicative of God renewing his relationship with Israel.

✦ God's new covenant relationship with Israel:

Jer 31:31-34 “Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, ³²not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, declares the LORD. ³³But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ³⁴And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.”

For comment, see the comment on Jer 31:31-34 – under Judah and Israel will be reunited in the land – and share in God's blessings, p. 983.

- ... and God is their God, p. 766

The theme of this subsection denotes the consummate fulfillment of a key aspect of the first covenant that God made with Israel – that they would be his people and he would be their God (cf. ... If the Israelites obeyed God, then they would be his people and he would be their God, p. 333). Note that the following subsection reflects a further key aspect of the first covenant.

Jer 24:7 I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

Jer 30:22 And you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Jer 31:1, 6 “At that time, declares the LORD, I will be the God of all the clans of Israel, and they shall be my people.”  ... ⁶*For there shall be a day when watchmen will call in the hill country of Ephraim: ‘Arise, and let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.’”*

Although applied in the NT to God's acceptance of the Gentiles (cf. Rom 9:25-26; 1Pet 2:10), this and 2:23b below ultimately have God's reconciliation with the Israelites in view.

‡ The people of Israel will acknowledge the LORD as their judge, lawgiver and king:

Isa 33:22 For the LORD is our judge; the LORD is our lawgiver; the LORD is our king; he will save us.

Such acknowledgment of the LORD is reflective of the people's willing submission to him as their God.

These verses with the reference to the rebuilding of God's temple (v. 16a) had a fulfillment in the return of the exiles from Babylon and the subsequent rebuilding of the temple. The prophecy also appears applicable to the renewed Israel and Jerusalem of the end times. Note that “measuring line” (v. 16) seems to refer to the work involved in reconstruction, alluding to the restoration of Jerusalem and possibly also of the temple.

Zec 2:10-11 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, for behold, I come and I will dwell in your midst, declares the LORD. ¹¹*And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people. And I will dwell in your midst, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.*

Note that in the last clause Zechariah appears to refer to himself, whereas God appears to be the subject of the preceding clause – “And I will dwell in your midst ...” (cf. CEV, GNT, NirV).

Zec 8:3 Thus says the LORD: I have returned to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.

Some commentators understand at least a number of the following verses to be speaking of a new future temple of God in Jerusalem. (See the comment below under the first Ezekiel passage.)

Isa 2:3 ... and many peoples shall come, and say: “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths.” For out of Zion shall go the law,^t and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Isa 56:4-7 For thus says the LORD: “To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant,⁵ I will give in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off. ⁶“And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant—⁷these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

Jer 33:11a ... the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: "Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!"

Ezek 40:2, 48 In visions of God he brought me to the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, on which was a structure like a city to the south. ... ⁴⁸Then he brought me to the vestibule of the temple and measured the jambs of the vestibule, five cubits on either side. And the breadth of the gate was fourteen cubits, and the sidewalls of the gate^u were three cubits on either side.

Ezekiel 40-47 contains a vision/s of a temple (cf. Ezek 41:4-5, 13 ↓; Ezek 43:4-7a ↓). One interpretation is that it speaks of a Millennium temple, during a messianic kingdom on earth. Another view is that the temple and its practices are symbolic of the afterlife.

Ezek 41:3-5, 13 Then he went into the inner room and measured the jambs of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the sidewalls on either side^v of the entrance, seven cubits. ⁴And he measured the length of the room, twenty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits, across the nave. And he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place." ⁵Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits thick, and the breadth of the side chambers, four cubits, all around the temple. ... ¹³Then he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; and the yard and the building with its walls, a hundred cubits long; ...

^v Septuagint; Hebrew and the breadth

Note that "the nave" (v. 4) is likely the main room of the temple (cf. CEV), the outer sanctuary adjoining the Most Holy Place.

Ezek 43:4-7a As the glory of the LORD entered the temple by the gate facing east, ⁵the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple. ⁶While the man was standing beside me, I heard one speaking to me out of the temple, ⁷and he said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the people of Israel forever."

Hag 2:6-9 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land. ⁷And I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. ⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, declares the LORD of hosts. ⁹*The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former*, says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, declares the LORD of hosts.

This refers initially to the second temple that the Jews built after the Babylonian exile. In saying that its glory would prove to be greater than that of the first temple, "the former" (v. 9a), Haggai's words may refer to the spiritual temple that is the NT church and/or a new temple of the renewed Jerusalem.

Mal 3:1-3 Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. And the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. ²But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap. ³He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings in righteousness to the LORD.^w

^w Or and they will belong to the LORD, bringers of an offering in righteousness

The reference in v. 3 to the Levites bringing offerings has worship in the temple in view.

Zec 6:11-13 Take from them silver and gold, and make a crown, and set it on the head of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest. ¹²And say to him, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: for he shall branch out from his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD. ¹³*It is he who shall build the temple of the LORD* and shall bear royal honor, and shall sit and rule on his throne. And there shall be a priest on his throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between them both."

This crowning of the high priest (v. 11) is understood to be symbolic, portraying the messianic King-Priest who would build the temple of God (v. 12).

✚ In the new Jerusalem, God's presence amongst his people will be such that there will be no temple:

Rev 21:3, 22 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place^x of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people,^y and God himself will be with them as their God.^z ... ²²And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

Mic 4:1, 8 *It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and it shall be lifted up above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it,  ... ⁸And you, O tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you shall it come, the former dominion shall come, kingship for the daughter of Jerusalem. *

The "mountain of the house of the LORD" (v. 1) is Mount Zion. Verse 1 speaks of Jerusalem's rule over and exaltation above the nations. Likewise v. 8 seems to refer to her dominion over the nations.

Mic 5:6-8 *... they shall shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at its entrances; and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian when he comes into our land and treads within our border. ⁷Then the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass, which delay not for a man nor wait for the children of man. ⁸And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, when it goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is none to deliver. *

Often references to renowned enemies of Israel – such as Assyria (v. 6) and those in Isaiah 11:14 below – signify Israel's enemies in general. For further comment on this passage see Israel will defeat its enemies, p. 995.

Isa 11:14 *But they shall swoop down on the shoulder of the Philistines in the west, and together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put out their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them. *

Isa 14:2 *And the peoples will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them in the LORD's land as male and female slaves. They will take captive those who were their captors, and rule over those who oppressed them. *

Isa 27:6 *In days to come^a Jacob shall take root, Israel shall blossom and put forth shoots and fill the whole world with fruit. *

^a Hebrew In those to come

Israel's prominence throughout the world may be foremost in view here. Alternatively, though not unconnected, the clause "fill the whole world with fruit" may be speaking of the blessings that will come through Israel to the world, possibly alluding to the spread of the gospel and God's kingdom.

Isa 45:14 *Thus says the LORD: "The wealth of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over to you and be yours; they shall follow you; they shall come over in chains and bow down to you. They will plead with you, saying: 'Surely God is in you, and there is no other, no god besides him.'" *

Isa 49:23 *Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. With their faces to the ground they shall bow down to you, and lick the dust of your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for me shall not be put to shame. *

Isa 60:10-12 Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor I have had mercy on you. ¹¹Your gates shall be open continually; day and night they shall not be shut, that people may bring to you the wealth of the nations, with their kings led in procession. ¹²For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; those nations shall be utterly laid waste.

The final clause of v. 11 speaks further of the subservience of the kings of the nations, quite possibly even of them being led as captives in a victory procession (cf. NIV, NLT).

Isa 61:5 Strangers shall stand and tend your flocks; foreigners shall be your plowmen and vinedressers; ...

Amos 9:11-12 “In that day I will raise up the booth of David that is fallen and repair its breaches, and raise up its ruins and rebuild it as in the days of old, ¹²that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations who are called by my name,”^b declares the LORD who does this.

^b Hebrew; Septuagint (compare Acts 15:17) that the remnant of mankind and all the nations who are called by my name may seek the Lord

This speaks of Israel possessing nations, but note the alternative rendering in the text note (cf. Acts 15:17).

✦ Israel will possess nations:

Isa 54:3 For you will spread abroad to the right and to the left, and your offspring will possess the nations and will people the desolate cities.

Amos 9:12 also speaks of Israel possessing other nations – “... that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations who are called by my name,” declares the LORD who does this.” Obadiah 1:19-20 similarly speaks of Israel possessing nations surrounding her.

The nations will know and acknowledge God's presence in and care of Israel

- Isa 45:14
- Jer 3:17

The nations' acknowledgement of God's presence in Israel is also implied by the following three subsections.

Ezek 39:7 And my holy name I will make known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not let my holy name be profaned anymore. And the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

Zec 8:23 Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men from the nations of every tongue shall take hold of the robe of a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'

Ezek 37:26-28 I will make a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will set them in their land^c and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in their midst forevermore. ²⁷My dwelling place shall be with them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ²⁸Then the nations will know that I am the LORD who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary is in their midst forevermore.

^c Hebrew lacks in their land

Isa 60:14 The sons of those who afflicted you shall come bending low to you, and all who despised you shall bow down at your feet; they shall call you the City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

This indicates that the nations will acknowledge God's presence in Jerusalem and also that she belongs to God.

Isa 49:26 I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with wine. Then all flesh shall know that I am the LORD your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Note that this and the following verses speak of the nations knowing or acknowledging God's care of Israel.

Isa 52:9-10 Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

The nations will witness “the salvation of our God” (v. 10) when he redeems Jerusalem (v. 9; cf. Isa 49:26).

Isa 61:9 Their offspring shall be known among the nations, and their descendants in the midst of the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are an offspring the LORD has blessed.

Jer 33:9 And this city^d shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them. They shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

^d Hebrew And it

‡ All the peoples will praise and honor Jerusalem:

Zeph 3:19-20 Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. ²⁰At that time I will bring you in, at the time when I gather you together; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says the LORD.

Similarly Isaiah 62 implies that God will make Jerusalem "a praise in the earth" (v. 7; cf. Deut 26:19) – pointing out that: "The nations shall see your righteousness, and all the kings your glory ..." (v. 2).

The nations will come to Jerusalem to worship God...

Ps 102:21-22 ... that they may declare in Zion the name of the LORD, and in Jerusalem his praise, ²²when peoples gather together, and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.

Isa 56:6-8 "And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant— ⁷these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples." ⁸The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, declares, "I will gather yet others to him besides those already gathered."

Verse 8 appears to primarily speak of God bringing people of other nations to join the gathered exiles of Israel in worship of him. The phrasing also points to these peoples being joined to Israel as God's people, the theme of the following subsection.

Jer 3:17 At that time Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD, and all nations shall gather to it, to the presence of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they shall no more stubbornly follow their own evil heart.

Zec 14:16 Then everyone who survives of all the nations that have come against Jerusalem shall go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Booths.

Isa 2:2-3 It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be lifted up above the hills; and all the nations shall flow to it, ³and many peoples shall come, and say: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go the law,^e and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

^e Or teaching

In conjunction with coming to Jerusalem to worship God, the nations will submit to God's law and word.

Isa 25:6 On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined.

Celebrating feasts (cf. Zec 14:16 ↑) – for which the people gathered in Jerusalem – was an important part of Israelite worship of God. Such worship of God in Jerusalem, by "all peoples", appears to be in view here.

Zec 6:15 "And those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

This appears to refer to the temple of the future renewed Jerusalem. The readiness of people from "far away" – probably Gentiles rather than exiled Jews – to help to build the temple, reflects their desire to worship God, in Jerusalem.

Zec 8:22 Many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem and to entreat the favor of the LORD.

This speaks of God recording people of formerly wicked nations as being born in Zion, the city of God – implying that they will be established amongst God's people.

Isa 19:24-25 In that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth, ²⁵whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

Jer 12:16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'As the LORD lives,' even as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they shall be built up in the midst of my people.

This is speaking of nations who had been wicked neighbors of Israel (cf. v. 14).

Zec 2:11 And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people. And I will dwell in your midst, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

Isa 14:1 For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel, and will set them in their own land, and sojourners will join them and will attach themselves to the house of Jacob.

This speaks of individuals from other nations joining Israel.

✦ In contrast, the earth will become desolate:

Mic 7:12-13 In that day they^g will come to you, from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt to the River, from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain. ¹³But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their deeds.

Ps 68:29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem kings shall bear gifts to you.

Isa 18:7 At that time tribute will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide, to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of hosts.

plead with you, saying: 'Surely God is in you, and there is no other, no god besides him.'"

The latter part of the verse indicates that God's presence with Israel was the reason why the nations brought products and merchandise to them.

Isa 60:5-9, 11, 13, 16-17 Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and exult,^h because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. ⁶A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. I will make your overseers peace and your taskmasters righteousness.

^h Hebrew your heart shall tremble and grow wide

Verse 7 appears to speak of sheep being brought by nations as offerings. The "milk of nations" (v. 16) speaks of the cream of their goods, that will be for the use of the people of Jerusalem (cf. NCV, NLT; Isa 61:6 ↓).

Isa 61:6 ... but you shall be called the priests of the LORD; they shall speak of you as the ministers of our God; you shall eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory you shall boast.

Here and in Isaiah 66:12 immediately below, the "glory" of the nations is a reference to their wealth.

Isa 66:12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse, you shall be carried upon her hip, and bounced upon her knees.

Hag 2:7-9 And I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. ⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, declares the LORD of hosts. ⁹The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, declares the LORD of hosts.

These verses appear to have eschatological significance. This is supported by the context, with the preceding verse (v. 6) being quoted in Hebrews 12:26-27 in reference to Jesus Christ's return.

Zec 14:14 Even Judah will fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding nations shall be collected, gold, silver, and garments in great abundance.

Note that this is actually speaking of the wealth of the surrounding nations being captured, rather than these nations voluntarily bringing it to Jerusalem.

✦ Nations will be drawn to the glory of Zion:

Isa 55:5 Behold, you shall call a nation that you do not know, and a nation that did not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, and of the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Similarly Isaiah 60:3 speaks of nations being drawn to the light of God's glory in Zion – "And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising."

Isa 44:3-4 For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants. ⁴They shall spring up among the grass like willows by flowing streams.

This is an example of a passage with a number of applications or stages of fulfillment. It quite likely initially referred to the exiles returning to the land of Israel from Babylon. Particularly with the reference to the pouring out of the Holy Spirit, it pertains to the giving of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and to believers in general. It is often understood to also look ahead to the renewed Israel for its final fulfillment.

Isa 61:7-9 Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot; therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; they shall have everlasting joy. ⁸For I the LORD love justice; I hate robbery and wrong;ⁱ I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. ⁹Their offspring shall be known among the nations, and their descendants in the midst of the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are an offspring the LORD has blessed.

ⁱ Or robbery with a burnt offering

A "double portion" (v. 7; cf. Zec 9:12) probably alludes to the double share given to a firstborn son (cf. Deut 21:17) and may have in view Israel as being God's firstborn son (cf. Ex 4:22; Jer 31:9). As such Israel will be blessed more than any other nation. Note that the "everlasting covenant" (v. 8; cf. Jer 32:40) is usually understood to be a reference to the new covenant.

Jer 32:40-42 I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. ⁴¹I will rejoice in doing them good, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul. ⁴²"For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all this great disaster upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I promise them.

Jer 33:9 And this city^j shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them. They shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

^j Hebrew And it

Ezek 34:26 And I will make them and the places all around my hill a blessing, and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing.

The term "my hill" refers to Mount Zion.

Ezek 36:11b And I will cause you to be inhabited as in your former times, and will do more good to you than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

The land of Israel is being spoken of here, reflective of the blessed state of Israel's people.

Zec 9:12, 16-17 Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double. ... ¹⁶On that day the LORD their God will save them, as the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land. ¹⁷For how great is his goodness, and how great his beauty! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the young women.

The reference to "his beauty" may well be to that manifested in his people or land (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT).

Isa 65:18, 20, 22-23 But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem to be a joy, and her people to be a gladness. ... ²⁰*No more shall there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not fill out his days, for the young man shall die a hundred years old, and the sinner a hundred years old shall be accursed.* ... ²²*They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy^k the work of their hands.* ²³*They shall not labor in vain or bear children for calamity,^l for they shall be the offspring of the blessed of the LORD, and their descendants with them.*

^l Or for sudden terror

This shows some particular ways in which God will greatly bless Jerusalem. Note that in a similar vein 33:24a says, 'And no inhabitant will say, "I am sick" ...'

God will glorify Israel

Isa 4:2 In that day the branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be the pride and honor of the survivors of Israel.

A number of commentators consider "the branch of the LORD" to refer to the righteous remnant of Israel (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT), although traditionally it has been taken to refer to the Messiah (cf. NIV). Particularly if the latter is the case, the "fruit of the land" may well have a spiritual meaning, perhaps speaking of spiritual fruit arising from "the branch".

Isa 35:1-2 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus; ²it shall blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

Verses 1-2a demonstrate the glory (v. 2b) that will be given to Israel and its land. Note that the crocus (v. 1b) is a small plant which has bright yellow, purple or white flowers.

Isa 54:11-12 O afflicted one, storm-tossed and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in antimony, and lay your foundations with sapphires.^m I will make your pinnacles of agate,ⁿ your gates of carbuncles,^o and all your wall of precious stones.

This illustrates God's glorification of Jerusalem.

Isa 55:5 Behold, you shall call a nation that you do not know, and a nation that did not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, and of the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

Isa 60:9, 13, 15 For the coastlands shall hope for me, the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your children from afar, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has made you beautiful. ... ¹³*The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the pine, to beautify the place of my sanctuary, and I will make the place of my feet glorious.* ... ¹⁵*Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through, I will make you majestic forever, a joy from age to age.*

Isa 62:2-3, 6-7 The nations shall see your righteousness, and all the kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give. ³*You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.* ... ⁶*On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have set watchmen; all the day and all the night they shall never be silent. You who put the LORD in remembrance, take no rest, ⁷and give him no rest until *he establishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise in the earth.

Note that the "new name" (v. 2) appears to refer to one or more of the new names Zion is called later in vv. 4, 12 – which speak of God's new relationship with her in terms alluding to marriage.

Jer 30:19 Out of them shall come songs of thanksgiving, and the voices of those who celebrate. I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will make them honored, and they shall not be small.

Zeph 3:19-20 Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. ²⁰*At that time I will bring you in, at the time when I gather you together; for I will make you renowned and* praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says the LORD.

‡ Glorious things are spoken of Jerusalem:

Isa 60:1-3, 19-20 Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. ²For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen upon you. ³*And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.*  ... ¹⁹The sun shall be no more your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give you light;^a but the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.^r ²⁰*Your sun shall no more go down, nor your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.*

- ^a Masoretic Text; Dead Sea Scroll, Septuagint, Targum add by night
- ^r Or your beauty

Jerusalem's "light" (vv. 1, 3) is largely due to the presence of God's glory over her, as her "everlasting light" (vv. 19, 20).

Zec 2:5 And I will be to her a wall of fire all around, declares the LORD, and I will be the glory in her midst.

Ps 102:15-16 Nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth will fear your glory. ¹⁶*For the LORD builds up Zion; he appears in his glory; ...*

Isa 24:23 Then the moon will be confounded and the sun ashamed, for the LORD of hosts reigns on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and his glory will be before his elders.

Note that the above passages speak of Israel's glory primarily being due to God's glory or glorious presence being in her, in Jerusalem in particular. This and the following passage speak further of the glory of God's presence being in her, pointing to Israel's glory rather than explicitly speaking of it.

Isa 66:18-20 For I know^s their works and their thoughts, and the time is coming^t to gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and shall see my glory, ¹⁹and I will set a sign among them. And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory. And they shall declare my glory among the nations. ²⁰*And they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses and in chariots and in litters and on mules and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem,* says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

^t Hebrew and it is coming

The references to the nations coming to see God's glory (v. 18b) and to them bringing Israelites to God's "holy mountain Jerusalem" (v. 20a), imply that the passage has the glory of God's presence in Jerusalem in view when it speaks of God's glory in vv. 18-19.

Hag 2:6-9 For thus says the LORD of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land. ⁷And I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. ⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, declares the LORD of hosts. ⁹*The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former,* says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, declares the LORD of hosts.

As noted earlier, at least some commentators think that this will have an ultimate fulfillment in a temple in the renewed Jerusalem. In v. 7, "I will fill this house with glory" may well speak of the glory of God's presence (cf. CEV), though material splendor may instead be in view.

Israel's renewal will bring God glory

Isa 26:15 But you have increased the nation, O LORD, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have enlarged all the borders of the land.

Despite its past tense, this appears to be prophetic – or at least to have a future application.

Isa 44:23 Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it; shout, O depths of the earth; break forth into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and will be glorified^u in Israel.

^u Or will display his beauty

God will be glorified in redeeming Israel (cf. Isa 46:13 ↓).

Isa 60:21 Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.^v

^v Or that I might display my beauty

Isa 61:3 ... to grant to those who mourn in Zion— to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.^w

^w Or that he may display his beauty

The term “oaks of righteousness” depicts the people of Jerusalem as being “lofty, strong, and magnificent, distinguished for uprightness, justice, and right standing with God” (AMP).

Isa 43:5-7 Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you. ⁶I will say to the north, Give up, and to the south, Do not withhold; bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the end of the earth, ⁷everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.

Quite likely v. 7 is saying that God created his people so as to bring himself glory, presumably at least partly through his restoration of them (vv. 5-6).

Isa 55:12-13 “For you shall go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. ¹³Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall make a name for the LORD, an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.”

The restored Israel would in effect be a “memorial to the LORD” (NASB; cf. NRSV), “a lasting witness to the glory of the LORD” (CEV). As such it will bring God great fame and honor (cf. AMP, NlrV, NLT).

Isa 46:13 I bring near my righteousness; it is not far off, and my salvation will not delay; I will put salvation in Zion, for Israel my glory.

Jer 33:9 And this city^x shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them. They shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

^x Hebrew And it

† God's glory will be seen in the renewed Israel:

Isa 35:1-2 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus; ²it shall blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.

The last statement is quite possibly speaking of God's glory and majesty being evident in Israel's wonderful and glorious restoration. Alternatively, it may be referring to the glory of God's presence coming to Israel, as per the previous subsection.

Note: Israel will have no more shame

Isa 29:22 Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: “Jacob shall no more be ashamed, no more shall his face grow pale.

The phrase “grow pale” may be speaking of being “pale with shame” (GNT; cf. CEV, NCV), but being “pale with fear” (NLT; cf. AMP) is a possibility.

Isa 45:17 But Israel is saved by the LORD with everlasting salvation; you shall not be put to shame or confounded to all eternity.

Isa 54:4 Fear not, for you will not be ashamed; be not confounded, for you will not be disgraced; for you will forget the shame of your youth, and the reproach of your widowhood you will remember no more.

The “shame of your youth” most likely refers to Israel's enslavement in Egypt and the “reproach of your widowhood” to the Babylonian exile (cf. NlrV). The latter alludes to the nation's loss of their close relationship with God, who had been and would again be like a husband to them (cf. v. 5).

Isa 61:7 Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot; therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; they shall have everlasting joy. 📖

Joel 2:26-27 You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. ²⁷You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God and there is none else. And my people shall never again be put to shame. 📖

This ends a section on the promise of restoration after a severe locust plague. But in speaking of God's people "never again" being shamed and with earlier passages (cf. 1:2-2:11) speaking of "the day of the LORD", these verses may well have an eschatological application.

Zeph 3:11, 19 On that day you shall not be put to shame because of the deeds by which you have rebelled against me;

for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain. 📖 ... ¹⁹Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. 📖

Isa 25:8 He will swallow up death forever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. 📖

God will take away that which brings his people shame and disgrace – basically the consequences stemming from her sin.

The Bible does not simply repeat one basic formula as to how to get “right with God”. However there are two prominent themes, which basically encompass the other things that the Bible mentions. These two fundamental themes are repentance and belief in Jesus Christ.

Bear in mind that in using the expression “right with God”, this chapter largely has in view being deemed righteous in God’s eyes, which involves the forgiveness of one’s sins. As such, it also means that we are at peace with God.

Note the topic of Baptism cross-referenced above, for it is also relevant to the subject of getting right with God, as basically it signifies that one has become “right with God”.

a) God’s Invitation

Subsections

- God and Jesus Christ invite all people to come to them and be saved . . .

- God wants us to earnestly seek him – and so find him
- We have the choice of whether or not to respond to God and Jesus Christ
- We must believe in God and what he says
- We need to be open to believing and responding to God
- Now is the time to seek God and to respond to him
- Other preliminary points to consider
- Note: Apart from God, life is pointless

God and Jesus Christ invite all people to come to them and be saved . . .

Isa 45:22 Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other. ☞

Isa 55:1-3 Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. ²Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. ³Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live; and I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. ☞

God invites all people to come and have their spiritual thirst and hunger satisfied, that their “soul may live” (v. 3).

Matt 11:28-30 Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. ☞

Jesus’ invitation is in a sense an invitation to salvation as the promised “rest” appears to encompass rest from: trying to obey the OT law to be righteous before God, particularly with how it was embellished by the Jews; the burden of sin; and any troubles in our lives that weary and burden us.

Matt 22:9-10 Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find. ¹⁰And those servants went out into the roads and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests. ☞

The wedding banquet for the king’s son in this parable (cf. vv. 1-14) appears to allude to the messianic banquet of the afterlife and so the invitation to the banquet amounts to an invitation to salvation. Note that in saying that “both good and bad” (v. 10) were invited, Matthew may be emphasizing that all people are invited – even those who are considered to be bad.

John 7:37 On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink.” ☞

This is in effect an invitation to salvation (cf. Rev 2:17 ↓), which involves the satisfying of one’s spiritual thirst.

John 10:9 I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. ☞

This suggests that we are invited to enter the “door” that is Jesus, and so be saved.

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the Bride say, “Come.” And let the one who hears say, “Come.” And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price. ☞

Note that the two occurrences of “Come” may be calls for Jesus Christ to return (cf. vv. 12, 20), rather than appeals to non-believers (here made by the Holy Spirit and the “Bride” or church). However the latter is definitely the focus in the second half of the verse.

Acts 17:30 The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, ... 📖

The fact that God commands all people to repent suggests that salvation is open to everyone.

Rom 10:11-13 For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.” ¹²For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. ¹³For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” 📖

Here Paul stresses that salvation is open to all people. Note that as v. 13 suggests, to “call on” the Lord (v. 12) in effect means to pray for salvation, believing in him (cf. BKC).

1Tim 4:10 For to this end we toil and strive,^b because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. 📖

^b Some manuscripts and suffer reproach

The description of God as “the Savior of all people” implies that his salvation is open to all, although it only comes to fruition for “those who believe”.

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, ... 📖

Most likely this means that in his grace God has made salvation open to all people. (cf. NBC)

Luke 2:10-11 And the angel said to them, “Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. ¹¹*For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.* 📖

The phrase “all the people” (v. 10) probably refers to all the Jewish people, but quite possibly it alludes to or at least is applicable to all humankind (cf. vv. 30-32) – “everyone” (CEV, NLT). From this it can be inferred that this good news of a savior and his salvation is for everyone.

John 1:7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 📖

Note that the reference is to John the Baptist.

John 3:16-17 For God so loved the world,^c that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. 📖

^c Or For this is how God loved the world

‡ God is not willing that any “little ones” be lost:

Matt 18:12-14 What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? ¹³And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. ¹⁴*So it is not the will of my^d Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.* 📖

^d Some manuscripts your

Many commentators consider that “little ones” is referring to young believers or believers generally who change and “become like children”, humbling themselves (vv. 3-4). If, however, it does refer to or is applicable to children generally (cf. v. 10), then this reference also supports the assertion that God wants all people to be saved.

Acts 15:16-17 After this I will return, and I will rebuild the tent of David that has fallen; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will restore it, ¹⁷*that the remnant^e of mankind may seek the Lord, and all the Gentiles who are called by my name, says the Lord, who makes these things ...*

^e Or rest

In these verses James quotes Amos 9:11-12, which probably ultimately refers to the end of the age. Here James appears to use it to affirm that the contention that God wants the Gentiles to come to him to be saved (cf. v. 19) is consistent with the Scriptures.

Heb 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Presumably enabling people to find him is one prime way in which God “rewards those who seek him”.

Deut 4:29 But from there you will seek the LORD your God and you will find him, if you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul.

The reference is actually to God’s people seeking him again after being unfaithful, but it is also applicable to people initially seeking him. The same applies below to Jeremiah 29:13-14a and Amos 5:4-6.

1Chr 28:9 And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever.

Jer 29:13-14 You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart. ¹⁴*I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, declares the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.*

Matt 7:7-8 Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

This is in fact referring to persistence in prayer, but this teaching is also applicable to earnestly seeking God and “knocking” on “the door” to God’s kingdom.

✦ God’s call to wayward Israel to seek him and live:

Amos 5:4-6 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel: “Seek me and live; ⁵but do not seek Bethel, and do not enter into Gilgal or cross over to Beersheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall come to nothing.” ⁶*Seek the LORD and live, lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, with none to quench it for Bethel, ...*

This call is applicable to all people, for them to seek God and have spiritual life.

John 3:36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

This indicates that we have the choice of believing in or rejecting Jesus Christ.

Deut 30:15-19 See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil. ¹⁶*If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God^f that I command you today, by loving the LORD your God, by walking in his ways, and by keeping his commandments and his statutes and his rules,^g then you shall live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to take possession of it.* ¹⁷*But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them, ¹⁸I declare to you today, that you shall surely perish.* ¹⁹*I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Moses gave the people what was in effect a choice between life and death (vv. 15, 19). He urged the people to choose life (v. 19) by loving and obeying God (v. 16) – as opposed to choosing the path to death, by turning away from God to other gods (v. 17).

Josh 24:14-16, 22 “Now therefore fear the LORD and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness. Put away the gods that your fathers served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. ¹⁵*And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the*

But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."¹⁶Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods, ...²²Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses."

Note that in v. 15 Joshua is speaking of a further choice of which gods to serve – if the people chose not to serve God.

Isa 1:19-20 If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; ²⁰but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be eaten by the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

God's words to the people of Judah, who had turned away from him, indicate that they had the choice as to whether or not to respond to him. This reflects the assertion that all people have such a choice.

Ps 119:30, 173 I have chosen the way of faithfulness; I set your rules before me. ... ¹⁷³Let your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen your precepts.

Isa 56:4 For thus says the LORD: "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant, ...

Matt 23:37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not!

On the whole, the people of Jerusalem were not willing to respond to Jesus – i.e. they chose not to come to him.

Heb 12:25 See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven.

✦ People are responsible for rejecting the gospel:

Acts 18:6 And when they opposed and reviled him, he shook out his garments and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

We must believe in God and what he says

See also:

- Believing in Jesus Christ is integral to believing in God . . ., p. 1042

We must believe in God, believing that he exists and believing what the Bible teaches about him, including the words that the Bible attributes to him.

Heb 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Acts 16:34 Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.

1Pet 1:21 ... who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

Jesus' words were from God, who sent him. It is critical that we believe God's words.

Rom 4:16-24 That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, ¹⁷as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations"—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. ¹⁸*In hope he believed* against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, "So shall your offspring be." ¹⁹*He did not weaken in faith* when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. ²⁰*No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God,* ²¹*fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.* ²²That is why his faith was "counted to him as righteousness." ²³But the words "it was counted to him" were not written for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, ...

In describing Abraham as "the father of us all ... in the presence of the God in whom he believed" (vv. 16-17), Paul indicates that Abraham is the spiritual father of all people who follow in his steps in believing in God (cf. vv. 23-24) and believing in what God says (vv. 20-21). Note that in speaking of Abraham as “the father of many nations” (vv. 17, 18), Paul links and draws parallels between Abraham being the father of many nations physically and him being the father of all believers spiritually.

We need to be open to believing and responding to God

See also:

- Spiritual ignorance and lack of perception is caused partly by the ungodly being closed-minded . . ., p. 1669

Note that most of the following passages illustrate the need to be open to believing and responding through the examples of people who were not open to doing so, in some cases even in the face of compelling evidence (cf. Luke 16:29-31 ↓; John 5:39-47 ↓; John 12:37-40 ↓).

Jer 6:10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ears are uncircumcised, they cannot listen; behold, the word of the LORD is to them an object of scorn; they take no pleasure in it.

The term “uncircumcised” indicates that their ears were effectively closed to God’s word, as if they were people not in a covenantal relationship with God. The verse illustrates that those whose ears or minds are closed to God’s word, will not heed or listen to it. Additionally, it shows that such people often find God’s word objectionable, further hardening themselves against responding to it.

Matt 18:2-4 And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them ³and said, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴*Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.*

Similarly in Mark 10:15 Jesus says, “Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it.” These verses refer to the humility, openness and receptiveness of little children, characteristics which are required to believe Jesus’ message and enter God’s kingdom (cf. 11:25).

Mark 16:14 Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen.

Luke 11:34-36 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is bad, your body is full of darkness. ³⁵*Therefore be careful lest* the light in you be darkness. ³⁶*If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly bright, as when a lamp with its rays gives you light.*

We need to ensure that we are not spiritually blind. We need good eyes – openness to spiritual truth, which will enlighten us.

Luke 16:29-31 But Abraham said, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them.’ ³⁰And he said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ ³¹*He said to him, ‘If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead.’*

Verse 31 indicates that for those whose minds are closed to God’s word – and so refuse to repent (v. 30) – not even the testimony of someone raised from the dead will open their minds. This would be shown to some extent at least by Jesus Christ’s resurrection, which possibly is alluded to here.

John 3:19-21 And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. ²⁰*For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed.* ²¹*But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God.*

The phrase “comes to the light” (v. 21a; cf. v. 20) speaks of coming to Jesus Christ, the light. This passage indicates that unrepentant evil doers will not come to Jesus Christ for their deeds will be shown for what they are (v. 20). Thus because of their evil ways they are not open to believing and responding to Jesus Christ – in contrast to those who seek to do what is true or right (v. 21).

John 5:39-47 You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, ⁴⁰*yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life.* ⁴¹*I do not receive glory from people.* ⁴²*But I know that you do not have the love of God within you.* ⁴³*I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not receive me.* If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. ⁴⁴*How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?* ⁴⁵*Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope.* ⁴⁶*For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me.* ⁴⁷*But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words?*

The Jews, particularly the Jewish authorities, blankly refused to believe Jesus and to come to him to have life (v. 40); they were not open to Jesus and his message. Factors in this included: studying the Scriptures with closed minds (vv. 39-40) and so in fact not believing what the Scriptures actually teach (vv. 45-47); not having the “love of God” (v. 42), probably love for God (cf. CEV, GNT, Nlrv); and their desire for glory or praise from men rather than from God (vv. 41-44).

John 12:37-40 Though he had done so many signs before them, they still did not believe in him, ³⁸so that the word spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: “Lord, who has believed what he heard from us, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?” ³⁹Therefore they could not believe. For again Isaiah said, ⁴⁰“He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn, and I would heal them.”

Verses 39-40 speak of God’s judicial blinding of many of the Jews – with their subsequent lack of spiritual perception and openness – as being the reason for their unbelief (vv. 37-38).

Luke 8:15 As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience.

One can infer from this that having “an honest and good heart” is important for being open to responding to God’s word and holding to it.

✦ One needs to recognize one’s sin:

Matt 21:31b-32 Jesus said to them, “Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him.

Here Jesus is addressing the self-righteous chief priests and elders. These verses exemplify the fact that admitted sinners are open to believing and responding to God’s message, in contrast to those who are self-righteous. To be open to the message one must recognize one’s sin (cf. 9:13b).

Now is the time to seek God and to respond to him

Isa 55:6 Seek the LORD while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; ...

Hos 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap steadfast love; break up your fallow ground, for it is the time to seek the LORD, that he may come and rain righteousness upon you.

2Cor 6:1-2 Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ²For he says, “In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you.” Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

To underline the urgent need to respond to – or to secure – the offer of salvation that God has given in his favor or “grace” (v. 1), Paul cites Isaiah 49:8, applying it to the present time.

Heb 4:6-7 Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, ⁷again he appoints a certain day, “Today,” saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.”

“Today” – the present time, which will not continue indefinitely – is the time to respond positively to God’s voice. Here the particular context concerns taking hold of the opportunity of entering God’s rest (cf. vv. 1-12).

Mark 1:14-15 Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, ¹⁵and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel.”

Jesus Christ’s life, ministry and sacrifice inaugurated the kingdom of God in its current form – a spiritual, present reality, to be fully consummated at the end of the age when God’s authority will be fully imposed once and for all. With the nearness of its present form – before its consummation – now is the time for the required response, to “repent and believe in the gospel” (v. 15)

Luke 12:54-59 He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, ‘A shower is coming.’ And so it happens. ⁵⁵And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat,’ and it happens. ⁵⁶You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time? ⁵⁷“And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison. ⁵⁹I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny.”ⁱ

ⁱ Greek lepton, a Jewish bronze or copper coin worth about 1/128 of a denarius (which was a day’s wage for a laborer)

Despite the fact that the people could read the signs which indicated a change in the weather (vv. 54-55), they could not – or were not willing to – interpret the signs of the present time (primarily what God was doing through Jesus) and respond accordingly. Jesus uses the illustration in vv. 58-59 to portray their plight and highlight the urgency for them to take action now to be reconciled to God. Jesus' teaching is very much applicable today. Note that in v. 58, "accuser", "magistrate", "judge" and "officer" may all refer to God, reflecting various aspects of his position in regard to people while they remain not reconciled to him.

Luke 13:23-25 And someone said to him, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?" And he said to them, ²⁴"Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. ²⁵When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us,' then he will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.'"

Instead of addressing the issue of how many would be saved (v. 23), Jesus speaks of what one needs to do in order to be saved – i.e. we must do all we can to enter the narrow door of salvation (cf. Matt 7:13-14 ↕). In speaking of this, Jesus refers to the need to act now, saying that the time will come when the door will be closed and it will be too late for those who want to enter then (v. 25).

Matt 7:13-14 Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy^j that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. ¹⁴For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

^j Some manuscripts For the way is wide and easy

This implies that determined effort is required to: find the "gate" or way that leads to life; enter through the "gate" (cf. Luke 13:23 ↑); and keep to the narrow way to life.

Luke 14:15-24 When one of those who reclined at table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!" ¹⁶But he said to him, "A man once gave a great banquet and invited many.

¹⁷And at the time for the banquet he sent his servant^k to say to those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.' ¹⁸But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please have me excused.' ¹⁹And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them. Please have me excused.' ²⁰And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' ²¹So the servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' ²²And the servant said, 'Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.' ²³And the master said to the servant, 'Go out to the highways and hedges and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled. ²⁴For I tell you,^l none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.'"

^k Greek bondservant; also verses 21, 22, 23

This is a parable portraying God's invitation to all people to come into his kingdom (v. 15). It largely contrasts the responses of the self-sufficient – with their higher priorities (vv. 18-20) – and the needy, who it implies generally do respond positively (vv. 21-22). As such it warns against: being self-sufficient, seeing little need for God in our lives; and giving other things a higher priority than God, leaving no time for him.

Note that the instruction to go beyond the city limits to urge people to come in (v. 23), may allude to the extension of God's offer of salvation to the Gentiles. Thus the uninterested group would then appear to largely signify those of the Jews who were self-sufficient and self-righteous – notably the religious leaders of the day.

Luke 14:28-33 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? ²⁹Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, ³⁰saying, "This man began to build and was not able to finish." ³¹Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? ³²And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. ³³So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.

The cost of being a disciple of Jesus Christ is enormous (v. 33). So those who want to respond and follow him should first count the cost (cf. vv. 29-32).

Heb 2:2-3a For since the message declared by angels proved to be reliable, and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, ³how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation?

If people were accountable under the OT law – as a means of obtaining righteousness in God’s sight – how much more so are we in the light of God’s greater offer of salvation through Jesus Christ. Neglecting it will bring dreadful consequences.

Note: Apart from God, life is pointless

See also:

- Note: Do not work for things that do not satisfy or do not last – and so are in effect meaningless, p. 1402

The following references are from Ecclesiastes. Its main theme, often underlying some of its more despairing conclusions, is that apart from God everything is pointless. In conveying this, “vanity” is often used. The word translated as “vanity” literally means “vapor” (cf. 1:2 text note), pointing to something being without substance, fleeting and/or elusive. Thus “vanity” presumably has the sense of being “in vain” – being worthless, empty, futile and/or unfulfilling.

Relevant to this whole section (God’s Invitation) is the assertion apparent in the references that to live without God – with life’s realities being what they are – leaves one’s life a largely pointless existence.

Ecc 1:2-10 Vanity^m of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity. ³What does man gain by all the toil at which he toils under the sun? ⁴A generation goes, and a generation comes, but the earth remains forever. ⁵The sun rises, and the sun goes down, and hastensⁿ to the place where it rises. ⁶The wind blows to the south and goes around to the north; around and around goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns. ⁷All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place where the streams flow, there they flow again. ⁸All things are full of weariness; a man cannot utter it; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. ⁹What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun. ¹⁰Is there a thing of which it is said, “See, this is new”? It has been already in the ages before us.

^m Hebrew vapor (so throughout Ecclesiastes)

ⁿ Or and returns panting

Verses 5-7 portray the unchanging patterns of nature, which the author uses to illustrate that no matter what people do, nothing really satisfies (v. 8) or changes (vv. 9-10).

Ecc 1:14-15 I have seen everything that is done under the sun, and behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind.^o ¹⁵What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.

^o Or a feeding on wind; compare Hosea 12:1 (so throughout Ecclesiastes)

Verse 15 appears to be saying that much of what is wrong in life cannot be fixed – although there other interpretations.

Ecc 2:1-2 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy yourself.” But behold, this also was vanity. ²I said of laughter, “It is mad,” and of pleasure, “What use is it?”

Ecc 2:15-16 Then I said in my heart, “What happens to the fool will happen to me also. Why then have I been so very wise?” And I said in my heart that this also is vanity. ¹⁶For of the wise as of the fool there is no enduring remembrance, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. How the wise dies just like the fool!

Ecc 2:22-23, 26 What has a man from all the toil and striving of heart with which he toils beneath the sun? ²³For all his days are full of sorrow, and his work is a vexation. Even in the night his heart does not rest. This also is vanity.  ... ²⁶For to the one who pleases him God has given wisdom and knowledge and joy, but to the sinner he has given the business of gathering and collecting, only to give to one who pleases God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

In v. 26 the author asserts that the sinner’s efforts are useless to him, toiling for no benefit to himself.

Ecc 3:19 For what happens to the children of man and what happens to the beasts is the same; as one dies, so dies the other. They all have the same breath, and man has no advantage over the beasts, for all is vanity.

Ecc 4:4 Then I saw that all toil and all skill in work come from a man’s envy of his neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

If one’s labor basically stems from envy of others – wanting what they have – then it is a rather pointless, hollow exercise.

Ecc 4:13-16 Better was a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knew how to take advice. ¹⁴For he went from prison to the throne, though in his own kingdom he had been born poor. ¹⁵I saw all the living who move about under the sun, along with that^p youth who was to stand in the king’s^q place. ¹⁶There was no end of all the people, all of whom he led. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

^q Hebrew his

The previous king was foolish (v. 13), and so presumably the people were not happy with him. At first the new king, the youth, pleased the people – but later subjects were not pleased with him either. Such cycles of making a change in leadership only to be followed by disenchantment with the leader is to a large degree a pointless phenomenon. (The thought could also be applied to making some other kinds of changes in life.)

Eccl 11:8, 10 So if a person lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that comes is vanity.  ...¹⁰Remove vexation from your heart, and put away pain^r from your body, for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

^r Or evil

In later life, with one's failing health, there will be many dark days; enduring many of them appears a meaningless proposition (v. 8). By the same token we should not be overly troubled by problems and physical disorders we encounter earlier in life, for youth and good health are short lived anyway and so soon come to nothing (v. 10).

- c) Addressing Sin (II): Deal with Sin before God, p. 1841

The words in the Bible that are translated as “repent” speak of: changing one’s mind, regret and consequently turning around. When people are called to repent, they are called to change their mindset and turn away from sin to God.

Repentance and belief (or faith) are inextricably linked. Prior to repentance we must believe that God exists and that he requires us to turn to him. On repenting we must believe in Jesus Christ for forgiveness of the sin that we have turned away from.

Matt 3:1-3 In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ²*“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”* ³For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare^s the way of the Lord; make his paths straight.’”

^s Or crying: Prepare in the wilderness

The call in v.3b is in effect a call for repentance (complementing the one in v. 2). Its implication appears to be that people should prepare themselves for the Lord, straightening out their lives – making them right and true.

Matt 4:17 From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Like John the Baptist in 3:1 above, Jesus emphasizes the need and urgency for one to repent by warning them that “the kingdom of heaven is at hand”, meaning that the kingdom “has come or is coming soon” (NLT text note). See also the introductory comment on c) The Kingdom of God, p. 1744.

Mark 6:12 So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent.

Acts 17:30 The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, ...

‡ Jesus called people who recognized themselves as sinners, to repentance:

Luke 5:32 I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.

In this context “the righteous” refers to those who saw themselves as such – self-righteous people.

Confess your sins . . .

- Confess your sin to God, p. 1842

Mark 1:4-5 John appeared, baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵And all the country of Judea and all Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

This suggests that confession of sins is a significant act in the process of repentance, with the people “confessing their sins” (v. 5) in undergoing John’s “baptism of repentance” (v. 4).

Acts 19:18 Also many of those who were now believers came, confessing and divulging their practices.

1Jn 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

This was actually written to Christians, rather than people turning to God for the first time. Confession, like repentance, is something believers need to keep doing when they inevitably sin. (See also Confess your sin to God, p. 1842.)

Luke 15:21 And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ ^t

^t Some manuscripts add treat me as one of your hired servants

Here Jesus was drawing a parallel between the Prodigal Son’s return to his father – which involved this confession of his sin – and that of repentant sinners coming to God.

Ezek 33:11 Say to them, As I live, declares the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways, for why will you die, O house of Israel?

2Tim 2:19 But God’s firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: “The Lord knows those who are his,” and, “Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity.”

Acts 3:26 God, having raised up his servant, sent him to you first, to bless you by turning every one of you from your wickedness.

John 8:11 She said, “No one, Lord.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more.”

Jesus was speaking here to a woman who had been caught in adultery.

Jonah 3:8 ...but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them call out mightily to God. Let everyone turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.

In turning from sin, do what is good and right . . .

Ps 34:14 Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.

Isa 1:16-17 Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes; cease to do evil, ¹⁷learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow’s cause.

Jer 7:5 For if you truly amend your ways and your deeds, if you truly execute justice one with another, ...

Jer 35:15a I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, sending them persistently, saying, ‘Turn now every one of you from his evil way, and amend your deeds, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to you and your fathers.’

To “amend” our deeds means that we must change the way we act (cf. NIRV). As such we need to turn from evil and sin, and begin to do what is good and right (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV).

Dan 4:27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you: break off your sins by practicing righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed, that there may perhaps be a lengthening of your prosperity.

Ezek 18:21 But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die.

Matt 3:8 Bear fruit in keeping with repentance.

People are to do things that show they have repented (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT; Acts 26:20 ↓).

Acts 26:20 ... but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance.

Isa 45:22 Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other.

Acts 14:15 Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men, of like nature with you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them.

Acts 20:20-21 ... how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you in public and from house to house, ²¹testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of repentance toward God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

1Thes 1:9 For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, ...

Acts 11:21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.

Here the reference is to turning to Jesus Christ (cf. v. 20).

1Pet 2:25 For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

In the light of the context, Peter seems to be speaking of his readers' pre-conversion state. Thus “returned” would appear to have the sense of “turned” (NLT). The “Shepherd and Overseer” is Jesus Christ.

2Ki 23:25 Before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses, nor did any like him arise after him.

✦ God accepts those who do what is right (and fear him):

Acts 10:34-35 So Peter opened his mouth and said: “Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, ³⁵*but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him*.”

Repentance is required for the forgiveness of sins

See also:

- ... Forgive and God will forgive you, p. 1550
- When we repent God forgives our sins ..., p. 1848

Note that the above subsections speak of what is involved in repenting. This and the following subsections speak of the outcomes of repenting (and of not repenting).

Mark 1:4 John appeared, baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

The repentance that John's baptism signified brought forgiveness of sins.

Luke 24:47 ... and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

The inference is that repenting brings forgiveness of sins (cf. CEV, NLT), because of what Jesus has accomplished (cf. Acts 2:38 ↓).

Acts 2:38-39 And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself.”

Note that this speaks of receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit as a further outcome of repentance.

Acts 3:19 Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, ...

Acts 5:31 God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

As with Luke 24:47 above, the inference is that repentance brings forgiveness of sins (cf. NLT).

Acts 26:17-18 ... delivering you from your people and from the Gentiles—to whom I am sending you ¹⁸to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.

Although in this and the following references repentance is not specifically referred to, the actions spoken of are indicative of it. As such the actions lead to God’s forgiveness.

Isa 55:7 ... let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Ezek 33:14-16 Again, though I say to the wicked, ‘You shall surely die,’ yet if he turns from his sin and does what is just and right, ¹⁵if the wicked restores the pledge, gives back what he has taken by robbery, and walks in the statutes of life, not doing injustice, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ¹⁶None of the sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right; he shall surely live.

1Jn 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

✦ Repentance is linked with redemption:

Isa 59:20 “And a Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression,” declares the LORD.

This seems to anticipate Jesus Christ’s redemptive work. Note that Jeremiah 4:14a similarly links repentance with being saved: “O Jerusalem, wash your heart from evil, that you may be saved.”

Is it not your ways that are not just? ³⁰“Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin.” ³¹Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? ³²For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live.”

“ Or lest iniquity be your stumbling block

The references to living and dying in this passage are probably primarily in regard to physical life and premature death, but they also can be readily applied both to spiritual life in the present and in the afterlife.

Repentance leads to spiritual enlightenment

See also:

▪ b\) Wisdom through God, p. 1636

2Tim 2:25-26 ... correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, ²⁶and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will.

2Cor 3:14-16 But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. ¹⁵Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. ¹⁶But when one^v turns to the Lord, the veil is removed.

^v Greek he

One can infer from this that whenever anyone turns to the Lord they are spiritually enlightened; any “veil” blocking spiritual insight is taken away. Note that rather than turning to the Lord in repentance from sin, this may well be primarily speaking of turning from the ways of the old covenant to the Lord Jesus Christ and the new covenant that he introduced. Even so, what it says is applicable to repentance from sin.

John 7:17 If anyone’s will is to do God’s^w will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority.

Choosing to do what one knows of God’s will – and evaluating Jesus’ teaching in the light of this – leads to the realization that Jesus’ teaching does come from God (cf. Luke 7:35 ↓). Thus this reflects that repentance leads to spiritual enlightenment.

‡ By following Jesus’ teaching, one’s life will show his teaching to be true:

Luke 7:35 Yet wisdom is justified by all her children.

Jesus most likely meant that his and John’s wisdom or teaching is “shown to be true” (GNT; cf. AMP) “by the lives of those who follow it” (NLT, cf. CEV, GNT).

Not repenting will result in judgment and eternal punishment

Rom 2:5 But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God’s righteous judgment will be revealed.

Matt 3:8-10 Bear fruit in keeping with repentance. ⁹And do not presume to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father,’ for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰*Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.*

Repentance needs to be genuine, reflected in what we do (v. 8). Anything but genuine repentance will result in destruction (v. 10), as John the Baptist warned the Jews (vv. 9-10).

Matt 11:20-24 Then he began to denounce the cities where most of his mighty works had been done, because they did not repent. ²¹*“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.* ²²*But I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.* ²³And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. ²⁴*But I tell you that it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you.”*

Matt 12:41 The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

The implication is that unlike the people of Nineveh, the Jews largely did not repent. As such they faced condemnation at the final judgment.

Luke 13:1-5 There were some present at that very time who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. ²And he answered them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered in this way? ³No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. ⁴Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them: do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others who lived in Jerusalem? ⁵No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.”

Although the victims referred to had died terrible, untimely deaths, this did not mean that they were worse sinners than others. All people are sinners and whoever does not repent will also perish – they will die spiritually, a tragic spiritual ending paralleling the tragic physical deaths mentioned here.

John 5:14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, “See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you.”

Scholars differ in their understanding of what Jesus meant in referring to something “worse”. It may be eternal punishment or something in the present life.

Ps 7:12 If a man^x does not repent, God^y will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow; ...

^y Hebrew he

Although not or not necessarily speaking of eternal punishment, the punishment for not repenting in this and the following passages serve to further illustrate that God will punish those who do not repent.

Ps 55:19 God will give ear and humble them, he who is enthroned from of old, Selah because they do not change and do not fear God.

Ezek 3:19 But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, or from his wicked way, he shall die for his iniquity, but you will have delivered your soul.

Rev 16:8-12 *The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was allowed to scorch people with fire. ⁹They were scorched by the fierce heat, and they cursed^z the name of God who had power over these plagues. They did not repent and give him glory. ¹⁰*The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in anguish ¹¹and cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores. They did not repent of their deeds.* ¹²*The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, to prepare the way for the kings from the east.* *

^z Greek blasphemed; also verses 11, 21

The implication may be that any who had repented (vv. 9b, 11b) would have been spared from the ensuing judgments (vv. 10-11a, 12).

Note: The great rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents

Note that the following are adjacent passages in Luke 15.

Luke 15:1-7 Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. ²And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, “This man receives sinners and eats with them.” ³So he told them this parable: ⁴“What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? ⁵And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. ⁶And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’ ⁷Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Commentators differ over whether the “ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance” (v. 7) refers to people already saved or, with irony, to people such as the scribes and the Pharisees (v. 2) who consider themselves righteous with no need to repent.

Luke 15:8-10 “Or what woman, having ten silver coins,^a if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it? ⁹And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’ ¹⁰Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

^a Greek ten drachmas; a drachma was a Greek coin approximately equal in value to a Roman denarius, worth about a day’s wage for a laborer

Luke 15:11-14, 17, 20-24 And he said, “There was a man who had two sons. ¹²And the younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of property that is coming to me.’ And he divided his property between them. ¹³Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took a journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in reckless living. ¹⁴And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need.  ... ¹⁷“But when he came to himself, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have more than enough bread, but I perish here with hunger!  ... ²⁰And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. ²¹And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ ²²But the father said to his servants,^c ‘Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. ²³And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. ²⁴For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.’ And they began to celebrate.

The role of the father parallels that of God – and presumably the celebration parallels that in heaven over a repentant sinner.

† Rather than be angry, God’s people should share in the rejoicing over a repentant sinner:

Luke 15:25-32 “Now his older son was in the field, and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. ²⁷And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.’ ²⁸But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, ²⁹but he answered his father, ‘Look, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command, yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. ³⁰But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!" ³¹And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. ³²It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.'"

The attitude of the older son reflects that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law (cf. v. 2). This latter part of the parable of the Prodigal Son is in effect an exhortation to them to, like God, be accepting of repentant sinners. Note that in view of this and the criticism of Jewish leaders (cf. v. 2) which apparently prompted the ensuing parables (above), the rejoicing of God's people – along with that of angels in heaven (cf. v. 7 ↑, v. 10 ↑) – over a repentant sinner is probably being portrayed here (vv. 25, 32; cf. vv. 23-24 ↑).

Believe in Jesus Christ

Believing in Jesus Christ involves believing what the Bible says about: who he is; what he taught and did; his death and resurrection; and the results of his death and resurrection. Regarding the results of his death and resurrection, we are to believe that as a result of his death and resurrection Jesus Christ provides the things discussed below in (e) Belief in Jesus Christ (III): Outcomes, p. 1049).

John 6:29 Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

1Jn 3:23 And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us.

To "believe in the name" of Jesus Christ is basically to believe in Jesus Christ (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV) and all that he signifies.

John 3:16, 18 For God so loved the world,^d that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. ... ¹⁸Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

^d Or For this is how God loved the world

John 9:35-38 Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"^e ³⁶He answered, "And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" ³⁷Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and it is he who is speaking to you." ³⁸He said, "Lord, I believe," and he worshiped him.

^e Some manuscripts the Son of God

Note that the term "the Son of Man" (v. 35) is a title Jesus commonly used for himself. It is a messianic title (cf. Dan 7:13-14), but it also underlines Jesus' humanity.

John 12:36a While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light.

As elsewhere in John's gospel, "light" is associated here with Jesus and his teaching. "While you have the light" presumably has Jesus' departure in view. It reflects the urgency to "believe in the light" while one still has the opportunity to do so.

Acts 14:23 And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

1Tim 3:16 Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness: He^f was manifested in the flesh, vindicated^g by the Spirit,^h seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory.

John 20:30-31 Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 11:27 She said to him, “Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world.”

John 6:69 ... and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God.

The “Holy One of God” is a title referring to the Messiah or Christ (cf. John 11:27).

1Jn 4:15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

1Jn 5:5, 13 Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ... ¹³I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life.

Implicit in believing “in the name of the Son of God” (v. 13; cf. John 3:18 ; 1Jn 3:23) is believing that Jesus is the Son of God.

Acts 8:35-37 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus. ³⁶And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?”ⁱ ⁱ Some manuscripts add all or most of verse 37: And Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” And he replied, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”

John 4:42 They said to the woman, “It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world.”

John 10:37-38 If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; ³⁸but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.

In saying: “the Father is in me and I am in the Father” Jesus points to the oneness or unity of himself and God – including their unified purpose in their work.

John 17:8 For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me.

Rom 10:9 ... because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

The confession “Jesus is Lord” indicates that one believes Jesus is Lord over all creation.

1Thes 4:14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

↳ Thomas’s initial doubt and then belief in Jesus’ resurrection:

John 20:24-29 Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin,^j was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe.” ²⁶Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe." ²⁸Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" ²⁹Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

^j Greek Didymus

Similarly Mark 16:9-13 contains further instances of Jesus' followers at first not believing that he had risen. These instances are followed by Jesus' appearance and rebuke in v. 14b: "... he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen."

Believing in Jesus Christ is integral to believing in God . . .

See also:

- 1Jn 2:22-23
- . . . God himself testified to Jesus and his claims

Believing in Jesus Christ is necessary for believing in what God has said and done/accomplished – an essential part of believing in God himself.

John 12:44 And Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me."

Acts 16:31, 34 And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." ... ³⁴Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.

John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

Jesus' words were from God, who sent him. As such, believing what Jesus said is integral to believing what God says.

1Pet 1:17-21 And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, ¹⁸knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, ¹⁹but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. ²⁰He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for the sake of you ²¹who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

It can be inferred from this passage that it is through "knowing" (v. 18a) – and so believing – such things about Jesus Christ that we believe in God, the one who raised and glorified him (v. 21a). As such, basically our faith and hope are in God (v. 21b) as the one who has orchestrated all that has been accomplished by and through Jesus Christ.

1Jn 4:14-16a And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. ¹⁶So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us.

Here knowing and believing God's love for us (v. 16) is correlated with believing that Jesus is God's Son (v. 15), whom God in his wondrous love sent to save the world (v. 14).

. . . One's response to Jesus Christ is one's response to God, who sent him

See also:

- John 12:44 ; John 5:24

Whatever is one's response to Jesus Christ is in effect one's response to God, for it was God who sent Jesus Christ, to accomplish his will.

John 13:20 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Luke 10:16 "The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me."

Mark 9:37 "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me."

John 5:23 ... that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

John 15:23 Whoever hates me hates my Father also.

1Jn 2:22-23 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. ²³*No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also.*

Verse 2 indicates that to deny Jesus – more specifically, to deny that Jesus is the Christ – is to deny God as well. Verse 23 then enlarges on this, correlating both denying Jesus Christ with not having God and acknowledging Jesus Christ with having God.

✦ We need to have faith in the power of God, who raised Jesus:

Col 2:11-12 In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, ¹²having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead.

This is probably speaking of faith in God having the power to have raised Jesus Christ from the dead and to also raise us – both to spiritual life now and life ever after.

Superficial belief is not enough . . .

See also:

- True faith involves good deeds . . ., p. 1068

Luke 8:13 And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away.

Such belief is superficial rather than deep-rooted. It is not entrenched in one's thoughts, persistently influencing one's behaviour. Moreover, it does not last.

John 2:23-25 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he was doing. ²⁴*But Jesus on his part did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people* ²⁵*and needed no one to bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man.*

Jesus may well have had in view superficial belief that is based on miraculous signs alone and that comes with following what others are thinking – one that does not produce commitment.

Acts 8:13, 18-23 Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles^k performed, he was amazed.  ... ¹⁸Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, ¹⁹*saying, "Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."* ²⁰But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! ²¹You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. ²²*Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you.* ²³*For I see that you are in the gall^l of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity."*

^l That is, a bitter fluid secreted by the liver; bile

Simon's belief (v. 13) was shallow or at best intellectual. It had not affected his heart (vv. 21-22) and his inner state (v. 23), leaving him vulnerable to condemnation (v. 20).

James 2:19-20 You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder! ²⁰Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless?

Faith that does not produce good deeds is useless, merely superficial. True faith or belief must affect our lives as a whole – as the following subsection indicates.

Ps 106:12-14 Then they believed his words; they sang his praise. ¹³*But they soon forgot his works; they did not wait for his counsel.* ¹⁴*But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness, and put God to the test in the desert; ...*

This is an example of superficial or weak faith in God, evidenced by the people's later actions (vv. 13-14).

. . . We are to both believe and repent

- Acts 8:13, 18-23 ; James 2:19-20
- Those who have rejected Jesus Christ – not obeying and doing evil – will be condemned, p. 715
- Obedience accompanies belief and faith, p. 1062

As reflected by the previous subsection, our belief in Jesus Christ must be a genuine, committed belief – of which one key aspect is repentance.

Mark 1:14-15 Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, ¹⁵and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel."

Acts 20:20-21 ... how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you in public and from house to house, ²¹testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of repentance toward God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 11:17-18 If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way?" ¹⁸When they heard these things they fell silent. And they glorified God, saying, "Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance that leads to life."

In v. 17 Peter speaks of fellow Jews and himself as having "believed in the Lord Jesus Christ", whereas in v. 18 the Gentiles are spoken of as having repented. In view of this and the context, the suggestion is that Peter saw belief and repentance as complementary aspects of "getting right" with God.

Acts 11:21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.

Acts 19:18-19 Also many of those who were now believers came, confessing and divulging their practices. ¹⁹*And a number of those who had practiced magic arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all*. And they counted the value of them and found it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver.

Here belief is accompanied by repentance demonstrated by confession of sin (v. 18b) and turning from evil things (v. 19a).

Acts 26:17-18 ... delivering you from your people and from the Gentiles—to whom I am sending you ¹⁸to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.

This closely associates repenting ("turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God") with faith ("that they may receive... a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me").

Rom 16:25-26 Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages ²⁶but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith—

Obeying God – here associated with faith or belief – is of course a key aspect of repentance.

Jonah 3:5-10 And the people of Nineveh believed God. They called for a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them. ⁶The word reached^m the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷And he issued a proclamation and published through Nineveh, "By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not feed or drink water, ⁸but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them call out mightily to God. Let everyone turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. ⁹Who knows? God may turn and relent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we may not perish." ¹⁰When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God relented of the disaster that he had said he would do to them, and he did not do it.

Jesus Christ's words and knowledge

See also:

- John 17:8
- Jesus' teaching was amazing and powerful – leading people to believe in him . . ., p. 568

John 1:47-50 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no deceit!"⁴⁸Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."⁴⁹Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"⁵⁰Jesus answered him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these."

Here and in some of the following passages, Jesus' words clearly reflect his complete knowledge – his omniscience – a compelling reason to believe in him and what he taught.

John 4:17-18, 29 The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband';¹⁸for you have had five husbands, and the one you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true." ... [The woman:]²⁹"Come, see a man who told me all that I ever did. Can this be the Christ?"

Jesus' words, revealing his knowledge of all things, caused the woman to believe or at least seriously consider that Jesus could well be the Messiah.

John 4:41-42 And many more believed because of his word.⁴²They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world."

John 8:30 As he was saying these things, many believed in him.

John 14:28-29 You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.²⁹And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe.

Confirmation of Jesus' knowledge of the future gives reason to believe in him (cf. John 2:14-22; 13:19). Note that "I am going to the Father" (v. 28b) appears to speak of Jesus' ascension, which implies that "I am going away" (v. 28a) is also. As such, "I will come to you" (v. 28a) is often understood to refer to Jesus' second coming (cf. v. 3) – which may well be the case. However by then it would be too late to believe, if confirming their belief in him for salvation is what Jesus has in mind in v. 29. Another possibility is that it refers to the coming of the Holy Spirit, which could be what is in view with the identical clause in v. 18 (cf. vv. 16-17).

John 16:30 Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God.

The clause "do not need anyone to question you" may be meaning that Jesus had the capacity to answer a person's question even before it was asked (cf. NCV).

John 2:11 This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

In turning water into wine (cf. vv. 1-10) Jesus "manifested His glory". As such Jesus "displayed His greatness and His power openly" (AMP), pointing to his divine nature – leading his disciples to believe in him.

John 2:23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he was doing.

John 4:49-53 The official said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."⁵⁰Jesus said to him, "Go; your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went on his way.⁵¹As he was going down, his servantsⁿ met him and told him that his son was recovering.⁵²So he asked them the hour when he began to get better, and they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour^o the fever left him."⁵³The father knew that was the hour when Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live." And he himself believed, and all his household.

John 7:31 Yet many of the people believed in him. They said, "When the Christ appears, will he do more signs than this man has done?"

John 11:14-15, 41-45 Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus has died,¹⁵and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." ...⁴¹So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me.⁴²I knew that you always hear me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me."⁴³When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out.”⁴⁴The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”⁴⁵Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him, ...

John 20:30-31 Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

✦ Jesus criticized the attitude of refusing to believe in him unless one saw miracles:

John 4:48 So Jesus said to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe.”

Miracles give one little choice but to believe. Such belief is hardly faith and may even restrict the growth of one’s faith in God, making it dependant on further miracles to develop. Moreover, miracles are not enough to convince people who are not open to believing – “Though he had done so many signs before them, they still did not believe in him ...” (John 12:37). Jesus also criticizes the seeking of signs in Matthew 12:38-39 in the following subsection.

Jesus Christ’s death and resurrection

See also:

- Note: Jesus Christ’s resurrection affirmed significant things about him, p. 606

Matt 27:50-54 And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice and yielded up his spirit. ⁵¹And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. And the earth shook, and the rocks were split. ⁵²The tombs also were opened. And many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, ⁵³and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many. ⁵⁴When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe and said, “Truly this was the Son of God!”

^p Or a son

Note that “what took place” (v. 54) may well not include the resurrection of the many holy people (v. 52), which seems to have not been apparent till after Jesus’ resurrection (v. 53). For further comment see Jesus Christ’s resurrection was essential for our resurrection, p. 604.

John 2:18-22 So the Jews said to him, “What sign do you show us for doing these things?” ¹⁹Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.” ²⁰The Jews then said, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?” ²¹But he was speaking about the temple of his body. ²²When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

In v. 18 the Jews questioned Jesus’ authority to drive the money-changers and traders out of the temple (cf. vv. 14-16), preventing their commercial activities being carried out in the temple. Some commentators consider that they also had in view his reference to the temple as “my Father’s house” (v. 16) as being a messianic allusion and were essentially questioning such a claim to be the Messiah. Jesus gave his death and resurrection (vv. 19, 21) as proof that he had such authority and – if his messiahship was in question – that he was the Messiah. Thus when his death and resurrection occurred, his disciples believed him (v. 22). Note that in referring to destroying and raising up the “temple” or his body, possibly Jesus is alluding to himself replacing the actual temple as the means of accessing God.

John 8:28 So Jesus said to them, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own authority, but speak just as the Father taught me.

Jesus Christ is speaking of his crucifixion, where he would be “lifted up” on the cross. This would lead to people knowing that he was who he claimed to be – presumably through the events marking his death (cf. Matt 27:50-54 ↑) and his subsequent resurrection.

John 13:19 I am telling you this now, before it takes place, that when it does take place you may believe that I am he.

It appears that “before it takes place” refers to Jesus’ death – with the preceding events, including his betrayal (cf. v. 18) – and his subsequent resurrection. In addition to the importance of his death and resurrection themselves in showing who Jesus was, the fact that he predicted them also proved his claims (cf. John 2:18-22 ↑). The phrase “I am He” (cf. 8:38) is most likely meaning that he is the Messiah, the one for whom the Jews were waiting.

John 20:6-8 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, ⁷and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus’^a head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. ⁸Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; ...

^a Greek his

The clause “he saw and believed” is primarily referring to believing that Jesus had risen. But additionally we can conclude that because Jesus had risen, John would have then naturally believed in Jesus and his claims – if he had not already.

✦ The period of Jesus' death would be a sign for the Jews:

Matt 12:38-40 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you." ³⁹But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. ⁴⁰*For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.* 📖

Jesus' supernatural emulation of Jonah's experience – and the fact that he prophesied it – would be a sign to his generation of the validity of his claims. Note that the phrase "three days and three nights" is commonly understood to be referring somewhat figuratively to three days or parts thereof.

Testimonies about Jesus Christ . . .

Luke 1:1-4 Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things that have been accomplished among us, ²just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word have delivered them to us, ³it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught. 📖

Luke's gospel – as with the other gospels – is a carefully investigated account (v. 3). As such, it gives one confidence about the certainty of what it (and the NT) teaches about Jesus – giving reason to believe it and so reason to believe in Jesus Christ. The fact that there were many other written accounts of testimonies of eyewitnesses (vv. 1-2) adds to the certainty.

John 5:31-34 If I alone bear witness about myself, my testimony is not deemed true. ³²*There is another who bears witness about me, and I know that the testimony that he bears about me is true.* ³³*You sent to John, and he has borne witness to the truth.* ³⁴Not that the testimony that I receive is from man, but I say these things so that you may be saved. 📖

John the Baptist's testimony regarding the truth about Jesus gives reason to believe and be saved (cf. John 10:40-42 ↓). In v. 32, Jesus could be referring to God (cf. v. 37 ↓) rather than to John and his testimony, though John and his testimony are clearly in view in vv. 33-34. Note that in the first part of

v. 34, Jesus is saying that he does not accept – or at least does not depend upon – human testimony.

John 4:39 Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all that I ever did." 📖

John 10:40-42 He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing at first, and there he remained. ⁴¹And many came to him. And they said, "John did no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true." ⁴²*And many believed in him there.* 📖

It would appear that "many believed in him" (v. 42) because of John's testimony (v. 41b) in relationship with what would have taken place when many people came (v. 41a) to Jesus. These things would primarily have been Jesus' performing of miraculous healings and his teaching – which would have confirmed critical aspects of John's testimony.

John 19:31-37 Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. ³²So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. ³³But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. ³⁴*But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water.* ³⁵*He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe.* ³⁶*For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken."* ³⁷*And again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they have pierced."* 📖 Verses 36-37 explain the significance of what was testified to in vv. 33-35; i.e. it was a fulfillment of Scripture regarding the Messiah, pointing to Jesus being the Messiah.

John 20:30-31 Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹*but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.* 📖

The phrase "these are written" (v. 31) refers to the miraculous signs that John did record as testimony to Jesus Christ being the son of God, so that people might believe.

John 17:20-21 I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, ²¹*that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.*

The unity of his followers in himself and God is a practical testimony from believers in all eras to others of Jesus' claims, here in particular to him being sent by God. Note that in regard to the phrase "be in us", some "ancient authorities read be one in us" (NRSV text note; cf. CEV, NCV).

As well as God's voice (v. 17), the Holy Spirit's descent on Jesus "in bodily form, like a dove" (Luke 3:22) was effectively a testimony from God, being apparent not only to Jesus but also to John (cf. John 1:32) and so presumably also to others present.

^t Or my Son, my (or the) Beloved

At Jesus' transfiguration (cf. vv. 1-3) God repeated his testimony to Jesus given at Jesus' baptism (cf. Matt 3:17

John 5:37-39 And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, ³⁸*and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent.* ³⁹*You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, ...*

The testimony of God referred to (v. 37) may be: the voice from heaven at Jesus' baptism (cf. Matt 3:16-17

Scriptures are stated to bear witness about Jesus in v. 39 further points to God giving testimony to Jesus, through his word.

John 12:27-30 "Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But for this purpose I have come to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." ²⁹*The crowd that stood there and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."* ³⁰*Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not mine.*

God's voice, in response to Jesus' words, served to testify to and illustrate the authenticity of Jesus' claims to being of God (as implied in v. 30). God's words appear to mean that he had glorified his name through Jesus' life, and would now do so again through Jesus' death and resurrection. Note that the crowd as a whole did not recognize the voice for what it was (v. 29a), although some at least realized it was a supernatural voice (v. 29b).

Acts 2:22 Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know—

John 6:26-27 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you are seeking me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. ²⁷Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal."

God's "seal" is thought by some commentators to refer to God's authentication – his "seal of approval" (NIV®; cf. GNT) – of Jesus as the one who can give "food that endures to eternal life" (v. 27) by enabling him to perform miraculous signs (v. 26), such as miraculously providing physical food for thousands of people (cf. vv. 10-14). Alternatively it may be a more general reference to him being approved by God in being chosen and sent on his mission, or a reference to his anointment with the Holy Spirit.

John 8:17-18, 54 In your Law it is written that the testimony of two people is true. ¹⁸I am the one who bears witness about myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness about me.  ... ⁵⁴Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, 'He is our God.'^u

^u Some manuscripts your God

In saying that God witnessed to him (v. 18) and glorified him (v. 54), likewise bearing witness to him, Jesus may well have had his miracles primarily in view.

1Jn 5:9-11 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. ¹⁰*Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son.* ¹¹*And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.*

Verse 1 gives the essence of God's testimony. The verses preceding this passage (vv. 5-8) are generally understood to indicate that the testimony was given through Jesus' life, death and resurrection.

John 1:51 And he said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you,^v you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

^v The Greek for you is plural; twice in this verse

One interpretation of this verse is that Jesus is implying that the disciples would see heaven, or God, testifying to who he is. For further comment see God's people have access to God through Jesus Christ – by the Holy Spirit, p. 797.%

e) Belief in Jesus Christ (III): Outcomes

Note that in conjunction with the following things being outcomes of believing in Jesus Christ, we are to believe in Jesus Christ for these things being granted to us, believing that he has made them possible by what he did. (This is reflected in some of the comments.)

Subsections

- We are forgiven of our sins and purified
- We are granted righteousness and justified before God
- We are saved
- We have eternal life
- We become a child of God
- We are given God's Holy Spirit

- Other results of believing in Jesus Christ
- Those who do not believe in Jesus Christ are condemned and do not have life . . .
- . . . Further implications of not believing in Jesus Christ

We are forgiven of our sins and purified

See also:

- Acts 13:38-39 ↓
- Jesus Christ's sacrifice of himself for us means that our sins can be forgiven . . ., p. 592

We are to believe in Jesus Christ for God's forgiveness of our sins. As such we are to believe Jesus Christ to be (with what he has accomplished) the means of forgiveness – and trust in him for the forgiveness of our own sins.

Acts 10:43 To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

The term "his name" here speaks of Jesus Christ and what he has accomplished.

Acts 15:9 ... and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith.

Acts 26:18 ... to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.

In association with being forgiven, believers receive a place among those who are "consecrated and purified by faith in Me" (AMP). As such, they become part of God's holy people.

‡ By faith people receive the benefits of the propitiatory sacrifice of Jesus Christ:

Rom 3:25a ... [Christ Jesus] whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith.

The term "propitiation" speaks of the wrath of God against guilty sinners being turned away or quenched. This only occurs through our sins being taken away by faith in what Jesus Christ accomplished through his death.

We are granted righteousness and justified before God

See also:

- ... and that we can therefore be justified and righteous before God, p. 593
- a) Righteousness Not by Law, but Faith in Jesus Christ, p. 640

On being forgiven, we are made righteous and justified before God. We are to believe in Jesus Christ for all these things. Note that the theme of this subsection is dealt with in more detail in Righteousness Not by Law, but Faith in Jesus Christ, cross-referenced above.

Rom 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith,^w as it is written, “The righteous shall live by faith.”^x ¶

^w Or beginning and ending in faith

^x Or The one who by faith is righteous shall live

Paul quotes Habakkuk 2:4 to support his assertion that one can only be deemed righteous by faith, implying by it that because of their faith the righteous will live. Note that the phrase “revealed from faith” appears to be speaking of this righteousness being revealed through faith, with the subsequent phrase “for faith” meaning either: that it is for those who have faith (cf. CEV); or that it is for having (ongoing) faith.

Rom 3:21-26 But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— ²²*the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe.* For there is no distinction: ²³for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. ²⁶It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. ¶

The clause “to be received by faith” (v. 25) appears to speak of being “justified by his grace as a gift” (v. 24a).

Rom 5:1 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. ¶

^y Some manuscripts let us

Rom 10:6, 10 But the righteousness based on faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) ¶ ... ¹⁰For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. ¶

For comment on v. 6b, see the comment on Rom 10:1-10 – under ... This is the way of the righteousness from God, who justifies by faith – not by law, p. 642.

Gal 3:5-9, 24 Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— ⁶just as Abraham “believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness?” ⁷Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. ⁸And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify^z the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, “In you shall all the nations be blessed.” ⁹So then, those who are of faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith. ¶ ... ²⁴So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. ¶

Just as Abraham believed God and was credited with righteousness, the same applies to those who believe, Abraham’s spiritual children. They have faith and so are blessed with justification along with Abraham (v. 9; cf. By faith Abraham was declared righteous and received the promise – and so will all who emulate him, p. 644.)

Acts 13:38-39 Let it be known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, ³⁹and by him everyone who believes is freed^a from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses. ¶

^a Greek justified; twice in this verse

Regarding the use of “freed”, as per the text note the Greek term can be translated as “justified” (NIV®, NKJV).

We are saved

Mark 16:16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. ¶

Note that baptism is an affirmation of one’s faith, rather than an additional requirement of salvation.

Luke 7:50 And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.” ¶

Acts 16:30-31 Then he brought them out and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ³¹And they said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.”

In v. 31 Paul and Silas tell their jailer that if he and his family believed in Jesus Christ they would be saved, i.e. those who believed would be saved (cf. AMP, CEV). Verse 34 tells of how he and his whole family came to faith.

Rom 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

Rom 10:9 ... because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

The confession “Jesus is Lord” is a statement of one’s belief in him.

1Cor 1:21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe.

Eph 2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ...

2Thes 2:13 But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits^b to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth.

^b Some manuscripts chose you from the beginning

The phrase “belief in the truth” refers to belief in the gospel message about Jesus Christ, believing its claims about him and what he accomplished.

1Tim 4:10 For to this end we toil and strive,^c because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

^c Some manuscripts and suffer reproach

The description of God as “the Savior of all people” implies that his salvation is open to all, but it only comes to fruition for “those who believe”.

2Tim 3:15 ... and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

Heb 10:39 But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

1Pet 1:8-9 Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, ⁹*obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.*

2Thes 2:10 ... and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

We have eternal life

See also:

- b) Life through Jesus Christ, p. 611
- Those who have believed in Jesus Christ will be saved and have eternal life, p. 714

Those who believe in Jesus Christ have spiritual, eternal life. It begins when one believes and continues forever.

John 3:14-16, 36 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵*that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.*^d ¹⁶For God so loved the world,^e that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. ... ³⁶*Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.*

^d Some interpreters hold that the quotation ends at verse 15

^e Or For this is how God loved the world

John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

In believing we move from the state of spiritual death to that of spiritual life, life that is eternal.

John 6:27-29 Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal.”

²⁸Then they said to him, “What must we do, to be doing the works of God?” ²⁹Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.”

By believing in Jesus Christ we do the “work” required for the spiritual food – found in Jesus himself (v. 27a; cf. v. 48-58 ↓) – that endures to eternal life.

John 6:40, 47-58 For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.” ^e ...

⁴⁷Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life.
⁴⁸I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.” ⁵²The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” ⁵³So Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. ⁵⁴Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. ⁵⁵For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. ⁵⁶Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. ⁵⁸This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like the bread^f the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever.” ^f

^f Greek lacks the bread

There are two subtly different interpretations of what Jesus meant when he spoke metaphorically of “eating” of him, the bread of life, and drinking his blood, shed in his death. One is that it simply means to believe in him and depend on his death, for eternal life. The other is that it means to partake of Jesus Christ – including following him, trusting him and living in fellowship with him – for the sustenance of one’s life, which likewise leads to eternal life.

John 11:25-26 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life.” ^g Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, ²⁶and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?” ^g

^g Some manuscripts omit and the life

Those who believe in Jesus Christ will live even though they die physically (v. 25b); in a spiritual sense they will never die (v. 26a).

John 20:31 ... but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. ^h

1Tim 1:16 But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience as an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life. ^h

1Jn 5:13 I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. ^h

Rom 1:17b “The righteous shall live by faith.” ^h

^h Or The one who by faith is righteous shall live

✦ Through faith in the power of God we are raised with Jesus Christ:

Col 2:12 ... having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. ^h

Through faith in God’s power we are raised with Jesus Christ in a spiritual sense, to spiritual life.

We become a child of God

See also:

- God’s people are his children, p. 770
- As God’s children, they are heirs of God, p. 771

John 1:12-13 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, ¹³who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. ^h

When one is “born ... of God” one is made alive spiritually, and begins a process of growing into God’s likeness.

Gal 3:26 ... for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. ^h

1Jn 5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. ^h

Note that instead of meaning that being “born of God” is an outcome of believing Jesus is the Christ, this may more precisely mean that believing is evidence that one has been “born of God”.

We are given God's Holy Spirit

See also:

- a) God Gives the Holy Spirit to His People, p. 831

John 7:38-39 Whoever believes in me, asⁱ the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" ³⁹*Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.* ☞

ⁱ Or let him come to me, and let him who believes in me drink. As

Acts 11:17 If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way? ☞

The "gift" is the Holy Spirit (cf. v. 15).

Gal 3:2, 5 Let me ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing with faith? ☞ ... ⁵*Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith—* ☞

The rhetorical questions imply that one receives the Holy Spirit by belief – not by observing the law.

Gal 3:13-14 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree"—¹⁴so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spiritⁱ through faith. ☞

ⁱ Greek receive the promise of the Spirit

The latter part of v. 14 may seem like it is talking about having faith in receiving the Spirit. But as reflected by v. 2 above, its context shows that it is almost definitely meaning that if we have faith in Christ, we will receive the Spirit that God has promised (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

‡ On believing, one is included "in" Christ – sealed by the Holy Spirit:

Eph 1:13 In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, ... ☞

On hearing and believing the gospel we are included "in" Jesus Christ (cf. a) God's People Are 'in' Jesus Christ, p. 778) in whom we are marked by the seal of the Holy Spirit, who is given to dwell within us.

Other results of believing in Jesus Christ

Rom 5:1-2 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we^k have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. ²Through him we have also obtained access by faith^l into this grace in which we stand, and we^m rejoiceⁿ in hope of the glory of God. ☞

^k Some manuscripts let us

^l Some manuscripts omit by faith

^m Or let us; also verse 3

ⁿ Or boast; also verses 3, 11

Verse 2a quite probably is referring to believers being justified and at peace with God (v. 1), a position in which they stand by grace. Note that this and the following two references (John 16:27; 1Jn 4:15) speak of aspects of the new, rich relationship that those who believe have with God.

John 16:27 ... for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.^o ☞

^o Some manuscripts from the Father

1Jn 4:15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. ☞

1Pet 1:8-9 Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, ⁹obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. ☞

Similarly Acts 16:34 speaks of the joy of the believing Philippian jailer: "And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God."

John 6:35 Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst." ☞

The phrases "shall not hunger" and "shall never thirst" indicate that one's spiritual needs will always be satisfied.

John 12:36a, 46 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." ☞ ... ⁴⁶*I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness.* ☞

The term "sons of light" (v. 36a) probably refers to living according to the light of Jesus' teaching, and so increasingly bearing the characteristics of Jesus, "the light". As such, one who trusts and believes in "the light" will not remain in spiritual darkness (v. 46).

1Jn 5:5 Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ☞

To “overcome the world” means to rise above its sinful way of life. This victory comes through believing that Jesus is the Son of God.

2Thes 1:10 ... when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

On Jesus Christ’s return, he will receive glory “in his saints” who have believed. This glory will presumably be due to what they are (cf. NCV) and their praise of him (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT). Additionally, they shall marvel at him – no doubt with a sense of joy and delightful anticipation of all that awaits those who have believed in him.

Heb 4:1-3a Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. ²For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. ³For we who have believed enter that rest ...

^P Some manuscripts it did not meet with faith in the hearers

Likely the rest to be experienced in the afterlife is primarily in view, in which believers will be free of the struggles of this life.

✦ Blessed are those who have not seen the risen Christ and yet have believed:

John 20:29 Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

Those who do not believe in Jesus Christ are condemned and do not have life . . .

See also:

- Heb 4:1-2
- Those who have rejected Jesus Christ – not obeying and doing evil – will be condemned, p. 715
- Those who do not believe and respond to the gospel will be condemned, p. 1764

Mark 16:16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

John 3:18, 36 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.  ...

³⁶Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

John 5:39-40 You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, ⁴⁰*yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life.*

Verse 40 indicates that those who do not believe in Jesus Christ (cf. v. 28) do not have eternal life (cf. v. 39).

Acts 13:39-41, 46 ... and by him everyone who believes is freed^a from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses. ⁴⁰Beware, therefore, lest what is said in the Prophets should come about: ⁴¹*“Look, you scoffers, be astounded and perish; for I am doing a work in your days, a work that you will not believe, even if one tells it to you.”*  ... ⁴⁶And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, “It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles.

After saying “everyone who believes is freed” (v. 39), by way of implication Paul then gives a solemn warning of the consequences if his listeners did not respond in belief. He quotes Habakkuk 1:5 where God warned those who scoffed at his word that they would “perish”, in which they would be punished in a way that they never thought possible (v. 41). The “word of God” (v. 46) primarily refers to the gospel about Jesus Christ. To reject it is to spurn eternal life.

2Thes 2:9-12 The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, ¹⁰and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. ¹¹Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, ¹²in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

In the NT “truth” (vv. 10, 12) is often identified with Jesus and the gospel, which would appear to be the case here. Those who do not believe in Jesus and the gospel message centered on him, will be condemned (v. 12) and perish (v. 10). Note that v. 11 mentions a further result of not believing, at the time of “the lawless one” (v. 9): God will judicially delude such people so that they will believe the falsehood stemming from the lawless one (cf. v. 4), probably the antichrist of the end time. This is applicable to all eras, in that those who do not believe in Jesus Christ are prone to believing what is untrue (cf. Titus 1:15 .

Heb 3:18-19 And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient?¹⁹ So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

The Israelites – who in their unbelief disobeyed God – were prevented from entering the promised land where they were to experience God’s rest. In its context this reference implies that likewise those who refuse to believe the gospel will not enter God’s rest in the afterlife (cf. Heb 4:1-3a

1Jn 5:12 Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

The context (cf. vv. 6-13) indicates that to “not have the Son of God” is akin to not believing in him.

Rev 21:8 But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.

The “faithless” may mean the “unbelieving” (NASB; cf. NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT), hence the verse’s inclusion here. Alternatively it may be speaking of the “untrustworthy” (NASB text note).

Luke 20:17-18 But he looked directly at them and said, “What then is this that is written: “The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone?”^r ¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him.”

This ends “The Parable of the Tenants” (cf. vv. 9-16) in which Jesus portrayed the Jews’ rejection of him. Verse 18 is possibly referring to a saying of the time. It appears to mean that: like a pot that falls on a stone or one on which a stone falls, so everyone who rejects Jesus “the capstone” (v. 17) will be doomed (cf. NSB).

1Pet 2:7-8 So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, “The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,”^s and “A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense.” They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

^s Greek the head of the corner

Those who do not believe in Jesus, the “stone” (cf. Luke 20:17-18

John 8:24 I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins.

The expression “die in your sins” probably refers to – or at least involves – dying without one’s sins being forgiven (cf. CEV), pointing to the consequences of eternal death.

John 5:38 ... and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent.

John 8:46-47 Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? ⁴⁷Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God.

It can be inferred from this that those who did not believe do not belong to God (cf. John 10:26

John 10:26 ... but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock.

This makes a similar point to 8:46-47 above, indicating that those who do not believe do not belong to Jesus Christ, not being of his “flock”.

John 16:8-9 And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: ⁹concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; ...

This speaks of the coming of the Holy Spirit who would convict the world of being guilty of sin by not believing in Jesus Christ. Thus it indicates that in not believing in Jesus Christ, one is in fact committing sin.

Titus 1:15 To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled.

This associates not believing in the gospel of Jesus Christ with defiled “minds and ... consciences”. Lack of belief leaves one vulnerable to such things, and accompanying false beliefs – such as what Paul has in view here. He is speaking in particular of people incorrectly believing some things to be morally impure.

1Jn 5:10-11 Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

f) Reasons for Assurance

The verses in this section give reasons for assurance of things such as being saved and being in a close relationship with God – and as a consequence give assurance of being made right with God. Reasons for assurance of such things can also be found in the other sections of this chapter (particularly in Repentance and Belief in Jesus Christ (III): Outcomes) and in a number of parts of other chapters – notably in 13. Salvation through Jesus Christ, p. 587; and in chapters 16-20 (e.g. God protects his people from all evil, including Satan, p. 943; God and Jesus Christ keep their people as their own – until the end, p. 943; and God strengthens them spiritually, until Jesus Christ's return, p. 937).

God's word, including his promises

God's word, including his promises (cf. Rom 4:16 ↓; Heb 6:12-19 ↓), gives great assurance to those who believe God. Numerous verses in this chapter are examples of God's word providing assurance, for those who believe. Below are a few exemplary ones.

1Jn 5:10-13 Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. ¹¹*And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.* ¹²*Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the*

Son of God does not have life. ¹³*I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life.* 📖

Believing the testimony God has given about his Son, in his word, brings assurance. For it means that one has the inner testimony (v. 10) that God has given us eternal life in Jesus Christ (vv. 11-12). Thus in believing God's word and consequently believing in Jesus Christ, we can know that we have eternal life (v. 13).

John 20:30-31 Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹*but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.* 📖

One can infer from this that in giving reason to believe "that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God" (v. 31a), God's word (such as John's gospel) gives reason to believe and have assurance that we may have life through Jesus Christ (v. 31b).

Rom 4:16 That is why it [God's promise to Abraham] depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, ... 📖

The promise relates to an aspect/s of salvation (cf. By faith Abraham was declared righteous and received the promise – and so will all who emulate him, p. 644; Heb 6:12-19 ↓). It comes by faith and so is "guaranteed" to all who have faith. So those who have faith have the assurance of such a guarantee – rather than facing the uncertainty of performing works, in adherence to the OT law, in the dubious hope of earning it (cf. vv. 1-15).

Heb 6:12-19 ... so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. ¹³For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, ¹⁴saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you." ¹⁵And thus Abraham, ^thaving patiently waited, obtained the promise. ¹⁶For people swear by something greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. ¹⁷*So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath,* ¹⁸*so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us.* ¹⁹*We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, ...* 📖

^t Greek he

The promise made to Abraham is here applied to all God's people – "the heirs" (v. 17) – in regard to their salvation. God's promise to Abraham and his confirmation of it with an oath – the "two unchangeable things" (v. 18) – gives believers strong hope and assurance that as Abraham's spiritual heirs they will experience God's consummate fulfillment of the promise.

Jesus Christ's death and his ministry in his risen life

Rom 5:9-10 Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. ¹⁰For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.

The final clause of each verse refers to Jesus Christ's ongoing life and ministry for believers in his risen life.

Rom 8:34 Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.^u ^u Or Is it Christ Jesus who died . . . for us?

For comment, see the comment on Rom 8:33-34 – under Note: God's people are free from condemnation, p. 1060.

Heb 7:25 Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost^v those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

^v That is, completely; or at all times

Believers can be assured that Jesus Christ will save them completely (cf. text note) as he always lives to speak to God on their behalf.

Heb 10:19-22 Therefore, brothers,^w since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

^w Or brothers and sisters

The "holy places" (v. 19) alludes to God's presence. The phrase "full assurance of faith" (v. 22) appears to refer to a full assurance "that comes from having faith" (CEV). The phrase "with our hearts sprinkled clean" (v. 22) alludes to the sprinkling of blood for ceremonially cleansing under the old covenant; in parallel Jesus Christ's blood has in a sense "sprinkled" our hearts to cleanse us. The phrase "our bodies washed with pure water" (v. 22) is understood by some to be a reference to baptism, but more often it is seen as a reference to being made clean by Jesus' sacrifice. The expression draws a parallel with the washing of the priests under the old covenant. Being cleansed as such by Christ's death and having him as our priest (v. 21) – coupled with faith about the reality of these things – gives great assurance of being accepted into God's presence.

✦ It is God's will that Jesus Christ will not lose any believer, but raise them to life at the end of the age:

John 6:39 And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day.

Having the Holy Spirit

- . . . Having the Holy Spirit indicates that God lives in a person, p. 834
- The Holy Spirit is God's seal, guaranteeing what is to come, p. 835

Note that one can be confident that God has given the Holy Spirit to them through evidence such as: indications of the "fruits" of the Holy Spirit in a person's life (cf. Gal 5:22); having a spiritual gift from the Holy Spirit (some of which are more obvious than others); and recognition of the Holy Spirit's help, such as his empowerment or guidance. Moreover, one can sense or have an inner awareness of God, which is constant evidence of the Holy Spirit's presence (cf. 1Jn 3:24 ↓; 1Jn 4:13 ↓).

Acts 15:8 And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, ...

The clause "bore witness to them" speaks of God accepting these people (cf. NCV, NIV, NLT).

Rom 8:15-16 For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" ¹⁶The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ...

The Holy Spirit enables us to instinctively call on God as our Father (v. 15), engendering a relationship in which we love, enjoy and trust God as a Father. In conjunction with this the Holy Spirit assures our spirit that we are God's children (v. 16).

Gal 4:6 And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!"

Similar to Romans 8:15 above, this implies that as the Spirit who calls out “Father” is in the hearts of believers, they also participate in calling on God as “Father” – reflecting the fact that they are God’s children and assuring them that this is so (cf. Rom 8:16 ↑).

1Cor 2:12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God.

The “things freely given us by God” are all that by grace we have been given by God – which is inclusive of biblical truths and God’s blessings, notably salvation. Having an understanding of these things – through the Holy Spirit – gives one great assurance.

1Jn 3:24 Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God,^x and God^y in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

^x Greek him
^y Greek he

1Jn 4:13 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.

Rom 5:5 ... and hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Through the Holy Spirit, given to a person when they believe, God fills each of his people with his love. One can conclude from this that sensing this love of God for them – given through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit – gives believers a strong conviction that they are accepted by him.

✦ Having the Holy Spirit is a guarantee of the fulfillment of God’s promises of the afterlife:

Obeying God and doing what is right

1Jn 2:3-6 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. ⁴Whoever says “I know him” but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, ⁵but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: ⁶whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

Note that apart from the last phrase, this passage is often translated to be referring to God rather than Jesus Christ (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

Acts 10:34-35 So Peter opened his mouth and said: “Truly I understand that God shows no partiality,³⁵ but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

Peter’s realization was largely focused on God’s acceptance of people from all nations, in contrast to only Jews. His words can nevertheless be readily applied to our need to realize and thus be assured that God accepts “anyone who fears him and does what is right”.

Heb 6:9-12 Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation. ¹⁰For God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown for his name in serving the saints, as you still do. ¹¹And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, ¹²so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

We need to persist in doing the things God wants, things indicative of salvation (v. 9b) – such as serving other Christians, which also is indicative of love for God (v. 10). In doing so we will “have the full assurance of hope until the end” (v. 11).

1Jn 2:29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him.

Imitating God – notably his righteousness (cf. 1Jn 3:7, 10 ↓) – evidences that one has been born of him, having his characteristics. (Note that Jesus Christ may be in view here rather than God. The point being made is applicable to both.)

1Jn 3:7, 10 Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. ... ¹⁰By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.

3Jn 1:11 Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God.

Those who persist in doing good show themselves to be of God – “God’s children” (CEV, NLT; 1Jn 2:29 ↑; 1Jn 3:10 ↑).

Loving other Christians

See also:

- 1Jn 3:10 ↑
- Loving other Christians is indicative of being of God and Jesus Christ . . ., p. 1314
- . . . Not loving other Christians has negative implications, p. 1314

1Jn 3:14, 18-20 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death.  ... ¹⁸*Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.* ¹⁹*By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him;* ²⁰*for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything.*

Tangible facts should take precedence over our feelings. So “whenever our hearts condemn us” (v. 20a) the fact of our sincere actions of love (vv. 14, 18) should “reassure our heart before him” (v. 19), realizing that God knows the whole picture (v. 20b).

1Jn 4:7, 12, 16-19 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God.  ... ¹²*No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.*  ... ¹⁶*So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.* ¹⁷*By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world.* ¹⁸*There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love.* ¹⁹*We love because he first loved us.*

Christian love for each other is a product of God’s love (cf. vv. 7, 12), including his love for us (cf. vv. 16, 19). Knowledge of such love drives out fear of judgment and punishment (vv. 17, 18) – they cannot coexist; they are incompatible, both logically and experientially.

In regards to the first statement in v. 16, interpretation of it depends on whether it is referring to the preceding verses (cf. 1Jn 4:14-16 ↓) or to what follows (v. 16b-17). Most modern translations imply the former, by having a paragraph break immediately after the statement, i.e. in the middle of the verse. However the latter is a possibility. Also a possibility is an integration of the two views: the statement may mean that we know the love God has for us by the evidence of our love for others (vv. 16b-17) and thus – knowing the extent of it (cf. vv. 14-15a) – we can believe or rely on it for assurance of having a right and close relationship with him.

✦ The love a woman showed Jesus was proof that her sins had been forgiven:

Luke 7:44-50 Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵*You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet.* ⁴⁶*You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.* ⁴⁷*Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much.* But he who is forgiven little, loves little.” ⁴⁸And he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” ⁴⁹Then those who were at table with him began to say among^a themselves, “Who is this, who even forgives sins?” ⁵⁰And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

^a Or to

Note that in v. 47a Jesus is saying that the woman’s great love showed that her many sins had been forgiven – rather than saying that it was the reason for why they were forgiven. It was in fact her faith that had saved her (v. 50).

Further reasons

John 6:37 All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out.

Jesus assures us that he will not reject anyone who comes to him.

Phil 1:6 And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

This appears to be implying that the very fact that God had begun a good work in the Philippians gave Paul assurance that God would complete it, for God does not leave things unfinished. Seeing evidence of God’s work in our lives should likewise give us such assurance.

2Tim 1:12 ... which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me.^b

^b Or what I have entrusted to him; Greek my deposit

If the alternative rendering in the text note is to be preferred (cf. NASB, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV), then Paul would appear to be speaking of trusting God to guard his ministry and its fruits, along with himself – even through death. As such, this would be inclusive of Paul's salvation. Knowing God, Paul was convinced that God would keep it secure.

1Jn 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 📖

1Jn 2:28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 📖

We can be sure that if we continue in Jesus Christ (cf. We live "in" Jesus Christ – and he in us – by faith . . ., p. 1079) we will be confident and unashamed before him on his return.

1Jn 4:14-16a And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. ¹⁶So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. 📖

This gives two reasons for assurance – acknowledgement of Jesus with its implications (v. 15), and "the love that God has for us" (v. 16a). The latter quite possibly refers to God's love demonstrated in sending his Son to save us (v. 14). Also bear in mind the comment on v. 16a in the previous subsection.

✦ The sharing of our faith gives us a full knowledge of all we have:

Philem 1:6 ... and I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ.^c 📖

^c Or for Christ's service

The phrase "the sharing of your faith" could be speaking of: the sharing in our faith with fellow believers, including the participation in and fellowship of our faith (cf. AMP, GNT, NASB); the sharing that is part of our faith, i.e. sharing of our possessions and/or ourselves with others (cf. NLT); or sharing what we believe with non-believers (cf. Nlrv).

Note: God's people are free from condemnation

John 3:18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. 📖

John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. 📖

Rom 5:16-18 And the free gift is not like the result of that one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brought justification. ¹⁷For if, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ. ¹⁸Therefore, as one trespass^d led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness^e leads to justification and life for all men. 📖

^e Or the act of righteousness of one

God's people are no longer under condemnation as Jesus Christ's work – his "act of righteousness" (v. 18) – has brought them righteousness and justification. Note that the gift (v. 16) is "the free gift of righteousness" (v. 17).

Rom 8:1-2 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.^f ²For the law of the Spirit of life has set you^g free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. 📖

^f Some manuscripts add who walk not according to the flesh (but according to the Spirit)

^g Some manuscripts me

It is through the OT law that people are condemned – when they break its commands. So being free of the law one is not open to its condemnation. Note, however, that this interpretation is based on taking "the law of sin and death" (v. 2) to refer to the OT law; see the comment on Rom 8:2-3 – under We have been freed from the law to live by the Holy Spirit, p. 1073. Paul could instead be speaking of believers being set free from the controlling power of sin.

Rom 8:33-34 Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.^h 📖

^h Or Is it Christ Jesus who died . . . for us?

With the rhetorical question in v. 34a, Paul may simply be asking how anyone could condemn us – as in v. 33a – when Jesus Christ is at God's right hand and interceding for us. However, it could be that the question has in view Jesus Christ (cf. AMP, NLT) as the judge and so therefore the one who will condemn the guilty. In this case too, believers would have no reason to fear condemnation as the one who pronounces condemnation is the very one who died for them and is now interceding for them.

Col 1:22 ... he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, ... 📖

When presented “holy and blameless and above reproach” before God, believers will clearly not face condemnation.

Ps 34:21-22 Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned. ²²The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned. 📖 Condemnation in earthly courts may be in view. Even so, this is still applicable to condemnation (and freedom from it) before God.

Isa 50:8-9 He who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. ⁹Behold, the Lord GOD helps me; who will declare me guilty? Behold, all of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up. 📖

The term “adversary” in the context speaks of an “accuser” (NIV®; cf. CEV, GNT, NCV). This is a prophecy indicating that God would vindicate his servant, the Messiah, keeping him from accusation and condemnation. It has an application to all God’s people.

✚ God’s people are holy and blameless in his sight:

Eph 1:4a ... even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him.

II. Staying Right with God

See also:

- By faith we remain in a right relationship with God and Jesus Christ, p. 1100

As seen in the first half of this chapter, being made right with God involves being forgiven and granted righteousness. Having been made right with God, it is critical that we live in accordance with this standing, so as to stay right with God. The following topics deal with some key aspects involved in staying right with God.

a) The Need to Obey God

See also:

- II. Obeying God, p. 1163

Obedience does not make us righteous nor earn us salvation. But we need to obey God in keeping with the righteous state before God that is granted to believers through faith in Jesus Christ. (See the introductory comment below on Obedience leads to righteousness.) Moreover, in striving to obey God and to do his will, we effectively accept or grasp the undeserved salvation made possible by God's grace. These same points can be made regarding good deeds – an aspect of obeying God – the subject of the following chapter section.

Subsections

- Obedience leads to righteousness

Obedience accompanies belief and faith

See also:

- . . . We are to both believe and repent, p. 1043
- Faith produces obedience to God, p. 1096

Coming to faith on believing the gospel message, subsequently entails obedience to God.

Rom 1:5 ... through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, ...

The phrase “the obedience of faith” (cf. Rom 16:26 ↓) may well be speaking of obedience that comes from faith, both initial belief and ongoing faith. Alternatively it may be speaking of faith itself as being an act of obedience, to the gospel message.

Rom 15:18-19 For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed,¹⁹ by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem and all the way around to Illyricum I have fulfilled the ministry of the gospel of Christ; ...

The Gentiles came to live in obedience to God through believing Paul's words and deeds – his proclamation of the gospel, supported by the miracles he performed. As such their obedience was a direct consequence of their belief.

Rom 16:25-27 Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages²⁶ but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, *to bring about the obedience of faith—*²⁷ to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen.

A key purpose of the spreading of the gospel (vv. 25-26b) is “to bring about the obedience of faith” (v. 26b).

2Cor 9:13 By their approval of this service, they^a will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, ...

^a Or you

This suggests that obedience should accompany genuine belief of the gospel, with Paul speaking of “this service” as proof of the Corinthians' faith (cf. NCV NIRV).

Acts 6:7 And the word of God continued to increase, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith. 📖

The final clause indicates that these priests became believers, pre-emptive to becoming obedient to the commands of the body of truth referred to here as “the faith”. In effect it is saying that they “believed and obeyed” (NCV™).

John 3:36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. 📖

With the opposite results of having eternal life and not seeing life, this contrasts belief with not obeying. As such, by implication it associates belief with obeying.

Gal 5:7 You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? 📖

The phrase “obeying the truth” speaks of obedience to the truth’s requirements, subsequent to belief of it.

✦ Those who believe Jesus must obey him to be truly his disciples:

John 8:31 So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ...” 📖

Obedience leads to righteousness

Righteousness involves conformity to the will of God. As such obedience is critical for it.

However, as is the case earlier in this chapter, righteousness is also sometimes spoken of in a stricter legal sense – in regard to being deemed as righteous by God. This cannot be achieved just by obedience, simply because it is impossible to obey God’s law perfectly so as to be declared completely righteous before him. When Paul says in Romans 2:13 that “those who obey the law who will be declared righteous” the implication behind it is that no one can do this. It is only by faith in Jesus Christ that one can be declared as righteous in this sense.

But bear in mind that obedience goes hand in hand with faith, as shown above in Obedience accompanies belief and faith. Faith requires obedience and is shown to be valid by it. No one will be declared righteous on Judgment Day without having endeavoured to be obedient. So Paul can also say in Romans 6:16 (below) that obedience “leads to righteousness”, a concept applicable to all senses of the word “righteousness”.

Rom 6:16-18 Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves,^b you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, ¹⁸and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. 📖

Isa 48:18 Oh that you had paid attention to my commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea; ... 📖

Note that some other translations interpret the Hebrew rendered here as “righteousness” to refer instead to success or blessing (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NRSV).

Ezek 18:9 ... [if a man] walks in my statutes, and keeps my rules by acting faithfully—he is righteous; he shall surely live, declares the Lord GOD. 📖

Luke 1:6 And they were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. 📖

1Jn 3:7 Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. 📖

Those who practice righteousness – which basically involves obeying God – are righteous.

Ps 106:28-31 Then they yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor, and ate sacrifices offered to the dead; ²⁹they provoked the LORD to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them. ³⁰Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stayed. ³¹And that was counted to him as righteousness from generation to generation forever. 📖

Phinehas’ action against apostasy, indicative of his devotion and obedience to God, was credited to him as righteousness.

Obedience leads to holiness and purity

Paul's readers had become "obedient from the heart" (v. 17) and so had become "slaves to righteousness" (v. 18) , all of which led to sanctification (v. 19b) or holiness. In v. 22 Paul similarly speaks of becoming slaves in obedience to God, which leads to holiness.

1Pet 1:22 Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, ...

The word "purified" here refers to purity of character, which comes through obedience.

1Jn 1:7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

The expression "walk in the light" of course is akin to "obeying God". The Greek translated "cleanses" has a continuous tense, implying that the purification is ongoing rather than a single "once and for all" event. (cf. NBC)

Ps 119:2-3, 9 Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart, ³*who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways!* ... ⁹*How can a young man keep his way pure? By guarding it according to your word.*

Obedying God's statutes (v. 2) – walking in his ways (v. 3b) and living according to his word (v. 9b) – leads to purity as in doing so one will "do no wrong" (v. 3a) and so "keep his way pure" (v. 9a).

Obedience brings one into a close relationship with God and Jesus Christ . . .

The description of the Israelites as "a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (v. 6) signifies dedication to God's service, necessarily involving a close relationship with him. A close relationship with God is also pointed to by "you shall be my treasured possession".

Mark 3:35 For whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother.

Note that it can be inferred from this that as Jesus' followers are his friends, as opposed to mere servants, they obey him because they want to please him rather than because they have to do so.

1Jn 1:3-7 ... that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴And we are writing these things so that our^e joy may be complete. ⁵This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ⁶*If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.* ⁷*But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another*, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

One can infer from this that if we obey God – walking in his light (v. 7a; cf. v. 5b) – we have fellowship with him and Jesus Christ (vv. 3b; cf. 6-7), along with one another (v. 7; cf. 3a).

1Jn 2:3 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments.

Obedience to God's commands is indicative that one has come to know him. The more one obeys God the better one comes to know his will and God himself.

Lev 9:6 And Moses said, "This is the thing that the LORD commanded you to do, that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."

This appearance of the LORD's glory took place in v. 23. Although we do not expect such appearances, this arguably does reflect that God manifests himself to those who are obedient.

John 14:23 Jesus answered him, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

The promise to “make our home with him” quite possibly alludes to God’s and Jesus Christ’s fellowship with each believer, as part of their abiding presence.

Phil 4:9 What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

That which Paul exhorts the Philippian to put it into practice, would undoubtedly have involved – or been in accordance with – God’s and Jesus Christ’s commands.

1Jn 2:5-6 ... but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: ⁶whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

Living in God involves living and acting as Jesus did (v. 6) – in obedience to God’s will and commands, as reflected with the reference to keeping God’s word in v. 5a.

1Jn 3:24 Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God,^g and God^h in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

Obedience and doing God’s will are critical for salvation

Heb 5:9 And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, ...

Heb 10:36 For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised.

God’s promises pertaining to salvation are grasped – though not earned – by doing his will.

Phil 2:12-13 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

We need to continue to obey (v. 12a) and to please God (v. 13b) so as to lay hold of our salvation (v. 12b).

Matt 7:21-27 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²²On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’ ²³And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.’ ²⁴“Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. ²⁶And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. ²⁷And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it.”

Particularly in light of vv. 21-23, the storm in the parable of the wise and foolish builders probably has the final judgment primarily in view; at the very least it is applicable to it. Those who do God’s will (v. 21) and put Jesus’ words into practice (v. 24) will be saved rather than suffer destruction on Judgment Day.

✦ Jesus lay down his life for those who obey him:

John 15:13-14 Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴*You are my friends if you do what I command you.* 📖

Obedience to Jesus Christ means that we are his friends (v. 14) and in turn that he has laid down his life for us (v. 13). This indicates that obedience to Christ is required in order to be granted the benefits of his death, which of course includes salvation.

Obedience and doing God's will lead to eternal life

Matt 19:16-17 And behold, a man came up to him, saying, "Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?" ¹⁷And he said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments." 📖

Obedience to God's commands is critical for eternal life. Moreover, we must ensure that we do not make anything else a higher priority than God and Jesus Christ – which sadly this man did (cf. vv. 20-24).

John 8:51 Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. 📖

John 12:50 And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. 📖

The phrase "his commandment" refers to God's "commands" (CEV, NCV, cf. NLT) – here primarily what he spoke through Jesus Christ (cf. v. 49). Obedience to God's commands leads to eternal life.

Rom 6:22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. 📖

1Jn 2:17 And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. 📖

Prov 12:28 In the path of righteousness is life, and in its pathway there is no death. 📖

Here "life" probably refers to a secure and fulfilled life, rather than eternal life – although the teaching here is certainly applicable to it.

✦ Following Jesus Christ, forsaking all for God's kingdom, leads to eternal life:

Luke 18:28-30 And Peter said, "See, we have left our homes and followed you." ²⁹And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothersⁱ or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰*who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life."* 📖

ⁱ Or wife or brothers and sisters

Not obeying God ultimately ends in eternal destruction

Eph 5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. 📖

"God's wrath" is probably at least inclusive of the eschatological wrath of God, if not primarily referring to it.

2Thes 1:7b-9 ... when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels ⁸in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. ⁹*They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away fromⁱ the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, ...* 📖

ⁱ Or destruction that comes from

Heb 4:6, 11 Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, 📖 ... ¹¹*Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience.* 📖

When the Israelites arrived at Canaan the first time, because of their disobedience and disbelief they did not enter the place of God's rest for them. They instead died wandering in the desert. Similarly those who follow their example of disobedience will fail to enter God's final rest, and instead will face destruction. Hebrews 3:18 also speaks of this – "And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient?"

1Pet 2:7-8 So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,"^k ⁸and "A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense." They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. 📖

^k Greek the head of the corner

The phrase "disobey the word" (v. 8) is equivalent to not believing in Jesus Christ (v. 7). Such disobedience causes one to "stumble", a term which quite possibly alludes to one's "doom" (NASB; cf. CEV).

1Pet 4:17 For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? 📖

Deut 8:20 Like the nations that the LORD makes to perish before you, so shall you perish, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

While not speaking explicitly of eternal destruction, this points to the assertion that it is ultimately the end of all who do not obey God.

✦ Those who are not appropriately prepared for entering God's kingdom will be thrown out:

Matt 22:8-13 Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy. ⁹Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find.' ¹⁰And those servants went out into the roads and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests. ¹¹'But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment. ¹²And he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. ¹³Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot and cast him into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

The king symbolizes God. The wedding clothes possibly symbolize righteousness. As such these "wedding clothes" could be correlated not only with the righteousness granted through Jesus Christ's death, but also with subsequently living in obedience to God.

b) The Need for Good Deeds

While good deeds do not make us right with God, they are critical for staying right with God – not least because they accompany things that are indicative of being right with God. As such, good deeds prove that one's faith and Christianity are valid – and consequently they are important for one's salvation.

Note that good deeds are involved in obeying God, the subject of the previous section.

Subsections

- We are to persistently do good deeds
- True faith involves good deeds . . .
- . . . One's Christianity should be proven by one's deeds
- Good deeds are critical for salvation and eternal life
- Note: Our good deeds or works do not earn righteousness and salvation, which are by grace

We are to persistently do good deeds

1Tim 6:18 They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, ...

2Cor 9:8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency¹ in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work.

¹ Or all contentment

Gal 6:10 So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Col 1:10 ... so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

The phrase "every good work" arguably suggests "all kinds of good deeds" (GNT) and even to "continually do good" (NLT).

1Thes 5:15 See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to everyone.

2Thes 3:13 As for you, brothers, do not grow weary in doing good.

1Tim 5:9-10 Let a widow be enrolled if she is not less than sixty years of age, having been the wife of one husband,^m ¹⁰*and having a reputation for good works: if she has brought up children, has shown hospitality, has washed the feet of the saints, has cared for the afflicted, and has devoted herself to every good work.*

^m Or a woman of one man

Titus 2:14 ... who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.

Titus 3:1, 14 Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work,
 ... ¹⁴*And let our people learn to devote themselves to good works, so as to help cases of urgent need, and not be unfruitful.*

James 3:13, 17 Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good conduct let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom. ... ¹⁷But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere.

The coupling of “good fruits” (v. 17) with being “full of mercy” implies that the former denotes “good deeds” (GNT, NLT; cf. CEV, NCV). Our lives are to be “full” of such good deeds.

1Pet 2:12, 15 Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation. ... ¹⁵For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people.

Rev 2:19 I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first.

2Chr 31:20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God.

Neh 13:14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for his service.

Acts 9:36 Now there was in Joppa a disciple named Tabitha, which, translated, means Dorcas.ⁿ She was full of good works and acts of charity.

ⁿ The Aramaic name Tabitha and the Greek name Dorcas both mean gazelle

Acts 10:38 ... how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

✦ There is nothing better to do than to be joyful and do good:

Can that faith save him?* ¹⁵If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, ¹⁶and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” without giving them the things needed for the body, what good^o is that? ¹⁷So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. ¹⁸But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. ¹⁹*You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder!* ²⁰*Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless?* ²¹*Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar?* ²²*You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works;* ²³*and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”—and he was called a friend of God.* ... ²⁶*For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead.*

^o Or benefit

In vv. 21-23 James speaks of what Abraham did as affirming his righteousness, a righteousness which was earlier accredited to him because of his belief or faith. In conjunction with this his faith was perfected (cf. GNT, NASB, NCV, NJKV) and in a sense consummated by what he did – proven by his action/work that resulted from it.

Gal 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love.

Faith is more than just a matter of one’s intellect. It involves an active trust in God that is manifested in acts of love, i.e. good deeds.

Eph 2:8-10 For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹not a result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰*For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works*, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

One who has been saved through faith (v. 8) has been “created in Christ Jesus for good works” (v. 10).

Titus 3:8 The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people.

1Jn 3:23 And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us.

This associates faith (“believe in the name of his Son”) with loving others and so also with good deeds, as loving others involves good deeds.

Ps 37:3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness.^p

^p Or and feed on faithfulness, or and find safe pasture

... One’s Christianity should be proven by one’s deeds

See also:

- Obeying God and doing what is right [reasons for assurance], p. 1058

Our deeds should show or prove that we are Christians, being proof of the various things that typify Christians.

John 15:8 By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

It is debatable as to precisely what Jesus is referring to by “fruit”. Most likely it is either: personal spiritual characteristics (cf. Gal 5:22-23); or spiritual outcomes of quality work for his kingdom, e.g. helping to bring people into the kingdom. The latter interpretation would make the verse pertinent to this subsection. Note that quite possibly, in some occurrences at least, “fruit” includes both concepts – spiritual characteristics and the work or deeds that flow from them.

Rom 16:10 Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the family of Aristobulus.

In his greetings in vv. 3-16, Paul makes a number of references to those who have worked hard in the Lord. Thus what Paul has in view in saying that Apelles “is approved in Christ” may well have been in regard to doing such work or deeds.

2Cor 8:24 So give proof before the churches of your love and of our boasting about you to these men.

The reference is to contributing to the needs of others (cf. 9:13).

2Cor 9:13 By their approval of this service, they^a will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, ...

^a Or you

Here Paul effectively speaks of such aid being “proof” (GNT, NASB, NCV, NKJV; cf. CEV, NIV, NLT) of their faith.

3Jn 1:11 Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God.

As noted earlier in this chapter, those who persist in doing good show themselves to be of God – “God’s children” (CEV, NLT).

Acts 26:20 ... but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance.

Deeds that are in keeping with repentance will “prove” (CEV, NIV, NLT) or “show” (GNT, NCV) we have repented.

‡ Do your best to be approved in God’s sight:

2Tim 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved,^r a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth.

^r That is, one approved after being tested

Similarly Galatians 1:10a implies that we should do what we can to win the approval of God – “For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God?”

Good deeds do not in themselves produce salvation – but one who truly has been saved will be characterized by good deeds.

Heb 6:9-12 Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation. ¹⁰*For God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown for his name in serving the saints, as you still do.* ¹¹*And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end,* ¹²*so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.* ☞

Luke 19:8-9 And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold.” ⁹*And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham.* ☞

Jesus was not saying that salvation came because of what Zacchaeus did. Jesus quite possibly meant that what Zacchaeus did was indicative that he had been saved. This interpretation is supported by Jesus calling Zacchaeus “a son of Abraham” (v. 9), which may well refer to Zacchaeus’ faith as the reason “salvation has come to this house”, with Abraham being renowned for his faith.

James 2:14, 21-25 What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? ☞ ... ²¹*Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar?* ²²*You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works;* ²³*and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”—and he was called a friend of God.* ²⁴*You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.* ²⁵*And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way?* ☞

Justification (vv. 21-25) is of course a key element of salvation (v. 14). Verses 21-25 appear to say that one’s justification is fulfilled or sealed – though not earned – by one’s deeds.

Rev 19:7-8 Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; ⁸*it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure”—for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.* ☞

The “righteous deeds” can be understood as “good deeds” (GNT, NLT; cf. CEV, NCV). The “Lamb” is Jesus Christ, and the “bride” represents God’s people, or at least the New Jerusalem that they will inhabit. This looks forward to the consummation of Christ’s relationship or union with his people, associated with the consummation of their salvation. Thus it can be inferred from this that those who are depicted by the “bride” – and so who will receive salvation – are characterized by good deeds.

2Tim 1:16-18 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains, ¹⁷*but when he arrived in Rome he searched for me earnestly and found me—* ¹⁸*may the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that Day!—and you well know all the service he rendered at Ephesus.* ☞

In v. 18a, Paul effectively asks the Lord to take Onesiphorus’s good deeds into account on Judgment Day and show him mercy, which would involve granting him salvation.

2Pet 1:5-8, 10-11 For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue,^s and virtue with knowledge, ⁶*and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness,* ⁷*and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love.* ⁸*For if these qualities^t are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.* ☞ ... ¹⁰*Therefore, brothers,^u be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall.* ¹¹*For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.* ☞

^t Greek these things; also verses 9, 10, 12

^u Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God’s family, the church

This indicates that practicing the qualities listed (vv. 5-7) will enable one to be effective and fruitful (v. 8) – which involves good deeds – ensuring one’s “calling and election” (v. 10) and entry into the kingdom (v. 11), both of which are associated with salvation.

Rom 2:7 ... to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; ... ☞

1Tim 6:18-19 They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, ¹⁹*thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.* ☞

Amos 5:14 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, as you have said. ☞

This can be applied to spiritual life, reflecting that seeking to do good is important for it.

‡ Supposed servants of Christ who do evil will be assigned a place with the unbelievers:

Luke 12:45-46 But if that servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, ⁴⁶the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces and put him with the unfaithful. 📖

The "unfaithful" (v. 46b) can be correlated with "unbelievers" (NASB, NIV, NKJV).

Note: Our good deeds or works do not earn righteousness and salvation, which are by grace

Our good deeds and "works" – including efforts we make in trying to obey aspects of the OT Law that are pertinent to believers – do not earn us righteousness and salvation. They are an effect of righteousness – not a cause of it. Rather, righteousness and salvation come by God's grace/mercy.

Rom 4:1-6 What then shall we say was gained by^v Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? ²*For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.* ³*For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness."* ⁴Now to the one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. ⁵*And to the one who does not work but believes in^w him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness,* ⁶just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: ... 📖

^w Or but trusts; compare verse 24

God credits righteousness to people; it is not earned. Note that with the phrase "does not work" (v. 5) Paul is speaking of one who does not try to earn righteousness by works or deeds.

Rom 9:30-32a What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; ³¹*but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness^x did not succeed in* reaching that law. ³²*Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works.* 📖

^x Greek a law of righteousness

In vv. 31-32 Paul appears to be speaking of Israel failing to obtain the righteousness of the law – the righteousness that the law embodied. With his use of "Israel", Paul may be referring in particular to contemporary Jews, who insisted on trying to pursue righteousness this way – despite the failure of their forefathers – rather than by faith.

Eph 2:8-9 For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹not a result of works, so that no one may boast. 📖

Rom 9:16 So then it depends not on human will or exertion,^a but on God, who has mercy. 📖

^a Greek not of him who wills or runs

"It" refers to God's choice of persons to be his people (cf. vv. 11-12) – also in view in the following reference (11:5-6). As such these verses speak of or allude to God's salvation not being earned through one's own efforts.

Rom 11:5-6 So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace. ⁶But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. 📖

The "remnant" refers to those that God had chosen from among the largely unbelieving Jewish nation.

Through what Jesus Christ has accomplished, believers have been set free from the Mosaic Law (the law given through Moses) as the means of being made right with God. As such, many aspects of the law are no longer applicable, particularly the regulations regarding making atonement for sin.

This does not mean that we are permitted to sin. For we are still to obey the spiritual and moral commands of the law that remain pertinent to our relationship with God and our relationships with other people. But rather than being preoccupied with doggedly obeying rules, we are to be focused on living by God's Holy Spirit. In doing so we are better able to avoid sin and more effectively fulfill God's will.

Gal 5:13 For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

Freedom from the Mosaic Law is being referred to.

Rom 6:1-2, 15 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? ²By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it?  ... ¹⁵What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!

Gal 2:17 But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not!

The phrase "a servant of sin" has the sense "serving the cause of sin" (GNT). A common interpretation of this verse is that Paul is dealing with the charge that being justified in Christ, apart from the law, encourages sinful behavior as one is no longer subject to the law. Paul totally rejects this accusation. Another interpretation is that Paul is speaking of the realization of Jews that the way of justification in Christ apart from the Jewish law means that they, like the Gentiles (cf. v. 15), are sinners (cf. GNT, NCV). Paul would likewise then be rejecting the accusation that such a truth means that Christ promotes the cause of sin.

1Pet 2:16 Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants^b of God.

We should not use our freedom from law as an "excuse" (CEV, NCV, NLT) to do wrong. Note that civil law rather than the Mosaic Law is in view here – but the same principle applies to both.

Jude 1:4 For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Here Jude condemns people using God's grace (which involves freedom from the law) as an excuse for sexual immorality.

Acts 24:24-25 After some days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, and he sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁵And as he reasoned about righteousness and self-control and the coming judgment, Felix was alarmed and said, "Go away for the present. When I get an opportunity I will summon you."

Here Paul's teaching associates "faith in Christ Jesus" (v. 24) with "righteousness and self-control" (v. 25). This is contrary to the concept that the way of faith (with its freedom from the law) permits us to sin.

... In fact, sinning results in enslavement to sin

See also:

▪ Captivity to sin . . . , p. 374

▪ . . . involving enslavement to sin, p. 375

Rather than bringing freedom, choosing to sin in fact results in enslavement to sin.

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave^c to sin. 📖

^c Greek bondservant; also verse 35

Rom 6:16 Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves,^d you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? 📖

^d Greek bondservants. Twice in this verse and verse 19; also once in verses 17, 20

Paul appears to imply that one lives either as a slave to sin or as a slave to righteousness. Therefore if one chooses to sin and not be committed to living righteously, one will be enslaved to sin.

1Cor 6:12 “All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are helpful. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be enslaved by anything. 📖

“All things are lawful for me” (cf. 1Cor 10:23-24 ↓) appears to be Paul quoting some of the Corinthians who apparently – in order to justify their sexual immorality (cf. v. 13) – claimed that everything is permissible for Christians to do, presumably in reference to not being under law. Paul argues that while in one sense this might be true, obviously it is not a good idea to do things that are harmful. One way in which sin is harmful is that one becomes enslaved by it (cf. 2Pet 2:19 ↓), no longer being free to choose whether or not to indulge in it, as it increasingly dominates one’s life, taking one under its power (cf. CEV, NKJV).

2Pet 2:19 They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves^e of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. 📖

Eccl 8:8b There is no discharge from war, nor will wickedness deliver those who are given to it. 📖

For comment, see the comment on Eccl 8:8 – under Captivity to sin . . . , p. 374.

✦ In exercising one’s freedom from the law, one should be mindful of others:

1Cor 10:23-24 “All things are lawful,” but not all things are helpful. “All things are lawful,” but not all things build up.²⁴ Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. 📖

In speaking of doing what is “lawful”, v. 23 is in the same vein as 6:12 above. But here the effect on others – rather than on ourselves – seems to be in view (v. 24). In exercising one’s freedom from the law, one should not challenge the weaker faith of others so as to cause them to act against their conscience (cf. vv. 28-29b), but rather in doing so one should seek the good of others (v. 24).

We have been freed from the law to live by the Holy Spirit

Living by the Holy Spirit involves: being both alert to and responsive to the Spirit’s promptings; and being reliant on the Spirit’s power, to enable and transform us.

Rom 7:6 But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code.^f 📖

^f Greek of the letter

The term “that which held us captive” is a reference to the aforementioned law. God’s people serve and obey him now by following the directing of the Holy Spirit, with his empowerment, rather than by focusing on “obeying the letter of the law” (NLT).

Gal 5:18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. 📖

2Cor 3:5-6 Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, ⁶who has made us competent^g to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 📖

^g Or sufficient

The “letter” refers to the law. God’s new covenant with his people is not of the law but of the Spirit, whereby his people are renewed by the Holy Spirit and live under the Holy Spirit’s influence.

2Cor 3:17 Now the Lord^h is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. 📖

^h Or this Lord

This spiritual “freedom” encompasses freedom from bondage to the law, along with freedom from sin and death.

Rom 8:2-3 For the law of the Spirit of life has set youⁱ free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. ³For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin,^j he condemned sin in the flesh, ...

ⁱ Some manuscripts me

^j Or and as a sin offering

The phrase “the law of sin and death” (v. 2) may refer to the OT law as “the law that brings sin and death” (NCV™), which is consistent with the usage of “law” immediately following in v. 3; thus v. 2 would indicate that the new “law” or system based on living by the Spirit has freed us from living under the OT law – as per the theme of this subsection. However a common alternative interpretation – supported by the preceding discussion on the “law of sin” (7:21-23) – is that both occurrences of “the law of” in v. 2 mean “the power of” (NLT). As such the meaning would be that the controlling (cf. v. 9) power of the Holy Spirit that gives life sets us free from the controlling power of sin, which brings death.

✦ Through his Spirit being in us, God moves us to follow his laws:

Ezek 36:27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules.^k

^k Or my just decrees

Largely through giving us his Holy Spirit, God enables us to follow his laws, as we live by his indwelling Spirit (cf. Rom 8:4 ↓).

Instead of living by the sinful nature, live by the Holy Spirit . . .

See also:

^l Or and as a sin offering

Note that v. 4 makes the important point that living under the power of the Holy Spirit enables one to in fact fulfill the law (cf. Ezek 36:27 ↑).

Rom 8:8-12 Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. ⁹*You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact* the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. ¹⁰But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. ¹²*So then, brothers,^m we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.*

^m Or brothers and sisters; also verse 29

In v. 12, “debtors” may have in view that we are indebted to God, as the one will give us life (v. 11). As such we are obligated “not to the flesh” (v. 12), but to live according to his Spirit, “the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead” (v. 11).

Gal 5:13, 16 For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. ... ¹⁶But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh.

Gal 5:24-25 And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. ²⁵*If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.*

Eph 5:18 And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, ...

Believers are to continue on being replenished with the Holy Spirit. It is not a contrived experience, but one in which they are passively involved – they are to “let” (CEV, NLT) the Holy Spirit fill them (cf. ZBC). One who is filled by the Holy Spirit, can hardly live other than by the Holy Spirit.

Isa 30:1 “Ah, stubborn children,” declares the LORD, “who carry out a plan, but not mine, and who make an alliance,ⁿ but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin; ...

ⁿ Hebrew who weave a web

This condemnation both of acting apart from God’s Spirit and of sinning, points to the fact that we should live by the Holy Spirit instead of by the sinful nature.

. . . and live in God’s grace

See also:

- b) Salvation by Grace, through Jesus Christ, p. 646
- Instead of being under the law, believers are under grace and Jesus Christ’s law, p. 658

After experiencing God’s grace in being made right with him and being given salvation, Christians are to live in the realm of his grace. This primarily involves being faithful to God and holding to the faith – thus remaining under his grace, staying right with him. It also encompasses trusting in God’s grace to meet one’s needs, including spiritual needs.

Living in God’s grace is complementary to living by the Holy Spirit. Additionally it contrasts in particular with living by the law.

Acts 13:43 And after the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, as they spoke with them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

Rom 11:22 Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God’s kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off.

Many commentators see Paul here as talking specifically of the Gentiles as a whole, rather than individual believers. But the concept of the need to continue in God’s “gracious kindness” (AMP) is obviously also applicable to individuals.

2Cor 6:1-2 Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ²*For he says, “In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you.” Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.*

By urging the Corinthians “not to receive the grace of God in vain” (v. 1), Paul appears to be appealing to the Corinthians not to forfeit the salvation (v. 2) that God’s grace or favor (v. 2) has provided. But note that a number of commentators have a somewhat different interpretation.

Heb 12:15 See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no “root of bitterness” springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled; ...

The expression “fails to obtain the grace of God” probably refers to failing to “secure God’s grace” (AMP), “turning back from” it (GNT). As well as seeking to ensure that no fellow believer “fails to obtain the grace of God”, we should of course also ensure that we ourselves do not.

1Pet 5:12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother as I regard him, I have written briefly to you, exhorting and declaring that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it.

The teaching contained in Peter’s letter was – or at least was in accordance with – “the true grace of God”, in which Peter encouraged his readers to stand firm.

2Pet 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

Believers are to grow spiritually in or by Christ’s grace and knowledge of him (cf. 2Tim 2:1 ↓).

2Cor 1:12 For our boast is this, the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world with simplicity^o and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God, and supremely so toward you.

^o Some manuscripts holiness

Paul and his companions had conducted themselves according to God’s grace, in a manner consistent with it and in reliance on it.

2Tim 2:1 You then, my child, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus, ...

This is speaking of believers being strengthened by the grace that they have through Christ and/or in their union with Christ (cf. GNT).

Heb 13:9 Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them.

‡ Remain in God’s love:

Jude 1:21 ... keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life.

^r See discussion on “sons” in the Preface

As commented above in We have been freed from the law to live by the Holy Spirit, there are a couple of interpretations of the meaning of “the law” in v. 2, meaning that the last clause is either referring to the Mosaic Law (cf. NCV) or the power of sin (cf. NLT). But with either interpretation the verse still attests to how living by the Spirit “of life” sets us free from death. In v. 14, to be “led by the Spirit” speaks of living under the Spirit’s influence.

Gal 6:7-8 Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. ⁸For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.

2Cor 3:6-9 ... who has made us competent^s to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. ⁷Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that the Israelites could not gaze at Moses’ face because of its glory, which was being brought to an end, ⁸will not the ministry of the Spirit have even more glory? ⁹For if there was glory in the ministry of condemnation, the ministry of righteousness must far exceed it in glory.

The “letter” (v. 6), “the ministry of death” (v. 7) and “the ministry of condemnation” (v. 9) all refer to the law – highlighting that it brings death rather than life. In indicating that “the ministry of the Spirit” (v. 8) brings righteousness (v. 9), vv. 8-9 point to the Spirit bringing life (v. 6), as righteousness and life are associated (cf. Gal 3:21 ↓), the former qualifying a person for the latter.

Gal 3:21 Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the law.

This indicates that the law cannot impart life.

Rom 4:15 For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression.

Rather than bringing life, the law brings God’s wrath and consequently eternal punishment (cf. NLT).

Gal 5:5 For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness.

Living by the Spirit (cf. NLT) enables believers to await the righteousness to come (which is either referring to being pronounced right with God on Judgment Day, or being made righteous in ourselves following Jesus Christ’s return). One can infer from this that living by the Spirit enables believers to secure the everlasting life that is to come in conjunction with this righteousness (cf. comment on 2Cor 3:6-9 ↑).

✦ One is sanctified by the Spirit, not by the law:

Rom 2:29 But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God.

Note: Inner righteousness and right attitudes are needed, rather than mere compliance with rules

See also:

- The law’s principles – such as love, justice and mercy – are of central importance, above its rules, p. 662
- The new covenant is spiritual – of an internal nature and of the Holy Spirit, p. 669

In conjunction with living by the Holy Spirit, true or inner righteousness (including right attitudes) is vital and should be sought – as opposed to merely complying with rules of the law.

Matt 5:20-22, 27-28 For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ²¹*“You have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment.’* ²²*But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother^t will be liable to judgment; whoever insults^u his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ will be liable to the hell^v of fire.* ... ²⁷*“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’* ²⁸*But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart.*

^t Some manuscripts insert without cause

^u Greek says Raca to (a term of abuse)

^v Greek Gehenna; also verses 29, 30

In v. 20 Jesus refers to the Jewish leaders’ lack of true, inner righteousness. They gave the appearance of complying with the law’s commandments – and indeed probably did largely comply with its rules and regulations. But their characters were not consistent with the spirit of the law. Jesus may well have had this latter point in view in subsequently speaking of attitudes that should accompany obedience to such commands as those forbidding murder (vv. 21-22a) and adultery (vv. 27-28).

Matt 23:25-28 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. ²⁶You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. ²⁷“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people’s bones and all uncleanness. ²⁸So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. ☞

In vv. 25-26, Jesus appears to refer to a tradition of the religious leaders of ensuring the outside of eating bowls were clean. Jesus uses this illustration to draw a parallel with their hypocritical and foolish practice of giving the appearance of being righteous by complying with rules instead of being concerned about inner righteousness. Jesus implies that if one is inwardly clean then one’s whole self, including one’s (outward) actions, will be clean in God’s sight.

Matt 19:16-23 And behold, a man came up to him, saying, “Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?” ¹⁷And he said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments.” ¹⁸He said to him, “Which ones?” And Jesus said, “You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, ¹⁹Honor your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” ²⁰The young man said to him, “All these I have kept. What do I still lack?” ²¹Jesus said to him, “If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” ²²When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. ²³And Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly, I say to you, only with difficulty will a rich person enter the kingdom of heaven. ☞

In vv. 18-19 Jesus did not mention any commandments concerning the man’s relationship with God. Jesus’ instructions in v. 21 bore out the fact that the man’s riches had become a higher priority to him than God. Although outwardly he had appeared to have been keeping the commandments, his money had in a real sense become his God – thus breaking the first commandment (cf. Ex 20:3). Even adherence to the moral commandments is insufficient without God-centered priorities and attitudes.

Mark 7:14-23 And he called the people to him again and said to them, “Hear me, all of you, and understand: ¹⁵*There is nothing outside a person that by going into him can defile him, but the things that come out of a person are what defile him.*” ¹⁷And when he had entered the house and left the people, his disciples asked him about the parable. ¹⁸And he said to them,

“Then are you also without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile him, ¹⁹since it enters not his heart but his stomach, and is expelled?”^x (Thus he declared all foods clean.) ²⁰And he said, “What comes out of a person is what defiles him. ²¹For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, ²²coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride, foolishness. ²³All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person.” ☞

^w Some manuscripts add verse 16: If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear

^x Greek goes out into the latrine

Jesus refers here to the law’s regulations concerning clean and unclean foods. The tradition of the Jewish elders of washing their hands so as not to eat with “unclean” hands is also in view (cf. vv. 1-5). Such regulations are not imperative; rather it is what is in a person’s heart that counts.

Luke 18:9-14 He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: ¹⁰“Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed^y thus: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get.’ ¹³But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ ¹⁴I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” ☞

^y Or standing, prayed to himself

Rom 2:28-29 For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. ²⁹But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. ☞

With his use here of “Jew”, Paul is speaking of being one of God’s people. This requires a heart made right with God, not merely compliance with outward regulations, such as Jewish circumcision.

Ps 51:16-17 For you will not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it; you will not be pleased with a burnt offering. ¹⁷The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. ☞

In repentance from sin, what God really wants is a humbled spirit and remorseful heart (v. 17), rather than merely obligatory offerings (v. 16).

‡ A preoccupation with regulations can in fact lead to nullifying the law:

Mark 7:5-13 And the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, “Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?”⁶ And he said to them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, “‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; ⁷in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’⁸ You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men.”⁹ And he said to them, “You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! ¹⁰For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and, ‘Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.’¹¹ But you say, ‘If a man tells his father or his mother, “‘Whatever you would have gained from me is Corban”’ (that is, given to God)^z—¹²then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, ¹³thus making void the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And many such things you do.”

^z Or an offering

The Jews had developed many traditions, regulations which they had they placed alongside the law – often to the detriment of keeping the law.

d) Epilogue: Living ‘in’ Jesus Christ

- II. Being ‘in’ Jesus Christ, p. 778

Paul often speaks of believers being or acting “in” Christ. This refers to their close relationship and association with Jesus Christ, in which they are even identified with him. More specifically, it involves their spiritual union with Jesus Christ, and also the relationship that they have to God because of this association with Jesus Christ. (See also the introductory comment under II. Being ‘in’ Jesus Christ, p. 778.)

Believers are to live their lives in accordance with this relationship. As such, in addition to being mindful of the relationship, believers should: be dependent on Jesus Christ in whom they subsist; and act in a way consistent with Jesus Christ and his teachings.

Live “in” Jesus Christ

Col 2:6-7 Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, ⁷*rooted and built up in him* and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

1Cor 4:17 That is why I sent^a you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ,^b as I teach them everywhere in every church.

^a Or am sending

^b Some manuscripts add Jesus

2Tim 3:12 Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, ...

1Pet 3:16 ... having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame.

The expression “your good behavior in Christ” reflects that we should live “in” Christ – “your good life in Christ” (NCV™).

‡ “Put on” Jesus Christ:

Rom 13:14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The expression “put on the Lord Jesus Christ” quite possibly refers to immersing oneself in one’s union with Christ – surrounding oneself with Christ, acting in line with his purposes and for his glory, and in reliance on him. However, it has also been interpreted as a call to take on or adopt his character and example. The first interpretation is more pertinent to the theme of this subsection, but the second would also be relevant.

Remain “in” Jesus Christ

John 15:4-6 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. ⁵I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. 📖

The phrase “abide in” (cf. John 15:7-10; 1Jn 2:27-28 ↓) speaks of persistently dwelling in something – and is akin to “remain in” (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT). Note that this speaks of abiding in Jesus Christ as producing spiritual “fruit” for God – applicable to both “fruit” in our own lives and “fruit” in/for God’s kingdom.

1Jn 2:27-28 But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him. ²⁸*And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming.* 📖

Note that here abiding in Jesus Christ is associated with the Holy Spirit – “the anointing” (v. 27) – abiding in believers.

Phil 3:8-9 Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— 📖

With the phrase “be found in him” (v. 9) Paul is probably expressing his desire and hope to be found in union with Christ on Christ’s return.

Phil 4:1 Therefore, my brothers,^c whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved. 📖

^c Or brothers and sisters; also verses 8, 21

1Thes 3:8 For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. 📖

We live “in” Jesus Christ – and he in us – by faith . . .

See also:

- Phil 4:1 ↑

Note that the concept of having Jesus Christ is associated with being “in” him (cf. John 6:56 ↓).

Gal 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. 📖

“I live by faith in the Son of God” is usually understood to be speaking of having faith in Jesus Christ – which may well be the case (cf. AMP, NlrV, NLT). However in line with the references earlier in the verse to Christ living in oneself and to living “in the flesh” (which “in the Son of God” could be intended to parallel), the sense may be “I live by faith, in the Son of God”. The first half of the second sentence could then be rendered, “The life I now live in the flesh, I live in the Son of God, by faith.” Note that Paul’s earlier point that he no longer lives but Christ lives in him (cf. Eph 3:16-17 ↓), is both vital and complimentary to living in Jesus Christ – as reflected in this subsection’s heading.

Col 2:5-7 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ. ⁶Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. 📖

Paul appears to associate having a firm faith in Christ (v. 5) – and being established in the faith (v. 7) – with living in Christ (v. 6) and being “rooted and built up in him” (v. 7).

John 6:56 Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. 📖

As commented earlier in this chapter, there are two subtly different interpretations of what Jesus meant when he spoke metaphorically of eating of him, the bread of life. One is that it simply means to believe in him and depend on his death, for eternal life; the other is that it means to partake of Jesus Christ for the sustenance of one’s life. Both interpretations – particularly the first – are connected with having faith in him. Similarly, both – particularly the second – can also be connected with holding to his teachings. Thus this verse reflects the assertion that we live or abide “in” Jesus Christ – and he in us – by faith and by holding to his teachings (as per the following subsection).

Eph 3:16-17 ... that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ...

... and by holding to his teachings

John 15:7-10 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. ⁸By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. ⁹As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. ¹⁰*If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.*

One abides in Jesus Christ (v. 7) and similarly in his love (vv. 9-10), by holding to his words (v. 7), keeping his commands (vv. 9-10).

1Jn 2:4-6 Whoever says “I know him” but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, ⁵but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: ⁶*whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.*

Verses 4-5a suggest that being “in” Jesus Christ and living in the same way in which he did (vv. 5b-6) involve keeping his teachings.

1Jn 2:24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father.

The teaching referred to as “what you heard from the beginning” would be teaching based on Jesus Christ and his teachings (cf. 1:1; 2:7; 3:11; 2Jn 1:6; 2Jn 1:9 ↓).

1Jn 3:5-6 You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶*No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him.*

2Jn 1:9 Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

✦ Similarly, those who obey God's commands abide in God, and he in them:

1Jn 3:24 Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God,^d and God^e in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

Speak “in” Jesus Christ

Being “in” Jesus Christ we should speak and act “in” Jesus Christ, in a manner consistent with this standing. Doing so involves speaking and acting in accordance with Jesus Christ's teachings and faith in him (as reflected by the previous two subsections).

Bear in mind, however, that in this and the following subsection, references to doing things in Jesus Christ are not necessarily intended to imply or exemplify that we should consciously do such things in Jesus Christ – which is the thrust of the subheadings. Some at least may just be reflecting that as Christians we are “in” Jesus Christ and thus what we do is therefore done “in” Jesus Christ.

Rom 9:1 I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit—

2Cor 2:17 For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God's word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

Note that with the phrase “in the sight of God” (cf. 2Cor 12:19 ↓), Paul implies that he spoke not only in awareness of God's presence, but also his scrutiny. He may be alluding to God as his witness that he spoke in Christ.

2Cor 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ, and all for your upbuilding, beloved.

1Thes 4:1 Finally, then, brothers,^f we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more.

^f Or brothers and sisters; also verses 10, 13

As in the following verses, Paul appears to be speaking “in the Lord Jesus” as he gives instructions. Note that in these verses, Paul may have in mind that as he is “in” Jesus Christ he is therefore speaking “in” Jesus Christ – as opposed to saying that he is purposely speaking in accordance with his standing of being “in” Jesus Christ.

2Thes 3:12 Now such persons we command and encourage in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living.^g 📖

^g Greek eat their own bread

Eph 4:17 Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. 📖

Act towards others “in” Jesus Christ

Note that Paul’s references below to acting towards other believers “in” Jesus Christ, may well have their standing “in” Jesus Christ in view as much as that of Paul or his readers.

Rom 16:1-2 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant^h of the church at Cenchreae, ²that you may welcome her in the Lord in a way worthy of the saints, and help her in whatever she may need from you, for she has been a patron of many and of myself as well. 📖

^h Or deaconess

Rom 16:8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord. 📖

Paul may be referring to loving Ampliatus “in” Christ (cf. NIV).

1Cor 16:19, 24 The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, send you hearty greetings in the Lord. 📖 ... ²⁴*My love be with you all in Christ Jesus*. Amen. 📖

Eph 6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 📖

Col 3:18 Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. 📖

Phil 2:29 So receive him in the Lord with all joy, and honor such men, ... 📖

Phil 4:2 I entreat Euodia and I entreat Syntyche to agree in the Lord. 📖

Philem 1:20 Yes, brother, I want some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ. 📖

In the first sentence, Paul appears to ask Philemon to comply “in the Lord” to his earlier request (vv. 17-18).

Do God’s work “in” Jesus Christ

Rom 16:3, 9, 12 Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, 📖 ... ⁹Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys. 📖 ... ¹²Greet those workers in the Lord, Tryphaena and Tryphosa. Greet the beloved Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord. 📖

The phrases in question are often interpreted to mean “in the service (or cause) of Jesus Christ” or “for Jesus Christ”. (This is also often the case for other such phrases in the remainder of this subsection.) While this could be so – and indeed they are at least an implication – arguably they are a simplification of the more precise meaning given in the comments at the beginning of both this chapter section and II. Being ‘in’ Jesus Christ, p. 778.

1Cor 9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord? 📖

1Cor 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. 📖

Paul may have in view his readers’ labor in the Lord (cf. AMP, CEV, NIV).

Eph 6:21 So that you also may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord will tell you everything. 📖

✦ Believers are created in Christ to do good works:

Eph 2:10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. 📖

Rejoice and take pride “in” Jesus Christ

Arguably at least, the verses in this subsection are speaking of rejoicing and glorying “in” Jesus Christ, rather than speaking of Jesus Christ being the object of the rejoicing and glorying (though this is not an unrelated concept).

Phil 4:4, 10 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. 📖 ... ¹⁰*I rejoiced in the Lord greatly* that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. 📖

Phil 3:1-4a Finally, my brothers,ⁱ rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is no trouble to me and is safe for you. ²Look out for the dogs, look out for the evildoers, look out for those who mutilate the flesh. ³For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God^j and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— ⁴though I myself have reason for confidence in the flesh also.

ⁱ Or brothers and sisters; also verses 13, 17

^j Some manuscripts God in spirit

“In” Jesus Christ, we are to rejoice (v. 1) – “be joyful in your union with the Lord” (GNT). In v. 3, when used as a verb “glory” (cf. Phil 1:26 ↓) refers to taking pride – with at least a “hint” of joy.

Phil 1:25-26 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

Paul appears to be speaking of the Philippians having “abundant cause for exultation and glorying in Christ Jesus” (AMP) as a result of his ministry among them.

Rom 15:17 In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God.

1Cor 15:31 I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day!

Further aspects of living “in” Jesus Christ

1Cor 4:17 That is why I sent^k you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ,^l as I teach them everywhere in every church.

^k Or am sending

This could be speaking of Timothy’s faithfulness in living a life in accordance with being in the Lord, serving him (cf. CEV, NIRV); or in particular it could be speaking of Timothy’s faithfulness to Paul, in the Lord.

2Cor 13:4 For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God.

For comment, see the comment on 2Cor 13:4 – under . . . This identification also has other implications – present and future, p. 784.

Gal 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love.

2Tim 1:13 Follow the pattern of the sound^m words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

^mOr healthy

Eph 4:21 ... assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, ...

Particularly with the phrase “were taught in him”, Paul may be referring here to his readers being in Jesus Christ (cf. NCV). However he may instead simply be referring to teaching/truth based on Jesus’ life and teaching.

Eph 6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might.

Believers are to be spiritually strong “in union with the Lord and by means of his mighty power” (GNT; cf. AMP).

Phil 2:19, 24 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. ... ²⁴and I trust in the Lord that shortly I myself will come also.

Note that these verses may be speaking of hoping and trusting the Lord rather than having hope and trust being “in” the Lord. As such they would not be so relevant to this subsection.

1Thes 5:16-18 Rejoice always, ¹⁷pray without ceasing, ¹⁸give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

This could be speaking of God’s will for those who are in Christ Jesus (cf. AMP, GNT, NLT).

Rom 16:10a Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ.

Apelles’ actions had proven to be in accordance with being “in” Christ.

1Cor 4:15 For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Similarly in Philemon 1:16, Paul refers to Onesimus as “a beloved brother ... in the Lord.” These verses illustrate that believers are family, related to each other, “in” Jesus Christ.

[†] Paul could do everything “through” Jesus Christ, who strengthened him:

Phil 4:13 I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Have faith in God and Jesus Christ

Mark 11:22 And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God.”

1Thes 1:8 For not only has the word of the Lord sounded forth from you in Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith in God has gone forth everywhere, so that we need not say anything.

Paul appears to be saying that the Thessalonians' faith in God had become known everywhere (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT, NRSV).

1Pet 1:20-21 He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for the sake of you ²¹who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The segment “who through him are believers in God” (v. 21a) may primarily be speaking of trusting in God (cf. NET, NRSV) – through Christ, with what God has done for and by him. Thus believers' “faith and hope are in God” (v. 21b).

Eph 1:15 For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love^a toward all the saints, ...

Eph 3:11-12 This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him.

Rev 14:12 Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.^b

^b Greek and the faith of Jesus

✦ Have a sincere faith:

1Tim 1:5 The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.

Faith must be sincere and genuine. Note that in 2 Timothy 1:5 Paul speaks of Timothy's “sincere faith”.

Live by faith

God's people are to live by faith, persistently having faith in God and the realization of his promises.

2Cor 5:6-7 So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight.

Paul was “always of good courage” (v. 6a), knowing that his final destiny was to be with Jesus Christ in a more tangible sense (v. 6b; cf. v. 8). As such, he lived by faith, in the belief of this which he could not yet perceive (v. 7).

Gal 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Heb 10:37-38 For, “Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; ³⁸but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him.”

This is a quotation from Habakkuk 2:4b – “... the righteous shall live by his faith.” The writer of Hebrews appears to use it here to indicate that the righteous will live in faith (cf. AMP).

Pursue faith – and grow in faith

1Tim 6:11 But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness.

2Tim 2:22 So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

2Cor 10:15 We do not boast beyond limit in the labors of others. But our hope is that as your faith increases, our area of influence among you may be greatly enlarged, ...

2Thes 1:3 We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers,^c as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing.

^c Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God’s family, the church

‡ Quality rather than quantity of faith is what matters:

Luke 17:5-6 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” ⁶And the Lord said, “If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.”

Jesus’ reply appears to be emphasizing genuine or quality faith, rather than amount of faith. His illustration is hyperbole emphasizing that through genuine faith one can do the seemingly impossible.

Have strong faith . . .

Matt 8:5-10 When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, appealing to him, ⁶“Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, suffering terribly.” ⁷And he said to him, “I will come and heal him.” ⁸But the centurion replied, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed.” ⁹For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. And I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my servant,^d ‘Do this,’ and he does it.” ¹⁰When Jesus heard this, he marveled and said to those who followed him, “Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel^e have I found such faith.”

^e Some manuscripts not even in Israel

Acts 6:5 And what they said pleased the whole gathering, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch.

Rom 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world.

Such was the degree of the faith of Paul’s readers, it had become very widely known (cf. Eph 1:15; Col 1:4; Philem 1:5).

Rom 4:20-21 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

The phrase “he grew strong in his faith” may mean that “his faith grew stronger” (NLT) – hence its inclusion here; but it also could mean that “His faith made him strong” (CEV; cf. AMP, GNT).

2Cor 1:24 Not that we lord it over your faith, but we work with you for your joy, for you stand firm in your faith.

Paul is either speaking of the Corinthians standing firm by means of their faith or firmly holding to their faith. The latter meaning would make the verse pertinent to this subsection, speaking of their faith being strong (cf. CEV). Bear in mind that each alternative implies that the other is true anyway. The same could be said of “firm in your faith” below in 1 Peter 5:9.

2Cor 8:7 But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you^f—see that you excel in this act of grace also.

^f Some manuscripts in your love for us

Col 2:5-7 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ. ⁶Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

Note that “the faith” (v. 7) refers to the body of Christian truth rather than one’s own faith. But the fact that it refers to what Christians believe indicates that it also involves one’s own faith – reflected by some translations having “your faith” – and thus it also is pertinent to this subsection, along with v. 5.

2Tim 1:5 I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you as well.

Titus 2:2 Older men are to be sober-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in steadfastness.

The term “sound in faith” may be referring to having “strong faith” (NLT; cf. NCV) – hence the verse’s inclusion here. But with Paul speaking in the preceding verse of teaching what is in accordance with “sound doctrine”, it may instead refer to having a sound understanding of the truths of the faith (cf. 1:13).

Heb 10:22 ...let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

The expression “in full assurance of faith” points to “a faith that is sure and strong” (NirV®; cf. GNT, NCV) so as to give such assurance.

1Pet 5:9 Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world.

... For faith is tested

James 1:3, 12 ... for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. ... ¹²Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him.

As suggested by “the testing of your faith” (v. 3), testing of one’s faith is in view in v. 12 – as is generally the case with references to believers being tested.

1Pet 1:6-7 In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, *you have been grieved by various trials, ⁷so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—*may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

Matt 9:28-30a When he entered the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.” ²⁹Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.” ³⁰And their eyes were opened.

In v. 28 Jesus tests or checks the blind men’s belief. Verses 29-30a indicate that their answer reflected sound faith.

Matt 15:22-28 And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and was crying, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely oppressed by a demon.” ²³But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away, for she is crying out after us.” ²⁴He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” ²⁵But she came and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, help me.” ²⁶And he answered, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.” ²⁷She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.” ²⁸Then Jesus answered her, “O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed instantly.

Jesus appears to test the Canaanite woman’s faith by firstly not answering (v. 23a) and then highlighting the priority of the Israelites in his mission (vv. 24, 26). The woman’s faith “came through with flying colours”.

Luke 8:13 And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away.

Shallow belief – with “no root” – fails in “time of testing”; one’s faith needs to be strong.

John 6:5-6 Lifting up his eyes, then, and seeing that a large crowd was coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, “Where are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?” ⁶He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

Heb 11:17-19 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, ¹⁸of whom it was said, "Through Isaac shall your offspring be named." ¹⁹He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.

✦ God allowed Satan to test Job:

Job 2:3-10 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil? He still holds fast his integrity, although you incited me against him to destroy him without reason." ⁴Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! All that a man has he will give for his life. ⁵But stretch out your hand and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face." ⁶And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand; only spare his life." ⁷So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and struck Job with loathsome sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. ⁸And he took a piece of broken pottery with which to scrape himself while he sat in the ashes. ⁹Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God and die." ¹⁰But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. Shall we receive good from God, and shall we not receive evil?"^h In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

^h Or disaster; also verse 11

Note that in v. 3b God refers to allowing Satan to earlier test Job (cf. 1:8-22). There the testing involved taking away virtually all Job had; here it involved afflicting him physically. Verse 10 shows Job's faith standing firm.

Persist in faith

See also:

- Continue in the faith, p. 1793

In conjunction with having faith in God in regard to issues we face in our everyday lives, we are to persist in our belief and faith in the Bible's teachings. This latter aspect is what is primarily in view in the following verses – and likely also in view in a number of the verses in the previous subsections.

1Tim 1:18-19 This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, ¹⁹*holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, ...*

"By rejecting this" (v. 19b) refers primarily to rejecting "a good conscience" (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT, NRSV), which is vital for holding to our faith in the Bible's teachings.

Heb 3:14 For we have come to share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end.

The use of "confidence" (cf. Heb 10:35 ↓) is akin to "faith" (CEV, NIV, NCV) – with the writer speaking of "trusting God just as firmly as when we first believed" (NLT).

Heb 10:35 Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

Heb 11:13 These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

The patriarchs appear to be largely in view here (cf. vv. 8-12). They persisted in faith until they died. They did not receive the things promised – notably possession of the promised land (v. 8) – but by faith they envisaged the future fulfillment of the promises. Ultimately by faith they were looking toward a heavenly land (cf. vv. 10, 16), as do all who live by/in faith (cf. vv. 39-40).

Luke 18:8 I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?

This points to the need to persist in faith (cf. AMP) until Christ's return. Jesus makes this statement immediately following a parable concerning persistence in prayer (vv. 1-8a), thus faith in prayer may be its prime concern. However, perseverance in faith amidst the pressures of this world is seen by some commentators to be more likely the main focus.

Note that trusting in God is an integral part of having faith in him, as discussed in the following section b) What Faith in God Involves Doing, p. 1089.

Ps 13:5 But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

Trusting in God's steadfast love is equivalent to trusting in God because of his steadfast love.

Ps 52:8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever.

1Jn 4:16a So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us.

In speaking of coming “to believe” God’s love, John indicates that we should “adhere to and put faith in and rely on” (AMP; cf. NCV, NIV) God’s love.

Ps 21:7 For the king trusts in the LORD, and through the steadfast love of the Most High he shall not be moved.

The above verses speak of trusting in God’s love. This and the following verses refer to trusting in God while also speaking of God’s love, showing it to be a prime reason for trusting in him.

Ps 32:10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the LORD.

Ps 143:8 Let me hear in the morning of your steadfast love, for in you I trust. Make me know the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.

Ex 14:31 Israel saw the great power that the LORD used against the Egyptians, so the people feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

God’s great power led the people to not only fear God, but believe in him and consequently put their trust/faith in him (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

Ps 31:14-15 But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, “You are my God.”¹⁵ My times are in your hand; rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from my persecutors!

The statement “You are my God” (v. 14; cf. Ps 91:2 ↓) implies that the LORD is the one David trusts in as sovereign over his life, the one who by his incomparable power held David’s present and future circumstances in his hands (v. 15a).

Ps 91:2 I will sayⁱ to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

ⁱ Septuagint He will say

The psalmist speaks of God as being an effective refuge or fortress (cf. Isa 26:4 ↓) – reflecting God’s power. He appears to point to this as a prime reason for trusting in God, in conjunction with the fact that he is “my God”.

Isa 26:4 Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock.

In the OT God is often compared to a rock, alluding to the protection and stability he gives to his people – through his power.

Ps 115:9-11 O Israel,^j trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.¹⁰ O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.¹¹ You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.

^j Masoretic Text; many Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac O house of Israel

The description of God as his people’s “help and ... shield” points to his willingness to help them and the fact that in his great power he is able to help them.

Rom 4:20-21 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but *he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God,*²¹ fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

2Cor 1:9 Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death. But that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead.

2Tim 1:12 ... which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me.^k

^k Or what I have entrusted to him; Greek my deposit

If the alternative rendering in the text note is to be preferred (cf. NASB, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV), then Paul would appear to be speaking of trusting God to guard his ministry and its fruits, along with himself – even through death. As such, the verse suggests that it was because of God’s power that Paul was convinced that God was “able to” (cf. Rom 4:20-21 ↑) guard what he had entrusted God with, against any foe or circumstance.

Ps 9:9-10 The LORD is a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. ¹⁰And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you. 📖

In v. 10 God's past deliverance is primarily in view (cf. vv. 3-6), as suggested by v. 9.

Ps 40:1-3 I waited patiently for the LORD; he inclined to me and heard my cry. ²He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. ³He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the LORD. 📖

Many would see what God had done for David, leading them to trust (and fear) in God.

Ps 106:9-12 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry, and he led them through the deep as through a desert. ¹⁰So he saved them from the hand of the foe and redeemed them from the power of the enemy. ¹¹And the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left. ¹²Then they believed his words; they sang his praise. 📖

God's miraculous deeds of salvation (vv. 9-11) are reason to believe his promises (v. 12; cf. Num 14:11b), and thus trust in him.

Ps 116:2 Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live. 📖

In saying that he will "call on" God, the psalmist indicates that he will trust God and pray only to him – particularly in times of need (cf. v. 4). The reason he gives for doing so is that God had previously responded to his pleas for help – "inclined his ear to me".

Isa 12:2 "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD¹ is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation." 📖

The second half of the verse may well allude to God's deliverance from the Egyptians, virtually quoting Exodus 15:2a which is part of a song celebrating this deliverance.

1Sam 17:37 And David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you!" 📖

Ps 18:2-3 The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. ³I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies. 📖

Because God was his deliverer, the "horn" of his salvation who had saved him from his enemies, David would take refuge in God and call on him in times of trouble – i.e. trust in God.

2Tim 4:17-18 But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. 📖

The Lord (probably Jesus Christ) had earlier delivered Paul (v. 17), giving Paul reason to continue to believe and trust that the Lord would take care of him (v. 18).

✦ Trust God because he judges justly:

1Pet 2:23 When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. 📖

b) What Faith in God Involves Doing

See also:

- Hope is vital for faith, p. 1111

This section discusses what having faith in God (and Jesus Christ) involves doing. Generally speaking, it involves believing and trusting God. More specifically, it involves believing and trusting that God will: fulfill his promises; care for us; and respond to our requests.

Note that as is the case in several other sections, some subheadings refer to "God and Jesus Christ", while others only refer to "God". The latter are not intending to imply that what is said of God is not applicable to Jesus Christ. The subheadings are merely reflective of the content of the verses that follow.

To have faith in God and Jesus Christ: believe in them and what they say; . . .

See also:

- Note: Faith involves believing in what we do not see, p. 1094

Faith involves believing in God and Jesus Christ – and what they say. The following verses clearly link and even equate belief with faith. Moreover they imply that we are to have faith and believe.

Note that a number of them speak of saving faith/belief for righteousness through Jesus Christ rather than ongoing faith/belief in God in daily living, which is more the focus of this chapter. They nevertheless serve to illustrate the link between faith and belief.

Rom 3:22a ... the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe.

Those who have "faith in Jesus Christ" are those "who believe" (cf. Gal 3:22 ↓). Note that the phrase "faith in Jesus Christ" can be understood as "believing with personal trust and confident reliance on Jesus Christ" (AMP).

Rom 4:5 And to the one who does not work but believes in^m him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, ...

^mOr but trusts; compare verse 24

Rom 4:11, 18-25 He [Abraham] received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well,  ... ¹⁸*In hope he believed* against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, "So shall your offspring be." ¹⁹*He did not weaken in faith* when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. ²²That is why his faith was "counted to him as righteousness." ²³But the words "it was counted to him" were not written for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, ²⁵who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

2Cor 4:13 Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe, and so we also speak, ...

Gal 3:22 But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

1Pet 1:20-21 He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for the sake of you ²¹*who through him are believers in God*, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

1Tim 4:12 Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity.

This illustrates that "the believers" have faith, pointing to the correlation between faith and belief.

. . . and trust in God

See also:

- Rom 4:20 ↑

Trusting in God is an integral part of having faith in God. As suggested earlier, having faith in God can be defined as believing and trusting God. For we are to believe in God and what he says, and also confidently trust in him and what he says in regard to our own lives (cf. comment on Rom 3:22a ↑). One could say having faith means that: in our minds we are to believe and in our hearts we are to trust.

Note that the following verses simply indicate that we are to trust God, rather than explicitly associating trust with faith by also mentioning the latter. However Romans 4:20 (in both of the adjacent subsections) in effect does do this, by speaking of “distrust” as being opposite to faith.

Prov 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. 📖

We should trust God wholeheartedly and not rely on our own understanding, which is quite limited.

Ps 62:8 Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Selah 📖

Ps 26:1 Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity, and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering. 📖

Ps 37:3, 5 Trust in the LORD, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness.ⁿ ... ⁵Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. 📖

ⁿ Or and feed on faithfulness, or and find safe pasture

“Commit your way to the LORD” (v. 5) means to hand your way over to him – i.e. entrust God with what you do and the direction/s your life takes.

Ps 55:23 But you, O God, will cast them down into the pit of destruction; men of blood and treachery shall not live out half their days. But I will trust in you. 📖

Heb 2:13a And again, “I will put my trust in him.” 📖

Taken from Isaiah 8:17 where the prophet asserts his trust in God amidst difficult times, this quote is usually understood to be applied here to Jesus’ trust in God in his often difficult life on earth as a human being. By trusting God, Jesus both identified with and was an example to his “brothers” (cf. vv. 11-12).

2Ki 18:5 He [Hezekiah] trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel, so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah after him, nor among those who were before him. 📖

Hezekiah’s exemplary trust in God was unparalleled amongst all the kings of Judah.

Ps 71:5-6 For you, O Lord, are my hope, my trust, O LORD, from my youth. ⁶Upon you I have leaned from before my birth; you are he who took me from my mother’s womb. My praise is continually of you. 📖

Isa 10:20 In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean on him who struck them, but will lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. 📖

This speaks of truly relying on or trusting in God.

Have faith that God will fulfill what he promises

▪ By faith we will receive the promises and salvation of the afterlife, p. 1101

Note that God’s promises include promises to take care of us and to answer prayer – the subjects of the following two subsections. Also prominent amongst them are promises regarding the afterlife.

Luke 1:45 And blessed is she who believed that there would be^o a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord. 📖

^o Or believed, for there will be

Acts 27:23-25 For this very night there stood before me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship, ²⁴and he said, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.’ ²⁵So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told. 📖

Rom 4:18-21 In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, “So shall your offspring be.” ¹⁹He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. 📖

Verse 18 begins by saying that even though there was no reason for hope, Abraham – having hope in God – believed God’s promise.

Heb 11:13, 20-22, 24-26, 39-40 These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. ... ²⁰By faith Isaac invoked future blessings on Jacob and Esau. ²¹By faith

Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bowing in worship over the head of his staff. ²²By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his bones. ¶ ... ²⁴By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. ²⁶He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. ¶ ... ³⁹And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, ⁴⁰since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. ¶

The actions of Isaac, Jacob and Joseph (vv. 20-22) expressed faith in God's promises for the future of their people. This is also true for Moses, though in addition mention is made of his faith in God's promise regarding his own reward (v. 26). In v. 39, "all these" is inclusive of a number of other men and women of faith in the OT (cf. vv. 32-34 ↓). Verses 39-40 show that here God's promises of the afterlife are ultimately in view.

2Pet 3:13-14 But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. ¹⁴Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. ¶

The two references to "waiting" (vv. 13, 14; cf. Gal 5:5 ↓) for a new heaven and earth indicate faith in God's promise of these things being fulfilled.

Gal 5:5 For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. ¶

Opinions vary as to whether "righteousness" here refers to being pronounced "not guilty" on judgment day, or to being made completely righteous – following Jesus Christ's return. Either way, God promises both of these and we are to wait by faith for such promises to be fulfilled.

Ps 106:12 Then they believed his words; they sang his praise. ¶

Here God's "words" are "promises" (GNT, NIV, NLT).

Ps 119:41-42 Let your steadfast love come to me, O LORD, your salvation according to your promise; ⁴²then shall I have an answer for him who taunts me, for I trust in your word. ¶

God's "word" (v. 42) in which the psalmist trusted, primarily refers to God's "promise" (v. 41).

Isa 7:5-9 Because Syria, with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has devised evil against you, saying, ⁶"Let us go up against Judah and terrify it, and let us conquer it^P for ourselves, and set up the son of Tabeel as king in the midst of it," ⁷thus says the Lord God: "It shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass. ⁸For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. And within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered from being a people. ⁹And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you^Q are not firm in faith, you will not be firm at all.'" ¶

^P Hebrew let us split it open

^Q The Hebrew for you is plural in verses 9, 13, 14

Verse 9 contains an exhortation to Ahaz, the king of Judah, to firmly have faith in God's promises (vv. 7-8) regarding the failure of a threatened invasion (vv. 5-6) to eventuate. Note that vv. 8a, 9a are pointing to the human leadership of the enemy, which are in stark contrast to the lordship of the sovereign God.

✦ Jesus' promise to Martha, his exhortation to believe it and its fulfillment:

John 11:23, 39-40, 43-44 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." ¶ ... ³⁹Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days." ⁴⁰Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?" ¶ ... ⁴³When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out." ⁴⁴The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go." ¶

Jesus' question to Martha in v. 40 appears to refer to his earlier promise to her in v. 23. As such it suggests that implicit in such a promise is a call to believe it and an anticipation of the glorification of God in its fulfillment. In regard to the latter, the wording of the question may well allude to Jesus' earlier statement to his disciples in v. 4 that Lazarus' condition would be "for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

Ps 143:8-9 Let me hear in the morning of your steadfast love, for in you I trust. Make me know the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul. ⁹Deliver me from my enemies, O LORD! I have fled to you for refuge!^r

^r One Hebrew manuscript, Septuagint; most Hebrew manuscripts To you I have covered

Three times here David appeals to God to take care of him, and immediately following each of these David speaks of his trust in God to do so.

Isa 50:10 Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of his servant? Let him who walks in darkness and has no light trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God.

This is most likely directed to godly people living in the darkness of difficult circumstances (cf. GNT, NCV, NLT), exhorting them to trust in and rely on God to take care of them. Alternatively, some interpret it as speaking to those living in the darkness of sin (cf. CEV).

2Chr 20:20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. And when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be established; believe his prophets, and you will succeed.”

As his people prepare to face a vast invading army, Jehoshaphat encourages them to believe or have faith (cf. NCV, NIV) in God and in his word spoken by the prophets – the latter presumably primarily referring to an earlier prophecy of deliverance (cf. vv. 14-17).

2Chr 14:11 And Asa cried to the LORD his God, “O LORD, there is none like you to help, between the mighty and the weak. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, you are our God; let not man prevail against you.”

Rom 8:28, 38-39 And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good,^s for those who are called according to his purpose.  ... ³⁸For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Faith is implicit in the expressions “we know” (v. 28; cf. Phil 1:19 ↓) and “I am sure” (v. 38; cf. 2Tim 1:12 ↓).

Phil 1:19 ... for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, ...

2Tim 1:12 ... which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me.^t

^t Or what I have entrusted to him; Greek my deposit

If the alternative rendering in the text note is to be preferred (cf. NASB, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV), then Paul would appear to be speaking of trusting God to guard his ministry and its fruits, along with himself – even through death.

2Tim 4:18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Lord had recently rescued Paul from physical danger (cf. v. 17) – in fact he had done so many times (cf. 3:11). However in light of vv. 6-8 which indicate that Paul’s death was near, it appears that here Paul is not this time referring to a physical rescue but a spiritual one – where the Lord would bring him “safely into his heavenly kingdom”.

Heb 11:23, 27, 29, 32-34 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they were not afraid of the king’s edict.  ... ²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.  ... ²⁹By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned.  ... ³²And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

Various people of God are shown here to have had faith that God would take care of them amidst the threat of things such as powerful rulers and their forces, wild beasts, fire and the sword – most of which carried the threat of imminent death.

Heb 13:6 So we can confidently say, “The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?”

Ps 5:3 O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice; in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you^u and watch.

^u Or I direct my prayer to you

Particularly in light of the alternative rendering in the text note (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV), David appears to speak of making requests of God and then watching, presumably in faith, for God to answer.

Matt 8:5-10, 13 When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, appealing to him, ⁶“Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, suffering terribly.” ⁷And he said to him, “I will come and heal him.” ⁸But the centurion replied, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁹For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. And I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my servant,^v ‘Do this,’ and he does it.” ¹⁰When Jesus heard this, he marveled and said to those who followed him, “Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel^w have I found such faith. ... ¹³And to the centurion Jesus said, “Go; let it be done for you as you have believed.” And the servant was healed at that very moment.

^w Some manuscripts not even in Israel

Matt 9:18, 25 While he was saying these things to them, behold, a ruler came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” ... ²⁵But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose.

The ruler showed astonishing faith, asking Jesus to bring his dead daughter back to life.

Matt 9:27-30a And as Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed him, crying aloud, “Have mercy on us, Son of David.” ²⁸When he entered the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.” ²⁹Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.” ³⁰And their eyes were opened.

“According to your faith” (v. 29) in effect means: “Because of your faith” (CEV, NLT; cf. NCV).

Mark 10:51-52 And Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” And the blind man said to him, “Rabbi, let me recover my sight.” ⁵²And Jesus said to him, “Go your way; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.

In saying, “...your faith has made you well,” Jesus appears to indicate that the man’s faith meant that he had made himself open to Jesus healing him. As such he was healed because of his faith (cf. CEV, NCV).

Note: Faith involves believing in what we do not see

Heb 11:1, 6 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. ... ⁶And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Verse 6 illustrates that faith involves believing in “things not seen” (v. 1), indicating that faith is needed to believe that the invisible God exists, and that he will reward those who earnestly seek him.

Heb 11:7-8, 27 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. ⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. ... ²⁷By faith he [Moses] left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.

Abraham’s faith displayed in obediently leaving his homeland “not knowing where he was going” (v. 8) shows – like Noah’s and Moses’ actions – that faith involves believing in what we do not see.

1Pet 1:7-9 ... so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ⁸Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, ⁹obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Verse 8 indicates that “your faith” (vv. 7, 9) involves believing in something – or someone – we have not seen.

John 20:29 Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

2Cor 5:7 ... for we walk by faith, not by sight.

Living by faith does not involve living by sight, but by faith or belief in what is not physically perceived or is yet to be realized (cf. vv. 1-8).

2Cor 4:18 ... as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

Faith is implicit here, in focusing on and so believing in “things that are unseen”.

✦ Likewise, our hope is in what is not seen:

Rom 8:24 For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees?

Rom 11:20-21 That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but fear. ²¹For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.

By faith we “stand fast” as part of God’s people (v. 20a). Thus we should be wary of unbelief and its consequences (vv. 20b-21).

2Cor 1:24 Not that we lord it over your faith, but we work with you for your joy, for you stand firm in your faith.

As noted earlier in this chapter, here Paul is either speaking of the Corinthians standing firm by means of their faith or firmly holding to their faith. The former meaning would make the verse pertinent to this subsection – though each alternative implies that the other is true anyway. The same quite possibly applies to the similar expressions below in 1 Peter 5:9 and Isaiah 7:9b.

Eph 6:16 In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; . . .

1Thes 5:8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation.

As with Ephesians 6:16 above, this uses battle equipment to illustrate the power of faith in providing protection against the dark forces that oppose “the day” – enabling us to stand firm.

James 1:2-3 Count it all joy, my brothers,^x when you meet trials of various kinds, ³for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness.

^x Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God’s family, the church; also verses 16, 19

Faith that perseveres through testing becomes strong and enables us to hold fast, to be faithful to God in the face of persecution or temptation.

1Pet 1:4-5 ... to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, ⁵*who by God’s power are being guarded through faith* for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

This shows that it is God's power rather than our faith that actually shields us, but for this protection we need to have faith in God and his power.

1Pet 5:8-9 Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. ⁹Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world.

Christians are to stand against Satan by faith in God.

2Chr 20:20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. And when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be established; believe his prophets, and you will succeed."

This is speaking of being "established" or being enabled to "stand firm" (GNT, NLT; cf. NCV) against enemy forces, but is also applicable to standing firm in one's Christian life, particularly against opposing forces. The same applies to Isaiah 7:9b immediately below.

Isa 7:9b If you^s are not firm in faith, you will not be firm at all.

^s The Hebrew for you is plural in verses 9, 13, 14

✦ We are strengthened by faith:

Rom 4:20-21 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

The phrase "strengthened in his faith" may mean that "His faith made him strong" (CEV; cf. AMP, GNT) – hence its use here; but as noted earlier it also could mean that "his faith grew stronger" (NLT). Note that Isaiah 30:15 similarly speaks of having strength through faith (or trust) – "in quietness and in trust shall be your strength".

Faith produces obedience to God

See also:

- Obedience accompanies belief and faith, p. 1062
- Lack of faith is associated with not obeying God, p. 1117

Rom 1:5 ... through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, ...

The phrase "the obedience of faith" (cf. 16:27) may be speaking of "the obedience that comes from faith" (NIV®), hence the verse's inclusion in this subsection. Alternatively it may be speaking of faith itself as being an act of obedience, to the gospel message.

Heb 11:7-9, 17 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. ⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise.  ... ¹⁷By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, ...

Regarding v. 7b, Noah's faith – and resultant obedience to God's command to build the ark (cf. Gen 6) – highlighted the rebellious state of those around him. He thus demonstrated that following God was not impossible, therefore showing the failure of others and consequently that they were deserving of condemnation. In contrast Noah himself was credited with righteousness, because of his faith.

Heb 11:24-31 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. ²⁶He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. ²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. ²⁸By faith he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them. ²⁹By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned. ³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days. ³¹By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies.

Although not specifically stated in every case, these actions of faith were acts of obedience in response to direct commands from God, recorded elsewhere in the Bible. The only exceptions are the earlier actions of Moses (vv. 24-27) and Rahab's (v. 31). But even these acts of faith are here implied to be ones of obedience, with Moses being spoken of as spurning sin (v. 25) and Rahab being contrasted with "those who were disobedient" (v. 31). Note that there is disagreement as to whether v. 27 is referring to Moses initially fleeing Egypt – after having killed an Egyptian – or to the Exodus.

Acts 6:7 And the word of God continued to increase, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

The final clause means that these priests began to obey or live in accordance with the teachings of “the faith”. “The faith” is the body of truths which Christians believe; believing them – or having faith – entails obedience.

2Pet 1:5 For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue,^z and virtue with knowledge, ...

^z Or excellence; twice in this verse

Our faith should lead to “moral excellence” (NASB, NLT) – indicative of obedience.

Faith produces work in service to God

See also:

- True faith involves good deeds . . ., p. 1068

A sound faith in God inspires service of him. A person with such faith will seek and be drawn into God’s will, and so they will not be idle when there is so much work to be done for God’s kingdom. Furthermore, if we look to God in faith wanting God to care for us and answer our requests, we should in turn be prepared to do what God wants.

Phil 2:17 Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.

The expression “the sacrificial offering of your faith” likely speaks of the sacrifice and service coming from their faith (cf. NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV).

1Thes 1:3 ... remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

The term “work of faith” (cf. 2Thes 1:11 ↓) suggests “work produced by faith” (NIV®; cf. AMP, GNT, NCV).

2Thes 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ...

2Cor 4:13-14 Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, “I believed, and so I spoke,” we also believe, and so we also speak, ¹⁴knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence.

Paul’s faith and belief in God – such as his confidence that God would raise him from death (v. 14) – motivated him to pursue his work of telling others the gospel.

Gal 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love.

In speaking of “faith working” this suggests that faith produces work for God – which should be done “through love”.

James 2:17-18 So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. ¹⁸But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

Rev 2:19 I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first.

The listing of faith (and love) with works and service arguably implies support for the concept that faith produces service to God.

Rom 12:3-6 For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. ⁴For as in one body we have many members,^a and the members do not all have the same function, ⁵so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. ⁶Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; ...

Commentators differ in their understanding of the phrase “measure of faith” (v. 3). One prominent view is that the context suggests that it is referring especially to our faith as applied to serving others, with v. 4 speaking of each member of the body having a “function”. As such it is possibly referring in particular to serving others with the gifts we have been given (cf. vv. 6-8), with the latter phrase “in proportion to our faith” (v. 6) probably alluding to “according to the measure of faith” (v. 3).

There are also different views regarding this latter phrase “in proportion to our faith”, as to whether “our faith” refers to the Christian faith or to faith in God. The latter arguably better fits the context. As such it appears to mean that the gift of prophesying – like all gifts – should be used according to (or to the extent of) the amount of faith one has. It can be inferred from this that faith not only produces service, but the extent to which we serve corresponds to the amount of faith we have.

‡ God's work entrusted to us is "by faith":

1Tim 1:4 ... nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculations rather than the stewardship^b from God that is by faith. ☞

^b Or good order

The "stewardship from God" may well refer to our responsibility in advancing God's kingdom and his plan of salvation. As such, given the context, the last clause may well speak of being given and/or of carrying out this responsibility by or in faith (cf. CEV, NCV, NIRV).

Matt 21:18-22 In the morning, as he was returning to the city, he became hungry. ¹⁹And seeing a fig tree by the wayside, he went to it and found nothing on it but only leaves. And he said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" And the fig tree withered at once. ²⁰When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither at once?" ²¹And Jesus answered them, "Truly, I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' it will happen. ²²*And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith.*" ☞

Belief is vital in petitioning God, particularly in regard to things that seem impossible, as Jesus figuratively points out (v. 21; Mark 1:22 ↓; Matt 17:20 ↓; 1Cor 13:2 ↓). Such a "mountain" signifies a seemingly insurmountable difficulty, presumably primarily alluding to difficulties encountered in advancing God's kingdom. (For further comment on this passage, see Believe and do not doubt that what you ask will be granted, p. 1228.)

Mark 11:22-24 And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. ²³*Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him.* ²⁴*Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received^c it, and it will be yours.*" ☞

James 1:6-8 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; ⁸he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. ☞

James 5:14-15 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵*And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.* ☞

For comment, see the comment on James 5:14-15 – under Believe and do not doubt that what you ask will be granted, p. 1228.

1Chr 5:20 And when they prevailed over them, the Hagrites and all who were with them were given into their hands, for they cried out to God in the battle, and he granted their urgent plea because they trusted in him. ☞

2Chr 14:11-12 And Asa cried to the LORD his God, "O LORD, there is none like you to help, between the mighty and the weak. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, you are our God; let not man prevail against you." ¹²*So the LORD defeated the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.* ☞

The phrase "we rely on you" may refer more to them generally trusting God rather than specifically to faith that God would answer the request for help. Nevertheless along with the act of actually making the request it at least to some degree reflects such faith.

Ps 22:5 To you they cried and were rescued; in you they trusted and were not put to shame. ☞

If we have faith nothing will be impossible

If we have faith nothing will be impossible, both in our service of God and in confronting issues in our lives. As such we are to have faith (and pray) that what we understand to be in accordance with God's will, will take place.

Matt 17:19-20 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" ²⁰He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."^d ☞

^d Some manuscripts insert verse 21: But this kind never comes out except by prayer and fasting

In v. 19 the disciples are referring to their inability to drive out a demon. In v. 20 Jesus is probably emphasizing the need for genuine or quality faith (cf. Luke 17:6 ↓) – in contrast to the concept of a large quantity of faith (cf. Luke 17:5 ↓). As noted in the previous subsection (cf. Matt 21:18-22 ↑), the “mountain” (v. 20) signifies a seemingly insurmountable difficulty.

Luke 17:5-6 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” ⁶And the Lord said, “If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.”

Mark 9:22-23 And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” ²³And Jesus said to him, “‘If you can’! All things are possible for one who believes.”

John 14:12-14 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. ¹³*Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.* ¹⁴*If you ask me^e anything in my name, I will do it.*

The amazing promise of doing even greater things than what Jesus had been doing (v. 12) – here coupled with the promises that he will do whatever we ask in his name (vv. 13-14) – would come to fruition through the power of the Holy Spirit. Commentators point to the response to Peter’s sermon at Pentecost and the expansion of the gospel way beyond Palestine as examples of the fulfillment of this promise. The promise would appear to be for all Christians.

Heb 11:29-30, 32-35a By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned. ³⁰*By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days.* ... ³²And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— ³³*who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,* ³⁴*quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.* ³⁵*Women received back their dead by resurrection.*

These are examples of seemingly impossible things being done through faith.

1Cor 13:2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

In addition to teaching that such a person is “nothing”, this may also be suggesting that the works of such a person are similarly largely ineffective.

Further points on the importance of faith in living the Christian life

Ps 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.

Faith (or trust) prompts joy and thanksgiving. It likewise prompts praise (cf. Ps 106:12 ↓). Note that “I am helped” may refer to God’s help or to David being encouraged through trusting God.

Ps 106:12 Then they believed his words; they sang his praise.

Eph 3:12 ... in whom [Jesus Christ] we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him.

Through faith in Christ we can confidently access God (cf. Heb 10:22 ↓).

Heb 10:22 ... let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

By faith we have full assurance that God consents to us drawing near to him.

1Tim 1:5 The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.

Faith is vital for love.

Rom 14:23 But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.^f

^f Some manuscripts insert here 16:25-27

Here “faith” is being used in a subjective sense. It refers to our beliefs or convictions (cf. AMP) as to what is right, or at least what is right for ourselves, before God. As such, Paul is saying that acting in a way that is opposed to our beliefs and conscience is in effect sin.

‡ Our faith is extremely valuable:

1Pet 1:7 ... so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 📖

Rom 11:20-21 That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but fear. ²¹For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. 📖

By faith we remain as part of God's people (v. 20a).

Col 1:21-23 And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, ²²*he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him,* ²³*if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation^g under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.* 📖

^g Or to every creature

Continuing "in the faith" (v. 23) involves continuing to have faith (cf. CEV, NCV, NIV, NLT). By continuing "securely established and steadfast in the faith" (NRSV, v. 23a), we remain reconciled to God (v. 22a), in our righteous standing before him (v. 22b).

Gal 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. 📖

"I now live by faith in the Son of God" is usually understood to be speaking of trusting or depending on Jesus Christ. However in line with the references earlier in the verse to Christ living in oneself and to living "in the flesh" (which "in the Son of God" could be intended to parallel), the sense may be "I live in the Son of God by faith". The beginning of the second sentence could then be rendered, "The life I live in the body, I live in the Son of God by faith." As such the verse would underline the importance of faith for remaining in a right relationship with Jesus Christ. But it should be pointed out that there appears to be little or no obvious support for this interpretation amongst modern translations.

Eph 3:16-17a ... that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷*so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith ...* 📖

Col 2:5-7 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ. ⁶*Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him,* ⁷*rooted and built up in him* and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. 📖

Paul correlates having a firm faith in Christ (v. 5; cf. v. 7) with living in him (v. 6) and being "rooted and built up in him" (v. 7).

Heb 3:14 For we have come to share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. 📖

We “have become partakers of Christ” (NASB) – “partners of Christ” (NRSV; cf. GNT) and share in all that belongs to him (cf. NLT) – if we continue holding to our confidence or faith.

Like Abraham, by faith we receive what God has promised . . .

Note that it is debatable as to whether “the promises” (v. 12) is referring primarily to blessings of this life (cf. AMP, CEV, v. 15) or of the afterlife (cf. v. 11) – as per the following subsection. Quite possibly the writer is speaking generally, inclusive of both cases.

Rom 4:16, 18 That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, ¶ ... ¹⁸In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, “So shall your offspring be.” ¶

For comment, see the comment on Rom 4:13-24 – under By faith Abraham was declared righteous and received the promise – and so will all who emulate him, p. 644.

Heb 11:11-12, 32-33 By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. ¹²Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore. ¶ ... ³²And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ... ¶

Gal 3:22 But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. ¶

The “promise” primarily refers to righteousness or justification by faith (cf. vv. 6-11) – possibly along with the associated promise of the Spirit (v. 14b) and other related concepts, notably salvation and life. All these are given to those have faith as Abraham did (cf. vv. 6-18).

John 4:49-53 The official said to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.” ⁵⁰Jesus said to him, “Go; your son will live.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went on his way. ⁵¹As he was going down, his servantsⁱ met him and told him that his son was recovering. ⁵²So he asked them the hour when he began to get better, and they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour^j the fever left him.” ⁵³The father knew that was the hour when Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” And he himself believed, and all his household. ¶

ⁱ Greek bondservants

^j That is, at 1 P.M.

Following the faith he showed initially in his request (v. 49), the official displays exemplary faith in his response to Jesus’ promise (v. 50) – faith that was well vindicated (vv. 51-53).

By faith we will receive the promises and salvation of the afterlife

Heb 10:35-39 Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. ³⁶For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. ³⁷For, “Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; ³⁸but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him.” ³⁹But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. ¶

“For you have need of endurance” (v. 36a) in the context may well have endurance in confidence/faith in view (v. 35) as much as persevering in doing God’s will (v. 36); the two are very closely associated anyway. The result of such endurance is receiving what God has promised (v. 36b; cf. v. 35, 39). In vv. 38-39 Paul further stresses the importance of continuing to live by faith, finishing by emphasizing that it is those who have faith who will “preserve their souls”.

Heb 11:39-40 And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, ⁴⁰since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. ¶

The phrases “what was promised” (v. 39b) and “something better” (v. 40a) probably refer to aspects of the consummated salvation and sanctification of the afterlife (cf.

CEV, NLT), as also referred to by the latter part of v. 40b. The people of faith in the OT did not receive such things in their lifetime or on their death, but will only do so together with us. Another possibility is that these verses have in view – or at least also encompass – all that God’s people have now from what God has accomplished through Jesus Christ.

1Pet 1:4-9 ... to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, ⁵who by God’s power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, ⁷so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ⁸Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, ⁹obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

The term “obtaining” (v. 9) suggests that their salvation – the outcome of their faith – is in the process of being realized, to be consummated on Christ’s return.

2Tim 4:7-8 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing.

Here Paul speaks of keeping the teachings of the Christian faith resulting in forthcoming reward. Similarly in 1 Timothy 6:12 Paul says, “Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called ...”

By faith our needs are met

2Chr 20:20-22 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. And when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be established; believe his prophets, and you will succeed.” ²¹And when he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to the LORD and praise him in holy attire, as they went before the army, and say, “Give thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures forever.” ²²And when they began to sing and praise, the LORD set an ambush against the men of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah, so that they were routed.

Jehoshaphat and his army were facing the daunting task of repelling a much larger invading army. As such they were in great need.

Mark 5:25-29, 34 And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, ²⁶and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. ²⁷She had heard the reports about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. ²⁸For she said, “If I touch even his garments, I will be made well.” ²⁹And immediately the flow of blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.  ... ³⁴And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

As noted earlier on 10:52 regarding the same wording, “...your faith has made you well” (v. 34; cf. Luke 17:19 ↓), Jesus appears to indicate that by faith the woman had made herself open to him healing her. As such she was healed because of her faith (cf. CEV, NCV).

Luke 17:12-19 And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers,^k who stood at a distance ¹³and lifted up their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.” ¹⁴When he saw them he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went they were cleansed. ¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; ¹⁶and he fell on his face at Jesus’ feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Then Jesus answered, “Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? ¹⁸Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹And he said to him, “Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well.”¹

¹ Or has saved you

The request (v. 13) and response (v. 14b) of the ten men demonstrated their faith – and consequently they were healed (v. 14b). The gratitude of the Samaritan appears to demonstrate a more sincere faith, reflected in Jesus’ words to him (v. 19), which in turn appear to point to a deeper, spiritual aspect of his healing.

Acts 3:16 And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus^m has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.

^mGreek him

The expression "by faith in his name" refers to faith in Jesus and his power, here in particular his power to heal.

Acts 14:8-10 Now at Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet. He was crippled from birth and had never walked. ⁹He listened to Paul speaking. And Paul, looking intently at him and *seeing that he had faith to be made well,*ⁿ ¹⁰said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he sprang up and began walking.

ⁿ Or be saved

Mark 2:3-5, 11-12 And they came, bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men. ⁴And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him, and when they had made an opening, they let down the bed on which the paralytic lay. ⁵And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."  ... ¹¹"I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home." ¹²And he rose and immediately picked up his bed and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Here it is the faith of others that is spoken of as leading to the sick person being healed.

Trusting in God leads to his deliverance and protection

See also:

- Ps 28:7

Note that the passages in the previous subsection also speak of God or Jesus Christ's deliverance. There "faith" or belief is said to have led to such deliverance, whereas here "trust" in particular is usually referred to. With trust being an aspect of faith, these two subsections are very closely related.

Ps 22:4-5 In you our fathers trusted; they trusted, and you delivered them. ⁵*To you they cried and were rescued; in you they trusted and were not put to shame.*

Jer 39:18 For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but you shall have your life as a prize of war, because you have put your trust in me, declares the LORD.

2Chr 13:14-15, 18 And when Judah looked, behold, the battle was in front of and behind them. And they cried to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets. ¹⁵Then the men of Judah raised the battle shout. And when the men of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.  ... ¹⁸Thus the men of Israel were subdued at that time, and the men of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2Chr 14:11-12 And Asa cried to the LORD his God, "O LORD, there is none like you to help, between the mighty and the weak. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, you are our God; let not man prevail against you." ¹²*So the LORD defeated the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.*

2Chr 16:8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Libyans a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the LORD, he gave them into your hand.

Dan 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants, who trusted in him, and set aside^o the king's command, and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God."

^o Aramaic and changed

Dan 6:23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

Ps 32:10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the LORD.

In saying that God's love "surrounds" those who trust him, this points to God's protection.

Ps 116:6 The LORD preserves the simple; when I was brought low, he saved me.

The "simple" appear to be those who have "childlike faith" (NLT).

Prov 29:25 The fear of man lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is safe.

Ps 37:5-6 Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. ⁶*He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday.*

Some commentators interpret “righteousness” and “justice” as being used here as qualities of God. But other translations support the ESV, indicating that they are probably qualities of the person concerned; thus v. 6 appears to be referring to the vindication of one who trusts in God (v. 5).

Ps 20:7-8 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God. ⁸They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright.

In trusting in God, Israel prevailed in battle, with God helping and strengthening them. This is applicable to God’s people prevailing in adversity, being protected and delivered through trusting in God.

Trusting in God brings joy and peace

Ps 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy, and spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may exult in you.

Taking refuge in God is indicative of trusting in him.

Ps 13:5 But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

Here the psalmist may be speaking of rejoicing at the prospect of God’s salvation (cf. Phil 1:18b-19 ↓), his rejoicing then being a direct result of trusting in God to affect his salvation. Alternatively he may be speaking of rejoicing when he experiences God’s salvation, his rejoicing then being an indirect result of trusting in God.

Ps 16:8-9 I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken. ⁹*Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being^p rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure.*

^p Hebrew my glory

David’s trust is implicit in v. 8.

Ps 21:6-7 For you make him most blessed forever;^a you make him glad with the joy of your presence. ⁷*For the king trusts in the LORD,* and through the steadfast love of the Most High he shall not be moved.

^a Or make him a source of blessing forever

Ps 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.

Ps 33:21 For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name.

Trusting in God brings release from one’s concerns and fears – with the knowledge that God has all our needs in hand. Such a realization inspires rejoicing (and peace). Note that other verses here (e.g. Rom 15:13 ↓; Isa 26:3 ↓) indicate that God actually provides joy and peace to those who trust him, rather than just speaking of trust itself leading to these things.

Ps 34:5 Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed.

Those who look to God in trust are radiant with joy.

Isa 26:3 You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you.

Rom 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

Phil 1:18b-19 Yes, and I will rejoice, ¹⁹*for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, ...*

Paul’s faith is underscored by the phrase “I know” (v. 19a).

Ps 131:2 But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child is my soul within me.

David had “calmed and quieted” his soul or inner self – reflecting his trust and hope in God (cf. v. 3). As such he was like a “weaned child”, content and no longer anxious (for its mother’s milk).

Further blessings of trusting in God

Prov 28:25 A greedy man stirs up strife, but the one who trusts in the LORD will be enriched.

Ps 52:8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever.

The green olive tree is indicative of such things as prosperity and productivity (cf. Prov 28:25 ↑; Jer 17:7-8 ↓).

Jer 17:7-8 “Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. ⁸*He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit.”*

Ps 112:7-8 He is not afraid of bad news; his heart is firm, trusting in the LORD.⁸ His heart is steady; he will not be afraid, until he looks in triumph on his adversaries. 📖

"His heart is steady" implies confidence (cf. NCV, NLT).

Ps 125:1 Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides forever. 📖

Isa 28:16 ... therefore thus says the Lord GOD, "Behold, I am the one who has laid^r as a foundation in Zion, a stone, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, of a sure foundation: 'Whoever believes will not be in haste.'" 📖

^r Dead Sea Scroll I am laying

It is debatable as to whether "cornerstone" here speaks of God himself and/or his salvation, or the Messiah; certainly Christ is the ultimate fulfillment of this verse (cf. Rom 9:33; 10:11; 1Pet 2:4-6). Those who believe or trust in this "precious cornerstone, of a sure foundation", "will not panic" (NRSV).

Isa 30:15a For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, "In returning^s and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength." 📖

e) Have Hope in God

Hope for a believer involves an assurance of their future, based on the truth of God's promises – rather than merely being an unfounded optimism.

Ps 71:14 But I will hope continually and will praise you yet more and more. 📖 Particularly in light of the second part of the verse, the implication is that the psalmist is talking of hope in God.

Ps 119:81, 114, 116, 147 My soul longs for your salvation; I hope in your word. ... ¹¹⁴You are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in your word. ... ¹¹⁶*Uphold me according to your promise, that I may live, and let me not be put to shame in my hope!* ... ¹⁴⁷I rise before dawn and cry for help; I hope in your words.

Verse 16 indicates that the psalmist had based his hope on God's promises. Likewise, the references to hoping in "your word" involve primarily having hope in the promises that God has made in his word – as is also the case in 130:5 below.

Ps 130:5 I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; ...

Acts 26:6-7 And now I stand here on trial because of *my hope in the promise made by God to our fathers,*⁷ to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jews, O king!

For comment on this promise see the comment on Acts 26:6-8 – under Set your hope on Jesus Christ's return and what will follow, p. 1107.

Rom 4:13, 18 For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ... ¹⁸*In hope he believed* against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, "So shall your offspring be."

It can be inferred from this that Abraham had hope both in the promise and because of it – a hope that led to belief (v. 18).

Titus 1:1-2 Paul, a servant^v of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, ²*in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began*^w ...

^v Or slave; Greek bondservant

^w Greek before times eternal

Believers put their hope in God's promise of eternal life.

Heb 6:17-18 So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath, ¹⁸*so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us.*

In speaking of holding to the hope set before us (v. 18b), the writer is speaking of putting our hope in what God has promised – to Abraham (cf. vv. 13-15) and Abraham's spiritual heirs. The "two unchangeable things" (v. 18a) are God's promise itself and his confirmation of it with an oath (v. 17).

Heb 10:23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.

This implies that believers put their hope in what God has promised.

2Pet 3:13-14 But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. ¹⁴Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace.

The two references to "waiting" (vv. 13, 14) for a new heaven and earth indicate hope in God's promise of these things.

‡ God's promises sustain us and give us reason to rejoice:

Ps 119:50, 162 This is my comfort in my affliction, that your promise gives me life. ... ¹⁶²*I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil.*

In v. 50, "your promise gives me life" may well refer to God's promise giving hope and reason to keep persevering, thus sustaining one's life.

Set your hope on God's timely care

Ps 33:17-19 The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue. ¹⁸Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, ¹⁹*that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.*

Ps 71:4-5 Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man. ⁵*For you, O Lord, are my hope, my trust, O LORD, from my youth.*

The implication is that the psalmist continues to hope in God for deliverance such as is spoken of in v. 4.

Ps 119:166 I hope for your salvation, O LORD, and I do your commandments.

Isa 51:5 My righteousness draws near, my salvation has gone out, and my arms will judge the peoples; the coastlands hope for me, and for my arm they wait.

The return of the exiles is the immediate context for the reference to “righteousness” and “salvation”, and it is for such saving acts that other peoples will wait in hope. Quite possibly this has ultimately in view God’s foremost saving act – the promised salvation to come through the Messiah, Jesus Christ.

Zec 9:11-12 As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit. ¹²*Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.*

The exiles were “prisoners of hope”, captivated by the hope of both deliverance (v. 11b-12a) and blessing (v. 12b). Note that the coming Messiah and his rule (cf. vv. 9-10) could also be the object of the hope spoken of here.

2Cor 1:10 He delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again.

1Tim 6:17 As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.

✦ Paul’s hope in God that he would have the courage to act so as to honor Christ:

Phil 1:20 ... as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

Presumably Paul is speaking of hope in God, that through God he would not do anything in his trying circumstances that would bring shame (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT), but would have the courage to always act in a way that would honor Christ.

We should wait in hope for Jesus Christ’s wonderful appearance – “our blessed hope”.

^y Or when it appears

The phrase “thus hopes in him” (v. 3) refers to hope in Jesus Christ’s appearance and becoming like him (v. 2).

Acts 24:14b-15 I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, ¹⁵*having a hope in God, which these men themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust.*

Acts 26:6-8 And now I stand here on trial because of my hope in the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jews, O king! ⁸Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?

The promise of God in which Paul had put his hope, presumably involved the resurrection of the dead (v. 8; cf. Acts 24:15 ) and – according to a number of commentators – the Messiah and his kingdom. This is probably also what Paul had in mind later in 28:20b with the term “the hope of Israel” – “... it is because of the hope of Israel that I am wearing this chain.”

Rom 8:23-25 And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴*For in this hope we were saved. Believers have the hope of sharing in God's glory (cf. Col 1:27 ↓). Some commentators think that the clause in question also, or alternatively, alludes to experiencing God's glorious presence.

Gal 5:5 For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. 📖

As noted earlier in this chapter, opinions vary as to whether "righteousness" here refers to being pronounced "not guilty" on judgment day, or to being made completely righteous in the afterlife. Both are things following Jesus Christ's return on which we are to set our hope.

Col 1:5 ... because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, ... 📖

"Hope" can be a verb – what believers do; or a noun – what believers hope for. In this case it is a noun – like a number of the other verses in this subsection – denoting the wonderful blessings for believers in the afterlife, for which they hope (cf. ZBC).

Col 1:27 To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 📖

1Thes 5:8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. 📖

Titus 3:7 ... so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 📖

Col 1:23 ... if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation^c under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. 📖

^c Or to every creature

The "hope of the gospel" largely refers to the promised happenings involved in and subsequent to Jesus Christ's return.

✦ Non-believers have no future hope, in contrast to all that believers have to look forward to:

1Thes 4:13-17 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. ¹⁴*For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep*. ¹⁵*For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord,*^d that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶*For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first*. ¹⁷*Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord*. 📖

Lam 3:21-23 But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: ²²*The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases;*^e his mercies never come to an end; ²³*they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness*. 📖

^e Syriac, Targum; Hebrew Because of the steadfast love of the LORD, we are not cut off

Ps 33:18-19, 22 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, ¹⁹that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine. 📖 ... ²²*Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in you*. 📖

Putting our hope in God's steadfast love (v. 18; cf. Ps 147:11 ↓; Jonah 2:8 ↓) is equivalent to putting our hope in God because of his steadfast love.

Ps 147:11 ... but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love. 📖

Ps 130:7 O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plentiful redemption. 📖

The final phrase suggests that God is willing and able to save (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV). As such it is reflective of his steadfast love.

Rom 5:5-8 ... and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. ⁶*For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly*. ⁷*For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a* good person one would dare even to die—⁸but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

As believers we can be assured that our hope will not disappoint us (v. 5; cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV) because we have been made keenly aware of the extent of God's love. For it has been manifested in us by the Holy Spirit (v. 5) and superlatively demonstrated in God sending Christ to die for us (vv. 6-8).

Jonah 2:8 Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their hope of steadfast love.

Despite the negative context, this verse indicates that God's steadfast love is something that his people can place their hope in.

Ps 146:5-6 Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God, ⁶who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, who keeps faith forever; ...

Note that along with God's faithfulness, this also points to him being the Maker of all creation as being a prime reason to put one's hope in him. As such, like some of the other verses in this subsection, it is also pertinent to the following subsection.

Heb 10:23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.

Titus 1:1-2 Paul, a servant^f of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, ²*in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began^g ...*

^f Or slave; Greek bondservant

One aspect of God's faithfulness is that he does not lie. Thus we have sound reason to hope for the eternal life that he has promised.

Note that the verses in this subsection speak both of God having brought salvation from difficulties and of God's spiritual salvation – as well as other things that God has done.

Ps 62:5-6 For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him. ⁶He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

David's hope was in God as the one who had provided him with salvation and security, and continued to do so.

Ps 65:5-7 By awesome deeds you answer us with righteousness, O God of our salvation, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas; ⁶the one who by his strength established the mountains, being girded with might; ⁷who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples, ...

Ps 78:4, 7 We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.  ...⁷*so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments; ...*

Note that in addition to his past deeds and power (vv. 4, 7), possibly God's law or commands (cf. v. 5) are also in view in v. 7 as reason to hope in God.

Jer 14:8, 22 O you hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler who turns aside to tarry for a night?  ... ²²Are there any among the false gods of the nations that can bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Are you not he, O LORD our God? We set our hope on you, for you do all these things.

2Cor 1:10 He delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again.

1Tim 4:9-10 The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. ¹⁰For to this end we toil and strive,^h because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

^h Some manuscripts and suffer reproach

As well as speaking of God as being "the Savior of all people", note that this verse refers to the fact that he is "the living God" as an additional reason to put our hope in him.

1Pet 1:3, 20-21 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,  ... ²⁰He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for the sake of you ²¹*who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.*

For comment on v. 3, see the comment on 1Pet 1:3 – under Further general points on hope, p. 1110. Regarding v. 21, two reasons as to why Peter can say that God's raising and glorifying of Jesus Christ gives believers reason to have hope (and faith) in God are that: (a) through it (and Christ's death) God has saved them; and (b) it shows God can likewise raise and glorify them.

Other godly sources of hope

Rom 5:3-4 More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ⁴*and endurance produces character, and character produces hope*, ...

A person of resolute character, forged and tested by endurance (cf. Rom 15:4 ↓) through suffering, has already experienced God's faithfulness in seeing them through thus far and so has good reason and the inclination to hope in God. Also such spiritual maturity leads to positiveness and clarity in one's perception, fertile ground for a believer's hope.

Rom 15:4 For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

2Cor 3:5-12 Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, ⁶*who has made us competentⁱ to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.* ⁷Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that the Israelites could not gaze at Moses' face because of its glory, which was being brought to an end, ⁸*will not the ministry of the Spirit have even more glory?* ⁹For if there was glory in the ministry of condemnation, the ministry of righteousness must far exceed it in glory. ¹⁰*Indeed, in this case, what once had glory has come to have no glory at all, because of the glory that surpasses it.* ¹¹For if what was being brought to an end came with glory, much more will what is permanent have glory. ¹²*Since we have such a hope*, we are very bold, ...

ⁱ Or sufficient

The new covenant, with "the ministry of the Spirit" (v. 8), has glory that surpasses that of the first covenant and the ministry associated with it (v. 10). This is particularly evident in view of the fact that it brings righteousness (v. 9) and life

(v. 6), and is everlasting (v. 11). As such it gives great hope to those who adhere to it (v. 12).

Philem 1:22 At the same time, prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that through your prayers I will be graciously given to you.

Prayer encourages hope in God.

Ps 119:43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, for my hope is in your rules.

Obeying God's "rules" gives one hope of such things as: the fulfillment of God's promises to his obedient people; and a life free of dangers typically encountered by the wicked and foolish who live contrary to God's rules.

Prov 23:17-18 Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day. ¹⁸*Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off*.

Keenly fearing God (v. 17b) – in contrast to envying the ungodly (v. 17a) – gives one reason for a sure, ongoing hope (v. 18). Finding wisdom is presented as a source of hope in a similar fashion below in 24:14.

Prov 24:14 Know that wisdom is such to your soul; if you find it, there will be a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

Further general points on hope

1Pet 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ...

The believer's hope is called a "living hope" because it is real and existing. This description also reflects the fact that it is dynamic, revitalizing and ongoing. Moreover, the teaching that God "has given us new birth into a living hope" suggests that our new spiritual life is begun in and sustained by this hope, permeated by it and lived within it.

1Cor 13:13 So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Hope – along with faith and love – will "abide", i.e. "continue forever" (NCV™, cf. NLT).

Rom 8:24-25 For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? ²⁵*But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience*.

We do not already see or have what we hope for; otherwise it would not be hope. Christian hope is anticipation of future realities.

Eph 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call—

All Christians are called to (cf. Eph 1:18 ↓) and have the same hope – basically that of salvation, with all that it entails.

Heb 6:11 And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, ...

Earnestly following and serving God until the end ensures that we can be fully assured of the soundness of our hope. Note that the salvation for which we hope is secured – not earned – by lives devoted to God.

✦ Paul's prayer that the Ephesians would know the hope to which God had called them:

Eph 1:16-18 I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, ¹⁷that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, ¹⁸*having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you*, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, ...

Quite possibly Paul has the saints' "glorious inheritance" (v. 18b) at least partly in view in speaking of "the hope" (i.e. that for which believers hope).

The hope believers have is not a groundless longing, but a confident assurance. Such hope stimulates and supports ongoing faith, which has as its focus that for which believers hope. This is also reflected in the following subsection.

Rom 4:18 In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, "So shall your offspring be."

The intended relationship here between hope and the duo of faith and knowledge is open to debate. Paul may have in view that faith and knowledge are based on the hope of eternal life (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV) – as per the theme of this subsection – or conversely that faith and knowledge lead to this hope (cf. CEV, NLT). Alternatively, with v. 1 as a whole in view, "in hope of eternal life" could even be being given as part of the reason for Paul's mission.

Heb 10:23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.

The Christian hope is what Christians confess to believe – i.e. Christian belief or faith concerns and is based on this hope.

Heb 11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

Gal 5:5 For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. 📖

As with the preceding verses, this illustrates that what we hope for – here “righteousness” in particular – is the focus of our faith.

Job 11:18 And you will feel secure, because there is hope; you will look around and take your rest in security. 📖

The Hebrew translated as: “you will feel secure”, can also be rendered as: “...you would trust” (NASB), or “...you will have confidence” (NRSV). As such this verse shows that hope generates faith.

Phil 1:20 ... as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death. 📖

This shows Paul’s faith (“my eager expectation”) and hope working together, appearing to complement each other – and as such reflects the theme of this subsection. This also seems to be the case in the following verses from 1 Peter 1:21 and Psalms 71:5-6, which further associate hope with faith. See also the comment on Romans 8:23-24a below.

1Pet 1:21 ... who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. 📖

Ps 71:5 For you, O Lord, are my hope, my trust, O LORD, from my youth. 📖

This associates hope in God (v. 5a) with trust/faith in God.

✦ Hope is critical for salvation:

Rom 8:23-24a And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴For in this hope we were saved. 📖

Paul often states the need for faith to be saved. The last statement (v. 24) does not contradict this, but underlines the close relationship between hope and faith, largely inseparable components of our salvation (cf. Col 1:22-23 ↑). Furthermore, note that “wait eagerly” (v. 23b) reflects both hope and faith.

Hope helps us remain firm

1Thes 1:3 ... remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. 📖

The phrase “steadfastness of hope” may well mean that their steadfastness came from hope (cf. NCV, NIV). As such the verse would be relevant here. Alternatively, it may be speaking of their hope itself as being steadfast (cf. CEV, GNT).

1Thes 5:8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. 📖

The “hope of salvation” – along with “faith and love” – gives protection against whatever might harm believers spiritually and/or lead them astray.

Heb 3:6 ... but Christ is faithful over God’s house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope.^m 📖

^mSome manuscripts insert firm to the end

By holding onto our hope (and confidence) we remain a part of God’s “house” or “household” (NLT), his people (cf. CEV).

Heb 6:17-20 So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath, ¹⁸so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us. ¹⁹*We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain,* ²⁰where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. 📖

Verses 19b-20 may mean that our hope extends into God’s very presence, where Jesus has entered as a “forerunner” on our behalf – giving us an assured hope that we will be able to follow. (As such our future, ultimate entry into God’s presence would appear to be in view.) Alternatively, or along with the above, the verses may mean that our hope is based on Jesus’ ministry for us in God’s presence, in his role as high priest.

✦ Hope enables us to wait patiently:

Rom 8:25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. 📖

Having now the strong hope of the wonderful blessings to come in the afterlife is a great encouragement and enables believers to wait patiently for these blessings.

Further ways hope is important for living the Christian life

Rom 5:2 Through him we have also obtained access by faith^a into this grace in which we stand, and we^o rejoice^p in hope of the glory of God.

^a Some manuscripts omit by faith

^o Or let us; also verse 3

^p Or boast; also verses 3, 11

The hope of sharing God's glory causes us to rejoice (cf. Rom 12:12 ↓; Heb 3:6 ↓).

Rom 12:12 Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.

2Cor 3:12 Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, ...

Col 1:4-5a ... since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints,⁵ because of the hope laid up for you in heaven.

This verse was used earlier in regard to hope's importance for faith. It is included again here as additionally it indicates hope is important for love. Having such a future hope spurs one on in loving others – as in other aspects of the Christian life (cf. 1Tim 4:10 ↓; 1Jn 3:2-3 ↓).

1Tim 4:10 For to this end we toil and strive,^a because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

^a Some manuscripts and suffer reproach

This shows that the Christian's hope is a key stimulus for their hard work for God.

Heb 3:6b And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope.^r

^r Some manuscripts insert firm to the end

The description of our hope as something in which we boast indicates that our hope is something in which we can: take confidence (cf. GNT, NLT); take pride (cf. NRSV) and have a "sense of triumph" (AMP); and rejoice (cf. NKJV).

1Jn 3:2-3 Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears^s we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. ³And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

^s Or when it appears

The "hope" of Jesus Christ's return and of being like him (v. 2) leads one to make or keep themselves pure (v. 3). For focusing on such a hope makes anything that it is not pleasing to Christ incompatible with one's own goals and desires. Also one would not want to do anything that would bring Christ's disapproval on his return.

✚ God watches over those who fear him and put their hope in his love:

Ps 33:18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, ...

Note: The depressing plight of a lack of hope

See also:

▪ The wicked and ungodly are bereft of hope, p. 466

The following verses illustrate the depressing plight of a lack of hope.

Job 7:6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle and come to their end without hope.

Job 17:13-15 If I hope for Sheol as my house, if I make my bed in darkness,¹⁴ if I say to the pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'My mother,' or 'My sister,'¹⁵ where then is my hope? Who will see my hope?

Job is saying that if his only hope is to go to the grave then he has no real hope.

Lam 3:18 ... so I say, "My endurance has perished; so has my hope from the LORD."

The writer is speaking not only of himself but on behalf of his people. God's judgment on Jerusalem had seemingly taken away any hope of blessings from God, stifling any prospect of endurance. Nevertheless, note that in the subsequent verses the writer could still speak of God's love and faithfulness giving him hope (cf. vv. 21-26).

Ezek 37:11 Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are indeed cut off.'

Acts 27:20 When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope of our being saved was at last abandoned.

1Thes 4:13 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope.

Unbelievers without hope can only grieve over death – both over the deaths of loved ones (primarily in view here) and their own certain deaths. Believers still grieve over the deaths of loved ones, but it is not a grief devoid of hope.

✦ The deferring of hope is sickening:

Prov 13:12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a desire fulfilled is a tree of life.

II. What Not to Do

To live a life of faith, we should ensure that we do not lack faith in God. As such we need to avoid things which hinder faith in God. Notably we should avoid doubt, fear, worry and trusting in other things. Some verses which encourage believers not to be afraid and not to worry are amongst the best-loved verses in the Bible.

a) Do Not Lack Faith

Subsections

- Do not be lacking in faith . . .
- . . . Do not doubt
- Do not test or question God
- Lack of faith is associated with not obeying God
- Lack of faith can have other detrimental effects
- Lack of faith can even bring God's punishment

Do not be lacking in faith . . .

Matt 6:28-30 And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, ²⁹yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ³⁰But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? 📖

Matt 16:8-10 But Jesus, aware of this, said, "O you of little faith, why are you discussing among yourselves the fact that you have no bread?" ⁹Do you not yet perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? ¹⁰Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? 📖

After having twice witnessed Jesus liberally feed thousands of people from just a few loaves of bread, the disciples had no reason to be concerned about having no bread for themselves. Doing so showed a marked lack of faith (cf. Mark 4:37-40 ↓; Mark 9:18-19 ↓).

Mark 4:37-40 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. ³⁸But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" ³⁹And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?" 📖

Mark 9:18-19 And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." ¹⁹*And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me."* 📖

Jesus appears to be rebuking the disciples for their lack of faith revealed in them not being able to drive out the demon.

Mark 6:1-3, 6a He went away from there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. ²And on the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things? What is the wisdom given to him? How are such mighty works done by his hands? ³*Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?*" And they took offense at him. 📖 ... ⁶*And he marveled because of their unbelief.* 📖

John 20:25-27 So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe." ²⁶Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe." 📖

Mark 16:14 Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. 📖

Rom 4:20-21 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

Abraham provides an excellent example of one who did not lack in trust/faith.

. . . Do not doubt

Matt 14:28-31 And Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” ²⁹He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. ³⁰*But when he saw the wind,*^a he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me.” ³¹Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”

^a Some manuscripts strong wind

Mark 11:23 Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him.

As noted earlier in this chapter, such a “mountain” signifies a seemingly insurmountable difficulty, presumably primarily alluding to ones encountered in advancing God’s kingdom.

James 1:6-8 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; ⁸he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

Verse 8 implies that one who doubts in essence cannot make up his mind (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT), wavering between belief of sorts (as shown in asking) and unbelief (as shown in doubting).

1Ki 18:21 And Elijah came near to all the people and said, “How long will you go limping between two different opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him.” And the people did not answer him a word.

The Israelites had displayed serious doubt or lack of faith in God, wavering between belief in God and belief in the false god Baal.

✦ A request to overcome unbelief:

Mark 9:22-24 And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” ²³And Jesus said to him, “‘If you can!’ All things are possible for one who believes.”

²⁴Immediately the father of the child cried out^b and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!”

^b Some manuscripts add with tears

Do not test or question God

See also:

- Do not complain against nor contend with God because of hard times, p. 1949

We should not doubt and question such things as God’s wisdom, his power and his commitment to us. In doing so we in a sense “put God to the test”.

Ex 17:1-2, 7 All the congregation of the people of Israel moved on from the wilderness of Sin by stages, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. ²Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, “Give us water to drink.” And Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?” ... ⁷And he called the name of the place Massah^c and Meribah,^d because of the quarreling of the people of Israel, and because they tested the LORD by saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

^c Massah means testing

^d Meribah means quarreling

By quarreling with Moses (v. 2) – God’s appointed leader – and questioning God’s commitment to them (v. 7), the Israelites were testing God, as they were in a sense challenging God – not to mention testing his patience. Note that although the Israelites tested God a number of times in the journey through the desert, this particular incident was at times singled out (cf. Deut 6:16 ↓; 9:22; 33:8; Ps 95:8-9 ↓).

Deut 6:16 You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah.

Ps 78:18-22 They tested God in their heart by demanding the food they craved. ¹⁹They spoke against God, saying, “Can God spread a table in the wilderness?” ²⁰He struck the rock so that water gushed out and streams overflowed. Can he also give bread or provide meat for his people?” ²¹Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath; a fire was kindled against Jacob; his anger rose against Israel, ²²because they did not believe in God and did not trust his saving power.

Ps 95:7b-9 Today, if you hear his voice, ⁸*do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah, as on the day at Massah in the wilderness, ⁹when your fathers put me to the test and put me to the proof, though they had seen my work.*

Despite having seen God's miraculous deeds in Egypt (v. 9b), the Israelites had often doubted God, questioning and quarrelling against him in their desert journey (cf. Ex 17:1-2, 7 ↑; Ps 78:18-22 ↑). As such, they had tested him, effectively challenging God to prove himself (v. 9).

1Cor 10:9 We must not put Christ^e to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, ...

^e Some manuscripts the Lord

The reference is to an incident recorded in Numbers 21:4-7, where the people complained against God: "And the people became impatient on the way. ⁵And the people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this worthless food." (vv. 4b-5)

Mal 2:17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. But you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them." Or by asking, "Where is the God of justice?"

Mal 3:13-14 *Your words have been hard against me, says the LORD. But you say, 'How have we spoken against you?' ¹⁴You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. What is the profit of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts?' *

Isa 45:9-12 *"Woe to him who strives with him who formed him, a pot among earthen pots! Does the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?' or 'Your work has no handles'?" ¹⁰Woe to him who says to a father, 'What are you begetting?' or to a woman, 'With what are you in labor?'" ¹¹Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and the one who formed him: "Ask me of things to come; will you command me concerning my children and the work of my hands?" ¹²I made the earth and created man on it; it was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all their host.*

^f A slight emendation yields will you question me about my children, or command me concerning the work of my hands?

As the one who formed Israel (vv. 9-11) – indeed the maker of the whole earth, mankind and the heavens (v. 12) – the Israelites had no right to question what God chose to do regarding them (cf. Rom 9:20-21 ↓). Note that "children" (v. 11) appears to refer to Israel (cf. CEV; v. 10), which may also be the case with "the work of my hands" (v. 11) – although in the light of v. 12 the latter may refer to all creation.

Rom 9:20-21 But who are you, O man, to answer back to God? Will what is molded say to its molder, "Why have you made me like this?" ²¹Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one vessel for honorable use and another for dishonorable use?

With Isaiah 45:9-11 above and Isaiah 29:16 in view, Paul similarly asserts that we have no right to question God as if he were accountable for his actions, or as if there could be any doubts as to the appropriateness of what he does. Such questioning of God is not simply seeking an explanation, but is critical of his wisdom and character.

‡ One should not presume to test God's willingness or ability to fulfill his promises:

Matt 4:6-7 ... and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, "'He will command his angels concerning you,' and "'On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.'" ⁷Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Lack of faith is associated with not obeying God

See also:

- Faith produces obedience to God, p. 1096

Lack of faith – not believing or trusting God – inevitably leads to disobedience.

Deut 9:23 And when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, 'Go up and take possession of the land that I have given you,' then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God and did not believe him or obey his voice.

2Ki 17:14-15 But they would not listen, but were stubborn, as their fathers had been, who did not believe in the LORD their God. ¹⁵They despised his statutes and his covenant that he made with their fathers and the warnings that he gave them. They went after false idols and became false, and they followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do like them.

One can infer from this that the people's lack of belief (v. 14b) led them to be stubborn (v. 14a), disobedient and unfaithful (v. 15).

Ps 106:24-25 Then they despised the pleasant land, having no faith in his promise. ²⁵They murmured in their tents, and did not obey the voice of the LORD.

Heb 3:18-19 And to whom did he swear that *they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient?*¹⁹ So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

This correlates unbelief (v. 19) with disobedience (v. 18).

✚ A sinful, unbelieving heart leads one to turn away from God:

Heb 3:12 Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God.

Lack of faith can have other detrimental effects

Isa 7:5-9 Because Syria, with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has devised evil against you, saying, “Let us go up against Judah and terrify it, and let us conquer it⁶ for ourselves, and set up the son of Tabeel as king in the midst of it,”⁷ thus says the Lord GOD: “It shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass.⁸ For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. And within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered from being a people.⁹ And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you^h are not firm in faith, you will not be firm at all.”

⁶ Hebrew let us split it open

^h The Hebrew for you is plural in verses 9, 13, 14

In v. 9b God warns Ahaz, the king of Judah, that if he did not firmly have faith in God’s promises (vv. 7-8) regarding the threatened invasion (vv. 5-6) failing to eventuate, he would “not last” (NASB; cf. AMP, CEV, NCV, NKJV).

Matt 13:57-58 And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household.”⁵⁸ And he did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

Jesus’ power was not curtailed by people’s unbelief; rather he exercised it when belief/faith was shown. These verses illustrate that lack of faith can result in forfeiting blessings from Christ’s work in our lives.

Matt 14:28-31 And Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.”²⁹ He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus.³⁰ But when he saw the wind,ⁱ he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me.”³¹ Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”

ⁱ Some manuscripts strong wind

Matt 17:19-20 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why could we not cast it [a demon] out?”²⁰ He said to them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.”^j

^j Some manuscripts insert verse 21: But this kind never comes out except by prayer and fasting

Lack of faith can even bring God’s punishment

Note that most of the following verses speak of lack of faith in terms of not believing or not trusting God.

Heb 10:38-39 ... but my righteous one *shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him.*³⁹ But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

By speaking of shrinking back, in view of v. 38a and v. 39b presumably the writer has in mind turning from living by faith, in conjunction with turning away from God. This leads to destruction.

Jude 1:5 Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved^k a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

^k Some manuscripts although you fully knew it, that the Lord who once saved

Num 14:11-12 And the LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people despise me? And how long will they not believe in me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them? ¹²I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.”

Note that later God forgave the people (cf. v. 20) – in response to Moses’ plea (cf. vv. 13-19).

Deut 1:32-36 Yet in spite of this word *you did not believe the LORD your God,*³³ who went before you in the way to seek you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night and in the cloud by day, to show you by what way you should go.³⁴ *And the LORD heard your words and was angered, and he swore,*³⁵ *Not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land that I swore to give to your fathers,*³⁶ except Caleb the son of Jephunneh. He shall see it, and to him and to his children I will give the land on which he has trodden, because he has wholly followed the LORD!

Ps 78:21-22 Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath; a fire was kindled against Jacob; his anger rose against Israel, ²²*because they did not believe in God and did not trust his saving power.*

Ps 106:24-27 Then they despised the pleasant land, having no faith in his promise. ²⁵*They murmured in their tents, and did not obey the voice of the LORD.* ²⁶*Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would make them fall in the wilderness,* ²⁷*and would make their offspring fall among the nations, scattering them among the lands.*

Not having faith in God's promises (v. 24) led to the people's disobedience (v. 25), which in turn resulted in punishment (vv. 26-27).

Isa 30:15-17 For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, "In returning¹ and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength." But you were unwilling, ¹⁶*and you said, "No! We will flee upon horses"; therefore you shall flee away; and, "We will ride upon swift steeds"; therefore your pursuers shall be swift.* ¹⁷*A thousand shall flee at the threat of one; at the threat of five you shall flee, till you are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like a signal on a hill.*

Verse 15 indicates that the people were unwilling to trust God. This led to their punishment, punishment that matched their rebellious intentions (vv. 16-17).

Num 20:12 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not believe in me, to uphold me as holy in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them."

✦ Zechariah's lack of belief resulted in him being made temporarily dumb:

Luke 1:19-20 And the angel answered him, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. ²⁰*And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time.*"

Being “dismayed” means to be at least somewhat anxious and distressed – i.e. it is akin to being troubled.

Isa 7:4 And say to him, ‘Be careful, be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint because of these two smoldering stumps of firebrands, at the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria and the son of Remaliah. 📖

Despite their “fierce anger”, Judah’s enemies would prove to be little more than “smoldering stubs of firewood” (NIV®), as the subsequent prophecy explained (cf. vv. 7-9).

Jer 51:46 Let not your heart faint, and be not fearful at the report heard in the land, when a report comes in one year and afterward a report in another year, and violence is in the land, and ruler is against ruler. 📖

Eph 3:13 So I ask you not to lose heart over what I am suffering for you, which is your glory. 📖

Paul’s sufferings were instigated by the Jews largely in response to his work in taking the gospel to the Gentiles. So he was suffering because of what he had done for them. The last clause may mean that his sufferings brought them glory, the glory resulting from being in God’s kingdom.

✦ A godly life counteracts fear:

Job 11:13-15, 18-19 [Zophar:] ‘If you prepare your heart, you will stretch out your hands toward him. ¹⁴If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, and let not injustice dwell in your tents. ¹⁵Surely then you will lift up your face without blemish; you will be secure and will not fear. 📖 ... ¹⁸*And you will feel secure, because there is hope; you will look around and take your rest in security. ¹⁹You will lie down, and none will make you afraid; many will court your favor.* 📖

Most of this was inappropriately spoken to Job in his predicament, but largely it does have merit as a generalization.

Do not be afraid – have faith in God and Jesus Christ, trusting in them

2Chr 20:17b, 20 Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed. Tomorrow go out against them, and the LORD will be with you. 📖 ... ²⁰And they rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. And when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be established; believe his prophets, and you will succeed.” 📖

Matt 8:24-26 And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. ²⁵And they went and woke him, saying, “Save us, Lord; we are perishing.” ²⁶And he said to them, “Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?" Then he rose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.

Heb 11:23, 27 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they were not afraid of the king's edict. ... ²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.

Mark 5:36b "Do not fear, only believe."

Luke 8:49-50 While he was still speaking, someone from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." ⁵⁰But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she will be well."

Acts 27:23-25 For this very night there stood before me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship, ²⁴and he said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' ²⁵*So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.*

Ps 56:3-4, 10-11 When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. ⁴In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me? ... ¹⁰In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I praise, ¹¹in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me?

John 14:1 Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God;° believe also in me.

^o Or You believe in God

Ps 112:7-8 He is not afraid of bad news; his heart is firm, trusting in the LORD. ⁸His heart is steady; he will not be afraid, until he looks in triumph on his adversaries.

As is also suggested by at least some of the above verses, this and Jeremiah 17:7-8 below clearly indicate that trusting God naturally results in having no fear.

Jer 17:7-8 "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. ⁸He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit."

Do not be afraid – be confident and bold

2Chr 32:7-8 "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or dismayed before the king of Assyria and all the horde that is with him, for there are more with us than with him. ⁸With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people took confidence from the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

Ps 27:3, 13 Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet^p I will be confident. ... ¹³I believe^q that I shall look upon the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living!

Confidence is specifically mentioned in v. 3 and clearly exemplified in v. 13.

Prov 3:25-26 Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the ruin^r of the wicked, when it comes, ²⁶for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.

Heb 13:6 So we can confidently say, "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?"

Prov 28:1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion.

Although this and the following verses do not specifically mention not being afraid, it is implicit in their references to being bold.

2Cor 3:12 Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, ...

Acts 4:13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus.

Ps 138:3 On the day I called, you answered me; my strength of soul you increased.^s

^s Hebrew you made me bold in my soul with strength

As suggested by the text note, boldness may well be in view (cf. NASB, NIV, NKJV).

‡ God does not give us a spirit of fear, but one of power:

2Tim 1:7-8 ... for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. ⁸Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, ...

God does not give us a spirit of fear or cowardice, but rather one of power – enabling us to unashamedly and fearlessly testify for Christ (v. 8).

Judg 5:21 The torrent Kishon swept them away, the ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon. March on, my soul, with might!

Deborah speaks here in the context of God’s deliverance, exemplarily urging herself to forge onwards in the face of any difficulties, with strength (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV) or courage (cf. CEV, NLT). Note that Kishon was a stream that at times became a torrent.

2Sam 2:7 Now therefore let your hands be strong, and be valiant, for Saul your lord is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.

1Ki 2:2 I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself a man, ...

Prov 24:10 If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

This is in effect an exhortation to be strong amidst trouble.

1Cor 16:13 Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong.

Ps 27:14 Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!

Ps 31:24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the LORD!

Matt 14:27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, “Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid.”

“Take heart” is akin to: “Take courage!” (NIV®; cf. GNT, NCV).

Acts 23:11 The following night the Lord stood by him and said, “Take courage, for as you have testified to the facts about me in Jerusalem, so you must testify also in Rome.”

2Cor 5:4-8 For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. ⁶*So we are always of good courage.* We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸*Yes, we are of good courage*, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

Paul’s faith in God’s purpose for him in the afterlife (vv. 4-5a) was reinforced by the presence of the Holy Spirit, effectively guaranteeing this (v. 5b). All this gave him reason to be “always of good courage” (v. 6; cf. v. 8) in his life of faith (v. 7).

Note that what “the whole armor of God” entails is expounded in the subsequent verses (cf. vv. 14-18).

2Tim 2:1 You then, my child, be strengthened by the grace that is in Christ Jesus, ...

Most likely this is speaking of believers finding their strength in God’s grace, in their union with Jesus Christ (cf. GNT).

Heb 13:9 Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them.

Look to God’s grace for strength (cf. 2Tim 2:1 ↑).

† The angel’s exhortation to be strong and his corresponding strengthening of Daniel:

Rev 2:10 Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life.

The exhortation to not be afraid coupled with the latter reference to death, points to the fact that we should not be afraid of death.

Phil 1:20 ... as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

Paul’s courage reflects fearlessness in the face of the prospect of death.

Heb 2:14-15 Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵*and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery.*

This indicates that – among other things – Jesus Christ has freed us from fear of death (cf. Jesus Christ saves people from the power of death, p. 615).

Ps 23:4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,^y I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

^y Or the valley of deep darkness

David is probably meaning here that he does not fear being killed because God will protect him from this occurring. But the verse can be applied or extended to the teaching that when death threatens, God's people should not fear even should it eventuate. Regarding the alternative rendering in the text note, "the valley of deep darkness" is applicable to any dark times.

✦ Death cannot separate us from God's love:

Rom 8:38-39 For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. 📖

God is far more powerful than our enemies

2Chr 32:7-8 "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or dismayed before the king of Assyria and all the horde that is with him, for there are more with us than with him. ⁸With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people took confidence from the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. 📖

Deut 7:17-19, 21 If you say in your heart, "These nations are greater than I. How can I dispossess them?" ¹⁸*you shall not be afraid of them but you shall remember what the LORD your God* did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt, ¹⁹the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. So will the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. 📖 ... ²¹*You shall not be in dread of them, for the LORD your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God.* 📖

Neh 4:11, 14 And our enemies said, "They will not know or see till we come among them and kill them and stop the work." 📖 ... ¹⁴And I looked and arose and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes." 📖

As above in Deuteronomy 7:21, the description of God as "great and awesome" implies that he is far more so than our enemies.

2Ki 19:6-7 Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me. ⁷Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land, and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.'" 📖

The blasphemous "words" (v. 6) were spoken in ch. 18, particularly v. 35 – 'Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their lands out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?' These words are emphatically refuted by Isaiah's prophecy (v. 7) and its fulfillment (cf. vv. 35-37) – showing that God was indeed far more powerful than the previously all-conquering king of Assyria and his forces.

Ps 56:4, 10-11 In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me? 📖 ... ¹⁰In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I praise, ¹¹*in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me?* 📖

The term "flesh" (v. 4) points to the limitations of human enemies in contrast to almighty God (cf. Isa 51:7-8, 12-13 ↓).

Isa 51:7-8, 12-13 "Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear not the reproach of man, nor be dismayed at their revilings. ⁸For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations." 📖 ... ¹²"I, I am he who comforts you; who are you that you are afraid of man who dies, of the son of man who is made like grass, ¹³and have forgotten the LORD, your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, and you fear continually all the day because of the wrath of the oppressor, when he sets himself to destroy? And where is the wrath of the oppressor?

The final question is implying either that the “wrath of the oppressor” was negligible compared to God’s power or that it had been removed.

2Ki 6:15-17 When the servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. And the servant said, “Alas, my master! What shall we do?” ¹⁶He said, “Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.” ¹⁷Then Elisha prayed and said, “O LORD, please open his eyes that he may see.” So the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

Verse 17 tells of Elisha’s servant being enabled to see the surrounding, insurmountable heavenly forces – the “horses and chariots of fire”. In conjunction with God’s supreme power over our enemies, the forces of God are far more powerful than our enemies. Thus we should not be afraid of any adversary (v. 16).

✦ Believers should take heart as Jesus Christ has overcome the world:

John 16:33 I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world.

Although the world causes Jesus Christ’s followers trouble, they should take courage because in him – the one who has overcome the world – they have peace amidst the trouble. Note that as Jesus said this in the hours prior to his death, it is quite possibly a reference to his death and subsequent resurrection – by which he triumphed over all that is evil in the world.

Note that most of the following verses make reference to associated benefits of God’s presence, which further show why God being with his people is reason not to be afraid.

Josh 1:9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

Deut 31:6-8 Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be in dread of them, for it is the LORD your God who goes with you. He will not leave you or forsake you. ⁷Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you shall go with this people into the land that the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall put them in possession of it. ⁸*It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.*”

Verse 8 shows that not only is God always with his people, he also goes ahead of them, effectively preparing their upcoming circumstances before they encounter them. Note that in v. 6 Moses is addressing all the Israelites, before addressing Joshua in particular in vv. 7-8.

Num 14:9 Only do not rebel against the LORD. And do not fear the people of the land, for they are bread for us. Their protection is removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them.

Deut 20:1-4 When you go out to war against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and an army larger than your own, you shall not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. ²And when you draw near to the battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the people ³and shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel, today you are drawing near for battle against your enemies: let not your heart faint. Do not fear or panic or be in dread of them, ⁴*for the LORD your God is he who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to give you the victory.*’

1Chr 28:20 Then David said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and courageous and do it. Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed, for the LORD God, even my God, is with you. He will not leave you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.

Zeph 3:14-17 Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem! ¹⁵The LORD has taken away the judgments against you; he has cleared away your enemies. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall never again fear evil. ¹⁶On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: “Fear not, O Zion; let not your hands grow weak. ¹⁷The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing.

Note that this passage has an eschatological context.

Hag 2:4-5 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, declares the LORD. Be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land, declares the LORD. Work, for I am with you, declares the LORD of hosts, ⁵according to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains in your midst. Fear not.

Acts 18:9-10 And the Lord said to Paul one night in a vision, “Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent, ¹⁰for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many in this city who are my people.”

I am the one who helps you, declares the LORD; your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

Heb 13:6 So we can confidently say, “The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?”

Deut 1:29-31 Then I said to you, ‘Do not be in dread or afraid of them. ³⁰The LORD your God who goes before you will himself fight for you, just as he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹and in the wilderness, where you have seen how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, all the way that you went until you came to this place.’

God would help the Israelites by fighting for them (vv. 30-31a). As well as previously fighting for them (and delivering them), God had also helped them before by carrying them through the difficult desert journey (v. 31b) which had involved additional difficulties. As such God’s past help gave credence to his promise of future decisive help, giving the Israelites good reason not to be terrified or afraid of their enemies (v. 29).

Josh 8:1 And the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear and do not be dismayed. Take all the fighting men with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, his city, and his land.

Here God promises to help his people, promising to give their enemies into their hands (cf. Josh 10:8 ; Josh 11:4-8 .

Josh 10:8 And the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands. Not a man of them shall stand before you.”

Josh 11:4-8 And they came out with all their troops, a great horde, in number like the sand that is on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots. ⁵And all these kings joined their forces and came and encamped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel. ⁶And the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will give over all of them, slain, to Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.” ⁷So Joshua and all his warriors came suddenly against them by the waters of Merom and fell upon them. ⁸And the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel, who struck them and chased them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim, and eastward as far as the Valley of Mizpeh. And they struck them until he left none remaining.

2Chr 20:15-17 And he said, “Listen, all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat: Thus says the LORD to you, ‘Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed at this great horde, for the battle is not yours but God’s. ¹⁶Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley, east of the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷You will not need to fight in this battle. Stand firm, hold your position, and see the salvation of the LORD on your behalf, O Judah and Jerusalem.’ Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed. Tomorrow go out against them, and the LORD will be with you.”

The people were not to be afraid as the battle belonged to God (v. 15b) – it depended on him (cf. GNT) and he, not them, would fight it (cf. CEV; v. 17).

✦ Recognition of God’s help when facing enemies – resulting in confidence and a call to trust him:

Isa 50:6-10 I gave my back to those who strike, and my cheeks to those who pull out the beard; I hid not my face from disgrace and spitting. ⁷But the Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame. ⁸He who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. ⁹Behold, the Lord GOD helps me; who will declare me guilty? Behold, all of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up. ¹⁰Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of his servant? Let him who walks in darkness and has no light trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God.

Each of vv. 7-9 begins with a statement acknowledging God’s help, which is then followed by resulting expressions of confidence. The phrase “in darkness” (v. 10) is most likely a reference to troubled times, but note that some interpret it to refer to spiritual darkness.

The final clause may well be an exhortation to stay calm – akin to not being afraid (v. 13a).

Zec 8:13 And as you have been a byword of cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong.

Isa 10:24-25, 27 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: “O my people, who dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrians when they strike with the rod and lift up their staff against you as the Egyptians did. ²⁵For in a very little while my fury will come to an end, and my anger will be directed to their destruction. ... ²⁷And in that day his burden will depart from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck; and the yoke will be broken because of the fat.”^c

God's promised blessings

Gen 15:1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: "Fear not, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." ☞

Abraham (then called Abram) had no reason to fear because not only would God shield him, he would also greatly reward him (cf. Gen 26:24 ↓).

Gen 26:24 And the LORD appeared to him the same night and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Fear not, for I am with you and will bless you and multiply your offspring for my servant Abraham's sake." ☞

Isa 44:2-4 Thus says the LORD who made you, who formed you from the womb and will help you: Fear not, O Jacob my servant, Jeshurun whom I have chosen. ³For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants. ⁴They shall spring up among the grass like willows by flowing streams. ☞

This has a number of applications or stages of fulfillment. Probably initially it referred to the exiles returning to the land of Israel from Babylon. Particularly with the reference to the pouring out of the Holy Spirit, it pertains to the giving of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and to believers in general. As such it portrays the new life that the Holy Spirit brings to believers. It is often understood to also look ahead to a renewed Israel for its final fulfillment. Such promises of renewal give reason not to fear.

Joel 2:22 Fear not, you beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit; the fig tree and vine give their full yield.

Although the tense is present, this may be for effect as the then near future is more likely in view (cf. v. 20; NLT). As such this verse was a promise, somewhat poetically made to the animals, readily applicable to the people.

Zec 8:14-15 For thus says the LORD of hosts: “As I purposed to bring disaster to you when your fathers provoked me to wrath, and I did not relent, says the LORD of hosts, ¹⁵so again have I purposed in these days to bring good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah; fear not.”

The giving of these promises of future blessing was to encourage the returned exiles to not be afraid but to complete the rebuilding of the temple (cf. v. 9).

Luke 12:32 Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Although they appeared vulnerable like a “little flock”, the disciples were to inherit the kingdom, with the associated authority. As this was their destiny, there was no need to be afraid of what might be encountered in the meantime.

Further reasons to not be afraid

Ps 49:5-9, 16-17 Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of those who cheat me surrounds me, ⁶those who trust in their wealth and boast of the abundance of their riches? ⁷Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life, ⁸for the ransom of their life is costly and can never suffice, ⁹that he should live on forever and never see the pit.  ... ¹⁶*Be not afraid when a man becomes rich, when the glory of his house increases. ¹⁷For when he dies he will carry nothing away; his glory will not go down after him.*

The basic thrust of these verses is that we should not fear if threatened by wicked people with wealth and resources, for in spite of their riches they will die. As such their power and wealth is short lived, counting for nothing in the long-term.

Isa 43:1-5 But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: “Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. ²*When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.* ³*For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you.* ⁴*Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you, I give men in return for you, peoples in exchange for your life.* ⁵*Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you.*

The “waters”, “rivers” and “fire” are metaphors for danger – possibly alluding to the crossings of the Red Sea and the Jordan, and the fiery furnace (cf. Dan 3). The giving of nations for their ransom (vv. 3-4) likely refers to God allowing Persia to conquer these nations in return for its good treatment of Israel. There is a number of reasons given or evident here as to why the people should not fear, including some given in the preceding subsections. Further reasons given here are: they are God’s people (v. 1b); they are precious and honored in God’s sight (v. 4a); and God loves them (v. 4a).

Isa 44:8 Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? And you are my witnesses! Is there a God besides me? There is no Rock; I know not any.

God’s proclaiming of the future gives reason not to be afraid, for it reflects the fact that God has ordained what will happen.

Joel 2:21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things!

Luke 12:6-7 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies?^a And not one of them is forgotten before God. ⁷Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Somewhat similarly Isaiah 41:10a says, “... be not dismayed, for I am your God.”

Deut 1:29, 32-35 Then I said to you, 'Do not be in dread or afraid of them. ... ³²Yet in spite of this word you did not believe the LORD your God, ³³who went before you in the way to seek you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night and in the cloud by day, to show you by what way you should go. ³⁴And the LORD heard your words and was angered, and he swore, ³⁵'Not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land that I swore to give to your fathers, ...

This implies the people continued in their fear instead of believing God (vv. 29, 32) – bringing God's anger and punishment (vv. 34-35).

Prov 29:25 The fear of man lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is safe.

The fear of people is a trap that can bring you trouble (cf. NCV, NLT).

Isa 57:11-13a Whom did you dread and fear, so that you lied, and did not remember me, did not lay it to heart? The wind will carry them off, a breath will take them away.

Fear of others led the Israelites to forget God and be unfaithful, which in turn resulted in God's punishment of them. In v. 12 "righteousness" is used with irony; they either wrongly saw themselves as righteous, or pretended to be so.

Phil 4:5b-7 The Lord is at hand; ⁶*do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.* ⁷And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

In counteracting worry, we should not overlook the role of thanksgiving (v. 6). Being thankful for what we have – particularly all we have in Christ – puts difficult circumstances into perspective. Also remembering and giving thanks for God's help in the past prompts trust in current difficulties.

Ps 55:22 Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

1Pet 5:6-7 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, ⁷*casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you.*

. . . Ask God to provide for your needs

In contrast to worrying about our physical needs, we should ask God to provide for them.

Luke 11:2-3 And he said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. ³*Give us each day our daily bread,* ¹ ...

¹ Or our bread for tomorrow

Zec 10:1 Ask rain from the LORD in the season of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes the storm clouds, and he will give them showers of rain, to everyone the vegetation in the field.

As alluded to in the latter part of the verse, such a request for rain primarily has in view the need of rain for growing crops. As such it is essentially a prayer for the provision of physical needs.

✦ Those who trust in God are not fearful or anxious:

Jer 17:7-8 “Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. ⁸He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit.”

Do not worry about the cares of this life for God will provide; focus instead on things of God

Matt 6:25-34 Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? ²⁷And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life?ⁿ ²⁸And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, ²⁹yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ³⁰But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? ³¹Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ ³²For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. ³³But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. ³⁴Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

ⁿ Or a single cubit to his stature; a cubit was about 18 inches or 45 centimeters

Verse 25b is saying that there are far more important things to life than food and clothing, so to worry about such things indicates a lack of perspective. It also could be implying that as God has given us life and a body, surely he will provide the much lesser things of food and clothing. The clause “for tomorrow will be anxious for itself” (v. 34) may mean that tomorrow “will take care of itself” (CEV) – possibly implying that perceived worries about tomorrow may well not even eventuate. Alternatively it may mean that tomorrow will bring enough worries of its own, so there is no reason to add to them by worrying about other possible troubles beforehand. The final statement has a similar thought – “Each day has enough trouble of its own.” (NCV™, NIV)

Mark 8:14-21 Now they had forgotten to bring bread, and they had only one loaf with them in the boat. ¹⁵And he cautioned them, saying, “Watch out; beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.” ¹⁶And they began discussing with one another the fact that they had no bread. ¹⁷And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, “Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? ¹⁸Having eyes do you not see, and having ears do you not hear? And do you not remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?” They said to him, “Twelve.” ²⁰“And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?” And they said to him, “Seven.” ²¹And he said to them, “Do you not yet understand?”

The disciples seemingly were too focused on or worried about the problem of not having enough bread, to understand Jesus’ warning against the contaminating disbelief and ungodliness of the Pharisees and Herod (v. 15). Jesus’ rebuke (vv. 17-21) appears to be aimed at their preoccupation with worldly matters, such as a lack of bread, despite witnessing Jesus miraculously providing food for thousands. Such a persisting, worldly focus showed that they still did not comprehend or take to heart things Jesus was showing them – such as his ability to provide for them.

Luke 10:38-42 Now as they went on their way, Jesus^p entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. ³⁹And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord’s feet and listened to his teaching. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me.” ⁴¹But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, ⁴²but one thing is necessary.^q Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her.

^p Greek he

^q Some manuscripts few things are necessary, or only one

Martha was overly concerned with providing hospitality, possibly doing more than was necessary. In contrast Mary had chosen to spend time listening to Jesus – rightly a higher priority.

Ecc 2:22-23 What has a man from all the toil and striving of heart with which he toils beneath the sun? ²³For all his days are full of sorrow, and his work is a vexation. Even in the night his heart does not rest. This also is vanity.

The phrase “striving of heart” (v. 22) and much of v. 23 point to the worry that so often accompanies people’s work. This is often the case when our work and the goals of our labor become the main focus of our lives. Spending all our days in such toil (v. 23), is a pointless existence – ultimately futile and even harmful.

Matt 13:22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful.

Being worried and preoccupied with the cares of this life can “crowd out” the place of God’s word and his kingdom in our lives, choking the effect of God’s word in our lives.

Luke 21:27, 34 And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.  ... ³⁴“But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap.

Prov 12:25 Anxiety in a man’s heart weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad.

In contrast 14:30 says, “A tranquil heart gives life to the flesh ...”

✦ Do not fret over success of the wicked for they will not last – and fretting only leads to evil:

Ps 37:1-2, 7-8 *Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers! ²For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb.  ... ⁷Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices! ⁸Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath! Ps 40:4 Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after a lie!

After saying that the one who trusts in God is blessed, the implication of the latter parts of the verse is that in contrast we should not rely on people – in particular the proud and those who follow “a lie”, likely referring to false gods (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT, NRSV).

Ps 118:8-9 It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in man. ⁹It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in princes.

Isa 10:20 In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean on him who struck them, but will lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

Israel had relied on the Assyrians who in fact ended up turning on Israel and crushing her.

2Chr 16:7-9 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, “Because you relied on the king of Syria, and did not rely on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Syria has escaped you. ⁸Were not the Ethiopians and the Libyans a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the LORD, he gave them into your hand. ⁹For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to give strong support to those whose heart is blameless toward him. You have done foolishly in this, for from now on you will have wars.”

Previously the king of Syria had been allied with Baasha, the king of Israel, who was attacking Asa. But Asa sent gold and silver to the king of Syria to get the king to make a treaty with him instead – thus demonstrating a reliance on the king of Aram. So what Hanani is meaning in v. 7 is that if Asa had have rather relied on God, God would have given over to Asa not only Israel but also her ally at that time, the king of Syria.

Ps 60:11-12 Oh, grant us help against the foe, for vain is the salvation of man! ¹²With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes.

The second clause of v. 11 is basically saying that human help is useless – in contrast to that of God (v. 12).

Ps 146:3-4 Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation. ⁴When his breath departs, he returns to the earth; on that very day his plans perish.

Isa 2:22 Stop regarding man in whose nostrils is breath, for of what account is he?

Here Isaiah calls on the people to: “Stop trusting in man” (NIV®; cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

2Ki 18:21 Behold, you are trusting now in Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

Note that these are actually the words of the Assyrian king, who also denounces Hezekiah’s trust in God (cf. v. 22); but the point he makes here about the undependability of Egypt is valid.

Isa 20:3-6 Then the LORD said, “As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and Cush,^t ⁴*so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptian captives and the Cushite exiles, both the young and the old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered, the nakedness of Egypt. ⁵Then they shall be dismayed and ashamed because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their boast. ⁶And the inhabitants of this coastland will say in that day, ‘Behold, this is what has happened to those in whom we hoped and to whom we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria! And we, how shall we escape?’” *

^t Probably Nubia

Trusting in Cush and Egypt for protection against Assyria would prove futile, even disastrous. Verses 5-6 are speaking of the coastal nations who put their hope and trust in Cush and Egypt, probably the Philistines (cf. NLT, CEV text note), but Judah may also be in view. For it is to Judah that this warning against making such alliances is primarily given.

Isa 30:1-3 “Ah, stubborn children,” declares the LORD, “who carry out a plan, but not mine, and who make an alliance,¹ but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin; ²who set out to go down to Egypt, without asking for my direction, to take refuge in the protection of Pharaoh and to seek shelter in the shadow of Egypt! ³*Therefore shall the protection of Pharaoh turn to your shame, and the shelter in the shadow of Egypt to your humiliation.*

^u Hebrew who weave a web

Jer 2:36b-37 You shall be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria. ³⁷From it too you will come away with your hands on your head, for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper by them. 📖

John 2:23-25 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he was doing. ²⁴But Jesus on his part did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people ²⁵and needed no one to bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man. 📖

Jesus did not entrust himself to these people for he knew how fickle people can be, here in particular ones who had a shallow faith based only on miracles.

Prov 25:19 Trusting in a treacherous man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips. 📖

Do not trust in yourself

Prov 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. 📖

Prov 28:26 Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered. 📖

Psa 49:13-14 This is the path of those who have foolish confidence; yet after them people approve of their boasts.^v Selah ¹⁴Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol; death shall be their shepherd, and the upright shall rule over them in the morning. Their form shall be consumed in Sheol, with no place to dwell. 📖

^v Or and of those after them who approve of their boasts

In v. 13, “those who have foolish confidence” appear to be people who foolishly “trust in themselves” (GNT, NCV, NIV). In v. 14, “the upright shall rule over them in the morning” probably refers to the triumph of the upright over those who had trusted in themselves, lying in the grave below (cf. CEV, GNT), with “the morning” alluding to the passing of the darkness of the period of their power. But note that some commentators interpret “the morning” to refer to life beyond the grave.

^w Or were unfaithful; also verses 16, 17, 26, 28

^x Or unfaithfulness; also verses 20, 22, 25, 26, 29, 33, 34, 36

^y Hebrew it

Jerusalem’s “beauty” was largely in her fame and riches. Her trust in these was manifested in making ungodly alliances with nations, which often included payment for protection and the seal of intermarriage with foreign princesses, who brought idolatry. Note that the consequences of Jerusalem’s actions are given later in Ezekiel 16, particularly in vv. 36-43.

Ezek 33:13 Though I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, yet if he trusts in his righteousness and does injustice, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered, but in his injustice that he has done he shall die. 📖

When such a righteous man esteems his own righteousness and begins trusting in it, he then becomes self-righteous – which leads to evil and the resulting punishment.

Hos 10:13-14 You have plowed iniquity; you have reaped injustice; you have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your own way and in the multitude of your warriors, ¹⁴therefore the tumult of war shall arise among your people, and all your fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle; mothers were dashed in pieces with their children. 📖

2Cor 1:8-10 For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers,^z of the affliction we experienced in Asia. For we were so utterly burdened beyond our strength that we despaired of life itself. ⁹Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death. But that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises the dead. ¹⁰He delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again. 📖

^z Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God’s family, the church

Do not trust in riches

Prov 11:28 Whoever trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf. 📖

Job 15:29-31 ... he will not be rich, and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the earth;^a ³⁰he will not depart from darkness; the flame will dry up his shoots, and by the breath of his mouth he will depart. ³¹*Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself, for emptiness will be his payment.* 📖

^a Or nor will his produce bend down to the earth

The reference to riches and wealth not enduring in v. 29, make it likely that in v. 31 trusting in “empty riches” (NLT) is in view.

Job 31:24, 28 If I have made gold my trust or called fine gold my confidence, ...²⁸this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges, for I would have been false to God above.

Ps 49:5-6, 10 Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of those who cheat me surrounds me, ⁶*those who trust in their wealth and boast of the abundance of their riches?* ... ¹⁰*For he sees that even the wise die; the fool and the stupid alike must perish and leave their wealth to others.*

In the final analysis there is no point trusting in riches – or fearing those who do – for in the end all people die and then whatever wealth they may have is useless to them.

Ps 52:5-7 But God will break you down forever; he will snatch and tear you from your tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah ⁶*The righteous shall see and fear, and shall laugh at him, saying, “See the man who would not make God his refuge, but trusted in the abundance of his riches and sought refuge in his own destruction!”*^b

^b Or in his work of destruction

Note that there are a number of interpretations of “his own destruction” (v. 7), including that given in the alternative rendering in the text note and the possibility that it also refers to riches (cf. NRSV) as that which was at the root of his destruction.

Jer 49:4-5 Why do you boast of your valleys,^c O faithless daughter, who trusted in her treasures, saying, ‘Who will come against me?’ ⁵*Behold, I will bring terror upon you, declares the Lord GOD of hosts, from all who are around you, and you shall be driven out, every man straight before him, with none to gather the fugitives.*

^c Hebrew boast of your valleys, your valley flows

1Tim 6:17 As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.

Putting one’s hope in riches is akin to trusting in them – and likewise should be avoided.

✦ It is very hard for one who trusts in riches to enter God’s kingdom:

Mark 10:24-25 And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how difficult it is^d to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵*It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.*”

^d Some manuscripts add for those who trust in riches

Note that the text note expressly refers to trusting in riches, which would appear to be in view (cf. AMP, CEV, NKJV, NLT).

Do not trust in worldly power

Isa 31:1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are very strong, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel or consult the LORD!

As reflected here, the earlier references to powerful Egypt in . . . People are not worth trusting in, also illustrate misplaced trust in worldly power. Note that such reliance on horses and chariots (cf. Ps 20:7-8 ↓) might also be in view in Deuteronomy 17:16, with the directive that any Israelite king “... must not acquire many horses for himself ...”

Ps 20:7-8 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God. ⁸*They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright.*

Ps 44:6-7 For not in my bow do I trust, nor can my sword save me. ⁷*But you have saved us from our foes and have put to shame those who hate us.*

Verse 7 implies that the psalmist trusted in God, rather than weapons (v. 6).

Ezek 33:26 You rely on the sword, you commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife; shall you then possess the land?

Hos 10:13-14 You have plowed iniquity; you have reaped injustice; you have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your own way and in the multitude of your warriors, ¹⁴therefore the tumult of war shall arise among your people, and all your fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle; mothers were dashed in pieces with their children.

Jer 5:17 They shall eat up your harvest and your food; they shall eat up your sons and your daughters; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees; your fortified cities in which you trust they shall beat down with the sword.

✦ Do not trust in your own deeds:

Jer 48:7 For, because you trusted in your works and your treasures, you also shall be taken; and Chemosh shall go into exile with his priests and his officials.

Here “works” could be referring to Moab’s materialistic “achievements” (NASB) or to its “power” (CEV, cf. GNT). As such, from this verse it can be construed that we should not trust in what we have accomplished – nor in the power (or wisdom) we have shown in achieving these accomplishments.

Do not trust in wickedness

Ps 62:10 Put no trust in extortion; set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart on them.

Isa 28:15-17 Because you have said, “We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have an agreement, when the overwhelming whip passes through it will not come to us, for we have made lies our refuge, and in falsehood we have taken shelter”; ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, I am the one who has laid^e as a foundation in Zion, a stone, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, of a sure foundation: ‘Whoever believes will not be in haste.’ ¹⁷And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plumb line; and hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overwhelm the shelter.”

^e Dead Sea Scroll I am laying

The references in v. 15 to making lies and falsehood a “refuge” and a “shelter” respectively, signify trust in them (cf. Isa 59:4 ↓; Jer 7:4, 8 ↓).

Isa 59:4 No one enters suit justly; no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies, they conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity.

This suggests a reliance on false, hollow arguments.

Isa 47:9-11 These two things shall come to you in a moment, in one day; the loss of children and widowhood shall come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and the great power of your enchantments. ¹⁰*You felt secure in your wickedness, you said, “No one sees me”;* your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray, and you said in your heart, “I am, and there is no one besides me.” ¹¹*But evil shall come upon you, which you will not know how to charm away; disaster shall fall upon you, for which you will not be able to atone; and ruin shall come upon you suddenly, of which you know nothing.*

“You felt secure in your wickedness” (v. 10a) indicates that Babylon “trusted in ... wickedness” (AMP, NIV, NKJV). Note that v. 10 shows that Babylon’s reliance on its wisdom and knowledge was also a contributing factor to its downfall.

Job 8:13-15 Such are the paths of all who forget God; the hope of the godless shall perish. ¹⁴*His confidence is severed, and his trust is a spider’s web.*^f ¹⁵*He leans against his house, but it does not stand; he lays hold of it, but it does not endure.*

^f Hebrew house

Just what the “web” (v. 14) or “house” (v. 14 text note, v. 15) represents – as the object of the godless person’s trust – is not actually stated. Whatever it may represent, the point is clear: the godless or wicked (cf. NCV) have nothing worth trusting in.

✦ God’s house is not to be trusted in as a safe-haven for wickedness:

Jer 7:4, 8-11, 14 Do not trust in these deceptive words: ‘This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.’  ... ⁸*Behold, you trust in deceptive words to no avail.* ⁹*Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, make offerings to Baal, and go after other gods that you have not known,* ¹⁰*and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, ‘We are delivered!’—only to go on doing all these abominations?* ¹¹*Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it, declares the LORD.*  ... ¹⁴*therefore I will do to the house that is called by my name, and in which you trust, and to the place that I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh.*

The temple – or access to it – was not in itself something that could be depended upon (v. 14) to render approval and safety before God (v. 10), while one committed great sin (v. 9). Deceptive words propagating this belief likewise were not to be trusted (vv. 4, 8).

Do not trust in idols

Ps 135:15-18 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands. ¹⁶*They have mouths, but do not speak; they have eyes, but do not see;* ¹⁷*they have ears, but do not* hear, nor is there any breath in their mouths. ¹⁸Those who make them become like them, so do all who trust in them! 📖

Isa 42:17 They are turned back and utterly put to shame, who trust in carved idols, who say to metal images, "You are our gods." 📖

Jer 13:24-25 I will scatter you^g like chaff driven by the wind from the desert. ²⁵This is your lot, the portion I have measured out to you, declares the LORD, because you have forgotten me and trusted in lies. 📖

^g Hebrew them

Here "lies" appears to allude to false gods (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

Jer 48:13 Then Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence. 📖

Moab would learn that putting their trust or confidence in its god Chemosh would prove as futile as the Israelites' trust in their two golden calves (alluded to here by the reference to Bethel, the location of one of the calves).

Hab 2:18 What profit is an idol when its maker has shaped it, a metal image, a teacher of lies? For its maker trusts in his own creation when he makes speechless idols! 📖

I. Loving and Fearing God

Love and fear are two emotions or attitudes that we should have towards God, and arguably they stand alone as such. The Bible states that loving God is of the utmost importance. Fearing God is also shown to be critical. Like loving God, understanding and having the fear of God that the Bible teaches helps and benefits us in many ways.

Note that both love and fear of God are closely associated with obeying him (the theme of the second half of this chapter). They are very strong, compelling emotions and provide the primary emotional stimuli for obeying God (cf. Deut 10:12-13) – supplementing intellectual stimuli arising out of such things as faith. Moreover, the Bible indicates that our love and fear of God are actually expressed primarily in obeying him.

Love God . . .

Deut 6:5 You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

Josh 23:11 Be very careful, therefore, to love the LORD your God.

Ps 18:1 I love you, O LORD, my strength.

Ps 31:23a Love the LORD, all you his saints!

Ps 116:1 I love the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my pleas for mercy.

Luke 11:42 But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.

Here "the love of God" appears to refer to love for God (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV).

Deut 13:1-3 If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder, ²and the sign or wonder that he tells you comes to pass, and if he says, 'Let us go after other gods,' which you have not known, 'and let us serve them,' ³you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams. For the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Ps 26:8 O LORD, I love the habitation of your house and the place where your glory dwells.

David loved God's temple primarily because of its correlation with God's presence.

. . . Love Jesus Christ

Eph 6:24 Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with love incorruptible.

1Pet 1:8 Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, ...

This is speaking of love for Jesus Christ.

John 8:42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me.

John 21:16 He said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep."

Luke 7:44-47 Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet. ⁴⁶You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. ⁴⁷Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little."

✦ We must love Jesus Christ even more than we love those closest to us:

Matt 10:37 Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

Love and treasure God's word

Ps 119:46-47, 72, 97, 103, 127, 140, 159, 165, 167 I will also speak of your testimonies before kings and shall not be put to shame, ⁴⁷for I find my delight in your commandments, which I love.  ... ⁷²The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.  ... ⁹⁷Oh how I love your law! It is my meditation all the day.  ... ¹⁰³How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!  ... ¹²⁷Therefore I love your commandments above gold, above fine gold.  ... ¹⁴⁰Your promise is well tried, and your servant loves it.  ... ¹⁵⁹Consider how I love your precepts! Give me life according to your steadfast love.  ... ¹⁶⁵Great peace have those who love your law; nothing can make them stumble.  ... ¹⁶⁷My soul keeps your testimonies; I love them exceedingly.

Job 23:12 I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.

Ps 119:136 My eyes shed streams of tears, because people do not keep your law.

The psalmist's pain over God's law not being obeyed evidences his love for it.

Prov 7:1-2 My son, keep my words and treasure up my commandments with you; ²keep my commandments and live; keep my teaching as the apple of your eye; ...

Keeping the teachings of God's word as "the apple of your eye", shows that one does treasure it (cf. AMP, CEV, NLT).

✦ The psalmist's great longing for God's laws:

Ps 119:20, 40, 131 My soul is consumed with longing for your rules^a at all times.  ... ⁴⁰Behold, I long for your precepts; in your righteousness give me life!  ... ¹³¹I open my mouth and pant, because I long for your commandments.

1Jn 5:3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.

1Ki 3:3 Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father, only he sacrificed and made offerings at the high places.

The "statutes of David his father" were either God's laws that David had followed or godly instructions given by David, based on God's laws.

John 14:15, 21, 23-24 "If you love me, you will keep my commandments.  ... ²¹Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him."  ... ²³Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. ²⁴Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me."

Deut 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations, ...

As with a number of the following references, this is not specifically saying that those who love God will accordingly obey him. However it does appear to imply this by associating love for God with obedience to him.

Deut 10:12-13 And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³and to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I am commanding you today for your good?

Deut 11:1, 22 You shall therefore love the LORD your God and keep his charge, his statutes, his rules, and his commandments always.  ... ²²For if you will be careful to do all this commandment that I command you to do, loving the LORD your God, walking in all his ways, and holding fast to him, ...

Deut 30:19b-20 Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live, ²⁰*loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice* and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

Jer 2:2 Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem, Thus says the LORD, “I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.”

John 14:31a ... but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father.

Just as we show love for God and Jesus Christ by obeying them, Jesus showed his love for God by obeying him.

John 15:14-15 You are my friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵*No longer do I call you servants,*^b for the servant^c does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

^c Greek bondservant; also verse 20

Being his friends, as opposed to mere servants (v. 15a), Jesus Christ’s followers obey him because they love him and want to please him rather than merely because they have to do so.

1Thes 1:3 ... remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

It is debatable as to whether “love” is referring to love for God (or Christ), or to love for other people; either is applicable. If the former is the case, this illustrates that love for God produces labor or service to God – in conjunction with obedience to him.

Ps 97:10 O you who love the LORD, hate evil! He preserves the lives of his saints; he delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

Along with obeying God, those who love him should hate evil. Likewise, as 1 John 2:15 below teaches, they should not love the world or the things in the world.

1Jn 2:15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

The phrase “love of the Father” appears to refer to – or at least encompass – “love for the Father” (AMP, NIV; cf. CEV, GNT).

✦ God’s love is perfected in those who obey him:

1Jn 2:5a ... but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected.

The phrase translated here as “the love of God” could be referring to a believer’s love for God (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT). However note that the love God has for his people may instead be in view (cf. NCV).

For comment, see the comment on 1Jn 4:20-21 – under . . . Not loving other Christians has negative implications, p. 1314.

Heb 6:10 For God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown for his name in serving the saints, as you still do.

John 21:15-17 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Feed my lambs.” ¹⁶He said to him a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Tend my sheep.” ¹⁷He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, “Do you love me?” and he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep.”

As three times Jesus follows Peter’s declaration of love for him with an instruction to take care of or feed his sheep, presumably he was implying a correlation between loving him and caring for his people. Note that in v. 15a Jesus appears to be asking Peter if he loved him more than the others did (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NlrV), although possibly he meant more than Peter loved other things (cf. CEV text note).

Loving God is of the utmost importance

Matt 22:35-40 And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. ³⁶“Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?” ³⁷And he said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. ³⁸This is the great and first commandment. ³⁹And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. ⁴⁰On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.”

Mark 12:33 And to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the strength, and to love one’s neighbor as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

Loving God is of “much more” worth and importance than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.

‡ Condemnation of loving other things rather than God:

2Tim 3:1-5 But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. ²For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, ⁴treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people.

God and Jesus Christ love those who love them

Ex 20:5-6 You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶but showing steadfast love to thousands^e of those who love me and keep my commandments.

^e Or to the thousandth generation

Note that v. 5 speaks of the dreadful ramifications of hating God, the opposite of loving him.

Neh 1:5 And I said, “O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, ...

John 14:21, 23 Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.”
 ... ²³Jesus answered him, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.”

John 16:27 ... for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.^f

‡ Those whose lives are based on love come to know Christ’s love:

Eph 3:17-19 ... so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸*may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth*, ¹⁹*and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge*, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

In 17b, “love” is probably primarily referring to love for others. However it could instead refer to or involve the love of God (cf. NLT) or Christ (cf. CEV) for us, or our love for them – the topic of this subsection. In v. 18, “the breadth and length and height and depth” is often interpreted to be speaking of Christ’s love (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV) or God’s love (cf. NLT).

Deut 30:6 And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. 📖

Here “live” would primarily have God’s provision of ongoing physical life in view, but may also imply a “fullness” of life, a life that is blessed.

Josh 23:10-11 One man of you puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD your God who fights for you, just as he promised you. ¹¹*Be very careful, therefore, to love the LORD your God.* 📖

Ps 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy, and spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may exult in you. 📖

The implication here is that God protects those who love him, leading them to exult in him.

Ps 91:14-16 “Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows my name. ¹⁵*When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him.* ¹⁶*With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.*” 📖

“I will protect him” (v. 14) and the subsequent blessings (vv. 15-16) apply to those who hold fast to God in love (v. 14a), who know God (v. 14b).

Ps 119:132 Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is your way with those who love your name. 📖

Ps 145:20 The LORD preserves all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy. 📖

In conjunction with loving those who love them, God and Jesus Christ reveal themselves to (v. 21b) and begin an intimate relationship with those who love them (v. 23b; cf. 1Cor 8:3 ↓).

1Cor 8:3 *But if anyone loves God, he is known by God.*ⁱ 📖

ⁱ Greek him

God of course knows everything about all people, but he knows his own people in a unique way in that he has a personal, intimate relationship with them – which may be what Paul has in mind here. A related interpretation is that “known by God” refers to being recognized by God as one of his own.

Rom 8:28 And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good,^j for those who are called according to his purpose. 📖

^j Some manuscripts God works all things together for good, or God works in all things for the good

Eph 6:24 Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with love incorruptible. 📖

This suggests that those who love Jesus Christ experience his and/or God’s grace.

Prov 16:6 By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. 📖

Probably “steadfast love and faithfulness” is primarily referring to – or at least inclusive of – love for and faithfulness to God (cf. CEV), in line with the subsequent reference to fear of God. In saying that they lead to atonement for sin, the writer may have in mind that they involve doing what God wants and so are associated with his forgiveness and the withdrawal of his judgment. See also the comment on Luke 7:44-50 below.

Luke 7:47-50 Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little.”⁴⁸And he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”⁴⁹Then those who were at table with him began to say among^k themselves, “Who is this, who even forgives sins?”⁵⁰And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

^k Or to

Jesus was not meaning that the woman’s love was the reason for why her sins were forgiven; it was her faith that had saved her (v. 50). Jesus is saying that her great love for him (vv. 44-46) showed or was proof that her many sins had been forgiven. Love of God and Jesus Christ is indicative of being forgiven of our sins.

Isa 56:6-7 “And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant—⁷*these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.*”

This appears to be primarily eschatological, to be consummately fulfilled in a pilgrimage to Jerusalem (perhaps a figurative one) of all peoples at the end of the age. Even so it is applicable to all people who love God being able to worship him and pray to him.

Ps 119:165 Great peace have those who love your law; nothing can make them stumble.

In conjunction with loving God, loving his commands brings great blessing.

Blessings in the afterlife from loving God

Luke 10:25-28 And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”²⁶He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?”²⁷And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.”²⁸And he said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.”

1Cor 2:9 But, as it is written, “What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him”—

This is probably referring to – or at least is applicable to – both blessings of the present life and blessings of the afterlife.

James 1:12 Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him.

The “the crown of life” is an allusion to eternal life – “life forever” (NCV™).

James 2:5 Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him?

‡ Paul’s reference to a curse on those who do not love the Lord:

1Cor 16:22 If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come!!

Here Paul appears to allude to God’s wrath and judgment. In contrast to the above blessings for those who love God and Jesus Christ, those who do not love them face God’s wrath and judgment, notably in the afterlife.

c) Fear God

Fearing God is more than just having reverence for him. A sound appreciation of God’s holiness and wrath, along with his supreme power, produces a genuine fear of incurring his displeasure. But this does not involve anxiety or terror for those who seek to please him and who understand his grace (cf. Note: God’s people should not live in fear of his punishment, p. 1149).

Clearly, fearing God moves us to obey him. It also evokes and supplements such things as worship and service, and even trust (cf. BKC). When we grasp the concepts involved and willingly do fear God, we learn to gladly do so, even treasuring verses that call on us to fear God.

Fear and be in awe of God

Josh 24:14 Now therefore fear the LORD and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness. Put away the gods that your fathers served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

2Chr 19:7 Now then, let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Be careful what you do, for there is no injustice with the LORD our God, or partiality or taking bribes.

Ps 22:23 You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him, and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!

Ps 33:8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!

Prov 23:17 Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day.

Ps 76:7a But you, you are to be feared!

Eccl 12:13 The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.^m

^mOr the duty of all mankind

Note that the final phrase can also be rendered: "this applies to every person" (NASB).

1Pet 1:17 And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, ...

1Pet 2:17 Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

Rev 19:5 And from the throne came a voice saying, "Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, small and great."

1Ki 18:12b I your servant have feared the LORD from my youth.

Neh 1:11 O Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants who delight to fear your name, and give success to your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." Now I was cupbearer to the king.

Ps 5:7 But I, through the abundance of your steadfast love, will enter your house. I will bow down toward your holy temple in the fear of you.

Ps 86:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name.

Prov 31:30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Mal 2:5 My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave them to him. It was a covenant of fear, and he feared me. He stood in awe of my name.

Lev 19:30 You shall keep my Sabbaths and revere my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

The Israelites were to have reverence for the place where God was worshiped, as it signified his presence.

✦ A promise that God would facilitate fear of him in his people:

Jer 32:39-40 I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them. ⁴⁰I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

This may be speaking primarily of God's spiritually renewing Israel in the end times. Even so it would appear to have an application in all eras – in some respects at least.

Fear God to the extent that you tremble before him . . .

Jer 5:22 Do you not fear me? declares the LORD. Do you not tremble before me? I placed the sand as the boundary for the sea, a perpetual barrier that it cannot pass; though the waves toss, they cannot prevail; though they roar, they cannot pass over it.

Phil 2:12-13 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Ps 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Initially rejoicing and trembling may seem incompatible, but a true understanding of God inspires both, even simultaneously. For example God's infinite power is something that his people can rejoice in and also tremble because of. Rejoicing that is accompanied by trembling is not at all superficial; it is deep-seated and long lasting.

Ps 119:120 My flesh trembles for fear of you, and I am afraid of your judgments.

Acts 7:30-32 Now when forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. ³¹When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight, and as he drew near to look, there came the voice of the Lord: ³²'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.' And Moses trembled and did not dare to look.

Ps 96:9 Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness; tremble before him, all the earth!

ⁿ Or in holy attire

Ps 99:1 The LORD reigns; let the peoples tremble! He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake!

God reigns with absolute sovereignty, in awesome majesty – to which the only appropriate response is to “tremble” and “quake”. Note that the last clause may figuratively be primarily referring to the earth physically quaking, i.e. to earthquakes.

Ps 114:7-8 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob, ⁸who turns the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of water.

Hos 11:10-11 They shall go after the LORD; he will roar like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west; ¹¹*they shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria,* and I will return them to their homes, declares the LORD.

Return to the future renewed Israel may be in view here.

. . . and tremble at God's word

Ezra 9:4 Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the faithlessness of the returned exiles, gathered around me while I sat appalled until the evening sacrifice.

The “words” of God in view here may well be in particular his warnings regarding unfaithfulness (cf. CEV, GNT; Ezra 10:3 ), reiterated shortly afterwards in vv. 11-12.

Ezra 10:3 Therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord^o and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the Law.

^o Or of the Lord

Some of the Jews had been guilty of intermarriage with foreign women, breaking God's law. In repentance they sent away these women and their children. This sounds terribly severe, but it illustrates the uncompromising obedience to God's law that is required by God and inspired by trembling from fear of him and his commands.

Isa 66:2, 5 All these things my hand has made, and so all these things came to be, declares the LORD. But this is the one to whom I will look: he who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at my word.  ... ⁵Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word: “Your brothers who hate you and cast you out for my name's sake have said, ‘Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy’; but it is they who shall be put to shame.

‡ Continually have regard for and stand in awe of God's words:

Ps 119:117, 161 Hold me up, that I may be safe and have regard for your statutes continually!  ... ¹⁶¹Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words.

Do not fear anyone or anything but God

If a person truly fears God, they are practically unable to fear anyone or anything else. Focussing on God's characteristics, what he has done and what he will do (cf. d) Why God Should Be Feared, p. 1149) engenders a deep fear of God that gives us a clear perspective and makes any threat seem hardly significant.

Matt 10:28 And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.^p

^p Greek Gehenna

2Ki 17:35-36 The LORD made a covenant with them and commanded them, "*You shall not fear other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them,*³⁶*but you shall fear the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm. You shall bow yourselves to him, and to him you shall sacrifice.*"

Psa 76:11 Make your vows to the LORD your God and perform them; let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared, ...

This implies that God is the only one who is to be feared.

Eccl 5:7 For when dreams increase and words grow many, there is vanity;⁹ but God is the one you must fear.

⁹ Or For when dreams and vanities increase, words also grow many

Isa 8:11-13 For the LORD spoke thus to me with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people, saying: ¹²"Do not call conspiracy all that this people calls conspiracy, and do not fear what they fear, nor be in dread. ¹³*But the LORD of hosts, him you shall honor as holy. Let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.*"

Isa 57:11-13a Whom did you dread and fear, so that you lied, and did not remember me, did not lay it to heart? Have I not held my peace, even for a long time, and you do not fear me? ¹²I will declare your righteousness and your deeds, but they will not profit you. ¹³When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you!

This condemnation of fearing other things and not fearing God, also shows what can follow such ill-conceived fear – i.e.

lying, forgetting God and not fearing him (v. 11). In turn such things lead to the manifestation of God's displeasure (vv. 12-13a).

Jer 10:5-7 Their idols^r are like scarecrows in a cucumber field, and they cannot speak; they have to be carried, for they cannot walk. Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good." ⁶There is none like you, O LORD; you are great, and your name is great in might. ⁷*Who would not fear you, O King of the nations? For this is your due; for among all the wise ones of the nations and in all their kingdoms there is none like you.*

^r Hebrew They

Jer 10:2 Thus says the LORD: "Learn not the way of the nations, nor be dismayed at the signs of the heavens because the nations are dismayed at them, ...

The "signs of the heavens" appears to refer to unusual occurrences such as eclipses and comets, although some think that astrological signs are in view (cf. NLT). God's people ought not to follow the ways of others in being afraid of such things (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT) and what they might mean.

‡ The Israelite midwives feared God, rather than do what the king of Egypt ordered:

Ex 1:17 But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live.

Further examples of people fearing God

Gen 22:11-12 But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here am I." ¹²He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

Abraham feared God to the extent that he was prepared to obey a direction from God that would have been as difficult for him to do as any other.

Gen 31:42a If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been on my side, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed.

The title "the Fear of Isaac" indicates that God was the one Isaac feared.

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job, and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil.

Neh 7:2 I gave my brother Hanani and Hananiah the governor of the castle charge over Jerusalem, for he was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many. 📖

Acts 9:31 So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was being built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it multiplied. 📖

Acts 10:1-2 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Cohort, ²a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms generously to the people, and prayed continually to God. 📖

Heb 11:7 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. 📖

⚡ The Messiah would fear God:

Isa 11:2-3 And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD. ³And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide disputes by what his ears hear, ... 📖

The Messiah would not only fear the LORD, he would delight in doing so.

Note: God's people should not live in fear of his punishment

Fear of God's punishment does lead God's people to spurn sin and to not turn away from him. But being under God's grace and knowing his love (cf. 1Jn 4:16-18 ↓), believers need not – and indeed should not – live in anxious fear of God's punishment.

Rom 8:15 For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" 📖

Paul is contrasting being a slave with being a son – having "the spirit of slavery" in contrast to having "the spirit of adoption as sons". Believers do not relate to and respond to God out of fear of punishment for wrongdoing as would slaves, but rather as loving, appreciative children who are eager to please their father.

1Jn 4:16-18 So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. ¹⁷By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. 📖

In v. 18 "love" appears to be referring to the love of God that is manifested in the Christian – the love that God has for them and they in turn show to others (v. 16), revealing themselves to be like God (v. 17b). Knowing and expressing such love drives out anxious fear of punishment from God (v. 18) – particularly as one who "abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him" (v. 16b). Knowledge of such love cannot coexist with anxious fear of God's punishment; they are incompatible, both logically and experientially. As such, "we may have confidence for the day of judgment" (v. 17).

⚡ Two types of "fear":

Ex 20:20 Moses said to the people, "Do not fear, for God has come to test you, that the fear of him may be before you, that you may not sin." 📖

This verse illustrates that the Bible speaks of two types of fear – one of anxiety and even terror, which is detrimental, and one that comes from an appreciation of all that God is, which is very beneficial.

God's surpassing greatness and sovereignty

Ps 96:4 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods.

Jer 10:6-7 There is none like you, O LORD; you are great, and your name is great in might. ⁷Who would not fear you, O King of the nations? For this is your due; for among all the wise ones of the nations and in all their kingdoms there is none like you.

Note that God's great might or power (v. 6) is shown to be a reason to fear him in this subsection and in most of the following ones.

Job 25:2 Dominion and fear are with God;^s he makes peace in his high heaven.

^s Hebrew him

God is sovereign, his dominion even encompassing "high heaven". As such he is owed fear; it belongs to him (cf. NASB, NKJV).

Job 37:22-24 Out of the north comes golden splendor; God is clothed with awesome majesty. ²³The Almighty—we cannot find him; he is great in power; justice and abundant righteousness he will not violate. ²⁴Therefore men fear him; he does not regard any who are wise in their own conceit.^t

^t Hebrew in heart

The portrayal of God in v. 22 shows his greatness – as does v. 23, particularly the references to him being the "Almighty" and "great in power". God's "justice and abundant righteousness" (v. 23) – aspects of his sovereign rule – are also given as reasons to fear God.

Ps 89:6-7 For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD? Who among the heavenly beings^u is like the LORD, ⁷a God greatly to be feared in the council of the holy ones, and awesome above all who are around him?

^u Hebrew the sons of God, or the sons of might

The heavenly beings fear God because he is incomparable (v. 6) – "more awesome than all" (v. 7).

Ps 99:1 The LORD reigns; let the peoples tremble! He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake!

Dan 6:26-27 I make a decree, that in all my royal dominion people are to tremble and fear before the God of Daniel, for he is the living God, enduring forever; his kingdom shall never be destroyed, and his dominion shall be to the end. ²⁷He delivers and rescues; he works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, he who has saved Daniel from the power of the lions.

Mal 1:14 Cursed be the cheat who has a male in his flock, and vows it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished. For I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name will be feared among the nations.

Ps 76:11-12 Make your vows to the LORD your God and perform them; let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared, ¹²*who cuts off the spirit of princes, who is to be feared by the kings of the earth.*

This highlights God's sovereignty, being sovereign even over other rulers.

† God's glory is a reason to fear God:

Ps 102:15 Nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth will fear your glory.

God's glory is also alluded to in some of the above references, notably Job 37:22.

Ps 65:8 ... so that those who dwell at the ends of the earth are in awe at your signs. You make the going out of the morning and the evening to shout for joy.

God's "signs" are the wonderful things he has done (cf. GNT) – including his "miracles" (NCV™). Fearing them is in effect fearing God as the one who performs such wonders.

Ecc1 3:14 I perceived that whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it. God has done it, so that people fear before him.

Isa 29:23 For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

A deliverance by God and/or a renewal of Israel is in view – possibly a still future renewal at the end of the age. When the people see their many children (cf. NLT) and how great God has made their nation (cf. CEV), they will stand in awe of God – which is akin to fearing him.

Jer 33:9 And this city^v shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them. They shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

^w Hebrew him

In v. 16, “they shall lay their hands on their mouths” appears to indicate “awe” (NLT) of God and “dismay” (GNT, cf. AMP). As a result of God’s wonderful acts (v. 15), the nations will understand and be ashamed (v. 16a). Realizing their relative powerlessness (v. 16a), they will be in awe and humbled (v. 16b-17a) and turn in fear to God (v. 17b).

Hab 3:2a O LORD, I have heard the report of you, and your work, O LORD, do I fear.

Ps 40:1-3 I waited patiently for the LORD; *he inclined to me and heard my cry. ²He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. ³He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Ps 33:8-9 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him! ⁹For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.

Verse 9 is referring to God’s creation of the world.

Ps 96:4-5 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods. ⁵For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

Jer 5:22 Do you not fear me? declares the LORD. Do you not tremble before me? I placed the sand as the boundary for the sea, a perpetual barrier that it cannot pass; though the waves toss, they cannot prevail; though they roar, they cannot pass over it.

Jonah 1:9 And he said to them, “I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

Ex 14:26-27, 31 Then *the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.” ²⁷So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal course when the morning appeared. Josh 4:23-24 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up for us until we passed over, ²⁴so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”^y

1Sam 12:18 So Samuel called upon the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day, and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

Jonah 1:15-16 So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶*Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.*

Jonah had indicated that the storm had been brought by God due to him running away from God (cf. vv. 8-10). Jonah had then told the men that by throwing him into the sea it would become calm (vv. 11-12). Thus when this proved true the men realized that God had power over storms and the sea – and consequently greatly feared him.

Nah 1:4-5 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry; he dries up all the rivers; Bashan and Carmel wither; the bloom of Lebanon withers. ⁵The mountains quake before him; the hills melt; the earth heaves before him, the world and all who dwell in it. 📖

Verse 5b speaks of the world and its people shuddering in fear before God, due to his power over nature (v. 4).

Jer 5:24 They do not say in their hearts, 'Let us fear the LORD our God, who gives the rain in its season, the autumn rain and the spring rain, and keeps for us the weeks appointed for the harvest.' 📖

Deut 14:22-23 You shall tithe all the yield of your seed that comes from the field year by year. ²³And before the LORD your God, in the place that he will choose, to make his name dwell there, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and flock, that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. 📖

This formal, pronounced acknowledgment of God's provision for them through his control of nature (cf. Jer 5:24 ↑), would foster fear for God in his people (v. 23b).

God's anger and judgment . . .

Deut 9:19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure that the LORD bore against you, so that he was ready to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also. 📖

Ps 90:11 Who considers the power of your anger, and your wrath according to the fear of you? 📖

Ps 76:7-9 But you, you are to be feared! Who can stand before you when once your anger is roused? ⁸From the heavens you uttered judgment; the earth feared and was still, ⁹when God arose to establish judgment, to save all the humble of the earth. Selah 📖

Amos 3:8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken; who can but prophesy? 📖

God's announcing of coming judgment (cf. vv. 2, 11-15) is here likened to a roar of a lion, rousing fear.

Luke 12:4-5 I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. ⁵But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell.^a Yes, I tell you, fear him! 📖

2Cor 5:10-11 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. ¹¹Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience.

This appears to speak of fear of Christ (v. 11a) being produced by the certainty of his judgment and repayments (v. 10).

Rev 15:4 Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.

God's "righteous acts" – here likely primarily judgments – are shown indirectly to be reason to fear God.

. . . Ominous commands to be silent before God in the face of his judgment

The following commands to be silent allude to awe and fear of God, in view of his imminent judgment.

Isa 41:1 Listen to me in silence, O coastlands; let the peoples renew their strength; let them approach, then let them speak; let us together draw near for judgment.

Hab 2:20 But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before him.

Some commentators see this as speaking of God being set to call the nations to account; hence the exhortation to be silent as they ready themselves for his judgment.

Zeph 1:7 Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is near; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice and consecrated his guests.

Zec 2:13 Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD, for he has roused himself from his holy dwelling.

Saying that God "has roused himself" implies that he will soon be "springing into action" (NLT) – which here likely involves bringing down judgment on his people's enemies.

God's holiness

God's holiness involves his separateness from and intolerance of that which is morally impure, with the latter leading to his judgment. Thus God's holiness – awesome in itself – and its grave implications give good reason to fear him.

Rev 15:4 Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.

Isa 8:13 But the LORD of hosts, him you shall honor as holy. Let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

This may well be implying that we should fear God because of his holiness, along with him being "the LORD of hosts".

Isa 29:23 For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

This appears to be speaking of the people's awe of God being inspired in part by their recognition of God's holiness in light of his work on their behalf – as well as by the work itself.

God's love and forgiveness

The verses below that speak of God's love do not actually explicitly state that God's love is a reason as to why we should fear him. But they do correlate fearing God and acknowledging or having one's hope in God's love. As such arguably they suggest that fear of God is in part stimulated by his love.

Ps 33:18-19 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, ¹⁹that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.

Ps 147:11 ... but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love.

Ps 118:4 Let those who fear the LORD say, "His steadfast love endures forever."

Ps 130:4 But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared.

Without God's forgiveness the fear of God that the Bible commands would not be possible – it being a fear which encompasses (among other things) worship, service and even longing for God. In place of it there would only be terror.

1Ki 8:38-40 ... whatever prayer, whatever plea is made by any man or by all your people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart and stretching out his hands toward this house, ³⁹then hear in heaven your dwelling place and forgive and act and render to each whose heart you know, according to all his ways (for you, you only, know the hearts of all the children of mankind), ⁴⁰that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land that you gave to our fathers.

This speaks of God's forgiveness and his just dealings with people – including his actions on behalf of those who repent – as leading them to fear him.

✦ God's confirmation of his promises to his people gives reason to fear him:

Ps 119:38 Confirm to your servant your promise, that you may be feared.

"Confirm" may here have the sense "fulfill" (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV). As such this would indicate that God's fulfillment of his wonderful promises to his people leads one to understand that he is the almighty God – inducing awe and fear.

Fearing God is closely associated with obeying him

See also:

- . . . Instead, fear God and serve him faithfully, p. 1425

Fear of God and obedience of God are often spoken of in conjunction with each other, to the point where it would appear they are inseparable in practice. A key reason for this close relationship is that fear of God, with an appreciation of his power and wrath, is a great stimulus to obeying him (and likewise is a very strong deterrent against disobeying him). This reason is alluded to or implied in at least most of the following verses.

Deut 5:29 Oh that they had such a mind as this always, to fear me and to keep all my commandments, that it might go well with them and with their descendants^c forever!

^c Or sons

Deut 6:1-2 Now this is the commandment, the statutes and the rules^d that the LORD your God commanded me to teach you, that you may do them in the land to which you are going over, to possess it, ²that you may fear the LORD your God, you and your son and your son's son, by keeping all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you, all the days of your life, and that your days may be long.

^d Or just decrees; also verse 20

Just as fearing God leads us to obey him, we also fear God by obeying him. Our fear of him is manifested in obedience to him.

Deut 8:6 So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him.

1Sam 12:14 If you will fear the LORD and serve him and obey his voice and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God, it will be well.

Ps 103:17-18 But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, ¹⁸to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.

Ps 111:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

In view of other translations, practicing the fear of God – "practice it" – can be correlated with obeying God (cf. AMP, GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT).

Eccl 12:13 The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.^e

^e Or the duty of all mankind

Isa 50:10 Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of his servant? Let him who walks in darkness and has no light trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God.

Hag 1:12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people feared the LORD.

Eph 6:5 Slaves,^f obey your earthly masters^g with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, ...

^f Or servants; Greek bondservants; similarly verse 8

^g Or your masters according to the flesh

This implies that we should obey Christ “with fear and trembling”, along with sincerity.

Gen 22:1-2, 9-12 After these things God tested Abraham and said to him, “Abraham!” And he said, “Here am I.” ²*He said, “Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you.”* ... ⁹When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built the altar there and laid the wood in order and bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. ¹⁰*Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to slaughter his son.* ¹¹But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here am I.” ¹²He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.”

Heb 11:7 By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

In “reverent fear” of God, Noah built an ark in obedience to God’s command (cf. Gen 6:14-16). Note that the phrase “in reverent fear” has been rendered: “He obeyed God” (GNT, NCV, NLT, cf. CEV) – pointing to the association here of fear and obedience.

Ps 19:9 ... the fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; the rules^h of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

^h Or just decrees

This correlates fear of God with his law (cf. NIV), using “fear” in reference to the law – as is implied by the context and indicated by a number of commentators. As such it implies that fear of God is linked with obeying God’s law.

✦ People learn to fear God through hearing his word:

Deut 31:12-13 Assemble the people, men, women, and little ones, and the sojourner within your towns, that they may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, and be careful to do all the words of this law, ¹³*and that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land that you are going over the Jordan to possess.*

As well as suggesting that fearing God leads one to obey God’s commands – as do the above verses – this also makes the converse point: learning God’s law leads one to fear God (cf. God’s word helps people learn to fear God, p. 313).

Fear of God is associated with righteous living

Fearing God compels one to avoid sin and evil

Ex 20:20 Moses said to the people, “Do not fear, for God has come to test you, that the fear of him may be before you, that you may not sin.”

Prov 16:6 By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil.

Prov 3:7 Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job, and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil.

Prov 8:13 The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate.

Neh 5:9 So I said, “The thing that you are doing is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God to prevent the taunts of the nations our enemies?”

Living in the fear of God enables us to avoid the taunts of our enemies, as it compels us to stop doing that which is not right and so give them nothing for which to condemn us.

✦ Fearing God guards against turning away from him:

Jer 32:40 I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

Fearing God and Jesus Christ ensures we deal rightly with others

In conjunction with it being a catalyst for obeying God and living righteously, fearing God leads us to deal justly and properly with others.

Ex 18:21 Moreover, look for able men from all the people, men who fear God, who are trustworthy and hate a bribe, and place such men over the people as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.

This implies that people who fear God are trustworthy. So capable people who fear God can be trusted to justly exercise authority over others.

Lev 19:14, 32 You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.  ... ³²*You shall stand up before the gray head and honor the face of an old man, and you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.*

Lev 25:17, 36, 43 You shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God, for I am the LORD your God.  ... ³⁶*Take no interest from him or profit, but fear your God, that your brother may live beside you.*  ... ⁴³*You shall not rule over him ruthlessly but shall fear your God.*

Note that vv. 36, 43 refer to fellow Israelites who had become poor and, in the latter case, had sold themselves as slaves.

2Sam 23:3-4 The God of Israel has spoken; the Rock of Israel has said to me: When one rules justly over men, ruling in the fear of God, ⁴he dawns on them like the morning light, like the sun shining forth on a cloudless morning, like rain^j that makes grass to sprout from the earth.

^j Hebrew from rain

A righteous ruler who rules over others in the fear of God brings great blessing to those subject to him.

1Ki 18:3-4 And Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly, ⁴and when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave and fed them with bread and water.)

2Chr 19:7-9 Now then, let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Be careful what you do, for there is no injustice with the LORD our God, or partiality or taking bribes. ⁸Moreover, in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed certain Levites and priests and heads of families of Israel, to give judgment for the LORD and to decide disputed cases. They had their seat at Jerusalem. ⁹*And he charged them: "Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, in faithfulness, and with your whole heart: ...*

In v. 7 Jehoshaphat urges his judges to fear the LORD so that they will be compelled to judge carefully and without any injustice. Most likely this thought is also behind his exhortation in v. 9.

Neh 5:15 The former governors who were before me laid heavy burdens on the people and took from them for their daily ration^k forty shekels^l of silver. Even their servants lorded it over the people. But I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

^k Compare Vulgate; Hebrew took from them with food and wine afterward

^l A shekel was about 2/5 ounce or 11 grams

Neh 7:2 I gave my brother Hanani and Hananiah the governor of the castle charge over Jerusalem, for he was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many.

Nehemiah put Hananiah in charge over Jerusalem because of his fear of God, which would ensure that he governed justly.

Job 31:16-23 If I have withheld anything that the poor desired, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, ¹⁷or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it ¹⁸(for from my youth the fatherless^m grew up with me as with a father, and from my mother's womb I guided the widowⁿ), ¹⁹if I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or the needy without covering, ²⁰if his body has not blessed me,^o and if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep, ²¹if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate, ²²then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken from its socket. ²³For I was in terror of calamity from God, and I could not have faced his majesty.

^o Hebrew if his loins have not blessed me

Eph 5:20-21 ... giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹*submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.*

Such “reverence for Christ” is akin to “fear of Christ” (NASB).

Col 3:22 Slaves,^p obey in everything those who are your earthly masters,^q not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.

^q Or your masters according to the flesh

Titus 2:3 Older women likewise are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers or slaves to much wine. They are to teach what is good, ...

Presumably the instruction to “be reverent in behavior” involves reverence towards God. It fosters avoidance of such things as slandering others.

Deut 25:18 ... how he attacked you on the way when you were faint and weary, and cut off your tail, those who were lagging behind you, and he did not fear God.

Ill treatment of others reflects a lack of fear of God (cf. Mal 3:5 ↓).

Mal 3:5 Then I will draw near to you for judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, against those who thrust aside the sojourner, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

This refers to the Messiah coming to judge.

✦ Fearing Jesus Christ leads us to try to persuade others to respond to him:

2Cor 5:11 Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience.

Ps 36:1 Transgression speaks to the wicked deep in his heart;^r there is no fear of God before his eyes.

^r Some Hebrew manuscripts, Syriac, Jerome (compare Septuagint); most Hebrew manuscripts in my heart

Jer 3:8 She saw that for all the adulteries of that faithless one, Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce. Yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but she too went and played the whore.

Having no fear of God, Judah was unfaithful to him.

Deut 28:58-59 If you are not careful to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name, the LORD your God, ⁵⁹then the LORD will bring on you and your offspring extraordinary afflictions, afflictions severe and lasting, and sicknesses grievous and lasting.

This gives some of the curses for not obeying God’s law – and so not fearing him (v. 58) – under the first covenant.

Ps 55:19 God will give ear and humble them, he who is enthroned from of old, Selah because they do not change and do not fear God.

Prov 1:29-31 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, ³⁰would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof, ³¹therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices.

This speaks of spurning godly wisdom along with not fearing God (vv. 29-30), and the inherent consequences (v. 31).

Ecc 8:13 But it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days like a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

Isa 5:12-13 They have lyre and harp, tambourine and flute and wine at their feasts, but they do not regard the deeds of the LORD, or see the work of his hands. ¹³*Therefore my people go into exile for lack of knowledge;^s their honored men go hungry,^t and their multitude is parched with thirst.*

^s Or without their knowledge

^t Or die of hunger

Lack of regard and respect for God’s deeds (v. 12) – essentially a lack of fear or reverence of God himself – produced a “lack of understanding” (v. 13) of God and his ways, with the consequences (v. 13).

Jer 2:19 Your evil will chastise you, and your apostasy will reprove you. Know and see that it is evil and bitter for you to forsake the LORD your God; the fear of me is not in you, declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

Jer 44:10-11 They have not humbled themselves even to this day, nor have they feared, nor walked in my law and my statutes that I set before you and before your fathers. ¹¹“Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for harm, to cut off all Judah.

Hos 10:1-3 Israel is a luxuriant vine that yields its fruit. The more his fruit increased, the more altars he built; as his country improved, he improved his pillars. ²*Their heart is false; now they must bear their guilt. The LORD^u will break down their altars and destroy their pillars.* ³*For now they will say: “We have no king, for we do not fear the LORD; and a king—what could he do for us?”*

^u Hebrew He

This seems to be foretelling the situation in Israel following the Assyrian invasion – through which God would destroy the various elements of their false and pagan worship (v. 2). Israel would be leaderless and without hope, because of their unfaithfulness, not fearing the LORD (v. 3).

God delivers and protects those who fear him

2Ki 17:39 ... but you shall fear the LORD your God, and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

Ps 33:18-19 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, ¹⁹*that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.*

Ps 34:7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.

Some think the term “angel of the LORD” may be an indirect reference to the LORD – as elsewhere it appears to be identified with him – or possibly even denotes the preincarnate Jesus Christ. It is at least speaking of an angel of some significance, with a very close association with God.

Ps 85:9 Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

Ps 145:19 He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them.

Note that particularly in view of the latter part of the verse, “desires” may primarily be speaking of “needs” (GNT, NIRV).

Ps 31:19-20 Oh, how abundant is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you and worked for those who take refuge in you, in the sight of the children of mankind! ²⁰*In the cover of your presence you hide them from the plots of men; you store them in your shelter from the strife of tongues.*

Ps 60:4 You have set up a banner for those who fear you, that they may flee to it from the bow.^v Selah

^v Or that it may be displayed because of truth

The meaning of this is not altogether clear, but a number of commentators take it to be a reference to God providing a rallying point or place of defense against enemies.

Ps 115:11 You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.

Prov 14:26 In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence, and his children will have a refuge.

Isa 8:13-14 But the LORD of hosts, him you shall honor as holy. Let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. ¹⁴*And he will become a sanctuary and a stone of offense and a rock of stumbling to both houses of Israel, a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.*

Verse 14 appears to speak of God being a sanctuary for those who fear him in contrast to the unfaithful houses of Israel (cf. AMP, CEV, NCV, NLT).

Isa 33:6 ... and he will be the stability of your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is Zion's^w treasure.

^w Hebrew his

This suggests that the fear of God brings the aforementioned blessings (cf. NIV, NLT).

Fear of God leads to life . . .

See also:

- Deut 6:24 ; Prov 22:4

The usages of “life” in this subsection appear to have in view either life as opposed to premature death (cf. Prov 14:27 ; Ecc 8:13) – even longevity (cf. Prov 10:27) – or a fullness of life. Possibly some have both in view.

Prov 19:23 The fear of the LORD leads to life, and whoever has it rests satisfied; he will not be visited by harm.

Prov 10:27 The fear of the LORD prolongs life, but the years of the wicked will be short.

Prov 14:27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death.

Mal 2:5 My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave them to him. It was a covenant of fear, and he feared me. He stood in awe of my name.

This appears to be referring to the covenant made with the priest Phinehas (cf. Num 25:10-13). Phinehas feared God and God gave him life and peace.

Ecc 8:13 But it will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days like a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

. . . along with physical and material blessings

The physical and material blessings spoken of here reflect those of the first covenant. As such, mostly they have a limited application under the second covenant.

Deut 6:24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as we are this day.

Ps 25:12a, 13 Who is the man who fears the LORD? ... ¹³*His soul shall abide in well-being, and his offspring shall inherit the land.*

The phrase “shall inherit the land” (v. 13) firstly refers to Canaan, the Promised Land. But arguably the verse has a more far-reaching application – to all believers and all the earth (cf. Matt 5:5).

Ps 34:9 Oh, fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack!

Probably a lack of material needs is in view here, although this certainly has a spiritual application.

Ps 111:5 He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

Ps 112:1-3 ^x*Praise the LORD! Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who greatly delights in his commandments! ²His offspring will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed. ³Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.*

^x This psalm is an acrostic poem, each line beginning with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet

Here “mighty” (v. 2) refers to being “successful” (NLT) or “powerful” (GNT, NCV; cf. CEV).

Ps 128:1-4 Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways! ²You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be blessed, and it shall be well with you. ³Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your children will be like olive shoots around your table. ⁴Behold, thus shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD.

Prov 22:4 The reward for humility and fear of the LORD is riches and honor and life.^a

^a Or The reward for humility is the fear of the LORD, riches and honor and life

Ex 1:21 And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families.

In fear of God, the Israelite midwives did not carry out the Egyptian king's order to kill the Hebrew baby boys – and so God blessed them accordingly.

✦ It is better to have a little with the fear of God, than great wealth with trouble:

Prov 15:16 Better is a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble with it.

Fear of God is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge

Fearing God is the beginning of wisdom as it moves one to base one's thinking and life on God and his teachings – which are the source of true, godly wisdom.

Ps 111:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

Prov 9:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.

Prov 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Prov 15:33 The fear of the LORD is instruction in wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

Prov 31:26, 30 She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. ...³⁰Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

A woman who fears the LORD (v. 30) speaks with wisdom (v. 26).

Isa 33:6 ...and he will be the stability of your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is Zion's^b treasure.

^b Hebrew his

As noted earlier, this suggests that the fear of God brings the aforementioned blessings.

Job 28:28 And he said to man, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to turn away from evil is understanding.'

Prov 2:5-6 ... then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God. ⁶*For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding; ...*

Note that the preceding verses speak of obeying godly instruction (cf. v. 1) and seeking wisdom (cf. vv. 2-4) as leading to this fear and knowledge of God (v. 5). These two verses here in turn point to the fear of God as being vital to gaining God's "wisdom, ...knowledge and understanding" (v. 6).

Mic 6:9 The voice of the LORD cries to the city— and it is sound wisdom to fear your name: "Hear of the rod and of him who appointed it!"^c

^c The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain

Ps 2:10-11 Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth. ¹¹*Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.*

This associates serving God in fear (v. 11) with being wise (v. 10).

✦ Spurning godly knowledge is linked with not fearing God:

Prov 1:29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, ...

Further present-day blessings of fearing God

Acts 10:34-35 So Peter opened his mouth and said: "Truly I understand that *God shows no partiality,*³⁵*but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.*

Ps 147:11 ... but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love.

Ps 31:19 Oh, how abundant is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you and worked for those who take refuge in you, in the sight of the children of mankind!

Ps 103:11, 13-14, 17-18 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; ... ¹³*As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.* ¹⁴*For he knows our frame;*^d he remembers that we are dust. ... ¹⁷*But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children,* ¹⁸*to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.*

^d Or knows how we are formed

Luke 1:50 And his mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

Ps 25:12, 14 Who is the man who fears the LORD? Him will he instruct in the way that he should choose. ... ¹⁴*The friendship^e of the LORD is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them his covenant.*

^e Or The secret counsel

The second half of v. 14 appears to say that God tells such a person about his covenant with his people. But the thrust of it may well be either that God: "affirms his covenant with them" (GNT); makes a covenant with them (cf. CEV); or draws them into his covenant with his people.

Ps 61:5 For you, O God, have heard my vows; you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

Commentators differ as to what “heritage” may refer. Quite possibly it refers primarily to the covenant blessings. It can also be applied to all that God promises to his people.

Ps 145:19 He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them.

Jer 32:39-40 I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them. ⁴⁰I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

As noted earlier, this speaks primarily of Israel in the end times, with God spiritual renewing Israel and greatly blessing it.

Prov 28:14 Blessed is the one who fears the LORD always, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

Ps 115:13 ... he will bless those who fear the LORD, both the small and the great.

Eccl 7:16-18 Be not overly righteous, and do not make yourself too wise. Why should you destroy yourself? ¹⁷Be not overly wicked, neither be a fool. Why should you die before your time? ¹⁸It is good that you should take hold of this, and from that withhold not your hand, for the one who fears God shall come out from both of them.

The phrase “overly righteous” (v. 16) is usually understood to denote legalism or self-righteousness. The phrase “too wise” (v. 16) may be referring to considering oneself wise, or a preoccupation with wisdom itself with an over reliance on it rather than on God. Presumably the exhortation to “not be overly wicked” (v. 17) is not implying that it is alright to be somewhat wicked; more likely it means that we should not capitulate to sin. The one who fears God will avoid all such extremes (v. 18).

Future blessings for those who fear God

See also:

- Ps 103:17 ; Luke 1:50

Prov 23:17-18 Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day. ¹⁸*Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off.*

Such “a future” and “hope” would involve experiencing God’s goodness.

Eccl 8:12 Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and prolongs his life, yet I know that it will be well with those who fear God, because they fear before him.

Mal 3:16-17 Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD paid attention and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and esteemed his name. ¹⁷*“They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, in the day when I make up my treasured possession, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him.*

This has the day of God’s final judgment in view (cf. Mal 4:2-3 ; Rev 1:18).

Mal 4:2-3 But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall. ³*And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.*

The setting is the day of the Lord – “the day when I do these things” (v. 3; cf. v. 1). As such it is applicable to the day of Jesus Christ’s return and/or God’s final judgment. In v. 2a righteousness is likened to the sun, bringing “healing like the sun’s rays” (GNT, cf. CEV, NCV). The thought is that those who fear God will experience the manifestation of his righteousness (cf. Ps 103:17), bringing restoration.

Rev 11:18 The nations raged, but your wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants,^f the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth.

^f Greek bondservants

The day of God’s final judgment is in view, when his people who fear him will be rewarded.

Heb 4:1 Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it.

This speaks of the fear of God as being vital to securing entry into God’s eternal rest.

† One who fears the LORD can laugh at the days to come:

Prov 31:25 Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come.

This speaks of “an excellent wife” (v. 10), “who fears the LORD” (v. 30).

II. Obeying God

- a) The Need to Obey God, p. 1062

The concept of obeying God permeates the whole Bible – the New Testament as well as the Old Testament. It is fundamental to a functional and healthy relationship with God. A related concept is that of following Jesus Christ, which likewise is relevant to all aspects of the Christian's life.

Note the section cross-referenced above, which has been placed in 21. Being Right with God, in the second half of the chapter which is entitled Staying Right with God. It is obviously also very pertinent to this topic, Obeying God.

1Jn 3:21-22 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; ²²and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.

Ps 119:57, 59, 101 The LORD is my portion; I promise to keep your words.  ... ⁵⁹*When I think on my ways, I turn my feet to your testimonies;*  ... ¹⁰¹*I hold back my feet from every evil way, in order to keep your word.*

In v. 59, "testimonies" (cf. vv. 129, 167-168 ↓) denotes God's written laws.

2Sam 22:22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not wickedly departed from my God.

To keep "the ways of the LORD" is to live the way God wants one to (cf. Nlrv) – essentially to obey God's commands.

Num 9:23 At the command of the LORD they camped, and at the command of the LORD they set out. They kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by Moses.

1Ki 12:24 "Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up or fight against your relatives the people of Israel. Every man return to his home, for this thing is from me." So they listened to the word of the LORD and went home again, according to the word of the LORD.

↳ Reasons to keep God's commands:

Ps 119:129, 167-168 Your testimonies are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them.  ... ¹⁶⁷*My soul keeps your testimonies; I love them exceedingly.* ¹⁶⁸*I keep your precepts and testimonies, for all my ways are before you.*

The psalmist kept God's commands because: they are wonderful (v. 129); he loved them (v. 167); and he knew that God was aware of all he did (v. 168).

Do all that God commands

Note that most of the following verses speak of obeying all of the Mosaic Law, which was what God's covenant with Israel was based on. Under the new covenant instituted by Jesus Christ, believers are still to obey all the law's commands that remain pertinent under the new covenant. These commands are basically those pertaining to believers' spiritual relationship with God and their relationships with other people. The elements of the law that have been annulled by what Jesus Christ has accomplished and the new covenant include commands governing: the role of the priests; ritual worship; sacrifices for sin; and ceremonial cleanness.

Ex 24:3, 7 Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the rules.^c And all the people answered with one voice and said, "All the words that the LORD has spoken we will do." ...⁷Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it in the hearing of the people. And they said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient."

^c Or all the just decrees

Lev 19:37 And you shall observe all my statutes and all my rules, and do them: I am the LORD.

Josh 1:7-8 Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success^d wherever you go. ⁸This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

^d Or may act wisely

"Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left" (cf. 23:6) is an exhortation to not diverge from God's instructions in any way – to follow them in every detail.

Deut 8:1 The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers.

Deut 15:5 ... if only you will strictly obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all this commandment that I command you today.

Deut 29:29 The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

The "secret things" primarily refers to the "words of this law", that he has revealed (cf. GNT, CEV).

2Ki 17:13 Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, in accordance with all the Law that I commanded your fathers, and that I sent to you by my servants the prophets."

2Ki 21:8 And I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander anymore out of the land that I gave to their fathers, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the Law that my servant Moses commanded them.

Gen 6:22 Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.

Josh 11:15 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

2Sam 22:23 For all his rules were before me, and from his statutes I did not turn aside.

Luke 17:10 So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, 'We are unworthy servants;^e we have only done what was our duty.'

✦ The importance of obeying even the least of God's commands:

Matt 5:19 Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Obey God always – forever

Deut 11:1 You shall therefore love the LORD your God and keep his charge, his statutes, his rules, and his commandments always.

2Ki 17:37a And the statutes and the rules and the law and the commandment that he wrote for you, you shall always be careful to do.

1Chr 28:7 I will establish his kingdom forever if he continues strong in keeping my commandments and my rules, as he is today.

Ps 119:44, 112 I will keep your law continually, forever and ever,  ... ¹¹²*I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end.*^f

^f Or statutes; the reward is eternal

Deut 12:1 These are the statutes and rules that you shall be careful to do in the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth.

1Ki 15:5 ... because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

Job 23:11-12 My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept his way and have not turned aside. ¹²I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.

Acts 23:1 And looking intently at the council, Paul said, “Brothers, I have lived my life before God in all good conscience up to this day.”

Phil 2:12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ...

Here and in 1 Timothy 6:13-14 below Paul speaks of obedience to his commands, which ultimately were commands of God passed on by Paul.

1Tim 6:13-14 I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before^g Pontius Pilate made the good confession, ¹⁴*to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ...*

^g Or in the time of

Mic 4:5 For all the peoples walk each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.

To “walk in the name of the LORD” involves following God (cf. CEV, NCV, NLT) and his will, confessing his name, and trusting in him.

Acts 13:22 And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, of whom he testified and said, ‘I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.’

Col 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God.

In the last clause, Paul appears to be speaking of conformity or obedience to God’s will (cf. CEV, GNT) and/or being fully assured of what it involves (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT, NRSV).

1Pet 4:1-2 Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh,^h arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, ²so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God.

An implication of this prayer is that we should do God's will and be or do what is pleasing to him.

Isa 56:4-5 For thus says the LORD: "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant, ⁵I will give in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

To "choose the things that please me" is essentially to "choose to do what pleases me" (NirV®, NLT; cf. GNT).

God's statement in v. 2 introduces the Ten Commandments; the Israelites were to obey the LORD'S commandments as he was their God, who had redeemed them.

Ps 44:4 You are my King, O God; ordain salvation for Jacob!

In conjunction with being our God, God is also our king. This of course further underlines the need to obey him. Other examples of God being spoken of as both God and king are: "Your procession is seen, O God, the procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary—" (68:24); and "Yet God my King is from of old ..." (74:12a).

1Sam 15:22-23 And Samuel said, "Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams."²³ For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king.

Saul had spoken of sacrificing to God (cf. v. 21), but had earlier not carried out God's word (cf. vv. 1-11). Samuel pointed out that such expressions of supposed devotion or commitment were secondary to obedience to God's word – in effect pointless without it.

Ps 50:16-17 But to the wicked God says: "What right have you to recite my statutes or take my covenant on your lips? For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you.

Ezek 33:31 And they come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear what you say but they will not do it; for with lustful talk in their mouths they act; their heart is set on their gain.

Many of the people would willingly listen to Ezekiel's messages from God as being God's people. But doing this was pointless as they did not follow God's ways.

Matt 7:21-23 Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²²On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' ²³And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.'

Note that if such people as referred to in v. 22 perform deeds that are in fact supernatural, the deeds may be of satanic origin. Alternatively these people may simply be self-deceived, fooling themselves into thinking they can or have performed such acts. Whatever the case, the bottom line is: they do not do God's will.

Luke 6:46 Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you?

Matt 15:3-9 He answered them, "And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.' ⁵But you say, 'If anyone tells his father or his mother, "What you would have gained from me is given to God," ⁶he need not honor his father.' So for the sake of your tradition you have made void the word^r of God. ⁷You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said: ⁸"This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; ⁹in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'"

By what they said, the Jewish leaders expressed commitment to God (v. 8a). But in practice they disobeyed God's word, giving priority to their own traditions (v. 6). Such action is hypocritical and pointless.

1Cor 7:19 For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God.

Being circumcised is the sign of commitment to the first covenant, including God's commands therein. The implication is that such an expression of commitment is by itself pointless, for it is the actual keeping of God's commands that counts.

Titus 1:16 They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work.

✦ Obey God because of how awesome he is:

Deut 4:10-14 ... how on the day that you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, the LORD said to me, 'Gather the people to me, that I may let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children so.' ¹¹And you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, while the mountain burned with fire to the heart of heaven, wrapped in darkness, cloud, and gloom. ¹²Then the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of words, but saw no form; there was only a voice. ¹³And he declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, that is, the Ten Commandments,^s and he wrote them on two tablets of stone. ¹⁴And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and rules, that you might do them in the land that you are going over to possess.

^s Hebrew words

Moses here exhorts the people to remember God's awesome revelation of himself (v. 11), with his subsequent declaration of his commands for them to obey (v. 13). Moses did this largely to motivate the people to be committed to obeying God's commands.

We should obey God and Jesus Christ because of the great things they have done for us

- We should be holy and pleasing to God because of the things he has done for us, p. 1873

A number of the following passages speak of God's deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt and his later wonderful blessings for the Israelites as reasons why they should obey God. What is said of Israel is applicable to God's people today. We should likewise keep God's commands because of what God has done for us, particularly in delivering us from sin through Jesus Christ and granting us the associated blessings. We should obey in gratitude to God and also because enjoying such blessings depends on our continued obedience.

Lev 19:36-37 You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin:^t I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. ³⁷And you shall observe all my statutes and all my rules, and do them: I am the LORD.

^t An ephah was about 3/5 bushel or 22 liters; a hin was about 4 quarts or 3.5 liters

This and Deuteronomy 6:20-24 immediately below do not explicitly say that Israel should obey God because of what God had done for them. But the references to obeying God immediately following statements of what God had done for them, clearly imply this.

Deut 6:20-24 When your son asks you in time to come, 'What is the meaning of the testimonies and the statutes and the rules that the LORD our God has commanded you?' ²¹then you shall say to your son, 'We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt. And the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²²And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and grievous, against Egypt and against Pharaoh and all his household, before our eyes. ²³And he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in and give us the land that he swore to give to our fathers. ²⁴And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as we are this day. ☞

Ps 78:4-7 We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done. ⁵He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children, ⁶that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, ⁷so that they should set their hope in God and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments; ... ☞

This speaks of parents telling their children of God's deeds and power (v. 4) and subsequently of his commands (vv. 5-6). Verse 7 then concludes that in light of God's wonderful deeds for them – and his awesome power – the children should set their hope on God and obey his commands.

Ps 105:43-45 So he brought his people out with joy, his chosen ones with singing. ⁴⁴And he gave them the lands of the nations, and they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' toil, ⁴⁵that they might keep his statutes and observe his laws. Praise the LORD! ☞

We should obey God because of all that he has done for us and moreover because our obedience is in fact one of the chief objectives of all his deeds for us (v. 45a).

Ps 25:4-5 Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths. ⁵Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long. ☞

David was intent on obeying or living according to God's ways, because God was his Savior. To act otherwise would be to act against the one who helped him, his Savior – putting such help at risk.

Jer 3:19b And I thought you would call me, My Father, and would not turn from following me. ☞

The rebellious Israelites should have obeyed God as he was their "Father", quite possibly a reference to him bringing them into being as a nation. Likewise believers should obey God because he is their spiritual Father who has given them spiritual birth.

Matt 20:30, 34 And behold, there were two blind men sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, "Lord,^u have mercy on us, Son of David!" ☞ ... ³⁴And Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and immediately they recovered their sight and followed him. ☞

2Cor 5:14-15 For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; ¹⁵and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. ☞

Christ's love of us shown in dying for us should in effect control us, compelling us to live for him. Note that the phrase "therefore all have died" (v. 14) appears to refer primarily to his followers dying to their old lives (cf. NLT), in which sin held sway.

‡ Obey God because of his discipline of his people, along with his care and blessings:

Deut 11:1-2, 5-9 You shall therefore love the LORD your God and keep his charge, his statutes, his rules, and his commandments always. ²And consider today (since I am not speaking to your children who have not known or seen it), consider the discipline^v of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand and his outstretched arm, ☞ ... ⁵and what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place, ⁶and what he did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, son of Reuben, how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel. ⁷For your eyes have seen all the great work of the LORD that he did. ⁸"You shall therefore keep the whole commandment that I command you today, that you may be strong, and go in and take possession of the land that you are going over to possess, ⁹and that you may live long in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their offspring, a land flowing with milk and honey. ☞

We should obey God because of all the great things he does, not only in caring for his people but also in disciplining his people (vv. 2-7). Additionally, we should obey God so as to experience and continue in his blessings (vv. 8-9), as spoken of in the above passages. Note that Dathan and Abiram (v. 6) were punished for their rebellion against God and Moses (cf. Num 16:1-35).

Num 14:21-23 But truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD, ²²*none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the test these ten times and have not obeyed my voice, ²³shall see the land that I swore to give to their fathers.* And none of those who despised me shall see it.

In not obeying God we in a sense test him (v. 22; cf. Ps 78:40-41, 56 ↓), testing his patience and response. This passage also shows a further implication of not obeying God, illustrating that by persisting in disobeying God we forfeit the blessings he has promised us (v. 23).

2Ki 18:11-12 The king of Assyria carried the Israelites away to Assyria and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ¹²because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened nor obeyed.

This illustrates that disobeying God's word has consequences, even punishment from God.

Ps 78:40-41, 56 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the desert! ⁴¹They tested God again and again and provoked the Holy One of Israel. ... ⁵⁶Yet they tested and rebelled against the Most High God and did not keep his testimonies, ...

Prov 28:9 If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.

Rom 2:23-24 You who boast in the law dishonor God by breaking the law. ²⁴For, as it is written, "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

When God's people disobey him they dishonor him, even causing his name to be vilified by non-believers.

1Thes 4:7-8 For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. ⁸*Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.*

In v. 8 Paul is saying that disregarding his instructions (cf. vv. 3-6) that are in accordance with God's call or command to live a holy life (v. 7) amounts to disregarding God. This is applicable to disregarding (and thus not obeying) any of God's commands.

Titus 1:16 They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work.

One can infer from this that those who are disobedient do not know God (cf. 1Jn 1:6 ↓; 1Jn 2:4 ↓), their actions effectively denying God and any personal knowledge of him.

1Jn 1:6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

No one who lives contrary to God's commands can have fellowship with him. To claim otherwise would be a lie (cf. 1Jn 2:4 ↓).

1Jn 2:4 Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, ...

‡ Satan works in those who disobey God:

Learn God's commands

Deut 5:1 And Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the rules that I speak in your hearing today, and you shall learn them and be careful to do them.

Ps 119:7 I will praise you with an upright heart, when I learn your righteous rules.^w

^w Or your just and righteous decrees; also verses 62, 106, 160, 164

Ps 119:71 It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I might learn your statutes.

Matt 9:13 Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

In learning what God's commands say, ensure you also learn what they mean.

Rom 7:1 Or do you not know, brothers^x—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law is binding on a person only as long as he lives?

^x Or brothers and sisters; also verse 4

We can construe from this that just as those who Paul is addressing here knew the law, we should likewise know it and so ensure that we learn it.

1Chr 28:8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever.

We need to "seek out" or find out all God's commands, so as "to be familiar with" (AMP) them.

↳ Learn from Jesus Christ and his ways:

Matt 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Ps 25:4-5 Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths. ⁵Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long.

Ps 27:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path because of my enemies.

Ps 86:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name.

Ps 119:26-27, 73, 125 When I told of my ways, you answered me; teach me your statutes! ²⁷*Make me understand the way of your precepts*, and I will meditate on your wondrous works.  ... ⁷³Your hands have made and fashioned me; give me understanding that I may learn your commandments.  ... ¹²⁵I am your servant; give me understanding, that I may know your testimonies!

In conjunction with asking God to teach him God's commands, the psalmist asks God to help him understand God's commands.

‡ Ask God to open your eyes to spiritual truths in his law:

Ps 119:18 Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law.

Neh 8:13 On the second day the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and the Levites, came together to Ezra the scribe in order to study the words of the Law.

John 5:39 You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, ...

Like the Jewish leaders we should “search and investigate and pore over the Scriptures diligently” (AMP) – but with a mind open to God's teachings.

Acts 17:11 Now these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so.

Just as the Bereans examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true, so we ought to examine the Scriptures every day to learn more of God's truth.

Acts 18:24 Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, competent in the Scriptures.

Having “a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures” (GNT, NIV), Apollos is a good example of one who would have persistently read and studied all of God's word.

James 1:25 But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.

Here “perseveres” appears to refer or be inclusive of perseverance in looking into the Scriptures (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT), although James may possibly have in view perseverance in obeying it (cf. NASB).

‡ Long for God's word:

1Pet 2:2 Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation—

Longing for “the pure milk of the word” (NKJV) compliments persistence in reading and studying God's word.

This description of the messianic servant portrays him as listening carefully and being responsive to God’s word – an example all should follow.

Listen carefully to Jesus’ teaching

Matt 17:5 He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my beloved Son,^a with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.”

^a Or my Son, my (or the) Beloved

Mark 4:3, 9, 24 “Listen! A sower went out to sow.  ...⁹And he said, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”  ...²⁴And he said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear: with the measure you use, it will be measured to you, and still more will be added to you.

Mark 7:14 And he called the people to him again and said to them, “Hear me, all of you, and understand: ...

Note that the parallel verse in Matthew 15:10 similarly but more concisely says, “Hear and understand.”

Luke 8:18 Take care then how you hear, for to the one who has, more will be given, and from the one who has not, even what he thinks that he has will be taken away.

John 18:37 Then Pilate said to him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice.”

Acts 3:22 Moses said, “The Lord God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You shall listen to him in whatever he tells you.”

Rev 2:7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will grant to eat of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.

The first statement is a refrain used a total of seven times in chapters 2 and 3 of Revelation (cf. 2:11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22). It is indicative of the Holy Spirit, in conjunction with Jesus Christ, being the source of the teaching and exhortations given by Christ in these chapters to various churches.

✦ Those who hear and understand Jesus’ teaching are blessed:

Matt 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear.

Those who hear and understand Jesus’ teaching are blessed.

Prov 2:1-2 My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, ²*making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding;* ...

Often in Proverbs the teaching is presented as that of a wise father instructing his son (cf. Prov 4:1, 20 ↓; Prov 5:1 ↓; Prov 8:32 ↓). Just as the son is exhorted to do, we should listen and pay attention to what is taught.

Here the prophet Isaiah himself is speaking.

Acts 2:14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them: “Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words.”

Acts 10:33 So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now therefore we are all here in the presence of God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord.

Cornelius is speaking of hearing all that Peter had been commanded to say by the Lord.

Jude 1:17 But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Heb 2:1 Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it.

Heb 13:22 I appeal to you, brothers,^c bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly.

^c Or brothers and sisters

The writer asks his audience to “listen patiently” (AMP, GNT, NCV) to what he has to say.

2Pet 1:19 And we have something more sure, the prophetic word, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, ...

The latter part of the verse is understood to be speaking of the coming of the day of the return of Jesus Christ – “the morning star”.

Luke 2:46 After three days they found him [Jesus] in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

✦ Gain and hold to knowledge of the truth:

2Pet 1:5, 12 For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue,^d and virtue with knowledge, ... ¹²Therefore I intend always to remind you of these qualities, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have. 📖

^d Or excellence; twice in this verse

Verse 5 indicates that believers are to make every effort to increase their “knowledge” of Christian truth. Verse 12 indicates that believers should hold firmly to Christian truth, becoming entrenched in it.

Receive and believe God’s word

See also:

- Have faith that God will fulfill what he promises, p. 1091

We must receive (i.e. accept) and believe God and Jesus Christ’s word – both their commands and other truths of the faith.

Job 22:22 Receive instruction from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart. 📖

Ps 119:66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in your commandments. 📖

This appears to speak of believing in the validity of God’s commands – in their truth and wisdom – and accordingly trusting in them (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV).

Jer 9:20 Hear, O women, the word of the LORD, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; teach to your daughters a lament, and each to her neighbor a dirge. 📖

Jer 15:16 Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts. 📖

In saying that he “ate” God’s words, Jeremiah indicates that he accepted and absorbed them.

Ezek 3:10 Moreover, he said to me, “Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears.” 📖

Mark 4:20 But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. 📖

This refers to God’s word, primarily Jesus’ message of the kingdom of God. Accepting God’s word produces great spiritual results.

John 2:22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken. 📖

John 5:46-47 For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. ⁴⁷But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? 📖

Jesus rebuked the Jews for their failure to comprehend and believe what Moses had written about him.

John 17:8 For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. 📖

Acts 24:14 But this I confess to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, ... 📖

James 1:21 Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 📖

✦ Those who receive spiritual truth will be given more – in contrast to others:

Matt 13:11-12 And he answered them, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. ¹²For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.” 📖

Note: Not listening to God and his word has ill consequences

2Ki 18:11-12 The king of Assyria carried the Israelites away to Assyria and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ¹²because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened nor obeyed. 📖

2Chr 36:15-16 The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent persistently to them by his messengers, because he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling place. ¹⁶But they kept mocking the messengers of God, despising his words and scoffing at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD rose against his people, until there was no remedy. 📖

Neh 9:34, 37 Our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept your law or paid attention to your commandments and your warnings that you gave them. ... ³⁷And its rich yield goes to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins. They rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they please, and we are in great distress. 📖

Isa 30:9-13 For they are a rebellious people, lying children, children unwilling to hear the instruction of the LORD; ¹⁰who say to the seers, “Do not see,” and to the prophets, “Do not prophesy to us what is right; speak to us smooth things, prophesy illusions, ¹¹leave the way, turn aside from the path, let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel.” ¹²Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, “Because you despise this word and trust in oppression and perverseness and rely on them, ¹³therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach in a high wall, bulging out, and about to collapse, whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant; ... 📖

Isa 42:20-22 He [Israel] sees many things, but does not observe them; his ears are open, but he does not hear. ²¹The LORD was pleased, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify his law and make it glorious. ²²But this is a people plundered and looted; they are all of them trapped in holes and hidden in prisons; they have become plunder with none to rescue, spoil with none to say, “Restore!” 📖

Presumably the people's circumstances (v. 22) were a result of their failure to pay attention and listen to God (v. 20).

Isa 65:12 I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter, because, when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my eyes and chose what I did not delight in. 📖

Jer 6:10, 17, 19 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ears are uncircumcised, they cannot listen; behold, the word of the LORD is to them an object of scorn; they take no pleasure in it. 📖 ... ¹⁷I set watchmen over you, saying, ‘Pay attention to the sound of the trumpet!’ But they said, ‘We will not pay attention.’ 📖 ... ¹⁹Hear, O earth; behold, I am bringing disaster upon this people, the fruit of their devices, because they have not paid attention to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. 📖

The trumpet (v. 17) refers to warning of war and approaching judgment (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV).

Jer 26:4-6 You shall say to them, “Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law that I have set before you, ⁵and to listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you urgently, though you have not listened, ⁶then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse for all the nations of the earth.’ 📖

Heb 12:25 See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven. 📖

We must ensure we do not “refuse to hear him” (GNT, cf. NCV).

Mark 4:24-25 And he said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear: with the measure you use, it will be measured to you, and still more will be added to you. ²⁵For to the one who has, more will be given, and from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.” 📖

This appears to indicate that those who do not carefully consider Jesus' teaching and so gain spiritual understanding, even the little they have will be taken from them (cf. Matt 13:11-12 ↑). However note that some scholars interpret v. 24b at least as referring to measures we use in our treatment of others (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV).

Acts 3:22-23 Moses said, ‘The Lord God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You shall listen to him in whatever he tells you. ²³*And it shall be that every soul who does not listen to that prophet shall be destroyed from the people.*’ 📖

Rev 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near.

Matt 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

This associates taking on the "yoke" of living according to Jesus' teaching (cf. NCV) with learning from him. True learning involves putting teaching into practice.

Deut 33:9b For they observed your word and kept your covenant.

. . . Do not just listen to God's word

Matt 7:26 And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand.

James 1:22-25 But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. ²³For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. ²⁴For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. ²⁵But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.

The comparison with a man looking at himself in the mirror is used to illustrate how pointless and foolish it is to simply listen to God's word without obeying it.

Ezek 33:30-32 As for you, son of man, your people who talk together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, say to one another, each to his brother, 'Come, and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD.' ³¹And they come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear what you say but they will not do it; for with lustful talk in their mouths they act; their heart is set on their gain. ³²And behold, you are to them like one who sings lustful songs with a beautiful voice and plays^e well on an instrument, for they hear what you say, but they will not do it.

Ps 50:16-19 But to the wicked God says: "What right have you to recite my statutes or take my covenant on your lips? ¹⁷For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you. ¹⁸If you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and you keep company with adulterers. ¹⁹*You give your mouth free rein for evil, and your tongue frames deceit.* 📖

Further to listening to God's word or laws, the wicked may even recite them (v. 16), but this is pointless as in practice they discard them (v. 17), acting contrary to them (vv. 18-19).

Heb 5:13-14 ... for everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a child. ¹⁴*But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil.* 📖

In describing those still feeding on the basics of the faith as "unskilled" with the teaching about righteousness, the writer may be meaning that they are inexperienced and unskilled in applying such teaching based on God's word to what they do, implying that they merely listen to it. In contrast there are those who have trained their "senses and mental faculties" (AMP) – presumably through putting into practice such teaching – to distinguish good from evil, right from wrong.

‡ As a whole, the Jews who had been given the Mosaic Law had not obeyed it:

Acts 7:52-53 Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered, ⁵³*you who received the law as delivered by angels and did not keep it.* 📖

Ps 25:5 Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long. 📖

"Lead me in your truth" appears to be a request from David for God to guide him to live according to God's truth (cf. GNT).

Ps 27:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path because of my enemies. 📖

A "level path" probably means a path that is smooth, so as not to cause David to stumble into sin – a "right path" (CEV; cf. NCV, NLT). However, especially in view of David's reference to his "enemies", it could instead be meaning a "safe path" (GNT). (The same can be said of "level ground" below in 143:10.)

Ps 86:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name. 📖

The second half of the verse is in effect a request by David for God to enable him to walk in God's ways, as reflected in the first half of the verse.

Ps 119:10, 33-36, 80 With my whole heart I seek you; let me not wander from your commandments! 📖 ... ³³*Teach me, O LORD, the way of your statutes; and I will keep it to the end.*^f ³⁴*Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart.* ³⁵*Lead me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in it.* ³⁶*Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to selfish gain!* 📖 ... ⁸⁰*May my heart be blameless in your statutes, that I may not be put to shame!* 📖

^f Or keep it as my reward

Ps 143:10 Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! 📖

1Ki 8:57-58 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers. May he not leave us or forsake us, ⁵⁸*that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his rules, which he commanded our fathers.* 📖

‡ David's expressed desire for God to give Solomon wisdom to keep God's law:

1Chr 22:12 Only, may the LORD grant you discretion and understanding, that when he gives you charge over Israel you may keep the law of the LORD your God. 📖

Submit yourself to God

To persistently obey God, we need to first submit to him.

James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 📖

Eph 5:22-24 Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. ²⁴Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands. 📖

Heb 12:9 Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? 📖

Being "subject to" God – including to such things as his discipline (cf. vv. 3-11) – means that we submit to him.

2Chr 30:8 Do not now be stiff-necked as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD and come to his sanctuary, which he has consecrated forever, and serve the LORD your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you.

Job 22:21-22 Agree with God, and be at peace; thereby good will come to you. ²²Receive instruction from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart.

Psa 81:11 But my people did not listen to my voice; Israel would not submit to me.

Matt 26:38-39, 42 Then he said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch^g with me.”
³⁹And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.”  ... ⁴²Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done.”

^g Or keep awake; also verses 40, 41

Submitting to God involves submitting to his will – as Jesus does here, in order to obey and serve God. Such submission is further illustrated below by Mary (Luke 1:35, 38), and Laban and Bethuel (Gen 24:48-51). Other examples of submitting to and accepting God’s will can be found in: Note: Accept God’s discipline for sin, p. 1846; and Accept hard times from God, p. 1948. Also note Acts 21:14 – ‘And since he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, “Let the will of the Lord be done.”’

Luke 1:35, 38 And the angel answered her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born^h will be called holy—the Son of God.  ... ³⁸And Mary said, “Behold, I am the servantⁱ of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word.” And the angel departed from her.

^h Some manuscripts add of you

Gen 24:48-51 Then I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way^j to take the daughter of my master’s kinsman for his son. ⁴⁹Now then, if you are going to show steadfast love and faithfulness to my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.” ⁵⁰Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, “The thing has come from the LORD; we cannot speak to you bad or good. ⁵¹Behold, Rebekah is before you; take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master’s son, as the LORD has spoken.”

^j Or faithfully

Laban and Bethuel understood that what Abraham’s servant proposed was God’s will and so rightly felt that there was nothing they could say to query or qualify it (v. 50). Instead they submitted to it (v. 51).

✦ The mind controlled by the sinful nature does not submit to God’s commands:

Rom 8:7 For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God’s law; indeed, it cannot.

Our minds need to be controlled by the Holy Spirit rather than the sinful nature (cf. vv. 1-9), so that we can submit to God and his commands.

1Ki 14:7-8 Go, tell Jeroboam, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: “Because I exalted you from among the people and made you leader over my people Israel ⁸and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you, and yet you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commandments and followed me with all his heart, doing only that which was right in my eyes, ...

2Ki 23:3, 25 And the king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people joined in the covenant.  ... ²⁵Before him [Josiah] there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses, nor did any like him arise after him.

Psa 119:69, 106, 112, 167 The insolent smear me with lies, but with my whole heart I keep your precepts;  ... ¹⁰⁶*I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to keep your righteous rules.*  ... ¹¹²*I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever,* to the end.^k ... ¹⁶⁷*My soul keeps your testimonies; I love them exceedingly.*

^k Or statutes; the reward is eternal

The psalmist's wholeheartedness in obeying God's laws (vv. 69, 112) is reflected by: him taking an oath to do so (v. 106; cf. Neh 10:29 ↓); his inward desire to keep them (v. 167a); and by his love for them (v. 167b).

Rom 6:17 But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, ...

The phrase "the standard of teaching" refers to the teachings of Jesus Christ and the apostles, inclusive of the OT law as interpreted by Christ.

Eph 6:5-6 Slaves,^l obey your earthly masters^m with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, ⁶*not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servantsⁿ of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart*, ...

Num 32:11-12 'Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not wholly followed me, ¹²*none except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have wholly followed the LORD.*'

Note Caleb's later reminder to Joshua of what he had done – "I wholly followed the LORD my God" (Josh 14:8b).

Deut 5:27 Go near and hear all that the LORD our God will say and speak to us all that the LORD our God will speak to you, and we will hear and do it.

Such willingness to obey God is associated with wholehearted obedience.

Neh 10:29 ... join with their brothers, their nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law that was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord and his rules and his statutes.

Acts 22:12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there, ...

Ananias was "a devout observer of the law" (NIV®) – indicative of wholehearted devotion to observe it.

2Chr 25:2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not with a whole heart.

Amaziah is an example of half-hearted obedience (cf. Num 32:11 ↑).

Jer 15:16 Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts.

God's words that "were found" may here refer to God's law, or to the message/s that Jeremiah was to proclaim to the people which included commands of God.

1Ki 8:25 Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father what you have promised him, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons pay close attention to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.’

✦ Not being careful to obey God leads to sin:

2Ki 10:31 But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, which he made Israel to sin.

Jehu is an example of careless, half-hearted obedience.

Note: God's and Jesus Christ's commands are not too difficult or burdensome

Deut 30:11-14 For this commandment that I command you today is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. ¹²It is not in heaven, that you should say, ‘Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ ¹³Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, ‘Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?’ ¹⁴*But the word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it.*

By saying that God's commands were not “far off” (v. 11), Moses is indicating that God's commands are very accessible, as illustrated in the subsequent two verses. Verse 14 reinforces this concept. “It is in your mouth and in your heart” suggests that the people could verbalize it and that they understood it – and as such they could obey it. God's commands are not too difficult to know or to follow.

1Jn 5:3-4 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. ⁴*For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world.* And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

Those born of God overcome all that is in the world – by faith – things which would otherwise entangle them and make his commands burdensome to obey.

Matt 11:28-30 Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰*For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.*

The “yoke” referred to was probably that which lay across the necks of oxen. In saying that the “yoke” and “burden” of following him is “easy” and “light” (v. 30), Jesus may be alluding to the fact that as he is “gentle and lowly in heart”

(v. 29) he will not require anything that is beyond us. Also, in contrast to the requirements of the religious leaders, his demands are not burdensome. Far from being tiresome, his “yoke” of discipleship is the way of life that best fits us – the most comfortable and suitable “yoke” – and it benefits us in many ways. Rather than weighing us down, it is actually uplifting.

✦ God’s laws are in fact wonderful:

Ps 119:129 Your testimonies are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them. 📖

The material prosperity of the old covenant is referred to in v. 33, and alluded to elsewhere in this subsection (cf. By obeying, the Israelites would have life and prosperity in the promised land, p. 337; and the introductory comment on If the Israelites disobeyed the law and broke the covenant, there would be dreadful consequences . . ., p. 338).

Deut 10:12-13 And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³and to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I am commanding you today for your good?

Deut 15:4-5 But there will be no poor among you; for the LORD will bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance to possess— ⁵if only you will strictly obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all this commandment that I command you today.

Josh 1:7 Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success^y wherever you go.

^y Or may act wisely

Rev 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near.

✦ Keeping God's commands is a blessing:

Ps 119:56 This blessing has fallen to me, that I have kept your precepts.

God's and Jesus Christ's love

Deut 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations, ...

Ps 103:17-18 But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, ¹⁸to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.

Ps 25:10 All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

John 14:23 Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

John 15:10 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.

Jesus underlines the correlation between obeying him and remaining in his love by drawing a comparison to him obeying God and so remaining in God's love. God's love for him because of his obedience is further illustrated immediately below in 10:17, where Jesus speaks of his obedience to God to the point of laying down his life.

John 10:17-18 For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. ¹⁸No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father.

The last statement is generally understood to indicate that Jesus had been commanded to lay down his life by God – which he obediently was willing to do (vv. 17-18a). (It may also allude to the fact that God had given him the aforementioned authority to do this.) As such, these verses speak of God loving Jesus because he was obedient.

1Jn 2:5a ... but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected.

The second clause is referring to either God's love for a believer, or a believer's love for God. If the former is intended, then the verse appears to mean either that obedience leads to a deep realization of God's love for us, or that obedience is evidence of this love being a reality.

God's help

Ex 23:22 But if you carefully obey his [an angel's] voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

1Ki 8:59-61 Let these words of mine, with which I have pleaded before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, and may he maintain the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires,⁶⁰ that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.⁶¹ Let your heart therefore be wholly true to the LORD our God, walking in his statutes and keeping his commandments, as at this day.

Ps 81:13-16 Oh, that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways! ¹⁴*I would soon subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their foes.* ¹⁵Those who hate the LORD would cringe toward him, and their fate would last forever. ¹⁶*But he would feed you^z with the finest of the wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.*

^z That is, Israel; Hebrew him

Prov 16:7 When a man's ways please the LORD, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Here “he” could refer to the LORD or to the man whose “ways are pleasing to the LORD”. Either way it asserts that living in line with God’s will, obeying him, is a positive factor in our relationships with others. Note that some commentators rightly make the point that like many proverbs this is a generalization, to which there are exceptions (cf. Following God and Jesus Christ results in persecution . . ., p. 1982; . . . It brings all kinds of hardships and suffering, p. 1983).

Isa 64:5a You meet him who joyfully works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways.

This is often understood as saying that God comes to the help of those who do what is right and remember God’s ways for his people to live (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

Ezra 7:9-10 For on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylonia, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, for the good hand of his God was on him. ¹⁰*For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the LORD, and to do it and to teach his statutes and rules in Israel.*

Lev 25:18-22 Therefore you shall do my statutes and keep my rules and perform them, and then you will dwell in the land securely. ¹⁹*The land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill and dwell in it securely.* ²⁰And if you say, ‘What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we may not sow or gather in our crop?’ ²¹*I will command my blessing on you in the sixth year, so that it will produce a crop sufficient for three years.* ²²*When you sow in the eighth year, you will be eating some of the old crop; you shall eat the old until the ninth year, when its crop arrives.*

God protects and provides for those who obey his commands – including commands that may initially appear to be to one’s detriment (vv. 20-22), the reference being to allowing the land to lay fallow for one year or possibly two.

✚ God shows mercy and compassion to those who obey him:

Deut 13:17-18 None of the devoted things shall stick to your hand, that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger and show you mercy and have compassion on you and multiply you, as he swore to your fathers, ¹⁸*if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, keeping all his commandments that I am commanding you today, and doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.*

Note that the first clause in v. 17 is speaking of not hanging on to or keeping any such “devoted” things.

The realization of God’s promises

Gen 18:19 For I have chosen^a him, that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what he has promised him.

^a Hebrew known

Deut 6:18 And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may go well with you, and that you may go in and take possession of the good land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers ...

Deut 28:9 The LORD will establish you as a people holy to himself, as he has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in his ways.

1Ki 2:1-4 When David’s time to die drew near, he commanded Solomon his son, saying, ²‘I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself a man,’ ³and keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his rules, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn, ⁴*that the LORD may establish his word that he spoke concerning me, saying, ‘If your sons pay close attention to their way, to walk before me in faithfulness with all their heart and with all their soul, you shall not lack^b a man on the throne of Israel.’*

^b Hebrew there shall not be cut off for you

1Ki 6:12 Concerning this house that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes and obey my rules and keep all my commandments and walk in them, then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father.

The promise referred to – “my word” – appears to be that spoken of by David in 2:4 above. However with the reference to the temple, God’s presence with his people (cf. v. 13) may be in view – in conjunction with or instead of the aforementioned promise.

2Cor 7:1 Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body^c and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God.

^c Greek flesh

This implies that for the promises (cf. 6:16-18) to be fulfilled, we must purify ourselves and be holy – which obviously involves obedience to God.

Eph 6:2-3 “Honor your father and mother” (this is the first commandment with a promise),³“that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land.”

Heb 10:36 For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised.

✦ Parallel to his promises for obedience, God threatens judgment on those who do not obey him:

Josh 23:15-16 But just as all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you have been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the evil things, until he has destroyed you from off this good land that the LORD your God has given you, ¹⁶if you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them. Then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land that he has given to you.

Peace and rest

Isa 48:18 Oh that you had paid attention to my commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea; ...

Gal 6:16 And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

By “this rule” Paul may be referring to living in accordance with “the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ” (v. 14), or living as a “new creation” (v. 15). Both interpretations involve living according to “this rule” and so are indicative of obedience to God – by which one receives God’s peace, and mercy.

Jer 6:16 Thus says the LORD: “Stand by the roads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls. But they said, ‘We will not walk in it.’

The “good way” or “godly way” (NLT) corresponds with God’s way.

Matt 11:28-30 Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Here Jesus effectively promises rest to those who live according to his teaching.

Other present-day spiritual blessings

Note also the cross references listed at the beginning of this section.

Luke 8:21 But he answered them, “My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.”

Those who obey God’s word are like Jesus Christ, who was exemplary in doing this. As such they are in a sense his kin, part of the family of God.

John 8:31-32 So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

In v. 32 Jesus is referring to freedom from sin (cf. v. 34).

John 15:7 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

Being in Jesus Christ involves knowing, believing and obeying his words. This produces prayer that is consistent with Jesus Christ’s purpose and will – prayer that will be answered.

John 15:10-11 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. ¹¹These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full.

Acts 16:4-5 As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered to them for observance the decisions that had been reached by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem. ⁵So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and they increased in numbers daily.

One can infer from this that obedience to godly instruction – which is ultimately instruction based on God’s word – strengthens people in the faith.

Deut 11:8 You shall therefore keep the whole commandment that I command you today, that you may be strong, and go in and take possession of the land that you are going over to possess, ...

This promise of military strength to the Israelites if they were obedient can be applied to spiritual strength that believers have or gain in being obedient.

John 7:17 If anyone’s will is to do God’s^d will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority.

^d Greek his

Doing what one knows of God’s will, leads to the realization that Jesus’ teaching does come from God. Obedience leads to spiritual discernment.

John 11:8-10 The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking to stone you, and are you going there again?” ⁹Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. ¹⁰But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”

In v. 9 Jesus appears to be meaning that those who work or act in the light of God’s will – as he intended doing, despite apparent danger (v. 8) – will not stumble. This is in contrast to those who do not act in the light of God’s will (v. 10).

Matt 5:19 Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

The future form of God’s kingdom may be referred to here, hence the verse’s inclusion in this subsection.

Matt 7:24-25 Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵*And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock.*

If a person obeys Jesus Christ’s words, they will withstand the storms of life. They will also survive God’s final judgment, which may be primarily in view (cf. vv. 21-23), the reason for the verse’s inclusion here.

Rev 2:26-28 The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, ²⁷and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. ²⁸And I will give him the morning star.

Verses 26-27 may well be speaking of the reign of believers with Jesus Christ (cf. God’s people will reign with Jesus Christ, p. 724). The “morning star” (v. 28) may refer to the dawning of the resurrection age – and possibly also the accompanying glory – following the night of this life (cf. CEV text note). The term could also allude to the return of Jesus Christ, who is called “the bright morning star” (22:16).

Isa 56:4-7 For thus says the LORD: “To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant, ⁵*I will give in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.* ⁶*And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant— ⁷these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.” *

These promises appear to be primarily eschatological. Verse 5b may well be alluding to eternal life. Verse 7 speaks of a pilgrimage to Jerusalem of all peoples at the end of the age, perhaps a depiction of the afterlife.

Rev 22:7 “And behold, I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.”

This speaks of holding to God’s words of prophecy in Revelation, believing them and acting in accordance with them – which involves obedience (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT). In view of the first statement, the blessedness referred to in the second would appear to primarily at least encompass blessings following Christ’s return.

Num 14:41 But Moses said, "Why now are you transgressing the command of the LORD, when that will not succeed?"

Disobeying God's commands will typically end in failure of some form. Ultimately it ends in eternal destruction.

Num 32:23 But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out.

The final clause is implying that sin brings its consequences – it "catches up with you".

Ps 119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes.

Those who do not obey God will not receive salvation.

Hos 9:17 My God will reject them because they have not listened to him; they shall be wanderers among the nations.

Hos 14:9 Whoever is wise, let him understand these things; whoever is discerning, let him know them; for the ways of the LORD are right, and the upright walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.

Transgressors "stumble" by not following God's ways.

Matt 5:19 Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

This may have in view the time of the consummation of the kingdom and its reign that will envelope all creation. If this is the case, being "called least in the kingdom of heaven" may refer to such people being deemed as the least of all people – in effect condemned. However note that the phrase "in the kingdom of heaven" suggests that such people may still be accepted into the kingdom rather than being shut out and in hell. Another interpretation is that with "these commandments" probably referring to the OT law, Jesus may be speaking of these commands being incorrectly downplayed by some teachers under the new covenant, in the present form of God's kingdom that he introduced.

To follow Jesus Christ involves not just simply following his commands, but also following him and his example. In doing so, we follow Christ not only as our leader, but also in companionship with him. This concept is an important aspect of discipleship.

Matt 4:18-22 While walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.” ²⁰Immediately they left their nets and followed him. ²¹And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. ²²Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him. 📖

Matt 9:9 As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he rose and followed him. 📖

Mark 8:34 And calling the crowd to him with his disciples, he said to them, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. 📖

To “deny” ourselves involves setting aside our own desires, no longer having ourselves as the focus of our life. For a person to “take up his cross” implies a willingness to bear any cost – even to give up his/her life – in order to follow Christ as his disciple.

Luke 9:59-62 To another he said, “Follow me.” But he said, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father.” ⁶⁰And Jesus^e said to him, “Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.” ⁶¹Yet another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home.” ⁶²Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.” 📖

^e Greek he

The man in v. 59 may well have been meaning that he wanted to wait until after his father had died. In saying, “Leave the dead to bury their own dead”, Jesus was indicating that such tasks as burying the physically dead could be left to the spiritually dead; proclaiming the kingdom was more important. Verses 61-62 appear to be emphasizing the need to be fully focused on doing the work of the kingdom; nothing should be allowed to obstruct the work.

John 10:3-5, 27 To him the gatekeeper opens. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. ⁵A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.” 📖 ... ²⁷*My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.* 📖

Jesus illustrates the intimate relationship between him and his followers by drawing a parallel with the close relationship between a shepherd and his sheep. His disciples and other followers listened to him and followed him and his teachings. Likewise today believers follow him – his example, his teaching and even his promptings through the Holy Spirit – discerning between teaching and leading that is of him and that which is not.

John 12:26 If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. 📖

The context (cf. vv. 24-25) suggests that Jesus’ challenge to follow him and be with him had in view his example of sacrificial living, to the point of death (cf. John 21:19b, 22b ↓).

John 21:19b, 22b And after saying this he said to him, “Follow me.” 📖 ... ²² ... You follow me!” 📖

Note that in both of these verses Jesus is speaking to Peter.

Rom 15:5 May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, ... 📖

This is effectively speaking of following Christ (cf. CEV, GNT, NIV), possibly in particular of acting according to Jesus Christ’s example (cf. GNT).

. . . Be a disciple of Jesus Christ

A disciple is a learner; one who seeks to learn and follow the teachings of another, even to the extent of becoming like the teacher (as reflected in the following subsections).

Matt 21:6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. 📖

This illustrates that being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires one to follow his instructions (cf. Matt 28:19-20 ↓; John 8:31 ↓).

Matt 27:57 When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus. 📖

Matt 28:19-20 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in^f the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰*teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you*. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

^f Or into

Jesus' command to "make disciples of all nations" (v. 19) reflects the fact that we should all be his disciples, obeying all his commands (v. 20).

John 8:31 So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ...

John 15:8 By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

The term "fruit" probably denotes either personal spiritual characteristics (cf. Gal 5:22-23) or wider spiritual outcomes of quality work for God's kingdom. Arguably the latter is more likely (cf. v. 16). By bearing such good "fruit" we bring glory to God, showing ourselves to be disciples of the One sent by him.

Luke 14:26-27 If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. ²⁷Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

This speaks of the great cost involved in being a disciple of Jesus Christ. In v. 26 Jesus is speaking of the need to love him more than anyone or anything else, including our own lives (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT) – in order to be his disciple.

Matt 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

This verse indicates that learning Jesus' ways – as a disciple or follower of his – is to a large extent a practical experience. We learn from him by accepting his teachings (cf. NCV) and putting them into practice (i.e. taking his yoke upon us).

✦ Disciples are called "Christians":

Acts 11:26b And in Antioch the disciples were first called Christians.

The term "Christian" (cf. Acts 26:28; 1Pet 4:16) implies that one is a follower of – or belongs to – Jesus Christ.

1Thes 1:6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, ...

1Jn 2:6 ... whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

Luke 6:40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher.

As referred to earlier, a major goal of being a disciple of a teacher is to become like them. Here Jesus speaks of his disciples becoming like him (cf. Matt 10:25a ↓).

Matt 10:24-25 A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant^g above his master. ²⁵It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign^h those of his household.

^g Greek bondservant; also verse 25

^h Greek lacks will they malign

Verses 24-25a reflect that Christians should desire to be like Jesus Christ and/or be "satisfied" (GNT, NCV) with this. But given the context (cf. vv. 16-31), it may more specifically be alluding to Jesus' followers sharing his fate in being persecuted (cf. NLT).

Rom 13:14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The expression "put on the Lord Jesus Christ" quite possibly is referring to immersing oneself in one's union with Christ – surrounding oneself with Christ, acting in line with his purposes and for his glory, and in reliance on him. However, it has also been interpreted as a call to take on or adopt his character and example – an interpretation which would make the verse pertinent to this subsection.

Eph 4:21 ... assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, ...

The “truth ... in Jesus” most likely refers to teaching based on Jesus’ life and words. As such this speaks in part of being taught to act in accordance with Jesus’ example.

Matt 20:26-28 It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant,ⁱ ²⁷and whoever would be first among you must be your slave,^j ²⁸even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

ⁱ Greek diakonos

^j Greek bondservant (doulos)

John 13:14 If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet.

Generally this is understood as Jesus urging his disciples to follow his example by humbly serving each other (cf. Matt 20:26-28 ↑), rather than introducing foot washing as a practice for believers.

Rom 15:1-3 We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. ²*Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up.* ³*For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, “The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me.”*

We should please others, as opposed to ourselves, just as Christ did not please himself. In the quotation from Psalms 69:9 (v. 3), the psalmist speaks of pleasing God rather than himself by faithfully suffering the insults that his association with God brought. It is used here to illustrate the point that Christ – who is paralleled with the psalmist – did not please himself, but put God’s will first despite the suffering involved. In view of v. 2, Paul may also be implying that Christ did this for the good of others – effectively in service of them.

2Cor 8:7, 9 But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you^k—see that you excel in this act of grace also. ... ⁹*For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich.*

^k Some manuscripts in your love for us

Paul later refers to “this act of grace” in meeting the needs of fellow believers as a “service” (cf. 9:12-13). Like Jesus Christ (v. 9), we should be prepared to give of ourselves and our resources in the service of others.

Further aspects of Jesus Christ’s example to follow

John 15:10 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love.

Col 3:13 ... bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

Phil 2:5-8 Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus,¹ ⁶who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant,^m being born in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

¹ Or which was also in Christ Jesus

^m Greek bondservant

As made more obvious by the alternative rendering in the text note on v. 5, Paul implies here that we should follow Jesus Christ’s example of service, humility and obedience.

Phil 3:10 ... that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ...

The final clause possibly means that Paul wanted to become like Christ as exemplified in his death, perfectly submissive and obedient to God. A somewhat different interpretation is that, following on from the preceding clauses, Paul is indicating that he was prepared to suffer for Christ’s cause even to the point of dying like he did (cf. CEV).

1Pet 2:20-21, 23 For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. ²¹*For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in* his steps.  ... ²³When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly.

Heb 12:3 Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.

Consider Jesus Christ's example of endurance so as to follow his example.

1Jn 3:3 And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

It is debatable as to whether "he" refers to Jesus Christ or God. Often it is taken to be speaking of Christ (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT). As such, one implication is that believers ought to be pure just as Jesus Christ is pure.

✦ Identify with Jesus Christ in not being of this world:

John 17:16 They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

Make Jesus Christ your Lord . . .

See also:

- . . . and God made Jesus Christ Lord of all, p. 686

We are to make Christ our Lord, sovereign in every aspect of our lives. As such we are to be fully obedient to him – living according to his will and for his purposes.

John 13:13-14 You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. ¹⁴If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

John 20:28 Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

1Cor 1:2 To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: ...

Jude 1:4 For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Rom 10:9 ... because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Note that the confession "Jesus is Lord" is primarily an acknowledgement of Jesus' lordship over all creation. In accordance with this we should make him the Lord of our own life.

Col 2:6-7 Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

Some modern translations interpret Paul as speaking of receiving or accepting Christ as one's Lord (cf. CEV, GNT, NIV, NLT), as per the theme of this subsection.

1Pet 3:15 ... but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, ...

Other modern translations render the phrase "honor Christ the Lord as holy" with the sense "sanctify Christ as Lord" (NASB, NRSV; cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT), making the verse more pertinent to this subsection.

. . . Live for Jesus Christ, pleasing him

See also:

- Give up your life to live for God and Jesus Christ . . . , p. 1393

Rom 14:6-8 The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. ⁷For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. ⁸For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.

Speaking in regard to contentious issues, in v. 6 Paul says what we do should be done to honor Christ – for we are to live for him (v. 8a). The comment that "if we die, we die to the Lord" appears to mean that even on the other side of death, Christ is still our Lord (cf. v. 9) – and so even then we should be trying to please him. In v. 8 Paul correlates living for Jesus Christ with belonging to him. As we belong to Jesus Christ, we should live for him.

2Cor 5:14-15 For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; ¹⁵and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

As well as living for Jesus Christ because he is our Lord, we should also live for him because he died for us.

Phil 1:21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Here Paul is probably meaning more than just that he lived for Christ. Christ was the essence of his life, permeating throughout it and controlling it. This involved Paul fellowshipping with Christ, working for his purpose and glory, and depending on him.

2Cor 5:9-10 So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.

Eph 5:10 ... and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord.

Col 1:10 ... so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

Col 3:20 Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

1Cor 7:32 I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord.

✦ It is pointless to call Jesus Christ "Lord" if you do not do what he says:

Luke 6:46 Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell you?

Be willing to give up everything to follow Jesus Christ

See also:

- The great cost of participating in the kingdom of God, p. 680

Mark 10:21, 28-30 And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."  ... ²⁸Peter began to say to him, "See, we have left everything and followed you." ²⁹Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, ³⁰who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.

Jesus command to "sell all that you have" (v. 21) is given here to "the rich young ruler" whose main spiritual problem was that he loved his riches. However, arguably it is applicable to all Christians – to some degree at least – particularly in the light of Peter's claim (v. 28) and the references below. In v. 29 Jesus mentions some things that his followers may be required to forego. The promised resultant blessings of this present time (v. 30) are primarily fulfilled through the new relationships in the family of God's people, to which Jesus' followers belong.

Luke 5:10-11, 27-28 ... and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." ¹¹And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.  ... ²⁷After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth. And he said to him, "Follow me." ²⁸And leaving everything, he rose and followed him.

Luke 9:57-58 As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." ⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

Here Jesus warns that to follow him means that like him one will have "no place to rest his head" (NCV™) or no "place to call his own" (CEV). It involves foregoing not only the comforts of life, but at times at least even things generally considered as basic to one's well being.

Luke 14:28-33 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? ²⁹Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, ³⁰saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' ³¹Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? ³²And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. ³³So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.

Someone wanting to build a tower should first estimate the cost (vv. 28-30) and a king going to war should first consider whether he is able to oppose his adversary (vv. 31-32a). Similarly one who is thinking of following Jesus Christ should first count or weigh up the substantial cost in order to decide whether they are willing and able to do so. For to follow Jesus Christ one must give up their hold and claim on everything they have.

✦ Paul discarded all things for Christ:

Phil 3:7-9 But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—

In v. 7 Paul refers to things (cf. vv. 5-6) that he had valued and done for his own benefit – in the context, particularly in regard to achieving righteousness (v. 9). In retrospect Paul considered them “worthless” (CEV, NLT), even detrimental, for the sake of Christ – and all that one has in him (v. 9; cf. vv. 10-11). In v. 8 Paul says that in fact he viewed all things of this world as such.

Following Jesus Christ’s example of servanthood leads to greatness in God’s kingdom.

Luke 6:40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher.

The more we follow Jesus Christ, the more we will become like him.

John 8:12 Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

John 8:31-32 So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

As noted earlier in this chapter, in v. 32 Jesus is referring to freedom from sin (cf. v. 34).

John 15:8 By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

This indicates that being a disciple or follower of Jesus Christ will lead to one bearing such “fruit”.

1Jn 2:5-6 ... but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

Those who follow Jesus’ exemplary way of life, live in union with God.

Note: Follow God and his commands . . .

Along with following Jesus Christ and his example, we should follow God and imitate him. Following God involves following his commandments in the Bible and his directing of our lives.

Josh 14:8-9 But my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I wholly followed the LORD my God. ⁹And Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and your children forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.’

1Ki 18:21 And Elijah came near to all the people and said, “How long will you go limping between two different opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him.” And the people did not answer him a word.

2Ki 18:6 For he held fast to the LORD. He did not depart from following him, but kept the commandments that the LORD commanded Moses.

Jer 2:2 Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem, Thus says the LORD, “I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.”

2Chr 34:31, 33 And the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. ¶ ... ³³And Josiah took away all the abominations from all the territory that belonged to the people of Israel and made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not turn away from following the LORD, the God of their fathers. ¶

Deut 13:4 You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear him and keep his commandments and obey his voice, and you shall serve him and hold fast to him. ¶

Job 23:11 My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept his way and have not turned aside. ¶

In speaking of holding to God's "steps", Job is referring to following "God's paths" (NLT), "the road he chooses" (GNT) for his people.

... and imitate God, as children of God

See also:

- Be holy because God is holy, p. 1868

Imitating God is essential for believers, being children of God. For as God is our spiritual Father we ought to grow to be more like him, with our character and actions reflecting his.

Eph 5:1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. ¶

Matt 5:9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons^P of God. ¶

^P Greek huioi; see Preface

The "peacemakers" (v. 9) are people who "work for peace" (GNT, NLT, cf. NCV) – probably inclusive of reconciling people with God and making peace between people. They will be deemed children of God because they demonstrate that they partake of his nature, with their actions reflecting God's.

Matt 5:44-45 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵*so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.* ¶

Luke 6:36 Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. ¶

1Pet 1:14-16 As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, ¹⁵*but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct,* ¹⁶*since it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy."* ¶

1Jn 1:5, 7 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ¶ ... ⁷*But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.* ¶

In v. 5, as reflected in v. 7, "light" is used as "a symbol of God's goodness or truth" (NCV™ text note).

Phil 2:15 ... that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, ... ¶

This and 1 John 3:10 immediately below do not specifically speak of imitating God, But they both speak of displaying godly characteristics and actions as children of God and so point to the theme of this subsection – that we should imitate God as his children.

1Jn 3:10 By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. ¶

Children of God, like God, practice righteousness and show love – particularly for their brothers and sisters.

‡ Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God:

Rom 8:14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons^Q of God. ¶

^Q See discussion on "sons" in the Preface

Acting in accordance with God's Spirit is indicative of an intimate relationship with God and that one in fact is a child of God. For further comment see Living by the Spirit brings life – in contrast to living by the sinful nature and to the law, p. 1075.

I. Being Close to God

Being or growing close to God involves consciously seeking God and focusing on him. Additionally, we can actually meet with God and also should live throughout each day in awareness of his presence. In growing close to God, we come to know him – the importance of which is emphatically stated by the Bible.

a) Seek God

See also:

- God wants us to earnestly seek him – and so find him, p. 1027
- Now is the time to seek God and to respond to him, p. 1031
- Seek God in hard times, p. 1943

The Bible tells all people to seek God in order to find him and become one of his people – as spoken of in the first two of the above cross references. But it also shows that God's people are to continue seeking him – the focus of this section. "Seeking" typically entails intense effort, which is very much applicable to seeking God and fellowship with him. Seeking God also requires prayer, worship and obedience – along with persistently focusing on God, as per the following section, Focus on God.

Subsections

- Seek God wholeheartedly and you will find him

Seek God – with all your heart

Ps 105:4 Seek the LORD and his strength; seek his presence continually!

1Chr 22:19a Now set your mind and heart to seek the LORD your God.

2Chr 19:3 Nevertheless, some good is found in you, for you destroyed the Asherahs out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God.

2Chr 22:9b They buried him, for they said, "He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." And the house of Ahaziah had no one able to rule the kingdom.

2Chr 30:18-20 For a majority of the people, many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than as prescribed. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon everyone ¹⁹*who sets his heart to seek God*, the LORD, the God of his fathers, even though not according to the sanctuary's rules of cleanness."^a ²⁰And the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

^a Hebrew not according to the cleanness of holiness

The fact that the people were earnestly seeking God took precedence over their failure to carry out the purification rituals (cf. NSB).

2Chr 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father, and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, and the carved and the metal images.

Ps 63:1 O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

Ps 119:2, 10 Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart,  ... ¹⁰*With my whole heart I seek you*; let me not wander from your commandments!

Isa 26:9 My soul yearns for you in the night; my spirit within me earnestly seeks you. For when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

Dan 9:3 Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

‡ David resolved to seek to dwell in God's presence:

Ps 27:4 One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire^b in his temple.

^b Or meditate

David sought to have access to God's house (later the temple) and so to God's presence, for worship. God's "beauty" appears to refer to his "goodness" (GNT) and/or wonder (cf. CEV).

Seek God wholeheartedly and you will find him

Deut 4:27-29 And the LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive you. ²⁸And there you will serve gods of wood and stone, the work of human hands, that neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. ²⁹But from there you will seek the LORD your God and you will find him, if you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul. 📖

Jer 29:12-14 Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. ¹³*You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart.* ¹⁴*I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, declares the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.* 📖

1Chr 28:9 And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. 📖

2Chr 15:2-4, 12, 15 ... and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD is with you while you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. ³For a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest and without law, ⁴but when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them. 📖 ... ¹²*And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul,* 📖 ... ¹⁵*And all Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and had sought him with their whole desire, and he was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.* 📖

Isa 45:19 I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, 'Seek me in vain.' ^c I the LORD speak the truth; I declare what is right. 📖

^c Hebrew in emptiness

This implies that God does not tell us to seek him for nothing (cf. AMP); i.e. he would not tell us to do so if he could not be found.

Matt 7:7-8 Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. 📖

These verses concern persistence in prayer, but the promise "seek, and you will find" is applicable to persistently seeking God, with all one's heart.

Prov 8:17 I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me. 📖

The speaker is Wisdom personified. As with seeking God, those who sincerely seek godly wisdom will find it.

✦ Seek God's kingdom and righteousness before other things:

Matt 6:33 But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. 📖

In this context, God's "righteousness" involves "doing what God wants" (NCV™, cf. CEV, GNT), i.e. doing what is right in God's eyes. So to seek it means to seek to do what God wants. See also Pursue righteousness . . ., p. 1865.

Seeking God should be accompanied by obedience to him

2Chr 14:3-4 He took away the foreign altars and the high places and broke down the pillars and cut down the Asherim ⁴*and commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to keep the law and the commandment.* 📖

2Chr 17:3-4 The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the earlier ways of his father David. He did not seek the Baals, ⁴*but sought the God of his father and walked in his commandments*, and not according to the practices of Israel. 📖

Ps 119:2-3 Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart, ³*who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways!* 📖

Zeph 2:3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who do his just commands;^d seek righteousness; seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the anger of the LORD. 📖

^d Or who carry out his judgment

2Chr 31:21 And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, seeking his God, he did with all his heart, and prospered. 📖

This may mean that in all Hezekiah did in service and obedience to God, he in effect sought God or aspired to seek him. Alternatively it may mean that Hezekiah sought God and God's will in regard to what he did. The first possibility would be the one most pertinent to this subsection.

Ps 24:3-4, 6 Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? ⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. ... ⁶Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.^e Selah 📖

^e Septuagint, Syriac, and two Hebrew manuscripts; Masoretic Text Jacob, who seek your face

To seek God and fellowship with him (vv. 3, 6) one's life must reflect such aspects of obedience as purity and faithfulness (v. 4) – and righteousness (Isa 51:1 ↓).

Isa 51:1 Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the LORD: look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug. 📖

Hos 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap steadfast love; break up your fallow ground, for it is the time to seek the LORD, that he may come and rain righteousness upon you. 📖

Righteous living and faithful love are portrayed here as preparatory to seeking the LORD (although "steadfast love" could instead be referring to God's love). Repentance may also be in view here, with the expression "break up your fallow ground" possibly speaking of preparing oneself (primarily by repentance) to be productive and/or for blessing.

Isa 58:1-3 Cry aloud; do not hold back; lift up your voice like a trumpet; declare to my people their transgression, to the house of Jacob their sins. ²Yet they seek me daily and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that did righteousness and did not forsake the judgment of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God. ³'Why have we fasted, and you see it not? Why have we humbled ourselves, and you take no knowledge of it?' Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure,^f and oppress all your workers. 📖

^f Or pursue your own business

This passage and Hosea 5:5-6 below show that seeking God should be accompanied by obedience to him by indicating that it is futile while persisting in sin. Because of their sins (vv. 1, 3b), the people's efforts to seek God (v. 2) had been fruitless (v. 3a).

Hos 5:5-6 The pride of Israel testifies to his face;^g Israel and Ephraim shall stumble in his guilt; Judah also shall stumble with them. ⁶With their flocks and herds they shall go to seek the LORD, but they will not find him; he has withdrawn from them. 📖

^g Or in his presence

Seek God and his help through prayer and fasting

2Chr 7:14 ... if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land. 📖

Isa 26:16 O LORD, in distress they sought you; they poured out a whispered prayer when your discipline was upon them. 📖

Dan 9:3 Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 📖

2Sam 12:16 David therefore sought God on behalf of the child. And David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground. 📖

2Chr 20:2-4 Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, "A great multitude is coming against you from Edom,^h from beyond the sea; and, behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar" (that is, Engedi). ³Then Jehoshaphat was afraid and set his face to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. ⁴And Judah assembled to seek help from the LORD; from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD. 📖

^h One Hebrew manuscript; most Hebrew manuscripts Aram (Syria)

Ezra 8:21, 23 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a safe journey for ourselves, our children, and all our goods. ... ²³So we fasted and implored our God for this, and he listened to our entreaty. 📖

Blessings of seeking God

2Chr 14:7 And he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours, because we have sought the LORD our God. We have sought him, and he has given us peace on every side.” So they built and prospered.

2Chr 26:5 He [Uzziah] set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God, and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.

Ezra 8:22 For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king, “The hand of our God is for good on all who seek him, and the power of his wrath is against all who forsake him.”

Ps 24:4-6 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. ⁵*He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation.* ⁶*Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.*¹ Selah

ⁱ Septuagint, Syriac, and two Hebrew manuscripts; Masoretic Text Jacob, who seek your face

To seek God’s “face” has been equated with seeking God’s favor, but usually it probably primarily refers to seeking his “presence” or fellowship – from which would follow his favor.

Ps 27:4-6 One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquireⁱ in his temple. ⁵*For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock.* ⁶*And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.*

ⁱ Or meditate

Ps 34:4, 10 I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.  ... ¹⁰*The young lions suffer want and hunger; but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.*

The reference in v. 4 and possibly also in v. 10 is to seeking God and his help in times of need.

Ps 40:16 But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your salvation say continually, “Great is the LORD!”

Likewise Psalms 105:3 says, “... let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!” The suggestion in both verses is that seeking God leads to rejoicing in him (cf. Ps 27:6 ).

Ps 69:32 When the humble see it they will be glad; you who seek God, let your hearts revive.

God’s answering of the psalmist’s prayer for salvation (cf. v. 19) is in view. Answered prayer – particularly prayer regarding deliverance of God’s people – brings encouragement not just to those concerned, but to all who seek God.

Ps 119:2 Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart, ...

Prov 28:5 Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it completely.

Lam 3:25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him.

Hos 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap steadfast love; break up your fallow ground, for it is the time to seek the LORD, that he may come and rain righteousness upon you.

Hosea indicates that seeking God would result in God making his presence known, showering “righteousness” on his people. This “righteousness” may refer to God, in faithfulness to his promises, righteously either saving his people (cf. CEV) or showering blessings on them (cf. GNT). Alternatively it may indicate that God would make them righteous.

Amos 5:4-6 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel: “Seek me and live; ⁵but do not seek Bethel, and do not enter into Gilgal or cross over to Beersheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall come to nothing.” ⁶*Seek the LORD and live, lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, with none to quench it for Bethel, ...*

Israel is called upon to seek God in repentance so as to live, rather than face the consequences of continuing in its rebelliousness.

Matt 6:33 But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

In conjunction with seeking God, we should persistently seek his kingdom, seeking it before anything else. This would appear to encompass both seeking to enter it ourselves and seeking its advancement throughout the world. The phrase

“all these things” refers to life’s needs – in particular food, drink and clothing (cf. vv. 25-32).

‡ God has never forsaken those who seek him:

Ps 9:10 And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

Not seeking God has detrimental results

2Chr 12:14 And he did evil, for he did not set his heart to seek the LORD.

Isa 31:1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are very strong, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel or consult the LORD!

Hos 7:9-10 Strangers devour his strength, and he knows it not; gray hairs are sprinkled upon him, and he knows it not. ¹⁰The pride of Israel testifies to his face;^k yet they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him, for all this.

^k Or in his presence

Verse 10b implies that if Israel did seek God – searching for him and returning to him – then it would not suffer the problems mentioned in v. 9. It also suggests that the problems were a result of not seeking God and departing from him in the first place.

Zeph 1:4, 6 “I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off from this place the remnant of Baal and the name of the idolatrous priests along with the priests, ... ⁶those who have turned back from following the LORD, who do not seek the LORD or inquire of him.”

Zeph 3:1-2 Woe to her who is rebellious and defiled, the oppressing city! ²She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD; she does not draw near to her God.

‡ Salvation is far from those who do not seek out God’s decrees:

Ps 119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes.

Ps 73:25 Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing on earth that I desire besides you.

Isa 26:8-9 In the path of your judgments, O LORD, we wait for you; your name and remembrance are the desire of our soul. ⁹My soul yearns for you in the night; my spirit within me earnestly seeks you. For when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

Verse 8b is speaking of desiring or longing for either God (cf. GNT, NASB, NCV, NKJV) or his honor (cf. CEV, NLT) – or possibly both.

Ex 33:18 Moses said, “Please show me your glory.”

Moses desired to see God’s glory.

Matt 5:6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

1Cor 14:1, 39 Pursue love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy. ... ³⁹So, my brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

Similarly 1 Corinthians 12:31a says, “But earnestly desire the higher gifts.”

Phil 3:8-11 Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— ¹⁰that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ¹¹that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

In v. 10a, Paul speaks of wanting to know Christ and to experience the power of Christ’s resurrection in his own life and the fellowship with Christ produced by sharing in the sufferings incurred by furthering his cause. In v. 10b, “becoming like him in his death” is usually interpreted as referring to either: identification with Christ in his death, in our death to sin; or being willing to obey God to the point of death, as Christ did (cf. CEV).

1Pet 2:2 Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation—

The term “pure spiritual milk” probably denotes God’s word or truth, which God’s people are to desire to the point of craving.

Keep thinking about God and his love

Ps 16:8 I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

As reflected in the second clause, with the first clause David indicates that he continually kept himself aware of God’s presence (cf. GNT).

Ps 63:5-7 My soul will be satisfied as with fat and rich food, and my mouth will praise you with joyful lips, ⁶when I remember you upon my bed, and meditate on you in the watches of the night; ⁷for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I will sing for joy.

Ps 119:55 I remember your name in the night, O LORD, and keep your law.

Ps 27:4 One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire¹ in his temple.

David desired to persistently dwell in God’s presence, focusing on God’s “beauty” – which appears to refer to his “goodness” (GNT) or wonder (cf. CEV).

Ps 26:3 For your steadfast love is before my eyes, and I walk in your faithfulness.

Here David probably means that he intentionally kept God’s love in view. Alternatively David may mean that he was constantly aware of God’s love being shown to him.

Ps 48:9 We have thought on your steadfast love, O God, in the midst of your temple.

Ps 107:43 Whoever is wise, let him attend to these things; let them consider the steadfast love of the LORD.

The phrase “attend to these things” refers to giving attention or heed (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV) to God’s deeds for his people, which demonstrated his “steadfast love”.

Ps 145:5 On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate.

Think about Jesus Christ – and his example

- Consider and follow Jesus Christ's example in suffering . . ., p. 2008

In saying to think about Jesus, the following references appear to primarily have in view Jesus' example (Heb 3:2a; 12:2b-3).

Heb 3:1-2 Therefore, holy brothers,^m you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, ²*who was faithful to him who appointed him*, just as Moses also was faithful in all God'sⁿ house. 📖

^mOr brothers and sisters; also verse 12

ⁿ Greek his; also verses 5, 6

We should "thoughtfully and attentively" (AMP) consider Jesus and his example.

Heb 12:1-3 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ²*looking to Jesus*, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. ³*Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.* 📖

Look forward to what is to come in the afterlife . . .

Note that Colossians 3:1-3 below in Further godly things to focus on, p. 1203, also pertains to this subsection.

Rom 8:23 And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. 📖

2Cor 4:17-18 For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, ¹⁸*as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.* 📖

The phrase "eternal weight" (v. 17b) appears to be in contrast to the phrase "light momentary" (v. 17a). In v. 18, "the things that are unseen" primarily has in view the "eternal weight of glory" (v. 17b) to come.

2Cor 5:2-4, 8 For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, ³if indeed by putting it on^o we may not be found naked. ⁴For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. 📖 ... ⁸Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. 📖

^o Some manuscripts putting it off

The "heavenly dwelling" (v. 2) appears to refer to the believer's resurrection body. Paul longingly looked forward to being "clothed" with such a dwelling, when he would be "at home with the Lord" (v. 8).

Heb 11:10, 13-14, 16 For he [Abraham] was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God. 📖 ... ¹³These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. ¹⁴For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. 📖 ... ¹⁶But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city. 📖

The "city" (vv. 10, 16b; cf. Heb 13:14 ↓) – in association with the "homeland" (v. 14) and the "country" (v. 14) – can be linked with "the holy city, new Jerusalem" (Rev 21:2).

Heb 11:26 He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. 📖

Heb 13:14 For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. 📖

2Pet 3:11-13 Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, ¹²*waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God*, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! ¹³*But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.* 📖

For comment on the phrase “hastening the coming” (v. 12a), see the comment on 2Pet 3:11-12 – under Await Jesus Christ’s return – and for all that will follow, p. 1804.

Job 19:26-27 And after my skin has been thus destroyed, yet in^p my flesh I shall see God, ²⁷whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me! 📖

^p Or without

The final statement appears to be expressing a yearning or longing (cf. AMP, CEV, NCV, NIV, NKJV) for the aforementioned things to eventuate.

... Do not dwell on the past

Isa 43:18-19 Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. ¹⁹Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. 📖

The first statement (v. 18) may be speaking of Israel’s former sins and/or circumstances, meaning that they should forget these things. Instead they were to focus on God’s new work (v. 19).

Luke 9:61-62 Yet another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home.” ⁶²Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.” 📖

We must not look back to things that took precedence in the past, focussing on them to the detriment of our work for God. Even things that are genuinely important – which appear to be in view here (v. 61) – need to be made a secondary consideration if they conflict with the work of the kingdom. Note that Jesus did not advocate the shirking of family responsibilities (cf. Mark 7:9-13).

Phil 3:13-14 Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. 📖

Heb 11:15 If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. 📖

Abraham in particular is probably in view here, as an example to all believers. If he had been thinking longingly of the country he had left at God’s command he would have found a way to return. Instead he looked forward to that which God had called him (cf. v. 16).

Gen 19:17, 26 And as they brought them out, one said, “Escape for your life. Do not look back or stop anywhere in the valley. Escape to the hills, lest you be swept away.” 📖 ... ²⁶*But Lot’s wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.* 📖

Lot’s wife failed to heed the warning to not look back at the sinful city that they had left behind. Her action arguably suggests a longing for or desire to hold on to that which was to be left behind.

Further godly things to focus on

Ps 101:2a I will ponder the way that is blameless. 📖

Rom 8:5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. 📖

Phil 4:8 Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. 📖

Col 3:1-4 If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ²Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. ³For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ who is your^a life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. 📖

^a Some manuscripts our

Believers are to seek things above (v. 1), setting their minds on them (v. 2). They are to focus on both the present reality – including Christ’s authority (v. 1) – and on sharing in these things in the future (v. 4). Such a heaven and Christ centered focus leads believers to act in a way that is consistent with: heavenly priorities and goals; a life in Christ (vv. 3-4); and a future share in his glory (v. 4).

Matt 16:21-23 From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. ²²And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “Far be it from you, Lord!^r This shall never happen to you.” ²³But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance^s to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.”

^r Or “[May God be] merciful to you, Lord!”

Obviously the implication here is that we should set our minds or focus on “the things of God”, as opposed to “the things of man” (i.e. earthly or worldly considerations).

Pray for persecuted Christians

c) Meet with God and Live before Him

We are to come before God – in the sense of coming into his presence, i.e. intentionally being aware of his presence – to meet with him. Christians typically set aside some time everyday to do this, focussing fully on God. Generally this involves reading the Bible, prayer and even meditation.

Additionally, we are to constantly live before God in the sense of living in awareness of his presence, companionship, help and discernment of our lives. As such we should think, speak and act accordingly.

Prepare yourself to come before God, as shown in the OT practice of consecration

See also:

- Consecrate yourself to serve God . . ., p. 1387
- The godly, blameless and pure are accepted by God and Jesus Christ, p. 1874

To “consecrate” oneself means to set oneself apart for God or to dedicate oneself as sacred to him (cf. Consecrate yourself to serve God . . ., p. 1387; . . . Be holy and set apart, p. 1388). It is also spoken of in the OT in regard to cleansing oneself before approaching God or entering his temple. In both cases it signifies ridding oneself of all that is sinful. As such, a parallel can be drawn between the OT practice of consecration and the need for believers to rid themselves of sinful practices in order to approach God.

Ex 19:22 Also let the priests who come near to the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out against them.

1Sam 16:5 And he said, “Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice.” And he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

One needed to be consecrated in order to offer a sacrifice before God.

2Chr 5:11 And when the priests came out of the Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had consecrated themselves, without regard to their divisions, . . .

The “Holy Place” and the temple (cf. 2Chr 23:6 ↓) were places where the priests and – in the case of the temple – the people could come before God. Thus there was the need for one to be consecrated before entering them.

2Chr 23:6 Let no one enter the house of the LORD except the priests and ministering Levites. They may enter, for they are holy, but all the people shall keep the charge of the LORD.

Note that this refers to a particular situation where only the priests and Levites on duty would have been “consecrated” (GNT, NIV) at that time.

Ex 19:10-11 . . . the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments¹¹ and be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Here and in Joshua 3:5 below it is God coming to meet with the people, as opposed to them coming before him. But as this would also require the people to be in God's presence, they were likewise required to consecrate themselves.

Josh 3:5 Then Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."

Approach God . . .

Ezek 45:4 It shall be the holy portion of the land. It shall be for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and approach the LORD to minister to him, and it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

Just as the priests approached God to "minister to" him, believers should also approach him. One reason they should do so is that they also have priestly roles, such as interceding with God on behalf of others.

Ps 24:3-4 Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? ⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.

The "hill of the LORD" (v. 3) refers to Mount Zion, the place of God's holy sanctuary, which signified his presence amongst his people in the OT. This sanctuary was firstly the tabernacle and later the temple. These verses suggest that not only may God's righteous people approach him, but it is desirable and appropriate that we do so.

Ps 132:7 "Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!"

According to some commentators "his footstool" refers to the ark of the covenant, but it may more generally be referring to the temple – which contained the ark – as the place of earthly worship of him. The temple was the primary place for one to approach God, as reflected by most of the verses in this subsection.

Jer 26:2 Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah that come to worship in the house of the LORD all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not hold back a word.

Luke 18:10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

Acts 3:1 Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.^t ^t That is, 3 P.M.

Eph 3:11-12 This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him.

This speaks of "access" (v. 12) into God's presence. As per the comment on Psalm 24:3-4 above, this suggests that we should access God's presence.

. . . Draw near to God

See also:

- God is near us in hard times and when we pray, p. 1975

Heb 7:18-19, 25 For on the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness ¹⁹(for the law made nothing perfect); but on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.  ... ²⁵Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost^u those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

^u That is, completely; or at all times

The "better hope" (v. 19) alludes to Jesus Christ's priesthood and the new covenant, by which we are able to draw near to God (cf. Heb 10:19-22 ↓). The Greek verb translated as "draw near" (v. 25) speaks of constantly coming to worship God, through Jesus Christ (cf. NBC).

Heb 10:19-22 Therefore, brothers,^v since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

^v Or brothers and sisters

The earlier reference to entering the holy places (v. 19) suggests that in speaking of drawing near to God (v. 22) the writer has in view believers coming into God's presence to meet with him – as opposed to one coming near to God in the sense of beginning a right relationship with God. The “full assurance of faith” (v. 22) appears to refer to a full assurance “that comes from having faith” (CEV).

James 4:8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 📖

This is an appeal to wayward believers to draw near to or come back to God in repentance, rather than simply encouragement to draw near to God so as to meet with him. But even so it is somewhat applicable to the latter.

Ps 73:28 But for me it is good to be near God; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all your works. 📖

✦ Condemnation of ones who rebel and do not draw near to God:

Zeph 3:1-2 Woe to her who is rebellious and defiled, the oppressing city! ²She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD; she does not draw near to her God. 📖

Deut 31:11 ... when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. 📖

Just as the Israelites at times together came before God, believers can both individually and corporately come before God, to meet with him.

Judg 20:26 Then all the people of Israel, the whole army, went up and came to Bethel and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. 📖

We ought to come before God and meet with him when facing hard times (cf. 2Chr 20:13 ↓; 2Ki 19:14 ↓), as well as a matter of course.

2Chr 20:13 Meanwhile all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children. 📖

2Ki 19:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD. 📖

Deut 12:18 ... but you shall eat them before the LORD your God in the place that the LORD your God will choose, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your towns. And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you undertake. 📖

For their festivals, the Israelites were to come before God and celebrate in his presence (cf. 2Sam 6:5, 21 ↓), at the designated centre of worship, which later would be in Jerusalem.

2Sam 6:5, 21 And David and all the house of Israel were making merry before the LORD, with songs^w and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. 📖 ...
²¹*And David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD—and I will make merry before the LORD.* 📖

^w Septuagint, 1 Chronicles 13:8; Hebrew fir trees

This clearly demonstrates that being before God involves not only times of being quiet and solemn – as is also reflected in Deuteronomy 12:18 above.

Ps 63:2 So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and glory. 📖

Here and in 16:11 below David speaks of meeting with or being with God, with a heightened sense of God's presence.

Ps 16:11 You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore. 📖

Note that being in God's presence in the afterlife is possibly in view here.

✦ The psalmist's yearning to come before God in his temple:

Ps 84:1-2, 10 How lovely is your dwelling place, O LORD of hosts! ²My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the LORD; my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God. 📖 ... ¹⁰*For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.* 📖

Continue to live before God, in his presence . . .

See also:

The references amongst the following verses to dwelling in God's temple, in his presence, involve more than just simply being there. They also imply interaction with God, in particular being in regular communion and fellowship with him – and so are applicable to believers as they seek to live as such.

Isa 23:18b It will not be stored or hoarded, but her merchandise will supply abundant food and fine clothing for those who dwell before the LORD.

Ps 15:1-2 O LORD, who shall sojourn in your tent? Who shall dwell on your holy hill? ²He who walks blamelessly and does what is right and speaks truth in his heart; ...

Ps 27:4 One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire^b in his temple.

- ^b Or meditate

Ps 84:4 Blessed are those who dwell in your house, ever singing your praise! Selah

Ps 91:1 He who dwells in a the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

Ps 92:12-13 The righteous flourish like the palm tree and grow like a cedar in Lebanon. ¹³*They are planted in the house of the LORD; they flourish in the courts of our God*.

Verse 13 indicates that the righteous live in fellowship with God, in which they “flourish” (cf. BBC).

Luke 24:52-53 And they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy,⁵³and were continually in the temple blessing God.

Acts 23:1 And looking intently at the council, Paul said, “Brothers, I have lived my life before God in all good conscience up to this day.”

Ps 43:3 Send out your light and your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling!

The psalmist's plea to be brought into God's presence is indicative of his desire to live in or at least be in God's presence. The term “holy hill” refers to Mount Zion. Note that this verse is part of a prayer for deliverance.

Ps 90:1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place^c in all generations.

^c Some Hebrew manuscripts (compare Septuagint) our refuge

The reference is apparently primarily to God being the people's refuge (cf. AMP). It is also indicative of the people living in his presence, under his protection.

. . . “Walk” with God

See also:

- Gen 17:1 ; 1Ki 8:25 ; 1Ki 9:4

To “walk” with God involves living before him. It suggests a personal and interactive relationship, inclusive of such things as prayer and trust in God.

Mic 6:8 He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness,^d and to walk humbly with your God?

Ps 89:15 Blessed are the people who know the festal shout, who walk, O LORD, in the light of your face, ...

Walking with God entails walking in the spiritual light of his “presence” (CEV, NCV, NIV, NLT) and “kindness” (GNT).

✦ Cling to God:

Ps 63:8 My soul clings to you; your right hand upholds me.

Act before God – in awareness of his presence and scrutiny

See also:

- Note: References to God’s or Jesus Christ’s presence and approval regarding a matter, p. 1628

Verses that speak of acting “before” God, generally suggest that the action/s should be done in awareness of God’s presence and scrutiny.

Gen 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless, ...”

‡ Hebrew El Shaddai

In contrast to the phrase “walk with God” (the subject of the previous subsection), most references to walking “before” God (cf. 1Ki 8:25 ↓; 1Ki 9:4 ↓) probably refer more to obeying him than fellowship with him – although they are applicable to and even inclusive of the latter. Note that “walk before God” in Psalms 56:13 in the previous subsection, probably has the fellowship aspect foremost in view.

1Ki 8:25 Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father what you have promised him, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons pay close attention to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.’

1Ki 9:4 And as for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, with integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you, and keeping my statutes and my rules, ...

Note that in addition to the above verses, other references to walking “before” God are: “The LORD, before whom I have walked” (Gen 24:40); and “The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked” (Gen 48:15).

Deut 6:25 And it will be righteousness for us, if we are careful to do all this commandment before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us.

Deut 18:13 You shall be blameless before the LORD your God, ...

2Chr 27:6 So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God.

2Cor 2:17 For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God’s word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

2Cor 4:2 But we have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways. We refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God’s word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to everyone’s conscience in the sight of God.

Paul in effect claims to “tell the truth before God” (NLT; cf. 2Cor 12:19 ↓), commending himself to “everyone’s sense of what is right and wrong” (NirV®). As with 2:17 above and 12:19 below, this implies that Paul spoke not only in awareness of God’s presence, but also his scrutiny.

2Cor 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ, and all for your upbuilding, beloved.

Num 32:20-22, 27 So Moses said to them, “If you will do this, if you will take up arms to go before the LORD for the war, and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies from before him and the land is subdued before the LORD; then after that you shall return and be free of obligation to the LORD and to Israel, and this land shall be your possession before the LORD. ... ²⁷*but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord orders.*”

The references relating to going into battle “before the LORD” imply not only recognition of God’s presence and scrutiny or authorization, but also reliance on him. Note that the references to “before the LORD” in v. 22 appear to speak of God’s witness to and authorization of the outcome of the Israelites’ action.

✦ Jesus Christ's exhortation to the church in Sardis:

Rev 3:2 Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God.

Jesus Christ exhorts the church members to ensure that they do all that they should in God's eyes.

In verses included in this section, occurrences of the term "knowledge of" in relation to God (or Christ), have been interpreted as encompassing knowing God in a personal sense, rather than just simply knowing about him. (This is reflected in some of the comments.) Moreover, knowing God in a personal sense is intertwined with knowing about God. For it is in coming to know more about God that leads us to respond to and interact with God – and thus develop a personal relationship with him.

Know God and Jesus Christ

Jer 9:23-24 Thus says the LORD: "Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches, ²⁴but let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the LORD."

Verse 24 may be presenting two things to boast about. Firstly, that one understands and knows God; and secondly, that he is the LORD who exercises love, justice and righteousness on earth. Alternatively the second thing may be intended as an extension of the first – i.e. the verse may be speaking of boasting that one knows that God is the LORD who exercises such wonderful characteristics.

1Jn 2:13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father.

John wrote this letter to believers partly because they knew Jesus Christ and the Father, one implication of which is that believers know – or should know – Jesus Christ and God. Note that the reference to "fathers", "young men" and "children" are interpreted by some to denote various stages of spiritual maturity or possibly chronological age groupings, but John may just be using these three terms to emphasize that he is referring to all of his readers. As such the achievements attributed to each of the three groups would be applicable to all of them.

1Chr 28:9 And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever.

Hos 6:6 For I desire steadfast love^h and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

^h Septuagint mercy

Such "knowledge of God" (cf. Hos 4:1 ↓) may well refer to or be inclusive of knowing God (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

Hos 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O children of Israel, for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or steadfast love, and no knowledge of God in the land; ...

The Israelites are censured here for having no "knowledge of God [from personal experience with Him]" (AMP; cf. NASB, NCV, NKJV, NRSV).

✦ Learn about Jesus Christ:

Eph 4:19-21 They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. ²⁰But that is not the way you learned Christ!—²¹assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, ...

Verse 21 describes what was presumably the way that they had “learned Christ” (v. 20).

1Jn 2:3-4 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. ⁴Whoever says “I know him” but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, ...

Ex 33:13 Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your ways, that I may know you in order to find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people.

Moses’ request to be shown God’s ways or “plans” (CEV, GNT, NCV, cf. v. 12), leading to knowing God better, was based on him having found favor with God. A key aspect of finding favor with God is obedience to him – reflecting the importance of obedience for knowing God.

Col 1:10 ... so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

This appears to indicate that living a life worthy of and pleasing to the Lord, bearing fruit, leads to one “increasing in the knowledge of God” – or coming to “know God better and better” (NLT, cf. GNT). Note that alternatively some interpret the final phrase as referring to growing (spiritually) in or by the knowledge of God.

John 8:55 But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word.

This is not necessarily indicating that keeping God’s word leads to one knowing God, but it does at least associate them.

John 14:21 Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.

Jesus Christ will reveal himself or make himself known to those who obey his commands.

Knowing God is linked with loving and caring for others

1Jn 4:7-8 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

Jer 22:16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Is not this to know me? declares the LORD.

Knowing God is manifested in caring for the poor and needy, amongst other things. Note that this verse may be implying that one who knows God reflects his character and deeds.

Knowing God and Jesus Christ aids godly living

The Greek for “knowledge” indicates a complete or additional knowledge, here implying a very close, personal relationship with God. (BKC)

1Chr 28:9 And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever.

This suggests that knowing God encourages one to serve God.

Ps 9:10 And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

Knowing God fosters trust or faith in him, as reflected in 2 Timothy 1:12 immediately below.

2Tim 1:12 ... which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me.^k

^k Or what I have entrusted to him; Greek my deposit

Dan 11:32 He shall seduce with flattery those who violate the covenant, but the people who know their God shall stand firm and take action.

This verse is referring to the evil ruler Antiochus Epiphanes, but is applicable to resisting any forces opposing God and his people.

Gal 4:8 Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods.

This suggests that knowing God leads to freedom from ungodly things, such as idols (which are in view here).

2Pet 2:20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

Although speaking of false teachers who had fallen away from the faith, the verse still does indicate that knowing Jesus Christ enables one to escape “the defilements of the world”.

1Jn 4:6 We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

This is speaking of recognizing teachers as true or false, depending on whether they listened to the apostles. It can also be applied more generally. For people who know God recognize and listen to true authority – notably that based on the apostolic writings of the NT.

2Pet 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

Believers grow spiritually through Christ’s grace and knowledge of him. As noted earlier, the latter probably encompasses personal knowledge of him or knowing him personally.

Col 1:10 ... so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

As indicated earlier in Knowing God and Jesus Christ is linked to obeying their commands..., the final clause is often interpreted as referring to growing to know God better or increasing in knowledge of him. But because it can alternatively be understood as speaking of “steadily growing and increasing in and by the knowledge of God” (AMP), it arguably pertains to this topic.

Eph 4:11-13 And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds^l and teachers,^m ¹²to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³*until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood,ⁿ to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ...*

^l Or pastors

^m Or the shepherd-teachers

ⁿ Greek to a full-grown man

Knowledge of Christ is important for unity amongst Christians. The verse also suggests that such knowledge leads to the spiritual maturity of the body of Christ (cf. v. 12). As such it is vital for the spiritual growth of believers – both individually and corporately.

Eph 3:17-19 ...so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸*may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,* ¹⁹*and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.*

This is speaking of knowing the love of Jesus Christ rather than Jesus Christ himself, the theme of this subsection, but obviously the former is one aspect of the latter. Knowing Christ’s love develops one’s spiritual growth to the extent that one “may be filled with all the fullness of God” (v. 19b) – which appears to be referring to believers growing in God’s communicable attributes.

John 17:26 I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.

The last phrase of the verse speaks of the intimate relationship the disciples had with Jesus Christ (cf. Phil 3:8 ) which, like the aforementioned love of God, resulted from Christ making God known to them. One can thus infer from this verse that the more one knows God, the more one experiences God’s love and such a relationship with Jesus Christ. (For comment on “that the love with which you have loved me may be in them”, see John 17:26 – under ... God enables his people to love, p. 880.)

Prov 9:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.

Knowing God brings spiritual understanding (cf. GNT, NCV).

Further blessings of knowing God and Jesus Christ

John 17:3 And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. 📖

Eternal life involves knowing God and Jesus Christ in an ongoing, progressive, intimate relationship. While this is not explicitly saying that eternal life is a blessing resulting from knowing God and Jesus Christ, it certainly at least associates knowing them with eternal life.

Phil 3:8-11 Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ⁹ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—¹⁰that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death,¹¹that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. 📖

Paul appears to associate knowing Jesus Christ with gaining him (v. 8b) and being “found in him” (v. 9a). Thus it can be inferred that these – along with the associated righteousness (v. 9) – are in a sense blessings of knowing Jesus Christ. Additionally, in vv. 10-11, the concepts immediately following Paul’s declaration that he wants to know Christ (v. 10a) are understood as an elaboration on what knowing Christ involves or leads to. For comment on them, see Phil 3:8-11 – under Note: Desire God and things of God, p. 1200.

2Pet 1:2 May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. 📖

Ps 36:10 Oh, continue your steadfast love to those who know you, and your righteousness to the upright of heart! 📖

The implication here is that God does do this – i.e. consistently shows his love to those who know him.

Ps 91:14 Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows my name. 📖

✦ Those who do not know God will be punished when Jesus Christ’s returns:

Similarly, on judgment day Jesus Christ will reject those whom he “never knew”, as indicated in Matthew 7:22-23 – “On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’²³And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.’”

1Sam 2:12-17 Now the sons of Eli were worthless men. They did not know the LORD. ¹³The custom of the priests with the people was that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest’s servant^r would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand, ¹⁴and he would thrust it into the pan or kettle or cauldron or pot. All that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. This is what they did at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there. ¹⁵Moreover, before the fat was burned, the priest’s servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, “Give meat for the priest to roast, for he will not accept boiled meat from you but only raw.” ¹⁶And if the man said to him, “Let them burn the fat first, and then take as much as you wish,” he would say, “No, you must give it now, and if not, I will take it by force.” ¹⁷*Thus the sin of the young men was very great in the sight of the LORD, for the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt.*

Prayer is one of the greatest privileges and one of the greatest responsibilities of being a Christian. It is also one of the main sources of vitality for our lives as Christians, and is critical to our effectiveness in our endeavors for God's kingdom. At the end of our lives, quite possibly many of us will see prayer as the main thing that we should have done more often. As the saying goes, "Life is short; pray hard."

a) The Importance of Prayer

Prayer is portrayed as an offering to God and Jesus Christ

In being portrayed as an offering to God, the importance of prayer is shown in it being depicted as honoring and desirable to God, amongst other things.

Ps 141:2 Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice!

Acts 10:4 And he stared at him in terror and said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God."

Cornelius's prayers and alms are portrayed as being akin to sacrifices offered up ("have ascended") to God. The last clause implies that they have and/or would be remembered by God.

Rev 8:3-4 And another angel came and stood at the altar with a golden censer, and he was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar before the throne, ⁴*and the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, rose before God* from the hand of the angel.

Incense was a key aspect to a number of OT offerings.

Rev 5:8 And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

Particularly with the correlation of the prayers with incense and in light of 8:3-4 above, this also appears to portray prayer as an offering – in this case to Jesus Christ.

Prayer is very powerful . . .

James 5:16-18 Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.^a ¹⁷Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸*Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit.*

^a Or The effective prayer of a righteous person has great power

Mark 9:28-29 And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" ²⁹*And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."*^b

^b Some manuscripts add and fasting

The power of prayer is such that demons can be driven out with it – in fact some demons cannot be driven out without it.

John 14:12-14 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. ¹³*Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do*, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴*If you ask me^c anything in my name, I will do it.*

^c Some manuscripts omit me

The promise that the disciples would do even greater things than what Jesus had been doing (v. 12) appears to be linked to prayer (vv. 13-14). As such it is a tremendous witness to the power and importance of prayer. (What the apostles would later accomplish, as recorded in Acts, is evidence of the validity of the promise.)

Acts 9:40 But Peter put them all outside, and knelt down and prayed; and turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up.

This and 28:8 below demonstrate the incredible power of prayer or, more precisely, the power of God accessed through prayer.

Acts 28:8 It happened that the father of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery. And Paul visited him and prayed, and putting his hands on him healed him.

Isa 37:21-22 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: "She despises you, she scorns you— the virgin daughter of Zion; she wags her head behind you— the daughter of Jerusalem.

Because Hezekiah prayed to God concerning Sennacherib and the Assyrian siege of Jerusalem, God promised to take action against Sennacherib, as poetically indicated in v. 22b. Consequently he delivered Jerusalem (cf. vv. 36-38). Note that the clause "she wags her head behind you" (v. 22) likely speaks of the people of Jerusalem scoffing at Sennacherib and his army fleeing (cf. NCV, NIV, NLT).

... If we ask God for things, he will give or do them

- Believe and do not doubt that what you ask will be granted, p. 1228
- e) Epilogue: God's Response to Requests, p. 1229

The tremendous promises of answered prayer in this subsection are obviously not an automatic guarantee that every request will be granted. Amongst other things (cf. d\) Making Requests, p. 1224), such prayer must be consistent with God and Jesus Christ's purpose and will (cf. 1Jn 5:14-15 ), which is largely what is meant by asking "in Jesus' name". (See the introductory comment on Ask for things in Jesus Christ's "name", p. 1225.) Nevertheless, these wonderful promises should greatly encourage us to pray fervently and persistently.

Matt 7:7-11 Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. ⁹Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? ¹¹If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

As with "ask", the terms "seek" and "knock" are references to prayer. The use of them along with "ask" is to emphasize the need for the listeners to persevere in prayer.

Matt 18:19-20 Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.

As indicated by the preceding verses (cf. vv. 15-18), the immediate reference is to prayer regarding an unrepentant brother who has sinned against you. However the promise here (v. 19) would appear to be applicable to any request consistent with coming together in Jesus Christ's name (v. 20) and so to furthering his objectives.

Matt 21:22 And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith.

John 16:24 Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

1Jn 5:14-15 And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. ¹⁵And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him.

✦ The apostles gave a very high priority to prayer:

Acts 6:4 But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.

We help others by praying for them

Rom 15:30 I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ...

2Cor 1:10-11 He delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again. ¹¹*You also must help us by prayer, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us through the prayers of many.*

Phil 1:18b-19 Yes, and I will rejoice, ¹⁹*for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, ...*

Philem 1:22 At the same time, prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that through your prayers I will be graciously given to you.

Acts 12:5-7, 11 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church. ⁶Now when Herod was about to bring him out, on that very night, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries before the door were guarding the prison. ⁷And behold, an angel of the Lord stood next to him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, “Get up quickly.” And the chains fell off his hands.  ... ¹¹When Peter came to himself, he said, “Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.”

This suggests that the church’s prayer for Peter was a key factor in his deliverance.

We are called on to pray

The fact that we are called on and even commanded to pray, points to the importance of prayer.

1Thes 5:16-18 Rejoice always, ¹⁷*pray without ceasing*, ¹⁸*give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.*

Quite likely the remark in v. 18b applies also to the directions in the preceding verses (vv. 16-17), as well as to that immediately preceding it (v. 18a).

Matt 6:6 But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Luke 18:1 And he told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart.

Rom 12:12 Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.

Eph 6:16-18 In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; ¹⁷and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, ¹⁸*praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, ...*

Col 4:2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.

1Thes 5:25 Brothers, pray for us.

To pray “before” God involves being mindful of his presence as one prays.

2Sam 7:18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD and said, “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?”

David went into “the Tent of the Lord’s presence” (GNT). The sacred ark of the covenant, which signified God’s presence, was in David’s time enclosed in an inner section of this tent and then later in the temple. To pray even in the outer sections of these places was indicative of praying before God, in his presence (cf. 2Chr 6:24 ↓).

Approach God with confidence

- Believe and do not doubt that what you ask will be granted, p. 1228

We are to approach God with confidence both in regard to him receiving us and to him hearing our prayers.

Eph 3:11-12 This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him.

This speaks of “access” (v. 12) into God’s presence, with prayer quite possibly being primarily in view.

Heb 4:15-16 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

The phrase “draw near to the throne of grace” is probably referring to approaching God, to whom we can come because of our high priest (v. 15; cf. Heb 10:19-22 ↓). But possibly it could instead be referring to approaching Jesus Christ, the high priest who is able to “sympathize with our weaknesses”. Alternatively, the writer may in fact not be attempting to distinguish between God and Jesus Christ.

Heb 10:19-22 Therefore, brothers,^d since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

^d Or brothers and sisters

The reference to Jesus’ body as “the curtain” (v. 20), is drawing a parallel between Jesus’ death which opened a way for believers to confidently enter into God’s presence, and the curtain which the high priest went through to enter the Most Holy Place of God’s presence in the temple. This link was emphatically affirmed by what took place when Jesus died – “And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.” (Matt 27:51) This event symbolically pronounced that there is no longer any barrier to people themselves directly entering into God’s presence. Because of what our “great priest” (v. 21) has done, this privilege is no longer confined to just the high priest, nor do people need to have a human priest make representations to God on their behalf.

1Jn 3:18-22 Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. ¹⁹By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; ²⁰for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. ²¹Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; ²²and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.

By loving each other with actions and in truth we know that we belong to the truth, and set our hearts at rest in God's presence (vv. 18-19). As such we can have confidence before God when praying to him because we obey and please him.

1Jn 5:14 And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us.

✦ No one would dare of themselves to approach God:

Jer 30:21 Their prince shall be one of themselves; their ruler shall come out from their midst; I will make him draw near, and he shall approach me, for who would dare of himself to approach me? declares the LORD.

^f Or fatherhood; the Greek word patria is closely related to the word for Father in verse 14

Kneeling in prayer – “fall to my knees and pray” (NLT) – is indicative of reverence for God, and submission to him. See Postures and gestures used in prayer, p. 1223.

1Chr 17:25 For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. Therefore your servant has found courage to pray before you.

That David needed courage to pray to God, reflects the awe he held for God and presumably the reverence in which he prayed.

Ecl 5:1-2, 7 ^g Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. To draw near to listen is better than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they are doing evil. ^{2h} Be not rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be hasty to utter a word before God, for God is in heaven and you are on earth. Therefore let your words be few.  ... ⁷For when dreams increase and words grow many, there is vanity;ⁱ but God is the one you must fear.

^g Ch 4:17 in Hebrew

^h Ch 5:1 in Hebrew

ⁱ Or For when dreams and vanities increase, words also grow many

The context involves approaching God, with vows being primarily in view (cf. vv. 3-6). Quite possibly “dreams” alludes to foolish or self-centered vows or prayers. As reflected in v. 3, the verse is saying that like much dreaming, many words are meaningless in God's presence (cf. NCV). Rather, when in God's presence one should have an overriding sense of awe and so fear and reverence of God (v. 7b), as reflected by the tone of vv. 1-2.

. . . and humble yourself before God

2Chr 33:12-13 And when he was in distress, he entreated the favor of the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. ¹³*He prayed to him*, and God was moved by his entreaty and heard his plea and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

Ezra 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a safe journey for ourselves, our children, and all our goods.

Dan 10:12 Then he said to me, “Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words.

This appears to be referring to Daniel consistently being humble before God, not only when praying but obviously inclusive of it.

Gen 18:27-28 Abraham answered and said, “Behold, I have undertaken to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. ²⁸*Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking. Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?”* And he said, “I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.”

Abraham's words in v.27 imply humility, in making his request before God (v. 28b) – as do those of the centurion in making his request to Jesus below in Luke 7:6-7.

Deut 9:18-19 Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin that you had committed, in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke him to anger. ¹⁹For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure that the LORD bore against you, so that he was ready to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also.

Moses in effect humbled himself before God, in prayer (v. 19b), by falling prostrate before him and fasting (cf. Ezra 8:21 ↑) for forty days and forty nights (v. 18).

✦ The centurion's humble appeal to Jesus:

Luke 7:6-7 And Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. ⁷Therefore I did not presume to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed.

Pray to God as a caring father

1Pet 1:17 And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, ...

Matt 6:6-9 But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. ⁷"And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. ⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. ⁹Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. ^j

^j Or Let your name be kept holy, or Let your name be treated with reverence

Matt 7:9-11 Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? ¹¹If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Having a holy and loving Father in heaven should inspire us to make requests of him, doing so in awareness of him being such a Father. Note that the term "evil" (v. 11) is used here in a relative sense, in comparison to God and his standards, rather than in a general sense.

Luke 22:41-42 And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, ⁴²saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

John 11:41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me.

John 15:16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

Pray in the Holy Spirit

See also:

- Worship God in spirit and by the Holy Spirit, p. 1346

Being indwelt by the Holy Spirit, believers are to pray "in the Spirit". As such we are to consciously rely on the Holy Spirit's help, to empower and guide us in our prayers.

Eph 6:16-18 In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; ¹⁷and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, ¹⁸praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, ...

Jude 1:20-21 But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life.

✦ The Holy Spirit helps us in prayer:

Rom 8:26-27 Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. ²⁷And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because^k the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

^k Or that

This appears to be speaking of the Holy Spirit helping believers (v. 26a) while they pray (v. 26b). As such, the Holy Spirit overcomes their ignorance as to what to pray for by interceding on their behalf. This action of the Holy Spirit has been linked with people praying in the Spirit. See also the introductory comment on Worship God in spirit and by the Holy Spirit, p. 1346. Note that “with groanings” (v. 26) is unlikely a reference to the gift of tongues.

Note: It is vital for prayer that we live righteously . . .

Ps 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

Calling on God “in truth” may be referring to praying with integrity, implying righteousness – the reason for its inclusion here. However, more precisely, it may well be speaking of praying with sincerity (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT). The two alternatives are not unrelated.

Prov 15:8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him.

Prov 15:29 The LORD is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous.

2Tim 2:22 So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

Note that “call on the Lord” is not necessarily referring specifically to prayer here, although it would be inclusive of it or at least applicable to it.

James 5:16 *Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.*¹

¹ Or The effective prayer of a righteous person has great power

1Pet 3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.

1Pet 4:7 The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers.

. . . and so it is vital for prayer that we act rightly towards others

Isa 58:3-4 ‘Why have we fasted, and you see it not? Why have we humbled ourselves, and you take no knowledge of it?’ Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure,^m and oppress all your workers. ⁴Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with a wicked fist. Fasting like yours this day will not make your voice to be heard on high.

^mOr pursue your own business

Note that fasting and humbling oneself are being spoken of as being done in association with prayer.

Isa 58:9-10 Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, ‘Here I am.’ If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, ¹⁰if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday.

Mark 11:25 And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.”ⁿ

ⁿ Some manuscripts add verse 26: But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses

Holding something against someone betrays a lack of grace and is incompatible with both what God wants us to be and to his own character, and so is a barrier to fellowship with him and prayer to him. Furthermore, if we want God to treat us graciously, we then must in turn treat others as such. Note that similarly in Matthew 5:23-24 Jesus says that before making an offering to God, first be reconciled to any brother (or sister) with something against you – “So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.”

Acts 10:1-4 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Cohort, ²a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms generously to the people, and prayed continually to God.

³About the ninth hour of the day^o he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God come in and say to him, “Cornelius.” ⁴And he stared at him in terror and said, “What is it, Lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God.”

^o That is, 3 P.M.

Cornelius’s generosity to the poor (and his devoutness) went “hand in hand” with and in a sense supplemented his prayers.

1Tim 3:8 I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling; ...

1Pet 3:7 Likewise, husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way, showing honor to the woman as the weaker vessel, since they are heirs with you^p of the grace of life, so that your prayers may not be hindered.

^p Some manuscripts since you are joint heirs

‡ However, requests should not be made on the basis of any righteousness of our own, but on God’s mercy:

Dan 9:18 O my God, incline your ear and hear. Open your eyes and see our desolations, and the city that is called by your name. For we do not present our pleas before you because of our righteousness, but because of your great mercy.

Daniel may be referring to his people’s great lack of righteousness, rather than implying that whatever degree of righteousness one might have is no basis on which to make requests of God. However, even so, his words are very much applicable to the latter. For whatever level of righteousness we might display in our own lives is in itself far short of what God requires of us and of what would be needed to impose on his will.

Acts 1:14 All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.^t

^t Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God’s family, the church; also verse 15

Acts 2:42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Spend long periods alone in prayer – like Jesus did

See also:

- Pray together, p. 1351

Matt 14:23 And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, ...

Mark 1:35-37 And rising very early in the morning, while it was still dark, he departed and went out to a desolate place, and there he prayed. ³⁶And Simon and those who were with him searched for him, ³⁷and they found him and said to him, “Everyone is looking for you.”

The fact that he rose (to go out to pray) very early and apparently continued until he had been missed and eventually found by the disciples (cf. vv. 36-37), implies that Jesus spent a considerable amount of time praying, alone.

Luke 5:16 But he would withdraw to desolate places and pray.

Luke 6:12 In these days he went out to the mountain to pray, and all night he continued in prayer to God.

Luke 21:37 And every day he was teaching in the temple, but at night he went out and lodged on the mount called Olivet.

Jesus probably spent nights in this way so that he could pray for an extended time alone.

Keep alert to pray

Eph 6:18 ... praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, ...

Col 4:2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.

We are to devote ourselves to prayer, “keeping alert in it” (NASB; cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

1Pet 4:7 The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers.

In order to pray we must “keep sound minded and self-restrained and alert” (AMP).

Matt 26:40-41 And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, “So, could you not watch with me one hour? ⁴¹*Watch and pray* that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

In light of the reference to keeping watch with him (v. 40), Jesus’ subsequent exhortation to watch – and pray – probably has watching out for imminent danger primarily in view. Nevertheless it still implies that his weary disciples needed to keep alert to pray (cf. NLT).

Mark 13:33 Be on guard, keep awake.^u For you do not know when the time will come.

^u Some manuscripts add and pray

Here and in Luke 21:36 below, “awake” has the sense “alert” (cf. GNT, NASB, NIV, NLT, NRSV). The rendering in the text note suggests that we need to be alert in prayer (cf. AMP, NKJV).

Luke 21:36 But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.

Note: Do not pray for show and do not babble on Matt 6:5-8 And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

We should pray in secret to God “who is in secret” (v. 6), rather than pray publicly to be seen by the public.

Mark 12:38-40 And in his teaching he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes and like greetings in the marketplaces ³⁹and have the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, ⁴⁰who devour widows’ houses and *for a pretense make long prayers. Ask for things in Jesus Christ's "name"

- d) Epilogue: God's People Relate to God through Jesus Christ, p. 795
- ... Do God's work in the "name" of Jesus Christ, p. 1418

In Jewish thought, a person's name represented or embodied their whole person – including their nature, authority and purpose/s. As such, to ask in Jesus Christ's "name" is to do so in accordance with all that his name signifies. It is prayer that is compatible with Jesus Christ himself and his purposes – and made on his authority (cf. NIV, ZBC).

When praying, people often use the phrase "in Jesus Christ's name" (or "in Jesus' name") to signify that they are asking for something in Jesus Christ's "name". The usage of the phrase does not by itself mean that the prayer is necessarily in accordance with Jesus Christ's "name". Along with being conscious of and acknowledging Jesus Christ's authority and role in our making requests to God, the content of the prayer is also at issue. Thus asking for things in Jesus Christ's "name" concerns both how we ask and what we ask.

Bear in mind that the deeper one's relationship with Jesus Christ becomes, the better-equipped one becomes to make requests of God in Jesus Christ's "name". (See also the introductory comment on God's people ask the Father for things in Jesus Christ's "name", p. 798.)

John 14:13-14 Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴If you ask me^z anything in my name, I will do it. ☞

^z Some manuscripts omit me

John 15:16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. ☞

Notice that the promise in the last part of the verse follows on from the presumption that those asking have been bearing fruit, fulfilling Jesus Christ's purposes in carrying out their appointed tasks.

John 16:23-24, 26 In that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. ²⁴Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full. ☞ ... ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; ... ☞

"In that day" (vv. 23, 26) refers to the time following Jesus' ascension and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost – inclusive of the present age. The second statement in v. 26, probably means that we are able to ask God directly, in Jesus Christ's name; Jesus does not have to ask for us.

Matt 18:19-20 Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them. ☞

Coming together in Jesus Christ's name (v. 20) to pray (v. 19a) gives assurance of Jesus Christ's presence (v. 20b), even his participation in and sanction of the prayers. Thus it engenders prayer that is in accordance with his "name", effectively praying in his "name".

✦ Give thanks for things in Jesus Christ's "name":

Eph 5:18-20 And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, ²⁰*giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ...* ☞

Ask earnestly . . .

Ps 119:58, 145 I entreat your favor with all my heart; be gracious to me according to your promise. ☞ ... ¹⁴⁵*With my whole heart I cry; answer me, O LORD! I will keep your statutes.* ☞

Dan 9:3 Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. ☞

Wearing sackcloth and ashes was primarily a sign of sorrow, but it also – along with his fasting – reflects the intensity of Daniel's prayer.

Mark 5:22-23 Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and seeing him, he fell at his feet ²³and implored him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live." ☞

Perhaps this is not a prayer as such, but obviously it is still an example of making an earnest request to Jesus or God.

Fasting promotes and is indicative of earnestness in prayer (as clearly reflected in some of the following verses). For when we fast, the ache and craving of our hunger brings an earnestness and intensity to our prayers. In addition, our hunger serves as a persistent reminder to pray.

Note that the references to prayer in the following passages are not all explicitly regarding making requests, but in most at least it appears likely that requests were involved.

Judg 20:26-28 Then all the people of Israel, the whole army, went up and came to Bethel and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. ²⁷*And the people of Israel inquired of the LORD* (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, ²⁸and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, “Shall we go out once more to battle against our brothers, the people of Benjamin, or shall we cease?” And the LORD said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into your hand.”

2Sam 12:16 David therefore sought God on behalf of the child. And David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground.

In addition to fasting, David also expressed his earnestness in seeking God’s mercy for his sick child by spending the nights lying on the ground. Note that David’s request was in the face of God’s ordained judgment on him (cf. v. 14) and it was not granted (cf. v. 18).

2Chr 20:2-3 Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, “A great multitude is coming against you from Edom,^c from beyond the sea; and, behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar” (that is, Engedi). ³*Then Jehoshaphat was afraid and set his face to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.*

^c One Hebrew manuscript; most Hebrew manuscripts Aram (Syria)

Ezra 8:21, 23 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from him a safe journey for ourselves, our children, and all our goods.  ... ²³*So we fasted and implored our God for this, and he listened to our entreaty.*

Neh 1:4 As soon as I heard these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days, and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Est 4:16 “Go, gather all the Jews to be found in Susa, and hold a fast on my behalf, and do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my young women will also fast as you do. Then I will go to the king, though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish.”

Although not mentioned, presumably prayer is in view.

Jonah 3:7-8 And he issued a proclamation and published through Nineveh, “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not feed or drink water, ⁸*but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them call out mightily to God.* Let everyone turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.

Mark 9:28-29 And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” ²⁹And he said to them, “This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer.”^d

^d Some manuscripts add and fasting

The text note indicates that in some manuscripts v. 29 speaks of “prayer and fasting”.

Luke 2:37 ... and then as a widow until she was eighty-four.^e She did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day.

^e Or as a widow for eighty-four years

Luke 5:33 And they said to him, “The disciples of John fast often and offer prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink.”

Acts 13:3 Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 14:23 And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

Ask persistently

Luke 11:5-10 And he said to them, “Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves, ⁶for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him’; ⁷and he will answer from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything?’ ⁸*I tell you, though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his impudence^f he will rise and give him whatever he needs.* ⁹*And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.* ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

^f Or persistence

There are differing opinions as to whether this passage is primarily teaching persistence or boldness in prayer. The key is whether “impudence” (v. 8, cf. NCV, NIV) should be rendered “persistence” (cf. text note, CEV, GNT, NASB, NKJV, NLT, NRSV). The number of translations supporting “persistence” would suggest that this is quite possible. That persistence in prayer is probably the theme, is arguably also implied by the use of three similar terms for asking – i.e. “ask...seek...knock” (vv. 9-10). This is borne out in the NLT – “And so I tell you, keep on asking... Keep on looking... Keep on knocking...”

Luke 18:1-8 And he told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. ²He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. ³And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’ ⁴*For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God nor respect man, ⁵yet because this widow* keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming.’ ⁶*And the Lord said, ‘Hear what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them?’* ⁸*I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”*

The latter part of v. 8 points to the need to persist in faith (cf. AMP) – as is required in persistence in prayer – until Christ’s return.

1Tim 5:5 She who is truly a widow, left all alone, has set her hope on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day, ...

Deut 9:18-19 Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin that you had committed, in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke him to anger. ¹⁹For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure that the LORD bore against you, so that he was ready to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also.

That the Lord listened to Moses (v. 19b) indicates that he prayed (cf. vv. 26-29), presumably quite constantly, during the 40 days and nights of lying prostrate before God.

Isa 62:1, 6-7 For Zion’s sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch. ... ⁶On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have set watchmen; all the day and all the night they shall never be silent. You who put the LORD in remembrance, take no rest, ⁷and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise in the earth.

The speaker here is either the LORD (cf. NIV) or Isaiah (cf. AMP). If it is the LORD, then v. 1 is not speaking of persistence in prayer, although it would still be applicable to it. The term “watchmen” (v. 6a) depicts godly people – quite possibly the prophets, particularly if God is the speaker. While watching for God’s salvation (v. 1) or news of it, they persist in prayer to God – never silent, day or night. Likewise all godly people are called on (vv. 6b-7) to give themselves and God no rest, petitioning God – until he establishes Jerusalem as “a praise in the earth”.

Matt 21:18-22 In the morning, as he was returning to the city, he became hungry. ¹⁹And seeing a fig tree by the wayside, he went to it and found nothing on it but only leaves. And he said to it, “May no fruit ever come from you again!” And the fig tree withered at once. ²⁰When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree wither at once?” ²¹And Jesus answered them, “Truly, I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ it will happen. ²²*And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith.*”

Belief is vital in petitioning God, particularly in regard to things that seem impossible, as Jesus figuratively points out (v. 21; Mark 11:22-24 ↓). But belief is not merely making yourself “believe” what you do not really believe. Instead, it involves an understanding of God’s will and genuinely trusting in God to fulfill his will (cf. ZBC).

Mark 11:22-24 And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. ²³*Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him.* ²⁴*Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received^g it, and it will be yours.*”

^g Some manuscripts are receiving

These verses are from the parallel passage in Mark to that of the above passage from Matthew 21. Note that Jesus uses a similar illustration in Luke 17:6 (although he does not expressly relate it to prayer): “If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.”

James 1:6-8 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; ⁸he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

Verse 8 implies that one who doubts when making requests, in a sense cannot make up his mind (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT). For he wavers between belief of sorts (as shown in asking) and unbelief (as shown in doubting).

James 5:14-15 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

The broader context of the whole of Scripture would suggest that all prayer, including prayer offered in faith for healing, is still subject to God’s will. (See Ask for things in Jesus Christ’s “name”, p. 1225, and God and Jesus Christ grant anything we ask that is in accordance with their will . . ., p. 1231. Also note the refusal of Paul’s request to have the thorn in his flesh removed, 2 Corinthians 12:7-9; and that Paul left Trophimus sick in Miletus, 2 Timothy 4:20.) Some commentators qualify the sickness spoken of here, seeing it as only referring to sickness brought about by sin, or as meaning a spiritual weakness or weariness; but most interpret it as speaking of sickness generally. Note that the anointing with oil (v. 14b) may be medicinal treatment, although some view it as being of spiritual significance. Either way it is done “in the name of the Lord”, acknowledging that healing is ultimately from him.

Ps 5:3 O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice; in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you^h and watch.

^h Or I direct my prayer to you

Particularly if the alternative rendering in the text note is to be preferred (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV), David appears to speak of making requests of God and then watching, presumably in faith, for God to answer.

1Chr 5:20 And when they prevailed over them, the Hagrites and all who were with them were given into their hands, for they cried out to God in the battle, and he granted their urgent plea because they trusted in him.

Presumably the Israelite’s trust encompassed the belief that God would answer their prayers.

‡ Everything is possible for those who believe:

Mark 9:22-23 And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” ²³And Jesus said to him, “If you can! All things are possible for one who believes.”

Give thanks and praise when asking

See also:

- Praise and thank God when he answers prayer made in hard times, p. 1973

Part of the reasoning as to why we ought to give thanks and praise when making our request/s of God, is that it acknowledges and helps us bear in mind God's blessings – including past answers to prayer – and in doing so reinforces our faith in making our request/s.

Phil 4:6 ...do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

Note that the use of "supplication" appears to underline the need to make "definite requests" (AMP).

1Chr 16:4 Then he appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, to invoke, to thank, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel.

To "invoke" means to call on or appeal to God in prayer, which involves making requests.

Dan 6:10-11 When Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went to his house where he had windows in his upper chamber open toward Jerusalem. He got down on his knees three times a day and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he had done previously. ¹¹Then these men came by agreement and found Daniel making petition and plea before his God.

Col 4:2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.

1Tim 2:1 First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, ...

Philem 1:4 I thank my God always when I remember you in my prayers, ...

Ps 66:17 I cried to him with my mouth, and high praise was onⁱ my tongue.^j ⁱ Hebrew under

^j Or and he was exalted with my tongue

The psalmist's cries to God for help were accompanied by praise.

Ps 71:12-16 O God, be not far from me; O my God, make haste to help me! ¹³*May my accusers be put to shame and consumed; with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt.* ¹⁴*But I will hope continually and will praise you yet more* and more. ¹⁵*My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge.* ¹⁶*With the mighty deeds of the Lord God I will come; I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone.*

Note: "The Lord's Prayer" – the prayer Jesus gave as an example

Matt 6:9-13 Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.^k ¹⁰Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. ¹¹Give us this day our daily bread,^m ¹²and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. ¹³And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."ⁿ

^k Or Let your name be kept holy, or Let your name be treated with reverence

^l Or Let your kingdom come, let your will be done

^m Or our bread for tomorrow

ⁿ Or the evil one; some manuscripts add For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen

The clause "hallowed be your name" (v. 9) means may your name "be honored" (NLT, cf. CEV, GNT) or "always be kept holy" (NCV™). In v. 10, "your will be done" is speaking of people acting in accordance with God's will and/or the fulfillment of God's plans for the world. In v. 13, "lead us not into temptation" may have the sense "don't let us yield to temptation" (NLT; cf. NIV). Alternatively "temptation" may have a more general sense, referring to "hard testing" (GNT; cf. NRSV). Note that the conclusion of "The Lord's Prayer" as it is often prayed in church is contained in the text note.

1Jn 3:21-22 Beloved, *if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God;*²²*and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.*

As noted earlier, the expression “if our hearts do not condemn us” (v. 21) refers to having a clear conscience before God, from obeying and pleasing him (v. 22b; cf. v. 18).

John 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him.

John 15:7-8, 16 *If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.*⁸By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.  . . .¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

Being in Jesus Christ (v. 7) – knowing, believing and obeying his words – produces prayer that is consistent with Jesus Christ's purpose and will. Such prayer will be answered. Regarding v. 16, the promise to answer prayer appears to be based on one obediently bearing fruit, as alluded to earlier. However some commentators consider it to be primarily related to the preceding clauses regarding being chosen and appointed by Jesus Christ. Either way it would seem that prayer regarding one's work for God is largely in view.

Ex 33:17 And the LORD said to Moses, “This very thing that you have spoken I will do, for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.”

The final clause points to Moses' close relationship with God, which is indicative of the fact that he obeyed and pleased God (as per the preceding clause).

Dan 9:23 At the beginning of your pleas for mercy a word went out, and I have come to tell it to you, for you are greatly loved. Therefore consider the word and understand the vision.

As with being known by God (cf. Ex 3:17 ↑), being “greatly loved” by God indicates that one obeys and pleases God, amongst other things.

Though they cry to me, I will not listen to them. ¹²... ¹⁴“Therefore do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer on their behalf, for I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their trouble. ¹⁵”

Note that in v. 14 God indicates that the people’s judgment was fixed; their doom was sealed. As such there was no point even righteous Jeremiah praying for them.

Lam 3:42-44 We have transgressed and rebelled, and you have not forgiven. ⁴³“You have wrapped yourself with anger and pursued us, killing without pity; ⁴⁴you have wrapped yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can pass through. ⁴⁵”

Ezek 8:17-18 Then he said to me, “Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it too light a thing for the house of Judah to commit the abominations that they commit here, that they should fill the land with violence and provoke me still further to anger? Behold, they put the branch to their^o nose. ¹⁸Therefore I will act in wrath. My eye will not spare, nor will I have pity. And though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.” ¹⁹”

^o Or my

Note that it is not clear what the expression “put the branch to their nose” (v. 17) means. It may have been a reference to a pagan worship ritual or possibly even an insulting gesture towards God. Whatever the case, it was obviously offensive to God (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

Ezek 20:31 When you present your gifts and offer up your children in fire,^p you defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. ³²”

Deut 10:10 I myself stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights, and the LORD listened to me that time also. The LORD was unwilling to destroy you. ¹¹”

Here Moses refers to his earlier request that God would not destroy his people (cf. 9:26). The last statement suggests that God granted Moses’ request as it was in line with his will.

^s Greek he

“I will” (v. 3) has the sense “I am willing” (AMP, NASB, NIV, NKJV). In stating his willingness to heal, Jesus affirmed that the leper’s request was in accordance with his will, and so he granted the request.

John 14:13-14 Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴If you ask me^t anything in my name, I will do it. ¹⁵”

^t Some manuscripts omit me

Asking for things in Jesus Christ’s name is akin to asking for things that are in accordance with his will. As noted earlier, praying in Jesus Christ’s name signifies prayer that is compatible with his person and purpose. Thus it is in effect prayer that is reflective of or in accordance with his will – and is answered.

... Further verses regarding prayer and God's will Matt 6:9-10 Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.^u ¹⁰Your kingdom come, your will be done,^v on earth as it is in heaven. 📖

^u Or Let your name be kept holy, or Let your name be treated with reverence

^v Or Let your kingdom come, let your will be done

The believer's request that "your will be done" (v. 10) reflects the need for the Christian's own will and requests to conform to God's will. Note that the instruction to pray that God's will be done on earth also reflects the need to ask for specific things to be done that are in line with his will.

Luke 22:41-42 And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, ⁴²saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done." 📖

Jesus requested that his impending suffering be avoided – if this was in God's will. The request was not in accordance with God's will and so was not granted.

Rom 1:9-10 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you ¹⁰*always in my prayers, asking that somehow by God's will I may now at last succeed in coming to you.* 📖

Paul appears to pray that his request be in accordance with God's will or, similarly, be achieved through God's will. The case appears to be the same in 15:31-32 below.

Rom 15:30-32 I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ³¹*that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,* ³²*so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company.* 📖

✦ The Holy Spirit intercedes for believers in accordance with God's will:

Rom 8:26-27 Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. ²⁷And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because^w the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. 📖

^w Or that

Most commentators understand v. 27b to mean that the Holy Spirit intercedes for believers with petitions that are in accordance with God's will. However v. 27b could instead be read as meaning, "the Spirit intercedes for the saints, which is in accordance with God's will."

Job 30:20 I cry to you for help and you do not answer me; I stand, and you only look at me. 📖

"I stand" presumably refers to standing up to pray – "when I pray" (GNT) and/or to standing up in a form of appeal to God.

Ps 22:1-2 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning? ²O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest. 📖

^x Hebrew his

^y Or He will not answer for any of his own words

The use of this reference here should be qualified. Firstly, the meaning of the Hebrew in v. 13 is not clear, as evidenced by the second text note. Secondly, "God speaks" (v. 14) is not necessarily referring specifically to answering prayer (cf. vv. 15-20), although it may well be inclusive of it.

Sometimes God and Jesus Christ refuse requests

Deut 3:23-26 And I pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying, ²⁴O Lord GOD, you have only begun to show your servant your greatness and your mighty hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do such works and mighty acts as yours? ²⁵*Please let me go over and see the good land beyond the Jordan, that good hill country and Lebanon.* ²⁶*But the LORD was angry with me because of you and would not listen to me. 2Cor 12:7-10 So to keep me from becoming conceited because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations,^a a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from becoming conceited. ⁸*Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me.* ⁹*But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."* Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. ¹⁰For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

^a Or hears from me, even because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations. So to keep me from becoming conceited

This is an example of God or Jesus Christ not granting a request (v. 9a) because they have a higher purpose (vv. 9b-10).

Mark 14:35-36, 39 And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. ³⁶And he said, “Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will.”  ... ³⁹*And again he went away and prayed, saying the same words.*

Obviously Jesus’ request here was not answered (cf. ch. 15). (Note the comment on Luke 22:41-42, above in . . . Further verses regarding prayer and God’s will.)

✦ God can do far more than all we ask:

Eph 3:20 Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, ...

It can be inferred from this that sometimes God declines to answer requests because he has a plan far better “than all that we ask or think”.

Isa 41:17-18 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue is parched with thirst, I the LORD will answer them; I the God of Israel will not forsake them. ¹⁸I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys. Isa 49:8 Thus says the LORD: “In a time of favor I have answered you; in a day of salvation I have helped you; I will keep you and give you as a covenant to the people, to establish the land, to apportion the desolate heritages, ...

With the Messiah being in view, “I have answered you” may have a future sense (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT) or fulfillment – i.e. it appears to be a promise.

Isa 65:24 Before they call I will answer; while they are yet speaking I will hear.

This is an eschatological prophecy and promise speaking of the people of the renewed Israel. (Zechariah 13:9 below also has the renewed Israel of the end time in view.)

Jer 29:10-12 For thus says the LORD: When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will visit you, and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place. ¹¹For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare^f and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. ¹²Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you.

I. Instructions

We exalt God by doing such things as glorifying, honoring, praising and thanking him. Exalting God is a very common theme in the Bible and should also be a prominent part of our lives. In fact the Bible tells us to praise and thank God constantly. The significance of exalting God is underlined by the first answer of the Westminster Shorter Catechism which says: "Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy him forever."

^c Greek to the ages of ages

1Tim 6:15-16 ... which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, ¹⁶who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

As well as ascribing honor to God in the final statement, Paul also honors God in his preceding eloquent description of God (vv. 15b-16a).

Rev 5:13 And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen*."

Isa 26:13 O LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but your name alone we bring to remembrance.

This speaks of acknowledging and honoring God as their God (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NRSV).

✚ Be jealous for God's honor:

Num 25:11-13 "Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the people of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the people of Israel in my jealousy.

¹²Therefore say, ‘Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace,
¹³and it shall be to him and to his descendants after him the covenant of a perpetual priesthood, because he was jealous for his God and made atonement for the people of Israel.’”

In v. 11, “he was jealous with my jealousy among them” speaks of Phinehas acting in jealousy for God, on God’s behalf (cf. NLT, NRSV). By taking decisive measures against a man who behaved with disdain towards God (cf. vv. 6-8), Phinehas acted to preserve God’s honor (vv. 11, 13; cf. NCV, NIV).

Exalt God

To exalt God, we “lift him up” – such as by acknowledging and declaring his surpassing greatness. As noted earlier (and implied by the title and contents of this chapter) it encompasses glorifying and honoring God – as well as praising and thanking him.

Ex 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

Ps 34:3 Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together!

Ps 99:5 Exalt the LORD our God; worship at his footstool! Holy is he!

Isa 25:1 O LORD, you are my God; I will exalt you; I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

Isa 12:4 And you will say in that day: “Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted.”

Ps 18:46 The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock, and exalted be the God of my salvation—

Precisely speaking, this and 57:5 below are expressing a prayer or desire that God be exalted, which in itself is acting so as to exalt him.

Ps 57:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth!

Glorify and honor God by thanksgiving and praise

Ps 50:23 The one who offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice glorifies me; to one who orders his way rightly I will show the salvation of God!

Ps 66:2 ...sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise!

One can infer from this verse that we should praise God in such a way that it is glorious and so glorifies him.

Ps 69:30 I will praise the name of God with a song; I will magnify him with thanksgiving.

Isa 24:15-16a Therefore in the east^d give glory to the LORD; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁶*From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One.*

^d Hebrew in the realm of light

Luke 2:13-14 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, ¹⁴*“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!”*^e

^e Some manuscripts peace, good will among men

Rom 14:6 The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God.

The reference to “the one who abstains” giving thanks, would appear to speak of thanking God for the food that he does eat.

Rom 15:8-9 For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God’s truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, ⁹and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, “Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name.”

2Cor 4:15 For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

Paul speaks of thanksgiving – with the consequent glorifying of God – as being in response to God’s grace bringing more and more people to respond to the gospel.

Ps 22:23 You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him, and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!

This and the following verses do not say or so clearly imply that we glorify/honor God by praising/thanking him. However the close usages of the terms arguably do point to this.

Ps 86:12 I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever.

Dan 4:34, 37 At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation;  ... ³⁷Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are right and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble.

To “extol” God is to enthusiastically praise him.

God's people are identified with God and Jesus Christ. As such their lives are in a sense a reflection on God and Jesus Christ. So when God's people live good lives they bring glory and honor to God and Jesus Christ.

1Cor 10:31 So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

Josh 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, give glory to the LORD God of Israel and give praise^f to him. And tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me.”

^f Or and make confession

The expression “give glory to the LORD God” is used here as an exhortation to glorify God by telling the truth, as reflected in the last statement.

John 21:18-19 Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go.” ¹⁹*(This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.)* And after saying this he said to him, “Follow me.”

By putting God's interests ahead of his own life – showing that he considered pleasing God to be more important than keeping his life – Peter would glorify God as a martyr. In conjunction with this, Jesus may also have meant that the means of Peter's death would be dreadful, indicating that Peter's preparedness to face such a death would heighten the extent of his glorification of God through it.

Rom 4:20-21 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹*fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.*

In believing that God would fulfill his promise to him, Abraham “brought glory to God” (NLT).

Rom 15:7 Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

1Cor 6:20 ... for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

Primarily in view here is honoring God by abstaining from sexual sin.

Phil 1:9-11 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, ¹⁰*so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ,* ¹¹*filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.*

The expression “to the glory and praise of God” (v. 11b) may well have all of the preceding things listed in view (cf. NIV). However, “the fruit of righteousness” (v. 11a) may primarily be in view. Note that if this term is referring to good deeds (cf. CEV, NCV) rather than to righteous qualities (cf. GNT), then the reference could be placed in the following subsection.

Phil 1:20 ... as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

2Thes 1:9-10 They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from^g the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, ¹⁰when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

^g Or destruction that comes from

This appears to be saying that Jesus Christ will “receive glory because of his holy people” (NCV™), with presumably their “holy” lives being primarily in view.

1Pet 4:16 Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. ☰

This is often understood to be speaking of giving glory or praise to God (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT, NRSV), but it could well instead be referring to responding to the suffering in a way which glorifies God – which would pertain to the theme of this subsection.

. . . Glorify and honor them by doing godly work and good deeds

John 15:8 By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. ☰

Here “fruit” appears to refer to – or at least be applicable to – the product of work done for God’s kingdom. By bearing such good “fruit” we bring glory to God, showing ourselves to be disciples of the one sent by him.

John 17:4, 10 I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do. ☰ ... ¹⁰All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. ☰

Jesus Christ glorified God through what he did (v. 4). In turn Jesus Christ was glorified through his disciples (v. 10; cf. GNT, NCV). The latter is presumably in part at least speaking of things such as following him, testifying to him being the glorious Son of God and possibly also their lives generally – all of which demonstrated his grace and power.

2Cor 8:19, 23 And not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us as we carry out this act of grace that is being ministered by us, for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our good will. ☰ ... ²³As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for your benefit. And as for our brothers, they are messengers^h of the churches, the glory of Christ. ☰

^h Greek apostles

In v. 23b, Paul quite possibly means that the “brothers” “bring glory to Christ” (GNT, NCV, NLT; cf. CEV) in themselves and by their work as “messengers of the churches”.

2Thes 1:11-12 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ¹²so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. ☰

1Pet 4:10-11 As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God’s varied grace: ¹¹*whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.* To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. ☰

The first clause in v. 11 probably indicates that we should rely on God’s help in what we say in ministering to others. Similarly, the second means that we should serve others with, and in reliance on, God’s strength. This brings glory to God when people perceive the work he is doing, through us.

Prov 3:9 Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce; ... ☰

Honor God by giving to him of your assets and what you produce.

Prov 14:31 Whoever oppresses a poor man insults his Maker, but he who is generous to the needy honors him. ☰

‡ The church should bring glory to God by what it is and does:

Eph 3:20-21 Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, ²¹*to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever.* Amen. ☰

The expression “to him be glory in the church” (v. 21) appears to be implying that God is to be glorified by the church in what it is and does – which would fittingly parallel the reference to God being glorified by Jesus Christ, God being glorified in his person and by what he does (and has done). This interpretation also corresponds well with the preceding clause, which speaks of God’s power at work “within us” (v. 20).

Live so that others will glorify God because of what you do

Matt 5:16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

We are to let our good deeds “shine out for all to see” (NLT), so that others will glorify God, with our good deeds being indicative of the goodness and praiseworthiness of God, to whom we belong.

2Cor 9:13 By their approval of this service, theyⁱ will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, ...

ⁱ Or you

Gal 1:23-24 They only were hearing it said, “He who used to persecute us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy.” ²⁴*And they glorified God because of me.*

The churches of Judea glorified God for Paul’s conversion after Paul having been such a fierce adversary and for what Paul was doing in preaching the faith.

1Pet 2:12 Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation.

Note that “the day of visitation” probably refers to the day of God’s judgment or Christ’s return. Some commentators see it as possibly referring to any time God grants salvation to such convicted non-believers.

Not glorifying and honoring God has detrimental outcomes

Jer 13:16 Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings darkness, before your feet stumble on the twilight mountains, and while you look for light he turns it into gloom and makes it deep darkness.

Acts 12:21-23 On an appointed day Herod put on his royal robes, took his seat upon the throne, and delivered an oration to them. ²²And the people were shouting, “The voice of a god, and not of a man!” ²³*Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him down, because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and breathed his last.*

This implies that Herod accepted the praise given to him, praise that no man is worthy of. As he accepted it instead of acknowledging that only God is deserving of such glory, Herod was struck down and died.

Rev 16:8-11 The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was allowed to scorch people with fire. ⁹They were scorched by the fierce heat, and they cursed^j the name of God who had power over these plagues. They did not repent and give him glory. ¹⁰*The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in anguish* ¹¹*and cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores.* They did not repent of their deeds.

^j Greek blasphemed; also verses 11, 21

This suggests that the refusal of people to repent and glorify God (v. 9b) means that they will continue to suffer the effects of the fourth judgment (vv. 8-9a) and be subject to the subsequent judgment (vv. 10-11).

Dan 5:23, 26-28 ... but you have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And the vessels of his house have been brought in before you, and you and your lords, your wives, and your concubines have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know, but the God in whose hand is your breath, and whose are all your ways, you have not honored.  ... ²⁶This is the interpretation of the matter: MENE, God has numbered^k the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end; ²⁷TEKEL, you have been weighed^l in the balances and found wanting; ²⁸PERES, your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians. ^m

^k MENE sounds like the Aramaic for numbered

^l TEKEL sounds like the Aramaic for weighed

^m PERES (the singular of Parsin) sounds like the Aramaic for divided and for Persia

Mal 2:2 If you will not listen, if you will not take it to heart to give honor to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart.

Rom 1:21 For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Hos 2:8-9 And she did not know that it was I who gave her the grain, the wine, and the oil, and who lavished on her silver and gold, which they used for Baal. ⁹Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my wine in its season, and I will take away my wool and my flax, which were to cover her nakedness.

Israel had “not noticed, understood, or realized” (AMP) that God was the ultimate source of what they produced and had. Acknowledging God (cf. NCV, NIV) as this source is honoring to him. To not do so (v. 8) is failing to honor him and can lead to damaging consequences (v. 9).

✦ We should seek God’s glory rather than our own:

Ps 115:1 Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness!

Note: God honors and gives glory to his people

Deut 26:19 ... and that he will set you in praise and in fame and in honor high above all nations that he has made, and that you shall be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised.

1Sam 2:30 Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, declares: ‘I promised that your house and the house of your father should go in and out before me forever,’ but now the LORD declares: ‘Far be it from me, for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed.’

Job 36:7 He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous, but with kings on the throne he sets them forever, and they are exalted.

Ps 23:5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

The anointing of a guest’s head with oil was a way of welcoming or honoring the guest (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT).

Ps 89:15-16 Blessed are the people who know the festal shout, who walk, O LORD, in the light of your face, ¹⁶who exult in your name all the day and in your righteousness are exalted.

Ps 148:14 He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are near to him. Praise the LORD!

The term “horn” in this sense speaks of power, possibly a strong king is in view (cf. NCV, NIRV). The clause “praise for all his saints” may then speak of them being exalted through this empowerment. Alternatively it may speak of praise for them to offer (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV, NKJV), in which case the verse would not be pertinent to this subsection.

John 12:26 If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

John 17:22-23 The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, ²³I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.

There are various interpretations of what “glory” is referring to here, including: continuing Christ’s glorious reconciliatory work; the manifestation of Christ in them (v. 23a); and eternal glory that will be consummated in heaven.

2Cor 3:18 And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord,^a are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.

^a Or reflecting the glory of the Lord

Believers reflect Jesus Christ’s glory, with their characters being transformed into his likeness, increasingly reflecting and even manifesting Christ’s glory.

2Thes 1:11-12 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ¹²so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1Pet 5:6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, ...

Josh 4:14 On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they stood in awe of him just as they had stood in awe of Moses, all the days of his life.

1Chr 29:25 And the LORD made Solomon very great in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

✦ God is the glory of his people:

1Sam 15:29 And also the Glory of Israel will not lie or have regret, for he is not a man, that he should have regret.

The glory which God’s people have primarily emanates from God – from their relationship and association with him. In a sense they partake of his glory, as the one to whom they belong and serve.

Do not blaspheme God

See also:

- Note: Like a person, the Holy Spirit can be treated wrongly, p. 150

Blaspheming God is to speak – or act (cf. the following subsection) – in a way that detracts from the honor of God.

Lev 24:15-16 And speak to the people of Israel, saying, Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin. ¹⁶*Whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death.* All the congregation shall stone him. The sojourner as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

The NT does not advocate the death penalty, but the OT's stipulation of the death penalty for these actions does serve to underline the seriousness of them – and foreshadow the even more severe eternal judgment to come.

Ex 22:28 You shall not revile God, nor curse a ruler of your people.

To “revile” is to verbally attack someone in an abusive and/or insulting fashion. As such, to revile God is effectively blaspheming him.

Lev 22:32 And you shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the people of Israel. I am the LORD who sanctifies you, ...

God's name is profaned when one acts towards him in a blasphemous, derogatory or disrespectful manner.

1Sam 3:13 And I declare to him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God,^o and he did not restrain them.

^o Or blaspheming for themselves

2Ki 19:22 Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes to the heights? Against the Holy One of Israel!

By his messengers, Sennacherib king of Assyria had insulted and blasphemed “the Holy One” – the outcome of which would be a horrific defeat (cf. v. 35).

1Tim 1:19b-20 By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith,²⁰ among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Paul had expelled these men from the church, putting them out into the cold world – Satan's domain – till they learnt not to blaspheme.

Matt 12:24, 31-32 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons.”  ... [Jesus:] ³¹Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. ³²And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

There are a number of interpretations of what Jesus meant by blaspheming or speaking against the Holy Spirit. One of the most prominent is that Jesus meant that by attributing to Satan what realistically could only have been the work of the Holy Spirit (v. 24), the Pharisees were willfully rejecting the Holy Spirit – and thus God – a sin that can never be forgiven; “an eternal sin” (Mark 3:29) (cf. ZBC).

‡ Do not use God's name in vain:

Ex 20:7 You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.

This command to not take the LORD's name in vain is applicable to any misuse of it. Misuses include: deceptive use of it – which is likely primarily in view – such as in taking an oath in his name in order to deceive; intentionally blaspheming it; and disrespectful or irreverent use. Note that any such misuse of God's name blasphemes it.

Do not by your actions indirectly blaspheme or profane God

Num 15:30-31 But the person who does anything with a high hand, whether he is native or a sojourner, reviles the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from among his people. ³¹Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken his commandment, that person shall be utterly cut off; his iniquity shall be on him.

To act "with a high hand" (v. 30) is to do so "defiantly" (NASB, NIV). Verse 31a explains why sinning defiantly blasphemes God.

Ezek 20:27, 39 Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In this also your fathers blasphemed me, by dealing treacherously with me. ... ³⁹"As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Go serve every one of you his idols, now and hereafter, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts and your idols.

The "gifts" (v. 39b) may have simply been ones the people offered to their idols in worship of them, or alternatively ones that they offered to God (cf. NLT) while hypocritically also worshipping idols. In either case, being God's people yet turning to idol worship profaned God's name (cf. Lev 18:21 ↓).

Lev 18:21 You shall not give any of your children to offer them^p to Molech, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

^p Hebrew to make them pass through [the fire]

Lev 19:12 You shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

Lev 22:2 Speak to Aaron and his sons so that they abstain from the holy things of the people of Israel, which they dedicate to me, so that they do not profane my holy name: I am the LORD.

Here "abstain" is either speaking of in some way separating themselves from (cf. AMP, NKJV) or being careful with (cf. NASB, NLT, NRSV) or, similarly, respectful of (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV) the holy things.

Prov 30:9 ... lest I be full and deny you and say, "Who is the LORD?" or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God.

Amos 2:7b ... a man and his father go in to the same girl, so that my holy name is profaned; ...

The reference is to sexual intercourse.

Ezek 43:7-8 ... and he said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the people of Israel forever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoring and by the dead bodies^a of their kings at their high places,^r ⁸by setting their threshold by my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them. They have defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed, so I have consumed them in my anger.

^a Or the monuments; also verse 9

^r Or at their deaths

Verse 8 may well be speaking of the kings in particular building next to God's temple (cf. CEV, GNT) and then defiling it and God's name by committing detestable practices (vv. 7-8) in such close proximity.

Prov 14:31 Whoever oppresses a poor man insults his Maker, but he who is generous to the needy honors him.

Likewise 17:5a says, "Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker ...". The implication is that we should not do such things for it would be in effect showing contempt for God, he being their Maker.

By ungodly actions we bring dishonor to God before other people . . .

By ungodly actions God's people bring dishonor to God (as reflected in the previous subsection). This is particularly so when the actions are known to other people, as it publicly reflects badly on God as the one to whom his people belong. The dishonor is heightened if the other people consequently blaspheme or show contempt for God.

Rom 2:21b-24 While you preach against stealing, do you steal? ²²You who say that one must not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? ²³*You who boast in the law dishonor God by breaking the law.* ²⁴*For, as it is written, "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."*

When those who are supposedly God's people act contrary to his commands – particularly if they advocate such commands – not only do they dishonor God (v. 23) but in response to their hypocrisy others blaspheme God (v. 24; cf. 2Sam 12:13-14 ↓; 1Tim 6:1 ↓).

2Sam 12:13-14 David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.” And Nathan said to David, “The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die. ¹⁴Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD,^s the child who is born to you shall die.”

^s Masoretic Text the enemies of the LORD; Dead Sea Scroll the word of the LORD

If the alternative translation in the text note is to be preferred, then the sense of the first half of v. 14 may well be: “by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme” (NKJV; cf. AMP, NASB, NCV, NIV, NLT).

Ezek 36:19-20 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. In accordance with their ways and their deeds I judged them. ²⁰But when they came to the nations, wherever they came, they profaned my holy name, in that people said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD, and yet they had to go out of his land.’

Being God’s people and yet being taken into exile by the Babylonians – which was God’s punishment for their sin (v. 19b) – made it appear to other nations that God could not care for his people (v. 20). Thus the people’s actions led to God’s name being profaned.

1Tim 6:1 Let all who are under a yoke as slaves^t regard their own masters as worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be reviled.

^t Greek bondservants

... Live a life worthy of God and Jesus Christ – and all that is of them 1Thes 2:12 ... we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

Col 1:9-10 And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

3Jn 1:6 ... who testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God.

The expression “in a manner worthy of God” may be speaking of how John’s readers should carry out his instruction, i.e. meaning that they should do so as servants and representatives of God. As such, this would be illustrative of acting and living in a way that is worthy of God. Alternatively the focus may be on the people they were to help, who were worthy of receiving such help (cf. CEV), themselves being people of God. Note that in Romans 16:2 Paul similarly asks his readers to: “... welcome her [Phoebe] in the Lord in a way worthy of the saints ...”

Rev 3:4 Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy.

Acts 5:41 Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name.

The “name” is “the name of Jesus” (NLT; cf. CEV, GNT, NCV). The apostles appear to have understood that they had been counted worthy by Jesus Christ of being associated with his name – to the point of suffering for it. It can thus be inferred that they had been living lives worthy of Jesus Christ – which is exemplary to all believers.

Phil 1:27 Only let your manner of life be worthy^u of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, ...

^u Greek Only behave as citizens worthy

Note that this and the following verses speak of living lives worthy of things that are of or associated with God and Jesus Christ.

Eph 4:1 I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, ...

2Thes 1:5 This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering—

2Thes 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ...

This verse implies that: we ought to live a life worthy of God’s calling (cf. Eph 4:1 ↑); and that such a life involves having good purposes and doing things prompted by faith in God.

Acts 13:46 And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, “It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles.

This suggests that we should aspire to be “worthy of eternal life” – and so should live accordingly.

✦ Anyone who does not put Jesus Christ first and follow him is not worthy of him:

Matt 10:37-38 Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. ³⁸*And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.*

To be worthy of Jesus Christ we must put his interests ahead of even those closest to us (v. 37) and follow him, shouldering the accompanying hardships (v. 38).

Do not profane or defile things of God

Lev 19:5-8 When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted. ⁶It shall be eaten the same day you offer it or on the day after, and anything left over until the third day shall be burned up with fire. ⁷*If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is tainted; it will not be accepted,* ⁸*and everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned what is holy to the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from his people.*

Having been sacrificed to God (v. 5), a fellowship offering was in effect given to God, and holy to him (v. 8). To eat it on the third day would profane or desecrate it (vv. 7-8). For by then the meat would be in poor condition for eating and to eat it would be to use something of God in a substandard, impure form and manner – which would be dishonoring to him.

Lev 22:9 They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby when they profane it: I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

This is likely speaking of profaning God’s “charge” or command (cf. GNT, NLT); alternatively the place of worship may be in view (cf. CEV, NRSV).

Lev 22:15-16 They shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, which they contribute to the LORD, ¹⁶*and so cause them to bear iniquity and guilt, by eating their holy things: for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.*

Note that the people were to share in eating some types of offerings (cf. Lev 19:5-6 ) but not other types, as is in view here.

Ezek 20:13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes but rejected my rules, by which, if a person does them, he shall live; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. “Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to make a full end of them.

Ezek 22:26 Her priests have done violence to my law and have profaned my holy things. They have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they taught the difference between the unclean and the clean, and they have disregarded my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

The expression “done violence to my law” most likely refers to breaking the law (cf. GNT, Nlrv, NLT).

Ps 74:7 They set your sanctuary on fire; they profaned the dwelling place of your name, bringing it down to the ground.

Likewise 79:1 says, “O God, the nations ... have defiled your holy temple ...”

Jer 7:30 For the sons of Judah have done evil in my sight, declares the LORD. They have set their detestable things in the house that is called by my name, to defile it.

Ezek 5:11 Therefore, as I live, declares the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will withdraw. ^v My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity.

^v Some Hebrew manuscripts I will cut you down

✦ Jesus cleansed the temple of misuse:

Mark 11:15-17 And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. ¹⁶*And he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple.* ¹⁷*And he was teaching them and saying to them, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations’? But you have made it a den of robbers.”*

The merchants were using God’s temple to make unjust gain. Such misuse of the temple was in a real sense desecrating it.

Additionally, do not despise God . . .

To despise God – or to scoff at God (as per the following subsection) – is demeaning and dishonoring to God.

Num 14:11, 23 And the LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people despise me? And how long will they not believe in me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them?” ...²³shall see the land that I swore to give to their fathers. And none of those who despised me shall see it.

Num 15:31 Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken his commandment, that person shall be utterly cut off; his iniquity shall be on him.

Num 16:30 But if the LORD creates something new, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised the LORD.

1Sam 2:17, 29-31 Thus the sin of the young men [the sons of Eli] was very great in the sight of the LORD, for the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt. ...²⁹Why then do you scorn^w my sacrifices and my offerings that I commanded, and honor your sons above me by fattening yourselves on the choicest parts of every offering of my people Israel?³⁰Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, declares: ‘I promised that your house and the house of your father should go in and out before me forever,’ but now the LORD declares: ‘Far be it from me, for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed.’³¹Behold, the days are coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your father’s house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.

Mal 1:6-8, 11b-13a *“A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. But you say, ‘How have we despised your name?’”*⁷*By offering polluted food upon my altar. But you say, ‘How have we polluted you?’ By saying that the LORD’s table may be despised.*⁸*When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that not evil? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that not evil? Present that to your governor; will he accept you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts.* ...¹¹ ... *For my name will be great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.*¹²*But you profane it when you say that the Lord’s table is polluted, and its fruit, that is, its food may be despised.*¹³*But you say, ‘What a weariness this is,’ and you snort at it, says the LORD of hosts.*

The “table” (vv. 7b, 12) is a reference to the altar, probably alluding to the fact that the priests ate from the sacrifices offered on the altar. In placing polluted/defiled food (v. 7) and imperfect sacrifices (v. 8) on God’s altar, the priests were effectively saying by their actions that they considered it contemptible (vv. 7b; 12b-13), implying that such inferior things were good enough for it. In treating God’s altar as such, they were essentially despising him (v. 7) and profaning his name (v. 12).

Ps 28:5 Because they do not regard the works of the LORD or the work of his hands, he will tear them down and build them up no more.

Similarly Isaiah 5:12 says, “... they do not regard the works of the LORD or the work of his hands ...” Such disregard for God or things of him is akin to despising God.

. . . and do not scoff at God

2Chr 36:16 But they kept mocking the messengers of God, despising his words and scoffing at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD rose against his people, until there was no remedy.

Ps 73:11 And they say, “How can God know? Is there knowledge in the Most High?”

Such scoffing is one reason for the end that will befall the wicked (cf. vv. 17-20).

Prov 3:34 Toward the scorers he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor.^x

^x Or grace

Those who scorn God may be primarily in view here (cf. CEV).

Isa 5:18-19 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, who draw sin as with cart ropes,¹⁹who say: “Let him be quick, let him speed his work that we may see it; let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near, and let it come, that we may know it!”

Verse 19 is likely to have been spoken in sarcasm, with those concerned in essence scoffing at God.

Isa 28:14, 22 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers, who rule this people in Jerusalem! ...²²*Now therefore do not scoff, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord GOD of hosts against the whole land.*

Those in view here were probably scoffing at Isaiah rather than directly at God, but as he spoke the words of God they were in effect scoffing at God.

Acts 13:41 “Look, you scoffers, be astounded and perish; for I am doing a work in your days, a work that you will not believe, even if one tells it to you.”

2Pet 3:3-7 ... knowing this first of all, that scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own sinful desires. ⁴They will say, “Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things are continuing as they were from the beginning of creation.” ⁵For they deliberately overlook this fact, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God, ⁶and that by means of these the world that then existed was deluged with water and perished. ⁷But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

Such scoffers (vv. 3-4) can be correlated with “the ungodly” (v. 7). As such they face destruction (v. 7).

✦ Wicked fools claim that God does not exist:

Ps 14:1 The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.” They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Note: We must treat God as holy

Isa 8:13 But the LORD of hosts, him you shall honor as holy. Let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

Isa 29:23 For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

Num 20:12 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not believe in me, to uphold me as holy in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them.”

Lev 22:32 And you shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the people of Israel. I am the LORD who sanctifies you, ...

Lev 10:1-3 Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it and laid incense on it and offered unauthorized^y fire before the LORD, which he had not commanded them. ²And fire came out from before the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD. ³Then Moses said to Aaron, “This is what the LORD has said, ‘Among those who are near me I will be sanctified, and before all the people I will be glorified.” And Aaron held his peace.

^y Or strange

Regarding what God says in v. 3, translations differ as to whether God is saying: that he will show himself to be holy/sanctified, thus displaying his glory; or that he must be treated as holy/sanctified, and accordingly be honored. If the latter is correct, this passage is indicating that by acting contrary to a particular command of God (v. 1) Aaron’s sons dishonored God, not treating him as holy – resulting in their deaths (v. 2).

Ps 96:9 Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness;^z tremble before him, all the earth!

^z Or in holy attire

The first clause appears to indicate that we should worship God being mindful of or in view of “all his holy splendor” (NLT). The alternative rendering in the text note offers another possible meaning.

1Pet 3:15 ... but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, ...

✦ Prayer that God’s name would be treated as holy:

Matt 6:9 Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.”^a

^a Or Let your name be kept holy, or Let your name be treated with reverence

This request is essentially that God would be treated as holy, and so with the greatest respect and honor. The fact that it is the first request in the Lord’s Prayer is indicative of the priority it should be for us.

Bless God

To bless another is to benefit them. We can do this by acting or speaking in a way that benefits them. The same is true of blessing God. Regarding actions, we can bless God by acting in ways that: bring glory or honor to him; and/or benefit his cause (e.g. proclaiming the gospel). Regarding speech, we can bless God by acknowledging and proclaiming his attributes and deeds. Such verbal blessing of God is akin to praising him. It is such speech that a number of commentators have in view when defining what the Bible means by blessing God.

However, when we speak specifically of blessing another (e.g. "bless you" or "may he/she be blessed") what we are doing is akin to praying for them, that God would act for their benefit. As such, it can be argued that at times when we speak specifically of blessing God, we are effectively praying that he be benefited, e.g. that he would cause his name to be glorified. This is reflected by the like clauses "hallowed be your name" (Matt 6:9) and "blessed be your name" (cf. Neh 9:5; Job 1:20-21; Ps 113:2; Dan 2:20). These clauses have the same structure and sense. As the former one is obviously a prayer request – the first in the Lord's Prayer – it would appear that so too is the latter one.

Bear in mind that when the Bible speaks specifically of blessing God, usually (if not always) it has in view God's wondrous characteristics or great things that he has done for us. So it is clearly associated with praise or thanksgiving.

Ps 103:1-5, 22b Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name! ²*Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits,* ³*who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,* ⁴*who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,* ⁵*who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.* 📖 ... ²²... Bless the LORD, O my soul! 📖

For he commanded and they were created. ⁶And he established them forever and ever; he gave a decree, and it shall not pass away.^c ⁷Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all deeps, ⁸fire and hail, snow and mist, stormy wind fulfilling his word! ⁹Mountains and all hills, fruit*

^c Or it shall not be transgressed

Along with angels and people, the psalmist poetically calls upon other creatures (cf. Ps 69:34 †; Ps 145:21b †), various objects and other things in nature (cf. Ps 103:22 †) to praise God.

Ps 150:1, 6 Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens!^d 📖 ... ⁶Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD! 📖

Rev 5:13 And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!" 📖

This is not actually a call for all things everywhere to praise or bless God (as per this subsection's heading) but obviously it is an example of it.

‡ God receives praise from all over the earth:

Ps 48:10a As your name, O God, so your praise reaches to the ends of the earth. 📖

Praise and bless God constantly

Heb 13:15 Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. 📖

Ps 34:1 I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. 📖

Rev 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and within, and day and night they never cease to say, "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!" 📖

Praise and bless God forever

Ps 70:4 May all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you! May those who love your salvation say evermore, "God is great!" 📖

Ps 145:1-2, 21 I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever. ²Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever. 📖 ... ²¹My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever. 📖

Ps 41:13 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! Amen and Amen. 📖

This may mean that God should be blessed "from everlasting to everlasting" – as per the theme of this subsection – or alternatively that blessing should be given to God who is "from everlasting to everlasting".

Ps 79:13 But we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will give thanks to you forever; from generation to generation we will recount your praise. 📖

Ps 111:10b His praise endures forever! 📖

God should – and indeed will be – praised forever. (cf. GNT, NCV, NLT).

Ps 115:18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and forevermore. Praise the LORD! 📖

Ps 146:2 I will praise the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

Isa 38:20 The LORD will save me, and we will play my music on stringed instruments all the days of our lives, at the house of the LORD.

Rom 1:25 ... because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

As per the theme of this subsection, the final phrase may mean that God “is to be” (GNT, NLT; cf. NCV, Nlrv) or “will be” (CEV) praised/blessed forever. Alternatively, rather than being used as a verb, “blessed” may be intended as an adjective, describing God’s state as “blessed”. The same can be said regarding the similar clause in 2 Corinthians 11:31 below.

2Cor 11:31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying.

Rev 5:13 And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!”

In speaking of blessing being “to” God “forever and ever” this verse and 7:11-12 below may be acknowledging God as having and/or being deserving forever of blessing. Alternatively or in conjunction with this, the verses may be meaning or implying that we are to bless God forever (as per the theme of this subsection). Note that making such statements is in itself offering a blessing.

Rev 7:11-12 And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Give thanks to God

As with praising God, thanking God for things exalts him, for by doing so we attribute praiseworthy things to him.

Ps 92:1 It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; ...

Ps 95:2 Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!

Ps 100:4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name!

The gates and courts – as with the “gates of righteousness” (Ps 118:19 ↓) – are those of the temple.

Ps 109:30 With my mouth I will give great thanks to the LORD; I will praise him in the midst of the throng.

Ps 118:19, 28 Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD. ...
²⁸*You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God; I will extol you.*

Ps 136:1-3, 26 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever. ²Give thanks to the God of gods, for his steadfast love endures forever. ³Give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his steadfast love endures forever; ... ²⁶Give thanks to the God of heaven, for his steadfast love endures forever.

Jonah 2:9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Salvation belongs to the LORD!

Eph 5:4 Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving.

Col 1:11-12 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, ¹²*giving thanks^e to the Father*, who has qualified you^f to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.

^e Or patience, with joy giving thanks

Col 3:15-16 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

Col 4:2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.

Give thanks to God always

Eph 5:19-20 ... addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, ²⁰*giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father* in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ...

In v. 20 “everything” may be intended to include even bad things; Paul at least appears to be indicating that we should give thanks to God amidst everything that happens (cf. 1Thes 5:18 ↓). If one is able to find something to be thankful for in regard to bad things – particularly if one can continue on giving thanks – one’s spirit will be rejuvenated and strengthened.

1Thes 5:18 ... give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

Col 2:7 ... rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

We should be “abounding and overflowing ... with thanksgiving” (AMP). As such we should “always be thankful” (NCV™).

Col 3:17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Even while we do other things we should give thanks to God (cf. NCV, NLT). Note that Paul exhorts the Colossians to be thankful in each of three consecutive verses (cf. vv. 15-16 ↑), highlighting its importance.

1Chr 23:30 And they were to stand every morning, thanking and praising the LORD, and likewise at evening, ...

These duties of the Levites provide an example of regular thanksgiving.

Ps 30:12b O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Ps 44:8 In God we have boasted continually, and we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah

‡ Thanksgiving is to be made for all people:

1Tim 2:1 First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, ...

This appears to be saying that we should give thanks for everyone (cf. CEV). Alternatively, it could possibly be speaking of giving thanks on behalf of others.

Blessings of giving praise and thanks to God

Ps 50:14-15 *Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and perform your vows to the Most High, ¹⁵*and call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me.

‡ Or Make thanksgiving your sacrifice to God

Ps 63:4-5 So I will bless you as long as I live; in your name I will lift up my hands. ⁵*My soul will be satisfied as with fat and rich food, and my mouth will praise you with joyful lips, ...*

In saying that his “soul will be satisfied” (v. 5a), David may well be referring to the satisfaction that praising God (vv. 4, 5b) brought to him. Alternatively he could have in view God satisfying his needs as one of God’s people, who praises him.

Ps 89:15-16 Blessed are the people who know the festal shout, who walk, O LORD, in the light of your face, ¹⁶*who exult in your name all the day and in your righteousness are exalted.*

Those who participate in enthusiastic worship of God are blessed (v. 15a). Persistently exulting or reveling in God (v. 16a) is itself a blessing, for it involves much joy. Moreover, God exalts them (v. 16b).

Ps 92:1-3 It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; ²*to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night,* ³*to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre.*

In saying that it is “good” to praise God, the psalmist probably primarily means that it is appropriate and right to do so, because of who God is and what he has done. However he may also be pointing to the fact that praising God is good for us. As such the verse would be particularly pertinent to this subsection. The following references similarly speak of the pleasantness of praising God.

Ps 135:3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing to his name, for it is pleasant!^h

^h Or for he is beautiful

Ps 147:1 Praise the LORD! *For it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant,*ⁱ and a song of praise is fitting.

ⁱ Or for he is beautiful

Note: God has formed his people to bring himself praise and honor

God has formed his people to bring himself praise and honor. This praise and honor occurs through such things as: the praise that they themselves give God; the things that God does for them, drawing praise from themselves and others; and that what God makes them to become reflects God's greatness, bringing him renown, praise and honor.

Isa 43:20-21 The wild beasts will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, ²¹the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise.

In v. 20 the wild animals are figuratively said to honor God, to reflect the honor and praise given to God for his provision of water for his people as they returned from exile through desolate land. Verse 21 then speaks of the people themselves praising God, with presumably his provision being largely in view.

1Pet 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Isa 60:21 Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.^j

^j Or that I might display my beauty

The future renewed Israel is in view here and below in the verses from Isaiah and Jeremiah 33:8-9. What God will make Israel will reflect his splendor (cf. Isa 61:3 ↓), no doubt bringing him praise and honor.

Isa 61:3 ... to grant to those who mourn in Zion— to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.^k

^k Or that he may display his beauty

Isa 61:10-11 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall exult in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. ¹¹For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to sprout up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations.

The phrase "righteousness and praise" (v. 11b) probably refers to the righteousness and praise of all nations (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT). As such this speaks of God bringing himself praise in the sight of and even from other nations (v. 11) through what he has done for his people (v. 10b). Correspondingly, his people themselves exult in him (v. 10a). For comment on the term "robe of righteousness" (v. 10), see Isa 61:10 – under ... in which we should rejoice and exult, p. 1284.

Jer 33:8-9 I will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me. ⁹And this city^l shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them. They shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

^l Hebrew And it

Eph 1:4b-6, 11-14 In love ⁵he predestined us^m for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, ⁶to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. ... ¹¹In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, ¹²so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴who is the guaranteeⁿ of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it,^o to the praise of his glory.

^m Or before him in love, having predestined us

ⁿ Or down payment

^o Or until God redeems his possession

Note that the final clause (v. 14b) may have in view God sealing believers with the Holy Spirit (v. 13b), as well as them acquiring their inheritance (v. 14a) – or his redemption of them (cf. text note) – "to the praise of his glory".

Jer 13:11 For as the loincloth clings to the waist of a man, so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me, declares the LORD, that they might be for me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory, but they would not listen.

God formed Israel in part to bring himself praise and glory, but they largely failed to live up to this goal.

✚ God seeks glory for himself:

John 8:50 Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is One who seeks it, and he is the judge.

Here Jesus is speaking, stating that God seeks glory.

For our praise and thanksgiving to be valid and acceptable to God, it is critical that we be righteous, striving to live righteous lives.

Ps 26:6-7 I wash my hands in innocence and go around your altar, O LORD, ⁷proclaiming thanksgiving aloud, and telling all your wondrous deeds.

In the first clause the psalmist speaks, perhaps figuratively, of declaring or showing his innocence (CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT), indicative of his righteousness.

Wholeheartedly

Ps 9:1 I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart; I will recount all of your wonderful deeds.

2Sam 6:14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might. And David was wearing a linen ephod.

David's dancing before God was part of a celebration before God – an act of worship in praise and honor of God.

2Chr 30:21 And the people of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with all their might^s to the LORD.

Ps 42:8 By day the LORD commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

The psalmist's prayer takes the form of a song (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT), presumably in praise of God.

Dan 2:23 To you, O God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, for you have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we asked of you, for you have made known to us the king's matter.

This is an example of thanksgiving and praise being given to God in prayer, in this case for what God had done.

The singing and melody we make to the Lord should not just be the literal, audible kind. Our hearts and minds should consistently overflow with singing and melody to him.

2Chr 20:21 And when he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to the LORD and praise him in holy attire, as they went before the army, and say, "Give thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures forever."

Choirs singing songs of praise and thanksgiving were an important part of formal worship in the OT – as shown in the following verses and in the following subsection.

2Chr 30:21 And the people of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness, and the Levites and the priests praised

‡ God is his people’s song:

Ex 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

The LORD is called “my song” because he is the subject and stimulus for the Israelites’ song – “the reason for my song” (CEV); he “makes me sing” (NCV™).

With dancing

Ps 149:3 Let them praise his name with dancing, making melody to him with tambourine and lyre!

Ps 150:4 Praise him with tambourine and dance; praise him with strings and pipe!

2Sam 6:14-16 And David danced before the LORD with all his might. And David was wearing a linen ephod. ¹⁵So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn. ¹⁶As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.

David danced “to honour the LORD” (GNT), expressing his joy in the spirit of this celebration, which was in worship of the LORD. Note that David’s wife Michal’s reaction (v. 16b) was entirely inappropriate, as later implied (cf. vv. 21-23).

Ex 15:20-21 Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women went out after her with tambourines and dancing. ²¹And Miriam sang to them: “Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.”

✦ On being healed, a previously crippled man walked and leaped as he praised God:

Acts 3:8 And leaping up he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

With lifting up of hands

Neh 8:6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, “Amen, Amen,” lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Ps 63:4 So I will bless you as long as I live; in your name I will lift up my hands.

Given the context, in the latter part of the verse David may well be speaking of lifting up his hands in praise and honor of God’s name. However it could be referring more generally to prayer (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT; cf. 1Tim 2:8 ↓).

Ps 134:2 Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless the LORD!

✦ A call to lift up hands in prayer:

By making offerings

See also:

▪ Offerings are an important part of worshiping God, p. 1362

▪ Offerings express thanksgiving to God for his deliverance, p. 1364

The OT practices of making formal offerings (or sacrifices) as expressions of thanksgiving, parallel – and are applicable to – the giving of our resources to God and his work as expressions of our thankfulness for his goodness.

Lev 7:11-12 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings that one may offer to the LORD. ¹²*If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the thanksgiving sacrifice unleavened loaves mixed with oil, unleavened wafers smeared with oil, and loaves of fine flour well mixed with oil.*

2Chr 29:31 Then Hezekiah said, “You have now consecrated yourselves to^z the LORD. Come near; bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD.” And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

^z Hebrew filled your hand for Ps 50:14, 23 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving,^a and perform your vows to the Most High,  ... ²³*The one who offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice glorifies me; to one who orders his way rightly I will show the salvation of God!*

^a Or Make thanksgiving your sacrifice to God

Ps 56:12-13 I must perform my vows to you, O God; I will render thank offerings to you. ¹³For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life.

Ps 107:21-22 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! ²²*And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and tell of his deeds in songs of joy!*

Note that this speaks of the sacrifice of thank offerings (v. 22) supplementing thanksgiving to God (v. 21).

Ps 116:12, 17 What shall I render to the LORD for all his benefits to me?  ... ¹⁷*I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the LORD.*

Offerings are not only an expression of our thankfulness to God (v. 17), but in a sense they are to a small extent a repayment for all his goodness (v. 12).

Jer 33:10b-11 ... there shall be heard again ¹¹the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: “Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!” For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

✦ Offering a song of thanksgiving as a sacrifice:

Jonah 2:9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Salvation belongs to the LORD!

As well as doing so by ourselves, we should also give praise and thanks to God with and among other people. Note that the things spoken of in the preceding subsections are applicable to praising and thanking God both individually and with others.

Neh 12:24 And the chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers who stood opposite them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, watch by watch.

Ps 34:3 Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together!

Ps 35:18 I will thank you in the great congregation; in the mighty throng I will praise you.

The “great congregation” (cf. Ps 111:1 ↓; Ps 40:9-10 ↓; Ps 68:26 ↓; Ps 107:32 ↓) and the “mighty throng” refer to the great company of the people gathered for worship at the tabernacle or temple.

Ps 68:26 “Bless God in the great congregation, the LORD, O you^b who are of Israel’s fountain!”

^b The Hebrew for you is plural here

Ps 111:1 ^c Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

^c This psalm is an acrostic poem, each line beginning with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet

Ps 40:9-10 I have told the glad news of deliverance^d in the great congregation; behold, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O LORD. ¹⁰I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation.

^d Hebrew righteousness; also verse 10

David would not hide what he knew of God – notably God’s wonderful characteristics, reflected in his deeds. Rather David proclaimed these things to other worshipers. As such he was effectively praising God amongst others.

Ps 57:9 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to you among the nations.

This may well have an evangelical thrust (cf. What God is like and what he has done . . . , p. 1744; and . . . including what God has done for you, p. 1745). It certainly has such an application.

Ps 71:16-18 With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come; I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone. ¹⁷O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds. ¹⁸So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come.

As with David in 40:9-10 above, in v. 16 the psalmist speaks of going to the place of worship and proclaiming God’s acts and righteousness to others gathered there. Such public praise would also appear to be what is spoken of in the subsequent verses (vv. 17-18).

Ps 107:32 Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

- c) Joy, p. 890

To rejoice is to be glad or joyful. By focusing on God, his promises and the wonderful things he has done – in the world, for others and for ourselves (including his many blessings) – we cannot help but be filled with joy, and so we rejoice. This is typically done in conjunction with praising and thanking God.

Rejoice and be glad in God

Ps 97:12 Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name!

Ps 32:11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Ps 33:1 Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous! Praise befits the upright.

Ps 33:21 For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name.

Ps 70:4 May all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you! May those who love your salvation say evermore, “God is great!”

Psalm 40:16 likewise says: “... may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you ...”

Ps 104:34 May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.

Ps 105:3 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!

Ps 149:2 Let Israel be glad in his Maker; let the children of Zion rejoice in their King!

Phil 3:1a Finally, my brothers,^e rejoice in the Lord.

^e Or brothers and sisters; also verses 13, 17

Here “rejoice in the Lord” (cf. 4:4) appears to have a subtly different meaning to similar phrases in the other verses in this subsection, in addition to it referring to Jesus Christ. Rather than meaning rejoice in or because of the Lord, it probably more specifically means rejoice “in your union with the Lord” (GNT). See Rejoice and take pride “in” Jesus Christ, p. 1081.

Rom 5:11 More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The phrase “through our Lord Jesus Christ” is referring to either how we rejoice in God (cf. d) Epilogue: God’s People Relate to God through Jesus Christ, p. 795) or the reason why we can, as per the remainder of the verse.

Rom 12:12 Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.

We are to rejoice in or because of the hope we have due to God, with his promises and what he has done for us, in particular what he has done through Jesus Christ.

Ps 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

This indicates that rejoicing is not incompatible with fearing God and trembling before him.

Ps 34:2 My soul makes its boast in the LORD; let the humble hear and be glad.

Lev 23:40 And you shall take on the first day the fruit of splendid trees, branches of palm trees and boughs of leafy trees and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

Note that these instructions were in regard to celebrating the Feast of Booths.

Neh 12:43 And they offered great sacrifices that day and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and children also rejoiced. And the joy of Jerusalem was heard far away.

Even amidst the sorrow Paul encountered in his work, Paul always had reason to rejoice (cf. Hab 3:16-19 ↓).

Deut 12:18b And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you undertake.

This rendering points to the fact that God’s people should rejoice before God in everything they do (cf. Nlrv). However, although the verse is applicable to this, note that the context suggests that it is probably more specifically speaking of the people being gathered together before God and rejoicing over everything that they had done or worked for (cf. GNT, NCV).

Deut 33:18 And of Zebulun he said, “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and Issachar, in your tents.”

The phrase “in your going out” is often understood to denote one’s outside activities – particularly those regarding one’s occupation – and “in your tents” probably refers to one’s home life. Together they appear to be intended to encompass all of life and all one does. As such this verse indicates that we are to rejoice always, in everything we do.

Ps 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy, and spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may exult in you.

We should sing for joy “always” (CEV, GNT) and “forever” (NCV™, NLT).

Hab 3:16-19a I hear, and my body trembles; my lips quiver at the sound; rottenness enters into my bones; my legs tremble beneath me. Yet I will quietly wait for the day of trouble to come upon people who invade us. ¹⁷*Though the fig tree should not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines, the produce of the olive fail and the fields yield no food, the flock be cut off from the fold and there be no herd in the stalls,* ¹⁸*yet I will rejoice in the LORD; I will take joy in the God of my salvation.* ¹⁹GOD, the Lord, is my strength; he makes my feet like the deer’s; he makes me tread on my high places.

Even in affliction one can – and should – rejoice in God (cf. 2Cor 6:10 ↑).

‡ “The joy of the LORD is your strength”:

Neh 8:10 Then he said to them, “Go your way. Eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to anyone who has nothing ready, for this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

The people would draw strength from the joy that they had in the LORD, or the “joy that the Lord gives” (GNT, cf. CEV).

To exult in God is to rejoice in him with a sense of triumph and celebration. To “glory” in God is similar; it also involves taking pride in God. As such it is akin to boasting in God.

Ps 9:2 I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

Ps 64:10 Let the righteous one rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him! Let all the upright in heart exult!

Ps 68:3-4 But the righteous shall be glad; they shall exult before God; they shall be jubilant with joy! ⁴Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts; his name is the LORD; exult before him!

Zeph 3:14 Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!

This is from a prophecy of the restoration and redemption of Jerusalem and the remnant of Israel (cf. v. 13).

‡ The godly should exult in “glory”:

Ps 149:5 Let the godly exult in glory; let them sing for joy on their beds.

This appears to be speaking of God’s people exulting in the glory that is theirs in their relationship with God. As such “glory” has a different sense here to the above verses.

Rejoice and exult when giving praise and thanks to God

Ps 9:2 I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

Ps 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.

Ps 97:12 Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name!

Ps 68:4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts; his name is the LORD; exult before him!

Ps 106:47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise.

The last clause is probably speaking of glorying in praising God (cf. AMP).

Rev 19:7 Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; ...

II. Reasons to Exalt God

Not only does the Bible tell us to persistently exalt God, it is bulging with good reasons for doing so. Generally speaking, these compelling reasons, or things for which to exalt God, concern what God is like and what he does.

Note that the ensuing sections and subsections, to a degree correspond to the following chapters and their major sections (and generally have been ordered accordingly): 1. God's Being; 2. God's Character; 6. God's Creation; 7. God's Sovereignty; and 19. God's Care of His People.

Also note that as rejoicing is usually done in the context of exalting God – praising, thanking and glorifying him – verses speaking of things for which to rejoice, or rejoice in God, have been included in the following sections. These are usually amongst the other references, but they are in a separate subsection where there are a number of them regarding a particular theme.

a) Aspects of God's Being

The verses in this and the following section speak of exalting both attributes of God and exalting God himself because of attributes of his. Doing the former effectively does the latter as well.

Subsections

- God's glory
- God's eternity
- God's greatness
- God's power
- God's wisdom and knowledge
- God's "name"

God's glory

See also:

- 1Tim 6:15-16 ↕; Rev 4:9 ↕
- b) God's Glory, p. 13

Note that it is debatable in a number of the following verses as to whether the writers are speaking of: exalting the actual glory of God's essence and presence; acknowledging the glory (or gloriousness) of God that is due to his attributes and to what he does; or giving glory to him in the sense of glorifying or honoring him (cf. Glorify God, giving glory to him, p. 1238). See also the comment below under 1 Chronicles 29:10b-13, and the introductory comment to b) God's Glory, p. 13.

1Chr 29:10b-13 And David said: "Blessed are you, O LORD, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. ¹¹*Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all.* ¹²*Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might, and in your hand it is to make great and to give strength to all.* ¹³*And now we thank you, our God, and praise your glorious name.* 📖

As in some of the following passages, in v. 11 the speaker appears to ascribe glory to God. Doing so appears to both attribute it to God and in a sense assign it to God, the latter being somewhat similar to a blessing. God's name is glorious (v. 13) in no small part due to the glory of his presence along with: the glory that emanates from attributes such as his power, which in a sense reflect the glory of God's presence; and the glory given to him by people glorifying him.

Ps 29:1-2 Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings,^a ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. ²*Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness.*^b 📖

^a Hebrew sons of God, or sons of might

^b Or in holy attire

Ps 29:9 The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth^c and strips the forests bare, and in his temple all cry, "Glory!" 📖

^c Revocalization yields makes the oaks to shake

The cry of "Glory" is in response to the aforementioned manifestation of God's awesome power (cf. vv. 3-8) and in acknowledgment of its reflection of God's glory.

Ps 66:2 ...sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise! 📖

The call to "give to him glorious praise" probably has in view the form of the praise reflecting the glory or gloriousness of God.

Ps 71:8 My mouth is filled with your praise, and with your glory all the day. 📖

The last clause may well be speaking of declaring God's glory (cf. GNT, NIV, NLT).

Ps 72:19 Blessed be his glorious name forever; may the whole earth be filled with his glory! Amen and Amen! 📖

The second clause appears to express the desire – virtually as a prayer – that God’s glory be revealed throughout all the earth (cf. CEV). The manner and context in which the author does this exalts God’s glory.

Psa 138:5 ... and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD, for great is the glory of the LORD.

This implies that God’s ways exhibit his glory (cf. Eph 1:4b-6, 11-14 ↓). Singing of God’s marvelous ways, indirectly at least, points to and exalts his glory.

Isa 24:14 They lift up their voices, they sing for joy; over the majesty of the LORD they shout from the west.^d

^d Hebrew from the sea

This speaks of praise of God’s majesty (cf. 1Chr 29:11 ↑; Jude 1:25 ↓), an attribute associated with and reflective of his glory.

Ezek 3:12 Then the Spirit^e lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice^f of a great earthquake: “Blessed be the glory of the LORD from its place!”

^e Or the wind; also verse 14

^f Or sound

The phrase “from its place” appears to refer to heaven (cf. GNT, NCV). The glory of God’s essence and presence is in view.

Jude 1:24-25 Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, ²⁵to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

Here “glory, majesty, power and authority” (v. 25) are ascribed to God – or proclaimed as God’s – throughout the past, present and future. With the clause “through Jesus Christ our Lord”, Jude quite possibly means that they are God’s through Christ. Alternatively he may be speaking of offering such acclamation through Christ (cf. Nlrv).

Rev 19:1 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, ...

Note that “hallelujah” is a call to praise God, often used itself as an expression of praise to God.

✦ What God has done regarding his people through Jesus Christ is to the praise of his glorious grace and his glory:

Eph 1:4b-6, 11-14 In love ⁵he predestined us^g for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, ⁶to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. ... ¹¹In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, ¹²so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴who is the guarantee^h of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it;ⁱ to the praise of his glory.

^g Or before him in love, having predestined us

^h Or down payment

ⁱ Or until God redeems his possession

These verses reflect that God’s glory is manifested or reflected in what he does (vv. 11-14). Note that the praise spoken of in the final clause (v. 14b) may have in view believers being sealed with the Holy Spirit (v. 13) as well as their inheritance and completed redemption (v. 14a; cf. text note).

Neh 9:5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, “Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting. Blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

The phrase “from everlasting to everlasting” may well be speaking of God’s eternity (cf. CEV, NCV, NIV, NLT) – hence the inclusion of the verse here. But note that some translations interpret the phrase to be referring to how we should bless or praise God, i.e. that we should do so forever (cf. GNT, NASB). Even so, the latter case points to the former.

Dan 4:34 At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation; ...

1Tim 6:15-16 ... which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, ¹⁶who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

Rev 4:8-10a And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and within, and *day and night they never cease to say, "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"*⁹ And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to him who is seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before him who is seated on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever.

The expression "who was and is and is to come" (v. 8) attests to both the past and future aspects of God's eternity, along with his present existence.

✦ Ascribe honor and glory to God forever:

1Tim 1:17 *To the King of ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever!*¹ Amen.

In conjunction with and indicative of his eternity, Paul speaks of honor and glory either as being possessed by or as being continually given to God, "forever and ever".

Rev 19:1 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, “Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, ...”

Here power is ascribed to God (cf. Ps 68:34 ↑). The implication is that ultimate power belongs to God.

✦ Acknowledge God’s might:

Isa 33:13 Hear, you who are far off, what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge my might.

The rhetorical questions in v. 34 underline that God’s mind and wisdom far surpass that of anyone else.

Rom 16:27 ... to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen.

Dan 2:20 Daniel answered and said: “Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, to whom belong wisdom and might.”

Rev 7:11-12 And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Wisdom, along with the other attributes mentioned, is being ascribed to God – such things “belong to our God” (CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

Ps 92:5 How great are your works, O LORD! Your thoughts are very deep!

The subsequent verses (vv. 1-4) speak of thanksgiving, praise and rejoicing, suggesting that this also is spoken in praise.

✦ Give thanks to God that “his Name” is near:

Ps 75:1 We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks, for your name is near. We^a recount your wondrous deeds.

^a Hebrew They

The psalmist effectively gives thanks that God himself (cf. CEV, NCV, NLT) is near, as evidenced by his wonderful deeds.

God's holiness

See also:

- a) Holiness [God's], p. 54

God's holiness – in which he is set apart from all others in his purity and righteousness – should evoke awe, praise and worship.

Ps 71:22 I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praises to you with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

“O Holy One of Israel” suggests that God's holiness is at least partly in view in the aforementioned praise.

Ps 97:12 Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name!

Ps 99:3, 5, 9 Let them praise your great and awesome name! Holy is he! ... ⁵*Exalt the LORD our God; worship at his footstool! Holy is he!* ... ⁹*Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy mountain; for the LORD our God is holy!*

Rev 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and within, and day and night they never cease to say, “Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!”

Rev 15:4 Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.

2Chr 20:21 And when he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to the LORD and praise him in holy attire, as they went before the army, and say, “Give thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures forever.”

It is debatable as to whether “holy attire” refers to God's holiness (cf. CEV, NCV, NIV, NKJV, NLT) – which would make the verse relevant to this subsection – or to the priests' holy garments (cf. AMP, GNT).

✦ Glory in God's holy name:

Ps 105:3 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!

We are to glory or exult in God's holy name (cf. NLT), rejoicing and being glad that we belong to him (cf. GNT, NCV).

God's steadfast love . . .

Ps 31:7-8, 21 I will rejoice and be glad in your steadfast love, because you have seen my affliction; you have known the distress of my soul, ⁸and you have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy; you have set my feet in a broad place. ... ²¹*Blessed be the LORD, for he has wondrously shown his steadfast love to me when I was in a besieged city.*

Ps 36:7 How precious is your steadfast love, O God! The children of mankind take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

Ps 63:3 Because your steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise you.

Ps 59:16-17 But I will sing of your strength; I will sing aloud of your steadfast love in the morning. For you have been to me a fortress and a refuge in the day of my distress. ¹⁷O my Strength, I will sing praises to you, for you, O God, are my fortress, the God who shows me steadfast love.

Ps 86:12-13 I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify your name forever. ¹³For great is your steadfast love toward me; you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

Ps 107:1, 8 Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!  ... ⁸*Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man!*

Ps 136:1-3, 26 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever. ²Give thanks to the God of gods, for his steadfast love endures forever. ³Give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his steadfast love endures forever;  ... ²⁶*Give thanks to the God of heaven, for his steadfast love endures forever.*

The refrain "his love endures forever" is repeated in each of this psalm's 26 verses. It is likewise used as a refrain in 118:1-4.

Ezra 7:27-28a Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who put such a thing as this into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of the LORD that is in Jerusalem, ²⁸and who extended to me his steadfast love before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty officers.

... along with God's faithfulness

See also:

- c) Faithfulness [God's], p. 64

God's love and faithfulness are often spoken of together in the OT, usually in the context of praise to God, as shown in a number of the passages here.

Ps 57:9-10 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to you among the nations. ¹⁰For your steadfast love is great to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

Ps 89:1-2, 5, 8 I will sing of the steadfast love of the LORD, forever; with my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations. ²For I said, "Steadfast love will be built up forever; in the heavens you will establish your faithfulness."  ... ⁵Let the heavens praise your wonders, O LORD, your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones!  ... ⁸O LORD God of hosts, who is mighty as you are, O LORD, with your faithfulness all around you?

Verse 2a speaks of God's steadfast love being established to last forever.

Ps 92:1-2 It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; ²to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night, ...

Ps 100:4-5 Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! ⁵For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Ps 115:1 Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness!

Ps 117:1-2 Praise the LORD, all nations! Extol him, all peoples! ²For great is his steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever. Praise the LORD!

Ps 138:2 I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness, for you have exalted above all things your name and your word.^r

^r Or you have exalted your word above all your name

David speaks of God demonstrating his love and faithfulness in helping David, by which he had exalted above all things his name and his word or promises.

Isa 25:1 O LORD, you are my God; I will exalt you; I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

Isa 38:19 The living, the living, he thanks you, as I do this day; the father makes known to the children your faithfulness.

Gen 24:27 ... and said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his steadfast love and his faithfulness toward my master. As for me, the LORD has led me in the way to the house of my master's kinsmen."

1Ki 8:15, 56 *And he said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to David my father, saying,  ... ⁵⁶"Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. Not one word has failed of all his good promise, which he spoke by Moses his servant. *

God's faithfulness is exemplified by him faithfully keeping his promises, for which Solomon blesses him.

‡ Request that God's name be given glory because of his love and faithfulness:

Ps 115:1 Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness!

God's mercy

- b) Mercy [God's], p. 76

Ps 103:2-5 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, ³who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, ⁴who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, ⁵who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Rom 15:8-11 For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, ⁹and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name." ¹⁰And again it is said, "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people." ¹¹And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples extol him."

Christ's ministry to the Jews confirmed God's promises to the patriarchs (v. 8) which included promises of blessings for all nations, including that of salvation through the Messiah. So the Gentiles can now glorify God for his mercy (v. 9a), praising him and rejoicing with the Jews over the fulfillment of such promises (vv. 9b-11).

1Pet 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ...

2Cor 1:3-4 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, ⁴who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

God's mercy is often manifested in comforting his people, as reflected in the following verse. As such, God's comfort is another reason to exalt him, in conjunction with his mercy and compassion (cf. Isa 49:13 ↓).

Isa 49:13 Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth; break forth, O mountains, into singing! For the LORD has comforted his people and will have compassion on his afflicted.

Verse 4 may well have in view people bringing glory to God because he is holy as shown by his deeds (v. 3), his “righteous acts” (v. 4).

Luke 19:37-38 As he was drawing near—already on the way down the Mount of Olives—the whole multitude of his disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, ³⁸saying, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!”

Psa 136:3-9 Give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his steadfast love endures forever; ⁴to him who alone does great wonders, for his steadfast love endures forever; ⁵to him who by understanding made the heavens, for his steadfast love endures forever; ⁶to him who spread out the earth above the waters, for his steadfast love endures forever; ⁷to him who made the great lights, for his steadfast love endures forever; ⁸the sun to rule over the day, for his steadfast love endures forever; ⁹the moon and stars to rule over the night, for his steadfast love endures forever; ...

Psa 148:2-6 Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his hosts! ³Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars! ⁴Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens! ⁵Let them praise the name of the LORD! For he commanded and they were created. ⁶And he established them forever and ever; he gave a decree, and it shall not pass away.^a

^a Or it shall not be transgressed

Psa 95:2, 5-6 Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! ... ⁵The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land. ⁶Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!

Note that the title “our Maker” may refer to God as the creator of the nation Israel, rather than actually to him as the creator of their beings.

Psa 71:6 Upon you I have leaned from before my birth; you are he who took me from my mother’s womb. My praise is continually of you.

Psa 139:13-14 For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother’s womb. ¹⁴I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.^b Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.

^b Or for I am fearfully set apart

The phrase “your works” (v. 14b) is probably primarily at least a reference to God’s works of creation.

Ps 145:10 All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your saints shall bless you!

All that God has made will give thanks to him. The fact that he created them may well be primarily in view as the reason for giving thanks.

Rom 11:36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

In this context “through him” either indicates that all things are created through him – in which case it ties in very closely with the preceding phrase “from him” – or that all things continue to exist through him.

Ps 65:8b You make the going out of the morning and the evening to shout for joy.

This suggests that God’s working of morning and evening give reason to rejoice.

✦ Wisdom’s rejoicing over God’s creation:

Prov 8:30-31 [Wisdom:] ... then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his^c delight, rejoicing before him always, ³¹*rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.*

^c Or daily filled with

Wisdom is here personified and portrayed as delighting and rejoicing over God’s creation while participating in its formation.

Ps 136:25-26 ... [It is] he who gives food to all flesh, for his steadfast love endures forever. ²⁶*Give thanks to the God of heaven*, for his steadfast love endures forever.

Ps 107:4-6, 8-9 Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to a city to dwell in; ⁵*hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them.* ⁶*Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.* ... ⁸*Let*

Isa 43:20-21 The wild beasts will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, ²¹*the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise.*

For comment, see Isa 43:20-21 – under Note: God has formed his people to bring himself praise and honor, p. 1254.

Joel 2:26 You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Mark 8:6 And he directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and they set them before the crowd.

Luke 22:17, 19 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, “Take this, and divide it among yourselves. ... ¹⁹*And he took bread, and when he had given thanks*, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Rom 14:6 The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God.

Irrespective of what foods one considers appropriate to eat or not to eat, one should give thanks to God for that which one does eat.

1Cor 10:30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks?

The reference is to food that had been previously offered to idols (cf. v. 28).

1Tim 4:3-5 ... who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. ⁴*For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving,* ⁵*for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer.*

Any food that is received with thanksgiving is holy and acceptable to God, and so the eating of it is also acceptable to him. In v. 5 “prayer” may well refer to saying grace before meals, and possibly “the word of God” may then denote Scripture used in the grace. The “word of God” has also been interpreted as referring to teaching in Scripture regarding food, and even as an allusion to God's creative word.

. . . in which one should rejoice

Joel 2:23-24 Be glad, O children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God, for he has given the early rain for your vindication; he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the latter rain, as before. ²⁴*"The threshing floors shall be full of grain; the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.*

Deut 12:7 And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your households, in all that you undertake, in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

The Israelites were to rejoice in everything they had worked for, because God had blessed them in their work in obtaining food (cf. Deut 16:15 ↓).

Deut 16:13-15 You shall keep the Feast of Booths seven days, when you have gathered in the produce from your threshing floor and your winepress. ¹⁴*You shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are within your towns.* ¹⁵*For seven days you shall keep the feast to the LORD your God at the place that the LORD will choose, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful.*

The Feast of Booths was in part to celebrate the fruit harvest before God, rejoicing in and acknowledging God's provision.

Deut 26:9-11 And he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰*And behold, now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, O LORD, have given me.'* And you shall set it down before the LORD your God and worship before the LORD your God. ¹¹*And you shall rejoice in all the good that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the sojourner who is among you.*

Jer 31:12 They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and the herd; their life shall be like a watered garden, and they shall languish no more.

Such radiance is indicative of great joy.

✦ Bless God for good land that produces food:

Deut 8:10 And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

In his incredible anguish, Job blesses God for his sovereignty displayed in Job's circumstances (v. 21); one of the most riveting verses in the Bible.

Ps 47:1-2, 7-9 *Clap your hands, all peoples! Ps 67:4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth. Selah

Rejoice in and exalt God not just because he reigns supreme but, as indicated here, also because of how he reigns.

Ps 136:2-3 Give thanks to the God of gods, for his steadfast love endures forever. ³*Give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his steadfast love endures forever; ...*

This implies that as God is sovereign over all other authorities, we should give thanks to him – thanking him for such things as all he does and all we have within and because of his reign.

Ps 119:48, 54, 62, 111, 162, 164, 171-172 I will lift up my hands toward your commandments, which I love, and I will meditate on your statutes. 📖 ... ⁵⁴*Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my sojourning.* 📖 ... ⁶²*At midnight I rise to praise you, because of your righteous rules.* 📖 ... ¹¹¹*Your testimonies are my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.* 📖 ... ¹⁶²*I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil.* 📖 ... ¹⁶⁴*Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous rules.* 📖 ... ¹⁷¹*My lips will pour forth praise, for you teach me your statutes.* ¹⁷²*My tongue will sing of your word, for all your commandments are right.* 📖

Characteristically, joy and rejoicing (vv. 111, 162) accompany praise. In v. 48, the expression "I will lift up my hands towards" may be indicative of praise (cf. NCV), or similarly respect (cf. GNT, CEV).

Ps 138:4 All the kings of the earth shall give you thanks, O LORD, for they have heard the words of your mouth, ...

The “words of your mouth” probably refers to God’s promises (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NIV).

Acts 13:47-48 For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, “I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.”⁴⁸ And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed.

Acts 11:12-18 And the Spirit told me to go with them, making no distinction. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house. ¹³And he told us how he had seen the angel stand in his house and say, ‘Send to Joppa and bring Simon who is called Peter; ¹⁴*he will declare to you a message by which you will be saved, you and all your household.*’¹⁵As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’¹⁷*If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God’s way?*’¹⁸When they heard these things they fell silent. And they glorified God, saying, “Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance that leads to life.”

Note that glorifying of God for the extension of salvation to the Gentiles is also apparent in 13:47-48 in the previous subsection and 21:19-20a below.

Acts 21:19-20a After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. ²⁰*And when they heard it, they glorified God.*

2Cor 2:14 But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere.

Paul alludes to the practice of victorious Roman generals leading their soldiers and captives in a triumphant procession, where the air was filled with sweet aroma, to portray God triumphantly spreading the gospel through him in Christ.

2Cor 4:15 For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

Paul speaks of God’s grace producing great thanksgiving, as it touches the lives of more and more people in bringing salvation through the gospel.

Phil 1:18a What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in that I rejoice.

1Thes 2:13 And we also thank God constantly^f for this, that when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers.

^f Or without ceasing

Rom 6:17 But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, ...

Here Paul appears to be giving thanks to God for the Roman believers’ adherence to Christian teaching, subsequent to their conversion.

God’s judgments

See also:

- 10. God’s Judgment, p. 417

The following verses largely speak of exalting God for his judgments because of their justice and/or their awesomeness.

Ps 9:2-4 I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High. ³*When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish before^g your presence.* ⁴*For you have maintained my just cause; you have sat on the throne, giving righteous judgment.*

^g Or because of

Ps 67:4-5 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth. Selah ⁵*Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you!*

Ps 76:8-10 From the heavens you uttered judgment; the earth feared and was still, ⁹*when God arose to establish judgment, to save all the humble of the earth.* Selah ¹⁰*Surely the wrath of man shall praise you; the remnant^h of wrath you will put on like a belt.*

^h Or extremity

The meaning of the Hebrew in v. 10 is unclear. Quite possibly the first clause is meaning that God's judgment (v. 9) against "the wrath of man" will bring him praise (cf. GNT, NRSV).

Ps 96:10-13 Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns! Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity." ¹¹*Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it; ¹²let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy ¹³before the LORD, for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness, and the peoples in his faithfulness.*

Here and in 98:8-9 immediately below, creation is poetically called upon to rejoice and sing because of God's righteous judgment. The implication is that all people everywhere should rejoice and sing as such.

Ps 98:8-9 Let the rivers clap their hands; let the hills sing for joy together ⁹before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

Ps 48:11 Let Mount Zion be glad! Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments!

Rev 14:7 And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

Rev 19:1-3 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, ²for his judgments are true and just; for he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality, and has avenged on her the blood of his servants."¹ ³*Once more they cried out, "Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up forever and ever."*

ⁱ Greek bondservants; also verse 5

The "great prostitute" (v. 2) is "Babylon the great" (18:2), which is usually understood to represent either ancient Rome, ungodly world powers in general, or a future ungodly city of great influence.

Deut 32:43 "Rejoice with him, O heavens; bow down to him, all gods,^j for he avenges the blood of his children^k and takes vengeance on his adversaries. He repays those who hate him^l and cleanses^m his people's land."ⁿ

^j Dead Sea Scroll, Septuagint; Masoretic Text Rejoice his people, O nations

^k Dead Sea Scroll, Septuagint; Masoretic Text servants

^l Dead Sea Scroll, Septuagint; Masoretic Text lacks He repays those who hate him

^m Or atones for

ⁿ Septuagint, Vulgate; Hebrew his land his people

This and the following references do not refer explicitly to "judgment", but they are obviously examples of God's judgment and the joy and/or the glorifying of God that it inspires.

Isa 25:2-3 For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the foreigners' palace is a city no more; it will never be rebuilt. ³Therefore strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you.

Rev 11:13 And at that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

Note that these survivors had been ungodly people. Commentators differ over whether their giving glory to God was an indication of genuine repentance.

Ps 66:4-5 All the earth worships you and sings praises to you; they sing praises to your name. Selah ⁵*Come and see what God has done: he is awesome in his deeds toward the children of man.*

Here and in 107:31-32 below, "the children of man" refers to people of God. Here the crossing of the Red Sea and possibly also the crossing of the Jordan are in view in particular (cf. v. 6).

Ps 107:31-32 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! ³²*Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.*

Isa 63:7 I will recount the steadfast love of the LORD, the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has granted us, and the great goodness to the house of Israel that he has granted them according to his compassion, according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

Joel 2:21, 26 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things! ... ²⁶*You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.*

Luke 1:46-49 And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, ⁴⁷and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, ⁴⁸for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant. For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed; ⁴⁹for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

Ps 126:3 The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad.

Note that salvation is not specifically mentioned in most of the following passages, but each passage does speak of at least one aspect of salvation.

Luke 1:68-69 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people ⁶⁹and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, ...

Luke 2:10-12, 16, 20 And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. ¹¹For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. ¹²And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." ... ¹⁶And they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in a manger. ... ²⁰And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The fact that the shepherds found the child as they had been told (vv. 16, 20b) was a sign to them (v. 12) affirming the truth of the rest of the angel's message (v. 11). As such they glorified and praised God for what had been made known to them concerning this savior (v. 20).

Rom 7:23-25a ...but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. ²⁴Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? ²⁵Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

For comment on “body of death” (v. 24), see Rom 7:23-25 – under Jesus Christ's death sets us free from sin's control . . ., p. 598.

1Cor 15:54-57 When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.” ⁵⁵“O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?” ⁵⁶The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Death gets its “power to hurt” (GNT, NCV) from sin, which in turn is empowered by the law’s condemnation of people who commit sin (v. 56). But through Jesus Christ believers are given victory over death (vv. 54-55), a key aspect of salvation.

2Cor 9:15 Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift!

This “inexpressible gift” is most probably a reference to Jesus Christ, reflective of the salvation that comes through him.

Gal 1:3-5 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴*who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,* ⁵*to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.*

Eph 1:3-6, 13-14 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, ⁴*even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love* ⁵*he predestined us* ^o*for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will,* ⁶*to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved.* ... ¹³*In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit,* ¹⁴*who is the guarantee* ^p*of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it,* ^q*to the praise of his glory.*

^o Or before him in love, having predestined us

^p Or down payment

^q Or until God redeems his possession

The phrase “in the heavenly places” (v. 3) may be indicating that the blessings spoken of are ones that we will experience in the afterlife. Alternatively, the phrase is possibly emphasizing the heavenly and eternal dimension of spiritual blessings that we have now. Note that blessings associated with God’s salvation are prominent in this and the following verses.

Col 1:11-12 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, ¹²*giving thanks^r to the Father, who has qualified you^s to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.*

^r Or patience, with joy giving thanks

^s Some manuscripts us

Heb 12:28 Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, ...

1Pet 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Jude 1:24-25 Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, ²⁵*to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.*

Zec 9:9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

The people were called on to rejoice in view of the coming of the Messiah, who would bring salvation.

1Pet 1:3-6, 8-9 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴*to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you,* ⁵*who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.* ⁶*In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials,* ... ⁸*Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory,* ⁹*obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.*

Note that v. 3 speaks of how through Jesus Christ's resurrection God has brought believers into a "living hope" (v. 3). This is a hope of such things as their own resurrection and inheritance (v. 4), which are aspects of the salvation to be consummated in "the last time" (v. 5).

Rom 5:11 More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The reason given for rejoicing here is our reconciliation with God, a key aspect of our salvation.

Luke 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.

Rom 5:2 Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we^u rejoice^v in hope of the glory of God.

^t Some manuscripts omit by faith

^u Or let us; also verse 3

^v Or boast; also verses 3, 11

The "hope of the glory of God" refers to the hope of "sharing God's glory" (GNT, NCV, NLT).

‡ Future rejoicing and glorifying of God for the wedding of the lamb:

Rev 19:7 Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; ...

This psalm contains cycles, each of which describe: hardship; cries to God for help; God's deliverance; and calls to give thanks to God for his deliverance. A longer excerpt is included in Praise and thank God when he answers prayer made in hard times, p. 1973.

Isa 38:20 The LORD will save me, and we will play my music on stringed instruments all the days of our lives, at the house of the LORD.

Isa 44:23 Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it; shout, O depths of the earth; break forth into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and will be glorified in Israel.*

Isa 51:3 For the LORD comforts Zion; he comforts all her waste places and makes her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

The joy, gladness, thanksgiving and singing in Zion are undoubtedly focused on God in response to his comfort in restoring her.

Isa 52:9-10 Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Jer 20:13 Sing to the LORD; praise the LORD! For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

Luke 5:24-25 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the man who was paralyzed—“I say to you, rise, pick up your bed and go home.” ²⁵*And immediately he rose up before them and picked up what he had been lying on and went home, glorifying God.*

Acts 3:6-8 But Peter said, “I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!” ⁷*And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong.* ⁸*And leaping up he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.*

Ps 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy, and spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may exult in you.

God's protection, effectively delivering from harm, gives good reason to rejoice.

Ps 21:1 O LORD, in your strength the king rejoices, and in your salvation how greatly he exults!

Ps 35:9-10 Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD, exulting in his salvation. ¹⁰*All my bones shall say, “O LORD, who is like you, delivering the poor from him who is too strong for him, the poor and needy from him who robs him?”*

The expression “the LORD does valiantly” (vv. 15-16) and the resultant “day the LORD has made” (v. 24) speak of the “salvation” (v. 15a) that he had brought about for his people (cf. v. 21).

Ps 149:4-5 For the LORD takes pleasure in his people; he adorns the humble with salvation. ⁵*Let the godly exult in glory; let them sing for joy on their beds.*

The “glory” (v. 5) is associated with the “salvation” that God has adorned them with (v. 4).

Isa 25:9 It will be said on that day, “Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.”

Isa 29:19-20 The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the poor among mankind shall exult in the Holy One of Israel. ²⁰*For the ruthless shall come to nothing and the scoffer cease, and all who watch to do evil shall be cut off, ...*

This is taken from prophecies of future restoration for Israel.

Isa 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall exult in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Although a number of commentators think it is being used in its usual sense as speaking of living righteously, here “righteousness” may be referring to righting what is wrong. If this is the case, then “he has covered me with the robe of righteousness”, like the clause preceding it, also refers to God’s salvation.

1Pet 5:10-11 And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. ¹¹*To him be the dominion forever and ever. Amen.*

In apparent praise of God – for his strengthening (v. 10) – in v. 11 Peter ascribes dominion to God, acknowledging God’s sovereignty, and in a sense expressing the desire and/or belief that it will belong to God forever.

Ex 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

The description of the LORD as “my strength and my song” appears to speak of the strength that God gives as leading to praise of him in song.

Ps 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.

David calls God “my strength” (cf. Ex 15:2a ; Ps 59:17 ; Hab 3:19 ; cf. Ps 81:1 ) for the strength of God’s people lies in God’s strength.

Ps 59:17 O my Strength, I will sing praises to you, for you, O God, are my fortress, the God who shows me steadfast love.

Ps 81:1 Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob!

This illustrates that we should bless God for his guidance.

Ezra 7:27-28a *Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who put such a thing as this into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of the LORD that is in Jerusalem,*²⁸*and who extended to me his steadfast love before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty officers.*

Ezra blessed God for moving the king to greatly assist him in his work for God. Like Ezra we should praise God for his help in our service of him.

1Ki 8:56 Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. Not one word has failed of all his good promise, which he spoke by Moses his servant.

Ps 16:7-9 I bless the LORD who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me.^c 8 I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken. 9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being^d rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure.

In v. 9, David appears to have his own blessed state at least partly in view – as depicted by the flourishing olive tree imagery (v. 8) – in speaking of thanking God for what he has done. As such, David speaks of thanking God for his blessing of him.

Ps 103:2-5 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, ³*who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,* ⁴*who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,* ⁵*who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.*

Ps 119:171 My lips will pour forth praise, for you teach me your statutes.

Isa 12:1 You^e will say in that day: "I will give thanks to you, O LORD, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me.

Isa 26:12-13 O LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for you have indeed done for us all our works. ¹³*O LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but your name alone we bring to remembrance.*

Matt 11:25 At that time Jesus declared, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; ...

The "things" (v. 25) probably primarily refers to the significance of Jesus' mission and matters of the kingdom. The term "little children" refers to those who like a child are humble, unassuming and unlearned but open to being taught.

1Tim 1:12 I thank him who has given me strength, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful, appointing me to his service, ...

James 5:13 Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise.

When we are cheerful we should praise God for such happiness and the reasons for it, which generally are things God has done for us.

✚ Believing in God gives reason to rejoice:

Acts 16:34 Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.

The previous section spoke of some of the wonderful things that God does or has done for his people – in the context of exalting God. This section emphasizes the vastness of God's blessing of his people. The verses in this section generally do not explicitly speak of exalting God because of his vast blessings, but obviously they are readily applicable and adaptable to doing so.

Note that references to blessings in verses from the OT often have material blessings primarily in view. In contrast NT verses primarily speak of spiritual blessings, reflecting one of the differences between the old and new covenants. The OT promises of material blessings can be applied in a spiritual sense to believers in the present life and also the afterlife.

The "goodness of your house" may refer to – and is at least applicable to – the spiritual blessings that come from God's presence, where one can have communion with God.

Ps 115:12-13 The LORD has remembered us; he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron; ¹³he will bless those who fear the LORD, both the small and the great.

Ps 132:15 I will abundantly bless her provisions; I will satisfy her poor with bread.

^g Or by you all the families of the earth shall bless themselves

This wonderful blessing of God for Abraham, including God's blessing of others through him, arguably has an application to Abraham's spiritual descendants – as often do other blessings bestowed on persons of God. Note that Numbers 24:9b – spoken of in regard to Israel – echoes v. 3a: “Blessed are those who bless you, and cursed are those who curse you.”

Ps 102:13 You will arise and have pity on Zion; it is the time to favor her; the appointed time has come.

This speaks of a time of deliverance for Jerusalem.

Luke 4:18-19 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, ¹⁹*to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.*”

This quotation is from Isaiah 61:1-2 where it initially had the Israelite's release from the Babylonian exile in view. Here Jesus applies it to his mission. As such it speaks of the salvation that God grants through him. The phrase “liberty to the captives” (v. 18b) is understood by many here in the context of Jesus' ministry to refer to release from sin; the clause “set at liberty those who are oppressed” (v. 18b) possibly also alludes to this.

The verses in this subsection highlight that the things God does for his people (in blessing them) are numerous, good and/or great.

1Ki 8:66 On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their homes joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to David his servant and to Israel his people.

Isa 63:7 I will recount the steadfast love of the LORD, the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has granted us, and the great goodness to the house of Israel that he has granted them according to his compassion, according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

Jer 32:40 I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

God promised to “never stop doing good things for them” (GNT; cf. NIV, NLT). Note that the renewed Israel of the end time may well be primarily in view here and in 33:9 immediately below.

Jer 33:9 And this city^k shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them. They shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

^k Hebrew And it

Ex 34:10 And he said, “Behold, I am making a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been created in all the earth or in any nation. And all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD, for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you.

Deut 4:34 Or has any god ever attempted to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, and by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great deeds of terror, all of which the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

As well as doing many great things in providing blessings for his people, God has done many great things in delivering his people.

Judg 2:7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work that the LORD had done for Israel.

1Sam 12:7 Now therefore stand still that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous deeds of the LORD that he performed for you and for your fathers.

All the “righteous acts” refers to all the “good” (NCV™, NIV) or “great” (NLT) things that God had done for Israel.

2Sam 7:18-21 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD and said, “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far? ¹⁹And yet this was a small thing in your eyes, O Lord GOD. You have spoken also of your servant’s house for a great while to come, and this is instruction for mankind, O Lord GOD! ²⁰And what more can David say to you? For you know your servant, O Lord GOD! ²¹Because of your promise, and according to your own heart, you have brought about all this greatness, to make your servant know it.

In v. 18 David refers to the great things that God had already done for him, far more than he or his family were worthy of. Then in v. 19 David speaks of God going even beyond this, with God promising to extend the reign of David’s line far into the future – effecting “all this greatness” (v. 21; cf. 1Chr 17:19 ↓).

1Chr 17:19 For your servant’s sake, O LORD, and according to your own heart, you have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

Psa 116:12 What shall I render to the LORD for all his benefits to me?

John 1:16 And from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

The phrase “grace upon grace” speaks of “one gracious blessing after another” (NLT). Spiritual blessings are in view.

✦ God has given his people very great promises:

2Pet 1:4 ... by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.

In addition to having done many great things for his people, God has also given us great promises including promises of great things that he will do for us in the future.

God blesses his people in many ways

Gen 24:1 Now Abraham was old, well advanced in years. And the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.

Mark 10:29-30 Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, ³⁰who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.

The “houses” and “lands” promised in this present age (v. 30) are quite unlikely to be speaking of accumulated property. More likely the promises in v. 30 have in view what Christians have within the community of believers. There God’s people have many new intimate relationships and a share in all that belongs to the fellowship of believers.

1Cor 1:4-7 I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵that in every way you were enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge— ⁶even as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you— ⁷so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ...

In v. 7 “you” is referring to the Corinthian church as a whole, among whom there was no spiritual gift lacking. Note that, particularly in the light of v. 7, Paul also may have spiritual gifts in the church primarily in view in v. 5.

Eph 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, ...

Deut 2:7 For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He knows your going through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you. You have lacked nothing.

2Sam 23:5 For does not my house stand so with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. For will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire?

The phrase “all my help” may be speaking of God always providing effective help for him (cf. CEV); it has also been rendered to speak of David’s salvation (cf. NASB, NCV, NIV, NKJV). In speaking of God granting him “my desire”, David has in view God’s wonderful everlasting covenant with him regarding his family (cf. 7:11b-16), giving him in a sense all that he could have hoped for.

Gen 49:25-26 ... by the God of your father who will help you, by the Almighty¹ who will bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that crouches beneath, blessings of the breasts and of the womb. ²⁶The blessings of your father are mighty beyond the blessings of my parents, up to the bounties of the everlasting hills.^m May they be on the head of Joseph, and on the brow of him who was set apart from his brothers.

^m A slight emendation yields (compare Septuagint) the blessings of the eternal mountains, the bounties of the everlasting hills

These many wonderful blessings bestowed on Joseph may not all be readily applicable to God’s people generally, but they are illustrative of the great extent of God’s blessings for his people. Note that “the deep that crouches beneath” (v. 25b) refers to water from springs or other subterranean sources.

✦ The various blessings stated in “the Beatitudes”:

Matt 5:3-12 Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. ⁴“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. ⁵“Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. ⁶“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. ⁷“Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. ⁸“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. ⁹“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons^m of God. ¹⁰“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. ¹¹“Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. ¹²Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

^m Greek huioi; see Preface

To be “poor in spirit” (v. 3) means to be aware of and acknowledge one’s spiritual need (cf. GNT, NCV, NLT), arguably with the suggestion that one looks to God to meet such need (cf. CEV); it implies humility (cf. AMP). The clause “theirs is the kingdom of heaven” (vv. 3, 10) probably refers primarily to the future inheritance of the consummated kingdom, though an application to sharing in the blessings of the kingdom in its present form is viable. Quite likely “those who mourn” (v. 4) is speaking mainly of the mourning of godly people over sin and its consequences – their own sin and/or the world’s. Such people “will be comforted,” which may well have initially in view their salvation from sin through Christ’s work; it would encompass the comfort God’s people will receive in the afterlife. The “earth” (v. 5) is probably the new or renewed earth of the afterlife, though some think it refers to the earth in a millennial reign of Jesus Christ. The “peacemakers” (v. 9) are people who “work for peace” (GNT, NLT, cf. NCV) – probably inclusive of both reconciling people with God and making peace between people. They will be deemed to be children of God because they show that they partake of his nature, and perhaps also in that such work is in accordance with his purposes.

God’s people lack no good thing

Ps 34:9-10 Oh, fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack! ¹⁰The young lions suffer want and hunger; but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.

God’s people lack nothing of any real consequence.

Ps 84:11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favor and honor. No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly.

Ps 23:1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

God’s people will not be in want of anything they need.

Isa 55:2 Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food.

That which people acquire apart from God, ultimately does not satisfy (cf. Ps 16:2 ↓). Those who listen to and follow God are blessed with the “food that is good for the soul” (NLT) – “the best food of all” (GNT). This suggests that God’s people have the things which are truly good and necessary – i.e. they lack no good thing.

Philem 1:6 ... and I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ.^o

^o Or for Christ’s service

God’s people are abundantly blessed with many a “good thing” in Christ. In teaching this, the verse is not actually saying that God’s people have “every good thing” – but arguably it does point to this.

Rev 2:9 I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich) and the slander^p of those who say that they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

^p Greek blasphemy

Although the believers in Smyrna were materially very poor, they had great spiritual riches. For in their poverty they did not lack what are true riches – the things that are ultimately genuine riches.

✦ Apart from God, his people have nothing good:

Ps 16:2 I say to the LORD, “You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you.”

Ultimately, God gives his people all things

As is reflected in the following verses, in a sense God has given his people all things now – a reality that will be consummated in the afterlife.

1Cor 3:21-23 So let no one boast in men. For all things are yours,²² whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours,²³ and you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s.

Verse 23 may be implying that all things belong to us (v. 22) as we belong to Christ. For as Christians are in Christ they share in all that belongs to Christ – to whom God has given or will give everything (cf. Rom 8:32 ↓). This reality will be more tangible in the life to come.

2Cor 6:10 ... as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything.

Matt 5:3, 5 Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. ...⁵ “Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.”

As noted earlier, the future forms of God’s kingdom and the earth appear to be primarily in view, encompassing all good things.

Luke 15:31 And he said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.’

With the father mirroring God in a number of ways in the parable of the prodigal son, arguably one can infer from this verse that everything of God belongs to his children, as their inheritance.

Rom 8:32 He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?

The phrase “all things” may have in view the inheritance that believers will receive on entry into God’s kingdom. However, given the context, this could be primarily speaking of our salvation. As such, Paul’s thinking may be that if God gave up his Son – the greatest possible gift – to save us, surely he will give us everything else needed to secure our salvation.

1Tim 6:17 As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.

The phrase “provides us with everything” may mean that all things that we have come from God, or that God provides us with everything we need (cf. CEV, NLT). Alternatively it may be saying that God gives us everything, similar to the above references, although the focus here does not appear to go beyond material things.

Note: God gives his people blessings that last

Heb 10:34 For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one.

With “a better possession and an abiding one”, presumably the writer has primarily in view our salvation and the associated blessings – including those of the age to come (cf. NLT).

Ps 21:6 For you make him most blessed forever;^a you make him glad with the joy of your presence.

^a Or make him a source of blessing forever

This points to blessings “that will last forever” (CEV, Nlrv; cf. GNT), applicable to but not specifically referring to the eternal blessings of the afterlife.

Ps 23:6 Surely^r goodness and mercy^s shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell^t in the house of the LORD forever.^u

The New Testament deals extensively with how we should relate to other Christians and with issues vital for the life of the church. Amongst the most prominent themes are the need for unity and love. Fellowship is another important concept that we need to grasp, with it being involved in a number of aspects of church life.

God's people form local groups, called churches

The term "church" refers to a community of believers. As such it can be used of small house groups as well as local church congregations. Additionally it can be used more generally of God's people as a whole – the worldwide church.

As per the first two uses, believers meet and function together in local community groups (as parts of God's people as a whole). It is this localized context that is generally spoken of in this and the following chapters in Part F. Church Life. The verses in this subsection evidence the existence of such local churches. (For further discussion on "church", see the introductory comment under Church members function together as one body, p. 1298.)

Acts 13:1 Now there were in the church at Antioch prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger,^a Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

^a Niger is a Latin word meaning black, or dark

1Cor 14:33 For God is not a God of confusion but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, ...

2Cor 8:23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for your benefit. And as for our brothers, they are messengers^b of the churches, the glory of Christ.

^b Greek apostles

This is indicative of believers together forming churches, referring to members of various churches.

1Cor 1:2 To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: ...

This and the following verses are examples of the numerous references in the NT letters to the names of particular local churches (cf. Acts 13:1 ↑) and local churches in certain regions.

Rom 16:1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant^c of the church at Cenchreae, ...

^c Or deaconess

1Cor 16:19a The churches of Asia send you greetings.

Gal 1:2b, 22 To the churches of Galatia:  ... ²²And I was still unknown in person to the churches of Judea that are in Christ.

Col 4:15 Give my greetings to the brothers^d at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house.

^d Or brothers and sisters

The phrase "the brothers at Laodicea" would appear to denote the church at Laodicea.

‡ A reference to the first church:

Acts 1:15 In those days Peter stood up among the brothers (the company of persons was in all about 120) and said, ...

This speaks of what would appear to be the first church or group of believers.

The many church members form one body – the body of Christ – with no overriding distinctions

See also:

- c) God's People Are One Body 'in' Jesus Christ, p. 788

The term "the body of Christ" figuratively depicts the spiritual union of Jesus Christ with his people. Moreover, it points to the unity Christ's people have together in their relationship with him. While the worldwide church is the whole “body of Christ”, each local church is a form of “the body of Christ”. And in each case the many members together make one body – with no disparities or overriding distinctions.

Rom 12:4-5 For as in one body we have many members,^e and the members do not all have the same function, ⁵*so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.*

^e Greek parts; also verse 5

The phrase “members one of another” (v. 5; Eph 4:25 ↓) indicates that church members are: “part of one another” (CEV); “all joined to each other” (GNT); and “mutually dependent on one another” (AMP; cf. NLT). It also suggests that they “belong to each other” (NLT; cf. NCV, NIV).

1Cor 10:16-17 The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? ¹⁷*Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.*

One thing that the Lord’s Supper signifies, with church members eating of the one loaf, is mutual participation in the church body – the body of Jesus Christ.

1Cor 12:12-14, 18-20, 24b-27 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³*For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves^f or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.* ¹⁴*For the body does not consist of one member but of many.*  ... ¹⁸*But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose.* ¹⁹*If all were a single member, where would the body be?* ²⁰*As it is, there are many parts,^g yet one body.*  ... ²⁴ ... But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, ²⁵*that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.* ²⁶*If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.* ²⁷*Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.*

^f Or servants; Greek bondservants

^g Or members; also verse 22

For comment on vv. 24b-25, see 1Cor 12:24b-25 – under Be united as one, p. 1300.

Eph 4:4, 25 There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call  ... ²⁵*Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.*

Col 3:15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.

Gal 3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave^h nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

^h Greek bondservant

Oneness in Jesus Christ takes primacy over all distinctions. In him “there is no difference” (GNT, NCV) between contrasting groups such as Jews and Gentiles, slaves and free people, and males and females. For no such group is spiritually superior to another, and all are equal before God (cf. Eph 6:8-9). Note that the use of “Greek” as opposed to “Jew”, appears to denote Gentiles in general. However in Colossians 3:11 below it may be referring more specifically to those who live according to Greek culture, as opposed to the “uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian”.

Col 3:11 Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave,ⁱ free; but Christ is all, and in all.

ⁱ Greek bondservant

“Christ is all, and in all” (v. 11) points to Christ as the basis and source of his people’s unity. He is “all that matters” (CEV, NLT). All the distinctions previously referred to become irrelevant, no longer forming any kind of barrier.

Acts 4:32 Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common.

As one body, church members meet together

Acts 1:14 All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.^j

^j Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God’s family, the church; also verse 15

Acts 2:1 When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place.

Acts 2:44, 46-47a And all who believed were together and had all things in common. ... ⁴⁶And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and having favor with all the people.

Acts 5:12 Now many signs and wonders were regularly done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico.

Acts 11:26b For a whole year they met with the church and taught a great many people. And in Antioch the disciples were first called Christians.

Acts 12:12 When he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose other name was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying.

Acts 16:40 So they went out of the prison and visited Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them and departed.

This speaks of Paul and Silas meeting with the believers at Lydia's house.

Rom 16:5 Greet also the church in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who was the first convert^k to Christ in Asia.

^k Greek firstfruit

Like Acts 16:40 above, this refers to a church that met at a home (cf. Philem 1:1-2 ↓; 1Cor 16:19 ↓).

1Cor 11:17-21, 33-34 But in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you. And I believe it in part, ¹⁹for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized. ²⁰*When you come together*, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. ²¹For in eating, each one goes ahead with his own meal. One goes hungry, another gets drunk. ... ³³So then, my brothers,^m when you come together to eat, wait forⁿ one another—³⁴if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home—so that when you come together it will not be for judgment. About the other things I will give directions when I come.

¹ Or I believe a certain report

^m Or brothers and sisters

ⁿ Or share with

The Corinthians were doing the right thing in meeting together (cf. 1Cor 14:26 ↓) – and as such are a good example – but their behavior at the meetings obviously left a lot to be desired.

1Cor 14:26 What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

Philem 1:1-2 Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our beloved fellow worker ²and Apphia our sister and Archippus our fellow soldier, and the church in your house: ...

This appears to refer to church members who met together at Philemon's house (cf. CEV, GNT).

Heb 10:24-25 And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, ²⁵*not neglecting to meet together*, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

Matt 18:20 For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.

This suggests that it is a good practice for believers to meet together in small groups, in addition to their local church groups.

Neh 8:1 And all the people gathered as one man into the square before the Water Gate. And they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses that the LORD had commanded Israel.

In the OT the Israelites and later – after the Babylonian exile – the Jews, were in a sense forerunners of the NT church. This verse is an example of how they would all meet together as one group, a practice paralleled by church meetings.

The concept represented by the term "church" – often used to translate the Greek word "ekklesia" – involves believers meeting together and functioning as a community or one spiritual body. As such, they worship God together and cohesively further the cause of their head, Jesus Christ. Furthermore, they live in relationship with each other, in which they minister to each other. The verses in this subsection contain segments which speak of churches functioning as a unit or cohesive community.

Matt 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. 📖

Acts 12:5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church. 📖

Acts 15:3-4 So, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and brought great joy to all the brothers.^o When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they declared all that God had done with them. 📖

^o Or brothers and sisters; also verse 22

Acts 15:22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among them and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers, ... 📖

Rom 16:4 ... who risked their necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks but all the churches of the Gentiles give thanks as well. 📖

1Cor 16:19 The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, send you hearty greetings in the Lord. 📖

1Tim 5:16 If any believing woman has relatives who are widows, let her care for them. Let the church not be burdened, so that it may care for those who are truly widows. 📖

1Cor 16:1 Now concerning^p the collection for the saints: as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you also are to do. 📖

^p The expression Now concerning introduces a reply to a question in the Corinthians' letter; see 7:1; also verse 12

Here Paul tells the Corinthian church as a whole to do what he had told other churches to do.

2Cor 8:19 And not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us as we carry out this act of grace that is being ministered by us, for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our good will. 📖

‡ An example of various believers functioning together as one church body:

Acts 6:1-4 Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint by the Hellenists^a arose against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. ²*And the twelve summoned*

the full number of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. ³Therefore, brothers,^r pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this duty. ⁴But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." 📖

^a That is, Greek-speaking Jews

^r Or brothers and sisters

This exemplifies believers functioning together as one church body, by: firstly, their daily distribution of food amongst the needy (v. 1); secondly, them coming together to resolve the problem that arose from it (v. 2); and thirdly, the solution itself, with the believers delegating responsibilities amongst themselves so as to effectively tackle their shared objectives (vv. 3-4).

Eph 4:11-16 And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds^s and teachers,^t ¹²to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood,^u to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ¹⁴so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. ¹⁵Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, ¹⁶from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. 📖

^u Greek to a full-grown man

This speaks of believers growing spiritually individually as well as a church body. In keeping with the context – and as suggested by the text note – the phrase "to mature manhood" (v. 13) probably is speaking of believers together as a body becoming "like a mature person" (NCV™; cf. NASB, NKJV).

Acts 9:31 So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was being built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it multiplied. 📖

Note that this and 16:5 below speak of churches both growing spiritually – being built up in the faith – and growing numerically. The subsequent verses speak just of the latter.

Acts 16:5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and they increased in numbers daily.

Acts 2:41, 46-47 So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls. ... ⁴⁶And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and having favor with all the people. As noted earlier, as well as forming local individual churches, together all believers form the universal church – the whole body of Christ. All the following verses appear to speak of the church in this universal sense.

1Cor 1:10 I appeal to you, brothers,^z by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. 📖

^z Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated "brothers") refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God's family, the church; also verses 11, 26

1Cor 12:24b-25 But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, ²⁵that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. 📖

In saying that God has given "greater honor to the part that lacked it" (v. 24b), Paul appears to be referring to people's innate sense of treating the less honorable and unrepresentable parts of the human body with special honor and modesty (cf. v. 23). Paul implies that like the human body, God has combined church members into one body, causing less honorable parts to be given special attention by other body members, so that there will be no division in the body (vv. 24b-25).

Phil 1:27 Only let your manner of life be worthy^a of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, ... 📖

^b Greek bondservant

In light of v. 11, v. 14 may be speaking of love as "the perfect bond of unity" (NASB) of believers (cf. NCV, NLT) – particularly pertinent to the theme of this subsection. However it may instead be speaking of love as binding together the aforementioned virtues.

1Pet 3:8 Finally, all of you, have unity of mind, sympathy, brotherly love, a tender heart, and a humble mind. 📖

Judg 20:1, 8, 11 Then all the people of Israel came out, from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead, and the congregation assembled as one man to the LORD at Mizpah. 📖
... ⁸*And all the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, and none of us will return to his house.* 📖 ...
¹¹*So all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one man.* 📖

This and 1 Chronicles 12:38 below are examples of the Israelites acting as one. As such they are exemplary of God's people being united as one.

^c Or dwell together

The comparisons in vv. 2-3 portray unity amongst believers as being soothing and refreshing, bringing God's blessing (v. 3b). A number of commentators understand that the comparison with the oil for consecrating priests, as indicative of unity consecrating God's people.

Note that the directions in vv. 1-2 are things which are important to maintaining “the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (v. 3). Other verses in this subsection also speak of such things (cf. 2Cor 13:11 ↑; Rom 12:16 ↓; Rom 15:5-7 ↓).

Col 3:15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.

Verse 7 indicates that to live in harmony with other believers we need to welcome or accept them (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

Paul urges these two women to “live in harmony in the Lord” (NASB), settling their disagreement (cf. CEV, NLT).

In this context “questioning” is effectively quarreling – “arguing” (CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT, NRSV), “disputing” (NASB, NKJV).

The source of fights and quarrels – the combatant’s own evil desires (v. 1b) – is indicative of the sinfulness of these things.

‡ The disciples recognized that their arguing was improper:

Mark 9:33-34 And they came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you discussing on the way?” ³⁴*But they kept silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest.*

The disciples apparently were rightly embarrassed and ashamed of their foolish and vain arguing.

Acts 15:37-39 Now Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark. ³⁸But Paul thought best not to take with them one who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work. ³⁹And there arose a sharp disagreement, so that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus, ...

1Cor 1:10-13 I appeal to you, brothers,¹ by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. ¹¹For it has been reported to me by Chloe’s people that there is quarreling among you, my brothers. ¹²*What I mean is that each one of you says, “I follow Paul,” or “I follow Apollos,” or “I follow Cephas,” or “I follow Christ.”* ¹³*Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?*

¹ Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God’s family, the church; also verses 11, 26

Many of the Corinthians had apparently formed a preference for one of the notable leaders of the day. This had resulted in quarrels (v. 11) and divisions (v. 12). Paul points out that Christ cannot be divided (v. 13a), with the implication that neither should his body be. Christ alone should be the focus of the faith of believers, for it was Christ not Paul (or any other) who was crucified for them and into whose name they were baptized (v. 13). Note that the inclusion of those who said they followed Christ in Paul’s condemnatory remarks, may have been due to those concerned doing so in a divisive and exclusive manner, making out that they were spirituality superior.

Gal 5:19-20 Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, ...

As reflected in v. 20, “dissensions” are disagreements that lead to “divisions” (NCV™).

1Tim 6:3-5 If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound^m words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, ⁴he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, ⁵and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain.

^m Or healthy

Although true believers are not being spoken of here, this is still illustrative of the fact that controversies and quarrels lead to animosity and division in the church. Note that the “quarrels about words” (v. 4; cf. 2Tim 2:14 ) may refer to quibbling over the technical meaning of certain words, or their application to theological concepts.

Prov 18:19 A brother offended is more unyielding than a strong city, and quarreling is like the bars of a castle.

Disputes cause divisions which are hard to break down.

... Quarreling can even cause ruin

Quarrelling can lead to the ruin of both individuals and church groups.

2Tim 2:14 Remind them of these things, and charge them before God^m not to quarrel about words, which does no good, but only ruins the hearers.

Possibly the destruction of their faith or their fellowship is in view.

1Cor 3:17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

This appears to be speaking of God's church being destroyed by “jealousy and strife” (v. 3) – with those causing this destruction in turn themselves facing destruction from God.

Matt 12:25 Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand.

Jesus was not talking about church groups here, but obviously what he says is very much applicable to them.

† Do not judge each other on disputable matters:

Rom 14:2-6, 10-13 One person believes he may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables. ³Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him. ⁴Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master^o that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. ⁵One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God.  ... ¹⁰Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; ¹¹for it is written, “As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess^p to God.” ¹²So then each of us will give an account of himself to God. ¹³Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother.

^o Or lord

^p Or shall give praise

The reminders in vv. 10, 12 that we ourselves will be judged by God is a sobering deterrent to judging others. Note that vv. 5-6 contain a couple of important related points on disputable matters. The last statement of v. 5 indicates that we should “firmly make up our own minds” (GNT), taking care to consider what God would have us do. Verse 6 teaches that whatever course of action one takes in regard to such disputable matters, one should aim to honor the Lord by it.

Sometimes disputes and differences may be necessary

Acts 15:1-2 But some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.” ²And after Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders about this question.

1Cor 11:18-19 For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you. And I believe it in part,^q ¹⁹for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized.

^q Or I believe a certain report

Where there is sin or false beliefs in the church, differences will be needed so that those who act and believe in accordance with God's will may distinguish themselves from those who do not (v. 19). It is in fact necessary for believers to take a stand against what is wrong – as is shown in the other passages in this subsection.

Gal 2:11-14 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. ¹²For before certain men came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles; but when they came he drew back and separated himself, fearing the circumcision party. ¹³And the rest of the Jews acted hypocritically along with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. ¹⁴But when I saw that their conduct was not in step with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, "If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?"

The behavior of Cephas/Peter (vv. 12-13) had left him open to condemnation. As such Paul felt compelled to publicly reprimand him.

How much more, then, matters pertaining to this life! ⁴So if you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who have no standing in the church? ⁵I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no one among you wise enough to settle a dispute between the brothers, ⁶but brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers? ⁷To have lawsuits at all with one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded?*

Verses 2a, 3a appear to refer either to believers playing a role in the final judgment or to their rule with Christ. In v. 7a, Paul appears to be speaking of spiritual failure, either: in seeking retribution, as opposed to being meek and forgiving; or in being at odds with a fellow believer/s, as opposed to being unified as parts of the body of Christ.

Ex 22:7-9 If a man gives to his neighbor money or goods to keep safe, and it is stolen from the man's house, then, if the thief is found, he shall pay double. ⁸If the thief is not found, the owner of the house shall come near to God to show whether or not he has put his hand to his neighbor's property. ⁹For every breach of trust, whether it is for an ox, for a donkey, for a sheep, for a cloak, or for any kind of lost thing, of which one says, "This is it," the case of both parties shall come before God. The one whom God condemns shall pay double to his neighbor.

In speaking of Israelites coming before God to have their disputes resolved, this has in view judges (cf. AMP, CEV, NCV, NIV) from among the people making decisions on behalf of God (cf. Deut 1:17), as his representatives. This practice is exemplary to God's people today.

Ezek 44:24 In a dispute, they [the priests] shall act as judges, and they shall judge it according to my judgments. They shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts, and they shall keep my Sabbaths holy.

✦ Moses chose capable people as leaders and to be judges for the people at all times:

This indicates that judges amongst God's people should be capable, people with authority (as leaders have) and readily available.

c) Be in Fellowship

The concept of "fellowship" involves sharing and participating in a partnership concerning a mutual interest or purpose, which for believers is their common faith and life in Christ. This is shown in the Greek word translated as "fellowship" ("koinonia") which emphasizes participation. Believers participate in Christ and church activities, and in each other's lives.

Note that a number of the verses in this section show that fellowship occurs amongst believers across the worldwide church, in addition to the local church context.

Have fellowship together . . .

1Jn 1:3, 7 ... that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.  ... But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

Christian fellowship has its roots in sharing a common belief (v. 3) and a common way of life based on this belief (v. 7).

Acts 2:42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

2Cor 13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

The term "the fellowship of the Holy Spirit" would appear to refer to the fellowship amongst believers produced by the Holy Spirit (cf. CEV), through their mutual participation in him.

Gal 2:9 ... and when James and Cephas and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

James, Peter and John extended their hands to Paul and Barnabas as a sign of fellowship, inclusive of acceptance and friendship.

Ps 55:14 We used to take sweet counsel together; within God's house we walked in the throng.

Here David laments the fact that his enemy is one with whom he had once enjoyed "sweet fellowship together" (AMP, NASB; cf. NIV, NLT) amongst those who gathered at God's temple.

Col 4:7, 10-11 Tychicus will tell you all about my activities. He is a beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow servant^r in the Lord.  ... ¹⁰*Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you have received instructions—if he comes to you, welcome him),¹¹ and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.*

^r Greek fellow bondservant; also verse 12

Arguably the use of "fellow" here suggests that believers have fellowship in working together (vv. 7, 11) and in suffering together (v. 10) for God's kingdom.

Philem 1:6 ... and I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ.^s

^s Or for Christ's service

The phrase "the sharing of your faith" may well be speaking of the sharing in our faith with fellow believers, including the participation in and fellowship of our faith (cf. AMP, GNT, NASB). Hence the verse's inclusion here. Alternatively, it could be speaking of either: the sharing that is part of our faith, i.e. sharing of our possessions or ourselves with others (cf. NLT); or sharing what we believe, as in proclaiming the gospel to non-believers (cf. NIV).

. . . Believers have fellowship collectively with God and Jesus Christ

See also:

- 2Cor 13:14
- God's people have fellowship with him and Jesus Christ, p. 813

The fellowship believers have together is not only based on their mutual relationship in Jesus Christ, but is also a fellowship with God, Christ and the Holy Spirit.

1Jn 1:3, 6-7 ... that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.  ... ⁶If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. ⁷But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

The fellowship believers have together is both distinct from and beyond that of any other, being a fellowship that “is with the Father and with his Son” (v. 3b). In line with v. 3, note that vv. 6-7 correlate having “fellowship with him” with having “fellowship with one another”.

1Cor 1:9 God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Particularly with Paul’s subsequent denunciation of divisions in the Corinthian church (cf. vv. 10-15) this may well be speaking of believers collectively having fellowship with Jesus Christ and/or with each other through Christ and being part of his body. Alternatively or additionally, believers individually having fellowship with Jesus Christ may be in view.

Phil 3:10 ... that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ...

Especially in light of Paul’s stated desire “to know Christ”, the phrase in question may be speaking primarily of Paul himself sharing sufferings – and consequently fellowship – with Christ. But even so, this is readily applicable to believers together sharing in such suffering – and to the consequent fellowship they have with each other and collectively with Christ. Note that some translations actually use “fellowship” here – e.g. “the fellowship of His sufferings” (NASB, NKJV; cf. NIV).

Matt 18:20 For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.

This and 2 Corinthians 13:11 below speak of Jesus Christ and God’s presence with assembled believers, suggestive of fellowship with them.

2Cor 13:11 Finally, brothers,^t rejoice. Aim for restoration, comfort one another,^u agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

^t Or brothers and sisters

^v Greek Beliar

This points out some things associated with fellowship, namely having things in common (vv. 14, 15), accord/harmony (v. 15) and agreement (v. 16). All of these believers can and should have with each other, but such things are limited in relationships with non-believers.

Verse 46 suggests that as well as “attending the temple together”, the believers also ate together (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

1Cor 14:26 What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

Church members participate together in church meetings, in which various members contribute in such ways as those mentioned here, to build up the church.

Rom 8:17 . . . and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

As may be the case in Philippians 3:10 above (cf. comment in . . . Believers have fellowship collectively with God and Jesus Christ, p. 1306), the focus here and in 1 Peter 4:13 below appears to be primarily on sharing in suffering with Jesus Christ – as opposed to sharing with other believers in the sufferings of Jesus Christ. But even so, they are certainly applicable to the latter.

1Pet 4:13 But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed.

2Tim 1:8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, . . .

Sharing in suffering for the gospel is a key aspect of sharing together in the sufferings that come because of Jesus Christ.

Heb 11:25 . . . choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

Moses' choice to share in the suffering of "the people of God" is applicable and exemplary to believers in sharing in the suffering of others who suffer because of Jesus Christ.

Share together in the joy that comes in being of the church

See also:

- . . . and share in each other's joy, p. 1310

Having relationships with other believers and doing God's work with them, leads us to share in joy with them, for various reasons.

John 4:35-36 Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months, then comes the harvest’? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. ³⁶Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.

Those who work together in bringing people to faith, share together in much gladness over the fruits of their labor.

Acts 2:46-47 And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

The believers’ glad hearts seem to have been largely due to their fellowship – in which they met together, often ate together and praised God together. It may have also been in part due to them “having favor with all the people” (v. 47a) and/or their growth in numbers (v. 47b).

Phil 1:25-26 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

Here Paul recognized that his direction of and fellowship with the Philippian believers in Christ Jesus would produce joy amongst them (v. 25), even causing them to “glory in Christ Jesus” (v. 26).

Phil 2:28-30 I am the more eager to send him, therefore, that you may rejoice at seeing him again, and that I may be less anxious. ²⁹So receive him in the Lord with all joy, and honor such men, ³⁰for he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was lacking in your service to me.

Here Paul again speaks of the Philippians being joyful together, in seeing Epaphroditus again and receiving him amongst themselves.

1Jn 1:3-4 ... that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴And we are writing these things so that our^z joy may be complete.

^z Some manuscripts your

The context suggests that the joy John speaks of (v. 4) comes from fellowship with other believers (v. 3a) – a fellowship that “is with the Father and with his Son” (v. 3b). Through this fellowship it is a joy that all believers share in – “you can be full of joy with us” (NCV™; cf. AMP).

2Jn 1:12 Though I have much to write to you, I would rather not use paper and ink. Instead I hope to come to you and talk face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

Ps 106:4-5 Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people; help me when you save them,^a ⁵that I may look upon the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance.

^a Or Remember me, O Lord, with the favor you show to your people; help me with your salvation

Sharing in God’s help of his people leads to one rejoicing with them.

As members of the one spiritual body, believers should as much as possible share with other believers in both their sorrows and joys, identifying themselves with those experiencing such things and where appropriate become involved in their situation. This leads to a strengthening of the bonds between the members, and thus the strengthening of the body itself. It also leads to supportive responses to members in need.

1Cor 12:26 If one member [of the body] suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.

Paul is not so much instructing the Corinthians to suffer and rejoice with each other, but is more making the observation that in a tight knit Christian body this will naturally occur.

Phil 4:14-16 Yet it was kind of you to share^c my trouble. ¹⁵And you Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church entered into partnership with me in giving and receiving, except you only. ¹⁶*Even in Thessalonica you sent me help for my needs once and again*.

^c Or have fellowship in

By sending him aid – giving of their own resources, possibly sacrificially so – the Philippians shared in Paul’s trouble. In doing so they shared with him in “giving and receiving”

(v. 15). This expression refers to the exchanges between the Philippians and Paul; they gave him aid and in return spiritual blessings were credited to their account (cf. v. 17).

2Cor 11:28-29 And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches. ²⁹*Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I am not indignant?*

Such was Paul's concern for the churches (v. 28) that he strongly identified with them in their weaknesses and trials (v. 29), effectively sharing in them.

Heb 13:3 Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body.

Believers are to empathize with suffering believers. In showing empathy, one in a sense projects oneself into the situation of the person concerned. To some extent one then shares in it, both experiencing and being affected by the feelings that the person concerned would have. Doing so motivates us to do what we can to help suffering believers. Note that the final phrase "in the body" likely speaks of being "liable to bodily sufferings" (AMP) rather than being in the body of Christ.

Heb 10:32-34 But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, ³³sometimes being publicly exposed to reproach and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. ³⁴*For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one.*

The compassion for those in prison (v. 34) appears to have been expressed in helping them (cf. CEV, NCV) – in effect sharing in their suffering (cf. AMP, GNT, NLT), as was the case in v. 33b.

Job 2:11-13 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, they came each from his own place, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They made an appointment together to come to show him sympathy and comfort him. ¹²And when they saw him from a distance, they did not recognize him. And they raised their voices and wept, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads toward heaven. ¹³*And they sat with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great.*

Here Job's friends in a real sense share in his troubles with him. Unfortunately later, by their well-intended but often inappropriate words, they effectively added to his troubles.

Rom 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.

Fellow believers may well be primarily in view here.

2Cor 2:3 And I wrote as I did, so that when I came I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice, for I felt sure of all of you, that my joy would be the joy of you all.

Paul had confidence in the Corinthian's obedience to him and because of this he had anticipated to experience much joy on his return to them. Correspondingly, he had anticipated that they would share in his joy, on seeing their mentor's joy over them.

Phil 2:17-18 Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸*Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.*

Luke 1:57-58 Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. ⁵⁸*And her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.*

This and the extract below from "The Parable of the Lost Coin" are not speaking specifically of joy experienced amongst believers, but they do mirror such joy which stems from mutual concern, as should exist in churches.

Luke 15:9 And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.'

Keep in touch about each other's welfare – and keep the others informed of your own

In the first two references below (Phil 2:19-20; 1Thes 3:5-6) Paul speaks of taking steps to find out about the welfare of other believers, including their spiritual welfare or faith. In the following two (Eph 6:21-22; Col 4:7-9) Paul takes steps to keep other believers informed about his welfare.

Phil 2:19-20 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. ²⁰For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare.

As well as Paul, Timothy was keen to know about the Philippians' welfare (v. 20).

1Thes 3:5-7 For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to learn about your faith, for fear that somehow the tempter had tempted you and our labor would be in vain. ⁶But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love and reported that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, as we long to see you— ⁷for this reason, brothers,^d in all our distress and affliction we have been comforted about you through your faith.

^d Or brothers and sisters

Eph 6:21-22 So that you also may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord will tell you everything. ²²*I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are, and that he may encourage your hearts.*

Note that part of Paul's motivation in keeping other believers informed about his welfare was to encourage them (v. 22; Col 4:8 ↓).

Col 4:7-9 Tychicus will tell you all about my activities. He is a beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow servant^e in the Lord. ⁸*I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are* and that he may encourage your hearts, ⁹and with him Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you of everything that has taken place here.

^e Greek fellow bondservant; also verse 12

✚ Keep each other informed about the circumstances of fellow believers:

Heb 13:23 You should know that our brother Timothy has been released, with whom I shall see you if he comes soon.

Note: Believers share together in spiritual blessings and privileges . . .

Rom 11:17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root^f of the olive tree, ...

^f Greek root of richness; some manuscripts richness

The "olive tree" represents Israel, particularly the patriarchs with whom Israel's relationship with God was established. The "wild olive shoot" represents Gentile believers accepted into God's people. The "nourishing root" refers to spiritual blessings that all God's people have, quite possibly in particular to the promises made to the patriarchs (cf. ESB). Because of what Jesus Christ has accomplished, Gentile believers now share with the Jews in their spiritual blessings (cf. Rom 15:26-27 ↓; Eph 3:6 ↓).

Rom 15:26-27 For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem. ²⁷For they were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have come to share in their spiritual blessings, they ought also to be of service to them in material blessings.

1Cor 9:23 I do it all for the sake of the gospel, that I may share with them in its blessings.

Eph 3:6 This mystery is^g that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

^g The words This mystery is are inferred from verse 4

What the "promise" refers to is not specified but probably relates to an aspect of salvation, centered on and achieved through Jesus Christ. Possibly it may encompass – or at least be applicable to – all that is promised to those who are "in" Jesus Christ.

Eph 4:11-13 And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds^h and teachers,ⁱ ¹²to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood,^j to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ...

^h Or pastors

ⁱ Or the shepherd-teachers

^j Greek to a full-grown man

The spiritual maturity of Christians together as “the body of Christ” (v. 12) is a wonderful blessing in which they can share.

Phil 1:7 It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace,^k both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

^k Or you all have fellowship with me in grace

Phil 2:1 So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, ...

Christians participate/share together in the Spirit (cf. Heb 6:4 ↓).

Titus 1:4 To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Heb 6:4 For it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, ...

2Pet 1:4 ... by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.

Jude 1:3 Beloved, although I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints.

This speaks of sharing in salvation in the present. This salvation of course has a future aspect, as per the following subsection.

Num 10:32 And if you do go with us, whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same will we do to you.

The reference here is more to material blessings rather than spiritual, but it is applicable to the latter and exemplifies how God’s people share in his blessings (as well as being indicative of how they should share material blessings with each other). Likewise, in 1 Samuel 26:19 David refers to sharing in the God-given blessing/s of the Promised Land – “share in the heritage of the LORD”.

... Believers will share together in future blessings and privileges

Acts 20:32 And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

This and Colossians 1:12 below are probably referring to at least primarily to future blessings that believers together inherit. They may also present spiritual blessings in view.

2Cor 4:14 ... knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence.

Col 1:12 ... giving thanks^l to the Father, who has qualified you^m to share in the inheritance of the saints in light.

^l Or patience, with joy giving thanks

^m Some manuscripts us

1Thes 4:17 Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.

2Thes 2:14 To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This speaks of obtaining glory that we will “share” (CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT; cf. 1Pet 5:1 ↓).

Heb 3:1 Therefore, holy brothers,ⁿ you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, ...

ⁿ Or brothers and sisters; also verse 12

The “heavenly calling” may have in view a call to heaven (cf. NLT; Phil 3:14), with the accompanying wonderful blessings of the afterlife. However it may simply mean a call from God in heaven (cf. GNT, NCV) to follow him.

1Pet 5:1 So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a partaker in the glory that is going to be revealed: ...

Rev 22:19 ... and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

‡ God has blessed believers with every spiritual blessing:

Eph 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, ...

This implies that in Christ believers share “every spiritual blessing”. The phrase “in the heavenly places” may be indicating that the blessings spoken of are ones that we will experience in the afterlife, although they have already been designated to us. However the phrase may be emphasizing the heavenly and eternal dimension of spiritual blessings that we have now.

Love one another

John 15:17 These things I command you, so that you will love one another.

1Jn 3:11, 23 For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.  ... ²³And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us.

2Jn 1:5 And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another.

1Pet 2:17 Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

Philem 1:4-5 I thank my God always when I remember you in my prayers, ⁵because I hear of your love and of the faith that you have toward the Lord Jesus and for all the saints, ...

Rom 16:8 Greet Ampliatius, my beloved in the Lord.

1Cor 16:24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Titus 3:15 All who are with me send greetings to you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Loving others “in the faith”, speaks of loving others who share in the faith (cf. CEV, GNT, NLT).

3Jn 1:1 The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

Here “love in the truth” (cf. 2Jn 1:1-2) quite possibly refers to loving others who believe in the truth (cf. Titus 3:15 ↑). Alternatively or in conjunction with this, it may be speaking of loving other believers in accordance with the truth. A further possibility is that it simply means “truly love” (AMP, GNT).

Love one another more and more

Phil 1:9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, ...

1Thes 4:9-10 Now concerning brotherly love you have no need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another, ¹⁰*for that indeed is what you are doing to all the brothers throughout Macedonia*. But we urge you, brothers, to do this more and more, ...

1Thes 3:11-12 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, ¹²*and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you*, ...

2Thes 1:3 We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers,^o as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing.

^o Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated “brothers”) refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God's family, the church

Prov 17:17 A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

In conjunction with loving one another more and more, we should love at all times and similarly have "steadfast love" (Prov 19:22 ↓).

Prov 19:22 What is desired in a man is steadfast love, and a poor man is better than a liar.

✦ Have abundant love for other believers:

2Cor 2:4 For I wrote to you out of much affliction and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you.

Loving other Christians is indicative of being of God and Jesus Christ . . .

1Jn 4:7, 12, 16 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. ... ¹²No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. ... ¹⁶So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

Love is the essence of God's nature – "God is love" (v. 16; cf. v. 8 ↓). Everyone who loves exhibits God's nature, demonstrating that they have been "born of God" (v. 7b). In addition, loving one another shows that: we know God (v. 7b); we live in God and he lives in us (vv. 12, 16b); and "his love is perfected in us" (v. 12b).

John 13:34-35 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. ³⁵*By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.*

John 15:12-14 This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. ¹³*Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.* ¹⁴*You are my friends if you do what I command you.*

Loving each other as Jesus Christ loved us (v. 12) means we are friends of Jesus Christ (v. 14) – with the implication that he laid down his life for us, his friends (v. 13). As such we are recipients of both the salvation and the relationship with God that Christ's death has made possible.

1Jn 2:10 Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him^p there is no cause for stumbling.

^p Or it

1Jn 3:14a, 18-20 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. ... ¹⁸*Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.* ¹⁹*By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him;* ²⁰*for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything.*

1Jn 5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him.

This verse makes the assertion that everyone who loves God will naturally love his children as well (cf. 1Jn 4:20-21 ↓).

2Jn 1:1-2 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, ²*because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:* ...

Christian love flows from knowledge of God's truth and a life lived in accordance with or obedience to this truth. It follows from this that loving other Christians is indicative that one is of God's truth, and so of God.

... Not loving other Christians has negative implications

1Jn 2:9, 11 Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. ... ¹¹*But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.*

1Jn 3:10, 14-15 By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. ... ¹⁴*We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers.* Whoever does not love abides in death. ¹⁵Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

Those who do not love other Christians: are “children of the devil” as opposed to “children of God” (v. 10); remain in death (v. 14); and are in a spiritual sense murderers (v. 15). Note that the association of hate with murder (v. 15; cf. Matt 5:21-22) appears to point to hate as being the motive behind murder, with the latter being the fulfillment of the former.

1Jn 3:16-17 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. ¹⁷But if anyone has the world’s goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God’s love abide in him?

We ought to follow Jesus Christ’s example and unselfishly show love to fellow believers (v. 16). Anyone who does not show love to a fellow believer in need – “closes his heart against him” – cannot have the love of God in him (v. 17).

1Jn 4:8 Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

1Jn 4:20-21 If anyone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot^a love God whom he has not seen. ²¹And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.

^a Some manuscripts how can he

Fellow Christians: reflect the character of the invisible God, albeit to varying degrees; are highly valued and greatly loved by God; and are associated with God, being of his people. These factors in conjunction with the fact that it is easier to interact with what we can see, mean that if we do not love a fellow Christian we can hardly claim to love God himself.

2Pet 1:7, 9 ... and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love.  ... ⁹For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins.

In v. 9 Peter refers to having the qualities he lists in vv. 5-7 which climax with love. Peter may be correlating lacking love and the other qualities with sin. He is not actually saying that such a person is not or no longer of God, but the suggestion is that there is a real danger of this being or becoming the case.

† Loving one’s enemies is also indicative of being of God:

Matt 5:44-45 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.

In addition to loving other Christians, loving our enemies is also a sign of our relationship with God. For as God lovingly cares for the bad as well as the good, those who love their enemies reflect God’s nature – thus showing themselves to be children of God (cf. 1Jn 4:7 ).

Love is vital for Christian service and living

1Cor 8:1 Now concerning^r food offered to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” This “knowledge” puffs up, but love builds up.

^r The expression Now concerning introduces a reply to a question in the Corinthians’ letter; see 7:1

The phrase “puffs up” is a reference to oneself, whereas “builds up” primarily refers to building up others, particularly those in the church. Note that in the first statement Paul indicates that he is beginning a response to the Corinthians, whom he quotes.

1Thes 1:3 ... remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Their love had produced their labor. Note that here “love” could be referring to love for God or Christ, rather than love for others. It is applicable to both.

2Pet 1:7-8 ... and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. ⁸For if these qualities^s are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

^s Greek these things; also verses 9, 10, 12

1Thes 5:8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation.

This figuratively illustrates that love – along with faith and hope – provides significant spiritual protection for the believer.

Phil 1:9-11 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, ¹⁰so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Love that is knowledgeable and wise enables one to remain pure (v. 10) and to be “filled with the fruit of righteousness”

(v. 11a). This expression refers either to good deeds (cf. CEV, NCV) or to righteous qualities (cf. GNT).

Further blessings of loving each other

Eph 3:17-19 ... so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love,¹⁸*may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth*,¹⁹*and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.* 📖

In v. 17, “love” appears to refer to love that believers have – meaning that the passage is relevant to this subsection. However, it could instead refer to God’s love (cf. NLT) or Jesus Christ’s love (cf. CEV). In v. 18, “the breadth and length and height and depth” is often interpreted to be speaking of Christ’s love (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV) or God’s love (cf. NLT).

Col 2:1-2 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those at Laodicea and for all who have not seen me face to face,²*that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God’s mystery, which is Christ, ...* 📖

As Christians exist together united in love, they increasingly experience and comprehend spiritual blessings and truths.

1Pet 4:8 Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. 📖

This quotes Proverbs 10:12 – “... love covers all offenses.” It does not mean that loving others atones for sin, but that love forgives and “buries” the sins of others – particularly wrongs against oneself.

1Jn 4:17-18 *By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world.*¹⁸*There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love.* 📖

This is speaking of having the love that comes from God, expressed in loving others. Such love, an expression and extension of God’s love, makes judgment from him inconceivable and so annuls any fear of judgment. Conversely, whoever fears has “not really learned to love” (CEV, v. 18b); they do not have perfect love (cf. GNT, NCV, NLT).

2Jn 1:3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father’s Son, in truth and love. 📖

Here “in... love” could denote either living in God’s love or loving others; in any case the two are interrelated. As we live in love and truth, we experience the grace, mercy and peace of God and Jesus Christ.

Prov 3:3-4 *Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.*⁴*So you will find favor and good success^t in the sight of God and man.* 📖

^t Or repute

Note that here and in 21:21 below, love for others amongst God’s people does not appear to be primarily in view.

✦ Our love is a great benefit to other believers:

Philem 1:7 For I have derived much joy and comfort from your love, my brother, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you. 📖

The love Philemon had shown other believers had refreshed them, and had also given Paul great joy and comfort.

2Cor 8:7-8, 24 But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you^u—see that you excel in this act of grace also. ⁸I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine. ... ²⁴So give proof before the churches of your love and of our boasting about you to these men.

^u Some manuscripts in your love for us

Paul had known the Corinthians to be earnest and loving to him (v. 7; text note), but now he wanted them to prove their love against the earnestness and love of others (v. 8, 24) by giving towards helping needy fellow believers. As such their love would be manifested or expressed in their action.

2Cor 12:15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

Paul's love for the Corinthians (v. 15b) would be shown in what he did for them (v. 15a).

1Thes 1:3 ... remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Thessalonians' love was evidenced by their labor, the manifestation of their love.

1Thes 2:8 So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were ready to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become very dear to us.

Such sharing of their lives (by Paul and his associates) would have largely involved practical expressions of their affectionate desire or love (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

3Jn 1:5-6 Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are, ⁶who testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God.

Gal 6:2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

The "law of Christ" quite possibly refers primarily to Christ's commands to love each other as he has loved us (cf. John 13:34; 15:12), although Paul may instead have in view Christ's teachings in general. By taking action in bearing one another's burdens, we live out or fulfill this law.

‡ What love is and is not, and does and does not do:

1Cor 13:4-7 Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant ⁵or rude. Jesus disciples were to love each other as he had loved them, a love which he would soon show to be unsurpassed by laying down his life for them.

Eph 5:2 And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

1Jn 3:16 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.

Eph 5:25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, ...

Phil 1:8 For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus.

1Jn 2:8 At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because^w the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

^w Or that

The “command” is the command to love others (cf. vv. 9-11), fulfilled in Jesus in the love he showed and to be evident in the lives of his followers.

1Sam 20:14-15 If I am still alive, show me the steadfast love of the LORD, that I may not die; ¹⁵and do not cut off^x your steadfast love from my house forever, when the LORD cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.

^x Or but if I die, do not cut off

Along with loving each other as Jesus Christ loved us, we should seek to show the steadfast love of God to each other, as Jonathan asks here of David.

✦ Since God so loved us that he sent his Son to die for us, we ought to love one another:

1Jn 4:9-11, 19 In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ... ¹⁹We love because he first loved us.

Verse 19 suggests that our love for other believers is prompted by and an emulation of God’s love for us.

Love each other genuinely and earnestly

Rom 12:9 Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good.

2Cor 6:4, 6 ... but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, ... ⁶by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love; ...

2Cor 8:8 I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine.

1Pet 1:22 Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, ...

1Pet 4:8 Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.

1Jn 3:18 Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.

The final phrase “in truth” is probably referring to expressing love sincerely and truly – “true caring” (NCV™) – and/or in a way that is in accordance with “the truth” (cf. v. 19).

✦ Timothy’s genuine interest in others:

Phil 2:20 For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare.

1Pet 2:17 Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

2Pet 1:5-7 For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue,^a and virtue with knowledge, ⁶and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, ⁷and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love.

^a Or excellence; twice in this verse

✦ Be friends:

3Jn 1:15 Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends, every one of them.

Keep each other in your hearts . . .

When Paul talks of having others in his heart, he implies that they are an integral part of himself and his consciousness.

2Cor 7:3 I do not say this to condemn you, for I said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.

The latter part of the verse points to the closeness that Paul felt towards the Corinthians, having them in his heart.

Phil 1:7 It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace,^b both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

^b Or you all have fellowship with me in grace

2Cor 6:11-13 We have spoken freely to you,^c Corinthians; our heart is wide open. ¹²You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections. ¹³In return (I speak as to children) widen your hearts also.

^c Greek Our mouth is open to you

Opening wide one's heart to others, is akin to making room in one's heart for others (cf. CEV).

Philem 1:12 I am sending him back to you, sending my very heart.

In describing Onesimus as "my very heart" Paul speaks of his strong love and closeness to him, akin to having Onesimus in his heart.

. . . Long for each other

Phil 4:1 Therefore, my brothers,^d whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved.

^d Or brothers and sisters; also verses 8, 21

Phil 1:8 For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus.

Paul appears to refer to sharing in Jesus Christ's affection or love – through his union with Christ – expressing such affection in his great yearning/longing for the Philippians.

1Thes 2:17 But since we were torn away from you, brothers, for a short time, in person not in heart, we endeavored the more eagerly and with great desire to see you face to face, ...

1Thes 3:6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love and reported that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, as we long to see you—

2Tim 1:4 As I remember your tears, I long to see you, that I may be filled with joy.

✦ The Ephesians' grief over the prospect of never seeing Paul again:

Acts 20:37-38 And there was much weeping on the part of all; they embraced Paul and kissed him, ³⁸being sorrowful most of all because of the word he had spoken, that they would not see his face again. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Greet or send greetings to each other . . .

Rom 16:14-16 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers^e who are with them. ¹⁵Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them. ¹⁶Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

^e Or brothers and sisters; also verse 17

"Greet" is used by Paul no less than 18 times in vv. 3-16. Note that a "holy kiss" (v. 16a; cf. 1Cor 16:20 ↓; 1Pet 5:14 ↓) was apparently a common form of greeting in the early church, signifying the bonds and warmth of believers' unity in Christ.

1Cor 16:19-20 The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, send you hearty greetings in the Lord. ²⁰All the brothers send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

Philem 1:23-24 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you, ²⁴and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

Heb 13:24 Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those who come from Italy send you greetings.

1Pet 5:13-14 She who is at Babylon, who is likewise chosen, sends you greetings, and so does Mark, my son. ¹⁴Greet one another with the kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

3Jn 1:15 Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends, every one of them.

1Pet 1:22 Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, ...

The importance for love of purity – which is attained through obedience to the truth – is also shown in 1 Timothy 1:5 below.

1Jn 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments.

2Jn 1:5-6 And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. ⁶*And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.*

Verse 6 appears to be saying that love is lived out by walking in obedience to God's commands.

1Tim 1:5 The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith.

2Jn 1:1-2 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, ²because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever: ...

As commented earlier, Christian love flows from knowledge of God's truth and a life lived in accordance with or obedience to this truth.

Col 1:4-5a ... since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, ⁵*because of the hope laid up for you in heaven.*

The very real hope of the wonderful blessings in the afterlife, spurs believers on in their love for others – as well as in their faith.

Phil 1:9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, ...

The word "knowledge" probably refers to knowledge of God and his ways. Believers should exhibit love that reflects such knowledge (cf. 2Jn 1:1-2 ) – and also spiritual discernment – rather than a love which is based merely on sentiment or emotion.

Pray for persecuted Christians

II. Caring for the Body

The care that church members ought to show each other should be one of the defining characteristics of every church, evidencing Christian love. This care should include both spiritual and practical care, with the former largely involving prayer and encouragement.

Pray earnestly for other Christians

Acts 12:5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church. 📖

Col 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. 📖

1Thes 3:10 ... as we pray most earnestly night and day that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking in your faith? 📖

Deut 9:18-19, 25-26 Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin that you had committed, in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke him to anger. ¹⁹For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure that the LORD bore against you, so that he was ready to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also. 📖 ... ²⁵*“So I lay prostrate before the LORD for these forty days and forty nights, because the LORD had said he would destroy you. ²⁶And I prayed to the LORD, ‘O Lord GOD, do not destroy your people and your heritage, whom you have redeemed through your greatness, whom you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.* 📖

Along with falling prostrate before God for forty days and nights, Moses' fasting (v. 18) points to the earnestness of his accompanying supplication to God (vv. 19, 26).

Pray constantly for other Christians

When Paul speaks of always or continually praying for his readers (cf. Always thank God for other Christians because of their faith and love, p. 1324), he is using hyperbole to portray his persistence in prayer for them.

Rom 1:9-10 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you ¹⁰*always in my prayers*, asking that somehow by God's will I may now at last succeed in coming to you. 📖

Eph 6:17-18 ... and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, ¹⁸*praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, ...* 📖

Col 1:9 And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ... 📖

2Tim 1:3 I thank God whom I serve, as did my ancestors, with a clear conscience, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. 📖

Heb 13:18 Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things. 📖

The first clause quite possibly has the sense of: "Keep on praying for us." (GNT; cf. AMP)

1Sam 7:8 And the people of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, that he may save us from the hand of the Philistines.”

Unlike the previous references which mention ongoing, tenacious prayer, this and the following verse from Nehemiah 1:6 refer to instances of concentrated prayer for a particular situation.

Neh 1:6 ... let your ear be attentive and your eyes open, to hear the prayer of your servant that I now pray before you day and night for the people of Israel your servants, confessing the sins of the people of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Even I and my father’s house have sinned.

Rom 15:30-31 I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ³¹that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, ...

2Cor 1:10-11 He delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again. ¹¹You also must help us by prayer, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us through the prayers of many.

Paul does not indicate exactly what he is referring to by the phrase “deadly peril” (v. 10), although in v. 8 he speaks of “the affliction we experienced in Asia”. Probably it was some kind of persecution.

Phil 1:18b-19 Yes, and I will rejoice, ¹⁹for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, ...

Paul speaks of the Philippians’ prayers for him while he was imprisoned because of his work for God’s kingdom (cf. v. 17; Col 4:18 ↴).

Col 4:18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you.

2Thes 1:4-5, 11 Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring. ⁵This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— ... ¹¹To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ...

The persecution that the Thessalonians were suffering (vv. 4-5) appears to be at least part of the reason for Paul praying for them.

Acts 13:2-3 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” ³Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Presumably the prayer was focused on Barnabas and Saul and the work ahead of them (v. 2) in proclaiming the gospel.

Eph 6:18b-20 To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, ¹⁹and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.

Ask that other believers will live as God wants

2Cor 13:7 But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed.

Paul was more concerned that the Corinthians live godly lives than about others' incorrect perceptions of himself.

Col 1:9-10 And so, from the day we heard, *we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,*¹⁰*so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.*

Paul prays that the Colossians would have knowledge of God's will (v. 9), so as to live a life worthy of the Lord and be pleasing to him (v. 10).

2Thes 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ...

Here Paul essentially prays that God would make the Thessalonians worthy of the life to which he had called them to live (cf. GNT, NCV, NLT), with the implication that they would live accordingly.

1Ki 8:36 ... then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk, and grant rain upon your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance.

In this rendering Solomon refers to God teaching his people the right way to live rather than actually asking him to do so, but the Hebrew can be interpreted as at least implying a request that God do so (cf. CEV, GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NLT).

1Chr 29:18-19 O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, *keep forever such purposes and thoughts in the hearts of your people, and direct their hearts toward you.*¹⁹*Grant to Solomon my son a whole heart that he may keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, performing all,* and that he may build the palace for which I have made provision.

The phrase “such purposes and thoughts” (v. 18) probably refers to the desire to serve God, as the people had just exhibited in their generous giving toward the work on the temple.

‡ Jesus prayed that Simon Peter's faith would not fail:

Luke 22:31-32 “Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you,^j that he might sift you like wheat,³²but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers.”

^j The Greek word for you (twice in this verse) is plural; in verse 32, all four instances are singular

Num 14:19-20 *Please pardon the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of your steadfast love, just as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt until now.*²⁰Then the LORD said, “I have pardoned, according to your word.

1Ki 8:33-34, 38-40, 49-51 When your people Israel are defeated before the enemy because they have sinned against you, and if they turn again to you and acknowledge your name and pray and plead with you in this house,³⁴*then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them again to the land that you gave to their fathers.* ...³⁸whatever prayer, whatever plea is made by any man or by all your people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart and stretching out his hands toward this house, ³⁹*then hear in heaven your dwelling place and forgive and act and render to each whose heart you know, according to all his ways* (for you, you only, know the hearts of all the children of mankind), ⁴⁰*that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land that you gave to our fathers.* ⁴⁹*then hear in heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their plea, and maintain their cause* ⁵⁰*and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions that they have committed against you, and grant them compassion in the sight of those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them* ⁵¹*(for they are your people, and your heritage, which you brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace).*

In v. 39, Solomon appears to be asking God to deal mercifully with those whose hearts are truly repentant, while harshly with those who are not.

Dan 9:16-19 “O Lord, according to all your righteous acts, let your anger and your wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy hill, because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a byword among all who are around us. ¹⁷*Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his pleas for mercy, and for your own sake, O Lord,^k make your face to shine upon your sanctuary, which is desolate.* ¹⁸*O my God, incline your ear and hear. O Lord, pay attention and act. Delay not, for your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people are called by your name.”*

^k Hebrew for the Lord’s sake

Joel 2:17 Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, “Spare your people, O LORD, and make not your heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations. ¹ Why should they say among the peoples, ‘Where is their God?’”

¹ Or reproach, that the nations should rule over them

Apparently as a consequence of the people’s sin (cf. vv. 12-13), an awesome plague of locusts had devastated the land. Thus here Joel relates God’s call for the priests to pray for mercy on the people’s behalf.

Amos 7:1-2 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: behold, he was forming locusts when the latter growth was just beginning to sprout, and behold, it was the latter growth after the king’s mowings. ²*When they had finished eating the grass of the land, I said, “O Lord GOD, please forgive! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!”*

1Jn 5:16 If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God^m will give him life—to those who commit sins that do not lead to death. There is sin that leads to death; I do not say that one should pray for that.

Job 42:7-9 After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite: “My anger burns against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has. ⁸Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves. And my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept his prayer not to deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.” ⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what the LORD had told them, and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

✦ Paul’s desire or prayer that Jesus Christ would show mercy to Onesiphorus for all his help:

2Tim 1:16, 18 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains,  ... ¹⁸*may the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that Day!—and you well know all the service he rendered at Ephesus.*

Note that Paul is addressing Timothy here – rather than directly offering a prayer to God.

Pray for their spiritual growth and maturity

Eph 1:16-19 I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, ¹⁷*that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him,* ¹⁸*having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of* his glorious inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might ...

Spiritual knowledge and insight feature in some of Paul's prayers for the spiritual growth of his readers (cf. Eph 3:16-19 ↓; Phil 1:9-11 ↓; Col 1:9-10 ↓), as they are key to other aspects of spiritual growth.

Eph 3:14-19 For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, ¹⁵from whom every familyⁿ in heaven and on earth is named, ¹⁶that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, ¹⁹and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

ⁿ Or fatherhood; the Greek word patria is closely related to the word for Father in verse 14

Phil 1:9-11 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, ¹⁰so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

The phrase “the fruit of righteousness” (v. 11a) could refer to either good deeds (cf. CEV, NCV) or to righteous qualities (cf. GNT). The concept of being “filled with the fruit” seems to favour the second interpretation.

2Cor 13:9 For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. Your restoration is what we pray for.

Here Paul appears to have in view the Corinthian's “restoration to maturity” (NLT) – that they would be “made complete” (NASB, NKJV; cf. NCV) and “become perfect” (GNT, NRSV; cf. AMP, NIV).

Col 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God.

1Thes 3:12-13 ... and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, ¹³so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

Like the next two references – and a number of other verses in the following subsections – this is, strictly speaking, a blessing (the invoking of God's favor). In a real sense such blessings are prayers – and certainly can be used as such.

1Thes 5:23 Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2Thes 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

It is not clear as to whether Paul is referring here to the Thessalonians having a greater appreciation of God's love and Christ's perseverance for them, or to their lives increasingly reflecting these – the latter being more relevant to this subsection. However, even if the former is the case, it can be inferred that the latter is implied.

In committing Christian workers by prayer to the Lord and to the grace of God, we are essentially praying for them in their work and thus also the work itself.

Rom 15:30-31 I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ³¹that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, ...

Col 1:9-10 And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

To be precise Paul is praying indirectly for the Colossians' work. Paul prays that God would fill them with the knowledge of his will (v. 9), with the result that they would bear fruit for God's kingdom in their work (v. 10).

2Thes 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ...

2Thes 2:16-17 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, ¹⁷comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

Paul prays that they would be comforted and given strength in everything they do and say for the Lord.

Philem 1:6 ... and I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ.^o

^o Or for Christ's service

With the expression "every good thing that is in us" Paul may have in view things we have been equipped with for serving Christ (cf. text note). Regarding the meaning of "the sharing of your faith", see Further reasons, p. 1059.

Deut 33:11 Bless, O LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands; crush the loins of his adversaries, of those who hate him, that they rise not again.

The request "accept the work of his hands" is in effect asking God to help them (the Levites) to do work which is pleasing to God, in their work as spiritual leaders of their people.

Deut 33:7 And this he said of Judah: "Hear, O LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him in to his people. With your hands contend^p for him, and be a help against his adversaries."

^p Probable reading; Hebrew With his hands he contended

Judah's leading role in military campaigns appears to be in view. The clause "bring him in to his people" is most likely a request that God would bring the fighting men safely back to the people, in response to his "voice" or prayer.

1Ki 8:52, 59 Let your eyes be open to the plea of your servant and to the plea of your people Israel, giving ear to them whenever they call to you.  ... ⁵⁹*Let these words of mine, with which I have pleaded before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, and may he maintain the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires, ...*

Verse 52 is from Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the temple (cf. vv. 22-53). Verse v. 59 is from his subsequent address to the people, where he refers to a prime purpose of his prayer, i.e. that God may uphold the cause of his people "as each day requires".

Ps 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy, and spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may exult in you.

Ps 25:22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

Ps 80:14-15 Turn again, O God of hosts! Look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine, ¹⁵the stock that your right hand planted, and for the son whom you made strong for yourself.

The "vine" (v. 14) – like the "stock" and the "son" (v. 15) – is the people of Israel.

Ps 125:4 Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to those who are upright in their hearts!

3Jn 1:2 Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, as it goes well with your soul.

Jude 1:2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

2Chr 30:27 Then the priests and the Levites arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard, and their prayer came to his holy habitation in heaven.

Note that the blessing of the people by the priests/Levites and the later phrase "their prayer", equate blessing others with prayer.

Deut 33:13-16 And of Joseph he said, "Blessed by the LORD be his land, with the choicest gifts of heaven above,^r and of the deep that crouches beneath, ¹⁴with the choicest fruits of the sun and the rich yield of the months, ¹⁵with the finest produce of the ancient mountains and the abundance of the everlasting hills, ¹⁶with the best gifts of the earth and its fullness and the favor of him who dwells in the bush. Note that here and in Deuteronomy 33:11a below, the speaker actually asks God to bless the people, rather than pronouncing a blessing on them as such.

Deut 33:11 Bless, O LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands; crush the loins of his adversaries, of those who hate him, that they rise not again.

"Bless, O LORD, his substance" (v. 11) may be a general blessing, to bless the people of the tribe of Levi – making them strong (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV).

... Pronouncements of blessings of God's and Jesus Christ's presence

Ruth 2:4 And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem. And he said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you!" And they answered, "The LORD bless you."

"The LORD be with you!" alludes to God's care and blessing (cf. Num 6:24-26 ↓), as reflected in the harvesters' responding greeting.

2Thes 3:16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in every way. The Lord be with you all.

Rom 15:33 May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

2Tim 4:22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.^t

^t The Greek for you is plural

Similarly in Galatians 6:18 (cf. Phil 4:23; Philem 1:25) Paul says, "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen."

‡ The priestly blessing, involving God's presence:

Num 6:22-27 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²³"Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, Thus you shall bless the people of Israel: you shall say to them, ²⁴The LORD bless you and keep you; ²⁵the LORD make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; ²⁶the LORD lift up his countenance^u upon you and give you peace. ²⁷"So shall they put my name upon the people of Israel, and I will bless them."

^u Or face

The clauses "the LORD make his face to shine upon you" (v. 25) and "the LORD lift up his countenance upon you" (v. 26) allude to God's presence accompanied by his kindness and attentive care. Verse 27a is speaking of the preceding blessing either invoking God's presence amongst the people or designating them as God's people. For further comment on v. 27, see God's people are called and identified by his name and Jesus Christ's name, p. 768.

Note: Prayer for the blessing and peace of Jerusalem

Ps 51:18 Do good to Zion in your good pleasure; build up the walls of Jerusalem; ...

Ps 122:6-9 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! "May they be secure who love you! ⁷Peace be within your walls and security within your towers!" ⁸For my brothers and companions' sake I will say, "Peace be within you!" ⁹For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your good.

Ps 125:5 But those who turn aside to their crooked ways the LORD will lead away with evildoers! Peace be upon Israel!

Ps 128:5-6 The LORD bless you from Zion! May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life! ⁶May you see your children's children! Peace be upon Israel!

The second exclamation in v. 5 is indirectly a prayer for Jerusalem.

Isa 62:1, 6-7 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch. ... ⁶On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have set watchmen; all the day and all the night they shall never be silent. You who put the LORD in remembrance, take no rest, ⁷and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise in the earth.

In v. 1, although it could be God or even the Messiah, Isaiah may well be the speaker. As such he would be in view as the one who "will not stop praying for her" (NLT), i.e. for Jerusalem. Quite probably God is the speaker in vv. 6-7, where Jerusalem's watchmen are exhorted to pray for her (cf. AMP, NCV, NLT).

The Hebrew and Greek words translated "encourage" often imply meanings such as "strengthen", "exhort" and "comfort". Believers are to strengthen each other, particularly in regard to faith and work for the kingdom; they are to exhort each other to press on and to live as God wants; and they are to comfort each other in difficult circumstances.

Heb 3:13 But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

We are to strongly encourage others in the faith, even doing so daily.

Heb 10:24-25 And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

The encouragement spoken of (v. 25) is applicable to – if not at least in part referring to – spurring or encouraging one another on "to love and good works" (v. 24).

^w Or gives aid

All Christians are to exhort one another, but this reference indicates that some are especially equipped to do so with a spiritual gift.

✦ Exhort others daily so none may be hardened by sin:

Heb 3:12-13 Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. ¹³*But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.*

Acts 13:15-16 After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent a message to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, say it.” ¹⁶So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said: “Men of Israel and you who fear God, listen.

Paul responded to the invitation to speak a message of encouragement with a message featuring an exposition regarding Jesus’ fulfillment of OT messianic prophecies (cf. vv. 26-41).

Acts 15:30-32 So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch, and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter. ³¹And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement. ³²And Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, encouraged and strengthened the brothers with many words.

The letter had been sent by the Apostles and elders in Jerusalem in response to wrong teaching that had disturbed and troubled the believers at Antioch.

Acts 27:22, 25, 36 Yet now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.  ... ²⁵So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.  ... ³⁶Then they all were encouraged and ate some food themselves.

The bulk of those to whom these words were directed were not believers; nevertheless this is a great example of encouraging others by what one says.

2Cor 12:19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ, and all for your upbuilding, beloved.

Eph 4:29 Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear.

Talk that will “give grace” is talk that will benefit and be a blessing to those who hear.

1Thes 4:18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

The reference here is to “words” about Jesus Christ’s return (vv. 13-17).

Prov 12:25 Anxiety in a man’s heart weighs him down, but a good word makes him glad.

1Cor 14:3-4 On the other hand, the one who prophesies speaks to people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation. ⁴The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church.

Those who prophesy build up and encourage others by what they say. In regard to the term “prophesies”, see The various spiritual gifts . . ., p. 1432; . . . Examples of the Holy Spirit enabling believers to speak in other languages and to prophesy, p. 1432

Acts 13:43 And after the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, as they spoke with them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

Continuing in God’s grace primarily involves remaining true to God and holding to the faith. As such one remains under God’s grace, staying right with him (just as one received God’s grace in originally being made right with him). It also encompasses relying on God’s grace for God to meet one’s needs, notably spiritual needs.

1Pet 5:12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother as I regard him, I have written briefly to you, exhorting and declaring that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it.

The word “this” may be referring to their Christian faith, or in particular to the teaching in Peter’s letter. In any case, the final statement is an exhortation to stand firm in God’s grace, in accordance with the “exhorting” Peter had done throughout his letter.

2Cor 6:1 Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

By urging the Corinthians “not to receive the grace of God in vain” (v. 1), Paul appears to be appealing to the Corinthians not to forfeit the salvation (cf. v. 2) that God’s grace has provided (cf. Heb 12:15 ↓). However, note that a number of commentators have a somewhat different interpretation.

Heb 12:15-16 See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no “root of bitterness” springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled; ¹⁶that no one is sexually immoral or unholy like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal.

✦ Exhort and encourage others to live lives worthy of God:

1Thes 2:11-12 For you know how, like a father with his children, ¹²*we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.*

Encourage and strengthen each other by what you do . . .

Note that while the following references to encouraging and strengthening all refer to or are at least applicable to actions, they are not all confined to actions (as opposed to words).

Rom 14:19 So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding.

Rom 15:2 Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up.

Phil 1:14 And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word^z without fear.

^z Some manuscripts add of God

Paul’s faithful and courageous example in prison had encouraged others to likewise courageously promote the gospel.

Col 2:1-2 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those at Laodicea and for all who have not seen me face to face, ²that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God’s mystery, which is Christ, ...

Paul’s “struggle” (v. 1) may have been largely in prayer, as at the time of writing he was confined in chains. As such, one of the main purposes of his prayers for them was that they would be encouraged (v. 2).

Acts 4:36-37 Thus Joseph, who was also called by the apostles Barnabas (which means son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus, ³⁷sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

The name given to Joseph by the apostles would have reflected his character. As such its meaning (v. 36b) indicated that he was an encouragement to others – as demonstrated by his notable act of generosity (v. 37).

Rom 1:11-12 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you— ¹²that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other’s faith, both yours and mine.

In v. 12 Paul qualifies what he has just said in v. 11, indicating that he hoped that there would be mutual encouragement between the believers in Rome and himself. Partly in light of this, a number of commentators interpret “impart to you some spiritual gift” (v. 11) as not referring to Paul bestowing on them a spiritual gift. Rather they think Paul means either that he intended to use a spiritual gift of his own to strengthen them or that he would confer on them a spiritual blessing.

. . . Do not do anything that will cause another to “stumble”

Rom 14:13-15, 20-23; 15:1 Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother. ¹⁴I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. ¹⁵For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died.  ... ²⁰Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. ²¹It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble.^a ²²The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. ²³But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.^b  ^{15:1}We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

^a Some manuscripts add or be hindered or be weakened

^b Some manuscripts insert here 16:25-27

We should not do things (here consuming particular kinds of food or drink) that even though they may be acceptable biblically, other “weak” Christians consider wrong. For by so doing we can influence these Christians to act accordingly, which would for them be going against their conscience and beliefs. Hence they would be acting out of step with their faith (v. 23) – or stumbling – which is sin. Regarding “destroy” (vv. 15, 20; cf. 1Cor 8:11 ↓), though it often denotes eternal destruction, here it may be used with a transient connotation or to indicate serious spiritual harm. Verse 22b, in view of what precedes it, may be speaking of a “strong” Christian not condemning himself by offending others. However, v. 23 suggests that it is talking about a “weak” Christian not condemning himself through his actions by approving something that is inconsistent with his beliefs.

1Cor 8:4, 7-13 Therefore, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “an idol has no real existence,” and that “there is no God but one.” ...⁷However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸Food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. ⁹But take care that this right of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. ¹⁰*For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating^c in an idol’s temple, will he not be encouraged,^d if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols?* ¹¹*And so by your knowledge this weak person is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died.* ¹²*Thus, sinning against your brothers^e and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.* ¹³*Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.*

^c Greek reclining at table

^d Or fortified; Greek built up

^e Or brothers and sisters

Note that in speaking of “eating in an idol’s temple” (v. 10) Paul may be referring to feasting in part of such a temple in a context which did not involve worship of idols. Alternatively Paul may be figuratively referring to eating food that had previously been sacrificed to idols in a temple.

1Cor 10:27-29a, 31-33 If one of the unbelievers invites you to dinner and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience. ²⁸*But if someone says to you, “This has been offered in sacrifice,” then do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience—* ²⁹*I do not mean your conscience, but his.* ...³¹So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³²*Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God,* ³³just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved.

2Cor 6:3 We put no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, ...

Note that here Paul may not necessarily be speaking about an obstacle or “stumbling block” (NIV®) to a fellow believer in their faith. He may more generally be referring to not causing a person – believer or non-believer – to be offended by some action of his so as to become closed to him and his ministry.

Heb 12:13 ... and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed.

The first clause is quoting Proverbs 4:26. Paul uses it to urge the readers to make straight, righteous paths – so that not only would they not stumble spiritually, but that the spiritually weak among them would not be further weakened or disabled through the influence of their sin. Making such “paths” would in fact help the weak, bringing spiritual healing.

2Cor 7:2 Make room in your hearts^f for us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.

^f Greek lacks in your hearts

Deut 1:26-28 “Yet you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. ²⁷And you murmured in your tents and said, ‘Because the LORD hated us he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. ²⁸Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, “The people are greater and taller than we. The cities are great and fortified up to heaven. And besides, we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.””

The Israelite spies, lacking faith in God, indicated that they did not think the people could conquer the inhabitants of the promised land (v. 28), thereby discouraging the people (v. 28a) and causing them to stumble (vv. 26-27).

† A grave warning against causing a believer to sin:

Matt 18:5-7 Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, ⁶but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, ⁷*it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.* ⁷“Woe to the world for temptations to sin!^h For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes!

Comfort each other

2Cor 1:3-7 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, ⁴who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. ⁵For as we share abundantly in Christ's sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too.ⁱ ⁶If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; and if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we suffer. ⁷Our hope for you is unshaken, for we know that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in our comfort.

ⁱ Or For as the sufferings of Christ abound for us, so also our comfort abounds through Christ

The comfort God gives to believers in their sufferings for Christ, prepares them to give comfort to other believers who suffer. So Paul could say in v. 6 that both his affliction and the subsequent comfort from God were for the comfort of his readers.

2Cor 7:5-7 For even when we came into Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were afflicted at every turn—fighting without and fear within. ⁶But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus, and not only by his coming but also by the comfort with which he was comforted by you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced still more.

Titus and the Corinthians both brought comfort to Paul, comfort which Paul attributed ultimately to God.

Col 4:11 ... and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.

Note that the phrase "men of the circumcision" indicates that these men were Jews.

1Thes 3:6-7 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love and reported that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, as we long to see you— ⁷for this reason, brothers,^j in all our distress and affliction we have been comforted about you through your faith.

^j Or brothers and sisters

Philem 1:7 For I have derived much joy and comfort from your love, my brother, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you.

Paul had been comforted by what Philemon had done for other believers, which had also encouraged or cheered them (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT). Later in v. 20 Paul similarly asks Philemon: "Refresh my heart in Christ" – by complying with a request (cf. vv. 17-21).

Ruth 2:8-9, 13 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now, listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women. ⁹Let your eyes be on the field that they are reaping, and go after them. Have I not charged the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink what the young men have drawn."  ... ¹³Then she said, "I have found favor in your eyes, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your servant, though I am not one of your servants."

1Cor 14:3 On the other hand, the one who prophesies speaks to people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation.

✚ Forgive and comfort those sorrow over their sin:

2Cor 2:5-7 Now if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure—not to put it too severely—to all of you. ⁶For such a one, this punishment by the majority is enough, ⁷so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

1Cor 12:25 ... that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.

2Cor 8:16 But thanks be to God, who put into the heart of Titus the same earnest care I have for you.

2Cor 11:28-29 And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches. ²⁹*Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I am not indignant?*

Such was Paul's concern for the churches (v. 28) that he strongly identified with them in their weaknesses and trials (v. 29), effectively sharing in them. The final phrase may be speaking of “intense concern” (NASB), “distress” (GNT, cf. NCV), or even “anger” (NLT, cf. CEV).

Phil 2:20 For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare.

- Rom 16:2 ↓; Phil 4:16 ↓

We should help fellow believers in whatever way we can, as a consequence of the care and concern we should have towards each other (as spoken of in the previous subsection). Such help of course includes helping those who are in need of material or physical assistance (which is prominent in this and the following two subsections). It also includes helping others in a spiritual sense (cf. Acts 18:27 ↓; 1Thes 5:14 ↓; Col 2:19 ↓).

Acts 18:27 And when he wished to cross to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed, ...

Acts 20:35 In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' 📖

Particularly with the reference in the preceding verses to providing his own material needs (cf. vv. 33-34), here "the weak" probably refers to the poor (cf. NLT).

1Cor 12:28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. 📖

Church members with a gift of helping are especially equipped and responsible for helping others.

Gal 6:2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 📖

1Thes 5:14 And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle,ⁿ encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all. 📖

ⁿ Or disorderly, or undisciplined

As in Acts 20:35 above, here Paul also urges his readers to "help the weak". While it could refer to the poor, here it may instead have in view those who are weak in the faith – i.e. spiritually immature or morally weak.

Heb 6:10 For God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown for his name in serving the saints, as you still do. 📖

Serving other believers (as per the above cross reference) is of course indicative of helping them (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV).

Col 2:18-19 Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions,^o puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind,¹⁹ and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God. 📖

^o Or about the things he has seen

Presumably the "joints and ligaments" are members of the church, the "body". As such one can infer from this that church members are to be channels of nourishment and support – and so help one another.

Note that most of the verses in the previous subsection are also pertinent to the theme of this subsection and vice versa.

Acts 2:44-45 And all who believed were together and had all things in common. ⁴⁵And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need.

Acts 4:32, 34-35 Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common.  ... ³⁴There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold ³⁵and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Note that the provision in the early Jerusalem church for the needy amongst them is further illustrated with the reference to a "daily distribution" of food (6:1) amongst needy widows.

Rom 12:13 Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality.

Rom 15:26-27 For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem. ²⁷For they were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. Paul speaks of the concept of "fairness" or equality, through whoever having plenty at a particular time supplying the needs of those who do not (v. 14). He reinforces it by referring to the giving of manna by God to the Israelites in the desert (v. 15); although some gathered much and others gathered little, all had enough. Paul is quite possibly using the quotation to imply that similarly now some have much and some have little, and steps should be taken to ensure that all have enough.

The phrase "the sharing of your faith" may be speaking of the sharing that is part of our faith, i.e. sharing of our possessions or ourselves with others (cf. NLT). Hence the verse's inclusion here. Alternatively, it could be speaking of either: the sharing in our faith with fellow believers, including the participation in and fellowship of our faith (cf. AMP, GNT, NASB); or sharing what we believe with non-believers (cf. NlrV).

^y Or brothers and sisters

Most interpret “these brothers of mine” to be referring to Christians. It has also been interpreted to refer to the poor and even to the Jews in particular.

Matt 10:40 Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.

Matt 18:5 Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, ...

Here Jesus seems to be referring primarily to his followers, who should humble themselves like little children (cf. vv. 3-4). In speaking of welcoming such a “child” in his name, Jesus appears to be speaking of welcoming a believer either: as being of him (cf. Luke 9:48); for his sake (cf. AMP); or on his behalf (cf. NLT). The alternatives are to some extent interrelated. To welcome a believer as such, Jesus states, is in effect to welcome Jesus himself.

Gal 4:14 ... and though my condition was a trial to you, you did not scorn or despise me, but received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

This is not actually implying that what one does for another Christian, one does for Jesus Christ. But it is an excellent example of believers acting in accordance with this teaching.

✦ By the same token, sinning against a fellow Christian is sinning against Christ:

1Cor 8:9-12 But take care that this right of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. ¹⁰For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating^z in an idol’s temple, will he not be encouraged,^a if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols? ¹¹And so by your knowledge this weak person is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. ¹²*Thus, sinning against your brothers^b and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.*

^z Greek reclining at table

^a Or fortified; Greek built up

^b Or brothers and sisters

“Thus” (v. 12) suggests that the reason why sinning against a fellow Christian is sinning against Christ is that: because Christ died for them (v. 11) by sinning against them we are in a sense being disrespectful of Christ’s death. Alternatively Paul may be using the reference to Christ’s death to underline their association with Christ, because of which sinning against them is sinning against Christ.

Worshiping God is one of the most important and fundamental duties of believers. It involves honoring him by acknowledging his worthiness, including his divine characteristics and wondrous deeds. This is done through such things as praise and thanksgiving, offered with adoration and reverence.

It is also done through offering our resources and even ourselves to God. The former is born out in the second half of this chapter. The latter is done largely through serving God. As such the following chapter on serving God is also pertinent to worshiping him.

We must worship God

Ps 29:2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness.^a

^a Or in holy attire

The last clause appears to indicate that we should worship God being mindful of or in view of “all his holy splendor” (NLT). The alternative rendering in the text note offers another possible meaning.

Ps 132:7 “Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!”

The use of “footstool” may allude to God’s throne (cf. GNT). It and the reference to “his dwelling place” have in view worshiping God in his presence. As such the psalmist would have been speaking of worshiping God at the temple.

1Sam 1:28 Therefore I have lent him to the LORD. As long as he lives, he is lent to the LORD.” And he worshiped the LORD there.

Neh 9:3 And they stood up in their place and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day; for another quarter of it they made confession and worshiped the LORD their God.

Luke 2:37 ... and then as a widow until she was eighty-four.^b She did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day.

^b Or as a widow for eighty-four years

Acts 16:14 One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul.

Acts 24:14 But this I confess to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, ...

Acts 26:6-7a And now I stand here on trial because of my hope in the promise made by God to our fathers,⁷ to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day.

Acts 27:23 For this very night there stood before me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship, ...

Worship God alone – do not worship anything or anyone else

Ps 97:7 All worshipers of images are put to shame, who make their boast in worthless idols; worship him, all you gods!

The reference to “gods” appears to refer to the aforementioned “images” and “idols”. The psalmist underlines the inappropriateness of worshiping other “gods”, by calling on such “gods” themselves to worship the true God.

Isa 26:13 O LORD our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but your name alone we bring to remembrance.

The term “remembrance” is suggestive of such things as worship (cf. NLT) and honor (cf. NCV, NLT).

Dan 3:15-18, 27-28 Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the image that I have made, well and good.^c But if you do not worship, you shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you out of my hands?^d ¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king.^d ¹⁸But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up.”  ... ²⁷And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king’s counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men. The hair of their heads was not singed, their cloaks were not harmed, and no smell of fire had come upon them. ²⁸Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants, who trusted in him, and set aside^e the king’s command, and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God.”

^c Aramaic lacks well and good

^d Or If our God whom we serve is able to deliver us, he will deliver us from the burning fiery furnace and out of your hand, O king.

^e Aramaic and changed

Matt 4:8-10 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹And he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” ¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, “Be gone, Satan! For it is written, “You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.””

Acts 10:25-26 When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. ²⁶But Peter lifted him up, saying, “Stand up; I too am a man.”

Rev 19:9-10 And the angel said^f to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.” And he said to me, “These are the true words of God.” ¹⁰Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “You must not do that! I am a fellow servant^g with you and your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God.” For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

^f Greek he said

‡ Worship of other things rather than worshipping God leads to further ungodliness:

Rom 1:21-26a For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²²*Claiming to be wise, they became fools,* ²³*and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.* ²⁴*Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves,* ²⁵*because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.* ²⁶*For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions.*

Note that further resultant kinds of ungodliness are listed in (vv. 29-31).

Worship God for his glory and sovereignty

See also:

- God’s glory [reasons to exalt God], p. 1267
- God’s reign [reasons to exalt God], p. 1277

Most of the references in the following subsection also reflect the fact that we should worship God because he is the sovereign God. Note that in addition to the following two subsections, II. Reasons to Exalt God, p. 1267, contains a number of other things for which we should worship God.

2Chr 7:3 When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement and worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, “For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.”

Here the Israelites worshiped God in response to a manifestation of his glory. The occasion was the dedication of the temple. Fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple (v. 1) and was visible above it. This manifestation of God’s glory signified his presence in the temple, which was to be the primary place of his presence amongst his people. Not surprisingly the Israelites responded with worship at this awesome display of God’s glory and greatness.

Ps 96:6-10 Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary. ⁷Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength! ⁸Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts! ⁹Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness; ^htremble before him, all the earth! ¹⁰Say among the nations, “The LORD reigns! Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity.”

^h Or in holy attire

“Ascribe” (cf. vv. 7, 8) means “attribute” or “impute”.

Ps 97:1-9 The LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice; let the many coastlands be glad! ²Clouds and thick darkness are all around him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne. ³Fire goes before him and burns up his adversaries all around. ⁴His lightnings light up the world; the earth sees and trembles. ⁵The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶The heavens proclaim his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory. ⁷All worshipers of images are put to shame, who make their boast in worthless idols; worship him, all you gods! ⁸Zion hears and is glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of your judgments, O LORD. ⁹For you, O LORD, are most high over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods.

Ps 99:1-5 The LORD reigns; let the peoples tremble! He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake! ²The LORD is great in Zion; he is exalted over all the peoples. ³Let them praise your great and awesome name! Holy is he! ⁴The King in his might loves justice. ⁱYou have established equity; you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob. ⁵Exalt the LORD our God; worship at his footstool! Holy is he!

ⁱ Or The might of the King loves justice

Rev 5:13-14 And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!” ¹⁴And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

God’s sovereignty is largely in view in the worship here as indicated by: every creature participating in it; the reference to God sitting on the throne; and the content of the praise, with “glory and might” being ascribed to him and Jesus Christ “forever and ever!”

Rev 11:16-17 And the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying, “We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, for you have taken your great power and begun to reign.”

✦ Worship God because he is holy:

Ps 99:9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy mountain; for the LORD our God is holy!

Note that vv. 1-5 above also speak of worshiping and praising God in view of his holiness (cf. Rev 15:4 ↓), in conjunction with his sovereignty. This also appears to be the case above in 96:9.

- d\) What God Does for His People [reasons to exalt God], p. 1280

Note that the adjacent subsections also speak of deeds for which God is to be worshiped – deeds indicative of his reign and his care of his people.

Ps 86:9-10 All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name. ¹⁰For you are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God.

Rev 15:3-4 And they sing the song of Moses, the servant^j of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, “Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the nations!^k ⁴Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed.”

^j Greek bondservant

^k Some manuscripts the ages

This reflects the fact that we should worship God for his deeds not only because they are great and marvelous (v. 3a), but also because they are righteous (v. 4a), with God’s ways being just and true (v. 3b; cf. Ps 9:4 ↑).

Neh 9:6 ¹ “You are the LORD, you alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and you preserve all of them; and the host of heaven worships you.”

Rev 4:10-11 ... the twenty-four elders fall down before him who is seated on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever. They cast their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹“Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.”

God’s creation of all things (v. 11) appears to be the prime reason for the worship. But God’s sovereignty (“him who is seated on the throne”, v. 10a) and eternity (“him who lives forever and ever”, v. 10a) may well also be in view.

Rev 14:7 And he said with a loud voice, “Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water.”

Worship God because of his care of his people

Ex 4:31 And the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had visited the people of Israel and that he had seen their affliction, they bowed their heads and worshiped.

The elders worshiped God because of his care and concern for them, which they learned of through what Aaron had said regarding the mission to free them (cf. vv. 29-30; Ex 12:26-27 ↓).

Ex 12:26-27 And when your children say to you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’ ²⁷you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD’s Passover, for he passed over the houses of the people of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians but spared our houses.’” And the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

The people’s worship appears to be in response to the impending manifestation of God’s power and intervention to secure their redemption, in which God would deal an awesome blow to their enemies while sparing them.

Judg 7:14-15 And his comrade answered, “This is no other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given into his hand Midian and all the camp.” ¹⁵*As soon as Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped.* And he returned to the camp of Israel and said, “Arise, for the LORD has given the host of Midian into your hand.”

On receiving such confirmation that God would enable his men to defeat his people’s oppressors (cf. vv. 19-25), Gideon worshiped God.

Ps 95:6-7a Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker! ⁷*For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.*

The final clause speaks of God’s people as the sheep “under his care” (NIV®, NLT; cf. CEV, GNT). As such, these verses indicate that we should worship God because he is our God and we are his people, for whom he cares.

Ps 138:2-3 I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness, for you have exalted above all things your name and your word. ³*On the day I called, you answered me; my strength of soul you increased.*

^mOr you have exalted your word above all your name

ⁿ Hebrew you made me bold in my soul with strength

David worships God, bowing down towards his temple and giving him thanks, for the display of his love and faithfulness (v. 2a) in answering and delivering David (v. 3). Note that in answering David, God showed his faithfulness to his word or promises – in effect exalting his word along with his name (v. 2b).

Rev 7:10-11 ... and crying out with a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” ¹¹And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ...

The worship (v. 11b) appears to be in response to the cry proclaiming that salvation belongs to God and Jesus Christ (v. 10). It can be inferred from this that we should worship God because of the salvation that he provides for his people.

† God listens to those who worship him:

John 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him.

Worship before God, in his presence

See also:

- Come before God, meeting with him, p. 1206
- Pray before God, in his presence, p. 1216

Note that most of the following references to worshiping before God or in his presence, have in view worshiping God in the temple or the tabernacle. The temple (and before it the tabernacle) signified God's presence on earth, amongst his people. Believers are still to worship before God, being conscious of his presence – and as such these verses are still pertinent. But God's people are not restricted as to where they can do so (cf. John 4:20-21 ↓).

1Sam 1:19a They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah.

2Sam 12:20 Then David arose from the earth and washed and anointed himself and changed his clothes. And he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. He then went to his own house. And when he asked, they set food before him, and he ate.

1Chr 16:29 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering and come before him! Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness;^o ...

^o Or in holy attire

2Chr 20:18 Then Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

Ps 132:7 “Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!”

Mic 6:6a “With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high?”

Luke 2:37 ... and then as a widow until she was eighty-four.^p She did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day.

^p Or as a widow for eighty-four years

1Sam 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they sacrificed peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

✦ Worship of God is no longer based in the temple in Jerusalem:

John 4:20-21 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you [Jews] say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship.”²¹ Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father.

Under the first covenant with its priesthood, God's people were to worship him at Jerusalem – in the tabernacle and later in the temple. (The woman who was a Samaritan refers here to the opposing Samaritan practice of worshiping God on Mount Gerizim.) But with Jesus Christ instituting the new covenant through his death and resurrection, believers are no longer bound to such a restriction. The context of these verses (cf. vv. 23-24 ↓) suggests that this is partly at least to allow God's people to worship him in a way that is more appropriate to his nature. God himself is spirit and so is not restricted to a temple. Thus in accordance with this, believers are to worship him “in spirit” (the theme of the following subsection) regardless of location.

Worship God in spirit and by the Holy Spirit

See also:

- God's people have access to God through Jesus Christ – by the Holy Spirit, p. 797
- Pray in the Holy Spirit, p. 1219

To worship “in spirit” is primarily an inward activity, rather than being centered on the performing of rituals (which was such a prominent part of OT worship). It involves one's spirit – and thus one's mind and will. To begin with, the heart and/or conscience of the worshiper must be right before God. Then one must be honest and open in approaching God (cf. John 4:23-24 ↓), and fully focused on God; obviously this needs to be done willingly. Not least, the worshiper must worship by the Holy Spirit (cf. Phil 3:3 ↓). This involves being conscious of the Spirit, relying on the Spirit's enablement to commune with God and being open to the Spirit's promptings.

John 4:23-24 But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. ²⁴God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth. 📖

To worship in truth (cf. Ps 145:18; Heb 10:22) – which is vital for worshiping in spirit – means that one's worship must be genuine, without pretense or hypocrisy. Jesus also may have had in mind the Samaritans' deficient, false worship (cf. v. 22). Note that some understand the exhortations here to worship "in spirit" to be speaking in particular of worshiping by the Holy Spirit (cf. CEV, GNT).

Mark 7:6-8 And he said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, "'This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; ⁷in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.' ⁸You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men." 📖

With Jesus saying that "their heart is far from me" (v. 6), it is clear that the Pharisees and the teachers of the law did not worship in spirit (cf. CEV). In stark contrast their worship had been hardened and corrupted by their own rules and traditions. Such hypocritical, spiritless worship is in vain (v. 7a).

Luke 1:46-47 And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, ⁴⁷and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, ... 📖

This appears to be illustrative of worshiping – or rejoicing at least – in spirit.

Phil 3:3 For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God⁴ and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— 📖

⁴ Some manuscripts God in spirit

Eph 5:18-20 And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, ²⁰giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ... 📖

The exhortations to "be filled with the Spirit" (v. 18) and to sing and make music "to the Lord with your heart" (v. 19b), along with the reference to "spiritual songs" (v. 19a), underline the need to worship in spirit and by the Holy Spirit – even if not actually saying to do so.

Rev 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet ... 📖

A number of commentators consider that "I was in the Spirit" denotes a state of spiritual exaltation. However, particularly as it was "the Lord's Day", John may have been speaking of "worshiping in the Spirit" (NLT).

✦ Worshiping God "with your spirit":

1Cor 14:15-16 What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also. ¹⁶Otherwise, if you give thanks with your spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider^r say "Amen" to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying? 📖

^r Or of him that is without gifts

Here worshiping God "with your spirit" is not necessarily exactly the same as worshiping him "in spirit". One could argue that to worship God "in spirit" involves doing so "with your spirit". But it also does or can involve the mind, whereas it appears that the latter does not – at least not as used in this passage. Particularly in view of the context (cf. vv. 13-14, 18), in using the terms "with my spirit" and "with your spirit", Paul appears to be speaking of praying and praising God in tongues as opposed to with his mind. Worshiping God in tongues is not identical to doing so "in spirit", although it is one way of doing so for the believers who do have such a gift. Note that some commentators understand Paul to be saying here that he prays and praises God with both his spirit and his mind together, which would be at least akin to doing so "in spirit".

Worship God in reverence and awe . . .

Heb 12:28-29 Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, ²⁹for our God is a consuming fire. 📖

The description of God as a "consuming fire" points to his power and preparedness to fierily devour or destroy that which is opposed to him and incompatible with his holiness.

2Ki 17:35-36 The LORD made a covenant with them and commanded them, “You shall not fear other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them,³⁶ but you shall fear the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm. You shall bow yourselves to him, and to him you shall sacrifice.

The last statement speaks of worship. What precedes it implies that fear of God evokes and accompanies such worship. As such this indicates that we should worship God in fear (cf. Ps 5:7 ↓), which involves reverence and awe.

Ps 5:7 But I, through the abundance of your steadfast love, will enter your house. I will bow down toward your holy temple in the fear of you.

Ps 96:9 Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness; tremble before him, all the earth!

^s Or in holy attire

In the light of what precedes it, “tremble” appears to refer to trembling in worship – “tremble and worship the Lord” (CEV). As such it is indicative of worshiping God with reverence and awe.

Jonah 1:16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

As commented above in regard to 2 Kings 17:35-36, here fear of God appears to have both evoked the worship (the offering of a sacrifice and vows) and accompanied the worship.

Ps 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

This reflects the need for reverence or fear in worship by the exhortations to serve (“Worship” – NASB) God “with fear” and to “rejoice with trembling”. For serving God is interrelated with worshiping him and rejoicing is an aspect of worship.

... Even bow and fall down before God

See also:

- 2Ki 17:36 ↑; Ps 5:7 ↑

The Hebrew for “bow down” can be translated as “worship”, indicative of the fact that bowing down before God signifies and accompanies worship of him. Bowing and falling down before God are also signs of submission and humility – and indicate reverence of him. As such they signify reverent worship of God.

Ex 34:8 And Moses quickly bowed his head toward the earth and worshiped.

2Chr 20:18 Then Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.

2Chr 29:28-29 The whole assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished. ²⁹When the offering was finished, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped.

Neh 8:6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, “Amen, Amen,” lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Ps 95:6 Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!

Rev 5:14 And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Gen 24:26-27a The man bowed his head and worshiped the LORD ²⁷and said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his steadfast love and his faithfulness toward my master.

Such blessing of God (cf. Job 1:21 ↓) is often associated with praise (cf. GNT, NIV, NLT).

2Chr 29:30 And Hezekiah the king and the officials commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed down and worshiped.

Job 1:20-21 Then Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head and fell on the ground and worshiped. ²¹And he said, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.”

Heb 13:15 Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name.

As sacrifices are a form of worship, offering sacrifices of praise – or thanksgiving (cf. Jonah 2:9) – are likewise a form of worship.

Rev 19:4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who was seated on the throne, saying, “Amen. Hallelujah!”

“Hallelujah” is a call to praise God, often used itself as an expression of praise to God.

Ps 29:2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness.^t

^t Or in holy attire

Praise of God is evident in the first half of the verse, here spoken of as accompanying worship of God. A similar comment can be made regarding Revelation 4:10-11 immediately below, with praise evident in v. 11.

Rev 4:10-11 ... the twenty-four elders fall down before him who is seated on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever. They cast their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹“Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.”

Worship God with thanksgiving

Rev 11:16-17 And the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying, “We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, for you have taken your great power and begun to reign.”

2Chr 7:3 When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement and worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, “For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.”

Jer 33:11a ... the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: “Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!”

Thank offerings were a voluntary offering and so a form of worship, to be given in a spirit of thanksgiving.

Ps 50:14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving,^u and perform your vows to the Most High, ...

^u Or Make thanksgiving your sacrifice to God

Jonah 2:9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Salvation belongs to the LORD!

Rev 7:11-12 And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Here “thanks” is mentioned along with a number of other things that are ascribed to God in worship of him.

✦ Worship God earnestly and persistently:

Acts 26:6-7a And now I stand here on trial because of my hope in the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day.

Worship God through prayer and even with fasting

Worship is often done through prayer – in fact prayer itself is indicative of worship. Fasting sharpens our focus on God in prayer and worship of him.

Luke 1:10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

This speaks of people assembled for worship (cf. NIV) outside the temple sanctuary. It is not actually saying that they were worshiping while praying, but arguably it is implied.

Luke 2:36-37 And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived with her husband seven years from when she was a virgin, ³⁷and then as a widow until she was eighty-four.^v She did not depart from the temple, worshipping with fasting and prayer night and day.

^v Or as a widow for eighty-four years

Acts 10:4 And he stared at him in terror and said, “What is it, Lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God.”

Cornelius’s prayers and alms are portrayed as being akin to sacrifices offered up (“have ascended”) to God. As such they were a form of worship of God.

Acts 13:2 While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.”

✦ Separate yourself from unclean practices in order to worship God:

Ezra 6:21 It was eaten by the people of Israel who had returned from exile, and also by every one who had joined them and separated himself from the uncleanness of the peoples of the land to worship the LORD, the God of Israel.

Note that "breaking bread" (cf. v. 42) likely refers to celebrating the Lord's Supper, another act of worship that believers do together. Acts 20:7 also speaks of believers coming together to break bread – "On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread ..."

Rom 15:5-6 May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, ⁶that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

God's people should glorify him together as one – both by their unity and in praising God together.

Acts 2:42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

1Tim 2:8 I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling; ...

The admonition to pray “without anger or quarreling” implies that Paul is probably referring to praying together (cf. GNT, NLT).

✦ Jesus’ promise for when two or more pray together:

Matt 18:19-20 Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.

Repent together for corporate sin

When a group of God’s people fail him, it is appropriate that they repent together. Note that in a sense repentance is an aspect of our worship of God or is at least associated with it (cf. Neh 9:3 ↓). For repentance is a facet of our devotion to God, reflective of our reverence and adoration for him.

Num 21:7 And the people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you. Pray to the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

Note that repenting together may involve prayer for restoration from consequences of sin, as Moses offers here on behalf of the people (cf. Joel 2:15-17 ↓).

Ezra 10:1, 10-12 While Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children, gathered to him out of Israel, for the people wept bitterly.  ... ¹⁰And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have broken faith and married foreign women, and so increased the guilt of Israel. ¹¹Now then make confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers and do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives.” ¹²Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, “It is so; we must do as you have said.

Neh 9:1-3 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the people of Israel were assembled with fasting and in sackcloth, and with earth on their heads. ²And the Israelites separated themselves from all foreigners and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. ³And they stood up in their place and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day; for another quarter of it they made confession and worshiped the LORD their God.

Joel 1:13-14 Put on sackcloth and lament, O priests; wail, O ministers of the altar. Go in, pass the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God! Because grain offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God. ¹⁴Consecrate a fast; call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.

In this and the following passage from Joel, the people are called on to seek God’s mercy regarding the punishment for the people’s sin, in conjunction with repenting.

Joel 2:15-17 Blow the trumpet in Zion; consecrate a fast; call a solemn assembly; ¹⁶gather the people. Consecrate the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber. ¹⁷Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, “Spare your people, O LORD, and make not your heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations.^c Why should they say among the peoples, ‘Where is their God?’”

^c Or reproach, that the nations should rule over them

The command to “consecrate the congregation” (v. 16) in effect meant to “prepare them for a sacred meeting” (GNT) with God, setting them apart from all that was not godly, making them “fit to worship” (CEV) God. In the OT this “required going through certain kinds of ceremonies” (CEV text note).

Zeph 2:1-2 Gather together, yes, gather, O shameless nation, ²before the decree takes effect^d —before the day passes away like chaff— before there comes upon you the burning anger of the LORD, before there comes upon you the day of the anger of the LORD.

The divisions (v. 18) seemed to have been apparent during the Corinthian's meetings, meaning that they could not get along with each other during worship (cf. CEV). The judgment (v. 34) would be as a consequence for such irreverent participation in the Lord's Supper.

1Tim 2:8-10 I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling; likewise also that women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly attire, but with what is proper for women who profess godliness—with good works.

These verses are from a passage containing instructions on public worship, though some of these instructions obviously have a wider application.

✦ Instruction on heads being covered:

1Cor 11:3-10, 13-16 But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife^j is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head, ⁵but every wife^k who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, since it is the same as if her head were shaven. ⁶For if a wife will not cover her head, then she should cut her hair short. But since it is disgraceful for a wife to cut off her hair or shave her head, let her cover her head. ⁷For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God, but woman is the glory of man. ⁸For man was not made from woman, but woman from man. ⁹Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. ¹⁰That is why a wife ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.^l ... ¹³Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a wife to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears long hair it is a disgrace for him, ¹⁵but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering. ¹⁶If anyone is inclined to be contentious, we have no such practice, nor do the churches of God.

^j Greek gunē. This term may refer to a woman or a wife, depending on the context

^k In verses 5-13, the Greek word gunē is translated wife in verses that deal with wearing a veil, a sign of being married in first-century culture

^l Or messengers, that is, people sent to observe and report

Some consider these instructions to be culturally based, as a woman having her hair uncovered was apparently a sign of loose morals in the society of the day. As such these instructions would not necessarily be pertinent to today's societies. Others consider that the teachings in vv. 3, 7-10 are indicative that all of the associated instructions are timeless. Regarding the reference to "the angels" (v. 10), Paul appears to be speaking of their presence and witness to our actions as further reason to ensure that our actions are appropriate. Note that vv. 14-15 appear to primarily be pointing to a need to distinguish between the sexes, with the implication that where appropriate – as in this matter of head coverings – such differences should be taken into account and appropriately addressed.

Although not observed by Christians, the feasts and festivals given in the OT law for the Israelites to participate in, exemplify the need for God's people to come together to worship God. The reasons and regulations for them also contain principles that are relevant to the worship of God in all eras. Note the above cross references concerning the annual Day of Atonement and the Sabbath, which were also times of sacred gatherings of the Israelites.

- The Israelites were to celebrate together three annual festivals or feasts

The Israelites were to celebrate together three annual festivals or feasts

The three annual festivals required all the people – or at least the men – to gather together. These festivals were: the Passover and The Feast of Unleavened Bread; the Feast of Weeks (also called the Feast of Harvest – and Pentecost, in the NT); and the Feast of Booths (also called the Feast of Tabernacles or the Feast of Ingathering). They were all linked with agricultural seasons, although the first was primarily rooted in God's deliverance from Egypt, the main focus of its celebration.

Ex 23:14-17 Three times in the year you shall keep a feast to me. ¹⁵*You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you shall eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt.* None shall appear before me empty-handed. ¹⁶*You shall keep the Feast of Harvest, of the firstfruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. You shall keep the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in from the field the fruit of your labor.* ¹⁷*Three times in the year shall all your males appear before the Lord God.*

Ex 34:18a, 22-24 You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread.  ... ²²*You shall observe the Feast of Weeks, the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year's end.* ²³*Three times in the year shall all your males appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.* ²⁴*For I will cast out nations before you and enlarge your borders; no one shall covet your land, when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.*

Note God's promise in v. 24 to protect the Israelites' land while they gathered in one place to celebrate the festivals.

Deut 16:16-17 Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Booths. They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed. ¹⁷*Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.*

2Chr 8:12-13 Then Solomon offered up burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD that he had built before the vestibule, ¹³as the duty of each day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses for the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the three annual feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths.

✦ Believers are not bound to observing the OT festivals and feasts:

Col 2:16-17 Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. ¹⁷*These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ.*

The religious festivals and celebrations were merely a shadow of the things that were to be realized in Christ. This is true in that they were part of the old covenant, which as a whole foreshadowed the new covenant realized in Christ. Additionally Paul may have had in mind parallels between particular elements of the two covenants. One obvious such parallel is between that of the redemption that came through the Passover (involving the sacrifice of a lamb) and the complete redemption that came through Christ (involving the sacrifice of himself).

Celebration of God's deliverance: The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread

See also:

- ... The Passover and God's deliverance of Israel from Egypt, p. 327

This occurred during the month of Abib (March/April). The Passover was observed in the evening, on the anniversary of the departure from Egypt. It commemorated God passing over the houses of the Israelites on the night he struck down the firstborn of Egypt, in attaining the release of the Israelites. The Feast of Unleavened Bread commenced the following day. The name of this feast is derived from the requirement to eat bread made without yeast for seven days, as the Israelites did when they hurriedly prepared to leave Egypt.

Ex 12:1-3, 5-13, 24-27 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, ²*"This month shall be for you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year for you.* ³*Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household.*  ... ⁵*Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats,* ⁶*and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs at twilight.* ⁷*"Then they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.* ⁸*They shall eat the flesh that night, roasted on the fire; with unleavened bread and bitter herbs they shall eat it.* ⁹*Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted, its head with its legs and its inner parts.* ¹⁰*And you shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning* you shall burn. ¹¹In this manner you shall eat it: with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD's Passover. ¹²For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. ¹³The blood shall be a sign for you, on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague will befall you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt. ¹⁴... ²⁴You shall observe this rite as a statute for you and for your sons forever. ²⁵And when you come to the land that the LORD will give you, as he has promised, you shall keep this service. ²⁶And when your children say to you, 'What do you mean by this service?' ²⁷you shall say, 'It is the sacrifice of the LORD's Passover, for he passed over the houses of the people of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians but spared our houses.'" And the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

^m Hebrew between the two evenings

The young male lamb (vv. 3, 5-7) was to be sacrificed as a substitute for each family, in particular each firstborn male, with its shed blood symbolizing redemption. In v. 8 the bitter herbs apparently symbolized the bitterness of the people's slavery, and the bread without yeast was both necessary for and symbolized their imminent, hasty departure from Egypt (cf. vv. 28-34, 39).

Ex 12:14-17 This day shall be for you a memorial day, and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD; throughout your generations, as a statute forever, you shall keep it as a feast. ¹⁵Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven out of your houses, for if anyone eats what is leavened, from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶On the first day you shall hold a holy assembly, and on the seventh day a holy assembly. No work shall be done on those days. But what everyone needs to eat, that alone may be prepared by you. ¹⁷And you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day, throughout your generations, as a statute forever.

Lev 23:4-8 "These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, the holy convocations, which you shall proclaim at the time appointed for them. ⁵In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight,^a is the LORD's Passover. ⁶And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. ⁷On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not do any ordinary work. ⁸But you shall present a food offering to the LORD for seven days. On the seventh day is a holy convocation; you shall not do any ordinary work."

ⁿ Hebrew between the two evenings

Note that a "convocation" is a large formal assembly.

Deut 16:1-8 Observe the month of Abib and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. ²And you shall offer the Passover sacrifice to the LORD your God, from the flock or the herd, at the place that the LORD will choose, to make his name dwell there. ³You shall eat no leavened bread with it. Seven days you shall eat it with unleavened bread, the bread of affliction—for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste—that all the days of your life you may remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt. ⁴No leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the flesh that you sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain all night until morning. ⁵You may not offer the Passover sacrifice within any of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, ⁶but at the place that the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell in it, there you shall offer the Passover sacrifice, in the evening at sunset, at the time you came out of Egypt. ⁷And you shall cook it and eat it at the place that the LORD your God will choose. And in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents. ⁸For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it.

✦ The offering of the first fruits of the harvest:

Lev 23:10-14 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land that I give you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest, ¹¹and he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, so that you may be accepted. On the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. ¹²And on the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD. ¹³And the grain offering with it shall be two tenths of an ephah^o of fine flour mixed with oil, a food offering to the LORD with a pleasing aroma, and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, a fourth of a hin.^p ¹⁴And you shall eat neither bread nor grain parched or fresh until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

^o An ephah was about 3/5 bushel or 22 liters

^p A hin was about 4 quarts or 3.5 liters

This offering of the first fruits of the harvest – sometimes known as "The Feast of Firstfruits" – appears to have been connected to the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. The barley crop was in view. A “sheaf” (v. 10-12) is a bundle of grain stalks tied together after reaping. The waving of it before God was followed by a series of sacrifices. These actions were an acknowledgment that the whole harvest was a blessing from God. They were also a dedication of the whole harvest – possibly implying that the sustenance that it would give was to be used for living in a way that was honorable to him.

Celebration of God’s provision: The Feast of Weeks (or Pentecost); . . .

The Feast of Weeks (or the Feast of Harvest) was celebrated in the month of Sivan (May/June), fifty days after the Feast of Unleavened Bread. “Pentecost” – the Greek term for this feast – is derived from the number fifty. This feast marked the wheat harvest. It lasted only one day.

Ex 23:16a You shall keep the Feast of Harvest, of the firstfruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field.

Ex 34:22 You shall observe the Feast of Weeks, the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year’s end.

Lev 23:15-21 You shall count seven full weeks from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering. ¹⁶*You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath. Then you shall present a grain offering of new grain to the LORD.* ¹⁷*You shall bring from your dwelling places two loaves of bread to be waved, made of two tenths of an ephah. They shall be of fine flour, and they shall be baked with leaven, as firstfruits to the LORD.* ¹⁸*And you shall present with the bread seven lambs a year old without blemish, and one bull from the herd and two rams. They shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, a food offering with a pleasing aroma to the LORD.* ¹⁹*And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings.* ²⁰*And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.* ²¹*And you shall make proclamation on the same day. You shall hold a holy convocation. You shall not do any ordinary work. It is a statute forever in all your dwelling places throughout your generations.*

Note that the Sabbath referred to in v. 15 is that concerned in the offering of the first fruits of the harvest (v. 11 ).

Num 28:26 On the day of the firstfruits, when you offer a grain offering of new grain to the LORD at your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall not do any ordinary work, ...

Deut 16:9-11 You shall count seven weeks. Begin to count the seven weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain. ¹⁰*Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you.* ¹¹*And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who is within your towns, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are among you, at the place that the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell there.*

This festival was held in the month of Tishri (September/October), commencing five days after the Day of Atonement (cf. Note: Procedures for the Day of Atonement, involving the high priest entering the Most Holy Place, p. 392) and lasting for seven days. It marked the fruit harvest, including the grapes. It also commemorated the wilderness wanderings, when the people lived in booths (i.e. temporary shelters) – and probably God’s provision during that time.

All native Israelites shall dwell in booths, ⁴³that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.”

Deut 16:13-15 You shall keep the Feast of Booths seven days, when you have gathered in the produce from your threshing floor and your winepress. ¹⁴You shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are within your towns. ¹⁵For seven days you shall keep the feast to the LORD your God at the place that the LORD will choose, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful.

✦ The celebration of the Feast of Booths by the returned exiles:

Neh 8:13-18 On the second day the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and the Levites, came together to Ezra the scribe in order to study the words of the Law. ¹⁴And they found it written in the Law that the LORD had commanded by Moses that the people of Israel should dwell in booths^r during the feast of the seventh month, ¹⁵and that they should proclaim it and publish it in all their towns and in Jerusalem, “Go out to the hills and bring branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make booths, as it is written.” ¹⁶So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on his roof, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷And all the assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in the booths, for from the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the people of Israel had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing. ¹⁸And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. They kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the rule.

^r Or temporary shelters

Israel was also to celebrate new moon festivals

Num 28:11, 14 At the beginnings of your months, you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls from the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish; ... ¹⁴Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, a third of a hin for a ram, and a quarter of a hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of each month throughout the months of the year.

Ps 81:3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day.

The reference to a “feast” may be to one of the three main feasts (cf. NIV), but it could simply be speaking of a New Moon celebration as a feast (cf. CEV).

1Chr 23:30-31 And they were to stand every morning, thanking and praising the LORD, and likewise at evening, ³¹and whenever burnt offerings were offered to the LORD on Sabbaths, new moons, and feast days, according to the number required of them, regularly before the LORD.

The term “new moons” denotes “New Moon festivals” (AMP, CEV, NCV, NIV; cf. GNT, NLT).

Ezek 46:1, 3 Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that faces east shall be shut on the six working days, but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. ... ³The people of the land shall bow down at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.

Note that this is from Ezekiel’s account of his vision of a future temple. His account included associated worship practices, which largely mirrored those given through Moses.

1Sam 20:5 David said to Jonathan, “Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit at table with the king. But let me go, that I may hide myself in the field till the third day at evening.”

Amos 8:4-5 Hear this, you who trample on the needy and bring the poor of the land to an end, ⁵saying, “When will the new moon be over, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may offer wheat for sale, that we may make the ephah small and the shekel^s great and deal deceitfully with false balances, ...

^s An ephah was about 3/5 bushel or 22 liters; a shekel was about 2/5 ounce or 11 grams

The quotation attributed to wicked people indicates that, like the Sabbath, the New Moon festivals were times when normal work stopped.

‡ The New Moon festival of the seventh month (also known as the Feast of Trumpets):

Num 29:1-5 *On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall not do any ordinary work. It is a day for you to blow the trumpets,*²*and you shall offer a burnt offering, for a pleasing aroma to the LORD: one bull from the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;*³*also their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah^t for the bull, two tenths for the ram,*⁴*and one tenth for each of the seven lambs;*⁵*with one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you; ...*

^t An ephah was about 3/5 bushel or 22 liters

The Feast of Trumpets marked the beginning of the agricultural year. This festival would later be identified with the new year.

The feasts and festivals were generally times of rejoicing

Lev 23:40-41a And you shall take on the first day the fruit of splendid trees, branches of palm trees and boughs of leafy trees and willows of the brook, and *you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.*⁴¹*You shall celebrate it [the Feast of Booths] as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year.*

Deut 16:10-15 Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you.¹¹*And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who is within your towns, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are among you, at the place that the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell there.*¹²You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt; and you shall be careful to observe these statutes.¹³*You shall keep the Feast of Booths seven days, when you have gathered in the produce from your threshing floor and your winepress.*¹⁴*You shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are within your towns.*¹⁵*For seven days you shall keep the feast to the LORD your God at the place that the LORD will choose, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful.*

Neh 8:17 And all the assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in the booths, for from the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the people of Israel had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing.

Zec 8:19 Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month and the fast of the fifth and the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth shall be to the house of Judah seasons of joy and gladness and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace.

The fasts referred to commemorated events surrounding the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar. This prophecy promises that these times of sorrow will be transformed into times of joy. The verse reflects the fact that Israel's festivals were to be joyful occasions.

The feasts and festivals included sacred assemblies and days of no regular work

Deut 16:5-8 You may not offer the Passover sacrifice within any of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, ⁶but at the place that the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell in it, there you shall offer the Passover sacrifice, in the evening at sunset, at the time you came out of Egypt. ⁷And you shall cook it and eat it at the place that the LORD your God will choose. And in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents. ⁸For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it.

The feasts were not to be celebrated in just any town (v. 5). For the feasts the people were to gather together at the place God would choose (v. 6a) – which would be in Jerusalem – to hold solemn assemblies (v. 8).

Neh 8:18 And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. They kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the rule.

✦ As with the feasts, the Sabbath was proclaimed as a day of rest and holy assembly:

Lev 23:3 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwelling places.

The Hebrew word translated as “Sabbath” means to “to cease”. Thus to observe the Sabbath one ceases from work and rests.

II. Offerings

Making offerings to God of money and/or goods is an integral part of worshiping God. Moreover, the Bible gives a number of good reasons to give offerings to God. It also gives guidelines on what to give and how to give to God. Additionally, the Bible emphasizes the need for our lives to please God in order for our offerings to be acceptable to him.

Note that this section contains many OT verses speaking of offerings required by the OT law. Some kinds of OT offerings, or sacrifices, were specifically for sin (cf. a) Offerings for Atonement for Sinners, p. 384). These have no current application for Christians as Jesus Christ sacrificed himself for sin once and for all. In contrast, other types of offerings were given for reasons such as thanksgiving to God and for the service of God. These offerings have their parallels in Christian worship offerings today – in the giving of money and other resources to God. Moreover, many of the OT regulations concerning these offerings provide reasons for and important principles involved in giving to God that are applicable today.

2Chr 29:28 The whole assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

2Chr 32:12 Has not this same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, “Before one altar you shall worship, and on it you shall burn your sacrifices?”

God was only to be worshiped with sacrifices at the temple in Jerusalem (cf. All offerings were only to be made at the place God chose for his presence amongst his people, p. 388), in which was the altar for burning sacrifices.

Isa 19:21 And the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day and worship with sacrifice and offering, and they will make vows to the LORD and perform them.

Ezek 46:2 The prince shall enter by the vestibule of the gate from outside, and shall take his stand by the post of the gate. The priests shall offer his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until evening.

Ex 10:24-26 Then Pharaoh called Moses and said, “Go, serve the LORD; your little ones also may go with you; only let your flocks and your herds remain behind.”²⁵ But Moses said, “You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.”²⁶ Our livestock also must go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we must take of them to serve the LORD our God, and we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there.”

Here “serve” is akin to “worship” (CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT).

✦ God is honored by offerings or gifts:

Prov 3:9 Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce; ...

God is honored by offerings or gifts in the respect and homage attributed to him by such offerings. Additionally, in the case of gifts being made to the needy (cf. Offerings are often to help the needy – bringing thanks and glory to God, p. 1366), God is honored by the needs of the needy being met in his name, as accentuated by their thanksgiving to him for such help.

Offerings acknowledge God’s provision for us . . .

Ex 23:14-16, 19a “Three times in the year you shall keep a feast to me. ¹⁵You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you shall eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. None shall appear before me empty-handed. ¹⁶You shall keep the Feast of Harvest, of the firstfruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. You shall keep the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in from the field the fruit of your labor.  ... ¹⁹“The best of the firstfruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God.

As noted earlier, the three major OT festivals were all linked with agricultural seasons. In each of these festivals, offerings from the harvest were made as an acknowledgement to God of his provision – and also as an expression of thanksgiving for his provision.

Deut 16:9-10 You shall count seven weeks. Begin to count the seven weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain. ¹⁰Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you.

The final clause (cf. Deut 16:17 ↓) indicates that the people were to bring an offering of an amount that was in proportion to the size of the harvest that God had blessed them with.

Deut 16:15-17 For seven days you shall keep the feast to the LORD your God at the place that the LORD will choose, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you will be altogether joyful. ¹⁶“Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Booths. They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed. ¹⁷Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.

Deut 26:9-10 And he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰And behold, now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, O LORD, have given me.' And you shall set it down before the LORD your God and worship before the LORD your God.

Gen 28:22b And of all that you give me I will give a full tenth to you.

... In fact, all we have to give God has been given to us by him and ultimately belongs to him 1Chr 29:14, 16 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able thus to offer willingly? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.  ... ¹⁶O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hand and is all your own.

Matt 22:21 They said, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

We are to give to God what belongs to God. This indicates that what we should give to him actually belongs to him in the first place – as does in fact everything that we have.

Rom 11:35-36 "Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?" ³⁶For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

There is nothing that we can give to God that would leave him indebted to us, for all things come from God in the first place – and exist through him and for him.

Job 1:21 And he said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD."

Although this verse is not referring to giving to God, it nevertheless indicates that all we have to give God has been given to us by him. It also reflects that all we have ultimately belongs to God, with Job's words suggesting that God has the right to take away all we have.

✦ Hannah's gift to God of Samuel, her child that God gave her:

Offerings express thanksgiving to God for his deliverance

Ps 54:6-7 With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to you; I will give thanks to your name, O LORD, for it is good. ⁷For he has delivered me from every trouble, and my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Ps 56:12-13 I must perform my vows to you, O God; I will render thank offerings to you. ¹³For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life.

As the name indicates, thank offerings (v. 12) signified thanksgiving to God, prominently for God's deliverance (v. 13) – as reflected elsewhere in this subsection. Note that the reference to performing vows (v. 12a) suggests that when facing danger, David had vowed to make thank offerings to God when God had delivered him (cf. Ps 116:8-9, 12-17 ↓).

Ps 107:19, 21-22 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.  ... ²¹Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man! ²²And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and tell of his deeds in songs of joy!

Ps 116:8-9, 12-17 For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling; ⁹I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.  ... ¹²What shall I render to the LORD for all his benefits to me? ¹³I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD, ¹⁴I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people. ¹⁵Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. ¹⁶O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your maidservant. You have loosed my bonds. ¹⁷I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the LORD.

In v. 13, "the cup of salvation" refers to an offering of wine to thank God for his salvation (cf. CEV, GNT, NIRV), made as part of a thank offering (v. 17). In v. 14, the vows probably at least included ones which were made during the psalmist's dire predicament, promising offerings (v. 17) for deliverance by God. In v. 17, "the sacrifice of thanksgiving" is likely a "thanksgiving sacrifice" (NRSV; cf. CEV, NCV, NIV), as opposed to simply giving thanks (which is also in a sense a sacrifice).

Jer 33:10-11 Thus says the LORD: In this place of which you say, 'It is a waste without man or beast,' in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man or inhabitant or beast, there shall be heard again ¹¹the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD: "Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!" For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

Ezra 8:35 At that time those who had come from captivity, the returned exiles, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and as a sin offering twelve male goats. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

These offerings may well have been made primarily in thanksgiving for the people's release from captivity and return to Jerusalem.

✦ Thanksgiving offerings were made to express thankfulness:

Lev 7:11-12 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings that one may offer to the LORD. ¹²*If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the thanksgiving sacrifice unleavened loaves mixed with oil, unleavened wafers smeared with oil, and loaves of fine flour well mixed with oil.*

This underlines the concept that a thank offering was made "as an expression of thankfulness" (NIV®, v. 12). The passage deals with the process of making such thank offerings rather than reasons for them. In addition to God's deliverance (as per the above references) they were made in response to other blessings of God – such as his provision (as per the previous two subsections).

Offerings support the service of God

Ex 35:20-22, 24, 29 Then all the congregation of the people of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. ²¹And they came, everyone whose heart stirred him, and everyone whose spirit moved him, and brought the LORD's contribution to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments. ²²So they came, both men and women. All who were of a willing heart brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and armlets, all sorts of gold objects, every man dedicating an offering of gold to the LORD.  ... ²⁴*Everyone who could make a contribution of silver or bronze brought it as the LORD's contribution. And every one who possessed acacia wood of any use in the work brought it.*  ... ²⁹All the men and women, the people of Israel, whose heart moved them to bring anything for the work that the LORD had commanded by Moses to be done brought it as a freewill offering to the LORD.

Lev 7:14 And from it he shall offer one loaf from each offering, as a gift to the LORD. It shall belong to the priest who throws the blood of the peace offerings.

The description of such an offering as being "a gift to the LORD" arguably suggests that it is seen as being a gift for the LORD's service – particular with the subsequent reference to it belonging to the priest (cf. 2Chr 31:4-6 ↓).

Num 7:2-5 ... the chiefs of Israel, heads of their fathers' houses, who were the chiefs of the tribes, who were over those who were listed, approached ³and brought their offerings before the LORD, six wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two of the chiefs, and for each one an ox. They brought them before the tabernacle. ⁴*Then the LORD said to Moses,* ⁵*"Accept these from them, that they may be used in the service of the tent of meeting, and give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service."*

1Chr 29:2, 7 So I have provided for the house of my God, so far as I was able, the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, and the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, besides great quantities of onyx and stones for setting, antimony, colored stones, all sorts of precious stones and marble.  ... ⁷*They gave for the service of the house of God 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics^b of gold, 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of bronze and 100,000 talents of iron.*

^b A daric was a coin weighing about 1/4 ounce or 8.5 grams

2Chr 31:4-6 And he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the Law of the LORD. ⁵As soon as the command was spread abroad, the people of Israel gave in abundance the firstfruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field. And they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything. ⁶And the people of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of the dedicated things that had been dedicated to the LORD their God, and laid them in heaps.

The offerings allowed the priests and Levites to devote themselves to God's work (v. 4).

2Ki 12:4-5 Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the LORD, the money for which each man is assessed—the money from the assessment of persons—and the money that a man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD, ⁵let the priests take, each from his donor, and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered."

Note that "the money for which each man is assessed" appears to refer to allotted amounts owed by males in accordance with regulations regarding the periodic census (cf. Ex 30:11-16).

2Ki 22:4-6 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money that has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have collected from the people. ⁵And let it be given into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD, and let them give it to the workmen who are at the house of the LORD, repairing the house ⁶(that is, to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons), and let them use it for buying timber and quarried stone to repair the house.

Ezra 7:16 ... with all the silver and gold that you shall find in the whole province of Babylonia, and with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests, vowed willingly for the house of their God that is in Jerusalem.

Offerings are often to help the needy – bringing thanks and glory to God

Deut 26:12-13a "When you have finished paying all the tithe of your produce in the third year, which is the year of tithing, giving it to the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat within your towns and be filled, ¹³then you shall say before the LORD your God, 'I have removed the sacred portion out of my house, and moreover, I have given it to the Levite, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all your commandment that you have commanded me.'

These gifts were ultimately an offering to God (to help the needy) as indicated by them: being a tenth or a "tithe", typically the amount set aside for God; and being termed a "sacred portion" (v. 13a).

Rom 15:26 For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem.

The churches in Macedonia and Achaia had "taken up an offering" (NLT; cf. GNT, NIV) for the poor believers in Jerusalem. As such it was an offering to God to help the needy amongst his people.

2Cor 9:12-13 For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God. ¹³By their approval of this service, they^c will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, ...

^c Or you

The "service" was giving towards the needs of the poor believers in Jerusalem, as referred to in the latter part of v. 13. As such their gifts were ultimately a service to or on behalf of God, as suggested by the reference to "many expressions of thanks to God" (v. 12).

2Chr 31:8 When Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and his people Israel.

The Israelites had generously given the firstfruits of all that their fields produced to support the priests and other Levites in their work (cf. vv. 4-6 ). The Levites were "needy" in that they were in need of such support and were at times listed with other needy groups (cf. Deut 26:12-13a ). The people's generous giving brought blessing – or praise (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV) – to God.

^d Greek with blessings; twice in this verse

^e Or all contentment

In v. 7 cheerful givers are noted as being loved by God – a superlative blessing. Verse 8 teaches that God blesses those who give with all that they need for themselves (cf. AMP, CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT) and for abundant good works, such as further sharing with others.

2Cor 9:14 ... while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. 📖

Those who give are blessed by prayers for them by the appreciative recipients of the gifts. Note that the latter part of the verse suggests that such giving is ultimately as a manifestation of God's grace to the giver himself.

Phil 4:16-19 Even in Thessalonica you sent me help for my needs once and again. ¹⁷Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your credit.^f ¹⁸I have received full payment, and more. I am well supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. ¹⁹*And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.* 📖

^f Or I seek the profit that accrues to your account

The phrase "increases to your credit" (v. 17) points to blessings being credited to them, to be bestowed upon them when appropriate. The often-quoted promise in v. 19 is in its context shown to have been made to people who had given generously to meet the needs of others, specifically the needs of Paul as he spread the gospel. With this promise Paul points to the magnitude of God's provision to them, it being in accordance with "his riches in glory in Christ Jesus."

Prov 3:9-10 Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce; ¹⁰*then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.* 📖

Mal 3:10-12 *Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Ex 20:24 An altar of earth you shall make for me and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I cause my name to be remembered I will come to you and bless you. 📖

One can infer from this that God will bless those who make offerings to him. "In every place where I cause my name to be remembered" probably refers to wherever the altar and offerings to God would be made (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

✦ The miraculous blessing of the widow who sacrificially provided for the prophet Elijah:

1Ki 17:10-16 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink." ¹¹And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." ¹²And she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. And now I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die." ¹³And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make something for yourself and your son." ¹⁴*For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "The jar of flour shall not be spent, and the jug of oil shall not be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth."* ¹⁵And she went and did as Elijah said. And she and he and her household ate for many days. ¹⁶*The jar of flour was not spent, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah.* 📖

The poor widow in a real sense gave to God, sacrificially providing for God's prophet Elijah. As a result she was miraculously blessed.

Note: God has given us the ultimate gift – Jesus Christ himself

- e\) Epilogue: God's Vast Blessing of His People, p. 1287

Arguably the main reason why we should give to God is his unmatched generosity to us. As spoken of earlier in this section, all we have has in fact being given to us by God. The above cross reference further testifies to God's amazing generosity to his people. But the most remarkable expression of his generosity was his ultimate gift of his Son Jesus Christ, to die on our behalf.

John 3:16 For God so loved the world,^h that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

^h Or For this is how God loved the world

John 6:32-33 Jesus then said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³*For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.*”

God’s gift of “the true bread from heaven” (v. 32) is Jesus Christ, who in turn gives “life” to the world (v. 33).

2Cor 9:14-15 ... while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. ¹⁵*Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift!*

As noted earlier, v. 14 speaks of generosity as being the manifestation of God’s surpassing grace. By its insertion immediately following this, v. 15 implies that God’s “inexpressible gift” of his Son is a reason and motivating factor for Christians to give to God, in accordance with and in appreciation of his incredible gift to them.

Eph 1:22-23 And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, ²³*which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.*

✦ Jesus Christ gave up being rich and became poor, so that we might become rich:

2Cor 8:9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich.

The phrase “he became poor” (v. 9) refers to Jesus Christ giving up his heavenly glory – ultimately so as to give up his life for us. He did this so that we might become spiritually rich.

Give the “firstfruits” to God

See also:

- Ex 23:19 ↓; Num 18:12 ↓; Gen 4:3-5 ↓

The OT speaks of giving to God the first portion of what we produce, largely in the requirement for the Israelites to offer the first of their crops, i.e. the “firstfruits”. Today many believers emulate this by giving to God a portion of their wage on first receiving it. By this God’s provision and goodness is acknowledged in a way that honors him (cf. Prov 3:9 ↓) – putting him first, rather than simply offering him the leftovers that we can spare. Note also that offering the firstfruits to God was a statement, made in faith, that the rest of the harvest would take place – a principle also applicable today.

Prov 3:9 Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce; ...

Lev 23:10-11 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land that I give you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest, ¹¹*and he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD,* so that you may be accepted. On the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.

Note that a sheaf is a bundle of grain stalks tied together after reaping. The waving of it before God was followed by a series of sacrifices. These actions were an acknowledgment that the whole harvest was a blessing from God. They were also a dedication of the whole harvest – possibly implying that the sustenance that it would give was to be used for living in a way that was honorable to him.

Deut 26:10 And behold, now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, O LORD, have given me. And you shall set it down before the LORD your God and worship before the LORD your God.

2Chr 31:5a As soon as the command was spread abroad, the people of Israel gave in abundance the firstfruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field.

Neh 10:35-37 We obligate ourselves to bring the firstfruits of our ground and the firstfruits of all fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of the LORD; ³⁶also to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God, the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks; ³⁷and to bring the first of our dough, and our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and to bring to the Levites the tithes from our ground, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all our towns where we labor.

✦ The offering of the firstborn, to commemorate God's deliverance of from Egypt:

Ex 13:1-2, 11-16 The LORD said to Moses, ²*Consecrate to me all the firstborn. Whatever is the first to open the womb among the people of Israel, both of man and of beast, is mine.*  ... ¹¹*When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and your fathers, and shall give it to you, ¹²you shall set apart to the LORD all that first opens the womb. All the firstborn of your animals that are males shall be the LORD's. ¹³Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, or if you will not redeem it you shall break its neck. Every firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem. ¹⁴And when in time to come your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' you shall say to him, 'By a strong hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery. ¹⁵For when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of animals. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all the males that first open the womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem. ¹⁶It shall be as a mark on your hand or frontlets between your eyes, for by a strong hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.'*

Consecrating every firstborn male to God commemorated God's deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt (vv. 14, 16) – in which God took the life of every firstborn male amongst the Egyptians (v. 15) while sparing those of the Israelites. It also was an acknowledgement that the firstborn males belonged to God who had spared their lives. The sons of course could not be sacrificed and so were to be redeemed by giving to God a redemption price – five silver shekels (cf. Num 18:16). Unclean animals also could not be sacrificed and so likewise were to be redeemed.

Give the best to God . . .

Ex 23:19a "The best of the firstfruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God.

Num 18:12, 29 All the best of the oil and all the best of the wine and of the grain, the firstfruits of what they give to the LORD, I give to you.  ... ²⁹Out of all the gifts to you, you shall present every contribution due to the LORD; from each its best part is to be dedicated.

Verse 12 speaks of offerings that the people were to give being allocated to the priests and Levites, to support them. Verse 29 speaks of how in turn the Levites were to present offerings from the offerings that had been given to them. In both cases the best was to be given – "the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain" (v. 12) and "the best and holiest part" (v. 29).

Deut 12:11 ... then to the place that the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell there, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the contribution that you present, and all your finest vow offerings that you vow to the LORD.

Ezek 20:40 For on my holy mountain, the mountain height of Israel, declares the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land. There I will accept them, and there I will require your contributions and the choicest of your gifts, with all your sacred offerings.

Gen 4:3-5 In the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground, ⁴and Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and his offering, ⁵but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his face fell.

It is not explicitly stated why God had regard for Abel's offering but not for Cain's offering. What may be in view is that Abel gave the best of the first of his flock – "the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions" – whereas no such comparable description is made of Cain's offering. (For further explanation, see Hebrews 11:4 and comment below in Give in a way that is acceptable to God, p. 1373.)

... Do not give what is inferior to God

Lev 1:3 If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish. He shall bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD.

Lev 22:17-25 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁸“Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel and say to them, When any one of the house of Israel or of the sojourners in Israel presents a burnt offering as his offering, for any of their vows or freewill offerings that they offer to the LORD, ¹⁹*if it is to be accepted for you it shall be a male without blemish, of the bulls or the sheep or the goats.* ²⁰*You shall not offer anything that has a blemish, for it will not be acceptable for you.* ²¹*And when anyone offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering from the herd or from the flock, to be accepted it must be perfect; there shall be no blemish in it.* ²²*Animals blind or disabled or mutilated or having a discharge or an itch or scabs you shall not offer to the LORD or give them to the LORD as a food offering on the altar.* ²³*You may present a bull or a lamb that has a part too long or too short for a freewill offering, but for a vow offering it cannot be accepted.* ²⁴*Any animal that has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut you shall not offer to the LORD; you shall not do it within your land,* ²⁵*neither shall you offer as the bread of your God any such animals gotten from a foreigner. Since there is a blemish in them, because of their mutilation, they will not be accepted for you.”*

Regarding the exception in v. 23, such animals were not as seriously defected or flawed (cf. Deut 15:21 ↓) as those with the defects listed in the surrounding verses. However to use them in fulfillment of a vow would be to devalue the original cost associated with the vow.

Deut 15:21 But if it has any blemish, if it is lame or blind or has any serious blemish whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

Num 6:14 ... and he shall bring his gift to the LORD, one male lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish as a sin offering, and one ram without blemish as a peace offering, ...

Num 28:11 At the beginnings of your months, you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls from the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish; ...

Mal 1:8, 13-14 When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that not evil? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that not evil? Present that to your governor; will he accept you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts.  ... ¹³But you say, ‘What a weariness this is,’ and you snort at it, says the LORD of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence or is lame or sick, and this you bring as your offering! Shall I accept that from your hand? says the LORD. ¹⁴*Cursed be the cheat who has a male in his flock, and vows it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished. For I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name will be feared among the nations.*

‡ David’s refusal to give to God that which cost him nothing:

1Chr 21:22-24 And David said to Ornan, “Give me the site of the threshing floor that I may build on it an altar to the LORD—give it to me at its full price—that the plague may be averted from the people.” ²³Then Ornan said to David, “Take it, and let my lord the king do what seems good to him. See, I give the oxen for burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for the wood and the wheat for a grain offering; I give it all.” ²⁴But King David said to Ornan, “No, but I will buy them for the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, nor offer burnt offerings that cost me nothing.”

Mark 12:41-44 And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. ⁴²*And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny.*ⁱ ⁴³And he called his disciples to him and said to them, “Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. ⁴⁴For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

ⁱ Greek two lepta, which make a kodrantes; a kodrantes (Latin quadrans) was a Roman copper coin worth about 1/64 of a denarius (which was a day’s wage for a laborer)

It would appear that Jesus is speaking of the widow’s action as being exemplary.

Acts 11:29 So the disciples determined, everyone according to his ability, to send relief to the brothersⁱ living in Judea.

ⁱ Or brothers and sisters

The phrase “everyone according to his ability” is understood to mean “as much as they could” (NLT, cf. CEV, GNT, NCV).

2Cor 8:1-3, 11-12 We want you to know, brothers,^k about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, ²for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. ³*For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own accord,*  ... ¹¹So now finish doing it as well, so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have. ¹²For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have.

^k Or brothers and sisters

In the light of v. 3, with the phrases “out of what you have” (v. 11) and “according to what a person has” (v. 12), Paul may well be meaning that they should give what they are able, in accordance with what they have. Alternatively he could simply be speaking more generally of giving in proportion to one’s income, as do the verses in the following subsection.

Luke 12:33 Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys.

1Cor 16:2 On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up, as he may prosper, so that there will be no collecting when I come.

The expression “as he may prosper” refers to giving “in proportion to what you have earned” (GNT). The reference to “the first day of every week” quite possibly has church meetings in view, for the making of offerings of such sums of money.

Gen 28:22b And of all that you give me I will give a full tenth to you.

Deut 16:17 Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.

Lev 27:30 Every tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is the LORD’s; it is holy to the LORD.

A tithe – a tenth – of the land’s produce was to be set apart to God as holy (cf. NLT). In addition to being a form of worship, it was also an acknowledgement that the land, from which the people benefited, ultimately belonged to God.

Deut 14:22 You shall tithe all the yield of your seed that comes from the field year by year.

2Chr 31:5 As soon as the command was spread abroad, the people of Israel gave in abundance the firstfruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field. And they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.

Mal 3:8-10 Will man rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, ‘How have we robbed you?’ In your tithes and contributions. ⁹You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me, the whole nation of you. ¹⁰*Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house.* And thereby put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need.

The people were to bring the tithes of their produce so that there would be sufficient food stored in the temple, the food being for the priests along with the needy. Not doing so was in effect robbing God (vv. 8-9).

Offer spiritual sacrifices to God

See also:

- Prayer is portrayed as an offering to God and Jesus Christ, p. 1214
- We should in fact offer ourselves to God, in service to him, p. 1382

Spiritual sacrifices specifically mentioned in this subsection are: thanksgiving (Ps 50:14; Jonah 2:9); ourselves (Rom 12:1); praise (Heb 13:15); and a penitent spirit (Ps 51:17).

1Pet 2:5 ... you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

Ps 50:14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving,¹ and perform your vows to the Most High, ...

Jonah 2:9 But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Salvation belongs to the LORD!

Rom 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers,^m by the mercies of God, to *present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.*ⁿ

^mOr brothers and sisters

ⁿ Or your rational service

We ought to offer “ourselves as a living sacrifice to God, dedicated to his service and pleasing to him” (GNT cf. AMP, CEV).

Heb 13:15 Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name.

Ps 51:16-17 For you will not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it; you will not be pleased with a burnt offering. ¹⁷*The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.*

In confessing and repenting of his adultery with Bathsheba, David speaks of his deeply humbled state and great remorse. These are the sacrifices that God requires of us for sin – as opposed to merely formal sacrifices (v. 16).

✦ Doing good and sharing with others are also sacrifices that are pleasing to God:

Heb 13:16 Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

- The major offerings for making atonement: The burnt offering; . . ., p. 385
- . . . the sin offering; . . ., p. 386
- . . . and the guilt offering, p. 386

The five major offerings were the burnt offering, the grain offering, the peace offering (or fellowship offering), the sin offering and the guilt offering. As their names suggest, the latter two were used in making atonement for sin. This was also one of the prime uses of the burnt offering. As such these three kinds of offerings are dealt with in chapter 9, as per the above cross references. As noted earlier, offerings for sin have no current application for Christians, but the other types of offerings have their parallels in Christian worship offerings today.

Lev 2:1-3 When anyone brings a grain offering as an offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour. He shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it² and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. And he shall take from it a handful of the fine flour and oil, with all of its frankincense, and the priest shall burn this as its memorial portion on the altar, a food offering with a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ³*But the rest of the grain offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the LORD's food offerings.*

The grain offering was to express thanksgiving to God, for the harvest and/or for other blessings. It was usually offered with animal sacrifices. The “memorial portion” (v. 2; cf. v. 16 ↓) represented or signified the offering as a whole – “a token that it has all been offered to the LORD” (GNT). It was burnt on the altar, while the rest was given as food to God's priests.

Lev 2:13-16 You shall season all your grain offerings with salt. You shall not let the salt of the covenant with your God be missing from your grain offering; with all your offerings you shall offer salt. ¹⁴*If you offer a grain offering of firstfruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the grain offering of your firstfruits fresh ears, roasted with fire, crushed new grain.* ¹⁵*And you shall put oil on it and lay frankincense on it; it is a grain offering.* ¹⁶*And the priest shall burn as its memorial portion some of the crushed grain and some of the oil with all of its frankincense; it is a food offering to the LORD.*

Note that the inclusion of salt – “the salt of the covenant” – may well have been an allusion to and a reminder of God's covenant with the people.

Lev 3:1-5 If his offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offers an animal from the herd, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. ²*And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw the blood against the sides of the altar.* ³*And from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as a food offering to the LORD, he shall offer the fat covering the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,* ⁴*and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the long lobe of the liver that he shall remove with the kidneys.* ⁵*Then Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering, which is on the wood on the fire; it is a food offering with a pleasing aroma to the LORD.*

A portion of the peace offering was offered to God (vv. 3-5; cf. Lev 7:29-31a ↓); a further portion was eaten by the priests (cf. Lev 7:31-34 ↓); and the remainder was eaten by the one making the offering (cf. Lev 7:15-18 ↓) and by relatives or friends. This sharing of the offering between God, the priests (the mediators between God and his people) and the one making the offering expressed peace between the latter and God.

Lev 7:11-18 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings that one may offer to the LORD. ¹²If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the thanksgiving sacrifice unleavened loaves mixed with oil, unleavened wafers smeared with oil, and loaves of fine flour well mixed with oil. ¹³With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving he shall bring his offering with loaves of leavened bread. ¹⁴And from it he shall offer one loaf from each offering, as a gift to the LORD. It shall belong to the priest who throws the blood of the peace offerings. ¹⁵And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering. He shall not leave any of it until the morning. ¹⁶But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow offering or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice, and on the next day what remains of it shall be eaten. ¹⁷But what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned up with fire. ¹⁸If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten on the third day, he who offers it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be credited to him. It is tainted, and he who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.

Peace offerings could be made as a thanksgiving sacrifice (vv. 12-15), as a freewill offering or in fulfillment of a vow (vv. 16-18), the latter being where one had vowed to make such an offering. Thus peace offerings could be made to express gratitude or devotion to God.

Lev 7:29-34 Speak to the people of Israel, saying, Whoever offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offerings. ³⁰His own hands shall bring the LORD's food offerings. He shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD. ³¹The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be for Aaron and his sons. ³²And the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a contribution from the sacrifice of your peace offerings. ³³Whoever among the sons of Aaron offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat shall have the right thigh for a portion. ³⁴For the breast that is waved and the thigh that is contributed I have taken from the people of Israel, out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons, as a perpetual due from the people of Israel.

✦ Drink offerings:

1Chr 29:21 And they offered sacrifices to the LORD, and on the next day offered burnt offerings to the LORD, 1,000 bulls,

1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

Drink offerings were offerings of wine poured out on the altar of burnt offering, in connection with a burnt offering, a grain offering or a peace offering.

Lev 1:3-4 If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish. He shall bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD. ⁴*He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.*

Verse 3b is speaking of how in order for an offering (cf. NCV, NIV, NLT, v. 4) and the person giving it to be acceptable to God, offerings had to be presented and made at the one place specified by him.

Mal 3:3-4 He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings in righteousness to the LORD.^o ⁴*Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD* as in the days of old and as in former years.

^o Or and they will belong to the LORD, bringers of an offering in righteousness

To be pleasing to God and so acceptable, our offerings must be accompanied by righteous living – as discussed in the first two subsections (cross-referenced above) of the next chapter section.

Heb 11:4 By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks.

This points to the difference in attitude between Abel and Cain as being the reason – or part thereof – for God’s acceptance of Abel’s sacrifice but not Cain’s. In offering his sacrifice Abel was acting in faith, presumably encompassing faith in the God-given significance of the sacrifice and God’s acceptance of it as such. In contrast, Cain may have simply offered his sacrifice as a matter of course or only as an obligation, perhaps even grudgingly.

Give willingly

Ex 35:5, 20-22, 29 Take from among you a contribution to the LORD. Whoever is of a generous heart, let him bring the LORD’s contribution: gold, silver, and bronze;  ... ²⁰*Then all the congregation of the people of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. ²¹And they came, everyone whose heart stirred him, and everyone whose spirit moved him, and brought the LORD’s contribution to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments. ²²So they came, both men and women. All who were of a willing heart brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and armlets, all sorts of gold objects, every man dedicating an* offering of gold to the LORD.  ... ²⁹*All the men and women, the people of Israel, whose heart moved them to bring anything for the work that the LORD had commanded by Moses to be done brought it as a freewill offering to the LORD.*

Freewill offerings were voluntary offerings – spoken of here in regard to voluntarily giving materials for the building of the tabernacle. Note that the people’s willingness is underlined in 36:6 which says that “the people were restrained from bringing” after they had supplied more than enough.

2Ki 12:4-5 Jehoash said to the priests, “All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the LORD, the money for which each man is assessed—the money from the assessment of persons—and the money that a man’s heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD, ⁵let the priests take, each from his donor, and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered.”

1Chr 29:5b-6, 9, 17 Who then will offer willingly, consecrating himself^p today to the LORD?” ⁶*Then the leaders of fathers’ houses made their freewill offerings,* as did also the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the officers over the king’s work.  ... ⁹*Then the people rejoiced because they had given willingly, for with a whole heart they had offered freely to the LORD.* David the king also rejoiced greatly.  ... [David:] ¹⁷*I know, my God, that you test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. In the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen your people, who are present here, offering freely and joyously to you.*

^p Or ordaining himself; Hebrew filling his hand

In v. 5b, David calls on the people to willingly consecrate themselves to the LORD, here referring to dedicating themselves (cf. CEV) to “the service of the Lord” (NCV™) by giving precious materials (cf. vv. 3-5a, 7-8) for the building of the temple. Note that v. 17 mentions another important aspect of giving gifts to God in an acceptable manner – one must do so in “uprightness”, which is inclusive of being sincere and having no ulterior motives.

Verse 12 underlines that willingness (i.e. “readiness” to give) is crucial to one’s gift being acceptable to God – along with it being given in accordance with what one has.

2Cor 9:5, 7 So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you and arrange in advance for the gift^r you have promised, so that it may be ready as a willing gift, not as an exaction.^s ...⁷*Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver*.

The joy that should accompany the presentation of offerings comes largely from being mindful of and grateful for the reason that they are being offered – reasons such as God’s provision and deliverance.

This large amount of gold had been acquired from the Midianites after defeating them in battle. Following the realization that not one of their soldiers had been lost (cf. vv. 48-50), the army commanders presented it as a gift “to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD” (v. 50), presumably as “a payment for our lives” (GNT) in recognition of God’s deliverance of them.

Why do you trouble her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ⁷For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want, you can do good for them. But you will not always have me. ⁸She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for burial. ⁹And truly, I say to you, wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in memory of her.”

^b Leprosy was a term for several skin diseases; see Leviticus 13

^c A denarius was a day’s wage for a laborer

The woman’s action – involving great cost (vv. 3, 5) – was in effect an offering to Jesus. In v. 8 Jesus refers to the Jewish practice of anointing a body with oils to prepare it for burial. He indicates that the woman’s action did this – at least in a symbolic sense – thus affording him this honor that he would be denied on his forthcoming death as a criminal. As such the woman’s anointing of Jesus foreshadowed his death, with the costliness of her doing so possibly pointing to the priceless worth of Jesus’ death.

Ex 29:42 It shall be a regular burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there.

This and the following references speak of offerings made by or on behalf of the Israelites as a whole. Nevertheless, the regularity of such offerings is an exemplary model for believers today, both individually and corporately.

Num 28:1-6 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Command the people of Israel and say to them, ‘My offering, my food for my food offerings, my pleasing aroma, you shall be careful to offer to me at its appointed time.’ ³And you shall say to them, This is the food offering that you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs a year old without blemish, day by day, as a regular offering. ⁴*The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight;* ⁵also a tenth of an ephah^f of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with a quarter of a hin^g of beaten oil. ⁶*It is a regular burnt offering, which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a pleasing aroma, a food offering to the LORD.*

^f An ephah was about 3/5 bushel or 22 liters

^g A hin was about 4 quarts or 3.5 liters

2Ki 16:15a And King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, “On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering and the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offering.

Num 28:9-11 On the Sabbath day, two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering: ¹⁰*this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.* ¹¹*At the beginnings of your months, you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls from the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish; ...*

Num 10:10 On the day of your gladness also, and at your appointed feasts and at the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings. They shall be a reminder of you before your God: I am the LORD your God.

The people were to make offerings to God at the appointed feasts and festivals (cf. Num 29:39 ↓).

Num 29:39 “These you shall offer to the LORD at your appointed feasts, in addition to your vow offerings and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your grain offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.”

Lev 9:3-4 And say to the people of Israel, “Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both a year old without blemish, for a burnt offering, and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil, for today the LORD will appear to you.”

The special occasion was the commencement of the priests’ ministry, on which God would appear in his glory to the people (cf. vv. 23-24).

1Chr 29:21-22 And they offered sacrifices to the LORD, and on the next day offered burnt offerings to the LORD, 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²²And they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and they anointed him as prince for the LORD, and Zadok as priest.

The offering of thousands of sacrifices marked the occasion of Solomon’s anointing as king.

1Ki 8:63 Solomon offered as peace offerings to the LORD 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

2Chr 29:35 Besides the great number of burnt offerings, there was the fat of the peace offerings, and there were the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was restored.

The occasion was the rededication of the temple – after its purification – and the reestablishment of the temple worship practices, under King Hezekiah.

Ezra 6:17 They offered at the dedication of this house of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel 12 male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

Note: The practice of making of vows to God, which have to be kept Vows are voluntary promises made to God, usually as an act of worship, expressing devotion or thanksgiving. Regarding thanksgiving, vows may be made either in response to something one has received or as a promise to God if he would grant a request. A vow usually involves offering something to God, but can instead involve doing something or abstaining from something. (An example of a vow involving doing something is given in Acts 18:18b, which says that Paul “cut his hair, for he was under a vow.”) The practice is not compulsory and is rarely mentioned in the NT.

Lev 22:18-19 Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel and say to them, When any one of the house of Israel or of the sojourners in Israel presents a burnt offering as his offering, for any of their vows or freewill offerings that they offer to the LORD, ¹⁹if it is to be accepted for you it shall be a male without blemish, of the bulls or the sheep or the goats.

Lev 27:2-3, 9, 14-15, 28 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, If anyone makes a special vow to the LORD involving the valuation of persons, ³then the valuation of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old shall be fifty shekels^h of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.  ... ⁹“If the vowⁱ is an animal that may be offered as an offering to the LORD, all of it that he gives to the LORD is holy.  ... ¹⁴“When a man dedicates his house as a holy gift to the LORD, the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand. ¹⁵And if the donor wishes to redeem his house, he shall add a fifth to the valuation price, and it shall be his.  ... ²⁸“But no devoted thing that a man devotes to the LORD, of anything that he has, whether man or beast, or of his inherited field, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.

^h A shekel was about 2/5 ounce or 11 grams

ⁱ Hebrew it

One could make a vow to dedicate persons to God by giving what was deemed as an equivalent value for them (cf. vv. 2-8). Some other things dedicated to God could be redeemed or bought back by payment of what they were worth plus a fifth (cf. vv. 13, 15, 19). However things “devoted” to God – likewise a form of vow – were absolutely his and could not be redeemed (v. 28).

1Sam 1:11, 27-28a *And she vowed a vow and said, “O LORD of hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your servant and remember me and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head.”  ... ²⁷For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition that I made to him. ²⁸Therefore I have lent him to the LORD. As long as he lives, he is lent to the LORD.” *

Here Hannah speaks of her son Samuel, who would become Israel’s last and greatest judge.

Deut 23:21-23 If you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay fulfilling it, for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and you will be guilty of sin. ²²But if you refrain from vowing, you will not be guilty of sin. ²³You shall be careful to do what has passed your lips, for you have voluntarily vowed to the LORD your God what you have promised with your mouth.

This and the following extracts indicate that vows must be kept. Note that v. 22 points out that making vows is not mandatory (cf. Eccl 5:5 ↓).

Ps 50:14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving,^j and perform your vows to the Most High, ...

^j Or Make thanksgiving your sacrifice to God

Ps 66:13-14 I will come into your house with burnt offerings; I will perform my vows to you, ¹⁴that which my lips uttered and my mouth promised when I was in trouble.

As with 50:14 above, the offerings are spoken of as being made to fulfill the vows that had been taken (cf. NLT).

Eccl 5:4 When you vow a vow to God, do not delay paying it, for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you vow.

Hos 14:2 Take with you words and return to the LORD; say to him, “Take away all iniquity; accept what is good, and we will pay with bulls the vows^k of our lips.

Therefore let your words be few. ³For a dream comes with much business, and a fool's voice with many words. ... ⁵It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay. ⁶Let not your mouth lead you^m into sin, and do not say before the messenger^o that it was a mistake. In view of the context, vv. 1-3 most probably has in view the making of rash vows. Proverbs 20:25 similarly cautions against making rash vows and dedications: "It is a snare to say rashly, "It is holy," and to reflect only after making vows." The saddest example of what turned out to be a rash vow is Jephthah's vow (cf. Judges 11:30-40).

Verse 1 speaks of coming before God in his temple in worship (cf. GNT, NLT) and for fellowship with him. Psalms 24:3 below is of a similar vein.

Ps 24:3-4 Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? ⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.

Mal 3:3-4 He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings in righteousness to the LORD.^p ⁴*Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.*

Verses 13b-14 speak of worship-related gatherings and celebrations which amounted to meaningless, intolerable worship of God in the light of the people's evil deeds (vv. 15b-16a). Amos 5:21, 23-24 below has a similar theme.

Prov 15:8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him. 📖

Prov 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with evil intent. 📖

God is in view as the one who detests such sacrifices.

Isa 66:3 He who slaughters an ox is like one who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; he who presents a grain offering, like one who offers pig's blood; he who makes a memorial offering of frankincense, like one who blesses an idol. These have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations; ... 📖

This is implying that when one lives in a way that is abhorrent to God, such acts of worship become contemptible. The point is made by comparing these acts of worship with detestable sins – some of which possibly are pagan religious activities.

Jer 6:19-20 Hear, O earth; behold, I am bringing disaster upon this people, the fruit of their devices, because they have not paid attention to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. ²⁰*What use to me is frankincense that comes from Sheba, or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.* 📖

Jer 14:10, 12 Thus says the LORD concerning this people: "They have loved to wander thus; they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins." 📖 ... ¹²*Though they fast, I will not hear their cry, and though they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.* 📖

Because of their sin God would not accept the people (v. 11) or their offerings (v. 12).

Hos 8:12-13 Were I to write for him my laws by the ten thousands, they would be regarded as a strange thing. ¹³*As for my sacrificial offerings, they sacrifice meat and eat it, but the LORD does not accept them.* Now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins; they shall return to Egypt. 📖

In v. 13a, "them" refers to the sacrifices – though it is also very much applicable to the people themselves (cf. Jer 14:10, 12 ↑).

Amos 5:12, 22 For I know how many are your transgressions and how great are your sins— you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and turn aside the needy in the gate. 📖 ... ²²*Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; and the peace offerings of your fattened animals, I will not look upon them.* 📖

Hag 2:12-14 'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment and touches his fold bread or stew or wine or oil or any kind of food, does it become holy?' The priests answered and said, "No." ¹³*Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?"* The priests answered and said, "It does become unclean." ¹⁴*Then Haggai answered and said, "So is it with this people, and with this nation before me, declares the LORD, and so with every work of their hands. And what they offer there is unclean.* 📖

Ungodly lives make what we do and our offerings unacceptable to God (vv. 13-14), rather than our offerings making ungodly lives acceptable to him (v. 12) – as illustrated here by the OT ceremonial laws referred to (vv. 12-13).

Mal 2:13-14 And this second thing you do. You cover the LORD's altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor from your hand. ¹⁴*But you say, "Why does he not?"* Because the LORD was witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant. 📖

✚ Offerings should not be made to the detriment of God's commands:

Mark 7:9-13 And he said to them, "You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! ¹⁰*For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, 'Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.'* ¹¹*But you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever you would have gained from me is Corban" (that is, given to God)'*— ¹²*then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother,* ¹³*thus making void the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down.* And many such things you do." 📖

^r Or an offering

God desires righteousness more than offerings and sacrifices

See also:

- ... It is no good expressing commitment to God and Jesus Christ without obeying them, p. 1167

It is more important to God that we live righteously, being godly and obedient, than to make offerings or sacrifices.

1Sam 15:22 And Samuel said, “Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams.”

Ps 40:6-8 In sacrifice and offering you have not delighted, but you have given me an open ear.^s Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required. ⁷Then I said, “Behold, I have come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me: ⁸I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart.”

^s Hebrew ears you have dug for me

God desires obedience to his will more than offerings and sacrifices. Verses 7-8 point to David’s readiness and willingness to do God’s will – as opposed to simply relying on offerings to please God (v. 6).

Hos 6:6 For I desire steadfast love^t and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

^t Septuagint mercy

Mic 6:6-8 “With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? ⁷Will the LORD be pleased with^u thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?” ⁸He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness,^v and to walk humbly with your God?

^u Or Will the LORD accept

^v Or steadfast love

Mark 12:33 And to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the strength, and to love one’s neighbor as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

Isa 1:11, 16-17 What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of well-fed beasts; I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats. ... ¹⁶Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes; cease to do evil, ¹⁷learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow’s cause.

Righteousness (v. 17) should be a higher priority for us than offerings (v. 11). For even a multitude of sacrifices gives God no pleasure without righteousness in the lives of those offering the sacrifices.

Jer 7:21-23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat the flesh. ²²For in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak to your fathers or command them concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices. ²³But this command I gave them: ‘Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people. And walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.’

This implies that obedience to God (v. 23) is more important than offerings and sacrifices (vv. 21-22). This is reflected in v. 21 implying that because of the people’s disobedience, their offerings and sacrifices were pointless – and as such they may as well have eaten the meat themselves rather than burning it as an offering. Additionally vv. 22-23 speak of obedience being an earlier and higher priority.

Mal 2:11-12 Judah has been faithless, and abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob any descendant^w of the man who does this, who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts!

^w Hebrew any who wakes and answers

The last part of v. 11 is referring to marrying foreign women who worshiped other gods. Judgment for such disobedience could not be averted simply by bringing an offering to God (v. 12).

‡ Relationships with others should be set right prior to offering gifts to God:

Matt 5:23-24 So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

We should in fact offer ourselves to God, in service to him

Rom 6:13 Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness.

Having been brought to life by God, we should offer our lives in service to him. The phrase “your members” speaks of one’s bodily parts (cf. “your bodies”, Rom 12:1 ↓) as encompassing all one’s faculties and capacities.

Rom 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers,^x by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.^y

^x Or brothers and sisters
^y Or your rational service

We ought to offer “ourselves as a living sacrifice to God, dedicated to his service and pleasing to him” (GNT cf. AMP, CEV).

2Cor 8:5 ... and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us.

Phil 2:17 Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.

A drink offering was an offering of wine poured out on a sacrifice or the altar. Paul pictures his life as being poured out as an offering to God (cf. 2Tim 4:6 ↓), with the apparent likelihood of his death resulting from his service to God. The “sacrificial offering of your faith” speaks of the Philippians’ own sacrifice to God in their service to him (cf. CEV, NCV, NLT) – the sacrifice which Paul’s life was being poured out upon, metaphorically speaking.

2Tim 4:6 For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come.

Rom 15:15-16 But on some points I have written to you very boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God ¹⁶to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

This is speaking of Paul effectively making an “offering” to God of those whom he has brought to faith – rather than the Gentiles offering themselves. However it does reflect the assertion that believers’ lives are to be lived as offerings to God.

Luke 11:39-41 And the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. ⁴⁰You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? ⁴¹But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you.

If we dedicate our hearts and minds to God (“those things that are within”) then our acts – which are a product of our hearts and minds – will be “clean”, acceptable to God.

All of God's people are necessarily his servants – and so need to be prepared to serve him. This requires devotion to God and to his work.

As well as instructing us to serve God, the Bible provides plenty of encouragement to persevere in doing so. The Bible also gives insights into being guided by God, something which is very much applicable to serving God as well as to other areas of our lives.

✦ Not being willing can have adverse consequences:

Jonah 1:1-4 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ²*“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their evil^k has come up before me.”* ³*But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.* ⁴*But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up.* ☞

^k The same Hebrew word can mean evil or disaster, depending on the context; so throughout Jonah

Not dissimilarly Exodus 4:12-14 provides an example of unwillingness to serve God resulting in one being open to God’s wrath. In regard to Moses’ reluctance to do what God asked him it says, “... the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses ...” (v. 14).

Ensure that you are ready to do God’s work

2Tim 4:1-2 I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: ²*preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching.* ☞

Titus 3:1 Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, ... ☞

Note that this seems to be speaking of works or deeds related to civil matters, rather than work that is specifically for God – but it is certainly applicable to and indeed an aspect of the latter.

2Cor 9:1-5 Now it is superfluous for me to write to you about the ministry for the saints, ²*for I know your readiness, of which I boast about you to the people of Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year.* And your zeal has stirred up most of them. ³But I am sending¹ the brothers so that our boasting about you may not prove empty in this matter, so that you may be ready, as I said you would be. ⁴*Otherwise, if some Macedonians come with me and find that you are not ready, we would be humiliated—to say nothing of you—for being so confident.* ⁵So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you and arrange in advance for the gift^m you have promised, so that it may be ready as a willing gift, not as an exaction.ⁿ ☞

^mGreek blessing; twice in this verse

ⁿ Or a gift expecting something in return; Greek greed

Giving towards the needs of others – here in particular needy believers – is very much part of Christian “ministry” (v. 1) or service (cf. vv. 12-13). We ought to be ready and prepared to serve God in this way.

Eph 6:14-15 Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵*and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace.* ☞

This “readiness given by the gospel of peace” (v. 15) appears to refer to a readiness to proclaim this gospel (cf. CEV, GNT, NRSV) produced in believers by the gospel. This involves a good grasp of its truths and a willingness and boldness to speak it.

1Pet 1:13 Therefore, preparing your minds for action,^o and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ☞

✦ The offering of the Levites for God’s service:

Num 8:11 ... and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the people of Israel, that they may do the service of the LORD. ☞

The presentation of the Levites as a wave offering to God appears to have been to signify the Levites being offered to God as living sacrifices (cf. Rom 12:1), ready to assist the priests in doing God’s work.

Zec 3:7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in my ways and keep my charge, then you shall rule my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you the right of access among those who are standing here. ☞

This promise is made to the high priest Joshua, representative of either priests and/or the nation of Israel. It underlines the critical need for godliness in order to serve God.

2Tim 3:16-17 All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, ¹⁷that the man of God^a may be competent, equipped for every good work.

^a That is, a messenger of God (the phrase echoes a common Old Testament expression)

This may be saying that Scripture is useful for such things as providing “training in righteousness” to prepare the “man of God” for “every good work”. As such it correlates being trained in righteousness with being “equipped for every good work” – and so is relevant to this subsection. Alternatively it may simply be speaking of the “man of God” using Scripture in doing such good work as training others in righteousness.

Titus 1:7-8 For an overseer,^r as God’s steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, ⁸but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined.

^r Or bishop; Greek episkopos

2Pet 1:5-8 For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue,^s and virtue with knowledge, ⁶and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, ⁷and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. ⁸For if these qualities^t are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

^s Or excellence; twice in this verse

^t Greek these things; also verses 9, 10, 12

Doing God’s work appears to be in view – or at least encompassed – by the reference to not “being ineffective or unfruitful” (v. 8). To do God’s work effectively one must possess and grow in such godly and righteous characteristics.

Ezek 44:12-16 Because they ministered to them before their idols and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have sworn concerning them, declares the Lord God, and they shall bear their punishment. ¹³They shall not come near to me, to serve me as priest, nor come near any of my holy things and the things that are most holy, but they shall bear their shame and the abominations that they have committed. ¹⁴Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the temple, to do all its service and all that is to be done in it. ¹⁵“But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the people of Israel went astray from me, shall come near to me to minister to me. And they shall stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood, declares the Lord God. ¹⁶They shall enter my sanctuary, and they shall approach my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge.

The sinfulness of the first group of Levites did not disqualify them from serving God altogether (v. 14), but it did exclude them from the most important and most holy work (vv. 13, 16), which was assigned to the Levites who had been faithful to God (vv. 15-16).

✦ To take part in God’s work, one’s heart must be right before him:

Acts 8:17-21 Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money, ¹⁹saying, “Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit.” ²⁰But Peter said to him, “May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! ²¹You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God.

Consecrate yourself to serve God . . .

- . . . God effectively makes them priests, to serve him, p. 964
- Prepare yourself to come before God, as shown in the OT practice of consecration, p. 1204
- Note: The purification of the priests and Levites for consecration and preparedness for God’s service, p. 1389

In the OT the act of consecration involved rituals signifying that the person involved was setting themselves apart from all that was not holy in order to be holy or sacred, so as to be fit and ready to serve God. As God himself is holy, it is essential that those who serve him are likewise holy (cf. Lev 21:8 ). Although the rituals involved in the OT practice of consecration are not pertinent to Christians, the concept of setting oneself apart from all that is not holy in order to serve God is very much applicable.

Ex 28:41 And you shall put them on Aaron your brother, and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them and ordain them and consecrate them, that they may serve me as priests.

1Sam 7:1 And the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill. And they consecrated his son Eleazar to have charge of the ark of the LORD.

1Chr 15:11-12 Then David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar, and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, ¹²and said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Levites. Consecrate yourselves, you and your brothers, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it.

2Chr 29:5, 34 ... and said to them, “Hear me, Levites! Now consecrate yourselves, and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry out the filth from the Holy Place.  ... ³⁴*But the priests were too few and could not flay all the burnt offerings, so until other priests had consecrated themselves, their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was finished—for the Levites were more upright in heart than the priests in consecrating themselves.*

Note that v. 5 speaks not only of the need for the Levites to consecrate themselves to serve God, but also of the need to consecrate the temple so that it would be fit to be a place of the presence of the holy God. Regarding v. 34, not enough priests had prepared themselves, by consecration, to do the work; however the Levites had.

. . . Be holy and set apart

Lev 21:6-8 They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. For they offer the LORD’s food offerings, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy. ⁷They shall not marry a prostitute or a woman who has been defiled, neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband, for the priest is holy to his God. ⁸*You shall sanctify him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I, the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.*

Verse 8b indicates that those who serve God need to be holy because he himself is holy. The latter part alludes to the fact that their holiness ultimately comes from him.

2Chr 35:3 And he said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were holy to the LORD, “Put the holy ark in the house that Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. You need not carry it on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

Being “holy to the LORD”, the Levites were fit to serve God and his people (as per the final statement). One way they served as such is mentioned in the first statement – they taught the people.

Rom 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers,^u by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.^v

^u Or brothers and sisters

^v Or your rational service

2Tim 2:20-21 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for honorable use, some for dishonorable. ²¹*Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable,^w he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work.*

^w Greek from these things

The meaning of the illustration in v. 20 is somewhat debatable. The articles for “honorable” or menial (cf. AMP) purposes are often understood to refer to less than faithful people in the church or false teachers in particular. In the first clause of v. 21 Paul probably has at least partly in mind ridding oneself from the influence of false teachers, which are mentioned earlier (cf. vv. 16-18). The thrust of v. 21 is clear: One must cleanse oneself from corruptive influences in order to be holy and ready to do God’s work.

Num 8:14-15 Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the people of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine. ¹⁵*And after that the Levites shall go in to serve at the tent of meeting, when you have cleansed them and offered them as a wave offering.*

Parallels can be made with how the Levites were to be set apart from the other Israelites to be devoted to God’s service (cf. Num 16:9 ↓; 1Chr 23:13 ↓) and how believers need to set themselves apart to devotedly serve God. For believers this involves setting themselves apart from any worldly influences that might hinder them in devotedly serving God (cf. d) Be Holy (II): Being Set Apart, p. 1875).

Num 16:9 ... is it too small a thing for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do service in the tabernacle of the LORD and to stand before the congregation to minister to them, ...

Note that this speaks of God's role in setting apart the priests.

1Chr 23:13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart to dedicate the most holy things, that he and his sons forever should make offerings before the LORD and minister to him and pronounce blessings in his name forever.

Note: The purification of the priests and Levites for consecration and preparedness for God's service

In the following references, those being consecrated for God's service or preparing themselves to approach God were not necessarily unclean according to the laws concerning uncleanness. Rather these practices appear to be in recognition of the relative uncleanness of persons – and others whom they live among – in relation to the ultimate holiness and purity of God. To serve or to approach God, one must be holy or pure like God, or at least to the extent that one can be.

Ex 30:18-21 “You shall also make a basin of bronze, with its stand of bronze, for washing. You shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it, ¹⁹with which Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet. ²⁰When they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn a food offering^x to the LORD, they shall wash with water, so that they may not die. ²¹They shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they may not die. It shall be a statute forever to them, even to him and to his offspring throughout their generations.”

^x Or an offering by fire

As reflected also in the following passages, ceremonial washing was a prominent aspect of the purification and consecration of the priests and Levites. Note that not purifying themselves before entering the Tent of Meeting or approaching the altar to present an offering, meant death (vv. 20-21)

Ex 29:1-4 Now this is what you shall do to them to consecrate them, that they may serve me as priests. Take one bull of the herd and two rams without blemish, ²and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers smeared with oil. You shall make them of fine wheat flour. ³You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, and bring the bull and the two rams. ⁴*You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water.*

Note that there are further instructions regarding the priests' ordination in the subsequent verses (vv. 5-9).

Num 8:5-7, 21-22 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶“Take the Levites from among the people of Israel and cleanse them. ⁷Thus you shall do to them to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of purification upon them, and let them go with a razor over all their body, and wash their clothes and cleanse themselves.  ... ²¹And the Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them. ²²And after that the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and his sons; as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

Lev 16:24 And he shall bathe his body in water in a holy place and put on his garments and come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people and make atonement for himself and for the people.

Note both here and in the following reference (Ezra 6:20), the latter part of the verse speaks of the godly work for which the priests or Levites had purified themselves (as per the first part of the verse).

Ezra 6:20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were clean. So they slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the returned exiles, for their fellow priests, and for themselves.

‡ The people were required to consecrate themselves, purifying themselves, for the day God would appear to them:

Ex 19:10-11, 14-15 ... the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments ¹¹and be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.  ... ¹⁴So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people; and they washed their garments. ¹⁵And he said to the people, “Be ready for the third day; do not go near a woman.”

Titus 3:8, 14 The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. In being devoted to God's work, serving God is to take priority over serving anyone else. Bear in mind that in serving others, especially God's people, we are serving God – and we should serve others with this in mind. As shown in the following verses, we are not to serve anything or anyone that is counter to God.

Deut 6:13 It is the LORD your God you shall fear. Him you shall serve and by his name you shall swear.

Josh 24:16, 20-21 Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods,  ...²⁰*If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm and consume you, after having done you good.*"²¹And the people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve the LORD."

1Sam 7:3-4 And Samuel said to all the house of Israel, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you and direct your heart to the LORD and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines."⁴*So the people of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and they served the LORD only.*

Dan 3:17-18, 28 If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will

Rom 1:25-26a ... because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen. ²⁶For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions.

Note that this indicates that worshiping and serving other things rather than God, brings God’s judgment (v. 26a; cf. vv. 21-29; Josh 24:20 ↑; Ex 20:5 ↓).

Ex 20:4-6 You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. ⁵*You shall not bow down to them or serve them*, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶but showing steadfast love to thousands^c of those who love me and keep my commandments.

2Ki 17:35-36 The LORD made a covenant with them and commanded them, “You shall not fear other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them, ³⁶but you shall fear the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm. You

... Seek to please God rather than people

Acts 4:18-20 So they called them and charged them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge, ²⁰*for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard.*”

Acts 5:29 But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than men.”

1Cor 7:32-35 I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. ³³*But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife,* ³⁴*and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband.* ³⁵*I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord.*

The phrase “body and spirit” (v. 34a) is indicative of the whole person. This may be all that Paul has in mind in using the phrase. Alternatively, “body” may allude to sexual or physical commitments of a married person to their spouse, with “spirit” then signifying non-physical aspects of one’s commitments in the relationship. Either way, the use of the phrase emphasizes complete devotion to the Lord.

Num 22:15-18 Once again Balak sent princes, more in number and more honorable than these. ¹⁶And they came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: ‘Let nothing hinder you from coming to me, ¹⁷for I will surely do you great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do. Come, curse this people for me.’” ¹⁸But Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, “Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD my God to do less or more.”

Note that Balaam was actually a pagan diviner, for a time used by God. His great example here in pleasing and serving God rather than the king of Moab, is in stark contrast to what we know of his later activities (cf. Rev 2:14).

^f Greek he

The man in v. 59 may well have been meaning that he wanted to wait until after his father had died. In saying, “Leave the dead to bury their own dead”, (v. 60) Jesus was probably indicating that such tasks as burying the physically dead could be left to the spiritually dead; God’s kingdom should take priority over all things. Verses 61-62 appear to point to the need to be fully focused in doing the work of the kingdom; nothing should be allowed to obstruct the work.

Ex 32:24-29 So I said to them, ‘Let any who have gold take it off.’ So they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.”²⁵ And when Moses saw that the people had broken loose (for Aaron had let them break loose, to the derision of their enemies),²⁶ then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, “Who is on the LORD’s side? Come to me.” And all the sons of Levi gathered around him.²⁷ And he said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Put your sword on your side each of you, and go to and fro from gate to gate throughout the camp, and each of you kill his brother and his companion and his neighbor.’”²⁸ And the sons of Levi did

*according to the word of Moses. And that day about three thousand men of the people fell.*²⁹ And Moses said, “Today you have been ordained for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of his son and of his brother, so that he might bestow a blessing upon you this day.” ☞

Many of the people had been utterly unfaithful to God. They had made an idol and worshiped it (v. 24) and then engaged in unbridled debauchery (v. 25) – both of which were punishable by death under the terms of the old covenant (which the people had agreed to). In stark contrast, the Levites were prepared to put God and his command ahead of even the lives of their own kinsmen (vv. 26-29).

Deut 33:8-9 And of Levi he said, “Give to Levi^g your Thummim, and your Urim to your godly one, whom you tested at Massah, with whom you quarreled at the waters of Meribah; ⁹*who said of his father and mother, ‘I regard them not’; he disowned his brothers and ignored his children. For they observed your word and kept your covenant.* ☞

^g Dead Sea Scroll, Septuagint; Masoretic Text lacks Give to Levi

This refers to Exodus 32:26-29 above. The Levites “showed greater loyalty” (GNT; cf. NLT) to God than to their own kinsmen, showing that he was “more important” (CEV) to them.

These verses probably speak of David’s intent to build a temple for God.

Matt 6:31-33 Therefore *do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’*³² *For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all.*³³ But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. ☞

We should seek first God's kingdom and righteousness (v. 33a), rather than be preoccupied with pursuing any needs we have (vv. 31-32).

Phil 2:20-21 For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. ²¹For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

In contrast to others, Timothy (cf. v. 22) put Jesus Christ's interests ahead of his own, in focusing on the welfare of fellow believers.

Heb 11:24-26 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵*choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.* ²⁶He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward.

2Tim 2:4 No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him.

Rather than getting involved in things of this world, Christians should be focused on trying to please Jesus Christ, their leader.

1Cor 7:29-31 This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, ³⁰*and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods,* ³¹*and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.*

Paul is admonishing the Corinthians not to be immersed in the relationships and material things of this world – as opposed to living for the Lord ahead of everyone and everything else (cf. vv. 32-35).

Hag 1:5-6, 9 Now, therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. ⁶*You have sown much, and harvested little. You eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm. And he who earns wages does so to put them into a bag with holes.* ... ⁹*You looked for much, and behold, it came to little. And when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? declares the LORD of hosts. Because of my house that lies in ruins, while each of you busies himself with his own house.*

Hag 2:15-19 Now then, consider from this day onward.^h Before stone was placed upon stone in the temple of the LORD, ¹⁶*how did you fare? Whenⁱ one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten. When one came to the wine vat* to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty. ¹⁷*I struck you and all the products of your toil with blight and with mildew and with hail, yet you did not turn to me, declares the LORD.* ¹⁸*Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider:* ¹⁹*Is the seed yet in the barn? Indeed, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have yielded nothing. But from this day on I will bless you.*

^h Or backward; also verse 18

ⁱ Probable reading (compare Septuagint); Hebrew LORD, since they were. When

As shown in 1:5-6, 9 above, when the people had been preoccupied with their own houses and concerns, rather than rebuilding God's temple, God frustrated their efforts (vv. 16-17). In contrast, in focusing on building God's temple, God would bless them (vv. 18-19). They were to give careful thought, therefore, to their priorities and the associated ramifications.

‡ Jesus' warning against worldly matters becoming a higher priority than God's word:

Matt 13:22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful.

This speaks of those who initially respond to God's word, but have more pressing concerns and priorities. Such things choke or crowd out God's word. Thus these people fail to bear fruit, and presumably fall away from God's kingdom.

Give up your life to live for God and Jesus Christ . . .

Luke 9:23-25 And he said to all, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. ²⁴For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. ²⁵For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself?

If we want to follow Jesus Christ, we must deny ourselves – give up living for ourselves and what we want. In conjunction with this, we must daily take up our "cross" (v. 23; cf. Luke 14:26 ↓) – daily shouldering the accompanying difficulties – and live for him. The result of doing this is paradoxical (v. 24). Those who give up their lives for Christ will find true life (cf. NCV, NLT). This "life" quite possibly refers solely or at least primarily to eternal life in the afterlife, but is also at least applicable to spiritual life in the present. The absurdity of living for the present physical life and the things of this world – in contrast to devoting one’s life to Christ – is spoken of in v. 24 and highlighted in v. 25.

Luke 14:26-27 If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. ²⁷Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

In v. 26 Jesus is speaking of the need to love him more than anyone or anything else (cf. Matt 10:37) – in particular more than our own lives (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT).

John 12:24-25 Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. ²⁵Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

When stating the principle given in v. 24, Jesus may well have been primarily speaking of his own death – having alluded to it in the preceding verse (cf. v. 23). Even so it is certainly applicable to believers; it is only in dying to ourselves that we can produce fruit for God (v. 24b). In conjunction with this, Jesus explains in v. 25, it is only by forsaking our lives that we can keep them for eternal life.

Rom 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers,^j by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.^k

^j Or brothers and sisters

^k Or your rational service

Here Paul is teaching that we are to yield our whole self, our entire lives, in service to God.

2Cor 5:13-15 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; ¹⁵and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

Verse 13a is apparently in reference to claims by some of the Corinthians that Paul was crazy. Most likely such claims were made regarding matters inclusive of the level of Paul’s devotion to God and Jesus Christ, with all the trials he was prepared to undergo, forsaking his life for their sake.

2Cor 8:5 ... and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us.

Phil 1:21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

To Paul, Christ was what living was all about. He lived his life for Christ, pleasing him and furthering his cause.

... Be willing even to endanger your life

The following passages all provide examples of believers who were willing to endanger their lives for God and Jesus Christ.

Acts 15:25-26 ... it has seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶*men who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ.*

Acts 20:22-24 And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, constrained by¹ the Spirit, not knowing what will happen to me there, ²³*except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me.* ²⁴*But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.*

Acts 21:13 Then Paul answered, “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be imprisoned but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

Rom 8:36 As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.”

1Cor 15:30-32 Why are we in danger every hour? ³¹I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day! ³²What do I gain if, humanly speaking, I fought with beasts at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

Paul uses the expression “I die every day” (v. 31a) to emphasize the fact that he faced death daily. In saying he “fought with wild beasts” (v. 32a), Paul is referring to the dangerous struggles he had experienced with menacing opponents.

2Cor 4:10-12 ... [We are] always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. ¹¹For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus’ sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. ¹²*So death is at work in us*, but life in you.

The clause “always carrying in the body the death of Jesus” (v. 10) alludes to the bodily/physical sufferings Paul undergoes for Jesus’ sake, even being exposed to death – as reflected in v. 11a and 12a (cf. NLT). (It may well also be a reference to sharing in the death and sufferings of Jesus; see . . . and share Jesus Christ’s sufferings, p. 2009.) In v. 10b and v. 11b Paul indicates that he does this so that the power of Jesus Christ’s resurrection life may be revealed in him as he labors for Christ’s kingdom.

Phil 1:20 ... as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

Phil 2:30 ... for he [Epaphroditus] nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was lacking in your service to me.

Rev 2:13 ‘I know where you dwell, where Satan’s throne is. Yet you hold fast my name, and you did not deny my faith^m even in the days of Antipas my faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

^mOr your faith in me

Matt 13:44-46 The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. ⁴⁵“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, ⁴⁶who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Although some commentators have a somewhat different understanding, arguably both these parables are essentially illustrating the absolute cost of the kingdom of God; one must be prepared to forgo everything for it. Note the joy in doing so that is apparent in v. 44.

Mark 10:28 Peter began to say to him, “See, we have left everything and followed you.”

Luke 14:33 So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.

Phil 3:7-9 But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—

In v. 7 Paul refers to things (cf. vv. 5-6) that he had valued and done for his own benefit – in the context, particularly in regard to achieving righteousness (v. 9). He now considers them “worthless” (CEV, NLT; cf. NCV, NirV), even detrimental, for the sake of Christ – and all that one has in him (v. 9; cf. vv. 10-11). In v. 8 Paul says that in fact he now views all things of this world as such.

Gen 12:1, 4 Now the LORD saidⁿ to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you.  ... ⁴So Abram went, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

ⁿ Or had said

Gen 22:12 He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.”

Both Abraham’s wife and Hannah (cf. 1Sam 1:27-28 ↓) were unable to have children, until God intervened. Despite having had wanted a child for years, Abraham and Hannah both showed that they were willing to give up even their dearest, longed-for sons. Abraham showed that he would have been willing even to sacrifice Isaac in response to God testing him. Hannah actually gave up Samuel while he was still quite young, for him to serve God – which she had vowed to do when praying for a son (cf. 1Sam 1:11).

1Sam 1:27-28 For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition that I made to him. ²⁸*Therefore I have lent him to the LORD. As long as he lives, he is lent to the LORD.* And he worshiped the LORD there.

God cares for his servants . . .

God's care of his servants gives good reason to serve God.

Ps 135:14 For the LORD will vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants.

Isa 41:8-10 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham, my friend; ⁹you whom I took from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest corners, saying to you, "You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you off"; ¹⁰*fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.*

1Ki 8:23 ... and said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and showing steadfast love to your servants who walk before you with all their heart, ...

Ps 35:27 Let those who delight in my righteousness shout for joy and be glad and say evermore, "Great is the LORD, who delights in the welfare of his servant!"

In a prayer for deliverance, David states his belief or hope that God delights in the well-being of his servants. This being the case, the verse points to God's care of his servants.

Ps 102:28 The children of your servants shall dwell secure; their offspring shall be established before you.

The descendants of God's servants will be secure, living before God and safe in his care (cf. AMP, GNT, Nlrv, NLT).

Isa 65:13-15 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be put to shame; ¹⁴*behold, my servants shall sing for gladness of heart,* but you shall cry out for pain of heart and shall wail for breaking of spirit. ¹⁵You shall leave your name to my chosen for a curse, and the Lord GOD will put you to death, but his servants he will call by another name.

This compares God's care and blessing of his servants with the lot of those who forsake him. The giving of a new name (v. 15) "suggests the beginning of a new life" (CEV text note). The end of the age is in view.

Rev 7:2-3 Then I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea, ³saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the servants^w of our God on their foreheads."

The seal signifies protection amidst coming judgments on the world (cf. 9:4).

Dan 6:20-22 As he came near to the den where Daniel was, he cried out in a tone of anguish. The king declared to Daniel, “O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?”²¹ Then Daniel said to the king, “O king, live forever! ²²My God sent his angel and shut the lions’ mouths, and they have not harmed me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm.”

Daniel speaks of his innocence as the reason for his deliverance by God (v. 22). But the wording of the king’s question (v. 20) correctly implies that Daniel’s persistence in serving God was a related factor.

Isa 48:20 Go out from Babylon, flee from Chaldea, declare this with a shout of joy, proclaim it, send it out to the end of the earth; say, “The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob!”

Isa 54:17 ... no weapon that is fashioned against you shall succeed, and you shall confute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD and their vindication^y from me, declares the LORD.

^y Or righteousness

These promises are made to Jerusalem in its time of future renewal. In a spiritual sense at least, they are ultimately applicable to God’s servants of all ages.

Ps 89:20-23 I have found David, my servant; with my holy oil I have anointed him, ²¹so that my hand shall be established with him; my arm also shall strengthen him. ²²The enemy shall not outwit him; the wicked shall not humble him. ²³I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.

David was especially empowered by God, notably against his enemies. As commented on Isaiah 54:17 above, such passages are applicable to believers at least in a spiritual sense (cf. Rom 8:37-39).

Your work for God will be productive

Gal 6:9 And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.

The term “reap” is possibly referring to one’s good work being productive for God’s kingdom – hence the verse’s inclusion here. Alternatively it could be speaking of the blessings one will receive for doing good (cf. CEV, NCV, NLT), which would make it more applicable to the following subsection.

Matt 13:23 As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.

The “fruit” produced (cf. Luke 8:15 ↓) may well be referring to the productivity of one’s work for the kingdom (the theme of this subsection); it at least may be applied to it. Alternatively the spiritual growth of the individual believer may be in view.

Luke 8:15 As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience.

2Cor 9:10 He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness.

Here “righteousness” is akin to “good works” (NIRV®), righteousness “which manifests itself in active goodness, kindness, and charity” (AMP). Paul has the “service” (cf. vv. 12-13) of providing for the needy amongst God’s people primarily in view, assuring the Corinthians that God would “produce a rich harvest” (GNT) from such generosity.

Ps 126:5-6 Those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy! ⁶He who goes out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

Psalm 126 was written for the exiles who had returned from Babylon. These verses are apparently encouraging them with a promise of their land’s restoration, despite the initial pains in tending it. The verses are sometimes applied to the often-exacting work of sowing the gospel message, a service which leads to the joyful result of people coming to faith.

‡ One’s work for the Lord is not futile:

1Cor 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

The fruitfulness of the work is one reason Paul may well have had in view as to why it is “not in vain”. Reward for such work – as per the following two subsections – is another possibility. The teaching is applicable to both possibilities.

You will be rewarded for your work . . .

2Chr 15:7 But you, take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded. ☞

Mark 10:29-30 Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel,³⁰ who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. ☞

In v. 29 Jesus mentions some things that his followers may be required to forego in following and serving him. In v. 30 Jesus speaks of corresponding blessings of this present age. These blessings are primarily fulfilled through the new relationships in the family of God’s people, to which Jesus’ followers belong.

Isa 49:4 But I said, “I have labored in vain; I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my right is with the LORD, and my recompense with my God.” ☞

Even in the face of apparent failure (v. 4a), one can be confident that God will reward faithful work (v. 4b).

Hag 2:18-19 Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the LORD’s temple was laid, consider: ¹⁹Is the seed yet in the barn? Indeed, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have yielded nothing. But from this day on I will bless you. ☞

The interpretation of aspects of these verses are debatable, but clearly the last sentence speaks of God’s blessing on the people for their resumption of the work on the temple.

1Tim 3:13 For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus. ☞

2Tim 2:6 It is the hard-working farmer who ought to have the first share of the crops. ☞

Paul is implying that just as a hardworking farmer receives a share of the crops, those who work hard serving God should or will receive their reward. What reward is in view is open to interpretation. If it means that hardworking believers “ought to” be rewarded, then it may simply be referring to church leaders receiving material support from their congregation, the field in which they labor. Alternatively spiritual rewards may be in view – possibly primarily seeing people coming to or growing in faith – or spiritual blessings for the workers themselves, either in the present or in the afterlife.

Heb 6:7 For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. ☞

The “land” signifies believers. The “rain” appears to primarily symbolize God’s spiritual enrichment – possibly in particular that enunciated in the preceding verses (cf. vv. 4-5). Paul compares a productive believer to land that produces a useful spiritual crop, for which such a believer receives God’s blessing.

Jer 31:16 Thus says the LORD: “Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears, for there is a reward for your work, declares the LORD, and they shall come back from the land of the enemy. ☞

Note that this appears to refer to the work of the women in rearing their children, rather than work done specifically for God. Here God promises them that although their children now faced exile (cf. v. 15), their work would be rewarded for their children would return.

. . . You will be rewarded particularly in the afterlife

This depicts Jesus Christ’s rewarding of his faithful servants on his return. Note that a talent was a monetary unit (cf. v. 15 + text note).

John 12:26 If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

This probably refers primarily to honor given in the afterlife.

Rom 6:22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life.

This indicates that the end result of living in service to God, rather than to sin, is eternal life (cf. CEV, NIV, NLT) – along with holiness.

1Cor 3:8, 14-15 He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor.  ...
¹⁴If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵If anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.

The work of each of believer will be judged. If a believer’s work survives the testing of God’s judgment, he or she will receive their reward. If not, as a believer they will still be saved but will suffer loss of reward.

Eph 6:5-8 Slaves,^a obey your earthly masters^b with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, ⁶not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants^c of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, ⁷rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, ⁸knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.

^a Or servants; Greek bondservants; similarly verse 8

^b Or your masters according to the flesh

^c Or slaves; Greek bondservants

All the good we do should be done as a service to the Lord, as part of his work – and as such he will reward us for it. The final judgment is most likely primarily in view here.

Heb 6:9-12 Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation. ¹⁰For God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown for his name in serving the saints, as you still do. ¹¹And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, ¹²so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

This indicates that doing work for God is associated with salvation (v. 9), making one’s hope sure (v. 11). Correspondingly, along with “faith and patience”, it will bring the blessings of the afterlife that he has promised (v. 12; cf. Heb 10:36 ↓).

Heb 10:36 For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised.

If we persevere to the end, both in faith (cf. vv. 35, 37-39; Heb 6:12 ↑) and in doing God’s will, we will receive what God has promised.

1Jn 2:17 And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.

Rev 2:26 The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, ...

✦ God accepts those who serve Jesus Christ:

Rom 14:18 Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men.

Whoever does not produce good “fruit” will be cut off from God and Jesus Christ

As referred to in earlier comments, when used metaphorically in the NT, “fruit” can refer to spiritual characteristics (cf. Gal 5:22-23) or spiritual outcomes of quality work for the kingdom (with some instances possibly including both concepts). In the following verses “fruit” has been interpreted to be referring to the latter, or at least to be inclusive of it.

Matt 3:10 Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

This is spoken by John the Baptist. The latter part is repeated virtually verbatim by Jesus in 7:19 – “Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

John 15:2 Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.

Here Jesus speaks of God cutting off from him those who do not bear “fruit”.

Luke 13:6-9 And he told this parable: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. ⁷And he said to the vinedresser, 'Look, for three years now I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?' ⁸And he answered him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure. ⁹Then if it should bear fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'

The fig tree represents the Jewish nation. It as a whole had failed to produce fruit, including a positive response to Jesus. So it faced being cut out of its relationship with God, no longer using up the "soil" (possibly a reference to God's love or grace). The scenario is applicable to anyone who professes to be one of God's people.

Matt 25:24-30 He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, ²⁵so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' ²⁶But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? ²⁷Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. ²⁸So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. ²⁹For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. ³⁰And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

Servants of Jesus Christ – particularly in view of his return – must not be lazy and irresponsible, but use their abilities and what they have been entrusted with (cf. vv. 14-15) to faithfully serve Jesus Christ, producing "fruit" for him. Any "servants" who are unfaithful in this will lose what they have and be banished from the kingdom. Note that in v. 26b the master is not necessarily agreeing with the servant; rather he may simply be using the servant's words to condemn him. Whichever is the case, the terminology used still appears to allude to Jesus Christ requiring his servants to produce "fruit" for him.

Rev 3:15-16 I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were either cold or hot! ¹⁶So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth.

Here the Laodicean church is condemned for its deeds that were apparently halfhearted and no doubt ineffective – revealing somewhat of an indifference towards Christ. The reference to neither being hot nor cold, is seen by some commentators as referring to neither being devoted to or opposed to Christ. But some commentators insist this is not the case, as it would indicate that antagonism towards Christ is preferable to being a lukewarm Christian. They view the references to "hot" and "cold" as each being positive, in contrast to "lukewarm". As such they understand "hot" to allude to hot waters with medicinal uses, and "cold" to allude to refreshing drinking water. Sources of both kinds of water were near to Laodicea.

‡ God promised to destroy his "vineyard" Israel for producing bad "grapes" instead of good "grapes":

Isa 5:1-7 Let me sing for my beloved my love song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. ²He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; and he looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. ³And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. ⁴What more was there to do for my vineyard, that I have not done in it? When I looked for it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? ⁵And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; ^d*I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.* ⁶*I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and briars and thorns shall grow up; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.* ⁷*For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are his pleasant planting; and he looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed;* ^e*for righteousness, but behold, an outcry!* ^f

^d Or grazed over; compare Exodus 22:5

Further warnings and consequences regarding not doing God's work

Deut 28:47-48 Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness and gladness of heart, because of the abundance of all things, ⁴⁸therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness, and lacking everything. And he will put a yoke of iron on your neck until he has destroyed you.

The phrase "the abundance of all things" refers to their time of abundance/prosperity. Passages such as this one regarding Israel, have an application to believers in respect to the afterlife, if not the present.

Judg 5:23 Curse Meroz, says the angel of the LORD, curse its inhabitants thoroughly, because they did not come to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

The city of Meroz apparently had failed to assist the other Israelites – the people of the LORD – in fighting off their enemies.

Jer 48:10 Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD with slackness, and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from bloodshed.

This has in view God's work in executing judgment on Moab.

Hag 1:2-9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: These people say the time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD." ³Then the word of the LORD came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, ⁴*Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?* ⁵Now, therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. ⁶*You have sown much, and harvested little. You eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm. And he who earns wages does so to put them into a bag with holes.* ⁷"Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. ⁸Go up to the hills and bring wood and build the house, that I may take pleasure in it and that I may be glorified, says the LORD. ⁹*You looked for much, and behold, it came to little. And when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? declares the LORD of hosts. Because of my house that lies in ruins, while each of you busies himself with his own house.*

In working on their own interests rather than doing God's work, rebuilding his temple, the results of the people's efforts were very disappointing.

Mal 3:14, 18 You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. What is the profit of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts? ... ¹⁸*Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.*

Verse 18 has an ominous tone for those who had turned from serving God (v. 14).

Luke 12:47 And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating.

1Cor 9:16 For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!

Rev 3:1-3 And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: "The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. "I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. ²*Wake up, and strengthen what* remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. ³Remember, then, what you received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you.

The accusation against the church in Sardis that the people's deeds were not "complete in the sight of my God" (v. 2b) indicates that their deeds fell considerably short of what God required of them. It is either referring to not doing God's work adequately (akin to the theme of this subsection) or to actually doing things that were sinful – or both. Note that the exhortation to strengthen what remained (v. 2a) is speaking of strengthening and consolidating aspects of the faith that remained in them and their church.

✦ Those who do not work with Jesus Christ are detrimental to his cause:

Matt 12:30 Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

Note: Do not work for things that do not satisfy or do not last – and so are in effect meaningless

Just as spending one's labor on what does not satisfy is pointless, so is spending one's resources on "that which is not bread", i.e. things that do not satisfy one's soul. In contrast, we ought to seek the "rich food" that God provides.

^h Hebrew vapor (so throughout Ecclesiastes)

ⁱ Or a feeding on wind; compare Hosea 12:1 (so throughout Ecclesiastes)

The main theme of Ecclesiastes, often underlying some of its more despairing conclusions, is that apart from God everything is pointless, useless or futile (as the following references from Ecclesiastes illustrate). As such, working to gain or achieve things of this world is in effect “a striving after wind” (v. 14; cf. Eccl 2:11 ↓; Eccl 2:17 ↓) – a pointless, futile endeavor.

Eccl 2:3-11 I searched with my heart how to cheer my body with wine—my heart still guiding me with wisdom—and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the children of man to do under heaven during the few days of their life. ⁴I made great works. I built houses and planted vineyards for myself. ⁵I made myself gardens and parks, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees. ⁶I made myself pools from which to water the forest of growing trees. ⁷I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves who were born in my house. I had also great possessions of herds and flocks, more than any who had been before me in Jerusalem. ⁸I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces. I got singers, both men and women, and many concubines,^j the delight of the children of man. ⁹So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me. ¹⁰And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I kept my heart from no pleasure, for my heart found pleasure in all my toil, and this was my reward for all my toil. ¹¹*Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had expended in doing it, and behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.*

^j The meaning of the Hebrew word is uncertain

Verse 10b may mean that he found pleasure in his work because he thought it would be rewarded with the pleasures he sought (cf. GNT, NCV). Instead, however, it proved to be pointless (v. 11). In making this conclusion Solomon may have had in mind the reasoning in vv. 17-23 below.

Eccl 2:17-23 So I hated life, because what is done under the sun was grievous to me, for all is vanity and a striving after wind. ¹⁸*I hated all my toil in which I toil under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me,* ¹⁹*and who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity.* ²⁰*So I turned about and gave my heart up to despair over all the toil of my labors under the sun,* ²¹*because sometimes a person who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave everything to be enjoyed by someone who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a* great evil. ²²*What has a man from all the toil and striving of heart with which he toils beneath the sun? ²³For all his days are full of sorrow, and his work is a vexation. Even in the night his heart does not rest. This also is vanity.*

Eccl 4:7-8 Again, I saw vanity under the sun: ⁸one person who has no other, either son or brother, yet there is no end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, “For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?” This also is vanity and an unhappy business.

Eccl 6:7 All the toil of man is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied.^k

^k Hebrew filled

The meaning of this quite probably goes beyond simply one’s appetite for food. Here “mouth” most likely alludes to such things as “self-preservation and enjoyment” (AMP). All labor to achieve satisfaction in these things is ultimately futile as humans’ basic desires and needs are never satisfied once and for all. This inability to completely satisfy oneself is also spoken of elsewhere. Proverbs 27:20 says, “Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and never satisfied are the eyes of man.” Not dissimilarly Ecclesiastes 1:8b says, “... the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.” See also Isaiah 55:2 above.

✚ It is no good even gaining the whole world if it costs your soul:

Mark 8:36-37 For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his soul? ³⁷For what can a man give in return for his soul?

The “whole world” denotes everything that can be gained in this world or this physical life. The term “soul” can be translated “life” (GNT, NLT text note), eternal life appears to be primarily in view.

d) Being Guided by God

See also:

- d) God Guides His People, p. 976

The topic of being guided by God is very pertinent to serving God, such as in ascertaining his will in regard to how we should serve him. It is also of course important in other aspects of our lives. For it is vital in living righteously generally and in navigating through troubled times, as reflected in some of the following verses. God's guidance also becomes an issue when we need to make a significant choice or decision.

God's guidance may come through such sources as: the Holy Spirit's promptings; inner conviction or assurance (itself largely of the Holy Spirit); Scripture; circumstances; or advice from others. But God does not always guide his people by making them aware of his will. They may not even be aware of being guided by God, only recognizing his guidance in retrospect. The Bible actually says little about how one should find out God's guidance (apart from his directions evident in his laws). But the Bible does speak of how living a godly life and prayer are critical for being open to it – as is indicated in the following subsections.

Subsections

- To be guided by God, live a godly life
- Ask God to guide you (as in troubled times)
- God and Jesus Christ's will can even be understood through godliness and prayer
- Other sources of godly and wise guidance
- Note: In the OT, inquiring of God was at times done through an intercessor . . .
- . . . and it sometimes involved the use of lots

To be guided by God, live a godly life

Phil 2:12-13 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³*for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.* 📖

This implies that as we obey (v. 12a), acting in "fear and trembling" (v. 12b), we are open to God moving us to act in accordance with his purpose (v. 13).

Ps 23:1-3 *The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. ²He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters.*¹ ³*He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness^m for his name's sake.* 📖

^m Or in right paths

Like David we must acknowledge and submit to God as our shepherd (v. 1a); as such, God guides us (vv. 2-3). Note that the phrase "paths of righteousness" (v. 3b) may be speaking more generally of the right or best paths rather than specifically of paths that are morally right, although the former necessarily involves the latter.

Isa 58:9b-11 If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, ¹⁰if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday. ¹¹And the LORD will guide you continually and satisfy your desire in scorched places and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail. 📖

Ps 25:9, 12 He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way. 📖 ... ¹²*Who is the man who fears the LORD? Him will he instruct in the way that he should choose.* 📖

These verses may be speaking of God guiding the humble and those who fear him to live according to his ways or laws, rather than in guiding them in making choices regarding matters that his laws do not concern. However they are at least applicable to the latter, particularly v. 12.

Prov 3:5-6 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. ⁶*In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.* 📖

The reference to paths that are "straight" (v. 6) suggests ways that are righteous and/or secure. The expression "make straight your paths" seems to be speaking either of: directing our ways so that we will take a straight path (cf. GNT, NLT, NKJV); or straightening the path before us (cf. CEV). Possibly aspects of both interpretations are involved.

Ps 139:24 *And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!*ⁿ 📖

ⁿ Or in the ancient way (compare Jeremiah 6:16)

This points to the fact that living in ways that are offensive to God is incompatible with being led by him – as is illustrated in Ezekiel 20:31 immediately below.

‡ The ungodly cannot inquire of God:

Ezek 20:31 When you present your gifts and offer up your children in fire,^o you defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.

^o Hebrew and make your children pass through the fire

Note that to “inquire” of God would appear to involve seeking his guidance (cf. GNT).

Ask God to guide you (as in troubled times)

- Ask God to guide you, p. 1961

Ps 25:5 Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long.

Ps 31:3 For you are my rock and my fortress; and for your name's sake lead me and guide me; ...

Ps 61:1-2 Hear my cry, O God, listen to my prayer; ²from the end of the earth I call to you when my heart is faint. Lead me to the rock that is higher than I, ...

The “rock that is higher than I” denotes a place of safety that is beyond the psalmist’s reach. Quite possibly it alludes to God himself (cf. vv. 3-4).

Ps 143:8, 10 Let me hear in the morning of your steadfast love, for in you I trust. Make me know the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.  ... ¹⁰*Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground!*

Note that v. 10 may speak of knowing God’s guidance (cf. CEV), hence the verse’s inclusion here. However David is arguably more likely simply speaking of God enabling him to obey God’s will.

God and Jesus Christ’s will can even be understood through godliness and prayer

Rom 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world,^p but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.^q

^p Greek age

^q Or what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God

Believers need to renew their minds through such things as: making their thoughts conform to God’s word and commands; communing with God through prayer; and being open to the Holy Spirit. In so doing they are better able to recognize what God wants of them in situations they encounter. The reference to God’s will is probably also inclusive of what tasks God wants believers to undertake for him, as is arguably the case also in the subsequent passages from Ephesians and Colossians.

Eph 5:8b-10, 15-17 Walk as children of light ⁹*(for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true),* ¹⁰*and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord.*  ... ¹⁵*Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise,* ¹⁶*making the best use of the time, because the days are evil.* ¹⁷*Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.*

In saying “try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord” (v. 10) Paul is probably not simply talking of learning his commands; more likely he is referring to discerning the Lord’s will (cf. v. 17) in the various circumstances and decisions one faces. With the two exhortations to discern the Lord’s will (vv. 10, 17), Paul does not say how to do so, but significantly each exhortation is preceded by a call to godly or wise living.

Col 1:9-10 And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰*so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.*

This is of course a prayer that God’s will for others be made known to them. But it is still indicative of the need to pray ourselves, in understanding God’s will in our own lives (cf. Ps 143:10 ). Note that v. 10 indicates that in asking God to enable the Colossians to know his will (v. 9), Paul had their service to God in view, along with related aspects of the Christian life.

1Ki 22:4-5 And he said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?” And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” ⁵And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Inquire first for the word of the LORD.”

Jehoshaphat’s advice to first seek God’s counsel before embarking on a momentous course of action is reflective of the need to pray in such a situation – and reflects that God’s will may be understood through prayer.

Other sources of godly and wise guidance

Prov 1:1-6 The proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel: ²To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight, ³to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity; ⁴to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth— ⁵Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance, ⁶to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles.

These verses show that God's word – here Proverbs in particular – provides guidance.

Prov 6:20-22 My son, keep your father's commandment, and forsake not your mother's teaching. ²¹Bind them on your heart always; tie them around your neck. ²²When you walk, they^r will lead you; when you lie down, they will watch over you; and when you awake, they will talk with you.

Prov 11:3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

Prov 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

This illustrates the importance of advice from others in obtaining guidance, with wise advisors presumably being in view.

2Cor 2:13 ... my spirit was not at rest because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I took leave of them and went on to Macedonia.

One's "peace of mind" (NIV®; cf. Col 3:15 ↓) should be considered when determining a course of action. It is very helpful for guidance if one's mind is under the influence of the Holy Spirit and a clear conscience.

Col 3:15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.

In its context the reference is to relationships with other believers, in which Christ's "peace" in the church body – and so also in the "hearts" of its members – should be sought and maintained amidst working through differences. The first part of the verse is often applied to obtaining personal guidance, being used to point to the principle of being at peace with a particular choice (cf. 2Cor 2:13 ↑).

✦ On being given God's guidance, follow it:

Ps 32:8-9 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you. ⁹Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you.

Note: In the OT, inquiring of God was at times done through an intercessor . . .

In the following examples people inquire of God – or at least appear to – through Moses, the high priest and also a prophet.

Ex 33:7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.

This temporary "tent of meeting" outside the Israelite camp was not the later tabernacle which was within the camp. It appears to have only been used before the tabernacle was constructed. Presumably anyone seeking God's counsel at this tent did so through Moses (cf. vv. 8-11) – as appears to be the case immediately below in Leviticus 24:12-14.

Lev 24:12-14 And they put him in custody, till the will of the LORD should be clear to them. ¹³Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁴"Bring out of the camp the one who cursed, and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

Judg 20:27-28 And the people of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, ²⁸and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, "Shall we go out once more to battle against our brothers, the people of Benjamin, or shall we cease?" And the LORD said, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into your hand."

Presumably it was through the priest Phinehas that the people both inquired of God and received God's reply (cf. comments on 1Sam 23:1-6 ↓; Ex 28:29-30 ↓).

1Sam 23:1-6 Now they told David, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are robbing the threshing floors." ²Therefore David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah." ³But David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?" ⁴Then David inquired of the LORD again. And the LORD answered him, "Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will give the Philistines into your hand."⁵And David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines and brought away their livestock and struck them with a great blow. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. ⁶When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech had fled to David to Keilah, he had come down with an ephod in his hand.

As implied here and indicated in 1 Samuel 30:7 in the following subsection, David made his inquiries of God through Abiathar the priest who would use the ephod (v. 6), with the Urim and Thummim (cf. comment on Ex 28:29-30 ↓). Note that 2 Samuel 2:1 and 5:19, 23 record further such instances of David inquiring of God.

2Ki 3:9-12 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. And when they had made a circuitous march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the animals that followed them. ¹⁰Then the king of Israel said, "Alas! The LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab." ¹¹And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, through whom we may inquire of the LORD?" Then one of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah." ¹²And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

... and it sometimes involved the use of lots

Ex 28:29-30 So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment on his heart, when he goes into the Holy Place, to bring them to regular remembrance before the LORD. ³⁰And in the breastpiece of judgment you shall put the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be on Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD. Thus Aaron shall bear the judgment of the people of Israel on his heart before the LORD regularly.

The Urim and the Thummim were sacred lots – contained in the breastpiece of judgment or "decision" (NIV®), attached to the ephod of the high priest (cf. 1Sam 23:6 ↑; 1Sam 30:7 ↓). The high priest used these to ascertain God's will (cf. Num 27:21a ↓).

Num 27:21 And he [Joshua] shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD. At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the people of Israel with him, the whole congregation.

1Sam 14:41-43 Therefore Saul said, "O LORD God of Israel, why^s have you not answered your servant this day? If this guilt is in me or in Jonathan my son, O LORD, God of Israel, give Urim. But if this guilt is in your people Israel, give Thummim." And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped. ⁴²Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan." And Jonathan was taken. ⁴³Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." And Jonathan told him, "I tasted a little honey with the tip of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am; I will die."

^s Vulgate (compare Septuagint); Hebrew Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, "Why . . .

1Sam 30:7-8 And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David. ⁸And David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue after this band? Shall I overtake them?" He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake and shall surely rescue."

Jonah 1:7 And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

In casting lots these sailors were probably looking to their own gods for guidance, but nevertheless obviously God used this.

Prov 16:33 The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from the LORD.

Prov 18:18 The lot puts an end to quarrels and decides between powerful contenders.

Josh 18:10 ... and Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD. And there Joshua apportioned the land to the people of Israel, to each his portion.

Lots may have been used here as a fair and equitable method of dividing up the land, rather than necessarily to procure God's will as to where which tribe was to live. However, the fact that Joshua did it "before the LORD" suggests that the latter may have been the case.

‡ The apostles also used lots to ascertain the Lord's will:

Acts 1:24-26 And they prayed and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen ²⁵to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." ²⁶And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

This is the last record in the Bible of lots being used to seek God's (or Christ's) guidance. One should bear in mind the following: this occurred before the Holy Spirit was given; it was done prayerfully; and the decision was between two people of apparently equivalent standing – with quite possibly the lots being used only after the disciples had done what they could to determine the most appropriate person.

II. Doing God's Work

In instructing us in how to do God's work, serving him, the Bible urges us to do our best but emphasizes God's role and the need to rely on him. The Bible also teaches us about: the manner in which we should serve God; serving God in a church context; and God's extraordinary spiritual gifts to his people for serving him.

a) Do God's Work – the Best You Can

- . . . Carry out God's will Do God's work

Ex 36:1 "Bezalel and Oholiab and every craftsman in whom the LORD has put skill and intelligence to know how to do any work in the construction of the sanctuary shall work in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded."

Neh 12:45 And they performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon.

Neh 13:14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for his service.

John 9:4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work.

Jesus appears to be speaking of his ministry, in which he implies the disciples were partners by the use of "We". As such, "night" would be a reference to his death. The exhortation is applicable to all believers to do God's work while they can.

1Cor 16:10 When Timothy comes, see that you put him at ease among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am.

Luke 19:12-13 He said therefore, "A nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. ¹³Calling ten of his servants,^c he gave them ten minas,^d and said to them, 'Engage in business until I come.'"

^c Greek bondservants; also verse 15

^d A mina was about three months' wages for a laborer

"The Parable of the Ten Minas" (cf. vv. 11-27) is often applied to the need to put to work the abilities and resources we have been given (cf. Ex 36:1 ↑), making good use of them for God's kingdom.

† God's people are workers for the kingdom of God:

Col 4:11 ... and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.

Do the work assigned to you . . .

1Cor 3:5-6 What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. ^{6I} planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.

This indicates that Paul and Apollos did or worked at the tasks that the Lord had assigned to them (cf. AMP, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT). All believers should do likewise.

Eph 2:10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

It would appear that Paul is speaking of God preparing in advance particular work for each believer to do (cf. AMP). As such, believers need to look to God to guide them and enable them to do the work – and willingly do it.

Judg 6:14 And the LORD^e turned to him and said, “Go in this might of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian; do not I send you?”

The rhetorical question underlines the fact that in going and saving Israel, Gideon would be carrying out God’s will and work, God being the one who had sent him (cf. Jer 1:7 ↓).

Jer 1:7 But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am only a youth’; for to all to whom I send you, you shall go, and whatever I command you, you shall speak.

1Chr 6:32 They ministered with song before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting until Solomon built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they performed their service according to their order.

These men performed their service according to the regulations stipulated for them (cf. NCV, NIV, NLT).

1Chr 16:37 So David left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister regularly before the ark as each day required, ...

The phrase “as each day required” refers either to the standard daily regulations (cf. 1Chr 6:32 ↑) or whatever needs arose each day.

Rom 16:6, 12 Greet Mary, who has worked hard for you.  ... ¹²Greet those workers in the Lord, Tryphaena and Tryphosa. Greet the beloved Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord.

1Cor 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. 📖

The expression “always abounding in the work of the Lord” refers either to: busily doing the Lord’s work (cf. CEV, GNT); or doing it well (cf. AMP, NRSV). Both possibilities involve working hard at it.

Col 1:28-29 Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. ²⁹*For this I toil, struggling with all his energy* that he powerfully works within me. 📖

Col 2:1 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those at Laodicea and for all who have not seen me face to face, ... 📖

Col 4:12-13 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. ¹³*For I bear him witness that he has worked hard for you and for those in Laodicea and in Hierapolis*. 📖

1Tim 4:15 Practice these things, immerse yourself in them,^j so that all may see your progress. 📖

^j Greek be in them

The “things” in the preceding verses (cf. vv. 6-14), concerned mainly Timothy’s ministry.

2Tim 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved,^k a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth. 📖

^k That is, one approved after being tested

“Do your best” here is akin to “Work hard” (NLT) or “Be diligent” (NASB, NKJV). Paul urged Timothy to be industrious, doing his best to gain God’s approval of himself and his work, having no need to be ashamed of what he had done.

Rev 2:2 I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance, and how you cannot bear with those who are evil, but have tested those who call themselves apostles and are not, and found them to be false. 📖

Rev 2:19 I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first. 📖

The clause “your latter works exceed the first” speaks of doing more than they did at first (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV).

2Chr 24:13 So those who were engaged in the work labored, and the repairing went forward in their hands, and they restored the house of God to its proper condition and strengthened it. 📖

... Endure associated persecution and hardships

1Cor 4:11-13 To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless,¹² and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure;¹³ when slandered, we entreat. We have become, and are still, like the scum of the world, the refuse of all things. 📖

In v. 12a Paul appears to be speaking of working hard to support himself, which he did in conjunction with working hard in his work for the kingdom. In the last statement (v. 13b) Paul is saying that they had been thought of and treated as if they were the garbage of the world.

2Cor 4:8-10 We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; ⁹*persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed*; ¹⁰*always carrying in the body the death of Jesus*, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. 📖

For comment on v. 10, see the comment on 2Cor 4:10-12 – under ... Be willing even to endanger your life, p. 1394.

2Cor 6:4-5, 8-10 ... but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities,⁵ beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; 📖 ... ⁸*through honor and dishonor, through slander and praise. We are treated as impostors*, and yet are true; ⁹*as unknown*, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and yet not killed; ¹⁰*as sorrowful*, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything. 📖

In saying that he was treated “as unknown, and yet well known” (v. 9a) Paul probably means that he was treated as a nobody by the world and false brothers – ignored and/or unappreciated – but was well known by God and believers. In vv. 9b-10 Paul speaks of facing death, punishment, sorrow and poverty – and being treated or viewed as such.

2Cor 7:4-5 I am acting with great boldness toward you; I have great pride in you; I am filled with comfort. In all our affliction, I am overflowing with joy. ⁵*For even when we came into Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were afflicted at every turn—fighting without and fear within*. 📖

2Cor 11:23-28 Are they servants of Christ? I am a better one—I am talking like a madman—with far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless beatings, and often near death. ²⁴Five times I received at the hands of the Jews the forty lashes less one. ²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I was adrift at sea; ²⁶on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers; ²⁷in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, in hunger and thirst, often without food,¹ in cold and exposure. ²⁸And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches. 📖

¹ Or often in fasting

Note that in v. 23 Paul acknowledges the foolishness of what he earlier referred to as boasting (cf. vv. 16-17, 21). He felt compelled to boast as such to try to prove his credentials as an apostle in the face of false claims by opposing false apostles, who were a threat to the spirituality of the Corinthian church.

Do quality work which bears “fruit” – “fruit” that will last

See also:

- Whoever does not produce good “fruit” will be cut off from God and Jesus Christ, p. 1400

As noted earlier in this chapter, the metaphorical use of “fruit” in the NT may refer to: personal spiritual characteristics (cf. Gal 5:22-23); or wider spiritual outcomes of quality work for God’s kingdom. And in some instances, it may include both concepts – the spiritual characteristics and their effect. In including verses using “fruit” in this subsection, its usage in these verses has been interpreted as referring to – or at least inclusive of – spiritual outcomes of quality work for God’s kingdom. See also the comments below on John 15:16, Romans 7:4 and James 3:17.

Matt 13:23 As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty. 📖

John 12:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. 📖

Jesus may be alluding to both his own death (cf. v. 23) and the death to themselves of Christians (cf. v. 25) in serving him (cf. v. 26).

John 15:8, 16 By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. 📖 ... ¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. 📖

With Jesus saying that he “appointed” the disciples to “go” and bear fruit (v. 16), it is quite likely that here “fruit” does refer to or encompass spiritual outcomes of quality work for the kingdom.

Rom 7:4 Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. 📖

In regard to the use of “fruit”, note that a number of other translations (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NLT) do clearly interpret it as referring to the produce of godly service.

Phil 1:22a If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. 📖

Col 1:10 ... so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. 📖

James 3:17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere. 📖

The coupling of “good fruits” with being “full of mercy” suggests that “good deeds” (GNT, NLT; cf. CEV, NCV) are being spoken of here.

1Cor 3:10-15 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. ¹¹For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— ¹³each one’s work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. ¹⁴If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵If anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. 📖

Here Paul speaks of the work of building the church, and is probably primarily addressing church teachers. Builders need to be careful to build with quality materials – symbolized by the gold, silver and precious stones (v. 12). Such “materials” would include correct doctrine, complemented by a godly lifestyle. Quality work – as with poor work – will be shown for what it is by testing on “the Day” of judgment (vv. 13-14).

Phil 2:15-16 ... that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

Paul was anxious that his work amongst the Philippians would prove to be quality work, work that was enduring and worthwhile in the final analysis.

✦ Do the work just as God wants:

Ex 39:42-43 According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the people of Israel had done all the work. ⁴³*And Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, so had they done it.* Then Moses blessed them.

Persist at the work

We are to persist at doing God's work, continually serving him for all our life.

Neh 5:16 I also persevered in the work on this wall, and we acquired no land, and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

This refers to the work of rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem.

Dan 6:20 As he came near to the den where Daniel was, he cried out in a tone of anguish. The king declared to Daniel, “O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?”

Luke 1:74-75 ... that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, ⁷⁵*in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.*

2Thes 3:13 As for you, brothers, do not grow weary in doing good.

2Cor 4:1 Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God,^m we do not lose heart.

^mGreek as we have received mercy

The phrase “do not lose heart” in effect means “never give up” (CEV, NLT; cf. NCV). Note that Paul soon afterwards reiterates this thought: “So we do not lose heart.” (v. 16)

John 5:16-17 And this was why the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷But Jesus answered them, “My Father is working until now, and I am working.”

This suggests that God is always at his work and Jesus likewise is (cf. CEV, NCV, NLT). As such, Jesus provides the consummate example of persistence at God's work – an example which one can aspire to, if not actually be able to actually emulate.

Complete the work you have been given

Col 4:17 And say to Archippus, “See that you fulfill the ministry that you have received in the Lord.”

Ex 40:16, 33 This Moses did; according to all that the LORD commanded him, so he did. ... ³³*And he erected the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.*

Josh 11:15 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Josh 22:1-3 At that time Joshua summoned the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, ²and said to them, “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you and have obeyed my voice in all that I have commanded you. ³*You have not forsaken your brothers these many days, down to this day, but have been careful to keep the charge of the LORD your God.*

2Ki 10:30 And the LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.”

2Chr 8:16 Thus was accomplished all the work of Solomon fromⁿ the day the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

Acts 13:22-25 And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, of whom he testified and said, 'I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.' ²³Of this man's offspring God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, as he promised. ²⁴Before his coming, John had proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵And as John was finishing his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. No, but behold, after me one is coming, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'

The expression "finishing his course" (v. 25; cf. Acts 20:24 ↓) speaks of John finishing his ministry (cf. CEV, GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT, NRSV).

Acts 14:26 ... and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled.

Acts 20:24 But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

Rom 15:19 ... by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem and all the way around to Illyricum I have fulfilled the ministry of the gospel of Christ; ...

Rom 15:28 When therefore I have completed this and have delivered to them what has been collected,^o I will leave for Spain by way of you.

^o Greek sealed to them this fruit

2Cor 8:11 So now finish doing it as well, so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have.

2Tim 4:5 As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

✦ Jesus' example of completing his work from God:

John 17:4 I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do.

A couple of other references to Jesus completing the work God had given him are made later, in John 19:28, 30 – 'After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), "I thirst." ... ³⁰When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, "It is finished," and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.'

Apart from God and Jesus Christ we can accomplish nothing

John 15:4-5 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. ⁵I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

1Cor 3:6-7 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. ⁷*So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.*

God's servants cannot themselves produce any real, lasting spiritual results or growth from the work that they do – only God can.

Phil 1:9-11 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, ¹⁰so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. 📖

The phrase "the fruit of righteousness" is quite possibly referring to good deeds (cf. CEV, NCV) – as is probably the case above in John 15:4-5 – hence the verse's inclusion here. Alternatively, righteous qualities may be in view (cf. GNT). In either case, such "fruit" is produced only through Jesus Christ.

Ps 127:1-2 Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. ²It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep. 📖

Attempting a task independently of God is useless. This principle is of course very much applicable to attempting to accomplish things for God's kingdom. Note the Hebrew text of the latter part of v. 2 is difficult. But it appears to suggest that God meets the needs of his people, irrespective of the amount of one's toil.

Isa 26:12 O LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for you have indeed done for us all our works. 📖

✦ No one in themselves is adequate to do God's work of spreading the knowledge of him:

2Cor 2:14-16 But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. ¹⁵For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, ¹⁶to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient^p for these things? 📖

^p Or competent

No one is "sufficient" (v. 16) or "competent" (cf. text note) in themselves to do such work, in part because the consequences of the work mean either death or life for those amongst whom the work is done (vv. 15-16).

Pray to God for help in the work – and ask others to pray

Neh 1:3-4, 11 And they said to me, "The remnant there in the province who had survived the exile is in great trouble and shame. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates are destroyed by fire." ⁴As soon as I heard these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days, and I continued

fasting and praying before the God of heaven. 📖 ... ¹¹O Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants who delight to fear your name, and give success to your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." Now I was cupbearer to the king. 📖

These verses along with the passage immediately below from the subsequent chapter of Nehemiah show that he both prayed and acted (approaching the king for help) regarding the ruined state of Jerusalem.

Neh 2:4-8 Then the king said to me, "What are you requesting?" So I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵*And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' graves, that I may rebuild it."* ⁶And the king said to me (the queen sitting beside him), "How long will you be gone, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me when I had given him a time. ⁷And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors of the province Beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah, ⁸and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress of the temple, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall occupy." And the king granted me what I asked, for the good hand of my God was upon me. 📖

Note that this passage and the one above show that Nehemiah prayed about both the problem and the action he planned to take to address it.

Neh 4:8-9 And they all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it. ⁹*And we prayed to our God and set a guard as a protection against them day and night.* 📖

Again Nehemiah both prayed and acted in regard to a problem confronting his work for God. In this case it was the threats of enemies against him and the people as they did God's work of rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem.

Ps 90:17 Let the favor^q of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; yes, establish the work of our hands! 📖

^q Or beauty

The reference is to work in general, but the prayer is very much applicable to doing the work of God's kingdom.

Acts 4:29-31 And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants^r to continue to speak your word with all boldness, ³⁰*while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your* holy servant Jesus."³¹And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. 📖

^r Greek bondservants

Eph 6:18b-20 To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints,¹⁹and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel,²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak. 📖

This and the following passages suggest that we should ask others to pray to God to help us in our work for him.

Col 4:3-4 At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison—⁴that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak. 📖

2Thes 3:1-2 Finally, brothers,^s pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honored,^t as happened among you,²and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men. For not all have faith. 📖

^u Or In a short time you would persuade me to act like a Christian!

"I would to God" suggests prayerfulness (cf. GNT, NCV, NIV, NLT, NRSV).

John 3:21 But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God. 📖

In "the light" given by Jesus Christ, all that one does in living by the truth is shown to be done in/through God – "divinely prompted, done with God's help, in dependence upon Him" (AMP).

1Cor 2:1-5 And I, when I came to you, brothers,^v did not come proclaiming to you the testimony^w of God with lofty speech or wisdom. ²For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. ³And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, ⁴and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God. 📖

^v Or brothers and sisters

^w Some manuscripts mystery (or secret)

Particularly in view of vv. 1-3, verses 4-5 suggest that Paul intentionally carried out his ministry in reliance on God's power (and the Holy Spirit).

2Cor 6:4, 7 ... but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, 📖 ... ⁷by truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; ... 📖

In v. 7a, "by ... the power of God" indicates that Paul carried out his work as a servant of God (v. 4) in dependence on God's power (cf. GNT, NCV).

2Cor 13:4 For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God. 📖

The phrase "by the power of God" is not only indicative of how we live with Christ, but also to how we – as we live with Christ – minister to others (cf. GNT, NLT).

Col 1:29 For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me. 📖

Note that the reference is to Jesus Christ's "energy".

2Tim 1:8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, ... 📖

The reference to God's empowerment may primarily be to enduring the suffering (v. 8b) rather than to the actual doing of God's work (i.e. testifying about Jesus Christ, v. 8a). But obviously they went hand in hand; hence the verse's inclusion here.

1Pet 4:11 ... whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

The first portion of the verse is probably indicating that we should rely on God's help in what we say in ministering to others – as is paralleled in the second portion regarding serving with God's strength.

1Sam 14:45 Then the people said to Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day." So the people ransomed Jonathan, so that he did not die.

Neh 2:20 Then I replied to them, "The God of heaven will make us prosper, and we his servants will arise and build, but you have no portion or right or claim^x in Jerusalem."

^x Or memorial

In their efforts to rebuild of walls of Jerusalem, Nehemiah looked to God as the ultimate source of the success of which he was confident.

1Chr 22:16b Arise and work! The LORD be with you!

Here David alludes to the need for God to be helping Solomon in the work of building the temple.

1Thes 4:2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

‡ By his power God fulfills what his people seek to do for him:

2Thes 1:11 To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, ...

Paul prays that "by his power" God will bring to completion, putting to good effect, what the Thessalonians in faith sought to do for God. (Presumably Paul has in mind such things being in line with God's will/work.)

Do the work by faith and in God's "name" . . .

See also:

- God's "name" is correlated with his authority and power, p. 48

The latter verses in this subsection speak of acting in God's "name". To the ancient Hebrews and Jews, a person's name represented or embodied their whole person – including their nature, authority and aims or cause. As such, doing something in God's name would appear to involve acting: as his representative; by his authority; and in accordance with his will. Doing so is allied with acting: in dependence on his power (spoken of in the previous subsection) and by faith in him (spoken of throughout this subsection). The same things can be said of acting in Jesus Christ's name (spoken of in the following subsection).

1Tim 1:4 ... nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculations rather than the stewardship^y from God that is by faith.

^y Or good order

The "stewardship from God that is by faith" may well be speaking of God's work being "done by faith" (CEV, cf. NCV); as such the verse is pertinent to this subsection. Alternatively, some commentators think that it is speaking of God's plan or truth being known through faith (cf. GNT).

Acts 11:23-24 When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose, ²⁴*for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith.* And a great many people were added to the Lord.

Undoubtedly the godly traits of Barnabas listed in v. 24 – including being "full of... faith" – were evident in the manner in which he ministered (v. 23).

Heb 11:32-34 And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— ³³*who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,* ³⁴*quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.*

In fighting their enemies (vv. 33a, 34b) – along with administering justice (v. 33a) – these men of God were in a real sense doing God's work, doing so by faith. As such passages like this and the following ones are very much applicable to believers in doing their work for God.

1Sam 17:37, 45-47 And David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you!"  ... ⁴⁵Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. ⁴⁶*This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head. And I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to* the birds of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,⁴⁷ and that all this assembly may know that the LORD saves not with sword and spear. For the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hand."

David's faith is shown clearly in vv. 37, 46, 47. His statement that he came against Goliath "in the name of the LORD of hosts" (v. 45; cf. 2Chr 14:11 ↓; Ps 4:5 ↓; Ps 118:10-12 ↓) also points to his faith in God and God's power, as well as suggesting that he did so on God's behalf.

2Chr 14:11 And Asa cried to the LORD his God, "O LORD, there is none like you to help, between the mighty and the weak. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, you are our God; let not man prevail against you."

This clearly speaks of acting both by faith and in God's "name".

Ps 44:5 Through you we push down our foes; through your name we tread down those who rise up against us.

Ps 118:10-12 All nations surrounded me; in the name of the LORD I cut them off! ¹¹*They surrounded me, surrounded me on every side; in the name of the LORD I cut them off!* ¹²*They surrounded me like bees; they went out like a fire among thorns; in the name of the LORD I cut them off!*

The psalmist overcame his evil enemies in the name of the LORD – inclusive of "the power of the Lord" (CEV, GNT).

Col 3:17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

The exhortation in this verse was not made specifically in reference to doing God's work, but obviously is applicable to it.

Luke 10:17 The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!"

Luke 24:46-47 ... and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead,⁴⁷ and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

The message of "repentance and forgiveness of sins" was to be preached "in his name", with Christ's authority (cf. NLT), as the one who by his work has realized this forgiveness.

Acts 3:6-8 But Peter said, "I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!" ⁷And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. ⁸And leaping up he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

Acts 9:27-28 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who spoke to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸So he went in and out among them at Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord.

Acts 16:18 And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

1Cor 1:10 I appeal to you, brothers,^z by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment.

^z Or brothers and sisters. The plural Greek word adelphoi (translated "brothers") refers to siblings in a family. In New Testament usage, depending on the context, adelphoi may refer either to men or to both men and women who are siblings (brothers and sisters) in God's family, the church; also verses 11, 26

2Thes 3:6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us.

1Cor 5:4-5 When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus,⁵ you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.^a

^a Some manuscripts add Jesus

That being "assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus" is connected with the presence of "the power of our Lord Jesus", suggests that acting in the name of Jesus Christ is correlative to acting in dependence on or through his power. (For comment on v. 5, see 1Cor 5:4-5 – under . . . This is partly for the benefit of the offenders themselves, p. 1493.)

James 5:14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.

Note that here "Lord" could be referring to God.

In v. 4 Paul acknowledges the Spirit's power being behind the effectiveness of his preaching. While Paul does not expressly say that he looked to the Holy Spirit's help in his preaching, his acknowledgement in v. 4 and what he says in v. 13 – along with the preceding verses, as per an earlier comment – suggest that this was the case (cf. 1Pet 1:12 ↓).

2Cor 6:4, 6 ... but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, ... ⁶*by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love*; ...

Paul indicates here that he served God "in the power of the Holy Spirit" (NirV®).

2Tim 1:14 By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you.

1Pet 1:12 It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things that have now been announced to you through those who preached the good news to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look.

^d Greek fleshly hearts

The Corinthians' new spiritual lives were composed by Christ with the Holy Spirit, through the ministry of Paul. This would suggest that Paul performed this ministry with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 18:25 He had been instructed in the way of the Lord. And being fervent in spirit,^e he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John.

^e Or in the Spirit

The text note points to Apollos speaking with the help of the Holy Spirit. But note that the rendering in the text note has little or no support amongst other modern translations.

✚ Paul appealed to believers "by the love of the Spirit":

Rom 15:30 I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ...

The expression "by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit" appears to refer to the mode of Paul's exhortation. As such one could say that Paul is acting or speaking here (in part) "by the love of the Spirit". Alternatively, some interpret Paul to be urging his readers to act according to the love of the Spirit given to them (cf. NLT). With either interpretation this verse is indicative of the need to serve God "by the love of the Spirit".

Note: Commit to God whatever you do

Commit or entrust to God whatever you do, whether it be work for God or other more mundane things one does in "everyday life".

Prov 16:3 Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established.

Ps 37:5-6 Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. ⁶He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday.

Note that v. 6 appears to be speaking of God making his people's righteousness shine forth, obvious to all, effecting vindication and justice for them.

Ps 90:17 Let the favor^f of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; yes, establish the work of our hands!

^f Or beauty

The psalmist looks to God to grant him and his people success "in all we do!" (GNT; cf. NCV, NLT).

Acts 14:23, 26 And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.  ...²⁶*and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled.*

As well as committing what we do to God, we should also commit/commend others and what they do to God – notably Christian workers and their work. Note that in Acts 20:32 Paul speaks of committing others to God and his word – "And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified."

2Tim 1:12 ... which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me.^g

^g Or what I have entrusted to him; Greek my deposit

If the alternative rendering in the text note is to be preferred (cf. NASB, NIV, NKJV, NLT, NRSV), then Paul would appear to be speaking of entrusting or committing to God his ministry and its fruits – along with himself, even through death.

† Acknowledge God in all that you do:

Prov 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

To "acknowledge him" appears to involve being mindful of him – including his sovereignty and ways. As such, in all we do we should remember him (cf. GNT, NCV) and seek his will or leading (cf. CEV, NLT).

Luke 1:74-75 ... that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, ⁷⁵*in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.*

1Thes 2:9-10 For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil: we worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. ¹⁰You are witnesses, and God also, how holy and righteous and blameless was our conduct toward you believers.

Lev 21:6 They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. For they offer the LORD's food offerings, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

Isa 52:11 Depart, depart, go out from there; touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of her; purify yourselves, you who bear the vessels of the LORD.

The final clause is probably referring to the duty of the priests and Levites to look after the vessels that belonged in the temple.

Mal 2:6 True instruction^h was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity.

^h Or law; also verses 7, 8, 9

A priest is in view, along with his work. Possibly it is the high priest Phinehas, or perhaps even an ideal priest.

Matt 10:16 Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

2Cor 1:12 For our boast is this, the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world with simplicityⁱ and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God, and supremely so toward you.

ⁱ Some manuscripts holiness

This refers in part to Paul's previous work amongst the Corinthians (cf. 1Thes 2:10 ↑). The text note says some manuscripts have "holiness" (NASB, NIV) instead of simplicity.

1Tim 5:1-2 Do not rebuke an older man but encourage him as you would a father, younger men as brothers, ²older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, in all purity.

This direction was given to Timothy as a pastoral worker, but is very much applicable to all believers.

1Tim 6:13-14 I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony beforeⁱ Pontius Pilate made the good confession, ¹⁴to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ...

ⁱ Or in the time of

It is not clear exactly what is referred to by "this command" (v. 14), but the most likely possibilities each pertain to Timothy's work for the kingdom.

2Tim 1:3 I thank God whom I serve, as did my ancestors, with a clear conscience, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day.

2Cor 6:7 ... by truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; ...

The term "weapons of righteousness" is usually understood as a reference to the spiritual power and protection given by a life of righteousness and integrity – "right living" (NCV™, cf. CEV, GNT, NLT).

Serve God with humility

Acts 20:18b-19 You yourselves know how I lived among you the whole time from the first day that I set foot in Asia, ¹⁹*servng the Lord with all humility* and with tears and with trials that happened to me through the plots of the Jews; ...

Luke 17:7-10 "Will any one of you who has a servant^k plowing or keeping sheep say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and recline at table'? ⁸Will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, and dress properly,^l and serve me while I eat and drink, and afterward you will eat and drink'? ⁹Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded? ¹⁰*So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, 'We are unworthy servants;^m we have only done what was our duty.'*"

^k Greek bondservant; also verse 9

^m Greek bondservants

Phil 2:5-8 Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus,ⁿ ⁶who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant,^o being born in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

ⁿ Or which was also in Christ Jesus

^o Greek bondservant

Paul actually has in view church harmony (cf. vv. 1-4) rather than serving God. But his exhortation to follow Jesus Christ's example of humility as shown in Christ's work for God is obviously applicable to believers in their own work for God.

Dan 2:30 But as for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because of any wisdom that I have more than all the living, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your mind.

Although they do not refer specifically to humility, this and the remaining references reflect the speakers' humility and sober perspective of their part in their work for God.

Acts 3:12 And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk?"

Rom 15:18 For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, ...

Paul seems to mean that he would only speak about things for which Jesus Christ should be given credit, things that Christ accomplished through him as opposed to things that Paul did by himself. Note that Paul is also the speaker in each of the remaining references.

1Cor 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ...

2Cor 12:11 I have been a fool! You forced me to it, for I ought to have been commended by you. For I was not at all inferior to these super-apostles, even though I am nothing.

Eph 3:8 To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ...

Serve God with all your heart

Deut 10:12 And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ...

Josh 22:5 Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.

1Sam 12:20, 24 And Samuel said to the people, "Do not be afraid; you have done all this evil. Yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. ... ²⁴Only fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart. For consider what great things he has done for you.

1Chr 28:9 And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever.

2Chr 19:9 And he charged them: "Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, in faithfulness, and with your whole heart: ...

2Chr 31:21 And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, seeking his God, he did with all his heart, and prospered.

Rom 1:9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you ...

Paul speaks of serving God "with all my heart" (CEV, GNT, NLT; cf. NCV, NIV).

✦ Serve God with gladness:

Ps 100:2 Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing!

Although speaking of disobedience, Deuteronomy 28:47 also indicates that we should serve God with gladness – "Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness and gladness of heart, because of the abundance of all things, ..."

Serve God with zeal . . .

Rom 12:11 Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit,^p serve the Lord.

^p Or fervent in the Spirit

2Ki 10:16 And he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So he^q had him ride in his chariot.

^q Septuagint, Syriac, Targum; Hebrew they

Ps 69:9 For zeal for your house has consumed me, and the reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.

David's zeal for God's house was clearly shown in his plans and efforts towards building the temple.

Ps 119:139 My zeal consumes me, because my foes forget your words.

The use of "zeal" suggests that the psalmist did or had in mind taking action on behalf of God's word – zealously serving God.

John 2:14-17 In the temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting there. ¹⁵And making a whip of cords, he drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and oxen. And he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. ¹⁶And he told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; do not make my Father's house a house of trade." ¹⁷His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

Rom 12:8 ... the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads,^r with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

^r Or gives aid

2Cor 9:2 ... for I know your readiness, of which I boast about you to the people of Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year. And your zeal has stirred up most of them.

Titus 2:14 ... who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.

1Pet 3:13 Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is good?

2Cor 8:22 And with them we are sending our brother whom we have often tested and found earnest in many matters, but who is now more earnest than ever because of his great confidence in you.

Such earnestness shows an intensity or zeal for God's work.

1Ki 19:10 He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts. For the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword, and I, even I only, am left, and they seek my life, to take it away."

Here Elijah indicates that he has been "very zealous" (NASB, NIV, NKJV, NRSV; cf. NLT) in serving God, the outcome of a mindset of being "very jealous for the LORD".

... but zeal must not be misguided

Acts 22:3-4 I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated at the feet of Gamaliel^s according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God as all of you are this day. ⁴*I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering to prison both men and women, ...*

^s Or city at the feet of Gamaliel, educated

Paul's reference to his zeal for God is primarily in regard to his adherence to the law (cf. Gal 1:14 ↓), but likely also in view in his subsequent mention of persecuting the church (cf. Phil 3:6 ↓).

Rom 10:1-3 Brothers,^t my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved. ²For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³*For, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness.*

^t Or Brothers and sisters

The Jews were zealous to please God, but their zeal was not based on knowledge of what God wanted. As a result their strenuous efforts to gain righteousness were in vein, as such efforts were not in accordance with the way to righteousness as stipulated by God.

Gal 1:14 And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers.

Paul was saying this in the realization that his zeal for these traditions had been misdirected and counterproductive.

Phil 3:4b-6 If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: ⁵circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶*as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law,*^u blameless.

^u Greek in the law

Prov 19:2 Desire^v without knowledge is not good, and whoever makes haste with his feet misses his way.

^v Or A soul

"Desire" here is indicative of enthusiasm (cf. CEV, GNT) or zeal (cf. NIV, NLT). To have it "without knowledge" is to have energy without direction, which like being hasty leads one to "make mistakes" (NCV™).

‡ Wise people's actions are based on knowledge:

Prov 13:16 In everything the prudent acts with knowledge, but a fool flaunts his folly.

^x Septuagint the angel of the LORD; also verse 16

The expression “in this might of yours” (v. 14) may well be a reference to the angel of the LORD’s statement in v. 12, which quite possibly implies that because the LORD was with him he was a mighty warrior. Thus Gideon was to act as such, in the might/strength he had with God’s presence and support (cf. Hag 2:4 ↴).

2Chr 19:11 And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the governor of the house of Judah, in all the king’s matters, and the Levites will serve you as officers. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the upright!^y

Note that the last clause is a blessing, that the LORD would be with the “upright”, here in particular those who serve him accordingly.

Hag 2:4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, declares the LORD. Be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land, declares the LORD. Work, for I am with you, declares the LORD of hosts, ...

Personal qualities which should characterize servants of God include: "great endurance" (v. 4); "purity, knowledge, patience, kindness"; and "genuine love" (v. 6). Note that patience is also mentioned in the two verses immediately below.

2Cor 12:12 The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with utmost patience, with signs and wonders and mighty works.

2Tim 2:24 And the Lord's servant^c must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, ...

^c Greek bondservant

James 3:18 And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Peacemakers do their work in a peaceful way, producing righteousness. This could be speaking of righteousness in the lives of themselves or of others – or even both. It is certainly applicable to both, and so to one's work for God.

2Chr 31:21 And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, seeking his God, he did with all his heart, and prospered.

This may indicate that in all Hezekiah did in service and obedience to God, he in effect sought God or aspired to seek him. Alternatively it may indicate that Hezekiah sought God and God's will in regard to what he did. Both interpretations are relevant to the manner or way in which we serve God, for in serving him we ought to seek him in both these ways.

Ps 149:6-9 Let the high praises of God be in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands, ⁷to execute vengeance on the nations and punishments on the peoples, ⁸to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron, ⁹to execute on them the judgment written! This is honor for all his godly ones. Praise the LORD!

One can infer from this that in doing God's work (vv. 7-9) God's praises (v. 6) should never be far from our lips. Although not necessarily evidenced here, a persistent spirit of praise aids one in being mindful of and reliant on God, which are obviously vital in serving him.

✦ To serve Christ, one must follow him:

John 12:26 If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

Serving Jesus Christ involves following him, which includes following his example and teachings. The context (cf. vv. 24-25) suggests that Jesus' challenge to follow him and be with him had in view his example of sacrificial living – to the point of death.

Serve each other

Gal 5:13 For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

Mark 9:35 And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, "If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all."

John 13:13-17 You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. ¹⁴*If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.* ¹⁵*For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you.* ¹⁶*Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant^d is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.* ¹⁷If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

^d Greek bondservant

Here Jesus performs the task of a lowly servant, setting the disciples an example to follow. As he was their master and the one who sent them (v. 16), they were not to think of themselves as being above doing anything that he had done. Thus they were to serve each other, even in doing the most lowly and menial of tasks.

Phil 1:3-7 I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, ⁴*always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy,* ⁵*because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now.* ⁶*And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.* ⁷*It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace,^f both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.*

^f Or you all have fellowship with me in grace

The expression "partakers with me of grace" (v. 7) probably refers to the Philippians sharing with Paul in his work for the gospel. As such Paul would have in view God's grace in both appointing people to this work and enabling them to do it.

Phil 1:27 Only let your manner of life be worthy^g of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, ...

Num 18:2 And with you bring your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may join you and minister to you while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony.

Ezra 3:2, 8-10 Then arose Jeshua the son of Jozadak, with his fellow priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel with his kinsmen, and they built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.  ... ⁸Now in the second year after their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak made a beginning, together with the rest of their kinsmen, the priests and the Levites and all who had come to Jerusalem from the captivity. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to supervise the work of the house of the LORD. ⁹And Jeshua with his sons and his brothers, and Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together supervised the workmen in the house of God, along with the sons of Henadad and the Levites, their sons and brothers. ¹⁰And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments came forward with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the directions of David king of Israel.

Neh 4:6, 16-17a So we built the wall. And all the wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.  ... ¹⁶From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction, and half held the spears, shields, bows, and coats of mail. And the leaders stood behind the whole house of Judah, ¹⁷who were building on the wall.

Those who were armed were to provide protection from enemies who had plotted against the Jews and their efforts to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem (cf. vv. 11-12 ).

Encourage each other in doing God's work

Heb 10:24-25 And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

The encouragement spoken of (v. 25) is applicable to – if not at least in part referring to – spurring or encouraging one another on “to love and good works” (v. 24).

Deut 3:28 But charge Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he shall go over at the head of this people, and he shall put them in possession of the land that you shall see.

2Chr 30:22a And Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good skill in the service of the LORD.

2Chr 35:2 He appointed the priests to their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

Neh 4:10-14 In Judah it was said,^k “The strength of those who bear the burdens is failing. There is too much rubble. By ourselves we will not be able to rebuild the wall.” ¹¹And our enemies said, “They will not know or see till we come among them and kill them and stop the work.” ¹²At that time the Jews who lived near them came from all directions and said to us ten times, “You must return to us.” ¹³So in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in open places, I stationed the people by their clans, with their swords, their spears, and their bows. ¹⁴And I looked and arose and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes.”

^k Hebrew Judah said

^l The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain

In the face of discouragement against rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem from no less than three separate sources (vv. 10-12), Nehemiah takes action (v. 13) and then encourages the people by what he says (v. 14).

2Cor 9:2 ... for I know your readiness, of which I boast about you to the people of Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year. And your zeal has stirred up most of them.

This and the following verse illustrate that we can – and should – encourage others in doing God's work by our example.

Phil 1:14 And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word^m without fear.

Keep each other informed about the work and associated challenges

It is a good practice for Christians to report to their church about their work, with its challenges and accomplishments. As is shown in some of the following verses, it is also helpful to tell other churches about the work.

Acts 14:27 And when they arrived and gathered the church together, they declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.

Acts 15:3-4 So, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and brought great joy to all the brothers.ⁿ ⁴When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they declared all that God had done with them.

ⁿ Or brothers and sisters; also verse 22

Acts 21:17-20a When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. ¹⁸On the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. ²⁰And when they heard it, they glorified God.

Acts 4:23 When they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them.

Here the apostles report the opposition that they had faced in their work for the gospel (cf. Acts 12:17 ↓; Col 4:7-9 ↓).

Acts 12:17 But motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Tell these things to James and to the brothers."^o Then he departed and went to another place.

Acts 13:1-3 Now there were in the church at Antioch prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger,^q Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. ²While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

As well as the sending of Barnabas by the Jerusalem church (v. 22), note that the men from Cyprus and Cyrene (v. 20) may also have been sent out by a church to spread the gospel.

Acts 18:27 And when he wished to cross to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed, ...

The Ephesian church did not actually send out Apollos as such; he had come to Ephesus on his travels in spreading the gospel. But this is an example at least of a church supporting a worker on their journey in spreading the gospel.

2Cor 8:19, 23 And not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us as we carry out this act of grace that is being ministered by us, for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our good will.  ... ²³As for Titus, he is

^s Greek apostles

This speaks of workers sent out by churches primarily to collect and administer the offering collected for the needy believers in Jerusalem. The term “messengers of the churches” (v. 23) probably denotes workers sent out by churches (cf. CEV, NCV).

2Cor 12:18a I urged Titus to go, and sent the brother with him.

1Sam 26:6 Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Joab’s brother Abishai the son of Zeruiah, “Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?” And Abishai said, “I will go down with you.”

This illustrates the usefulness of two people going out on a mission rather than just one.

‡ The advantages of two working and traveling together:

Ecc 4:9-12 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. ¹⁰*For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up!* ¹¹*Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone?* ¹²*And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken*.

Some commentators consider that some of these illustrations have traveling with another primarily in view. The final clause (v. 12) suggests that three “are even better” (NLT) than two, forming a grouping of quite some strength.

God gives each of his people a spiritual gift, through the Holy Spirit 1Cor 7:7 I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own gift from God, one of one kind and one of another.

1Cor 12:4-11 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. ⁷To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. ⁸For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, ⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. 📖

In the light of the context, it appears that the “varieties of activities” (v. 6a) allude to or are associated with the different spiritual gifts (v. 4; cf. v. 5). Thus v. 6b seems to indicate that a spiritual gift is given to each believer – as does vv. 7, 11. Verses 4, 7 indicate that the spiritual gifts are given by or through the Holy Spirit, as is stated in v. 11 and illustrated in vv. 8-10.

Eph 4:7-8 But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. ⁸Therefore it says, “When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men.” 📖

The context (cf. v. 11) indicates that the “grace” (v. 7) given to each believer refers to a spiritual gift or gifts (cf. Rom 12:6 ↓) – which is also indicated by the final clause in v. 8. (Note that here “captives” most likely refers or applies to Christ’s evil spiritual enemies – whom he triumphed over in his death and resurrection, culminating in his ascending “on high” with them subject to him.)

1Pet 4:10 As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God’s varied grace: ... 📖

Heb 2:4 ... while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. 📖

God bore witness to the salvation announced by Jesus Christ (cf. v. 3) in part by bestowing spiritual gifts on believers, distributing the gifts according to his will. The term “gifts of the Holy Spirit” underlines that these spiritual gifts are given through the Holy Spirit.

‡ Timothy received his spiritual gift through a prophetic message when the elders laid hands on him:

1Tim 4:14 Do not neglect the gift you have, which was given you by prophecy when the council of elders laid their hands on you. 📖

In saying that Timothy’s spiritual gift was given “by prophecy”, Paul may have meant it was given in association with such a prophetic message regarding it, at the time the message was spoken (cf. CEV, GNT).

God’s people are given different spiritual gifts

- God’s people are many different parts making up one body “in” Jesus Christ, p. 789

Rom 12:4-6 For as in one body we have many members,^w and the members do not all have the same function, ⁵so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. ⁶*Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us*, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; ... 📖

^w Greek parts; also verse 5

Just as the members of a human body have different functions, so the members of Christ’s body have different spiritual gifts, performing different functions (cf. 1Cor 12:14-24a ↓).

1Cor 12:4-6 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. 📖

The thrust of these verses appears to be that there are different spiritual gifts which are applied in different ways – but they all have a unity in their source, function and purpose.

1Cor 12:29-30 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰*Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?* 📖

The rhetorical questions reinforce Paul’s argument earlier in the chapter (cf. vv. 14-24a ↓), implying that no one particular gift is common to all – believers have different gifts.

‡ The different spiritual gifts are all indispensable:

1Cor 12:14-24a For the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷*If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell?*

¹⁸But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰As it is, there are many parts,^x yet one body. ²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ²²On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, ²⁴which our more presentable parts do not require.

^x Or members; also verse 22

No one should think that their gift is not part of or vital to the body of Christ (vv. 15-16). Like the human body, Christ's body is made up of many different parts, all of which are indispensable – even parts that seem to be of less value or weaker (v. 22). Verse 23 implies that just as the parts of the human body that are less honorable and less attractive (or perhaps less obvious) are given special treatment, similarly those members of Christ's body whose gifts and functions appear unimportant should in fact be given special honor and care. Appearing to be unimportant does not make them any less vital to the ability of the body to function properly.

1Cor 12:8-10 For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, ⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

Broadly speaking, "the utterance of wisdom" and "the utterance of knowledge" (v. 8) quite possibly are respectively "the ability to give wise advice" (NLT) or insight and "the gift of special knowledge" (NLT) – with probably the application and conveying of spiritual truths being particularly in view. The term "faith" (v. 9) does not refer to saving faith, but to exceptional faith or trust in God. The gift of "prophecy" (v. 10) is the communication of a revelation from God, such as a "foretelling" of a future event or a revelation of God's will regarding a certain matter. The gift to distinguish between spirits (v. 10) appears to be the ability to distinguish whether something, such as a prophecy or teaching, is prompted by the Holy Spirit or a demonic spirit. The gift of "various kinds of tongues" (v. 10) or languages is the ability to speak in an unlearned language. Some maintain that these languages are limited to human languages, while others claim that there are also "heavenly" or spiritual languages.

1Cor 12:28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues.

Regarding the term "apostles" (cf. Eph 4:11 ↓), it initially applied just to the twelve disciples. Occasionally others were also referred to as apostles, particularly Paul, who shared with the disciples a call from Jesus Christ to a ministry of evangelizing and teaching as Christ's representative. (Paul was also a witness of his resurrection – seen by many as a requirement for one to be designated an "apostle".) Used in a less strict sense, "apostle" is applied to itinerant workers, who founded and taught new churches. This usage is often applied to modern missionaries. The term "miracles" presumably refers to the gift of being able to perform miracles.

^b Or And tongues as of fire appeared to them, distributed among them, and rested

^c Greek bondservants; twice in this verse

In v. 17, "see visions" and "dream dreams" most likely refer to receiving prophetic revelation from God, particularly with the references to prophecy in the adjacent verses. In talking of prophecy, Peter's words (vv. 16-18) suggest that the earlier speaking in other tongues (vv. 4-11) may have involved prophesying.

Acts 10:45-46a And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶*For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and extolling God.* ...

Acts 19:6 And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. ...

Acts 11:27-28 Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸*And one of them named Agabus stood up and foretold by the Spirit that there would be a great famine over all the world (this took place in the days of Claudius).* ...

The prophet Agabus is also recorded as prophesying in 21:10-11 below.

Acts 21:10-11 While we were staying for many days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹And coming to us, he took Paul's belt and bound his own feet and hands and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, 'This is how the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'" ...

✦ An OT example of the Holy Spirit enabling people to prophesy:

Num 11:25-26 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. And as soon as the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied. But they did not continue doing it. ²⁶Now two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the Spirit rested on them. They were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. ...

Note that the elders appear to have only prophesied on this particular occasion (v. 25b) – rather than being given prophecy as a gift to remain with them. Other OT passages speaking specifically of the Holy Spirit enabling people to prophesy include: 1 Samuel 10:10; 19:19-20, 23; and 2 Chronicles 20:14-17. A NT example prior to Pentecost occurs in Luke 1:67-79, which speaks of the Holy Spirit enabling Zechariah, John the Baptist's father, to prophesy.

Make good use of spiritual gifts, using them appropriately

1Tim 4:14 Do not neglect the gift you have, which was given you by prophecy when the council of elders laid their hands on you. ...

2Tim 1:6 For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, ...

The clause "fan into flame the gift of God" may well be speaking of developing the gift through use. Alternatively it could mean to "keep using" (NCV™) and "keep alive" (GNT) the gift.

Rom 12:6-8 Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; ⁷if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; ⁸the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads,^d with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. ...

^d Or gives aid

With the phrase “in proportion to our faith” (v. 6), Paul may be instructing prophets to speak only messages that they in faith believe are from God. Alternatively it could mean: “use that gift in agreement with the faith” (NCV™), ensuring that the content and usage of apparent prophecy is in agreement with the faith.

1Pet 4:10-11 As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God’s varied grace: ¹¹whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

The first part of v. 11 probably means that those whose ministry largely involves speaking, should rely on God’s help in what they say – speaking in accordance with having words of God.

1Cor 13:1-2 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ²And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

It is pointless exercising a spiritual gift without doing so in love. Note that Paul again links the importance of love with the use of spiritual gifts in 14:1 (in the following subsection).

Use your spiritual gift to build up the church

Eph 4:11-13, 16 And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds^e and teachers,^f ¹²to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood,^g to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ... ¹⁶from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

^e Or pastors

^f Or the shepherd-teachers

^g Greek to a full-grown man

As parts of the body of Christ, believers are to use the gifts they have been given (v. 11) “for the work of ministry” (v. 12a) – each part doing its work (v. 16b) – so that Christ’s body may be built up, growing and maturing (vv. 12b-13, 16a).

1Cor 12:7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

Spiritual gifts are given to believers primarily to be used for the benefit of the whole church.

1Cor 14:1-6, 9, 12-19 Pursue love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy. ²For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to men but to God; for no one understands him, but he utters mysteries in the Spirit. ³On the other hand, the one who prophesies speaks to people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation. ⁴The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. ⁵Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built up. ⁶Now, brothers,^h if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? ... ⁹So with yourselves, if with your tongue you utter speech that is not intelligible, how will anyone know what is said? For you will be speaking into the air. ... ¹²So with yourselves, since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church. ¹³Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also. ¹⁶Otherwise, if you give thanks with your spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsiderⁱ say “Amen” to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying? ¹⁷For you may be giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not being built up. ¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹Nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

^h Or brothers and sisters; also verses 20, 26, 39

ⁱ Or of him that is without gifts

In v. 15 Paul appears to indicate that he – as one who has the gift of speaking in tongues – would use his mind as he both prayed and sang in tongues with his spirit. This would be either so he could interpret what he was saying or to speak intelligible words in addition to other languages. In doing so he would edify and build up the others in the church.

1Cor 14:26-32 What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up. ²⁷If any speak in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn, and let someone interpret. ²⁸But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silent in church and speak to himself and to God. ²⁹Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said. ³⁰If a revelation is made to another sitting there, let the first be silent. ³¹For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged, ³²and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets.

During church meetings everyone was free to contribute through their spiritual gifts, but this was to be done in an orderly fashion (vv. 27-30) – with the exercising of spiritual gifts being controllable (v. 32). The main aim of these instructions was building up the church (v. 26), which involved everyone learning and being encouraged (v. 31).

Further instructions about spiritual gifts

1Cor 12:1 Now concerning^j spiritual gifts,^k brothers,^l I do not want you to be uninformed.

^j The expression Now concerning introduces a reply to a question in the Corinthians' letter; see 7:1

^k Or spiritual persons

^l Or brothers and sisters

Do not be uninformed about spiritual gifts – or misinformed (cf. AMP, NLT).

1Cor 12:28, 31a And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues.  ... ³¹But earnestly desire the higher gifts.

In view of v. 28, the "higher gifts" (v. 31a) probably primarily refers to prophecy in particular (cf. 1Cor 14:1, 39 ↓) and also teaching.

1Cor 14:1, 39 Pursue love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy.  ... ³⁹So, my brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

1Thes 5:19-20 Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰Do not despise prophecies, ...

The use of spiritual gifts in corporate worship and meetings is most likely in view. The Thessalonians were not to stifle the Holy Spirit's work by restricting the expression of spiritual gifts.

Other insights concerning spiritual gifts

1Cor 1:4-7 I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵that in every way you were enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge— ⁶even as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you— ⁷so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ...

Here "you" is referring to the Corinthian church as a whole, among whom there was no spiritual gift lacking (v. 7). Particularly in the light of v. 7, Paul also quite probably has spiritual gifts primarily in view in v. 5. One can infer from these verses that, as they grow, God equips each of his churches with all spiritual gifts. Note that v. 6 is probably meaning that Paul's testimony to them about Christ was confirmed by them receiving the blessings in question.

1Cor 13:8 Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.

In contrast to love, there will come a time when spiritual gifts will cease. Presumably the afterlife is in view.

1Cor 14:21-25 In the Law it is written, "By people of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners will I speak to this people, and even then they will not listen to me, says the Lord." ²²Thus tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is a sign^m not for unbelievers but for believers. ²³If, therefore, the whole church comes together and all speak in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are out of your minds? ²⁴But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or outsider enters, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all, ²⁵the secrets of his heart are disclosed, and so, falling on his face, he will worship God and declare that God is really among you.

^m Greek lacks a sign

The apparent conflict between v. 22 and vv. 23-25 may be due to a difference between the unbelievers referred to in v. 22 and the unbelievers who are coupled with "outsiders" (v. 23; cf. v. 24). The unbelievers of v. 22 may be ones who have rejected the truth and turned their backs on God (cf. v. 21b). Tongues are indicative of coming judgment for them just as the "strange tongues" were a sign of judgment for the Israelites (v. 21). In conjunction with this, the latter unbelievers – along with outsiders or inquirers – may be open to the gospel message and it is for them that prophesying rather than tongues is pertinent.

I. Symbolic Rites

Baptism and the Lord's Supper are considered by many churches to be the Christian rites or sacraments. "Sacrament" comes from a Latin term meaning "military oath". The sacraments are often spoken of as being an outward sign with an inner significance. They are practiced by churches in worship ceremonies. Circumcision was also a rite practiced by God's people, under the first covenant, but has no such relevance under the second covenant.

a) Baptism

The Greek translated as "baptism" denotes washing in water. Opinions differ as to whether baptism need necessarily involve full immersion in water, as opposed to simply pouring or sprinkling water on the person being baptized.

Being baptized in – or into (cf. Gal 3:27 ↴; Rom 6:3 ↴) – the "name" of Jesus Christ, is in part a declaration of our identification and relationship with Jesus Christ, and their commitment or allegiance to him. This explanation reflects both the meaning of the Latin from which "sacrament" comes (i.e. military oath) and the concept of being united with him (discussed in the following subsection).

Acts 2:38 And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 📖

Acts 8:14-16 Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, ¹⁵who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, ¹⁶for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 📖

Note that an explanation as to why these Gentiles did not receive the Holy Spirit until some time after their apparent conversion is offered in Examples of people receiving the Holy Spirit, p. 835.

Acts 10:47-48 "Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" ⁴⁸And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days. 📖

Acts 19:5 On hearing this, they were baptized in^a the name of the Lord Jesus. 📖

^a Or into

1Cor 1:13-15 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? ¹⁴I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one may say that you were baptized in my name. 📖

In pointing out to the Corinthians that they were not baptized into his name, Paul alludes to baptism involving one being baptized into the name of Jesus Christ.

✚ Jesus said to baptize people "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit":

Matt 28:19-20 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in^b the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. 📖

^b Or into

In view of the oneness of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, baptizing people in the name of Jesus Christ is effectively the same as what Jesus speaks of here.

Baptism into Jesus Christ signifies being united with him – with the corresponding implications

Rom 6:2-5 By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? ³Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴*We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.* ⁵*For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.* 📖

Being “baptized into Christ” (v. 3) signifies the spiritual union of the believer with Christ. This being so, Paul draws parallels between baptism and other aspects of this spiritual union. Paul appears to parallel one’s immersion at baptism, with being immersed in death with Christ in his death (vv. 3-4a, 5a). As such, baptism portrays the death of our old self which was enslaved to sin (cf. vv. 6-7), and so a death to sin (v. 2). Subsequently baptism symbolizes one being raised up in union with Christ to live a new spiritual life (vv. 4b, 5b). Colossians 2:11-12 below similarly speaks of baptism as signifying the removal of our old sinful selves (v. 11) and being raised with Christ (v. 12).

Col 2:11-12 In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, ¹²having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. 📖

Gal 3:27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 📖

The expression “baptized into Christ” (v. 27; cf. Rom 6:3 ↑) appears to have a similar sense as being baptized into the “name” of Christ, as per the previous subsection. But not all commentators would agree that here (and in Romans 6:2-5 below) the expression is referring to water baptism. Assuming that it does, the verse is not teaching that water baptism itself brings us “into Christ”. Rather it is quite possibly speaking of baptism signifying this; i.e. that baptism signifies being united with Christ – “clothed” (GNT, NASB, NCV, NIV, NRSV) with or “placed” into him in a spiritual sense. Alternatively, “put on Christ” could instead refer to being “made like him” (NLT). The suggestion may then be that baptism signifies one being made like Christ.

✦ In the Holy Spirit believers are “baptized” into the body of Christ:

1Cor 12:12-13 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³*For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body*—Jews or Greeks, slaves^c or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. 📖

^c Or servants; Greek bondservants

In receiving the Holy Spirit (v. 13b), believers are in a spiritual sense “baptized” by the Holy Spirit into the body of Christ – which involves being united spiritually with Jesus Christ (and other believers) as members of his body. While this does not refer to water baptism, it is understood to be signified by water baptism. (For further comment see . . . Receiving the Holy Spirit is sometimes spoken of as being “baptized” with the Holy Spirit, p. 1441.)

Baptism signifies belief

Baptism is a declaration and confirmation of belief.

Mark 16:16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. 📖

This appears to closely link belief and baptism, suggesting that the latter signifies the former – as do the following verses.

Acts 2:41 So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls. 📖

Acts 8:12-13a But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. ¹³*Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip.* 📖

Acts 8:35-38 Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus. ³⁶*And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?”^d* ³⁸*And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.* 📖

^d Some manuscripts add all or most of verse 37: And Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” And he replied, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”

This passage correlates baptism with belief – and even more so if the text in the text note is accepted. Note that the text in the text note is included by some translations as v. 37.

Acts 16:14-15 One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. ¹⁵And after she was baptized, and her household as well, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay.” And she prevailed upon us.

Acts 16:31-34 And they said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.” ³²And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. ³³And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. ³⁴Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.

Acts 18:8b And many of the Corinthians hearing Paul believed and were baptized.

Acts 19:4-5 And Paul said, “John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus.” ⁵*On hearing this, they were baptized in^e the name of the Lord Jesus*.

^e Or into

Paul’s hearers had believed (cf. vv. 1-2).

Baptism signifies the washing away of sins

Baptism, the external washing in water, symbolizes one being internally (or spiritually) washed and cleansed of one’s sins.

Acts 2:38 And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

In speaking of baptism along with repentance (from sin) and forgiveness of sins, this at least reflects the assertion that baptism signifies the washing away of sins.

Acts 22:16 And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name.

This should not be interpreted to mean that baptism in itself brings the forgiveness of sin. As noted above, the external washing in water is symbolic of one’s spiritual cleansing.

1Cor 6:9-11 Or do you not know that the unrighteous^f will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality,^g ¹⁰nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹*And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified* in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

^f Or wrongdoers

^g The two Greek terms translated by this phrase refer to the passive and active partners in consensual homosexual acts

Possibly “washed” alludes to baptism and so would here be pointing to baptism signifying cleansing, with the accompanying forgiveness of sin. Although forgiveness of sin is not specifically mentioned, it is certainly in view with Paul speaking of the formerly ungodly Corinthians (vv. 9-11a) as now being “sanctified” and “justified” (v. 11b).

Titus 3:5 ... he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, ...

Some consider “washing” here to allude to water baptism, but this is not necessarily the case (cf. CEV, GNT). If it is alluding to water baptism, it would be as that which symbolizes the divinely effected “washing” or cleansing from sin that occurs when one is spiritually reborn, having died to one’s former sinful ways. Such washing points to the removal of and forgiveness of sin.

Heb 10:22 ... let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

The clause “our bodies washed with pure water” may be a reference to baptism as signifying being cleansed from sin – hence the verse’s inclusion here. However, more often it is seen simply as a reference to being cleansed by Jesus’ sacrifice (cf. v. 19). As with the earlier phrase “hearts sprinkled clean”, the expression appears to draw a parallel with the washing of the priests under the old covenant (cf. v. 21) – and so not necessarily a reference to baptism.

1Pet 3:20-21 ... because^h they formerly did not obey, when God’s patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. ²¹*Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience*, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ...

^h Or when

Baptism is not simply about the removal of dirt from the body, but its washing in water has a deeper meaning, signifying the removal of sin from one’s inner self. In keeping with this, by being baptized one effectively makes “an appeal to God for a good conscience”. In subsequently living accordingly, we are saved by Christ’s resurrection – the significance of which, baptism is in a sense an acknowledgement.

Baptism signifies or is linked with receiving the Holy Spirit . . .

ⁱ Greek upper (that is, highland)

^j Or into

This correlates baptism with receiving the Holy Spirit. But it is not necessarily indicating that these disciples (v. 1) had not received the Holy Spirit because they had not been baptized into the name of Jesus. A number of commentators think that these disciples were disciples of John the Baptist (cf. v. 3) and had only a limited understanding of the gospel. Verses 4b-5 may well mean that it was only at this point that Jesus became the focus of their faith – which would explain why they received the Holy Spirit here rather than beforehand.

John 3:5 Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.”

There are a number of interpretations as to what “water” refers to, one of which is water baptism. Being “born of... the Spirit” probably refers to receiving the Holy Spirit. As such – if John the Baptist’s baptism for repentance is not primarily in view – the verse would associate baptism with receiving the Holy Spirit. Other possibilities as to what “water” denotes are: spiritual cleansing; physical birth; an allusion to the role of the Holy Spirit (cf. John 7:37-39); and God’s word (cf. Eph 5:26; 1Pet 1:23).

. . . Receiving the Holy Spirit is sometimes spoken of as being “baptized” with the Holy Spirit

The receiving of the Holy Spirit is on occasions referred to as being baptized with the Holy Spirit. This reflects the link between baptism and receiving the Holy Spirit, spoken of in the previous subsection.

Matt 3:11 I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Note that “fire” may well be referring to Jesus Christ’s judgment on the wicked – particularly in light of the reference in v. 12 to him burning up “the chaff ... with unquenchable fire.” However some see it as referring to the purification associated with the aforementioned baptism with the Holy Spirit. Possibly the “tongues of fire” that came with the initial outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (cf. Acts 2:3-4) could also or instead be in view.

Acts 1:5, 8 ... for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with^k the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”
...⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.

^k Or in

The fulfillment of the prophecy that the apostles would be “baptized with the Holy Spirit” (v. 5) occurs in the subsequent chapter: “And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.” (2:4)

Acts 11:15-16 As I began to speak, *the Holy Spirit fell on them just as on us at the beginning.*¹⁶And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’

1Cor 12:13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves¹ or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

The segment “in one Spirit we were all baptized” refers to the cleansing and renewal effected by the Holy Spirit in new believers. It is akin to phrases such as “baptized with the Holy Spirit”. The final clause clearly speaks of believers receiving the Holy Spirit (cf. NLT).

✦ The Holy Spirit alighted on Jesus immediately following his baptism:

Matt 3:13-17 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by him. ¹⁴John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?” ¹⁵But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented. ¹⁶And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him,^m and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; ¹⁷and behold, a voice from heaven said, “This is my beloved Son,ⁿ with whom I am well pleased.”

^m Some manuscripts omit to him

ⁿ Or my Son, my (or the) Beloved

This passage – and passages in this and the previous subsection – should not be interpreted to mean that people only receive the Holy Spirit on being baptized. For Jesus’ baptism was at least partially to signify him being set apart for God’s work – and his anointment with the Holy Spirit was probably more to do with the commencement of his ministry than his actual baptism. Furthermore John’s baptism had a different emphasis to the baptism practiced by the early church and today. Moreover, in some of the passages in this and the preceding subsection, the receiving of the Holy Spirit occurs before baptism, clearly not as a result of it.

Note that the clause “to fulfill all righteousness” (v. 15) probably means something like “to fulfill God’s will”, with God’s will in regard to Jesus’ mission being primarily in view. As to why Jesus being baptized was God’s will, a number of explanations have been given. In addition to it signifying Jesus being set apart for God’s work, possibly by it Jesus was identifying himself either with sinners or with the new or renewed people of God (cf. NBC), i.e. those who had been turning to God in repentance through John’s ministry.

Further notes on baptism

1Cor 1:16-17 (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) ¹⁷For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with words of eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

The priority which Paul gives to the gospel reflects the fact that salvation comes through the gospel not baptism itself, the latter simply signifying a positive response to the former.

1Cor 15:29 Otherwise, what do people mean by being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf?

Here Paul refers to people being baptized on behalf of dead people to validate his argument for the resurrection, without approving or disapproving of this obscure practice. Note that he only refers to other people doing this, not himself or his co-workers.

Eph 4:4-5 There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ...

There is only one rite of baptism for God’s people – a once and for all baptism in the name of Jesus Christ.

Note: John the Baptist’s baptism, for repentance

John’s baptism had a different emphasis and significance to the water baptism practiced later by the early Church and in the Church today, which has aspects of the gospel in view that had not been revealed at the commencement of John’s ministry. John baptized people primarily for repentance. John’s baptism was also an integral part of his ministry in revealing Jesus Christ (cf. Matt 3:11 ↓; Acts 19:4 ↓; John 1:31 ↓).

Matt 3:11 I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

John’s words suggest that his water baptism would be superseded by the baptism done by the Christ.

Mark 1:4-5 John appeared, baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵And all the country of Judea and all Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

Note that v. 4 speaks of repentance for the forgiveness of sins – which was also a common theme of the OT prophets.

Acts 13:24 Before his coming, John had proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

Acts 19:4 And Paul said, “John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus.”

John’s baptism was to demonstrate a person’s commitment to repent (cf. NLT) – to turn away from their sins and turn to God. John’s ministry, with his baptism of repentance, was preparatory to Jesus Christ’s ministry (cf. John 1:31 ↓) – with John emphasizing the need to deal with sin and to believe in Jesus Christ (v. 4b), whom would fully realize forgiveness of sins.

Luke 7:29-30 (When all the people heard this, and the tax collectors too, they declared God just,^o having been baptized with the baptism of John,³⁰ but the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.)

^o Greek they justified God

The people acknowledged the rightness of God’s way for them – which encompassed “calling them to repentance” (AMP); accordingly they were baptized by John. In contrast their religious leaders “rejected the purpose of God for themselves” (v. 30) as they did not submit themselves to being baptized by John and embrace the repentance that it signified.

‡ John’s baptizing and ministry was preparatory to the emergence of Jesus and his ministry:

John 1:31-33 I myself did not know him, but *for this purpose I came baptizing with water, that he might be revealed to Israel.*³² And John bore witness: “I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. ³³*I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’*

In vv. 32-33 John effectively bears witness to Jesus being the awaited Christ, in conjunction with his purpose of revealing Jesus (v. 31). Note that v. 33 refers to God sending John to baptize.

b) The Lord’s Supper

The Lord’s Supper is regularly practiced in churches. It primarily symbolizes and commemorates Jesus Christ’s death for us. The breaking of the bread symbolizes the breaking of his body, and the pouring out of the wine symbolizes the pouring out of his blood. Eating of the bread and drinking of the wine is in part a declaration of our own belief in Christ’s death and its implications – and correspondingly signifies our participation in the forgiveness and other outcomes that it made possible.

Observe the Lord’s Supper – in remembrance of Jesus Christ and his death

Matt 26:26-28 Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.” ²⁷*And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, “Drink of it, all of you, ²⁸for this is my blood of the^p covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.*

^p Some manuscripts insert new

Luke 22:19-20 And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” ²⁰*And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, “This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.”*

^q Some manuscripts omit, in whole or in part, verses 19b-20 (which is given . . . in my blood)

“This cup . . . is the new covenant in my blood” (v. 20; cf. Matt 26:28 †; 1Cor 11:25 ↓) speaks of Jesus Christ’s blood, shed in his death, introducing the new relationship – or covenant – between God and his people. In part at least this was achieved by his death bringing forgiveness for the sins of God’s people. The shedding of his blood inaugurated the new covenant and ratified or sealed it (cf. AMP, GNT, NCV, NLT) – just as the sprinkling of “the blood of the covenant” by Moses ceremonially confirmed the old covenant (cf. Ex 24:5-8).

1Cor 11:23-25 For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, ²⁴*and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for^r you. Do this in remembrance of me."* ²⁵*In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."*

^r Some manuscripts broken for

^s Or as my memorial; also verse 25

Acts 20:7 On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight. ☞

The phrase "break bread" appears to refer to the observance of the Lord's Supper (but not all commentators would agree). As such this would illustrate that the Lord's Supper was practiced in the early church, from which one can infer that it should likewise be practiced in today's church.

✦ In observing the Lord's Supper we proclaim Jesus' death:

1Cor 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. ☞

This indicates that the purpose of the Lord's Supper is not only to serve as a reminder to ourselves, but also to proclaim Jesus' death (with its implications) to others. By practicing it we are "telling others about the Lord's death" (NCV™; cf. CEV, NLT).

Participating in the Lord's Supper also symbolizes participating in the blood and body of Jesus Christ

Participating in the blood and body of Christ is understood to symbolize one's participation in the redemption brought by Jesus' death. Additionally it appears to point to participating in the church as the body of Christ. Note that one could argue that the references in the preceding subsection to eating the bread as the body of Christ and drinking the wine as the blood of Christ, also allude to participating in the body and blood of Christ.

1Cor 10:16-17 The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? ¹⁷Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. ☞

The two rhetorical questions in v. 16 appear to imply that drinking from the cup and eating of the bread – in addition to remembering Jesus Christ and his death – symbolize one's participation in what Christ's death accomplished, i.e. forgiveness and thus salvation. However, in view of v. 17, the second rhetorical question may well additionally or alternatively mean that eating from the one loaf of bread symbolizes one being part of and participating in Christ's body, the church.

1Cor 11:27, 29 Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. ☞ ... ²⁹*For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself.* ☞

The phrases "the body and blood of the Lord" (v. 27) and "the body" (v. 29) probably refer to Jesus' sacrifice of himself – along with what this accomplished – but some would contend that his body the church is also or alternatively in view (as per 10:16-17 above and the comment there). To participate in the Lord's Supper is to symbolically and spiritually participate in these things, and one must take part appropriately in recognition of this – as is emphasized below in Do not participate in the Lord's Supper in an unworthy manner.

✦ The need to "feed" on Christ for everlasting life:

John 6:33, 35, 47-58 For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. ☞ ... ³⁵*Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst.* ☞ ... ⁴⁷*Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life.* ⁴⁸*I am the bread of life.* ⁴⁹*Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.* ⁵⁰*This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.* ⁵¹*I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.*" ⁵²*The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"* ⁵³*So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.* ⁵⁴*Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.* ⁵⁵*For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.* ⁵⁶*Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.* ⁵⁷*As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me.* ⁵⁸*This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like the bread^t the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever."* ☞

^t Greek lacks the bread

Here Jesus speaks of himself as the source of everlasting, spiritual life – whom all need to partake of in order to obtain this life. (For further comment, see Through Jesus Christ we can have eternal life as opposed to death, p. 614.) Some see in this passage a link with the Lord's Supper. As such they see participation in the Lord's Supper as indicative of the truth that we need to "feed" on Christ for life.

Further insights on the Lord's Supper

Matt 26:29 I tell you I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

It can be inferred from this that celebrating the Lord's Supper (cf. vv. 26-28) also looks forward to communing anew with Christ in the consummated kingdom.

Acts 2:42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

This verse and 1 Corinthians 11:26 (immediately below) suggest that the Lord's Supper should be practiced regularly. Note that Acts 20:7a – above in Observe the Lord's Supper – in remembrance of Jesus Christ and his death – raises the possibility that the early church regularly did this on Sundays.

1Cor 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1Cor 5:7 Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.

Paul is drawing a parallel here between the sacrifice of Jesus Christ (with the resultant salvation) and the sacrificial lamb of the Passover meal (which signified the deliverance/salvation from Egypt). Particularly in light of this parallel, by instituting the observance of "the Lord's Supper" at a Passover meal (cf. Matt 26:17-19, 26-28), Jesus himself may have been intimating a parallel between it and the Jewish Passover meal. As such, observing the Lord's Supper similarly celebrates and signifies God's salvation – but a greater, ultimate salvation effected through Jesus Christ.

Do not participate in the Lord's Supper in an unworthy manner

1Cor 11:20-22 When you come together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. ²¹*For in eating, each one goes ahead with his own meal. One goes hungry, another gets drunk*. ²²*What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise* the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you in this? No, I will not.

Early churches often ate a celebratory meal – later known as the Agape (or Love) Feast – prior to and in conjunction with observing the Lord's Supper. The practice was open to abuse as was the case with the Corinthians, with rich people bringing and selfishly consuming much while others went hungry.

1Cor 11:27-34a Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸*Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup*. ²⁹*For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself*. ³⁰*That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died*.^u ³¹*But if we judged^v ourselves truly, we would not be judged*. ³²*But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined^w so that we may not be condemned along with the world*. ³³*So then, my brothers,^x when you come together to eat, wait for^y one another—³⁴if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home—so that when you come together it will not be for judgment*.

^u Greek have fallen asleep (as in 15:6, 20)

^v Or discerned

^w Or when we are judged we are being disciplined by the Lord

^x Or brothers and sisters

^y Or share with

The instruction to "examine" oneself before participating in the Lord's Supper (v. 28) is effectively reiterated in the reference in v. 31 to judging ourselves. It refers primarily to examining the manner in which one is approaching the Lord's Supper (v. 28), so as to not do so in a flippant, unworthy manner (vv. 21, 27), not bearing in mind its significance (v. 29). Paul may also have in view the need – in preparing to participate – to examine the right state of ourselves before God, examining our hearts for unconfessed sin.

‡ One cannot participate in pagan feasts as well as the Lord's Supper:

1Cor 10:18-22 Consider the people of Israel:^z are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? ¹⁹*What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?* ²⁰*No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons*. ²¹*You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons*. ²²*Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?*

^z Greek Consider Israel according to the flesh

Sacrifices are an act of worship of the one to whom they are made. In v. 18 Paul refers to some kinds of OT sacrifices where those who brought the sacrifices also ate of the sacrifices. This signified participation in the worship of God, as the one to whom the sacrifices were made. In the same way, by eating and so participating in pagan feasts involving sacrifices to idols, which are in fact made to demons, one takes part in the worship of demons. This is clearly incompatible with participation in the Lord's Supper.

c) Circumcision: Its Needlessness

Circumcision of males is the cutting off of the foreskin. Jewish males undergo circumcision in keeping with both God's covenant with Abraham (their ancestor), and God's covenant and law for Israel, i.e. the Mosaic Law.

In regard to God's covenant and law for Israel, being circumcised signifies one's adherence to the law – on which the covenant was based – as the way to righteousness. This is in contrast to and at odds with the way of faith in Jesus Christ, which God introduced in conjunction with the new covenant.

Circumcision was the sign of God's covenant with Abraham – and included in the Mosaic Law

Gen 17:7-14 And I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. ⁸And I will give to you and to your offspring after you the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession, and I will be their God." ⁹And God said to Abraham, "As for you, you shall keep my covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations. ¹⁰*This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your offspring after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised.* ¹¹*You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.* ¹²*He who is eight days old among you shall be circumcised. Every male throughout your generations, whether born in your house or bought with your money from any foreigner who is not of your offspring,* ¹³*both he who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money, shall surely be circumcised. So shall my covenant be in your flesh an everlasting covenant.* ¹⁴*Any uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."*

Acts 7:8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day, and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

Lev 12:1-3 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²"Speak to the people of Israel, saying, 'If a woman conceives and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days. As at the time of her menstruation, she shall be unclean. ³And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised."

John 7:22-23 Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. ²³*If on the Sabbath a man receives circumcision, so that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because on the Sabbath I made a man's whole body well?*

† Jesus was circumcised:

Luke 2:21 And at the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Note that earlier (cf. 1:59) Luke also tells of John the Baptist being circumcised.

Circumcision does not bring salvation

The following passages show that circumcision does not bring salvation nor various aspects of salvation, in particular:

justification (Rom 3:29-30); righteousness (Rom 4:9-12); and the gift of the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:45).

Acts 15:1-2, 5-11 But some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."² And after Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders about this question. ¶ ...⁵ But some believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees rose up and said, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to order them to keep the law of Moses."⁶ The apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider this matter.⁷ And after there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe.⁸ And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us,⁹ and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith.¹⁰ Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?¹¹ But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will." ¶

Peter's argument in vv. 7-11 is basically as follows. God had shown that he saved Gentiles, despite the fact that they were not circumcised (vv. 7-9). So therefore the Jewish believers should not insist that the Gentiles be circumcised and so impose on them the "yoke" of the law as the means to salvation, which had proved futile for the Jews (v. 10). For it is by grace that all are saved – not by the law (v. 11), which circumcision signifies adherence to. Note Galatians 2:1-3 also tells of the apostles in Jerusalem not insisting on circumcision for non-Jewish believers, with Paul recalling in v. 3: "But even Titus, who was with me, was not forced to be circumcised, though he was a Greek."

Rom 3:29-30 Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,³⁰ since God is one—who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. ¶

God justifies people by faith – quite apart from whether or not they are circumcised.

Rom 4:5-12 And to the one who does not work but believes in^a him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness,⁶ just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works:⁷ "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered;⁸ blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin."⁹ Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness.¹⁰ How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised.¹¹ He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well,¹² and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. ¶

^a Or but trusts; compare verse 24

Having been credited by faith as righteous before he was circumcised (vv. 9-11a), Abraham is the "spiritual father" (NLT) or predecessor of all who by faith are credited as righteous – forgiven of their sins (vv. 7-8) – irrespective of whether or not they have been circumcised (vv. 11b-12).

Acts 10:45 And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. ¶

This verse illustrates that receiving the Holy Spirit has nothing to do with being circumcised. Otherwise, as is implied, such Gentile believers – who would not have been circumcised – would not have received the Holy Spirit.

✦ The way of circumcision is in fact contrary to that of Christ and grace:

Gal 5:1-4, 11 For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.² Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you.³ I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law.⁴ You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified^b by the law; you have fallen away from grace. ¶ ...¹¹ But if I, brothers,^c still preach^d circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been removed. ¶

^b Or counted righteous

^c Or brothers and sisters; also verse 13

^d Greek proclaim

In v. 1, "do not submit again to a yoke of slavery" refers to obeying the law as a means of obtaining justification. Being circumcised would signify that one had contracted to do this. Paul strongly exhorts the Galatians not to be circumcised, as it would obligate them to obey the whole law to be justified – a position incompatible with salvation through grace, meaning Christ's work would be of no value to them (vv. 2, 4). In v. 11 Paul further highlights the incompatibility of the way of circumcision and that of Christ's death – the latter being offensive to those advocating circumcision, which had led them to persecute Paul.

For believers, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is of any consequence 1Cor 7:18-19 Was anyone at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision. ¹⁹For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God.

Note that this and the following verses from Galatians underline circumcision's lack of importance by concluding with a reference to an aspect of the faith that in contrast really "counts".

Gal 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love.

Gal 6:15 For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

Col 3:11 Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave,^e free; but Christ is all, and in all.

^e Greek bondservant

In the new life in Christ, distinctions that were previously considered significant – such as that between circumcised and uncircumcised – are no longer important.

† Circumcision is only of any value if you observe the law:

Rom 2:25-27 For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. ²⁶So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded^f as circumcision? ²⁷Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code^g and circumcision but break the law.

^f Or counted

^g Or the letter

Circumcision symbolizes adherence to the law. Apart from observing the law, the symbol alone is useless. One can infer from this that circumcision in itself is of no value. This is because all people break the law and so therefore those who are circumcised become as though they have not been circumcised (v. 25). Furthermore, if any uncircumcised people were able to keep the law's requirements, they would be regarded as though they were circumcised (v. 26) – in a sense giving them the right to condemn any circumcised person who failed to keep the law and so failed to live up to their implied standing (v. 27).

It is our hearts that must be circumcised – as is ultimately accomplished by God

Circumcision of the heart involves changing to become responsive to God. It involves "cutting off" the rigidity of sin from a person's heart.

Deut 10:16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn.

Jer 4:4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds.

"Circumcise yourselves to the LORD" may mean much the same as "remove the foreskin of your hearts" – i.e. "Cleanse your minds and hearts before the Lord" (NLT). Alternatively it could be referring to the people dedicating themselves to the LORD (cf. GNT, NCV), in conjunction with such cleansing.

Jer 9:25-26 "Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will punish all those who are circumcised merely in the flesh— ²⁶Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the desert who cut the corners of their hair, for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart."

Deut 30:6 And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.

Note that this and the following verses point to the fact that our hearts are circumcised ultimately by God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

Col 2:11-12 In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, ¹²having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead.

This speaks of the circumcision of cutting off one's sinful nature (v. 11; cf. NLT) – which is essentially the same as circumcision of the heart.

Rom 2:28-29 For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. ²⁹But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. 📖

‡ Aspects of true, inner circumcision:

Phil 3:3 For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God^h and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— 📖

^h Some manuscripts God in spirit

True, inner, spiritual circumcision involves such things as worshiping by the Holy Spirit and exulting in Jesus Christ and what he has accomplished for us. It also involves not putting any confidence in external circumcision, to gain any righteousness of our own making through the law (cf. v. 9).

Denunciation of people advocating circumcision

Acts 15:5, 10 But some believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees rose up and said, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to order them to keep the law of Moses." 📖 ... [Peter:] ¹⁰Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? 📖

Gal 5:11-12 But if I, brothers,ⁱ still preach^j circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been removed. ¹²*I wish those who unsettle you would emasculate themselves!* 📖

ⁱ Or brothers and sisters; also verse 13

^j Greek proclaim

Gal 6:12-13 It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh who would force you to be circumcised, and only in order that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³For even those who are circumcised do not themselves keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. 📖

Advocating circumcision helped those whom Paul is denouncing here to avoid persecution from the Jews (cf. Gal 5:11 †) for maintaining that Jesus' death alone provided the means for salvation (v. 12). Having the Galatians circumcised would also boost their standing before the Jews (v. 13b). Additionally, Paul may have in view in the final clause that it would also provide them with their own followers amongst the Galatians (cf. NLT).

Phil 3:2 Look out for the dogs, look out for the evildoers, look out for those who mutilate the flesh. 📖

Titus 1:10-11 For there are many who are insubordinate, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision party. ¹¹*They must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for shameful gain what they ought not to teach.* 📖

II. Other Significant Practices

It is important for each Christian to understand all significant church practices. The practice of confessing Jesus Christ is one such practice that we need to understand – and be prepared to do. The weekly Sabbath is to some extent ignored by a lot of Christians, many seeing it as not relevant in the new covenant – but many evangelical theologians would “beg to differ”. Reasons both for and against observing it are included in this section. Fasting, when undertaken with a godly focus, is a significant practice that is a very valuable supplement to such things as prayer and worship. The laying on of hands is a further common practice, and so we should also be familiar with its significance and use in the Bible.

a) Confession of Jesus Christ

The NT speaks of confessing or acknowledging Jesus Christ. Usually it is implicit or suggested – as the word “confess” implies – that this is done in the presence of others. Confessing Jesus Christ is an expression of allegiance to him, as Lord, and involves stating what one believes about him. It is often done formally at one’s baptism and corporately in church with the recital of creeds or “confessions”. In addition, many Christians will experience times in which they should acknowledge Jesus Christ and their faith in him before unbelievers – often at the cost or risk of being persecuted. Such a situation is in view in a number of the verses in this section.

Confess Jesus Christ, before others

Luke 12:8 And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, ...

Note that where it occurs in verses throughout this section, the Greek translated in the ESV as “acknowledge” or “acknowledges” is at times translated as “confess” or “confesses” in other Bible translations – as is the case with this verse (cf. AMP, NASB, NKJV).

1Tim 6:12 Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

This most likely is referring to the occasion of Timothy’s baptism, when he would have confessed his belief in Jesus Christ before numerous witnesses.

2Tim 2:19 But God’s firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: “The Lord knows those who are his,” and, “Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity.”

The expression “names the name of the Lord” may well be referring to confessing the name of the Lord (cf. NIV), hence the verse’s inclusion here. The “firm foundation” most likely refers to either God’s truth or the church. Despite the efforts of the false teachers (cf. vv. 16-18), God’s solid foundation stands firm. The foundation is sealed with two complementary facets of the faith, referred to by the two quotations. The first points to God’s firm hold on those who are his. The second speaks of naming or confessing Jesus Christ as a key aspect of what identifies and affirms a person as truly being one of God’s people.

Heb 3:1 Therefore, holy brothers,^a you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, ...

^a Or brothers and sisters; also verse 12

Heb 13:15 Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name.

Note that here the phrase “acknowledge his name” could be referring to confessing God’s name instead of Jesus Christ’s name.

‡ Confessing Jesus Christ can be costly:

John 12:42 Nevertheless, many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue; ...

Here “confess it” has in view the fact that those referred to “believed in him”, Jesus Christ. As such this illustrates that confessing Jesus Christ involves confessing that one believes in him. Note that the penalty of being expelled from the synagogue is also mentioned in John 9:22 in the following sub-section.

Things to confess (or acknowledge) about Jesus Christ

John 9:22 (His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Jesus^b to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue.) 📖

^b Greek him

1Cor 12:3 Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says “Jesus is accursed!” and no one can say “Jesus is Lord” except in the Holy Spirit. 📖

Believers confess (cf. GNT) or acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord (cf. Phil 2:9-11 ↓), enabled to do so by the Holy Spirit (cf. 1Jn 4:2-3a ↓).

Phil 2:9-11 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. 📖

1Jn 4:2-3a By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, ³and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. 📖

Believers confess that Jesus Christ came “in the flesh”, i.e. as a human being. (Note that 2 John 7 similarly refers to people “who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh”.) Regarding the use of “spirit”, here it refers to the spirit influencing a person to either acknowledge Jesus Christ and his humanity or not – indicative of whether the “spirit” is the Holy Spirit or an evil one.

1Jn 4:15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 📖

Note that John appears to be saying that confessing that Jesus is the Son of God is evidence of one’s existing intimate relationship with God.

2Cor 9:13 By their approval of this service, they^c will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others, ... 📖

^c Or you

This suggests that believers confess or acknowledge as true what the gospel message teaches about Jesus Christ – in effect all that the NT states about him.

✚ An early Christian creed, confessing key truths about Jesus Christ:

1Tim 3:16 Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness: He^d was manifested in the flesh, vindicated^e by the Spirit,^f seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory. 📖

^d Greek Who; some manuscripts God; others Which

^e Or justified

^f Or vindicated in spirit

The phrase “vindicated by the Spirit” seems to be referring to the Holy Spirit empowering Jesus to perform miracles and in particular to the Spirit’s role in his resurrection – thus vindicating Jesus and his claims. The reference to Jesus Christ being “seen by angels” most likely refers to their witness to his earthly mission, primarily to his resurrection and ascension.

Examples of people making confessions about Jesus Christ

Matt 14:33 And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.” 📖

Matt 16:16 Simon Peter replied, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” 📖

John 1:49 Nathanael answered him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!” 📖

The term “the King of Israel” – as with “the Holy One of God” (John 6:69 ↓) – is a title of the Christ or Messiah.

John 6:69 ... and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God. 📖

John 11:27 She said to him, “Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world.” 📖

John 20:28 Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” 📖

Thomas appears to confess Jesus not just as being Lord generally, but as being his Lord on a personal level. Strikingly Thomas also confesses Jesus as being his God.

† Jesus made a confession about himself before Pilate:

1Tim 6:13 I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, ...

‡ Or in the time of John records Jesus' conversation with Pilate (cf. John 18:33-37) in which Jesus affirmed that he was a king – a reference to being the Messiah. Paul may have John's account in view here. Note that a number of times elsewhere in the gospels Jesus makes statements about himself that are in effect confessions.

Outcomes of confessing Jesus Christ

Matt 10:32 So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, ...

Jesus Christ's acknowledgment before God and God's angels (cf. Luke 12:8 ↓) of those who acknowledge him, presumably involves him acknowledging or declaring at the final judgment that they belong to him and so are to be accepted into God's kingdom.

Luke 12:8 And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, ...

Rom 10:8b-10 "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); ⁹because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved.

One will be saved if one confesses that Jesus Christ is Lord and believes that God raised him to life (v. 9). Presumably the latter has in view also believing the implications of Jesus Christ's resurrection for our salvation. Note that a literal interpretation of these verses, which a number of commentators do take, would mean that one has to make such a verbal confession to be saved. Another view is that Paul is drawing on the "mouth"/"heart" terminology in the quotation from Deuteronomy 30:14 (v. 8b) to emphasize the need for genuine belief in Christ.

1Jn 2:23 No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also.

Whoever confesses the Son – here in particular that he is the Christ (cf. v. 22) – is in a right relationship with the Father also. As with a number of other verses throughout this section, this verse is not necessarily talking about public denial or acknowledgment, but what it says is applicable to both public and personal domains.

Note: If we deny Jesus Christ, he will deny us

Although the gravity of the following warnings should not be diluted, the verses should not be interpreted to mean that a single act of denial will necessarily result in Jesus Christ disowning a person. This is illustrated in Peter's experience. Despite his disowning Jesus three times (cf. Matt 26:33-35; Matt 26:69-75 ↓), Jesus did reinstate him – although in a way which appears to have underlined the seriousness of what Peter had done (cf. John 21:15-17). Also note that Peter showed great remorse and is understood to have in fact later lost his life as a result of his stand for Christ, in contrast to his earlier disowning of him.

Matt 10:33 ... but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven.

2Tim 2:12 ... if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; ...

This appears to be echoing Jesus' warning above in Matthew 10:33, but some commentators see it as referring to apostasy – abandoning Jesus Christ and faith in him altogether.

Mark 8:38 For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of Man also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

Being "ashamed" of Jesus – usually prompted by a real or perceived threat – encompasses failure to confess him and the more acute act of actually disowning him (cf. 2Tim 2:12 ↑). Likewise when Jesus Christ returns he will not acknowledge and will disown those who have been "ashamed" of him.

† Peter's disowning of Jesus (and subsequent remorse):

Matt 26:69-75 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came up to him and said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean." ⁷⁰But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you mean." ⁷¹And when he went out to the entrance, another servant girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth." ⁷²And again he denied it with an oath: "I do not know the man." ⁷³After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Certainly you too are one of them, for your accent betrays you." ⁷⁴Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, "I do not know the man." And immediately the rooster crowed. ⁷⁵And Peter remembered the saying of Jesus, “Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” And he went out and wept bitterly. 📖

b) Keeping the Sabbath Holy

“Sabbath” means “to cease”. Thus to observe or keep the Sabbath day we cease from work and rest. In conjunction with this, rather than engaging in our usual activities we dedicate the day to God. As such we keep the Sabbath day holy, set apart from the other days as sacred to God.

In following God’s example by resting on the Sabbath day, people imitate and associate themselves with God, even fellowship with him. In line with this, for Israel observing the Sabbath was a sign of being God’s people. The necessity for Christians to likewise observe it has been the subject of debate.

On finishing creation, God rested on the seventh day – and made it holy God rested on the seventh day not because of any tiredness, but due to the finish of his creative work – reflecting his satisfaction that it was complete and excellent (cf. Gen 1:31). God made the seventh day holy by ordaining it to be a day of rest, in recognition of his rest from his creative work (and perhaps also of his completion of it).

Gen 2:2-3 And on the seventh day God finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. ³So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all his work that he had done in creation. 📖

Ex 20:8-11 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. ⁹Six days you shall labor, and do all your work, ¹⁰but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock, or the sojourner who is within your gates. ¹¹For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy. 📖

Ex 31:15a, 17 Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD. 📖 ... ¹⁷It is a sign forever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed. 📖

Imitating God by resting on the seventh day would be a sign that the Israelites were God’s people (v. 17), associating them with him.

Heb 4:3-4 For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, “As I swore in my wrath, “They shall not enter my rest,” although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. ⁴For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way: “And God rested on the seventh day from all his works.” 📖

Observe the Sabbath as holy by resting on it

Deut 5:12-14 Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. ¹³Six days you shall labor and do all your work,¹⁴ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter or your male servant or your female servant, or your ox or your donkey or any of your livestock, or the sojourner who is within your gates, that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you.

Ex 31:14-15 You shall keep the Sabbath, because it is holy for you. Everyone who profanes it shall be put to death. Whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.¹⁵ Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall be put to death.

Under the new covenant Christians do not advocate putting to death one who works on the Sabbath. Nevertheless the command (cf. Ex 35:2 ↓) serves to illustrate the gravity of working on the Sabbath.

Ex 34:21 Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.

Even during the busiest times one is to rest on the Sabbath.

Ex 35:2 Six days work shall be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

Neh 9:14 ... and you made known to them your holy Sabbath and commanded them commandments and statutes and a law by Moses your servant.

In this reference to God's commands (cf. v. 13) arguably the importance of the Sabbath is underlined by it being the only command specifically mentioned (cf. Isa 56:1-2; Ezek 20:13). Note also Exodus 31:13 in the following subsection, which says: "Above all you shall keep my Sabbaths ..."

Neh 10:31a And if the peoples of the land bring in goods or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on a holy day.

Purchasing is a form of work; it certainly is a participation in the work of others, encouraging them to do their work. Note that later Nehemiah similarly condemns selling goods on the Sabbath: "In those days I saw in Judah people treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in heaps of grain and loading them on donkeys, and also wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them on the day when they sold food." (13:15; cf. 13:16-17)

Jer 17:21-22, 24 Thus says the LORD: Take care for the sake of your lives, and do not bear a burden on the Sabbath day or bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem.²² And do not carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath or do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers.  ...²⁴ "But if you listen to me, declares the LORD, and bring in no burden by the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy and do no work on it, ...

Luke 23:55-56 The women who had come with him from Galilee followed and saw the tomb and how his body was laid.⁵⁶ Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

✦ Treat the Sabbath as a delight and honorable:

Isa 58:13 If you turn back your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure^h on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, or seeking your own pleasure,ⁱ or talking idly;^j ...

^h Or business

ⁱ Or pursuing your own business

^j Hebrew or speaking a word

We are to view the Sabbath as a delight and honorable. We honor it accordingly by not using it for our own purposes and pleasure ("not going your own ways, or seeking your own pleasure") or engaging in matters that are trivial ("talking idly"). Note that "turn back your foot from the Sabbath" refers to not doing activities that would break the command to rest on the Sabbath.

Observance of the Sabbath was given as a sign between God and his people Israel

It is debatable as to what extent Sabbath observance is a sign between God and the new people of God (cf. Verses alleged to indicate that Christians do not need to keep the Sabbath, p. 1458). However some of the points made below in regard to Israel are at least applicable to believers and their relationship with God.

Ex 31:13 You are to speak to the people of Israel and say, 'Above all you shall keep my Sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I, the LORD, sanctify you.

Setting apart the Sabbath as holy was in part to symbolize that God made his people holy (cf. Ezek 20:12 ↓). As such the command may have in view the setting apart of the Sabbath day as paralleling God setting apart Israel, from the other nations.

Ezek 20:12 Moreover, I gave them my Sabbaths, as a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

Ex 31:16-17 Therefore the people of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, observing the Sabbath throughout their generations, as a covenant forever. ¹⁷It is a sign forever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed.

Doing as God had done was to be a sign that the Israelites were of God (v. 17), with them being his people and he being their God (cf. Ezek 20:20 ↓). Note that these verses are often interpreted to indicate that the Sabbath was a sign of the covenant with Israel at Sinai (cf. GNT, NLT).

Ezek 20:20 ... and keep my Sabbaths holy that they may be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

✦ Observance of the Sabbath was a reminder of the Israelite's slavery and God rescuing them from it:

Deut 5:15 You shall remember that you were a slave^k in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

^k Or servant

In contrast to Exodus 20 (cf. Ex 20:8-11 ↓), in the repeating of the Ten Commandments in Deuteronomy 5, the reason given for observing the Sabbath was for it to serve as a reminder of the Israelite's slavery and God's deliverance. Resting on it may have been to mirror the people resting from their harsh work as slaves, as well as to be a time to acknowledge God's redemption – taking them for himself – and so be a sign of the close, unique relationship between God and them as his people.

Further reasons for keeping the Sabbath holy

See also:

- Blessings for keeping the Sabbath holy – and judgments for not, p. 1458

Ex 16:21-30 Morning by morning they gathered it, each as much as he could eat; but when the sun grew hot, it melted. ²²On the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers each. And when all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses, ²³he said to them, "This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Tomorrow is a day of solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD; bake what you will bake and boil what you will boil, and all that is left over lay aside to be kept till the morning.'" ²⁴So they laid it aside till the morning, as Moses commanded them, and it did not stink, and there were no worms in it. ²⁵Moses said, "Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field. ²⁶Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, which is a Sabbath, there will be none." ²⁷On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, but they found none. ²⁸And the LORD said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws? ²⁹See! The LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore on the sixth day he gives you bread for two days. Remain each of you in his place; let no one go out of his place on the seventh day." ³⁰So the people rested on the seventh day.

This is speaking of the Israelites gathering manna, the food God sent them in the desert. The passage shows that keeping the Sabbath as a day of rest was commanded – and practiced – prior to the covenant with Israel being introduced (although one could argue that this was done with the soon to be introduced covenant in view). Along with the fact that God made the Sabbath holy also prior to the old covenant – in fact immediately after creating the world (cf. Gen 2:2-3; Gen 20:11) – this suggests that now opting not to rest on the Sabbath because it was "only" part of the old covenant is not in itself a valid reason. Note that the passage illustrates that God provides what is necessary so that his people do not need to work on the Sabbath (vv. 23-24, 29).

Ex 20:8-11 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. ⁹Six days you shall labor, and do all your work, ¹⁰but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock, or the sojourner who is within your gates. ¹¹For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

Verse 10a is in effect saying that the seventh day is a Sabbath dedicated to God (cf. GNT, NLT), in honor of him (cf. NCV, NIV). Thus one reason we should observe the Sabbath is because it honors God. Verse 1 appears to indicate that the Sabbath is to be observed to commemorate God's rest from his creative work and perhaps also his completion of it. Additionally there is the suggestion that humankind should – even needs to – follow God's example of resting on the Sabbath. Such an assertion seems only logical as they are made in his image (cf. Gen 1:26-27). An associated benefit and reason for keeping the Sabbath is given below in 23:12.

Ex 23:12 Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your servant woman, and the alien, may be refreshed.

This points out that resting on the Sabbath enables people to “be refreshed”.

✦ The Sabbath was made for the benefit of people:

Mark 2:27 And he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.

The assertion that the Sabbath was made for the benefit of people is supported above by: Exodus 16:29a, its wording suggesting that the Sabbath was introduced in part at least as a gift from God – i.e. the gift of a day of rest; and Exodus 23:12, in pointing out that it enables people to “be refreshed”. As such, rather than viewing the Sabbath as restrictive, we should in fact see it as a positive thing – we should “call the Sabbath a delight” (Isa 58:13).

It is permissible to do good and necessary things on the Sabbath

Matt 12:10-13 And a man was there with a withered hand. And they asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”—so that they might accuse him. ¹¹*He said to them, “Which one of you who has a sheep, if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? ¹²Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” ¹³Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, healthy like the other.*

Mark 3:4 And he said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent.

This verse is from Mark’s parallel account to the above passage from Matthew. Jesus’ rhetorical question indicates that it is indeed lawful to do good on the Sabbath. Note that the phrases “to do harm” and “to kill” may well be referring to the evil plots of Jesus’ opponents that they were hypocritically actively engaging in on this Sabbath (cf. vv. 2, 6). Alternatively, some commentators think Jesus was referring to the option of not healing the man with a shriveled hand when he had the power to do so.

Luke 13:10-17 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. ¹¹*And there was a woman who had had a disabling spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. ¹²When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from* *your disability.” ¹³And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God. ¹⁴But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the people, “There are six days in which work ought to be done. Come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.” ¹⁵Then the Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it away to water it? ¹⁶And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?” ¹⁷As he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, and all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him. *

John 7:21-24 Jesus answered them, “I did one work, and you all marvel at it. ²²Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. ²³*If on the Sabbath a man receives circumcision, so that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because on the Sabbath I made a man’s whole body well? ²⁴Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.”*

In v. 21 “marvel” apparently refers to the Jews’ shock that Jesus would perform a “work” of healing in the Sabbath. In v. 23 Jesus appears to be implying that if circumcision which deals with only part of the body was permissible to carry out on the Sabbath, then there is all the more reason to heal the “whole body” on the Sabbath. A slightly different interpretation is that Jesus was drawing a parallel between the wholeness that circumcision signified and the wholeness that was brought by his act of healing, concluding that if one was permissible then both should be.

Mark 2:23-28 One Sabbath he was going through the grainfields, and as they made their way, his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. ²⁴And the Pharisees were saying to him, “Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?” ²⁵And he said to them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was in need and was hungry, he and those who were with him: ²⁶how he entered the house of God, in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to those who were with him?” ²⁷And he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸So the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

In vv. 25-26 Jesus draws a parallel between what his disciples had done to satisfy their hunger and need for food (cf. Matt 12:1 – “His disciples were hungry”) with what David did when he and his companions were “in need and ... hungry”. Like David the disciples had acted contrary to the letter of the law, but as in David’s case their actions were not inconsistent with the spirit of the law (cf. NSB). The implication is that it is permissible to do good and necessary things on the Sabbath. In summing up, Jesus affirms that the Sabbath should be used for the good of people (v. 27) – before claiming authority over matters relating to observing the Sabbath (v. 28).

On the Sabbath God's people assemble for worship . . .

Lev 23:3 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwelling places.

A “convocation” is a large formal assembly. Undoubtedly “a holy convocation” is a reference to corporate worship.

Ezek 46:3 The people of the land shall bow down at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.

Acts 16:13-14 And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. ¹⁴One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul.

On the Sabbath Paul and his companions found a group of women gathered presumably for prayer (v. 13) and other aspects of worship, as is perhaps suggested by Lydia being described as “a worshiper of God” (v. 14a). Note that on joining the women, Paul taught them (vv. 13b-14) – illustrative of the subject of the following subsection.

Acts 20:7 On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight.

The reference to coming together to “break bread” is probably speaking of celebrating the Lord’s Supper, an aspect of worship. Regarding this being on the first day of the week, see Note: Early Christians met together on the first day of the week, p. 1459.

Num 28:9-10 On the Sabbath day, two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering: ¹⁰*this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.*

These verses do not mention God’s people assembling for worship, but the additional offerings spoken of do illustrate the increased focus on worship on the Sabbath.

Blessings for keeping the Sabbath holy – and judgments for not

Isa 56:1-2, 4-7 Thus says the LORD: “Keep justice, and do righteousness, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed. ²*Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath, not profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.*”  ... ⁴For thus says the LORD: “To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant, ⁵I will give in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.” ⁶“And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant— ⁷these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.”

Note that the blessings promised were due not just to keeping the Sabbath, but also for being faithful to God in other matters. Other such matters are possibly likewise in view in the promises in Isaiah 58:13-14 and Ezekiel 20:13 below.

Isa 58:13-14 “If you turn back your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure^l on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, or seeking your own pleasure,^m or talking idly,ⁿ ¹⁴then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth;^o I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

^l Or business

^m Or pursuing your own business

ⁿ Hebrew or speaking a word

^o Or of the land

In v. 14, “ride on the heights of the earth” may be speaking of the people’s dominion over their land (cf. Nlrv), in conjunction with the subsequently mentioned feeding on the produce of the land, their inheritance. Alternatively it may allude to being held in honor amongst the other nations (cf. GNT, NLT).

Jer 17:24-27 “But if you listen to me, declares the LORD, and bring in no burden by the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy and do no work on it, ²⁵then there shall enter by the gates of this city kings and princes who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their officials, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And this city shall be inhabited forever. ²⁶And people shall come from the cities of Judah and the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the Shephelah, from the hill country, and from the Negeb, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, and bringing thank offerings to the house of the LORD. ²⁷But if you do not listen to me, to keep the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter by the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem and shall not be quenched.”

Verse 25 speaks of Israel being independent – strong and not subject to other nations – led by kings who are appropriately from David’s line.

Ezek 20:13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes but rejected my rules, by which, if a person does them, he shall live; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. “Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to make a full end of them.”

Neh 13:16-18 Tyrians also, who lived in the city, brought in fish and all kinds of goods and sold them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah, in Jerusalem itself! ¹⁷Then I confronted the nobles of Judah and said to them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing, profaning the Sabbath day?” ¹⁸*Did not your fathers act in this way, and did not our God bring all this disaster^p on us and on this city? Now you are bringing more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath.*”

^p The Hebrew word can mean evil, harm, or disaster, depending on the context

Verses alleged to indicate that Christians do not need to keep the Sabbath

Col 2:16-17 Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. ¹⁷These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ.

With it being mentioned specifically in association with other aspects of the old covenant that believers no longer are required to abide by, this verse arguably provides the best evidence that believers do not need to keep the Sabbath. However one could argue that Paul is not necessarily meaning that they do not need to keep the Sabbath at all. Rather in mentioning it here he may have in mind certain aspects of its observance, such as offerings required on it under the old covenant or even the day of the week on which it is to be observed.

Rom 14:5-6 One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. 📖

What Paul is referring to here is possibly inclusive of the Sabbath, although the reference to eating suggests that a special day of feasting may be what is foremost in view. Regarding contentious issues like those in question here, Paul is primarily concerned that his readers be convinced in themselves (v. 5b), so they can act with a clear conscience; and the chosen course of action be taken for the Lord's honor and with thanksgiving (v. 6b).

Gal 4:8-11 Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. ⁹But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? ¹⁰*You observe days and months and seasons and years!* ¹¹I am afraid I may have labored over you in vain. 📖

In view of the discussion regarding the law in the preceding chapter (cf. 3:2-25) and latter passages – and also a possible reference to it in v. 12 – some consider that Paul is referring to the law in vv. 9-10, with “the weak and worthless elementary principles” (v. 9) paralleling the shortfalls of the law with paganism (v. 8). As such “days” would quite possibly encompass the Sabbath. However the reference to paganism in v. 8 points to paganism as being what Paul has in mind here (cf. CEV, GNT). If this is the case, then there is no reference here to the Sabbath.

Note: Early Christians met together on the first day of the week

The fact that the early Christians are recorded as meeting together on the first day of the week – and the reason why (cf. Rev 1:10 ↓) – has influenced most Christians to meet for worship and celebrate the Sabbath on this day rather than on the seventh day of the week. But bear in mind that one reason why the early Christians did not meet together on the seventh day, may have been that they continued to observe it as the Sabbath.

John 20:19 On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” 📖

Note that v. 26 records a similar appearance by Jesus to the disciples, who were again meeting together. But as it was eight days later, it illustrates that they did not only meet together on the first day of the week.

Acts 20:7 On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight. 📖

1Cor 16:2 On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up, as he may prosper, so that there will be no collecting when I come. 📖

This verse is quite probably speaking of money being brought to Christian gatherings held on the first day of every week.

✚ The first day of the week was referred to as “the Lord’s Day”:

Rev 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet ... 📖

This is understood to be referring to the first day of the week, which was called “the Lord’s day” in view of the fact that Jesus rose from the dead on this day. It being “the Lord’s day” is most likely the major reason as to why believers regularly met together on the first day of the week.

Pray for persecuted Christians

c) Fasting

Fasting involves abstaining from food and drink, though not necessarily water which provides no calories or energy. Ordained fasts in the OT were usually from sunrise to sunset. People who fast regularly today often do so once or twice a week, for one or two successive meal times. In the Wesleyan revival, fasting was observed from after the Thursday evening meal to mid-afternoon Friday. Note that in the NT there are examples of fasting, but it is not actually commanded.

Subsections

- Fasting involves abstaining from food and drink
- Fasting can be done regularly – as an adjunct to prayer and worship
- Fasting can be done on particular occasions, in petitioning God – as in seeking God’s help . . .
- . . . or as in asking God to relent from punishing sin
- Fasting can be done to express distress in trouble or remorse over sin
- Note: Fasting in itself is not significant

Fasting involves abstaining from food and drink

Est 4:16a “Go, gather all the Jews to be found in Susa, and hold a fast on my behalf, and do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my young women will also fast as you do.

Ex 34:28 So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights. He neither ate bread nor drank water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.^a

^a Hebrew the ten words

Note that the forty-day fasts of Moses and Jesus (cf. Matt 4:2 ↓) were exceptional cases of fasting.

Lev 23:32 It shall be to you a Sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict yourselves. On the ninth day of the month beginning at evening, from evening to evening shall you keep your Sabbath.

The clause “you shall afflict yourselves” refers to fasting (cf. text note on 16:29), denying oneself of food. Note that the reference here is to the annual Day of Atonement (cf. vv. 27-28).

Judg 20:26b They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

1Sam 31:13 And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh and fasted seven days.

2Sam 12:16-17 David therefore sought God on behalf of the child. And David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground. ¹⁷And the elders of his house stood beside him, to raise him from the ground, but he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

Ezra 10:6 Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib, where he spent the night,^r neither eating bread nor drinking water, for he was mourning over the faithlessness of the exiles.

^r Probable reading; Hebrew where he went

Matt 4:2 And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry.

Acts 9:9 And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

‡ Daniel abstained from choice food for three weeks:

Dan 10:2-3 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three weeks. ³*I ate no delicacies, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, for the full three weeks*.

Fasting can be done regularly – as an adjunct to prayer and worship

Matt 6:16-18 And when you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. ¹⁷But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸that your fasting may not be seen by others but by your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

One implication of this teaching is that Jesus appears to expect that his followers would fast regularly.

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get.

Luke 2:36-37 And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived with her husband seven years from when she was a virgin, ³⁷and then as a widow until she was eighty-four.⁵ She did not depart from the temple, worshipping with fasting and prayer night and day.

⁵ Or as a widow for eighty-four years

Fasting implies and promotes earnestness in worship and prayer. When fasting, the ache and craving of hunger brings an earnestness and intensity to our worship and prayers (cf. comment on 1Cor 7:3, 5 ↓). Fasting also promotes clarity of thought. Furthermore, our hunger serves as a reminder to worship and/or pray throughout the fasting period.

Luke 5:33, 35 And they said to him, “The disciples of John fast often and offer prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink.” ☞ ... [Jesus:] ³⁵*The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.*” ☞

John the Baptist’s disciples often fasted as an adjunct to prayer – as did the disciples of the Pharisees (v. 33). But during the remarkable time that Jesus was with them, it was not appropriate or necessary for his disciples to fast. But on his death – when he, the “bridegroom”, would be taken away from them (v. 35) – then they would fast. The reference appears to be in particular to fasting in mourning over his death.

Acts 13:2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” ☞

Acts 10:30 And Cornelius said, “Four days ago, about this hour, I was praying in my house at the ninth hour,[†] and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing ... ☞

[†] That is, 3 P.M.

In this verse some manuscripts have “praying and fasting” (cf. GNT text note).

Lev 23:27 Now on the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. It shall be for you a time of holy convocation, and you shall afflict yourselves and present a food offering to the LORD. ☞

This refers to an annual fast rather than a regular one. It is included here as further example of fasting being involved in worship.

✦ Abstaining from sexual relations for the sake of devotion to prayer:

1Cor 7:3, 5 The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband. ☞ ... ⁵*Do not deprive one another, except perhaps by agreement for a limited time, that you may devote yourselves to prayer; but then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.* ☞

A parallel can be made with this practice and fasting, with both practices involving giving up something that is craved in order to intensify one’s focus on something else, namely prayer. Note that Paul may not be encouraging this practice, particularly as he puts restrictions on it – i.e. that it be done only with mutual consent and for a limited time.

Fasting can be done on particular occasions, in petitioning God – as in seeking God’s help . . .

Here members of the Antioch church appear to be fasting and praying in regard to Barnabas and Saul and the work to which God had called them (cf. v. 2 ↑), presumably largely to ask God to help them in the work (cf. Acts 14:23 ↓).

Acts 14:23 And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

Fasting can be done in seeking God's forgiveness of sin along with deliverance from his punishment for the sin.

Deut 9:18-19 Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin that you had committed, in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke him to anger. ¹⁹*For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure that the LORD bore against you, so that he was ready to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also.*

1Ki 21:21-22, 27-29 Behold, I will bring disaster upon you. I will utterly burn you up, and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel. ²²*And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the anger to which you have provoked me, and because you have made Israel to sin.*  ... ²⁷*And when Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his flesh and fasted and lay in sackcloth and went about dejectedly.* ²⁸*And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,* ²⁹*“Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the disaster in his days; but in his son's days I will bring the disaster upon his house.”*

Joel 1:13-14 Put on sackcloth and lament, O priests; wail, O ministers of the altar. Go in, pass the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God! Because grain offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God. ¹⁴*Consecrate a fast; call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.*

Apparently as a punishment for the people's sin (cf. Joel 2:12-13 ↓), an awesome plague of locusts had devastated the land, leaving neither grain nor wine even for offerings (v. 13b; cf. Joel 2:14 ↓). Thus the prophet calls on the priests – and similarly the people (cf. vv. 5-12) – to seek God's forgiveness and restoration, in part with fasting (v. 14a).

Joel 2:12-17 “Yet even now,” declares the LORD, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; ¹³*and rend your hearts and not your garments.*” Return to the LORD your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster. ¹⁴*Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD your God?* ¹⁵*Blow the trumpet in Zion; consecrate a fast; call a solemn assembly;* ¹⁶*gather the people. Consecrate the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber.* ¹⁷*Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, “Spare your people, O LORD, and make not your heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations.”* Why should they say among the peoples, “Where is their God?”

Jonah 3:1-10 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, ²*“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it the message that I tell you.”* ³So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city,^x three days' journey in breadth.^y ⁴Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's journey. And he called out, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!” ⁵*And the people of Nineveh believed God. They called for a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them.* ⁶The word reached^z the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷And he issued a proclamation and published through Nineveh, “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not feed or drink water, ⁸*but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them call out mightily to God. Let everyone turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.* ⁹*Who knows? God may turn and relent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we may not perish.”* ¹⁰*When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God relented of the disaster that he had said he would do to them, and he did not do it.*

‡ The Israelites fasted on the annual day when atonement was made for them to cleanse them from sin:

Lev 16:29-31 And it shall be a statute to you forever that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict yourselves^a and shall do no work, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among you. ³⁰*For on this day shall atonement be made for you to cleanse you. You shall be clean before the LORD from all your sins.* ³¹It is a Sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict yourselves; it is a statute forever. ☞

Fasting can be done to express distress in trouble or remorse over sin

See also:

- In petitioning God, express your anguish over consequences of your sin – even with fasting, p. 1845
- Fast in mourning, p. 1941

In conjunction with seeking God's help, fasting expresses one's distress in trouble. Likewise, in conjunction with seeking God's forgiveness, fasting expresses one's remorse over sin. Note that most of the passages in the previous subsection are also reflective of fasting expressing one's remorse over sin.

Judg 20:25-26 And Benjamin went against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed 18,000 men of the people of Israel. All these were men who drew the sword. ²⁶*Then all the people of Israel, the whole army, went up and came to Bethel and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening*, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. ☞

Neh 1:3-4 And they said to me, "The remnant there in the province who had survived the exile is in great trouble and shame. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates are destroyed by fire." ⁴*As soon as I heard these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days, and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.* ☞

Est 4:3 And in every province, wherever the king's command and his decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting and weeping and lamenting, and many of them lay in sackcloth and ashes. ☞

The edict in question ordered the killing of all Jews (cf. Est 3:8-15).

Ps 109:22, 24 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is stricken within me. ☞ ... ²⁴*My knees are weak through fasting; my body has become gaunt, with no fat.* ☞

Neh 9:1-2 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the people of Israel were assembled with fasting and in sackcloth, and with earth on their heads. ²And the Israelites separated themselves from all foreigners and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. ☞

1Sam 7:6 So they gathered at Mizpah and drew water and poured it out before the LORD and fasted on that day and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the people of Israel at Mizpah. ☞

The pouring out of water before God is quite possibly indicative of repentance, and so also remorse. It may have been done as an offering (cf. CEV, GNT) and/or as an allusion to self-denial and fasting.

Ezra 10:6 Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib, where he spent the night,^b neither eating bread nor drinking water, for he was mourning over the faithlessness of the exiles. ☞

^b Probable reading; Hebrew where he went

Note: Fasting in itself is not significant

Jer 14:10-12 Thus says the LORD concerning this people: "They have loved to wander thus; they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins." ¹¹The LORD said to me: "Do not pray for the welfare of this people. ¹²*Though they fast, I will not hear their cry*, and though they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence." ☞

It does no good to fast – or perform any religious practice – while continuing to live a sinful life. God takes no notice of such fasting (cf. Isa 58:3 ↓).

Isa 58:1-7 Cry aloud; do not hold back; lift up your voice like a trumpet; declare to my people their transgression, to the house of Jacob their sins. ²Yet they seek me daily and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that did righteousness and did not forsake the judgment of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God. ³*Why have we fasted, and you see it not? Why have we humbled ourselves, and you take no knowledge of it?*

Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure,^c and oppress all your workers. ⁴Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with a wicked fist. Fasting like yours this day will not make your voice to be heard on high. ⁵Is such the fast that I choose, a day for a person to humble himself? Is it to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and a day acceptable to the LORD? ⁶“Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed^d go free, and to break every yoke? ⁷Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?”

^c Or pursue your own business

^d Or bruised

Fasting should signify godliness. Thus it ought to be manifested in such things as: obedience to God (vv. 1-2); treating others appropriately (vv. 3-4); and caring for the needy (vv. 6-7). Without being accompanied by such things, fasting itself is of no significance.

Zec 7:2-6 Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech and their men to entreat the favor of the LORD, ³saying to the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, “Should I weep and abstain in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?” ⁴Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me: ⁵“Say to all the people of the land and the priests, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you fasted? ⁶And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves?”

Fasting must be done for the right reasons, with God primarily in view – as with all religious practices (cf. v. 6). As far as God is concerned, there is no point just “going through the motions” or doing it with less than God-centered motives – which God’s reply (v. 5) suggests that the people were doing. Any religious practice performed without a focus on its proper object becomes a stale and pointless exercise.

Luke 18:9-14 He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: ¹⁰“Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed^e thus: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get.’ ¹³But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ ¹⁴I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

^e Or standing, prayed to himself

Fasting in a spirit of self-righteousness counts for nothing in God’s sight.

Matt 6:16-18 And when you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. ¹⁷But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸that your fasting may not be seen by others but by your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Fasting for show – so as to display one’s supposed piety – is unacceptable to God, and receives no reward from him. It must be done discreetly.

1Sam 14:24, 28-30 And the men of Israel had been hard pressed that day, so Saul had laid an oath on the people, saying, “Cursed be the man who eats food until it is evening and I am avenged on my enemies.” So none of the people had tasted food. ... ²⁸Then one of the people said [to Jonathan], “Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, ‘Cursed be the man who eats food this day.’” And the people were faint. ²⁹Then Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. See how my eyes have become bright because I tasted a little of this honey. ³⁰How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies that they found. For now the defeat among the Philistines has not been great.”

The binding of Saul’s troops to a fast with an oath was thoughtless, pointless and in fact counterproductive.

✦ We should not be legalistic about the practice of fasting:

Matt 9:14-17 Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast,^f but your disciples do not fast?” ¹⁵And Jesus said to them, “Can the wedding guests mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. ¹⁶No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear is made. ¹⁷Neither is new wine put into old wineskins. If it is, the skins burst and the wine is spilled and the skins are destroyed. But new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved.”

^f Some manuscripts add much, or often

A number of commentators interpret the inclusion of the wineskins illustration (vv. 16-17) immediately after Jesus’ comments on fasting (vv. 14-15), to imply that under the new covenant one should not be legalistic about the practice of fasting – which no doubt would have been in contrast to the Pharisees' attitude in their fasting (v. 14).

Bear in mind that generally at least – and as reflected in some of the passages in this section – the laying on of hands is done in conjunction with prayer.

In conveying the gift of the Holy Spirit

Note that the laying on of hands to convey the gift of the Holy Spirit is generally done in conjunction with the recipients coming to faith – rather than at a time chosen by those performing the act. Also, it is not essential for a person to have hands laid on them for them to receive the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:17-18 Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, ...

Acts 9:17-18 So Ananias departed and entered the house. And laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road by which you came has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁸And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he rose and was baptized; ...

Although it is not stated, presumably Paul received the Holy Spirit at this time, particularly as it is mentioned in conjunction with receiving back his sight (v. 17) which did occur here (v. 18).

Acts 19:6 And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying.

In conveying blessing

Mark 10:16 And he [Jesus] took them in his arms and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

Matt 19:13-15 Then children were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples rebuked the people, ¹⁴but Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." ¹⁵And he laid his hands on them and went away.

Particularly as it is spoken of as being done in conjunction with prayer (v. 13), it would appear that Jesus' act of placing his hands on the children signified that he was blessing them (cf. Mark 10:16 ↑).

Gen 48:14-16, 20a And Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands (for Manasseh was the firstborn). ¹⁵And he blessed Joseph and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life long to this day, ¹⁶the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys; and in them let my name be carried on, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude^g in the midst of the earth." ... ²⁰So he blessed them that day, saying, "By you Israel will pronounce blessings, saying, 'God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh.'"

^g Or let them be like fish for multitude

Here Jacob (called Israel) blesses Joseph's two sons, in a sense blessing Joseph himself (v. 15a). Note that the right hand (v. 14) was indicative of a greater blessing.

Lev 9:22 Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and he came down from offering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.

Here and in the following reference from Luke, a group of people is being blessed. So instead of hands being laid on each of them individually – which here in Aaron’s case would have taken an enormous amount of time – hands are used to convey blessing by being lifted towards the group.

Luke 24:50 Then he [Jesus] led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them.

✦ The laying on of hands is listed amongst elementary and foundational teachings:

Heb 6:1-2 Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, ²and of instruction about washings,^h the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

^h Or baptisms (that is, cleansing rites)

Being listed amongst such elementary and foundational teachings points to the importance of this practice, with presumably the importance of what it signifies being in view.

In conveying God’s healing

- Note: The OT use of oil to anoint and consecrate people for God’s service, p. 1467

Those who have the gift of healing, generally convey God’s healing through laying their hands on sick people – as Jesus often did.

Luke 4:40 Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to him, and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them.

Matt 8:3 And Jesusⁱ stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, “I will; be clean.” And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

ⁱ Greek he

Matt 9:29-30a Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.” ³⁰*And their eyes were opened.*

Mark 5:23 ...and implored him earnestly, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live.”

Mark 6:5 And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them.

Mark 7:32-35 And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment, and they begged him to lay his hand on him. ³³*And taking him aside from the crowd privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and after spitting touched his tongue.* ³⁴*And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.”* ³⁵*And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.*

Note that in conjunction with touching the man (v. 33), in healing him Jesus also appears to pray (v. 34).

Luke 13:12-13 When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are freed from your disability.”¹³ And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God.

Mark 16:18 ... they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.

Acts 28:8 It happened that the father of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery. And Paul visited him and prayed, and putting his hands on him healed him.

In commissioning for ministry

The practice of established leaders laying their hands on newly appointed leaders or ones being commissioned for a new role, denotes the bestowing of authority by the established leaders – who have such authority themselves – onto the newly appointed leaders, before God.

Num 27:15-23 Moses spoke to the LORD, saying, ¹⁶“Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation ¹⁷who shall go out before them and come in before them, who shall lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be as sheep that have no shepherd.” ¹⁸So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him. ¹⁹Make him stand before Eleazar the priest and all the congregation, and you shall commission him in their sight. ²⁰*You shall invest him with some of your authority, that all the congregation of the people of Israel may obey.* ²¹And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD. At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the people of Israel with him, the whole congregation.” ²²And Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and made him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation, ²³and he laid his hands on him and commissioned him as the LORD directed through Moses.

Acts 6:1-3, 6 Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint by the Hellenists^j arose against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. ²And the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. ³Therefore, brothers,^k pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this duty. ... ⁶These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands on them. 📖

^j That is, Greek-speaking Jews

^k Or brothers and sisters

Acts 13:1-3 Now there were in the church at Antioch prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger,¹ Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. ²While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off. 📖

¹ Niger is a Latin word meaning black, or dark

Note that the prophets and teachers (v. 1), leaders in the church, may well be in view as those who laid hands on Barnabas and Saul.

1Tim 5:22 Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands, nor take part in the sins of others; keep yourself pure. 📖

This is commonly understood to be referring to the laying on of hands in the ordination of elders – which should not be done without due consideration nor until the candidate has had sufficient time to prove their suitability.

Num 8:10-11 When you bring the Levites before the LORD, the people of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites, ¹¹and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the people of Israel, that they may do the service of the LORD. 📖

In contrast to the other passages in this subsection, here the people rather than the leaders, are said to have been the ones who laid hands (on the Levites). This signified that the Levites were representative of the whole people, having the authority to represent them before God, including making offerings on their behalf. Verse 1 indicates that as such they were in a sense an offering from the people to God, to do his work, notably interceding before him on the people's behalf.

✦ Timothy's spiritual gift for ministry given through the laying on of hands:

1Tim 4:14 Do not neglect the gift you have, which was given you by prophecy when the council of elders laid their hands on you. 📖

Most likely the elders laid their hands on Timothy in commissioning him for service. As such he would have received this spiritual gift primarily to equip him in the work. Note that in 2 Timothy 1:6 Paul speaks of Timothy receiving a spiritual gift through Paul himself laying his hands on him: "For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands." As such Paul could be speaking of himself as one of the elders on the occasion referred to here in 1 Timothy 4:14.

Note: The OT use of oil to anoint and consecrate people for God's service

In the OT, a person being ordained or inducted into a role in God's service – notably as a priest, a prophet or a king – was anointed with oil. It signified them being set apart by God for such a role. Particularly in the case of priests, it also signified them being consecrated or made holy in order to undertake their holy work. This practice is imitated in some churches today, in commissioning people for ministry.

Ex 29:7, 21 You shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him. ... ²¹Then you shall take part of the blood that is on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and his sons' garments with him. He and his garments shall be holy, and his sons and his sons' garments with him. 📖

Note that the composition of the sacred anointing oil used to anoint and consecrate priests, is given in 30:23-25. Unauthorized making and use of it is strictly prohibited in 30:32-33.

Ex 40:9, 13-15 "Then you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and consecrate it and all its furniture, so that it may become holy. ... ¹³and put on Aaron the holy garments. And you shall anoint him and consecrate him, that he may serve me as priest. ¹⁴You shall bring his sons also and put coats on them, ¹⁵and anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may serve me as priests. And their anointing shall admit them to a perpetual priesthood throughout their generations." 📖

As with the tabernacle and the other things in v. 9, the anointing of the priests would have been done with the anointing oil.

Lev 8:12 And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him. 📖

Lev 21:10-12 The priest who is chief among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil is poured and who has been consecrated to wear the garments, shall not let the hair of his head hang loose nor tear his clothes. ¹¹He shall not go in to any dead bodies nor make himself unclean, even for his father or for his mother. ¹²He shall not go out of the sanctuary, lest he profane the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him: I am the LORD. 📖

1Sam 10:1a Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on his head and kissed him and said, "Has not the LORD anointed you to be prince over his people Israel?" 📖

1Sam 16:1, 12-13 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons." 📖 ... ¹²And he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy and had beautiful eyes and was handsome. And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him, for this is he." ¹³Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon David from that day forward. And Samuel rose up and went to Ramah. 📖

Ps 89:20 I have found David, my servant; with my holy oil I have anointed him, ... 📖

1Ki 1:39 There Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!" 📖

2Ki 9:6 So he arose and went into the house. And the young man poured the oil on his [Jehu's] head, saying to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, I anoint you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel." 📖

Zec 4:12-14 And a second time I answered and said to him, "What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two golden pipes from which the golden oil^m is poured out?" ¹³He said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." ¹⁴Then he said, "These are the two anointed onesⁿ who stand by the Lord of the whole earth." 📖

^m Hebrew lacks oil

ⁿ Hebrew two sons of new oil

This is from one of Zechariah's visions and uses figurative language. The "two branches of the olive trees" symbolize Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, and Joshua the high priest. Possibly the "golden oil" (v. 12) – which originates from the olive trees (cf. v. 11) to which the branches belong – is associated with their anointing to serve God (v. 14). As such the imagery would be reflective of the use of oil to anoint people for service to God.

✦ The practice of anointing sick people with oil for healing:

James 5:14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. 📖
