A Quick Word

This series of studies aims to present a compilation of the Bible’s teachings in a clear and readable order. There are 40 booklets in the series, based on the 40 chapters of the book The Bible Unpacked - Comprehensive Edition. Each booklet has two sections, which can be used for two or more studies.

See Topics in This Series towards the end of this booklet for a full listing of all the topics. Note that studying booklets alternatively from the two major sections (What to Know and What to Do) would add variety.

The material contains Bible verses. Before the verses are headings, which reflect what the verses say – in particular the parts of the verses in italics. The verses are sometimes followed by a comment.

The verses often have a brief introduction. Usually these state who is speaking and often who they are speaking to. Apart from God and Jesus Christ, the main speakers are:

- Moses – who lead the Israelites and taught them God’s laws;
- David – Israel’s greatest king who wrote many of the psalms, most of which are essentially prayers;
- Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel and other prophets – who spoke to the people of Israel on God’s behalf; and
- Paul, Peter, John and other leaders of the early church – who spoke to various groups and wrote letters to believers.

Much care has been taken in order to correctly interpret the verses. Nevertheless, if you encounter a verse that is used to teach something that is contrary to or goes beyond your understanding, assess its use by doing such things as: reading the passage it is from; and considering how its teaching fits in with Scripture as a whole (e.g. interpret OT teaching in the light of NT teaching).

Suggestions for Study Groups

Preliminary matters:

• Beforehand the leader should: check the context of any verses they are not familiar with; and review the questions. If need be, they should compose questions more applicable to the group.

• Each person should have a Bible, for things such as checking a verse’s context. It would also be helpful to have Bible commentaries on hand.

• Pray before beginning the study. Ask God for help in understanding the meaning of the verses and to affect your lives through them. Also pray together at the end.

Doing the study:

• Ideally, read the material and answer the questions prior to the meeting. Then share answers and discuss any issues arising from the material in the meeting.

• Alternatively, read the material and answer the questions in the meeting – reading either aloud as a group or individually (prior to sharing answers). If reading as a group, try having one person read the headings, another read the verses and another read the comments. Additionally, a fourth person could read the Bible references.

General or concluding questions:

If time permits, conclude with one or more of the following questions:

• What is something that you either: did not know before; gained greater insight into; or needed reminding of?

• What verse would be helpful to memorize and bear in mind during the next week?

• In taking the verses seriously, is there anything you should change in:
  (a) how you relate to God and/or to other people; or
  (b) any other area of your life (e.g. attitudes, values or behavior)?

If so, are there any specific steps you could take to do this?
I. Jesus Christ and the Law’s Diminished Role

- God’s Covenant with Israel and the Law, Ch. 8

- The Role of the Priests, Ch. 9

The law was given to Israel through Moses – hence the term the “Mosaic Law”. It was what God’s covenant with Israel was based upon. (The contents of this law – including its provisions for dealing with sin – are discussed in the sections cross-referenced above.)

In order to be righteous before God, the Israelites had to continually follow this law, keeping all of its commands – something which they proved incapable of doing. But through Jesus Christ’s life and death, God has provided a new way of righteousness, for all people – leading to salvation. As a result of this, the role of the law has been profoundly changed.
a) Righteousness Not by Law, but Faith in Jesus Christ

The Mosaic Law cannot bring perfection . . .

HEB 7:19a  The law of Moses could not make anything perfect.  NCV™

. . . The law only exacerbates the problem of sin

ROM 7:7–8  [P A U L:] What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet if it had not been for the law, I would not have known sin. For I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, “You shall not covet.” 8*But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. For apart from the law, sin lies dead.*  ESV

The law actually stimulates sin, arousing sinful passions (cf. v. 5) and all kinds of desires (v. 8). In fact if it were not for the law, sin would be “a dead thing” (v. 8, GNT) – immaterial.

1Cor 15:56  The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.  NET

God’s law gives sin its power. For it is the law that makes sin transgression against God, i.e. violation of standards he has set. As such it gives sin the power to bring about condemnation (of sinners) and so bring death.

People are not justified by obeying the law – but by faith in Jesus Christ . . .

GAL 2:15–16  [P A U L, T O P E T E R AND O T H E R J E W S:] We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners; 16yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified.*  ESV

God’s way now for us to be made righteous before him is through having faith in Jesus Christ. This primarily involves believing Jesus Christ to be (with what he has accomplished) the means of righteousness – and accordingly trusting in him for one’s own righteousness.
In conjunction with this, faith in Jesus Christ encompasses believing what the Bible says about: who he is; his death and resurrection; and the outcomes of his mission. Faith or belief in Jesus Christ is discussed in Belief in Jesus Christ (I): General, Ch. 21; and Belief in Jesus Christ (III): Outcomes, Ch. 21.

... Righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ – not by the law

Rom 3:21–22a But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it—22 the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. ESV

By faith Abraham was declared righteous – and so will all who emulate him

Rom 4:19–24 He [Abraham] did not weaken in faith when he thought about his own body (which was already as good as dead now that he was about a hundred years old) or about Sarah’s inability to have children, 20 nor did he doubt God’s promise out of a lack of faith. Instead, he became strong in faith and gave glory to God, 21 being absolutely convinced that God would do what he had promised. 22 This is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.” 23 Now the words “it was credited to him” were written not only for him 24 but also for us. Our faith will be regarded in the same way, if we believe in the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. ISV

One’s righteous standing is no reason to boast, as it is not due to what one does – but to faith

Rom 3:27–28 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded! By what principle? Of works? No, but by the principle of faith! 28 For we consider that a person is declared righteous by faith apart from the works of the law. NET

b) Salvation by Grace, through Jesus Christ

Note that below (as per the previous section) “works” refers to things one does to attempt to work for or earn righteousness and salvation. This includes good deeds but mainly has in view actions specifically aimed at fulfilling the law’s demands.

God chooses people by his grace, through Jesus Christ – not because of works

Eph 1:3–6 [Paul, to believers:] Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, 4 even as he chose us in him [Christ] before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, 6 to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved [Christ].

Rom 11:5–6 So in the same way at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace. 6 And if it is by grace, it is no longer by works, otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

God leads people to respond to him by his grace

Acts 18:27b On his arrival he [Apollos] greatly helped those who through grace had believed.

People are justified and made righteous by God’s grace, through Jesus Christ – not by law

Rom 3:24 But they [people] are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

Gal 2:21 [Paul:] I do not set aside God’s grace, because if righteousness could come through the law, then Christ died for nothing!

Righteousness comes by God’s grace – by what Jesus Christ’s death accomplished – not through abiding by the law.
People are saved by God’s grace, through Jesus Christ . . .

EPH 2:4–5 [Paul, to believers:] But God’s mercy is so abundant, and his love for us is so great, that while we were spiritually dead in our disobedience he brought us to life with Christ. It is by God’s grace that you have been saved. GNT

. . . People are saved by God’s grace rather than by works and the law

EPH 2:8–9 For by grace you are saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so that no one can boast. NET

ACTS 15:10–11 [Peter, to those advocating submission to the law:] So now why are you putting God to the test by placing on the neck of the disciples a yoke [the law] that neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear? On the contrary, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they are. NET

Eternal life is a gift from God, through Jesus Christ

ROM 6:23 For the payoff of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. NET

c) Release from the Law through Jesus Christ

See also:
- a) God’s New Covenant, p. 16

This section looks at how Jesus Christ has fully realized the key objectives of the Mosaic Law, and how as a result God’s people have been released from the law.

The most notable implication of this release is that God’s people have been freed from bondage to the law as the means of obtaining righteousness and being made holy. Additionally, other major aspects of the law are no longer applicable to God’s people. There is also a change of focus in their lives, with them living their lives primarily by faith and in step with the Holy Spirit (cf. Living Free of the Law and Sin – by the Spirit, Ch. 21) – rather than being preoccupied with the requirements of the law.

Note that the law’s commands that are applicable to the believer’s new spiritual relationship with God or to their relationships with other people, are still very much relevant in that they give guidance in how to please God (cf. The Relevance of the Law, p. 11).

Jesus Christ fully realized what the law had worked towards

Heb 10:1, 10–14  For the law possesses a shadow of the good things to come but not the reality itself, and is therefore completely unable, by the same sacrifices offered continually, year after year, to perfect those who come to worship. ... 10By his will we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. 11And every priest stands day after day serving and offering the same sacrifices again and again – sacrifices that can never take away sins. 12But when this priest had offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, he sat down at the right hand of God, 13where he is now waiting until his enemies are made a footstool for his feet. 14For by one offering he has perfected for all time those who are made holy. NET

The Mosaic Law had primarily worked toward the removal of sin and making God’s people holy. But its work really only foreshadowed “the reality” (v. 1) that would be realized through Jesus Christ. For the law’s sacrifices for sin were not sufficient to comprehensively deal with sin and make people perfect (vv. 1, 11). But with the sacrifice of himself, Jesus Christ fulfilled what the law with its sin offerings in effect pointed towards, by consummately removing sins (v. 12) and making God’s people holy (vv. 10, 14).

So through Jesus Christ believers have been released from the law

Rom 10:4 For Christ is the end of the law, with the result that there is righteousness for everyone who believes. NET

Gal 3:24–25 [Paul, to believers:] Thus the law had become our guardian until Christ, so that we could be declared righteous by faith. 25But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian. NET

The law was only ever to be the authority over God’s people until Jesus Christ came, when faith would supersede it as the way for God’s people to be righteous.

With Jesus Christ’s once and for all sacrifice, there is no longer any need to sacrifice for sin

Heb 10:12, 17–18 Christ, however, offered one sacrifice for sins, an offering that is effective for ever, and then he sat down at the right-hand side of God. ... 17And then he [God] says, “I will not remember their sins and evil deeds any longer.” 18So when these have been forgiven, an offering to take away sins is no longer needed. GNT

The regulations and rituals of the law are no longer applicable

Col 2:16–17 [Paul, to believers:] Therefore do not let anyone judge you with respect to food or drink, or in the matter of a feast, new moon, or Sabbath days – these are only the shadow of the things to come, but the reality is Christ! NET

The various aspects of the old covenant mentioned (v. 16) merely foreshadowed what was to come with Christ (v. 17). So there is now no longer any binding requirement to observe such regulations – in accordance with what God has done through Christ (v. 14).

Instead of being under the law, believers are under grace

Rom 6:14 [Paul, to believers:] For sin will have no mastery over you, because you are not under law but under grace. NET
Believers are not under the law but “under grace”. By grace righteousness and salvation are not only gained, as discussed earlier, but are also maintained. For in his grace God enables believers to live godly lives and continues to provide for forgiveness when they do sin. Accordingly, believers are to rely on God’s grace both in striving to please God and for forgiveness.

d) The Relevance of the Law

The spiritual and moral commands of the law are largely in view this section. These commands are those pertaining to the believer’s spiritual relationship with God and their relationships with other people.

The law is not nullified . . .

Rom 3:31  Do we then nullify the law through faith? Absolutely not! Instead we uphold the law. NET

In saying that by faith “we uphold the law”, Paul is probably meaning that the way of faith validates the law. As such, Paul is probably speaking of either: faith showing the law to play a key role in God’s plan of salvation, such as in regard to awareness of sin; or faith providing the way of fulfilling the law’s demands (cf. NCV, NLT) thus showing the law’s demands to be legitimate.

. . . The law is still good

1Tim 1:8  We know that the Law is good, if it is used in the right way. CEV

Note that the subsequent verses (vv. 9–11) speak of the law’s use for governing and condemning the ungodly. The following subsections speak further of how to use the law properly.

The primary purpose of the law is to make people aware of sin

Rom 3:20  For no one is declared righteous before him by the works of the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin. NET

Rom 7:7  [PAUL:] Shall we say, then, that the Law itself is sinful? Of course not! But it was the Law that made me know what sin is. If the Law had not said, “Do not desire what belongs to someone else,” I would not have known such a desire. GNT

The spiritual and moral commands of the law are still to be obeyed

Matt 5:18–19  [JESUS:] I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth pass away not the smallest letter or stroke of a letter will pass [away] from the law until everything takes place. 19 So anyone who breaks one of the least of these commands and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever obeys them and teaches others to do so will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. NET

Most likely Jesus had the moral commands of the law primarily in view, with a number of them being the subject of his subsequent teaching (cf. vv. 21–48).

The law’s principles – such as love, justice and mercy – are of central importance, above its rules

Matt 22:35–40 And one of them, an expert in religious law, asked him a question to test him: 36 “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” 37 Jesus said to him, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 The second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ 40 All the law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” NET

Matt 23:23 [Jesus:] Woe to you, experts in the law and you Pharisees, hypocrites! You give a tenth of mint, dill, and cumin, yet you neglect what is more important in the law – justice, mercy, and faithfulness! You should have done these things without neglecting the others. NET

The Pharisees had gone to extreme measures in their tithing, which was one aspect of the law, but had overlooked basic principles of the law.

How is the Old Testament law relevant to Christians?
State at least two of the spiritual commands of the law (e.g. laws concerning how we relate to God) that are still to be obeyed.

II. Key Elements of the New Order

Through Jesus Christ’s mission God enhanced his relationship with his people and the world. Two defining aspects of this new order are God’s new covenant with his own people and the kingdom of God.

As well as having instituted these two things in his mission, Jesus Christ continues to play a key role in both of them. Jesus Christ’s role as high priest is arguably the central aspect of God’s new covenant with his people. Jesus Christ’s reign as Lord of all things involves reigning over the kingdom of God. Additionally, his reign extends to reigning over all things that are as yet to be subjugated to God’s kingdom, which awaits consummation.
a) God’s New Covenant

See also:

▪ c) God’s Covenant with Israel and the Law, Ch. 8

For a discussion of the term “covenant”, see the introductory comment on II. Key Old Testament Covenants, Ch. 8. Note that in addition to a number of the following subsections, the superiority of God’s new covenant with his people to that of the old covenant (or first covenant) which God made with Israel is further illustrated in the following section – Jesus Christ as High Priest, p. 20. It discusses the advantages of Jesus Christ’s priesthood of the new covenant over the priesthood of the old covenant.

The first covenant (with its priesthood and law) was inadequate and superseded by the superior new covenant – through Jesus Christ . . .

Heb 8:6–7, 13 But now Jesus has obtained a superior ministry [to the priests’ ministry], since the covenant that he mediates is also better [than the first covenant] and is enacted on better promises. 7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, no one would have looked for a second one. . . . 13 When he [God] speaks of a new covenant, he makes the first obsolete. Now what is growing obsolete and aging is about to disappear. NET

The covenant which God made with Israel proved inadequate as Israel could not keep the covenant (by obeying its law) and consequently could not be righteous before God. But God has abolished the old covenant and introduced a superior new covenant – mediated by Jesus Christ in his mission.

. . . Components of the first covenant were merely a shadow of what was to come in the new covenant

Heb 10:1 For the law possesses a shadow of the good things to come but not the reality itself, and is therefore completely unable, by the same sacrifices offered continually, year after year, to perfect those who come to worship. NET
Jesus Christ’s blood ratified the new covenant

Luke 22:20  And in the same way he [Jesus] took the cup after they had eaten, saying, “This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.”

At the “last supper” Jesus used a cup of wine to symbolize his blood that would be shed (cf. Matt 26:28). The shedding of Jesus Christ’s blood in his death made it possible for people’s sins to be forgiven and so opened the way for the new relationship/covenant between God and his people. As the new covenant is made possible and instituted through Christ’s death, the shedding of his blood in effect ratified the new covenant – just as the sprinkling of “the blood of the covenant” by Moses ceremonially confirmed the old covenant (cf. Ex 24:6–8).

The new covenant is everlasting

Heb 13:20  Now may the God of peace who by the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus Christ, ...

The new covenant is spiritual: It is of the Holy Spirit; . . .

2Cor 3:5–6  [Paul:] Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, “who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit.” For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The “letter” denotes the law. One partakes of the new covenant not through obeying the law but through being transformed by and living by the Holy Spirit.

. . . and it is internal

Jer 31:33a  “But I will make a new covenant with the whole nation of Israel after I plant them back in the land,” says the LORD. “I will put my law within them and write it on their hearts and minds.”

Under the new covenant God’s laws have become internal principles, not just commands from an external source. Bear in mind that the reference to “Israel” (cf. Heb 8:10 ) is applicable to the new people of God, inclusive of Gentiles.
Under the new covenant God’s people know him and are forgiven

Heb 8:10–12  “For this is the covenant that I will establish with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and I will inscribe them on their hearts. And I will be their God and they will be my people. And there will be no need at all for each one to teach his countryman or each one to teach his brother saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ since they will all know me, from the least to the greatest. “For I will be merciful toward their evil deeds, and their sins I will remember no longer.”

This is a quotation from Jeremiah 31:31–34 (cf. Jer 31:33a). Verses 11–12 show that under God’s new covenant, all God’s people know him and their sins are truly forgiven. Note that v. 10b speaks of the new covenant also fulfilling a primary aim of the old covenant – “I will be their God and they will be my people” (cf. Jer 24:7).

What do you like better about the new covenant in comparison to the old one? Why?

b) Jesus Christ as High Priest

See also:
- d) Epilogue: God’s People Relate to God through Jesus Christ, Ch. 16

In the replacement of God’s old covenant with Israel by God’s new covenant with all who are now his people, the Levitical priesthood of the old covenant has been replaced by Jesus Christ’s superior priesthood of the new covenant.

Jesus Christ is the high priest of God’s people – representing them before God in the superior heavenly sanctuary

Heb 8:1b–2 [The writer, to believers:] We have such a high priest, one who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, a minister in the sanctuary and the true tabernacle that the Lord, not man, set up. NET

Heb 9:24 [The writer, to believers:] For the Messiah did not go into a sanctuary made by human hands and just a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in God’s presence on our behalf. ISV

The term “sanctuary” refers to the place of God’s presence. This was signified in Israel by the tabernacle and then later the temple, in particular by the Most Holy Place within them. In actuality God of course primarily dwells in heaven, and it is in this sanctuary that Jesus Christ ministers as high priest.

Jesus Christ was appointed by God as high priest forever, in the superior priestly order of Melchizedek

Heb 7:17 For here is the testimony about him: “You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.” NET

Genesis 14:18–20 tells of Abraham meeting with Melchizedek, who was king of Salem (which would become Jerusalem). It refers to Melchizedek as “priest of God Most High”, indicating he was a priest and worshipper of the LORD. Hebrews 7:1–10 shows Melchizedek’s spiritual superiority to both Abraham and the Levitical priesthood of the old covenant that came from Abraham, the priests being Abraham’s descendants. One aspect of this is that because no account is given of Melchizedek’s ancestry, birth or death, he is understood to have an everlasting priesthood.

Previous sacrifices offered by priests were ultimately ineffective in dealing with sin . . .

Heb 10:11 And every priest stands day after day serving and offering the same sacrifices again and again — sacrifices that can never take away sins.

. . . As high priest, Jesus Christ sacrificed for sin once and for all

Heb 10:12–14 But when this priest had offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, he sat down at the right hand of God, 13 where he is now waiting until his enemies are made a footstool for his feet. 14 For by one offering he has perfected for all time those who are made holy.

As high priest, Jesus Christ continues to intercede for God’s people

Heb 7:25 So he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.

1Jn 2:1 [John, to believers:] I am writing this to you, my children, so that you will not sin; but if anyone does sin, we have someone who pleads with the Father on our behalf—Jesus Christ, the righteous one.

In his ongoing priestly ministry for God’s people, Jesus Christ continues to intercede before God for them, speaking to God on their behalf.

Jesus Christ is a high priest who is perfect — but can still identify with his people’s humanity

Heb 7:26 [The writer, to believers:] For it is indeed fitting for us to have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

Heb 4:15–16 [The writer, to believers:] For we do not have a high priest incapable of sympathizing with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in every way just as we are, yet without sin. 16 Therefore let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and find grace whenever we need help.

Jesus Christ is a high priest who is himself perfect (cf. Heb 7:26 †; 4:15b †). As such Jesus Christ was able to offer himself as the perfect sacrifice and is able to remain always in God’s presence to represent his people. On the other hand, Jesus Christ is also a high priest who can identify with his people’s humanity (cf. 4:15 †). As such, being perfect yet empathetic, Jesus Christ is a high priest who will meet his people’s needs (cf. 4:16 †).

What does Jesus Christ do in his ongoing role as high priest? How is this encouraging for you?

c) The Kingdom of God

NT teaching on the kingdom of God (or the kingdom of heaven) follows on from OT teaching on God’s reign or kingship (cf. God Reigns Supreme, Ch. 7). It indicates that Jesus Christ’s coming inaugurated a more far-reaching, spiritual dimension of God’s reign. Its domain is in the hearts and minds of those who submit to God. This kingdom of God also has both a present and future dimension – existing now, but only being fully consummated at the end of the age. Then God’s authority will be fully imposed in all spheres of existence – once and for all.

The kingdom of God came in Jesus Christ’s mission

MATT 12:28 [JESUS:] But when I force out demons by the power of God’s Spirit, it proves that God’s kingdom has already come to you. CEV

MARK 1:14–15 Now after John was imprisoned, Jesus went into Galilee and proclaimed the gospel of God. 15He said, “The time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the gospel!” NET

With Jesus’ mission, the time had come for the kingdom of God to “come near” (NRSV).

The kingdom of God will come in all its fullness in the future

LUKE 21:31 [JESUS, TO HIS DISCIPLES:] So also you, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. NET

The phrase “these things” refers to signs of the end of the age.

The spiritual nature of the kingdom of God

LUKE 17:20b–21 [JESUS:] “The Kingdom of God does not come in such a way as to be seen. 21No one will say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or, ‘There it is!’; because the Kingdom of God is within you.” GNT

The final clause of v. 21 probably means that God’s kingdom is within the hearts of its people (cf. CEV text note), indicative of its spiritual nature.
The dynamism and power of the kingdom of God

Mark 4:26–29 He [Jesus] also said, “The kingdom of God is like someone who spreads seed on the ground. 27He goes to sleep and gets up, night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. 28By itself the soil produces a crop, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. 29And when the grain is ripe, he sends in the sickle because the harvest has come.” NET

The growth of God’s kingdom is not dependent on human effort (v. 28a) and is in fact beyond human comprehension (v. 27b). This illustrates its dynamism and power.

1Cor 4:20 For the kingdom of God is demonstrated not in idle talk but with power. NET

God’s kingdom “consists of and is based on” (AMP) spiritual power – not talk.

The great cost of participating in the kingdom of God

Matt 13:44–46 The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure, hidden in a field, that a person found and hid. Then because of joy he went and sold all that he had and bought that field. 45”Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. 46When he found a pearl of great value, he went out and sold everything he had and bought it.” NET

Although some commentators have a somewhat different understanding, both these parables seem to be essentially illustrating the absolute cost of the kingdom of God; one must be prepared to forgo everything for it. Note the joy in doing so that is apparent in v. 44.

Those who will enter the kingdom of God

Matt 7:21 [Jesus:] Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter into the kingdom of heaven – only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven. NET

Matt 18:1–4 At that time the disciples came to Jesus saying, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” 2He called a child, had him stand among them, 3and said, “I tell you the truth, unless you turn around and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven! Whoever then humbles himself like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. NET

Similarly in Mark 10:15 Jesus says, “...whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.” These verses refer to the humility, trust and receptiveness of little children, characteristics which are required to believe Jesus’ message and enter God’s kingdom.

Note: The kingdom of God is also the kingdom of Jesus Christ

* Eph 5:5 For you can be confident of this one thing: that no person who is immoral, impure, or greedy (such a person is an idolater) has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. NET

As shown in the following section, Jesus Christ as Lord of All, God has granted authority over all things to Jesus Christ. This includes authority over his kingdom (cf. Luke 22:29). Thus the kingdom can be referred to as being of God and also as being of Jesus Christ.

Describe the kingdom of God as if you were explaining it to a new believer?

The kingdom of God is the most common theme in Jesus’ teaching. If it is true that it is not so prominent in Christian teaching today, why is this so? Are we to some extent overlooking aspects of it?

d) Jesus Christ as Lord of All

God has made Jesus Christ Lord of all things, to rule over all creation on God’s behalf.

The NT speaks of Jesus Christ’s lordship as being initiated or affirmed, in him being pronounced Lord of all upon his post-resurrection exaltation to God’s right hand. However, note that some verses suggest that in some sense at least he was Lord of all things prior to this, speaking of his prior power or authority over all things.

Following his resurrection, God exalted Jesus Christ to his right hand . . .

EPH 1:20 This power he exercised in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms ...

NET

In seating Jesus Christ at his right hand, God exalted Jesus Christ in honor and authority above every other being.

. . . and God made Jesus Christ Lord of all

ACTS 10:36 You know the message he [God] sent to the people of Israel, proclaiming the Good News of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.

GNT

PHIL 2:9–11 As a result [of Jesus being obedient and dying] God exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow – in heaven and on earth and under the earth – and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

NET

Verses 10–11 speak of all people in the future acknowledging Jesus Christ’s status, which itself is a current reality.

God has given Jesus Christ authority and power over all things

MAT 28:18 Then Jesus came up and said to them [his disciples], “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.”

NET

PHIL 3:20 Our Lord Jesus Christ has power over everything, and he will make these poor bodies of ours like his own glorious body.

CEV
God has entrusted everything to Jesus Christ – and made him heir of all things

John 3:35  The Father loves the Son and has put everything in his hands.  ISV

Heb 1:1–2  [The writer, to Jewish believers:] Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.  ESV

Jesus Christ has power over all other powers

Col 2:10  [Paul, to believers:] And you have been brought to fullness in him [Christ], who is the head of every ruler and authority.  ISV

Jesus Christ’s power extends over death

Rev 1:18  [Jesus:] I am the One who lives; I was dead, but look, I am alive forever and ever!  And I hold the keys to death and to the place of the dead.  NCV™

As the holder of the keys of death and the place of the dead, Jesus Christ has total authority over their domain – including authority over who goes in and out of them, and when.

In the end, all Jesus Christ’s enemies will be made his footstool – totally conquered

Heb 10:12–13  *But when this priest [Christ] had offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, he sat down at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made a footstool for his feet.  NET

Why do you think that God has given Jesus Christ authority and power over all things?
